VII

The third International Court of Justice trial over the suspect

1-C

The following reconstructs the operations of the Secret Society women and Homeland Security CO chief against the suspect and the associated trial in the International Court of Justice from 30 November to 10 December, 2015.

Again, we are now in a new phase where, because Homeland Security CO chief has decided to use his false profile of the suspect to convict the Russians instead, each party is now fighting a two-front war: the CIA against the Russians and Homeland Security; the Russians against Homeland Security and the CIA; and Homeland Security against the Russians and the CIA.

We shall of course comment briefly on the suspect's progress with his writings – since that's the pivot around which the controversy about him turns. The suspect is now fully at work on “The creation of autism...”, DOC-1, but also continues to work on his (mostly worthless) reconstruction of the happenings from June 2014. Furthermore, after noticing that the debate about him has started again in the ICJ, he soon starts working on the latest developments since 13 November as well.

Here are the essentials during the period under consideration.

30.11: the Secret Society women spend the whole day brainstorming with their volunteers about how to prove to any detectives that the Homeland Security warning about the suspect is indeed correct so that a new case can be opened somewhere. They focus on the suspect's misogynist ideology and delusions about being mind-controlled and gone after by his women victims, but most of the time they are just working on his supposed plagiarism. (The Val-d'Or volunteer shows up late at night.)

01.12: since no police departments will accept his warning about the suspect, Homeland Security CO chief instructs the Secret Society women to complain to a special Homeland Security department. From 3:30 PM, with the Chula Vista volunteer leading the way, ANG and so on start making their reports.

02.12: from 3:20 PM onward, the Secret Society women mobilize volunteers to make more special reports to the said Homeland Security department about the suspect's delusions about intelligence agencies and his misogynist ideology. 10:30 PM, the Partisans also make a report (on behalf of Marion) to the same department, emphasizing however that the Homeland Security warning, while true, means that the suspect wants to harm the famous women he's obsessed with.

03.12: ANG's special report on 6:30 AM. The reports about the suspect's plagiarism continue. Sibel's possible report on 1:47 AM.

04.12: 3:07 PM, a special report from Prof. W. From 3:30 PM onward, Homeland Security CO chief starts requiring the suspect to research the European far right parties in order to obtain the necessary evidence for him to proceed against Russia in the ICJ. 5 – 6 PM, the CIA obtains, from the suspect's conversation with W, the first evidence to discredit the special Homeland Security department's validation of the Homeland Security warning.

05.12: Homeland Security CO chief enters evidence into the ICJ that the suspect continues to conspire with Russia by wanting to help the European far right parties harm the US. ANG and SDW make their special reports to the European authority while volunteers concentrate on reporting the suspect for plagiarism.

06.12: the suspect's conversation with Dan is evidence in favor of the CIA. NULND lends her support to Homeland Security CO chief and the SVR instructs Evgeny to ask the suspect questions as they begin to repel Homeland Security CO chief's accusation in the ICJ. Then, later in the night, the Brazilian volunteer's report on behalf of Marion and SDW's report about her victimization by the suspect.

07.12: morning, the Great Boss has also lent his support to Homeland Security CO chief by validating his warning about the suspect. Prof. W is asked to make the same complaint again. The Secret Society women then summon the Calvin College volunteer to make special reports about the suspect's plagiarism. The TMU/ CIA team then mobilizes their moles in the Secret Society women's organization to undermine ANG's false reports about her naked pictures on the suspect's website.

08.12: both Homeland Security and the Russians respond to the TMU/ CIA's evidence of ANG's fraud by producing a stream of evidences demonstrating the women victims to be truthful witnesses (plagiarism, misogyny, delusions on Prison Planet). Midnight, the TMU/ CIA mobilizes Shizuka again.

09.12: after Shizuka's sabotage again, Homeland Security CO chief and the Secret Society women respond massively by producing endless evidences and testimonies demonstrating that the suspect does violate intellectual property laws (including Youtube's banning of his movie). Late night, Homeland Security has also obtained evidence of the suspect's delusions about his women victims' going after him from his new posting on AVFM.

10.12: Homeland Security CO chief continues to fight back: (a) the Turkish volunteer's complaint about the suspect's harassment of Eva or Anja on 6:26 AM; (b) the Rancho Cordova volunteer's testimony about the suspect's misogynist ideology on 7:19 AM; and (c) the Boss' family's complaint on 12:31 PM. However, the Utsunomiya volunteer around 12:30 PM has most likely sabotaged the complaint process. But, then, the suspect himself has provided Homeland Security CO chief with more evidence with his bullshit message on AVFM and then visit to the DGSE's website.

30 November (Monday)

We shall start from where we left off: yesterday the Secret Society women took another victim of the suspect's vandalism to a police department (Hermosa Beach? Pasadena? Santa Monica?) to open a case on the suspect using the Homeland Security warning about him, but the request was again rejected. However, late night, Homeland Security CO chief was able to use LB Admin to create some evidence suggesting that the suspect is indeed receiving secret messages from (colluding with) the Russian intelligence service SVR.

