

The Secret History of the International Court of Justice
VII

The third International Court of Justice trial over the suspect

I-B

The following reconstructs the operation of Homeland Security CO chief and the Secret Society women against the “suspect” and the associated International Court of Justice trial from 13 to 29 November, 2015.

The Secret Society women consist of (as of November 2015): ANG (Angelina Le Beau Visage: G), KRN (Kiersten: J), SDW (Maura: M), Dr P (Petterson), and the German Lady (Karin: K). With auxiliary members like Dina B., Aamoy and his LUG buddies, the female victims of the suspect’s vandalism (PD, JW, DRCRR, and others), and so on. Note that, while Russia’s First Daughter Ekaterina (Putina) has been leading the Secret Society women all these years, Homeland Security CO chief is about to pull a strange stunt during this period such that the women gang shall temporarily lose the prominent Russian daughter as their leader.

The following is the rewrite of the original “The third ICJ trial over the suspect, Part I”, originally composed in Dec. 2015 – Feb. 2016. The original version, with the file name of “Prelude17d.pdf” (last dated 04.07.2019), can still be found in the same folder.

In the foregoing we have seen that, after the TMU has rejected ANG’s stalking claim along with the Homeland Security warning about the suspect – so that the CIA is again ready to reactivate the previous ICJ trial – the French come to the rescue of Homeland Security and the Russians. But, as the French want to raise the claim about the suspect’s new found obsession with Marine and demand access to the suspect’s latest writing about her, the TMU/ CIA refuses saying that the suspect’s love for America’s enemy is straightforward and that he’s thus again using his “terrorist status” as an opportunity to share his ideas with Marine. But the DGSE official insists that Homeland Security has been right about the suspect so that, when he obsesses over Marine and writes about her, he would soon want to harm her. Thus, as is noted in the original version – the only thing that is correct therein:

“The TMU’s profile of the suspect – supported by the CIA – contradicts Homeland Security’s profile and says that the suspect is not dangerous and not a stalker and that, when the suspect likes somebody, he is definitely not a threat to that somebody. The profile affirms that the suspect is ‘traditional’, i.e. when he likes somebody, he wants to benefit the person. Homeland Security’s profile, however, is ‘postmodern’, and, adopting the viewpoints of the Secret Society women, affirms that, when the suspect likes somebody, he wants to hurt her.”

To be noted is only the fact that this “postmodern” profile in fact started with the former Secretary of Homeland Security M. C., and not with the Secret Society women exactly. As shall be seen, the Paris attacks will tremendously help the French in this debate – with which this next chapter shall begin.

We may succinctly summarize the following course of events in this way:

- (1) On 13 November, desperate to help Homeland Security CO chief save his warning about the suspect in the ICJ, the Secret Society women meet with the DA, but no use. However, the Paris attacks then enable the French to save the said warning for the time being.
- (2) On 15 November, the Partisans of the FN establish the suspect as the “stalker” of their president Marine – the Homeland Security warning is saved again.
- (3) The suspect, in order to complain about his victimization, gets on “Legal Beagles” (LB) and starts participating in the men’s rights movement online.
- (4) Despite the help of the LB Admin and the Partisans, the Secret Society women are unable to get the TMU to reconsider the Homeland Security warning.
- (5) On 18 November, with the help of JW, the Secret Society women turn to the Manhattan Beach Police Department for a third party verification of the Homeland Security warning about the suspect.
- (6) By 24 November, the Manhattan Beach Police Department has rejected the Homeland Security warning – twice.
- (7) By 29 November, Homeland Security CO chief has entered a new claim in the ICJ – that the suspect intends to help Russia harm the United States. The alliance between Homeland Security and the Russian government since late 2010 is thus formally broken. (Such is the “strange stunt” mentioned.) Homeland Security CO chief hopes in this way to obtain, from the rest of the US national security Establishment, support for his project of getting a third party to verify his warning about the suspect and preventing the CIA from reactivating the previous ICJ trial at his expense. Then the LB Admin helps the Secret Society women compile complaints for the next law enforcement agency.

Finally, the new convention should be noted. IP addresses that are traced during the rewrite (i.e. more than 6 years later) will simply be marked with * instead of being noted in a footnote.

13 November (Friday)

First, a note about suspect. He wakes up early and arrives in Chrysalis on 9:30 AM. Tanisha is not available. Although sleepy, the suspect goes to Starbucks, Westwood. A “pyramid” is sitting next to the suspect, eventually doing make-up. Not friendly. The suspect is very agitated while in Starbucks: no restroom.

Now let’s examine the Secret Society women’s operation. While the volunteers will continue to brainstorm how to prove to any authority that the Homeland Security warning about the suspect is accurate, the Secret Society women, as noted, are meeting with the DA today in order to get the DA to both add a new stalking charge to the vandalism case and produce the evidence which Homeland Security CO chief needs in the ICJ (that his warning about the suspect is all correct.) Thus, the volunteer's actions: 4:14 AM, Orange Espana, Barcelona, Spain.

Now, the Secret Society women's appointment with the DA is probably around 11 AM. The most important question is of course whether the Secret Society women have decided to show the DA the Homeland Security warning about the suspect. We shall assume that they did. Again, since it's very likely that ANG has decided to lie about the sting operation which the TMU has instructed her to run on the suspect on 2 November, she would begin thusly:

"He stalks me..." There is no evidence for that, since the sting operation has failed. However, ANG hopes to persuade the DA with her heart-wrenching story: "He stalks me because he's obsessed with me. And, when he gets obsessed with a woman, he would develop, out of his paranoid schizophrenia, this delusion about her being part of some government conspiracy against him in some International Court trial. Look, he once even files this bizarre lawsuit against me. He would then write about this 'conspiracy' and put it on his website to slander me and embarrass me." She would then point to the Homeland Security warning about the suspect and produce, as an example, the document "The Cheney Plan". But there is no evidence that the "Pyramid" on it refers to her. ANG would thus produce all her colleagues from the Law Library, such as Ana V., who would testify that the suspect used to call ANG "Pyramid". (ANG would of course have to carefully advise the DA not to look at the suspect's blog, where he confesses just lately that "Pyramid" does not refer to her.) ANG would then continue to claim how terrified she is of the suspect because he, when he notices strange visits that might or might not have come from her and her friends, would develop, due to his paranoid schizophrenia and persecution mania, this secondary delusional belief that ANG has formed a Secret Society with some other women to make false reports about him to law enforcement. She wants the DA to not only add a stalking charge, but also put the suspect away without bail and send him directly to a state mental hospital. He is just too much a danger to her, with his habit of stalking her, obsessing over her, and believing her to be part of some government conspiracy to go after him.

ANG then describes how she has found the other women who are also described in the suspect's voluminous writings on the government conspiracy against him, and presents the German Lady, Dr P, KRN, and SDW to the DA. (Veronica and Aamoy should also be present.) They all describe the same thing: how the suspect becomes obsessed with them, then stalks them (in the case of SDW, cyberstalks her and her family members), then believes that they are part of some government conspiracy against him (part of some CIA and Homeland Security operations with the involvement of the Russian and Chinese intelligence services, etc.), then writes about it online to slander and embarrass them, and now believes that they have formed a secret organization to make false reports about him to law enforcement. The German Lady would produce her 2008 restraining order against the suspect to prove that he is so delusional that he believes she and her meetup friends were under government direction to file false reports about him to law enforcement. They all ask for the same thing: on the next court day, to lock up the suspect and never let him out on bail but send him deep into the state mental hospital, and then remove his website.

Aamoy would then add that he also feels threatened by the suspect, since the suspect has developed this weird delusional belief that he is helping this woman named "Kiersten" (KRN) to go after him. The women then produce more of their evidences: several chapters describing a bizarre CIA, MSS, SVR, and ICJ business; several blog posts about the suspect's obsessions with the German Lady and SDW; and several documents narrating how these women have formed a secret gang to go after him (visiting his website and making false reports about him to law enforcement). They then also produce the letter which the suspect has once written to the North Korean ambassador to the UN, the lawsuit he has filed against Mr Frakov, and the letter he has written to the UN High Commissioner on Refugees. They add: "He wrote all these crazy letters and filed this crazy lawsuit, like the ones he has filed against us, because he so believes in his schizophrenic delusions that he can't possibly be dissuaded therefrom. And he would act on them." Then ANG would lie: "I believe he is currently stalking me because he is acting out his delusional belief about me. Please, I am in danger. Please tell the judge and put him behind bars without the possibility of getting out."

Even given such persuasive argument, however, the DA still feels that the evidences are insufficient. If he's looking at the Homeland Security warning about the suspect, did he raise doubt as to whether it is really describing the suspect? Desperate, the German Lady directs the DA to look at the suspect's website for himself. The German Lady, the only person among the Secret Society women who has studied the suspect's writings and recordings from the HK Hacker's cache, knows exactly where to direct the DA: to the webpage hosting the lawsuit the suspect has once filed against Mr Frakov. Thus, from 11:27 to 11:35 AM, there are these visits to the suspect's website from the DA's office: pc9627.temp2.co.la.ca.us, Los Angeles County Internal Service Division:

How the suspect has plagiarized his theory on linear perspective. At the same time, the DA has returned to the front page:

159.83.252.230 - - [13/Nov/2015:12:34:30 -0700] "GET /dot_clear.gif HTTP/1.1" 404 1360 "http://www.lawrencechin2011.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (compatible; MSIE 10.0; Windows NT 6.1; Trident/6.0)"

The German Lady now directs him to click on:

159.83.252.230 - - [13/Nov/2015:12:34:41 -0700] "GET /newssummaryweb.html HTTP/1.1" 200 68269 "http://www.lawrencechin2011.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (compatible; MSIE 10.0; Windows NT 6.1; Trident/6.0)"

There are simply nothing incriminating at all in the first three recordings – these are the wrong files as the German Lady tries to find the exact recording she wants the DA to listen to. Thus, in the last recording, the DA could hear that even the suspect’s best friend was accusing him of falsely suspecting him of making false reports to law enforcement. Then, after the DA has listened to the recording for three minutes, the German Lady directs him back to the front page to look at “The story behind...” The Secret Society women also want to remind him that the suspect is so deluded that he even believes there are chips planted in his brain. The fact that the women have not visited this webpage and listened to the recordings here in the past week – have not rehearsed the discovery of this section – is indication that the German Lady has come up with this on the spur of the moment, because the DA is not inclined to accept the five women’s claims (and regard the Homeland Security warning as valid). The situation is very bad for the suspect, of course, because the DA is not familiar with the circumstances under which the conversations took place. The German Lady has purposely selected fragments from the suspect’s website and taken them out of context so that they could become completely unintelligible and look like evidence for the suspect’s grave insanity. While there was no false reporting back in 2008, there was false reporting in 2013 and 2014. The German Lady has understood well that people can only understand black-and-white pictures: that they would assume that, if somebody was wrong at one time, he must be wrong all the time. In reality, right now, the three women are making false reports to the DA. In any case, did the DA accept the Secret Society women’s request?

And so, after more than an hour, the Secret Society women's meeting with the DA continues. The German Lady now wants to show the DA the suspect's video showing him drawing her. What's so harmful about that? Nothing. And so the Secret Society women invoke the requirement listed on the Homeland Security warning about the suspect prohibiting the DA from looking at the suspect's website himself. The women have thus persuaded the DA to allow them to call in this scout to visit the suspect's website for him and tell him what else is on this grotesque website. This scout from Andrews University is probably lying, making up horror stories about what he has seen. Since he is a university student, the four women have probably thought he would make a credible witness to the DA.

3:55 PM, the suspect, after discovering his request for an account has been approved, posts his first message on the Partisans' forum to introduce himself:

Un admirateur de Marine à étranger se présente:

Salut tous les frontistes!

Je me suis inscrit hier, tout nouveau, et donc, je me vous présente.

Je n'habite pas en France, mais en Californie. Je suis ici parce que, depuis [que] je commence à étudier les pensées et la politique de Marine il y a quelques mois, et surtout depuis [que] j'ai lu le nouveau livre de Marine, Pour que vive la France, le mois dernier, elle m'a complètement inspiré.

J'ai une fois étudié en Belgique et en Québec, et donc Je parle français.

Pourquoi toute cette admiration? Moi, ici, aux États-Unis, je pense, depuis long temps, à recréer un mouvement de gauche combattant la mondialisation. Il était surprenant de trouver les convergences idéologiques avec quelqu'une qu'on considère 'l'extrême droite'. Effectivement, je suis, à ce moment, en train d'étudier tous les mouvements d'extrême droite en Europe, pour comprendre la lutte européenne contre la mondialisation et le projet de l'Union Européenne.

Inutile d'expliquer toutes les raisons qui m'apportent ici. J'ai écrit un petit essai pour expliquer les convergences idéologiques entre les réformations que je souhaite un jour faire réaliser dans tous les mouvements de gauches partout dans le monde, et les programmes que Marine a adoptés pour le mouvement de droite du FN:

<http://www.lawrencechin2011.com/lepen3/lepen3l.pdf>. (Désolé: cette pièce, écrit en anglais dans la plus part, semble parfois fonctionner comme une lettre ouverte à Marine, avec les suggestions qu'on souhaite faire adopter un jour par le FN.)

Je suis, donc, pour me présenter à vous les frontistes, un étudiant étranger parmi vous, qui souhaite apprendre de l'étoile montant en la politique française. On admire Marine surtout parce qu'on souffre beaucoup ici, en Californie, de la 'politiquement correct'.

On admire Marine de l'étranger aussi parce qu'on est convaincu que Marine, si élue le Présidente en 2017, va complètement changer le monde, à cause de la position spécifique et importante de la France. Marine va sauver le monde, on ose le dire. On n'en est convaincu. Marine ne donc concerne pas seulement la France, mais le monde [entier].

Je suis ici pour connaître les discours, les discussions, les pensées, et les luttes des frontistes en France.

J'espère être bienvenu parmi vous, même si je ne peux pas voter dans les prochaines élections pour Marine.

The suspect has no idea that he is falling into the DGSE's trap – and, more importantly, that terrorist attacks are in progress in Paris right at this moment.

Has this volunteer been here before? Let's come back to the Secret Society women themselves for a moment – for this Moncton volunteer's visit might signal something new. It appears that the DA didn't grant ANG her request to add a stalking charge. In fact, the entire project of the Secret Society women has failed because the DA is so angered by their nonsense that he actually throws them out of his office. Thus, Homeland Security CO chief is in serious trouble: his attempt to finally collect some favorable evidence into the ICJ has completely backfired. The reasons seem to be that Aamoy and/ or his LUG crew, acting as law enforcement informants and getting instructions beforehand from the TMU (and thus from the CIA), have purposely steered the women's argument toward nonsense in order to sabotage Homeland Security CO chief's objective of getting the DA to confirm his warning about the suspect as valid. (More on this later.).

As noted, while the suspect is making his introduction at Partisans, massive terrorist attacks are in progress in Paris. Because of the seriousness of the matter, the French consular protection service demands once again access to the suspect's "Marine Essay" and everything else: the French have every right to look into every lead at a time like this (when, that is, the suspect remains listed as a "terrorist" in terrorist databases). But everybody on the US side (the TMU and the CIA) still refuses. The debate between the US parties on one side and the French on the other thus intensifies after the Paris attacks. The TMU/ CIA continues to insist that the suspect is using his (fake) "terrorist" status as an opportunity to share his writings with those anti-American politicians whom he admires such as Marine. Conspiracy, or violation of the "spirit of the law". But the French finally have their way – perhaps after appealing to other US bureaucrats in the State Department and so on. And so, once the operation is authorized, the DGSE official in question instructs the Secret Society women to first send in a volunteer – the Moncton volunteer – to take a look at the suspect's front page. Once it is ascertained that the "Marine Essay" is indeed on the front page, he then instructs the Secret Society women to send in another volunteer, four minutes later, to fetch the essay in question: 8:28 PM, cpe-124-178-169-125.lns3.wel.bigpond.net.au, Thornlie, Australia.

The third ICJ trial over the suspect, I-B
Lawrence C. Chin
Feb. 2016; rewritten, Mar. 2022

The search terms are most likely “Lawrence Chin, Marine Le Pen”:

The Secret Society women must be euphoric: less than 8 hours after they have flunked so badly, the French appear to save them. In fact, given the suspect’s irrelevance to the Paris attacks, the French consular protection service’s real motive is obviously – just as back in February – to help Homeland Security CO chief prevent the CIA from reactivating the previous ICJ trial. (The fact that a foreign government has requested information about the suspect during a terrorist attack Homeland Security CO chief can certainly use as evidence in the ICJ suggesting that his profile of the suspect is all correct.) The suspect, when he checks his log from home hours later, of course knows right away that this is the work of the Secret Society women: the document was uploaded less than three days ago and couldn’t even yet be found through Google searches. He assumes (wrongly) that the Secret Society women have wanted this document because they believe that a single statement in the document about the ICJ (that the FN will come to power thanks to an ICJ judgment, given his arrest) could serve as proof that his schizophrenic delusion about the “government conspiracy against him” is an ongoing affair and has never subsided.

Note that the suspect, frightened by the DA’s earlier visits, has spent the whole day writing out his latest blog post. He then goes home around 8:30 PM. He believes falsely for a while that the TMU has warned the DA and arrested the gang. Ha! When he’s home, he calls up Mike. He is now quite agitated, having awakened from his “delusion”.¹

1 Recording of the night: “IMPhmMike_11_13_15_723PM.MP3”: Reviewed from 4:17:00 onward. The suspect is walking home mumbling: “Marine va sauver le monde.” 4:23:20, he is at home. 4:27:45, he leaves a message for Mike: “I hope I can make it tonight.” He also calls Stephanie, but the mailbox is full. 4:32:30, Mike calls back. The suspect explains why he is frightened to death: the Secret Society women have gone to the DA today. Did the DA accept the argument? Mike: “How do you know the visit comes from the DA?” He is skeptical. The suspect continues to emphasize how bad the situation is while Mike continues to be incredulous.

Are the Secret Society women now reporting the suspect to the French? With the participation of Shizuka? In any case, Shizuka has probably just joined the discussion.

10:52 PM, the suspect posts on his blog the post you see for 14 November: "The warning about the Secret Society's latest move to remove this website, Part II". This includes all his reconstruction of the Secret Society women's operations up to their meeting with the DA today. Again, he has spent the whole day on this because he believes his knowledge of the Secret Society women's plan will prevent them from implementing it any further. (He doesn't know that his understanding is not quite correct.)

Now, let's look at the suspect for a moment. It is only when he wakes up and checks the news that he discovers what happened in Paris yesterday. Then, around noon, he is at the storage. He puts in DVD-490. Then, in downtown. 3:06 PM, when the suspect calls up his best friend W, the latter actually answers the phone. He hasn't spoken to his best friend W ever since his release from jail. The latter has never responded to any of his calls for two months – it thus appears that W is instructed by both the CIA and Homeland Security to answer his call so that both sides can try to obtain their respective evidences for their debate in the ICJ (now that Homeland Security CO chief has just obtained favorable evidence last night thanks to the French). (Of course everybody has already obtained the prediction from the control center that the suspect will call W on 3:06 PM and so already informed W to get ready to pick up the phone at that moment.) Here are the details of the conversation (from 2:01:00 onward): (1) W has refused to talk to the suspect in order to avoid being recorded. W is terribly confused saying that the suspect has said in the email that he continues to post the recordings of their conversations on his website. Or pretends to be confused: W is clearly carrying out an operation for Homeland Security CO chief: Homeland Security CO chief continues to try to make the suspect appear as a "criminal recorder" in the intercept of this conversation because he is still trying to ban the suspect's recordings as evidence in the ICJ (so that the CIA will not be able to use the suspect's recordings as evidence to prove his warning false). But the suspect doesn't get this right away but instead insists that the recording of the conversation is not going on his website. W suggests that everybody is confused because everybody is drunk, while the suspect is regarded as insane and is frustrated because he is the only person not drunk. This is a perfect example to illustrate America's status as the "Opposite Land". (2) The suspect talks about the Secret Society women's meeting with the DA yesterday. (3) Why the Social Security Administration continued to deposit money in the suspect's bank account during his imprisonment. (4) The bias in the criminal justice system: everyone automatically assumes the guy is the bad one and the victimizer and the girl the innocent snow white victim. (Again, the suspect doesn't quite understand that the injustice he has suffered is due more to the Homeland Security warning about him than to American society's sexism against males.) The suspect feels endangered: he's about to be exterminated. (5) The Secret Society women need evidence of the suspect's current engrossment in his schizophrenic delusions. That's why they need the "Marine Essay" (2:18:00). (The suspect is wrong!) (6) The suspect then describes his current "paranoid schizophrenic delusion" about the ICJ trial. The FN will come to power per an ICJ judgment. There will be "regime change" in France. But the CIA is co-victim with the Russians. There is thus a conflict of interest among the victims about whether the FN should come to power. The "regime change" in Poland last week. Not sure whether it is related to the (previous) ICJ trial at all. (7) About Marine's book. Marine, a "half-way" philosopher. Her theory is very similar to the suspect's, very similar to critical theories. (8) Massive terrorist attacks just before the suspect posted on the Partisans'. Why is the FN going to win the first round but not the second? (9) The suspect asks W to not help the Secret Society women secure the needed evidence about the current state of his insane mind. (Again, nonsense.) (10) The FN's connections with the Russians. (11) The suspect fears being "blacklisted".

The third ICJ trial over the suspect, I-B
Lawrence C. Chin
Feb. 2016; rewritten, Mar. 2022

The single most important statement in this conversation – other than W’s false accusation in the very beginning – is certainly W’s exclamation that the Paris attacks will help the FN, to which the suspect makes no reply. Did W say this for the sake of the Invisible Hand or for the sake of Homeland Security CO chief? For the former, most likely. It is perhaps the Invisible Hand’s attempt to obtain evidence to support his argument that the suspect is again using his “terrorist” status to benefit America’s enemy, this time as a way to share his ideas with them.

Then, both the Russians and Homeland Security CO chief must have jumped on the suspect’s wrong scenario about how the previous ICJ trial has continued as evidence that he is indeed a schizophrenic – specifically that he has developed more delusions about the FN and their president, precisely in accordance with Homeland Security’s warning about him ever since 2007. Meanwhile, the CIA would argue again that all this is merely wrong inference and not the same as true delusion. Nonetheless, the suspect’s wrong theory about the FN – in addition to Homeland Security CO chief’s momentary success in banning the suspect’s recordings from the ICJ evidentiary record – should have temporarily enabled the man to prevent the Invisible Hand from reactivating the previous ICJ trial.

What remains unclear is whether the French diplomatic mission has entered their own claim in the ICJ alleging that the CIA is not obeying UN Resolution 1373 by refusing to allow them access to the suspect’s writings. It’s thus unclear whether the foregoing visits by volunteers to the suspect’s website represent their reports to the French diplomatic mission in order to confirm for the latter that Homeland Security has always been right about the suspect (e.g., that he is indeed a plagiarizer).

Now, let’s return to the volunteers’ visits to the suspect’s website. 3:09 PM,

Now, let's return to the suspect. After his conversation with W, he stays in Casbah. By 4:45 PM, he has sent another email to Ms Warren: it's his reconstruction of ANG's argument yesterday with the DA. Then, the Democratic Presidential Debate. Then he goes home. By night, he would suspect that the Secret Society women have instructed W to record the earlier phone call and then leave the recording somewhere online, pretending to defend himself against the suspect's (imaginary) framing. The Secret Society women will then send their online friends to pretend to find the recording by accident, and then to find the women themselves by accident. The Secret Society women will then bring the recording to the DA as evidence proving that the suspect is still currently engrossed in his schizophrenic delusions. The women might want to do this for other reasons as well. In the conversation, the suspect recalls, W has pretended to react very negatively to his once putting up the recordings of their conversations online. If the DA swallows the show, he will put into his complaint the erroneous description that the suspect likes to criminally record people's conversations and then put the recordings online. This will further motivate the judge to order that all the materials the suspect has ever put online be removed when he should be taken back into custody. If the suspect ever comes to trial in the future with the Secret Society women, it will also be problematic for him to bring to the court as evidences the recordings of his past conversations with them. KRN is especially concerned about this. Since KRN has made up this story about how the suspect has stalked her and harassed her, she's terrified that the recordings of her past conversations with the suspect might prove just the opposite. She's terrified of being found out that the suspect is actually the opposite of how she has described him and that it is she who has stalked him. The Secret Society women are traumatized by their failure in GR's case: how the recording of the assault has contradicted the demonic portrayal which they have prepared of the suspect in GR's defense.

As you can see, the suspect is completely wrong about everything!

Now, back to the volunteers. 9:33 PM,

He is trying to share his latest summary of his business with the Secret Society women with men's rights activists – more on this, later. (Again, it's all because he fails to understand that his predicament has more to do with Homeland Security than with American society's favoritism toward white women that he has decided to turn toward men's rights movement.) However, the post will not be visible until the moderator has approved it.

This mysterious IP address – as shall be seen multiple times later on – seems to belong to Microsoft. What’s going on? Most likely this: by this time, all the Partisans have already seen the Homeland Security warning about the suspect and, given the suspect’s first message on Friday afternoon, the “Marine Essay” intercepted on Friday night, and the suspect’s “delusion” about Marine from yesterday, everyone is ready to make the first complaint on Marine’s behalf. “This guy, listed on American Homeland Security’s watchlist as a dangerous schizophrenic and a stalker of famous people, has become obsessed with our Marine!” After the DGSE and the French diplomatic mission have connected the Partisans up with the Secret Society women – who are listed on the same warning as “experts” on this dangerous schizophrenic terrorist stalker – the women help the Partisans make a first complaint to Microsoft (after sending the Homeland Security warning in question to Microsoft employees): “When you search for our president’s name on your search engine, this schizophrenic terrorist stalker’s ‘essay’ will show up on the search results! This is how he harasses our president: he wants people to think that she has something to do with him.” Nobody of course really cares about the suspect’s essay, but the complaint, and Microsoft’s reaction, will become evidence in the ICJ confirming again the accuracy of the Homeland Security warning under debate – just as the suspect’s “delusion” about Marine did yesterday – so that the CIA can again for the moment be prevented from reactivating the previous ICJ trial and convicting Russia. In other words, the Partisans – certainly already in constant contact with SVR agents – are just working hard to protect Russia here. While Marine’s party is decisively pro-Russia and the DGSE is usually anti-Russia, on this issue – to affirm that

The suspect's plagiarism. This is not a Partisan, is it?

Now, let's consider the suspect. The suspect is at St. Sophia in the morning. During coffee time, he is sitting with Johanna. She seems to be passing "secret messages" to the suspect: Sartre's play ("Huis clos") and Mary Oliver's poem. Let's assume this is what is going on. Yesterday, the TMU, when they have gone to Johanna to interview her, has asked her to produce these two metaphors today in order to test the suspect: has he intentionally "done it again"? Namely, the test result, if positive, will be the CIA's evidence in the ICJ that the suspect has indeed intentionally used the debate over his "terrorist status" as an opportunity to share his ideas with Marine. (That the TMU/ CIA's profile of the suspect is correct.) The test is urgent, for Marine's party has just entered their claim about the suspect's "obsession", "delusions", and "stalking" into the complaint channels of the world's diplomatic missions. But the result of the test seems to be negative: the suspect doesn't appear to know that he is once again the subject of debate in the circle of the world's diplomatic missions and at the International Court of Justice.² After St. Sophia, the suspect goes to Casbah. He begins believing in the wrong scenario. (Paris attacks.) He's even afraid to go home, almost.³

Back to the volunteers. 1:19 PM,

- 2 The recording of the morning: "stsophiacasbah_11_15_15_1027AM.MP3": The suspect arrives in Union Station. On the Metro. 25:00, in Wilshire/ Normandie station. 29:00, in Starbucks. 51:40, on the bus. 1:02:20, in the service. 1:36:00, service done, outside. 1:43:00, with Joseph. 1:45:00, the suspect is telling Johanna about the Secret Society women and the court process. (Her birthday is 28 November.) The FN and the suspect's essay (1:50:00). She asks: "Have you ever seen them in person?" The suspect's fear about getting blacklisted if he's too pro-FN. 2:02:00, about archaeology. 2:08:10, Johanna's great joke. 2:18:00, Johanna's high school education. 2:19:30, Johanna on Sartre. 2:25:30, Johanna reads this poem by Mary Oliver, the truck and the snake. The suspect compares himself to the snake. Johanna: "It's never too late" (2:32:10). 2:37:20, Angela gives the suspect a sweater and the suspect bids Johanna goodbye. 2:44:40, the suspect bids Angela goodbye.
- 3 The recording of the afternoon, at Casbah: "casbah_11_15_15_531PM.MP3": 17:00, Tony shows up. 1:26:00, the woman next to the suspect. 1:58:00, the suspect talks to Stephanie on the phone. She has not been coming to church because her sister is visiting. The suspect tells her about how the "women going after him" were trying to add a new stalking charge in his vandalism case. Then he complains about Ms Warren. The conversation is finished on 2:03:10. (Reviewed until 2:15:00.)

It looks like the AVFM administrator is checking out the suspect's profile which he has just modified (4:12 PM). Almost two minutes later, he clicks on:

And the AVFM administrator (the Elmhurst person) continues:

By this time all the men's rights people at both Antimisandry and AVFM should also have already been alerted by Homeland Security about the suspect. After everyone has seen the Homeland Security warning about the suspect – depicting him as such a ridiculous schizophrenic – no one will certainly take seriously anything he says. Everyone will believe that the suspect has merely imagined up his women victims' going after him – and everyone will be connected up with the Secret Society women via Homeland Security in order to help these poor women victims neutralize the suspect's threat.

The third ICJ trial over the suspect, I-B
Lawrence C. Chin
Feb. 2016; rewritten, Mar. 2022

It's the same old St. John's College volunteer ("Iodhuvicus")!⁴ At the same time:

72.229.37.9 - - [15/Nov/2015:17:55:27 -0700] "GET /scientificenlightenment1/merging_forces.gif HTTP/1.1" 200 6761 "https://www.google.com/"

Chrome/46.0.2490.86 Safari/537.36"

Meanwhile, the St. John's College volunteer clicks on the other search result and comes to the suspect's blog – he would be the first volunteer to discover the suspect's latest blog post "Latest warning, Part II".

Certainly, now that Marine's party has filed their first complaint and both the Partisans and men's rights people have joined the Secret Society women's large online group, it's now time to get law enforcement's validation of the Homeland Security warning about the suspect. Presumably, the Secret Society women want to try again to get the TMU to change their decision. This St. John's College volunteer must be trying to gather some latest evidence – and he has discovered that the suspect has indeed continued to develop new delusions about his women victims' going after him (in confirmation of the Homeland Security warning about him).

At the same time, the suspect is on mensactivism.org. He continues to explore the world of men's rights – not knowing that all his effort is futile.

5:24 PM,

5:37 PM, the suspect has posted his new summary on Legal Beagles – another forum he has just discovered on which there is a special lounge for “men’s rights”. From 6 to 8 PM, he would be checking his post regularly on LB. An ugly white female soon comes in to sit next to him. Given that the Secret Society women would soon afterward notice this posting, it’s very likely that the female who is sitting next to him is actually a member of the Secret Society sent here to spy on him.