Now, today's happenings. First, a note about the suspect. The suspect passes the night in Westwood Village. He wakes up on 5 AM, due to the cold. He goes to Starbucks. 6:40 AM, he posts this notice on AVFM:

It appears that the Sheffield person is just the site owner of LB herself. It's actually a woman. Why is she running a "men's rights forum"?

Within 6 hours of my posting the above summary on 15 November, she has agreed to cooperate with the gang of women and to pretend to show concern about the post and Google my account activation email address to track down my website and the identities of the gang of women referred to in the story. This is clearly a violation of forum members' privacy in order to help the gang of women to get me arrested.

Once again, I have no intention for anybody mentioned in the summary account to be identified. It's usually impossible for people designated by "J", "K", "G", "M" to be identified in any case.

The Sheffield person has deleted the thread over there at LB within three hours of the posting of the above reply. She probably will then see the replicate here and complain to the UK police about [my] slandering. We'll then just have to argue whether the IP address noted above is actually hers. But then she can always just deny that she has in fact contacted the gang of women.<sup>1</sup>

As you can see, the suspect is getting quite close to the truth. Now, back to the Secret Society women's volunteers' operation on the suspect's website for today. 4:34 AM, 188x235x255x50.static-customer.188-50.ertelecom.ru, Krasnoyarsk, Russia,*

Meanwhile, the suspect has gone to Worksource, 7 AM. Orientation. He is barely able to concentrate: he's frightened about being falsely arrested as a computer-hacker. He's thinking only about how to escape. (Worthless worries here.) He is there until 1 PM. Afterwards, he is coming back to downtown. While on the bus, he deletes Metasploit (which he has never used) from his computer for fear of being misunderstood. (Not completely, however.) He wonders whether law enforcement surveillance might have picked this up. (There is a black man wearing earphones sitting behind the suspect on the bus.)

Is this a real visit? Or is it because he is using the Yandex browser?

Thus we see that the Secret Society women have merely spent a whole day brainstorming with their volunteers about how to prove to any detectives that the Homeland Security warning about the suspect is correct so that a new case can be opened somewhere. They focus on the suspect's misogynist ideology and delusions about being mind-controlled and gone after by his women victims, but most of the time they are just working on his supposed plagiarism.

1 December (Tuesday; special "Homeland Security department")

First, a note about the suspect. He wakes up late. Father Bob calls! It's about his volunteering at Urban Ministry.<sup>3</sup> Why does Father Bob suddenly call the suspect when he has never done this before? MST then causes the suspect to miss the bus. He leaves home only after 1:30 PM. No time for Social Security Administration. Bail Hotline. Urban Ministry. Then, instead of Forum, the suspect is going to a German language lesson meetup in West LA. He talks to Angela while on the bus, and then he discovers the indexing. (See below.) He is shocked (although happy since this indicates that the police didn't approve the computer-hacking charges). (He doesn't know he's wrong.) 6:26 PM, the suspect, arriving in Westwood, begins removing his ancient (20 year-old) manga "Limit of Love," etc., from his Old Gallery. Also the portrait "Monkey Pyramid".

Now the Secret Society women's operation on the suspect's website for today. 4:07 AM,

3 In: "frBobcalled_12_1_15_1120PM.MP3": Fr. Bob has been sick since he came from the training. He says he just wants to make sure the suspect is doing okay. The suspect says he'll drop by today. Fr. Bob says he will be in the office today and tomorrow. Today, most of the afternoon. Fr. Bob is really inviting the suspect over. Did Homeland Security CO chief instruct Fr. Bob to call the suspect?

Is this another one of SDW's TI friends? Desperately searching for evidence of the suspect's delusions about his women victims so that the women gang can go back to the Pasadena/ Santa Monica/ Hermosa Beach Police Department? Or rather because of something else? But none of the evidence is there anymore!

The third ICJ trial over the suspect, I-C.
Lawrence C. Chin
Feb. 2016; rewritten Aug. 2022

One of the suspect's searches for this IP address later tonight

See the warning about this IP address: <https://www.paulstechtalk.com/2009/02/being-a-bad-bot/>. See also this warning: <http://hostile-ip-addresses.blogspot.com/2011/02/denial-of-service-attack-from.html>. It is said that this IP address belongs to Homeland Security. It seems that this is what has happened: because no police departments would accept the Homeland Security warning about the suspect and the women victims' claims against him, Homeland Security CO chief decides to let ANG complain to one of Homeland Security's own departments in order to be able to intercept some temporary evidence into the ICJ and lock up the previous ICJ trial for the time being. ANG thus starts telling the Homeland Security department in question that she's afraid to visit the suspect's website looking for what delusional slander he might have blasted about her, all because the suspect, due to suffering paranoid schizophrenia, is wont to mistake the purpose of the visits and construct, on the basis of these visits, further delusional scenarios about how his women victims are going after him. And so the Homeland Security department asks Homeland Security CO chief to send out the department's own robot to cache the suspect's entire website so that the "victims" can look through it offline without tipping off the suspect.<sup>4</sup> (And the robot program is still running on Windows XP!)

4:33 PM – while the indexing is still in progress, the Chula Vista volunteer comes again:

4 The wrong