Thus, within minutes, the LB Admin has identified the women victims about whom the suspect has developed delusions and whose privacy he has violated (by posting their emails on his website). And she has also witnessed for herself how the suspect has developed delusions about these women's going after him by mistaking people's visits to his website. Then,

This is the email correspondence between the suspect and his best friend W in August 2010. This is not quite relevant to Homeland Security CO chief's current project – to force the TMU to admit that Homeland Security has always been right about the suspect – and so it's not clear whether the LB Admin will be instructed to contact W pretending to be concerned about his safety and privacy. Then, 6 minutes later,

A short ECF Request form. This is of course completely innocuous. But the LB Admin is instructed to download it probably because the contact information listed on it matches that showing up on /blogs/?=author1. Then, 3 minutes later,

While this 2009 email could be used to illustrate the suspect's gross insanity, it's too old. But the LB Admin has downloaded it because it has come up on Google search results. The LB Admin has accomplished her assignment: she has independently verified that everything which Homeland Security has said about the suspect is correct. Even before everyone goes back to the TMU, there is evidence in the ICJ to prevent the CIA from reactivating the previous ICJ trial. Within a single day, the Secret Society women have gained new allies from three sides: the Partisans in France, the men's rights people in the US, and the LB people in the UK.⁷

That is, "The latest warning" (Part I). This Ipswich volunteer is presumably a friend of the LB Admin or one of the LB people. (Recall however the Ipswich volunteer seen on 28 June last year on 5:39 AM and the other Ipswich persons from 2013: are they related?) What has happened is presumably this. After the LB Admin has Googled the suspect's email address, Homeland Security CO chief instructs her to send some sort of warning to everyone's inbox so that the Ipswich volunteer could then click on it. Now, when the suspect sees this on his visitors' log hours later, he would believe, indeed, that a warning has been broadcast to all users on the forum to discredit him (for at least one of them has clicked on the link contained in the warning). (The warning would of course say that the preceding summary the suspect has put up is all but the product of his paranoid imagination.) The suspect is thus pretty close to the truth: Homeland Security has already discredited him to everybody here on the LB forum and the Homeland Security warning about him is currently being passed around warning everyone here that this man is a schizophrenic suffering from paranoid delusions about his women victims' going after him. But what the suspect has completely missed is the objective of all these people that are now gang-stalking him: to force the TMU to validate the Homeland Security warning about him.

8:15 AM, the suspect is finally able to post the same summary on AVFM:

He has no idea that his effort is totally counter-productive: anyone who has seen his summary will merely believe that the Homeland Security warning about him is indeed correct, that he indeed suffers from paranoid delusions about his women victims' going after him.

What has happened is that, after arriving in Casbah, the suspect checks his log and, as noted, discovers the Ipswich volunteer's activity. Terrified, he believes, as noted, that a warning has been broadcast over the LB forum about him. Thus, 12:58 PM, he deletes "pleading paper 2.doc" from his website.

Now let's continue with the suspect. He has been terrified all day long about his possible extermination on the next court day (being dragged into custody without bail for the made-up stalking charge). He has now located a certain Mr "Angelucci" (another prominent men's rights activist) and calls him and leaves a message with him. Again, he doesn't know that all the men's rights people have already been warned about him and that he's just wasting his time. He then takes further notice of Mother Jones' article on Warren Ferrell. He then leaves Casbah and rides the bus to Chrysalis. Crying to Tanisha, he is thus asked to leave. He settles down in the public library and continues to check his log. He has now discovered the LB Admin's activities from last night and become even more unsettled. 4:22 PM, his best friend W calls him to wish him happy birthday. Just in time! He tells W that he has just discovered that the Secret Society women have sent somebody in to pretend to discover the latter's contact information on his website. Since it's possible that the Secret Society women would soon gain access to this conversation as well, he immediately mentions it to W, so that the women might be prompted to change their plan, at least by excluding the suspect's best friend from the task of supplying testimonies, directly or indirectly, to the DA, or to the next law enforcement authority they are about to appeal to.

The details of the suspect's conversation with his best friend W today are as follows (from 47:00 onward in the recording). (1) Again, about his visitors' log: the Secret Society women's UK associate's search for W's email address. (The suspect doesn't yet know that it is the LB Admin.) "They need evidence that I'm currently engrossed in the same schizophrenic delusion about the ICJ." (The suspect is wrong.) (2) The strange thing about Saturday's conversation, i.e. he has forgotten about the old recordings in the other folders, so that it would look like he was lying on Saturday when he insisted that he had deleted all the recordings. (3) W: "I thought a court-appointed doctor has declared you not insane..." Then, W again: "What if there really is a chip inside your brain?" W is testing the suspect: at least the TMU/ CIA wants evidence to demonstrate that the suspect is not insane, and that his belief about brain chips is a rational belief, even if it might be wrong. (It isn't.) (4) The suspect: "They'll try to get you involved..." W: "How do you know the DA has visited your website?" The suspect: "When the police visit your website, it's not even going to show up on your log..." (The suspect is wrong again.) It would seem that the TMU/ CIA just wants evidence that the suspect doesn't actually mistake the visits to his website due to his schizophrenia. (5) W emphasizes that the Secret Society women haven't contacted him. Again, W is lying: he's required by Homeland Security CO chief to keep everything a secret from the suspect while recording his conversation with the suspect and turning over the recording to the Secret Society women. (6) Then the suspect is back to the Secret Society women's downloading of W's email address. W: "You keep giving them ammunition..." (7) The suspect: "There is a different force which has come into the picture... Has the French consulate responded? Because Homeland Security has never withdrawn the false profile, the TMU has had to re-investigate me..." As you can see, the suspect errs completely by hypothesizing that a "new force" has come in (there is no such thing) and assuming that the French have had to investigate him in order to compose a more accurate profile of him to debunk the Homeland Security warning about him and prevent what has happened with Ekaterina last year from ever happening again: the reality is just the opposite. More: "Has the essay something to do with it? The French would be obliged to respond, but the essay isn't so wonderful... Has the Paris attack an impact on this...?" Then the suspect begins to talk about the incident involving the French consular protection service back in late January and early February. "Because of my visits to the FN's website." Again, because the suspect has spelled out a vaguely correct picture of the controversy that is now surrounding him, all this is the TMU/ CIA's evidence that he is not really insane but has simply difficulty in comprehending the situation. (8)

The suspect then recounts the girl's strange saying and Johanna's "secret message" from Sunday morning. In regard to this, again, he is somewhat correct: it is indeed the CIA which has wanted to test him. But then W says this strange thing "Trust nobody" and warns the suspect that people could be dropping him red herrings to drive up his paranoia. Presumably, because the suspect has figured out that the CIA was testing him, W has to try to dissuade him from the notion that he is being investigated – simply because the Agency has to fulfill the normal requirement for running an investigation. (9) But the next thing which W says is quite revealing: "I would pretend to help them" – i.e. the Secret Society women – "and do what they want me to do, but then more." Presumably W is giving the suspect a hint about what happened on Friday: the TMU informants, such as Aamoy and his LUG buddies, have discredited the Secret Society women to the DA by complaining even more than the women have asked them to.

(10) The suspect continues: "These women are such a waste." W: "You shouldn't have broken all these windows." The suspect: "They see me not as making good use of my time, but worse, as spending my time making anti-American diatribe. But there is nothing wrong with what I say!" W: "What you say is offensive precisely because it's true." The suspect: "Those detectives' primary job is to protect themselves. They are not thinking about the safety of the suspect." W mentions the Platonic Cave: how the suspect needs to cloak his truth with Noble Lies in order to avoid being called "crazy". W continues: "If you want to influence the world, you shouldn't write philosophy, but novels." As you shall see, W seems to be spilling out the Invisible Hand's program that is soon to come. (11) The suspect: "These FN people really think like me." The suspect expresses his wish to be in France in order to "join the club". He has no idea that the FN people aren't exactly his friends. (12) Then the suspect: "Up to 70% of my former scenarios are incorrect." The suspect laments that he has taken W's words too seriously. Again, he doesn't know that the Invisible Hand does in fact plan to make his "delusions" come true later on. (13) W denies that people might be pulling shit behind the suspect's back. Again, everyone's obligation to hide from the suspect the vast controversy over him. Thus, W warns the suspect again that somebody is dropping "red herrings" on him to make him believe that something is going on behind his back when nothing is. W is lying!

Since the Secret Society women are at this moment taking the LB Admin's evidence and so on to the TMU to demand that they withdraw their former judgment and validate the Homeland Security warning about the suspect, this conversation is the TMU's preliminary justification for rejecting the women victims' claim. Specifically, on the basis of this conversation the TMU detectives would conclude again that the suspect is in fact not insane, but merely wrong sometimes.

It should also be noted that, during the call, KRN's old friend Cindy comes into the library with a few other people. It's not clear whether this is orchestrated, or whether she will afterward rumor about having seen the suspect in the library.

This “Masculinist Man” has probably just been recruited by Homeland Security as an informant against the suspect: “We need you to befriend this schizophrenic who believes out of his delusional mind that his women victims are going after him.” Again, because the Secret Society women want somebody to lure damaging confessions out of the suspect – since the TMU must have already told them that they will not reopen the case on the suspect and do not believe they have made any errors in rejecting the Homeland Security warning about him.

Dear Mr Angelucci,

My name is xxxxxxxx xxxx. I hope this email address of yours is still active. I left two messages in your voice mail today, but didn't get a reply. I assume that you are very busy today. Hence I take the initiative to write to you.

I need legal help with dealing a group of women's gang-stalking and attempts at false prosecution of me. I read about your good reputation, and, since you are in Los Angeles, I want to contact you to see if it's possible for you to help.

My public defender is absolutely worthless, hence...

Again, the suspect is making a grave mistake here by sharing his "schizophrenic delusions" with a prominent men's rights activist.

10:11 PM, the suspect is editing his blog from home.

11:15 PM,

10 In the original version, such is the wrong-headed interpretation: "This person is very close by. Obviously a close friend of KRN or the German Lady, in response to [the] LB Admin's expression of concern for their safety. Even though most of the 'stories' [have] disappeared, she is able to find 'Conclusion', which is her goal. The central problem remains that 'Pyramid' has to be tied to ANG despite the suspect's indication that 'Pyramid' doesn't refer to ANG. Otherwise there is no reason for the German Lady, SDW, and KRN to ever be involved. They apparently believe that a clue exists on this document which might serve as proof that 'Pyramid' [does refer] to ANG. As long as the women can hide from their next law enforcement authority the suspect's statement that 'Pyramid' doesn't refer to ANG, the authority presumably will accept the clue as evidence since he would be unlikely to have the time and inclination to check whether the women's stories are correct."

11 The recording of the first half of the day: “callsbailstorg_11_17_15_1240PM.MP3”: 1:00, the suspect is connected with Ms Warren. Ms Warren ascertains that the court date is tomorrow, and not the 19th. The suspect is shocked and spends the rest of the time arguing with Ms Warren (how ANG will try to get the DA to bring up a new stalking charge) and trying to persuade her to tell the DA that the relevant documents (ANG’s evidence) are no longer to be found on his website. Ms Warren simply hangs up on 9:00. 11:00, the suspect is connected with Ms Warren again. The argument about whether ANG will get the DA to declare the suspect “mentally incompetent”. Ms Warren will not go tell the DA that the witnesses are lying. The suspect keeps referring to ANG’s show-up on 2 November. Ms Warren is convinced that the suspect is insane. Then another argument about whether the suspect should take down his website. The suspect insists that ANG will bring in some other women. Ms Warren insists that she can’t preempt the DA’s new charges. Ms Warren wants the suspect to show all this “delusional materials” to his “therapists”. 24:10, the conversation is finished. 32:00, the suspect leaves a message for Dr Burns. Then, for Armine. 46:00, out. 1:38:00, the suspect calls somebody. Who? 1:53:30, off the bus in Union Station. 2:05:00, in Bail Hotline. 2:07:00, out. 2:53:00, in the storage. 3:18:30, out. Then, 3:20:00, back in the office to ask a question. 3:24:30, the suspect calls Armine. She will not call the court tomorrow. Then the suspect calls to ask Dr Burns to call him. Then, another message for Ms Warren. 3:46:30, on the Metro. 3:59:30, another call to Goodwill. 4:17:00, Subway. Then, on the bus. (Reviewed until 4:46:00.)

12 The recording of the night: “strbkwstwd_11_17_15_644PM.WMA”: 2:00, the suspect leaves a message for W: he wishes to talk to him for two minutes before his court appearance tomorrow. (Nothing in the rest.)

Certainly another testimony that the suspect did violate intellectual property rights by stealing this table from somebody.

¹³ Below the video, SDW did comment: "Often, the local network of this mob is connected to a national and international network – funding is done by illicit drug industry/ crime syndicates, CRIMINALS working in corporate environment, and government sponsored terrorism for military weapons research using non-consenting human beings. It's similar to CoIntelPro or red squads, and it's being used on a lot of innocent people to ruin them and make them look crazy. Gang Stalking is all about government disinformation, and using civilian spies/ snitches to help with stalking and monitoring innocent people." Bullshit, except that a government agency like Homeland Security is indeed trying to make the suspect look crazy.

This is the Bath Spa University. The suspect's plagiarism? (Is he a volunteer?)

To conclude: given what will happen tomorrow, we can be sure that, today, the Secret Society women's appeal to the TMU has entirely fallen on the latter's deaf ears. Of course! Homeland Security CO chief and the gang of women will together decide to appeal to a different law enforcement authority instead. They must act fast – lest the CIA should reactivate the previous ICJ trial right away.

18 November (Wednesday)

First, the suspect. As you have seen, the suspect has spent the whole night in Westwood without sleep – he is at Kinkos and then comes back to Starbucks to check his log. Then he comes to court. He's frightened to death, especially when Ms Warren tells him to leave her his doctors' information. Mike and Angela soon show up to comfort him. (The suspect doesn't yet know that Angela is a Homeland Security informant against him.) Then it turns out that the DA just wants restitution. The Secret Society women have clearly made a very bad impression on the DA last Friday, with all their irrelevant complaints and stories. Then the suspect is with Ms Warren and Angela in Ms Warren's office. Ms Warren would not hear the suspect's story about ANG's victimization of him. Ms Warren portrays the suspect as a bad-to-the-bone male aggressor who, motivated by lust, just doesn't know how to respect women's boundaries while ANG is portrayed as a poor victim of his disrespect and aggression, the innocent prey of male lust who just wants to be left in peace. The exact opposite of reality. Ms Warren is getting increasingly hostile toward the suspect evidently because – as we shall assume – Homeland Security has already "interviewed" her about the suspect – because she has already believed what the Homeland Security warning has described about the suspect (and concomitantly its portrayal of ANG as an angel and a true victim and expert witness). Already convinced that the suspect is incurably mentally ill, Ms Warren of course will not hear anything he has to say. Instead, she wants him to get evaluated by the doctor she has brought in. Also, convinced that ANG is the angelic victim, Ms Warren warns the suspect that he faces prison time ("You are going to jail!") if he doesn't remove his website. Of course people don't go to jail for a website, but Ms Warren believes, in her mind, that it's her duty to prevent this male monster from tormenting the poor ANG any further. And so she bluffs. Homeland Security CO chief has thus successfully turned Ms Warren into the suspect's worst enemy by feeding her with ANG's bizarre slanders about him – as usual. (As noted, the man is never satisfied until the whole world hates the suspect as much as he does.) Furthermore, Ms Warren has become worried that the suspect might become "obsessed with her" – which is another reason why she wants him evaluated by a psychiatrist. Homeland Security's warning to Ms Warren apparently also includes ANG's false story that the suspect is prone to become obsessed with any female figure and then stalk her and wouldn't let her go. The suspect can only be further offended by such non-understanding of his psychology: not only has he already completely shed his tendency to suffer obsession with women – it will never happen again after SDW – but even the women he has obsessed over in the past were all good-looking women – whereas Ms Warren looks like a gorilla. Apparently, Ms Warren is so dumb as to not even understand that men usually only pursue attractive women and ignore fat, unattractive ones. Frustrated, the suspect goes to lunch, and Angela leaves.¹⁴ Then, the suspect goes to the psychiatric evaluation. Then, he comes back to court. The judge is clearly biased against him: the same stereotype about males as “trouble makers”. (Presumably the judge has not been warned by Homeland Security about the suspect.)¹⁵ The suspect then rides the bus back to Westwood. He is at Starbucks by early evening. That’s when he discovers, and is absolutely frightened by, the visits from the Manhattan Beach Police Department. (See below.) He calls up Mike about the matter (from 1:52:00 onward in the recording). Afterwards, he begins changing his website: he would add “-” to all the Secret History folders so that all these chapters will not be seen anymore and then delete his new blog altogether.

Now let’s consider the Secret Society women’s operation on the suspect’s website for today.
4:09 AM,

- 14 The recording of the morning until this time: “court_11_18_15_726AM-130PM.MP3” (reviewed from 56:00 onward): The suspect is near the courthouse. 1:13:00, the suspect has entered the courthouse. In the restroom. 1:31:00, Dr Burns calls. The Edelman personnel will not testify. 2:05:00, Ms Warren tells the suspect to wait for her in her office. 2:19:00, the suspect talks to Angela on the phone. Then he talks to Mike. 2:34:50, the suspect calls Stephanie, but she’s not answering. 2:38:50, Angela calls again when she arrives at the courthouse. 2:40:30, Angela is here. The suspect is nervous wreck and is convinced that he’ll be taken in. 2:44:00, the suspect calls Mr Angelucci. Angela warns him not to say a bunch of women are going after him. Mike is here too (2:46:00). Angela says the suspect is schizophrenic. (She has totally believed Homeland Security’s lies.) 3:05:00, the suspect is alarmed when Ms Warren sends for him from Department 83. He sends Angela instead and goes to wait outside. 3:09:50, he is on the phone with Angela to see what Ms Warren wants. Then, with Mike. He tells the suspect that he must come up now. 3:18:30, the suspect is inside Department 83. 3:24:00, a discussion with Ms Warren. 3:28:00, Ms Warren tells the suspect that the DA only wants money, and refuses to consider the suspect’s question “Why did the DA visit my website?” 3:31:20, the suspect is in Ms Warren’s office to tell her what’s on his mind (per Ms Warren’s instruction). (Angela is there too.) Ms Warren presents her understanding of the case. Then a debate about how the suspect could have known who has visited his website. (There is such a worthless debate because most people, knowing not a thing about website administration (having never checked any logs), simply don’t know that it’s possible to identify the visitors to a website – and because everyone is already disinclined to believe anything the suspect says in any case given everyone’s preconception that he is “delusional”.) Ms Warren and her partner advise the suspect to take down his website. Then, the discussion about how much the suspect can pay per month. The lady from Legal Aid has been calling Ms Warren. 3:57:00, Ms Warren calls Edelman. 4:07:00, the conversation about ANG: the suspect has completely failed to recount how ANG could have come into the picture. (4:26:00, Ms Warren answers a call about another case.) Then another worthless debate about the “Secret Facebook Group”. 4:29:50, the suspect shows Ms Warren the log on his website. Then, 4:32:30, his website (“Ying and Yang, I”). 4:49:00, the suspect complains about Ms Warren’s “preconception” about him. 4:54:00, Ms Warren calls Bluehost. 5:01:00, “Chaya’s warning”. 5:08:00, the suspect and Ms Warren are connected to Bluehost. 5:18:00, the suspect is locked out after using the restroom. 5:22:00, Ms Warren sends the suspect away for lunch break. The suspect tells Angela how he can’t stand this stupid woman. 5:24:30, the suspect is connected with Mr Angelucci and asks him to disregard his earlier message. He then explains his problem with “victim confidentiality”. 5:38:20, the conversation is finished. (The suspect doesn’t suspect that Mr Angelucci might have by this time already seen the Homeland Security warning about him.) Then Angela comes over because she has to leave. 5:41:00, Angela bids the suspect goodbye. The suspect leaves a message for Dr Burns and then comes to the cafeteria to eat. He calls Richard at Goodwill. 5:59:30, the suspect leaves another message for Armine.
- 15 The recordings of the afternoon: “courtpsychevalu_11_18_15_130PM.MP3”: The suspect talks to Stephanie at work. 3:00, the evaluation. 6:00, the suspect calls Dr Burn again to cancel today’s appointment. 16:00, the evaluation starts. The doctor advises the suspect to take his “blog” down. A long discussion about the suspect’s website until the end (50:00). Then, the next recording: “crtstrbkwstwd_11_18_15_234-838PM.MP3”: 30:00, the suspect is back in the courtroom with Ms Warren. 55:00, the suspect’s turn. All done by 57:00, with the next court date on 29 December.

Now, something important. By noon, while the suspect is still in the courthouse, the Secret Society women (ANG, Veronica, the German Lady, Dr P, and KRN) have taken JW to the Manhattan Beach Police Department – the “next law enforcement authority” – to make a report about the suspect's vandalism using the Homeland Security warning about him. Thus, if the TMU refuses to validate the Homeland Security warning about the suspect, maybe the dumb detective from a smaller police station in a smaller city could be fooled into doing so. As we have seen, JW was particularly incensed about her broken windows and has been a steadfast believer of the Secret Society women and Homeland Security CO chief: of course she would help after hearing the bizarre news that the TMU has dared to disqualify ANG as an "expert witness" and refuse to believe that the suspect is insane. (We thus have to wonder if it is the same detective that has visited the suspect in the Twin Tower on 27 May.) In any case, the women emphasize to the detective that Homeland Security is all right about the suspect: "This guy is a suspect of misogynist hate crimes and domestic terrorism and is obviously completely insane." The women proceed to demonstrate to him the devilish character and complete insanity of the suspect by showing him the suspect's website and online postings. Thus: 12:35 PM, Internap Network Services Corporation, the City of Manhattan Beach. The women first show the detective the blog in question:

This makes us wonder whether PD is also present. In any case, the women must be explaining to the detective either that the suspect has violated his women victims’ privacy or that he has kept on developing delusions about them by mistaking the visits to his website. Then, the women show the detective the suspect’s Peace Pink page, to demonstrate to him both how crazy he is and how he must be the person seen in PD’s and GSLTR’s surveillance videos. The detective then comes to the front page of the suspect’s website. It is merely 4 minutes afterwards.

That is it. Within 15 minutes, the women have finished their demonstration: the suspect has violated his women victims’ privacy, and yet harbors bizarre paranoid delusions about their going after him and is slandering them on the Internet, causing all these strangers to express concern about their safety. In this way, the Secret Society women hope that the detective will issue a conclusion that this Homeland Security warning about the suspect which they hold in their hands is totally correct.

12:47 PM – is this another volunteer? (c-66-177-67-224.hsd1.fl.comcast.net, Lake City, Florida.)*

We must assume that the Secret Society women’s discussion with the detective has continued in the past hour and 30 minutes – so that the detective has been hearing from volunteers as to how the suspect has also harassed Shizuka and ANG with his drawings and paintings and plagiarized and violated intellectual property laws, just as has been stated on the Homeland Security warning about him. Because the “victim confidentiality” stated on this Homeland Security warning prohibits the detective from ever looking at the suspect’s website himself, the women could use volunteers to call in so that the detective can never see for himself that the suspect has in fact not harassed women with his art nor really plagiarized at all. And now the Secret Society women want to further demonstrate to him that the suspect was motivated by his particular brand of misogynist ideology to conduct hate crimes against his white women victims, and so they call up their friend in Montreal to ask her to present her “testimony” about the suspect’s “misogynist rambling”. Thus: “He so looks down on white women that he compares them to chimpanzees.” In reality, this is the suspect’s scientific writing on the relationship between neoteny and the functioning of the Anglo-American criminal justice system: hardly anything like “misogynist rambling”. But, since the detective is not allowed to look at the suspect’s writing himself, he couldn’t find out that the Montreal volunteer’s horror story about the suspect’s “misogynist rambling” is all but bullshit.¹⁶ In any case, the meeting has ended some time between 2:30 and 3 PM, and the detective, given the Homeland Security warning about the suspect, has agreed to open an investigation on the suspect as the suspect sought in the vandalism against JW's business.

Again, we have to suspect that Homeland Security CO chief and the Secret Society women are especially counting on the fact that the new law enforcement authority, a detective from a tiny city without crimes and blinded by "victim confidentiality", will inevitably end up producing results that are completely wrong but which will confirm Homeland Security's false warning about the suspect – so that Homeland Security CO chief can successfully intercept this wrong result into the ICJ as evidence in support of his case. The Manhattan Beach Police Department simply cannot be expected to be as sophisticated and experienced as the specialized TMU in the much larger LAPD. But little do they know that the CIA has already instructed the TMU to connect up with the Manhattan Beach Police Department detective in order to teach him how to see through the deception of these "women victims" – especially by receiving reports from the confidential informants already in place in the women's organization – and the bullshit which their precious Homeland Security warning has embodied.

Apparently, by 7 PM, the Manhattan Beach Police Department detective has taken the first step in his investigation – to see if the Homeland Security warning about the suspect is correct. And this first step consists in collecting evidence about the suspect’s supposed “plagiarism”. Apparently he uses Webcrawler and this webcrawler.link would certainly show that the suspect’s website contains no plagiarized materials.¹⁷

17 We assume that this webcrawler.link is employed by law enforcement because, even though it looks like a random robot activity, we have never seen it before. If we had seen this webcrawler.link on our log before, we would have assumed that this episode is unrelated to any law enforcement investigation of the suspect.

1:15 AM, Scott Snitzer posts a comment under SDW's latest blog post. This should situate SDW's posting of her new blog post to some time tonight. We have to suspect whether SDW's post and Snitzer's comment are intended as a sting operation on the suspect. Snitzer, in his comment, provides his location (Amherst, New York) and information about his talk show at Talk Shoe (Saturday, 4 PM). It could be that the gang is hoping that the suspect would join in on the talk show, hear something, and then blog about it, which would then be evidence of his "cyberstalking" for the Manhattan Beach detective.

19 November (Thursday)

First, a note about the suspect. In the morning, he sleeps in Westwood Village again – afraid to go home. 5 AM, he's back in Starbucks. He finishes setting up a "hidden page" for his Secret History (1.html). He then emails Ms Warren the information she has asked for. Past 9 AM, UCLA. He eats, calls Angela, and then sends her his new summary. (A complete waste of time.) He then sleeps in Ackerman. Past 1 PM, Starbucks. Then, Chrysalis. He does his "Cal Jobs" thing. But the post office is not there anymore. Then he has his Thanksgiving dinner at Chrysalis. Then, Starbucks, Little Tokyo. Then he goes home.

Now the Secret Society women's operation on the suspect's website for today. 4:09 AM,

Around this time, the suspect discovers Beour3rd's reply on AVFM:

While this “Beou3rd” must have already seen the Homeland Security warning about the suspect, it’s not clear what his intention is in this reply.¹⁸

18 Not understanding that Homeland Security CO chief has already completely discredited him to everyone in the men’s rights movement, the suspect replies, some time today, thusly, to both Beour3rd and others – wasting his time: “Perhaps Beour3rd, it’s because I’m not white and so oversensitive. Malcolm, I have finally had to remove my entire website. I’m so sick and tired of seeing visits coming to my website from the county District Attorney Office or the city’s police departments, indicating that the group of women were at the DA’s office trying to persuade him to add a new charge in my pending case, or at the police station trying to persuade [the detective] that the suspect in this case or that must be me. They would always be showing the DA or the detectives my website trying to convince them how dangerous I am because I suffer this paranoia delusion that they are going after me – and in fact they are, right there, going after me, using the DA or [the] detectives – and then telling them what a misogynist criminal monster I am by showing them those writings on my website debunking feminism and so on. They hope that, when the DA or the detectives agree to send me back to jail, I can be immediately sent for mental evaluation and therefore trapped inside the mental health system without bail for a year or so, while they work on more ways to slaughter me in the criminal justice system and remove my website. And they are doing this because I’m communicating online how they have been for three years systematically falsely reporting me to law enforcement in hope of imprisoning me and then removing my website. In other words, to silence me in regard to their victimization of me. Even though so far neither the DA nor the police have believed their horror stories about me constitute enough evidence for actions to be taken, every day I live in fear. I finally have to ditch my website. What they are doing really is attempted murder. I can’t believe that it’s all legal. It’s all legal because they are using the DA and the police as their assassins. As more and more of my website has become documentaries about how the gang of women are visiting my website and what their next move is to use the court system or law enforcement to take me and my website down, my website has become my only defense against them. But now I have to ditch it entirely. What should I do? It appears that, by now, in order to make a case of my ‘online harassment’ of them by talking about how they are trying to take me down, the gang of women are increasingly resorting to ‘false flag online harassment’. Since nobody ever cares to come to my website to read my documentaries about how this group of women have been attempting to take me down and my website using the legal system, nobody ever bothers to make the efforts to identify who these women really are and then to find them and complain to them, ‘Hey, this guy says you are

8:31 AM, the suspect posts a question on AVFM: what exactly happened to NCFM and if anyone knows any men's rights groups in Southern California to recommend. The suspect, totally convinced that the whole criminal justice system is biased against him (it is, but only because of Homeland Security), is now looking to personally connect with men's rights activists.

8:33 AM, Spectrum, Lowell, Michigan,*

going after him.' This fact has obstructed the women's attempt to prosecute me for 'online harassment'. They have therefore decided simply to instruct their friends and online friends to pretend to be strangers accidentally surfing onto my website, getting freaked out by my bizarre 'delusions' about my women 'victims' going after me, identifying who they are, and contacting them to express concern about their safety. These women have like a hundred people around the world to help them stage their own victimization if none has occurred. They will then take these fake strangers' complaints to the DA or the police as 'evidences' for the hardship I have caused them by writing about their exploits. And yet even my public defender warns me I must stop talking, on my website, about what they are doing on my website, otherwise I will end up in jail. This is the double standard I'm faced with: everyday they slander me online to hundreds of people, saying I am hallucinating about their attempt at false prosecution of me, and that's all okay, but if I write about it, then I'll be considered to be harassing them. Currently they seem to be doing this 'false flag online harassment' at the other forum where I posted the same summary you have seen above: even though I mention no names in the summary and leave no links on my profile which can be traced back to me, they sent their online friends to pretend to be able to identify who I was talking about and to discover my true identity. Their friends will then pretend to find them online and warn them about 'finding bizarre stories about them'. And warn everybody on the forum as well (that the story is false). All this can then become 'evidence' in the legal system for my 'online harassment'." Again, the suspect has seized upon this scenario of "false flag online harassment" (which is not quite what is going on) because he doesn't yet understand his women victims' true objective: to save the Homeland Security warning about him on which they are listed as victimes extraordinaires and he is listed as a super insane misogynist monster. Namely, all a battle over a title.

Re: Need help for being gang-staked by a group of women

Why be sorry i read and read and read and no matter what it still comes across that You have issues with women especially white women so i can only wonder if all the women are white in this gang and until you are actually conflicted of something why would you care, you say "i wish i could galvanize people with my story: that women in this society can make any false reports about any guy they don't like completely risk-free. While the police might not believe their lies, nothing will ever happen to them" Well i had full video of a man who got his Genitals out to me and my Husband and he was just told not to do it again. He did a week later just to me this time and made lurid suggestions again the police told him to not repeat a third time so don't bitch about women getting the fair end of Law everyone is treated the same in the eyes of the Law and even members of the law get frustrated my great nephew had his head fractured at 3 months and because it couldn't be proven if it was my niece or her boyfriend no prosecution came about and the Police Officers involved were Fed up themselves. I can understand your frustrated and maybe even worried but Uk law is different to US law So Unless they have one hundred percent proof against you it's all just hearsay and Gossip and third party Knowledge which is in itself shaly ground's for a case. If the original Injunction against you expired and you have not reoffended against that Woman again and the second Woman's was never granted you have court papers from both cases i presume you have black and white proof there was a motto in a Solicitors where an old friend of mine worked before he died "IF IT AINT WRITTEN DOWN OR PHOTOGRAPHED IT DID NOT HAPPEN. it was more to ensure everyone did their job's to the max dotting i's and crossing T's but he used to say it could apply to a lot of thing's Solicitors have to deal with and Police feel the Same. IN UK THOUGH Look for an American law forum though and Good luck.

Of course this “Momasita” has already seen the Homeland Security warning about the suspect and is already convinced that the suspect has merely imagined up his white women victims’ going after him both due to his schizophrenia and because he has developed misogynist ideology about white women after being unable to attain them (to get laid with them). Hence she derides the suspect here. But we can from this post ascertain (1) that “Momasita” is a married white

20 November (Friday; W)

First, a note about the suspect. When he wakes up, he looks up the NPD's website. He then downloads two videos on the NPD from Youtube. It's not really clear if he's suddenly getting all rightwing because Homeland Security CO chief is remotely controlling him to. (As shall be seen, the Invisible Hand does want him to go right.) He leaves home 10:30 AM or so. He eats in the downtown library. Then, Westwood. He mails out the application for passport renewal. Then, he comes to Starbucks.

In any case, this visit indicates that, while yesterday the Secret Society women were debating with the Manhattan Beach detective about whether the suspect has indeed plagiarized – for the detective has found no evidence to such effect – today they are debating with him about whether the suspect is indeed so insane that, guided by his delusions, he even writes letters to, and files lawsuits against, foreign dignitaries.

Another volunteer from Boston University! This time to check on the suspect's violation of intellectual property laws (by putting up somebody else's book on his website).

3:28 PM, the suspect, still in Starbucks, Westwood, at the time, has even changed the URLs of /roach/ and /readings/. He then logs into Couch Surfing – he hasn't done it for a long time – and offers his service to a Russian woman who is a flight attendant ("Marina") and a Chinese girl who is coming in from New Zealand. He doesn't understand how he is ruining himself: many of the people he will contact on Couch Surfing will soon be alerted that he is a schizophrenic terrorist stalker on American Homeland Security's watchlist.

3:37 PM, the suspect discovers another reply from Beour3rd: “Personally, I would move out of their district. Screw that. Start fresh somewhere. 5:04 PM, the suspect is on NCFM's website.

5:13 PM, the suspect emails Mr Angelucci for the second time:

Dear Mr Angelucci:

I see that you are the vice president of NCFM. I live in the Los Angeles area and see that NCFM-LA's website doesn't seem to be active for a while. The application form is dead too. I would like to know what happened with the LA chapter.

I'm planning to become a member of NCFM, but I would like to know if the LA chapter is still active. I'm looking for a Men's Rights group in the area to join. If you know of any others in the LA area, please also let me know.

I wish to become a member, and volunteer, etc., in order to get familiar with the movement.

Thank you very much,

Once again, Mr Angelucci will never respond. Of course! Mr Angelucci has already believed Homeland Security's lies that this is a schizophrenic who is suffering from this delusion about his women victims' going after him and, because he doesn't know he's deluded, is now acting on this delusion by wanting to join the men's rights movement!

The third ICJ trial over the suspect, I-B
Lawrence C. Chin

6:47 PM, the suspect has a phone conversation with his best friend W (from 53:00 onward in the recording). The details of the conversation are as follows: (1) the Secret Society women have discredited themselves on 13 November, and the DA no longer wants any trial. (2) About the women's new complaint against the suspect at the Manhattan Beach Police Department. W: "It's illegal." (3) The suspect believes the women are slandering him online (staging the strangers' discovery of "online harassment"). (4) The suspect's suspicion again that the Secret Society women have access to what he says to W. (5) Alessandra might take W to Concord, Massachusetts. (6) W assures the suspect that he has never recorded him and left the recording somewhere online for the Secret Society women to find. (This is probably half-truth and half-lie.) (7) The suspect is worried about the FN. The new alliance France-US-Russia against ISIS might be related to the judgment from the previous ICJ trial. (Bullshit.) The conversation tonight is not very long.

We can conclude thusly: it is both the CIA and Homeland Security who have wanted the suspect to talk to W. Homeland Security CO chief wants the Manhattan Beach detective to hear the last part, the suspect's speculation about the previous ICJ trial, in order to convince him that the suspect really is insane. Perhaps the suspect's belief about the Secret Society women's slandering of him and so on is also evidence that he does suffer from delusions about his women victims' going after him. The TMU detectives, however, want the Manhattan Beach detective to hear the beginning, when the suspect is right about something, and will then explain to him how, in the latter part, the suspect is merely speculating incorrectly, which is different from "true" delusions. Thus, the same old debate.

Then, by 7 PM, the suspect is getting upset: Ms Warren had the doctor at the public defenders' office call Edelman suspecting that he isn't taking his medication. He picks up his new medication. He leaves Westwood, past 8 PM. To go home.

Around this time, the suspect is, as noted, working in Casbah. On 3:28 PM, he goes to his AVFM posting from his website's external links page, and is at first blocked. He becomes convinced that law enforcement has isolated his posting on AVFM as well and that the Secret Society women would know about it too. (He is certainly incorrect: it's not clear why the connection is blocked.)

Then, the suspect posts a note on AVFM expressing his wish for the men's rights movement in the US to connect up with the European far right parties.¹⁹ The suspect posts this because he is 19 His post runs thusly (4:58 PM): "Dreaming of being able to be part of a movement to combat political correctness and feminist gender politics – after suffering so much of it in the legal system – I have lately been studying the far right movements in Europe that are in the ascendancy there. Like the National Front in France, Nationaldemokratische Partei Deutschlands (NPD), British National Party in the UK, and similar parties in Austria, Hungary, Czech Republic, Netherlands, etc. These movements are now linking up together in a whole Europe-wide movement to save Europe. While their primary concern is the preservation of national independence and national identity, they are, in the cultural domain, always advocating conservative values and denouncing 'Diktatur der Political Correctness' and extremely hostile toward feminist gender politics which has been spreading from the United States to Europe. One central concern of NPD Frauen, for example, is combatting 'gender mainstreaming' in public schools. I have often thought about why the conservative movements and men's rights movements in the United States aren't connecting up with the far right insurgencies in Europe, in order to form a transcontinental movement combatting feminist gender politics that shall cover the entire Western world. I wonder why the Republicans here don't bother to endorse the far right movements in Europe even though they speak all alike in matters of conservative values and immigration issues. I think the reason is that, when it comes to geopolitics, the far right movements in Western Europe are going in the opposite direction from American geopolitical interests. Because of their concern with national independence and national identity, Western European far rights are extremely hostile toward the EU, NATO, worried about having uttered too many anti-American statements. Then, 4 PM, the suspect does not call in on Scott Snitzer's Talk Shoe show. Instead, he is applying for a job on Ross' website. 4:16 PM, and the United States because it is the United States which has inserted European nations into these supranational security architectures like NATO which have deprived them of national independence and forced them to advance US geopolitical interests instead of their own. Instead, the far rights tend to get cozy with Russia, which is the United States' competitor, because Russia supports them since Russia sees the United States and NATO as threats to its security. That makes the European far rights anathema to the Republicans here, whose primary concern is with American dominance in the world. Another possible issue is that some, though not all, of the European far rights speak of the 'preservation of race'. That might be okay in Europe since that's the Old World where everybody is indigenous, but this is not a reasonable stance in the US since the US is an immigrant nation where everybody has come from somewhere else. However, given the European far rights' increasing concern with the Islamicization of Europe, their hostility toward the United States is expected to calm down in the coming years. Especially after the Paris attacks a week ago. Russia, Europe, and the United States are now all focusing on a common enemy, and so having better relationships. I wonder if it might be a good time soon for men's rights movements and the conservatives here to connect with the far rights in Europe, since it's becoming more and more likely that the far rights in Europe will soon rule the continent. There will be another common enemy, the 'Diktatur der Political Correctness'. In fact, the more common enemies the European far rights might share with American conservatives, the less hostility there will be between the two sides. Perhaps the Republicans can soon endorse the far rights in Western Europe in the realm of values and immigration instead of seeing them as problems to US geopolitical interests in Europe. For the Republicans, developing common enemies in the domain of cultural values and immigration issues with the far rights in Europe is, after all, a good strategy for lessening the threats the latter pose to US geopolitical interests in Europe. See this explanation about European far rights at Bundeszentrale für politische Bildung: <http://www.bpb.de/apuz/32423/fliessende-grenzen-zwischen-rechtsextremismus-und-rechtspopulismus-in-europa?p=all> (in German).” Then, later, around midnight, the suspect would make an additional note: “Another major difference between the European far rights and the Republicans lies in their respective attitude toward globalization. The European far rights are for the ‘small people’, and are hostile toward globalization. Part of their anti-American attitude is conditioned by their hostility toward globalization and big businesses. They have identified globalization as American-driven, and have recognized the intimate connection between American politically correct multiculturalism and gender politics on the one hand and big capitalism and globalization on the other. In fact, the European far rights espouse traditional family values precisely to defend against globalization. On the other hand, while the Republicans here defend family values, they support big corporations and globalization. I must say that their European counterparts have [got] it right. It's inconsistent to denounce liberalism and all that which the left espouses while supporting big corporations and global commerce. Perhaps men's rights movement can formulate a stance on the intimate connection between feminist gender politics and big capitalism, and so become an instrument to soften the European far rights' anti-Americanism.”

Now, back to the suspect. By now he is at home. He chats with Robin (R), and then posts more on AVFM:

It appears that, four days ago, the gang of women, G, J, K, and M, were able to get two of their friends to help them file a case of online harassment and cyberstalking against me (using the method ‘false flag online harassment’ noted above) at another city’s police department after their case against me at my own city (at the TMU) was dismissed.²⁰

Again, he is half-correct and half-wrong. Then, midnight, he takes Seroquel, his new “medication”, and suffers a very bad reaction. He stumbles out of his room to buy cookies.

20 The rest of his posting runs like this: “This is really why visits came to my website from that city’s police department. This is their 9th claim against me (7 stalking claim, 1 hate crime claim, and now this online harassment/ cyberstalking claim). I’m therefore currently under investigation and (cyber) surveillance again. Because of ‘victim confidentiality’, the detectives currently investigating me will not know anything about all the previous investigations of me, and so will be taking the case against me very seriously, at least for a while. It would certainly be the case that the women have requested, and been granted, ‘victim confidentiality’, so that they can stage false reports about my website without being discovered. Meanwhile, the gang of women are continuing to stage ‘online harassment’, finding more of their friends to pretend to find the above summary in the other forum and then identify the poster and the women mentioned therein. However, just the day after their new case was opened, my website disappeared, which seems to have caused the women tremendous distress. Now there is nothing to complain about; it’s no longer possible for them to stage ‘online harassment’ with their friends. But, because I’m currently researching the far rights movements in Europe, law enforcement tracking my Internet connections, though finding no stalking, would probably begin to suspect me of being a rightwing extremist, so that the gang of women can probably make up some horror stories about me along that line instead.” Again, the suspect is all wrong. There is no staging of any discovery of the suspect’s online harassment and schizophrenia, but the Secret Society women are simply trying to prove to law enforcement that the Homeland Security warning they hold in their hands about the suspect is totally valid.

Are the Secret Society women now so desperate that they want to return to reporting on the suspect's "misogynist ideology"?

22 November (Sunday; W; Orphism)

First, a note about the suspect. Today, he over-sleeps due to the new medication. Almost 11 AM, he finally gets on the bus to go to church. He's there past noon: a goodbye luncheon for Fr. Alan. He's then scolded by Mike, and then talks with Angela and Johanna. Johanna gives him her email address. Then he's at Starbucks, Normandie. Then, Culver City. Starbucks. He talks to W briefly: the Republicans are inconsistent. Then about the police investigation.²¹ Then, French in Mind. Afterwards, he discovers the administrator's hostile reply to his latest posting on AVFM (how to connect the men's rights movement in the US with the European far right parties) and becomes very angry. (Again, he has as yet no idea that Homeland Security CO chief has already turned everyone in the men's rights movement against him.) He goes home, around 8:30 PM. As for the Couch Surfing business since yesterday: Sharon Liu has refused, but Marina, although she has logged on around noon, has still not declined the suspect's offer even by 6 PM.

Now the Secret Society women's operation on the suspect's website for today. 4:06 AM, DataWeb Global Group, Ashburn, Virginia,*

46.229.166.195 - - [22/Nov/2015:05:06:15 -0700] "GET / HTTP/1.1" 200 2266 "-" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.3; Win64; x64) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/37.0.2049.0 Safari/537.36"

21 The recording of this afternoon: "stsophiamikejhnastrbkculvr_11_22_15_1206-515PM.MP3". The suspect has just arrived at Normandie station, late for church. 23:30, in the church, and coffee time. 31:00, he tells somebody how badly he's doing. 33:30, he finds Angela. 34:00, another guy. 37:10, he finds Johanna. 1:01:30, with Joseph. Then, he's telling Mike about the Secret Society women's latest operations. From 1:16:00 onward, Mike questions him and then scolds him ("Focus on the real things that happen"). By 1:38:00, Mike is done and gone. Mike must have of course already seen the Homeland Security warning about the suspect (how he has imagined up his women victims' going after him), but it's not clear whether he really believes it. 1:45:00, the suspect is with Angela. He mentions men's rights groups. 1:57:30, with Johanna. Her two best friends in Hamburg. Her emails and Whole Foods. 2:09:30, the suspect bids Johanna goodbye. 2:33:30, in Starbucks. 3:07:00, in Metro. 3:48:30, the suspect arrives in Culver City. 4:26:30, he's checking his messages. The suspect calls back. (About a job.) 4:40:00, the suspect is connected with W. The suspect talks about the FN and W about the Republicans and the nature of American politics. Then about the Secret Society women's new case at the Manhattan Beach Police Department. The suspect's wrong scenario about what the women are doing. W: one can't go from one police department to another. The Turner Diary. W lectures on the Fifth Amendment. Now that the Manhattan Beach detective has concluded that the Homeland Security warning about the suspect is inaccurate, it's likely the case that it is Homeland Security CO chief who has instructed W to talk to the suspect today, for the suspect's wrong scenario is his temporary evidence in the ICJ to lock up the previous ICJ trial for the time being.

Note that the other components are not showing. Now this chapter is about to go viral – all because, as the Manhattan Beach detective has dismissed the Homeland Security warning about the suspect today, Homeland Security CO chief needs some temporary evidence in the ICJ suggesting that the suspect indeed tries to show off his plagiarized materials as a way to pretend to be intellectual.

The suspect's misogynist ideology! The second time today! Thus, now that the Manhattan Beach detective has rejected JW's case, the Secret Society women want to revive it by showing him how the suspect was motivated by his particular brand of misogynist ideology to attack white women – so that the Homeland Security classification of him as a (hate crime) “terrorist” is indeed warranted.

As noted, Homeland Security CO chief has instructed the Porth volunteer to do so because the Manhattan Beach Police Department detective's investigation result has become unfavorable evidence for him in the ICJ. When faulty surveillance should confuse the Porth volunteer with the suspect, it's evidence in the ICJ that the suspect has indeed gone around showing off the stuff he has plagiarized in order to pretend to be intellectual.

This is a very special visit. Recall that the suspect has, more than a year ago, left a note on this guy's blog:

Unfortunately, as the suspect would soon notice, anyone can click on the avatar and discover the suspect's identity:

The third ICJ trial over the suspect, I-B

Feb. 2016; rewritten, Mar. 2022

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying a Blogger profile page for a user named 'therapeuter'. The browser's address bar shows the URL 'https://www.blogger.com/profile/15483888779425870796'. The profile page includes a profile picture of a man, a section titled 'Blogs I follow' listing 'Art Supplied' and 'Stephen Rivele's blog', and an 'About me' section. The 'About me' section contains a table with the following information:

Location	United States
Favorite Movies	The English Patient, The House of Flying Daggers, Artificial Intelligence, The Empire of the Sun, The Prince of Tides, Indochine, Vitus, Other Chinese movies.
Favorite Music	Sarah Brightman, MIA, Autour de Lucie, Wir sind Helden, Mylene Farmer, Silbermond, Vivaldi, Handel, Juli, Sarah Blasko, Frida Gold, Florence and the Machine, Julia Stone, Coeur de Pirate.
Favorite Books	Order and History (Eric Voegelin), Histoire de la sexualité, I (Michel Foucault), Genealogy of Morals (Nietzsche), Republic, Gorgias, Symposium (Plato), Untergang des Abendlandes (Spengler), biology textbook (I), Blood Relation (Chris Knight), books on the origin of the universe.

Below the 'About me' section, there is a 'Contact me' section with a link to 'My Web Page', a note 'On Blogger since July 2006', and 'Profile views - 1716'. The browser's taskbar at the bottom shows various application icons and the system clock indicating 11:50 PM on 11/22/2015.

Now the question is: what is the purpose of this operation? Since Homeland Security CO chief is at the moment desperate to generate some evidence to temporarily lock up the previous ICJ trial, we must assume that he has instructed this Montevideo volunteer – most likely the owner of this blog – to pretend to make a big fuss about the suspect’s comment – “This guy suffers from severe paranoid schizophrenia” – and report it to a law enforcement authority or something like that. (Perhaps submitting as well the Homeland Security warning about the suspect.) Homeland Security CO chief can then intercept the whole episode into the ICJ as evidence.

Belgium today!

Meanwhile, 4 PM, the suspect is at the public library, downtown. His Internet connection is blocked, but the connection is soon restored. 4:32 PM, his access to Facebook is blocked. Then the connection is restored. Then the Internet is shut down again. Then, he comes to Chrysalis. He meets with Tanisha and then attends men's group. There is a group discussion about brain-death through digital technology and brain chips. Wow! What a coincidence! Then, the suspect comes to Starbucks, Westwood. He would stay there all night, until 2 AM. 7:20 PM, he changes his profile picture on Facebook. 9:54 PM, he sends a private message to "Bacchic Orphism" on Facebook (using his other Facebook account to hide his identity). He wants to investigate whether this "Bacchic Orphism" is related to the Secret Society women's operation.

Back to the volunteers. 4:01 PM, c-73-8-181-47.hsd1.il.comcast.net, Des Plaines, Illinois,* 9:57 PM, Marina logs into Couch Surfing, but she has still neither refused nor accepted the suspect's offer.

10:02 PM,

10:07 PM, the suspect discovers the Masculinist Man's reply:

Presumably the Masculinist Man is acting as a Homeland Security informant, and Mr Crouch would have also already been alerted about the suspect (the schizophrenic who has turned misogynist due to his delusions about his women victims' going after him).

10:15 PM, no ISP! Chino Hills, California,*

100.9.107.30 - - [23/Nov/2015:23:15:27 -0700] "GET /drawLA/drawla-100815/marion.jpg HTTP/1.1" 200 292577 "-" "Mozilla/5.0 (Linux; Android 4.4.4; XT1080 Build/SU6-7.3) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/4.0 Chrome/33.0.0.0 Mobile Safari/537.36 GSA/5.5.29.19.arm"

This volunteer is nearby! Again, the Partisans' effort to persuade the Manhattan Beach detective that Homeland Security really is right about the suspect: "Our president's niece Marion has also been stalked by him and is very concerned!"

At the same time, the Chino Hills volunteer continues:*

And so, after reporting on behalf of the Partisans, she now reports on behalf of Anja: “The ‘Queen of Norway’ is also very scared of him!”

10:29 PM, the suspect emails Mr Crouch from his 126 account. (Stupid!) It’s basically the same message as his second message to Mr Angelucci.

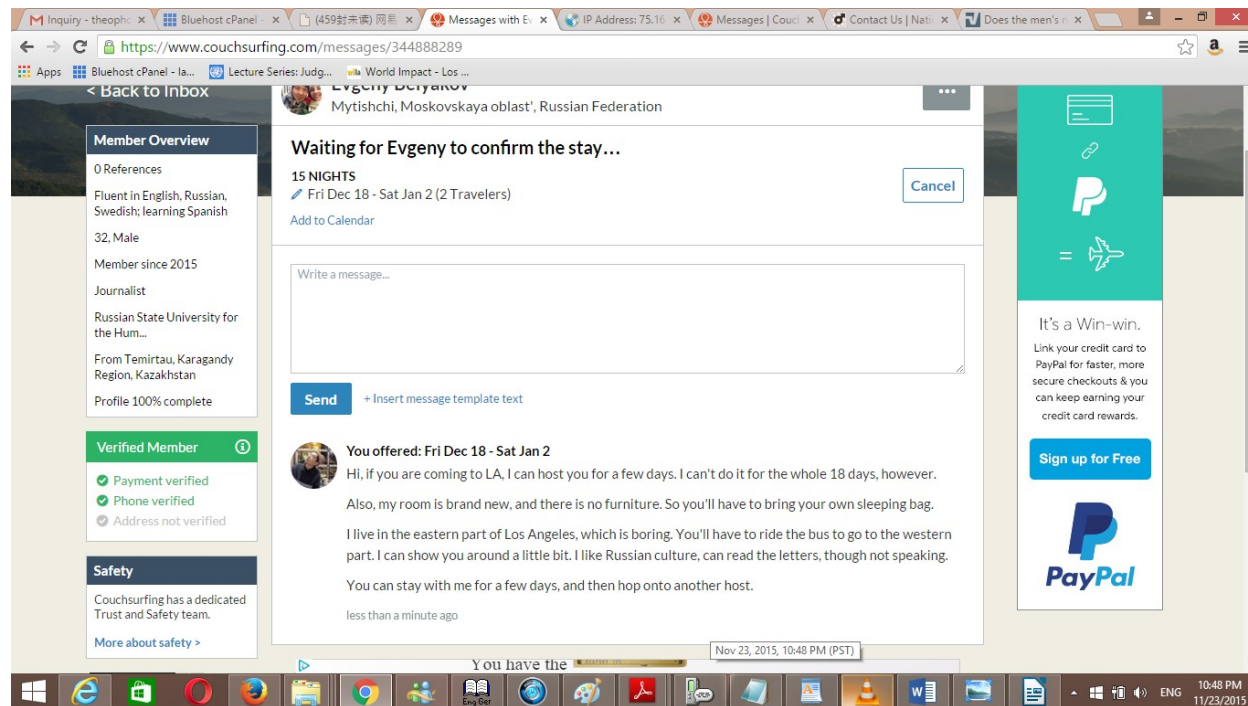

10:33 PM, the suspect replies the Masculinist Man: why wouldn’t Paul Elam and others respond? Ha! Because Homeland Security has already discredited him to everybody!

Again, how the suspect has plagiarized his theory on linear perspective. Because it is this Quantil proxy again, the suspect would later suspect this volunteer to be related to the 6:09 AM volunteer from 20 November (possibly a girl of Indian descent). Presumably this volunteer is actually located in Indonesia, but the Indian girl in question might have taught him to use the same old proxy which everyone in her group uses.

12:21 AM, does this come from the Secret Facebook Group, or is it because the Porth volunteer is now reading the suspect's message?

Again, it's not clear whether this is part of the Secret Society women's operation.

At the same time, the Porth volunteer replies the suspect – this makes it almost certain that, 3 minutes ago, it is he who is reading the suspect's message. The Secret Society women and Homeland Security CO chief must have taught him: "Just say you linked it because you have an interest in his work. In this way he might think that he has wrongly suspected us for linking his webpages on our Secret Facebook Group. We must also not raise his suspicion that we have already discovered him to be a plagiarizer; otherwise he might retaliate." The Porth volunteer does likewise. He also invites the suspect to come to his closed group on Orphism and Hellenistic religions. This, because the suspect is using his fake Facebook identity. Homeland Security CO chief is hoping that the suspect might accept the invitation, in which wise the Manhattan Beach detective can be given a definitive evidence showing the suspect to be impersonating people on the Internet (that there is at least some truth in the Homeland Security warning about the suspect). But of course the suspect never takes the bait.

See, he's actually in India! Is Oliver still in the discussion?

As shall be seen tomorrow, today the Secret Society women are most likely working on persuading the Manhattan Beach detective to reconsider his investigation results. Thus so many volunteers have called in today to report seeing the suspect plagiarize on his website, especially in regard to his theory on linear perspective. ("This Homeland Security warning really is correct! You have made a mistake!")

24 November (Tuesday)

Today, Turkey's F-16s would shoot down a Russian SU-24 over Syria. The shoot-down is clearly planned since the F-16s have been circling in the area for two hours waiting for the Russian jet to appear. It is said that the US has wanted Turkey to do this in order to disrupt the formation of a US-France-Russia anti-ISIS alliance. As you shall see, this might not be completely irrelevant to the suspect's case.

Let's continue with the volunteers' visits. 4:35 AM,

Again, the search terms are normal enough that we can't be sure whether this is part of the Secret Society women's operation.

Meanwhile, the suspect rests in Westwood Village until 5:15 AM. Then, he's on the bus going to LAMP. He waits there from 6 AM until past 8 AM, only to be told (by Serena Pawl) that they do not have advocates to help clients with legal matters. Already 9 AM. Somebody then steals the suspect's shoes. He's tremendously angered. He eats breakfast, and then stays at the public library, from 10:10 AM onward. He checks his log. Then, he reads the story about the "Teardrop Rapist" in LA Times. He then downloads SPOE's Parteiprogramme. Then he takes a nap.

The third ICJ trial over the suspect, I-B
Lawrence C. Chin
Feb. 2016; rewritten, Mar. 2022

This visit is very, very strange. (1) It looks almost like ANG from the Law Library, in which case she'd be using a different computer than the one in her office (173.196.200.74). (Meanwhile, the other Law Library IP address we know of is 173.196.200.120. Since it's Tuesday, ANG should be at work at the Law Library.) And yet, thatsthem.com says this IP address belongs to the public library in Westwood.* (2) Later on the suspect would suspect this volunteer to be actually PD or her partner Daniela. (3) But today we can be sure that this is in fact the same CISCO volunteer we have been seeing on 25 October in Texas (assuming that wasn't a proxy), on 30 October in the Starbucks of Westwood Village, and then on 6 and 10 November in Florida.²³

Thus the scenario emerges that the CISCO volunteer has come to Westwood again today and, when called on by the Secret Society women to offer his service, then settles down in the public library in the area to call in to make a false report to the Manhattan Beach detective: "He really did paint Ms [ANG] nude! I see it here on his website." What's noteworthy is that, just as on 6 November, he has merely called up holywh.html from his browser's cache, which means that this cannot actually be the library's computer but that he has merely carried his own laptop to the Westwood Library to visit the suspect's website. (Hence the user-agent today is the same as before.) 1:59 PM, he comes again:

173.196.204.18 - - [24/Nov/2015:14:59:27 -0700] "GET /gallery/gallery.html HTTP/1.1" 200 4452 "http://www.lawrencechin2011.com/gallery/holywh.html" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.1; WOW64) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/46.0.2490.80 Safari/537.36"

²³ Again, we highly suspect that this CISCO volunteer is really just Dr P's husband David.

- (1) The Law Library: 173.196.200.74;
- (2) The Westwood Library: 173.196.204.18;
- (3) The downtown library: 173.196.27.14.

Meanwhile, 2:50 PM, the suspect sets out for Chrysalis. He waits for Tanisha until 4 PM. 5 PM, he's out. Then, he's with Derrick on the phone. Then, Bail Hotline. Then, Starbucks, Normandie. He's terrified by the earlier mysterious visit to (from) "Holy Whore", believing that it's ANG (which means he might again be arrested). He comes to the Forum but sits there like a zombie. He only slightly recovers toward the end. Then he goes home.

A false report about what? Since, once the Manhattan Beach detective shall have rejected the Secret Society women's request for reconsideration, the previous ICJ trial is again subject to reactivation, the Russians and Homeland Security CO chief must be totally desperate to generate some temporary intercept to discredit chapters such as this one which the CIA will have to use as evidence.

Now a full story about the suspect today. There is nothing particular about him on this peaceful day. When he wakes up, he continues his research on the European rightwing parties and then visits the website of Austria's FPO. He leaves home around 12:30 PM. Storage. Then, Casbah, and he's almost immobilized: not sure what to do. Tony is there. He leaves almost 8 PM. Going home.

Now recall that (1) Mr Crouch has replied the suspect (forwarded by Mr Angelucci) and that (2) Marina still hasn't declined the suspect's offer. Since both Mr Crouch and Mr Angelucci must have already been warned by Homeland Security that the suspect suffers from severe schizophrenic delusions about a group of women going after him and asked to cooperate in the "investigation", Mr Angelucci would have communicated to not only Homeland Security but also the Secret Society women the fact that he has indeed received a narrative from the suspect about some "women's affairs". For now, they would not know the truth. We also have ground to suspect that Mr Crouch is asked to contact the suspect solely in order to lure him to give out his debit card information. This, because Homeland Security CO chief is now planning to create confusion in the interception of the financial transaction in order to end up with (false) evidence in the ICJ seemingly indicating that the suspect has received money from the Russian intelligence service. Homeland Security CO chief is now changing his plan – as shall be more fully explained below.

Looking for evidence of the suspect’s harassment of Ekaterina – it has been removed. This, however, is probably not what you have been used to thinking, given Homeland Security’s new plan.

We can be sure of this: ever since the Manhattan Beach detective’s rejection of the Secret Society women’s request for reconsideration yesterday late afternoon, all that the women are doing today is mobilizing volunteers to brainstorm how to prove to any authority that Homeland Security is right about the suspect – their perennial task in life.

27 November (Friday)

First, a note about the suspect. He wakes up 11 AM. Lunch at the Vietnamese restaurant. Home. MST. (MILF.) 12:30 PM, he's out. He goes directly to Casbah. Tony is there. Past 6 PM, the suspect goes to his AVFM forum posting from his links page, but he's again blocked on Google Chrome. He tries to do it on Firefox, but it's still blocked. Then, he posts "Summary II" (the sequel) at the AVFM forum (recounting the Secret Society women's operation from 13 November up till the present moment). Then he tries to go to the posting again from his links page on Internet Explorer, and this time he is allowed. He begins talking to the cashier "Ren". He then leaves a message with W. Later, RT Deutsch is also blocked from his links page. When returning home, the suspect discovers that the Power Option of his Asus is set to "Power 4 Gear" instead of "Balanced", causing the battery to run out much faster.

Now the Secret Society women's operation on the suspect's website for today. 4:17 AM, Yesterday, evidence that the suspect indeed suffers from schizophrenic delusions about his women victims; today, that he indeed suffers from schizophrenic delusions about being chipped in the brain. And yet, just like yesterday, the evidence is no longer there.

Now, let's comment on the new situation. By the late afternoon of 24 November, as soon as the Manhattan Beach detective has expressed inclination to dismiss the Secret Society women's request for reconsideration, Homeland Security CO chief begins to wonder whether he should change course in a radical fashion. He must have complained to the rest of the national security Establishment: "That Invisible Hand from the CIA keeps instructing the police to dismiss my warning about this guy!" But, given the new tension with Russia – as seen in the Turkish shoot-down of that Russian SU-24 – nobody in the national security Establishment is really interested in helping him protect Russia. (Ha!) But if Russia goes down, he'll get convicted too! So the best course of action is to align the project of proving his warning about the suspect to be correct with the anti-Russia agenda of the rest of the national security Establishment. Namely, he will now argue in the ICJ that his profile of the suspect, insofar as it describes the suspect as hating America, suggests that the suspect wants to help Russia harm America. If he can prove his case – that the suspect is in conspiracy with Russia – then he can convict Russia himself rather than letting the CIA do so at his expense and yet never get convicted for intentionally issuing false warnings about a suspect. While preventing the CIA from convicting him, he can thus also make a name for himself among the rest of the national security Establishment. In this way, he thinks, the rest of the national security Establishment wouldn't oppose him anymore but would in fact want to help him along. (And he will soon obtain NULND's support in this new course.) We suspect that this new course of action is specifically suggested to him by his former mentor Mr former Secretary of Homeland Security M. C.

Insofar as, in the ICJ evidentiary record, the suspect is still listed as having attempted to harm him and his star witnesses, Homeland Security CO chief is able to obtain the right to forge evidence to frame the suspect again in order to benefit himself. He thus obtains the right to forge evidence to frame the suspect now for conspiracy with Russia.²⁷ He thus immediately orders Mr Crouch to lure the suspect to make a membership fee transaction – faulty surveillance will make it look like the suspect has received a payment from the Russian intelligence service SVR – and then instructs Noah to befriend the suspect and send the suspect a link to click on. As soon as the suspect shall click on the link, faulty surveillance will turn it into the suspect's receiving communication from the said Russian intelligence service.²⁸

27 That is, now! Despite the fact that the previous ICJ trial has been buried for 5 years already.

28 Now who is this Noah? Noah S. Rappaport (b. 31.01.1964) has studied in France (Ecole hôtelière de Lausanne, 1989 – 1990) and one married a Japanese woman who died of cancer in 2012. He has been in the jewelry business for a long time. He lives in West Hollywood (8333 Clinton St. #1) but has owned properties in Basalt and Aspen, Colorado. While Homeland Security has, since a long time ago, inserted many agents in Meetup, it's not clear how Noah becomes involved with the Department. Presumably he is just an occasional informant.

Russia in the ICJ, the Russians are suddenly in the greatest bind possible. On the one hand, Homeland Security CO chief claims that his profile of the suspect suggests that the suspect is conspiring with Russia so that the Russians must reject this profile; but, on the other hand, if they reject this profile, they will be permitting the CIA to reactivate the previous ICJ trial. (Thus, while the CIA continues to dispute the validity of Homeland Security's profile of the suspect, the Russians can't really join them.) The Russians' only possible response is that the Homeland Security profile in question does not suggest that the suspect wants to help Russia harm America but rather that he wants to harm Russia tout court. And so, as soon as the Russian intelligence service affirms once again that the suspect is considered a threat to Russia, the Russian security services would have warned Evgeny that this person agreeing to receive him in Los Angeles is a "terrorist" considered dangerous to all Russians and wanted by the Russian authority. Thus, Evgeny, quite shocked, suddenly ceases all contacts with the suspect.

3:21 PM, the suspect is now in Casbah, and he calls W. W answers it. As usual, all the parties to the ICJ trial are listening attentively on the suspect's words looking for the slightest evidences in their respective favor – especially after Homeland Security's new claim has changed everyone's situation considerably. The details of the conversation are as follows (from 59:00 onward): (1) About W's public policy online course. (2) His answering machine is still on. How did the Secret Society women gain access to their conversations? (3) The suspect is worried that law enforcement, unaware of the situation, is taking the Secret Society women's case very seriously. A Trojan horse in his computer? (In reality, the Manhattan Beach Police Department's case has just ended and the Secret Society women haven't opened any new case as yet.) (4) The Secret Society women depend on other people's being stupid in order to succeed, whereas the suspect depends on other people's being intelligent in order to survive. Since stupid people outnumber smart people by hundreds to one, the suspect is greatly disadvantaged and always in danger. (Great observation!) Hence the Secret Society women have gone to a small city's police department, where the detectives are inexperienced and unsophisticated. (5) Why was ANG looking at the suspect's painting "Goddess Athena rewarding the scientist"? (The suspect didn't know that it was in fact somebody else who was looking at it.) (6) How the volunteers have pretended to discover that the suspect's writings are plagiarized. The suspect doesn't yet know that his scenario about what is going on is not quite correct – keep this in mind whenever you shall hear him complain about his "women victims". (7) W: "Why don't you move to a different state?" The suspect: the Secret Society women are accusing him of cyberstalking in order to avoid the difficulty that he doesn't actually stalk them at all (1:10:00). Furthermore: "It depends on where the victims live, not where the suspect lives." W: "But if it's crossing state lines, then they can't do anything..." (8) The suspect: "Unfair, somebody was hurting me back in April and May, and now I couldn't move anywhere because of the trial and the upcoming probation, and I don't even know what the point is of it all, is it to let the FN win? I'm only guessing..." W: "You've got to move on..." Then, when a driver honks nearby, W asks: "What's that?" "Cars honking" (1:16:00). W: "What does that mean?" The suspect: "Nothing." W is trying to lure the suspect to say, as he used to say, that, when cars honk, it's because the control center is signaling to him that he has said something right. This then would make the suspect look crazy to anyone who is listening in on the conversation. It would thus be evidence for both Homeland Security CO chief and the Russians, that the suspect is indeed insane. And so W must have been instructed by Homeland Security beforehand to play tricks whenever possible to make the suspect look crazy. In fact, even the suggestion for the suspect to move out of state seems like a trick to lure him to become a fugitive. (9) How the cyberstalking case is established. The "scientific method" which the Secret Society women and the detectives cannot imagine because their brain has significantly shrunk. (Great observation!) The example of how the scientists have come to the conclusion that there is this thing called "Dark Matter". "Their brain has lost the inferential thinking function..." (Excellent!) The suspect continues: "My problem is caused by the fact that most people's brain has been crushed... This is a good way to demonize Americans, because the American culture has become so degenerate that the human brain which grows up in it is necessarily crushed under its weight." (BOL's plan?) W: "Capitalism turns people into sheep, in today's consumerist culture there is no longer any preoccupation with ideals.... That's why Donald Trump can say what he says and be liked, just because he is honest... All the social media and so on exist to occupy people's time, thus giving corporations the power and opportunity to manipulate people... By now nobody studies philosophy..." The suspect: "This is precisely what Marine has said, but she hasn't quite pinpointed the problem; other than naming the 'robotic consumer', she didn't recognize the issue about brain deterioration." Then the suspect expresses his wish to convince Marine to add the issue about brain development to her agendas. And, he notes, Russia can also build up its reputation by endorsing the agenda of saving the human brain from American corporate assault. W: "The corporate consumer culture easily brainwashes consumers... selling products as a way of life..." (1:27:00). The suspect: "When Russia does so, it must emphasize it's the US which wants this globalized commerce and consumer culture..." W: "It doesn't matter... to prevent people from becoming free-thinkers..." The suspect: "But Marine says just this..." About the Frankfurt school. Then, the Unabomber. The suspect disagrees that the Unabomber has the same agenda against consumerism. W: "How you can dumb down people... Make them become dependent on machines..." The suspect: "Terrorism is not a big issue... Protecting the human brain is a bigger issue..." (1:31:00). W: "Corporations are making you into robots... Everything controlled and manipulated by corporations...” The suspect: “The FN is saving the world from corporations...” W: “The FN does not have a good reputation... The common impression of the FN is that they are bigots...” About how the guy with a good idea is wasted because he is under the Nazis’ banner. Is W here hinting to the suspect that all his philosophies to debunk American political correctness and so on are now considered “terrorist ideologies” to justify his status as a “misogynist terrorist stalker”? It will in any case be very hard for him to grasp everybody’s enormous demonization of him as a “dangerous terrorist” because, stuck in his traditional mindset, he finds it hard to imagine how breaking windows could be considered “terrorism” under international laws. (More on this later.) The suspect then talks about the variety of far right parties in Europe. About Geert Wilders. Then, again about how Russia can make a good reputation for itself by demonizing American global commerce as destroying the human brain. Then the suspect shouts: “I hope they can hear me, but I don’t want to get into troubles... But somebody has to do something about this American digital culture, as people are becoming so dumb that they can only understand stereotypes.” Apparently the suspect doesn’t know that the Russians are listening in carefully on his conversation – and frowning. W: “What I like about the French is precisely how they have imposed an intellectual culture... The French have got America wrong, and then got it right...” Then: “The stereotype of Americans are becoming true...” (1:42:00). Then the suspect expresses his wish to be part of the FN movement.” W: “Be that in LA...” The suspect doesn’t think it possible because he has no following. W: “It’s possible to do it without established institutions...” W: “People nowadays are all about living a materialist life, they are brain-crushed...” W: “The average people are becoming more intelligent... But this impression is all due to ‘standard deviation’...” (1:49:00). The suspect: “Among women there are fewer idiots, but also fewer geniuses...” W then suddenly says he will call the suspect back (1:52:00). That’s when the suspect notices that, 3:38 PM, Noah has called while he was talking to W. When the suspect hangs up, he looks at Noah’s message to him, and then calls him to tell him that he will call him back shortly.

Two points. (1) Why did W go into all this rambling about capitalism and corporations in the manner of a (vulgar version of) critical theory critique? Insofar as Homeland Security CO chief has insisted on the suspect’s terrorist status, the CIA must have pointed out that the Marine document, as well as the other writings of the suspect, simply doesn’t fit the typical image of a “terrorist”, who is a Muslim, or at least religious. Homeland Security CO chief recalls that the Unabomber Ted Kaczynski is something like an anti-capitalist, Marxist type, a vulgar version of Marcus and Adorno, and that he is classified as a “terrorist”. And so he must have instructed W to steer the suspect onto this line of thought. Then, insofar as his anti-feminism stance derives mostly from his staunch opposition to corporate profits, his (supposed) “misogynist vandalism” can also help classify him as a “terrorist” along the line of the Unabomber. Thus has Homeland Security CO chief obtained his evidence against the Invisible Hand.

(2) The suspect’s words are also Homeland Security CO chief’s evidence against the Russians: that he wants the Russians and the FN to adopt his ideas and use them to demonize America for crushing people’s brains with consumerism is evidence that he, as a terrorist, is intent on conspiring with Russia and its allies. Thus, in order for his new strategy to work, Homeland Security CO chief has done nothing more than eliminate the convoluted “When the suspect expresses love for someone, he wants to harm her or him” and argue instead that the suspect’s words should be taken literally. Today is Homeland Security CO chief’s day.

Then W calls back on 2:08:30. About why women, on average, do better than men in college. W: “Why are there more male idiots than female idiots?” W’s answer: males are more likely to be addicted to video games. The suspect’s answer: “testosterone”. Could this be the CIA’s evidence that Homeland Security’s profile of the suspect as a misogynist cannot be correct? The suspect’s view on gender differences is entirely objective and based on scientific researches. He has not expressed anything close to “hatred of women”. The suspect then expresses his wish again to be part of the FN so as to persuade the FN to make this “digital dementia” into part of the party’s agenda. W then talks about Naomi Klein’s view. Then, about how digital technology has changed people’s brain. “There are other forces which are also making people increasingly stupid.” W seems to be repeating the viewpoints which the suspect himself has expressed in his “Subhuman meets poisonous friends”. It would thus seem that W is again carrying out his order from Homeland Security, i.e. to express the suspect’s viewpoints as if they were his own so that others can suspect the suspect of plagiarizing his best friend! This is thus Homeland Security CO chief’s evidence again, that the suspect is indeed a plagiarizer. W continues: “Unless you write the ‘Great American Novel’, where everything is your own ideas...” It would seem that W is now passing along a “secret message” from the Invisible Hand, since the “Great American Novel”, i.e. Moby Dick, will later make its appearance as well – and this might even be part of the Invisible Hand’s plan together with BOL. W: “Whereas in academic studies, you find many people’s ideas, so that people are tuned to others, Facebook has turned everyone’s attention onto himself or herself... Everybody has turned from the ‘third person’ to the ‘first person’... Nowadays, being egocentric is the norm rather than deviation from the norm...” W thus continues to repeat the suspect’s ideas in his “Subhuman meets” and “The Syrian scandal, conclusion” (while possibly speaking about the “Macrospherian plan” of the Invisible Hand and BOL). Then, the suspect complains about having to spend most of his time dealing with gang-stalking instead of studying philosophy. “Only if the scenario about BOL were correct” – then both the suspect and W would be saved. (Again, the suspect doesn’t know that his scenario about BOL is in fact quite correct.) The suspect then brings up something very important: “Marion, ‘victim feminism’” (2:22:00). The suspect concludes: “Maybe it’s just a coincidence.” The suspect continues: “Sad that every far right party in Europe is focused on terrorism, this is a waste, they should focus their attention on the problem of brain development, these ISIS terrorists are just a bunch of losers... Nations shouldn’t have to change their policies just because of a bunch of nobodies” (2:26:00). He continues: “The Paris attacks look more like mass murder than terrorism...” This is of course more evidence in favor of the TMU/ CIA. The suspect is neither a violence-oriented and hate-filled “terrorist” such as Homeland Security has imagined nor a hater of Muslims, a “bigot”, which is the stereotypical supporter of the FN. He continues: “These women are the embodiment of evil, trying to prevent me from saving the world... Women are really bad, people don’t know that... And law enforcement tries to protect them... America is upside down, what a fucking country...” Homeland Security might enter this last confession of the suspect’s into evidence to support their false profile of the suspect as a misogynist terrorist prone to support Russia and its allies; but the TMU/ CIA might respond that the suspect’s negative assessment of womankind is completely reactionary, a response to his being gang-stalked by a group of women.

As noted, should the suspect ever click on the link, Homeland Security CO chief would have obtained another evidence demonstrating the suspect's conspiracy with the Russians and their allies. But the suspect is already suspecting that something is up, and so will never even look at the link. However, he is, at this time, rather suspecting that it is the law enforcement detective who wants to insert malware into his computer.

33 The entire post runs thusly: "Comme je l'ai dit, je suis un admirateur de Marine qui se situe de très loin, en Californie. Marine m'a complètement inspiré avec son livre, Pour que vive la France. Mon admiration pour Marine consiste surtout à l'admiration pour son projet pour lutter contre la [mondialisation] et l'idéologie [mondialisme]. Pour sauver la France, elle est contre la [mondialisation], mais, pour la même raison, elle est contre le régime global américain (l'empire américain global); l'Américain, le moteur principal de la [mondialisation], avec sa culture, son diplomatie, ses multinationales, ses traités commerciaux internationales. Habitant en Amérique, j'ai plutôt un autre souci que pour la [salut] de la France, évidemment. Je m'inquiète chaque jour pour l'état dégénéré de l'intelligence humaine. Habitant en Amérique, on peut se rendre compte chaque jour que les gens autour de moi sont en train de devenir de plus en plus stupide. En tant qu'un étudiant en tradition néo-Marxiste, etc. (comme l'école de Francfort), on peut bien attribuer le phénomène 'la stupidité croissante' à la transformation rapide de l'être humaine en consommatrice spécialisée, ce que Marine a dénoncé comme 'homo mondialisus'. Bien sûr, Marine l'a dénoncé parce que, cette consommatrice spécialisée, ce n'est plus un français, mais une machine à consommer pour donner les profits aux multinationales, surtout aux multinationales américaines. Mais, quant à moi, j'ai très peur pour cette 'consommatrice spécialisée' parce que speaking great sense with W and would now like to share it with the Partisans. Ha! This will in fact be Homeland Security CO chief's additional evidence of the suspect's intent to conspire with Russia and its allies.

ce sorte de l'être humain c'est une machine à consommer sans plus d'intelligence humaine. Le commerce [mondial] que les américains voudraient imposer à toute humanité (avec TPP et TPIP), la culture de consommation que les américains voudraient faire adopter par toute humanité, c'est non seulement le tuer de l'identité nationale traditionnelle (ce dont Marine et les autres extrêmes-droites européennes se soucient), mais aussi le tuer de l'intelligence humaine traditionnelle. Je peux bien citer ici beaucoup d'études scientifiques qui démontrent que la vie postmoderne que les Américains ont inventée pour soutenir le commerce [mondial], y inclus la culture de consommation et la culture digitale de Facebook, Twitter, et Wikipedia, a fait beaucoup de mal au développement normal du cerveau humain. Je peux aussi citer des études sociologiques qui démontrent que la culture politiquement correcte (multiculturalisme, Genderpolitik) que les Américains ont inventée aussi pour propager le commerce [mondial], a fait beaucoup de mal au développement normal de l'intelligence humaine et la pensée morale. Donc, même habitant en Amérique, on a beaucoup de désir de voir Marine être élue le Présidente en 2017: parce que, quand Marine changera la situation géopolitique européenne en sortant la France des organisations américaines comme l'UE et l'OTAN, quand Marine et les autres extrêmes-droites européennes se prononceront contre les valeurs politiquement correctes et parleront en faveur des valeurs traditionnelles, Marine et ses amis seront aussi en train de sauver le cerveau humain dans le monde entier – en stoppant la [mondialisation] américaine, en domaine aussi bien de la culture que du commerce. On est donc très malcontent qu'on ne pourra pas être en France pour soutenir Marine. On espère pouvoir faire partie d'un mouvement aux États-Unis, 'Les Américains qui soutiennent Marine Le Pen'. Mais ça n'existe pas. De plus, ça sera dangereux, parce que [le] FN est en partie soutenu par la Russie, et que, les deux pays, les États-Unis et la Russie, n'ont pas de bons rapports. Peut-on faire quelque chose aux États-Unis pour soutenir Marine... Et pour quoi la Russie, en soutenant Marine, n'en fait pas une 'guerre sainte contre le projet américain, un projet pour transformer toute humanité en consommateurs sans identité et sans intelligence'... Ça sera une bonne suggestion. Bien sûr, après l'attentat à Paris, tout FN se concentre sur le problème de l'immigration et du terrorisme. Mais, on devra se rendre compte que ce ne sera pas le problème en long terme. Marine, après être élue le Présidente, va mettre fin à l'immigration massive et au terrorisme. On devra plutôt se concentrer aussi sur le problème de la [mondialisation] et l'idéologie [mondialisme] en tant que 'le tuer de l'essence de humanité, son identité et intelligence'. Ce sera le problème en long terme. C'était aussi ma lettre ouverte à Marine."

12:24 AM, the suspect, already home, posts on LB:

Now the gang of women who are gang-stalking me are sending their online friends to pretend to be concerned strangers and to track down my true identity and the identities of [the] women designated as “J”, “K”, “G”, and “M” above, so that they can pretend to be concerned netizens warning everybody here that the above story is bullshit and contacting the women about the matter and enabling them to go to law enforcement to falsely accuse me of “online harassment” and “online slandering” – all this I have narrated in another Internet forum. It’s a massive staged show to discredit me. I shall not, however, bother to direct any of you over there. Presumably you can find it yourself.

Of course, under normal circumstances, nobody will give a crap. But the women’s online friends will pretend to be so interested in the matter that they will direct you over there in order to discredit me.

Evidently, the LB Admin has, per Homeland Security's instruction, pretended to get freaked out by the suspect's latest posting, and thus contacted this Mansfield volunteer and provided him with the suspect's email address. The Mansfield volunteer, having heard about this "crazy blog" of the suspect's, then Googles for it, pretending to show interest and be concerned about the Secret Society women's safety. Now that Homeland Security CO chief has obtained two of the three evidences he needs, his next step is (other than obtaining the missing evidence) getting the volunteers to help the Secret Society women open another case against the suspect at another police department.

Again, it's not clear whether this is part of the Secret Society women's operation.

1:53 AM, "nemesis45", per Homeland Security's instruction, posts the first reply on LB. (Total posts: 7994; per day: 20.43; joined: 3 November 2014): "I just can't see what you are hoping to achieve. If that had been the case, the whole site team would have quickly known about (and put an end to) it straight away." It seems that Homeland Security CO chief is instructing everyone at LB to convince the suspect that he's paranoid over nothing because something like what he has described is indeed taking place.

2:29 AM, "nemesis45" posts a third reply: "Has anyone reported such a PM, Kati? I get a fair number of PM's daily and I've not seen one."

2:33 AM, "Kati" posts a fourth reply: "Nope. As you know, we're pretty strict about such things on here too."

4:55 AM, the LB Admin is looking for the Korean Letter – the most certain proof of the suspect's grave insanity and the supreme accuracy of the Homeland Security warning about him. But it's not there either.

80.189.8.35 - - [29/Nov/2015:05:55:16 -0700] "GET /korealetter-censored/korealetter-censored.pdf HTTP/1.1" 404 1360

"Opera/9.80 (X11; Linux x86_64; Edition Linux Mint) Presto/2.12.388 Version/12.16"

Finally, the LB Admin looks for the other blog post on the Wayback Machine:

207.241.225.226 - - [29/Nov/2015:05:55:37 -0700] "GET /blogs/?p= 52 HTTP/1.1" 404 8837 "-" "Mozilla/5.0 (compatible; archive.org_bot; Wayback Machine Live Record; +http://archive.org/details/archive.org_bot)"

Evidently, the LB Admin is trying out the same trick again. After everybody has staged a show to entrap the suspect into the appearance that he is suffering from severe paranoid delusions, the LB Admin pretends to show concern and Googles his email address trying to track down his identity. Now, the question is: why is the LB Admin looking for the same email correspondences again, when she has already found them 13 days ago? Well, as noted, after the Manhattan Beach Police Department has closed the Secret Society women's case and now that Homeland Security CO chief has entered a new claim in the ICJ, the latter needs his star witnesses to open a new case at another law enforcement agency so that the rest of the characteristics he has attributed to the suspect can also be confirmed by a third, legitimate, party. Thus, it can be assumed that, this morning, the Secret Society women will go to another law enforcement agency to open another case on the suspect – bringing along all the testimonies from both the LB Admin and the other volunteers as well as the Homeland Security warning – as if all the previous cases, the case at the Manhattan Beach Police Department as well as those at the TMU, had never existed. Which police department will they choose this time? The Hermosa Beach Police Department? Or the Pasadena Police Department? Or the Santa Monica Police Department?

Let's continue with the other volunteers. 5:14 AM,

The suspect's computer-hacking.

Now a word about the suspect. Around 11 AM, going to St. Sophia, he has arrived at the Normandie station. There is a piece of paper left on the escalator: "katheryna.edu", and then "usc.edu: jobs on the bottom".³⁵ At first the suspect takes it, but then throws it away. He finds it very strange. Eternal recurrence of the same. As if the "suit team" were still trying to produce evidence showing him conspiring with the Russians. But that's back in 2008! Indeed, because the suspect never bothers with Noah's link, Homeland Security CO chief is trying it again, sending in an agent this time to place this piece of paper inside the Metro station, knowing, from the control center's simulation, that the suspect will walk past this point around this time. And now Homeland Security CO chief has failed again, and is still unable to present in the ICJ more definitive evidence that the suspect is in communication with the Russians. Thus the suspect's phobia, inherited from the past, has once again saved the Russians and their French allies.

Back to the volunteers. 11:12 AM,

It's a sorry state of affair as we are not legally trained with US rules. Keep in touch and put up as much info [and] written letters sent up here. And we'll have a look." This is clearly a trap. Apparently, the materials which the LB Admin has found are insufficient for a law enforcement case – because they are found on the Wayback Machine, not on the suspect's website. And so Homeland Security CO chief instructs the LB Admin to instruct a LB member to ask the suspect to post more pronouncements about how he is being gang-stalked by a group of women and so on – only then can they have enough "evidences" on the basis of which to report him for suffering from severe paranoid delusions about a group of women's going after him (in accordance with the Homeland Security warning about him).

Meanwhile, the suspect is at St. Sophia. It's Fr. Alan's last sermon. The suspect sees Angela. Then a long debate with Dan and Johanna on neoliberalism.³⁷ Afterwards, the suspect comes to Starbucks, Normandie.

37 The recording of this morning: "stsophiaJohannaDanNeoliberal_11_29_15_1058AM.MP3": In Starbucks. 23:00, on the bus. 33:00, in St. Sophia. 1:22:00, after the service is over, out. 1:25:00, with Angela. 1:28:00, with Dan and Johanna. And with Angela too. 1:38:00, the suspect mentions his Thanksgiving dinner and how a "police informant" keeps encouraging him to look at a certain link. The suspect mentions how he is reconnected with W. About Marine, the FN, and Marxism. Dan: "It's about envy of other people's money." The suspect: "Neo-Marxism is about getting rich people to envy the poverty of Bohemians." Dan: Edmund Burke, Mises, and Hayek. Dan went to a professional psychology school. Then the debate about neoliberalism, how it makes people stupid after a certain point: the suspect explains his position (anti-neoliberal and pro-Marine), and Dan tries to debunk him (why nationalism is bad). Johanna also insists on the connection between free market and a free political institution. The suspect: but China is free market, and the most important thing is intelligence. Then, whether one should have the right to impose values on others – whether people should have the right to be stupid. Johanna mentions that she met Dan online from discussing philosophy. 2:26:45, the suspect bids them goodbye. He leaves and, 2:53:30, is in Starbucks. 3:03:00, out. 3:05:00, back inside. 3:32:00, on the move. 3:40:00, on Metro going to Culver City. (Reviewed until 4:03:00.)

9:33 PM, the suspect is now in Starbucks, Westwood. He has realized what has really happened in the early morning of 16 November. His reconstruction of the matter – which he would soon post on AVFM – is not quite correct, but at least he is getting closer to the truth. Now, he changes his email address in his LB account.³⁸

9:40 PM,

2.216.34.127 - - [29/Nov/2015:22:40:52 -0700] "GET /2013-9-15/91413-19.png HTTP/1.1" 200 73778 "https://www.google.co.uk/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Linux; Android 5.0.1; HTC One_M8 Build/LRX22C) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/46.0.2490.76 Mobile Safari/537.36"

9:57 PM, the suspect begins posting on LB:

Great acting, you guys!

I knew there were some PMs on 16 November about the identification of the “poster” of the above narrative and “his website” because I got a notification from somebody.

But obviously I’m not producing that.

The guy who is the “friend” of the women referred to in the story and who has pretended to be able to track down the true identity of the poster seems to be from Sheffield, UK, with an original IP address [of] 146.200.162.191. He uses a Linux computer (X11; Linux x86_64; Edition Linux Mint). He seems to be an administrator of this forum, having access to the email addresses of the members.

38 To “kurtc1972”.

And, so, on 16 November, he was told to Google for my email address to track down my website and identify the women referred to in the story and then contact them. The women then took the information to the local police to open up a case of “online harassment” on me, alleging that I was slandering them in this forum because I suffered from paranoid delusion believing they have been going after me. Well, [the] police’s case on me then got stuck because the investigation so far doesn’t show me to be completely crazy.

But thanks to your guys’ acting, this Sheffield guy Googled for my email address again this morning (which would be afternoon yesterday in your time zone) and, upon finding no website any more, he has actually gone to the Wayback Machine to get the cache of the old website. Since you guys’ acting (“Oh no, there is no PM at all, nobody has received anything!”) has made it look like I was being paranoid, these women were able to go to the police again to use you guys’ posting as “evidences” that I am indeed crazy and am slandering them online. But the Wayback Machine’s cache might not be sufficient evidence for actions to be taken.

And so, the question is: who told this Sheffield guy to Google for my email address? These women are able to pull all these stunts so far – many of them illegal, like presenting forged evidences to law enforcement – because there are some people in the US Department of Homeland Security who are helping them and covering for them. Well, that’s fine. There are also informants in their online group from other law enforcement agencies who will occasionally tip me off about the danger that is coming to me. I don’t know why they do that, and I don’t even know for which agencies they work. I don’t know why the several law enforcement agencies which are working on this gang-stalking case I’m talking about are working against each other.

I’m spilling out all this because, in case I should get arrested for “online slandering” and “online harassment”, this posting might be counter-evidence against the charges against me. The fact that I don’t use any names in the narrative above, and don’t place any links, clearly proves that I don’t intend for the women referred to in the above summary to be identified. And I don’t intend for myself to be identified either. And so what this Sheffield guy did is very much not appreciated. Members’ email addresses on this forum should have remained private.

And now I have even changed the email address, and so don’t bother me anymore. I consider [...] this thread [to be] closed. Please leave it alone.

As you can see, the suspect is almost correct in his description of what has happened. The only thing is – none of the law enforcement informants inside the Secret Society women’s enterprise have ever tipped him off about anything. He’s just bluffing – so that nobody can accuse him of fabricating things out of his imagination due to schizophrenia. Now the LB Admin and the other LB members should be more or less shocked – so this guy does know what’s going on, although he has somehow thought that the LB Admin is a guy – but will continue to believe that the suspect does suffer from paranoid delusions about people’s going after him. Most people are simply not capable of reasoning.

She has posted the reply in order to enable law enforcement and Homeland Security to intercept the posting as evidence and yet quickly deleted it before the suspect gets to see it. This, because Homeland Security CO chief and the Secret Society women don't want the suspect to know what exactly he has been accused of. What is the remaining evidence which Homeland Security CO chief still needs to justify his false profile of the suspect in the ICJ? We must thus assume that the LB Admin has posted something to the effect that she was freaked out by the suspect's insider knowledge so that Homeland Security CO chief might obtain more evidence for the ICJ showing the suspect to really be a computer-hacker. Then this evidence of computer-hacking might also serve in some way as evidence for the suspect's receiving communication from the Russian intelligence service. (In other words, the LB Admin was simply instructed by Homeland Security CO chief to post whatever she has posted.)

(1) About the Legal Beagles Forum

Here is what we know about the LB Admin "Sharon (King) Coleman" (b. 05.12.1974). She has by this time already divorced with three or four teenage children and is currently living with a certain "Julian Siddle" in the Sheffield region. (She would later marry JS in May 2019.) She's tech-savvy (hence uses Linux) and will soon also found several other online legal services besides LB (e.g. JustBeagle).⁴⁰

A search on Dehashed reveals the following accounts on LB, all owned by either Sharon or JS (with passwords omitted):

Username: zyngawf_41318032

Username: Amethyst_1664
IP address: 86.2.89.123 (cable.virginm.net, Middlesbrough, UK*)

Unfortunately, a search for the username "amethyst" against all social media sites using recon-ng (06.03.2022) yields 181 results. This is a very common username and certainly most of the following are unrelated to Sharon:
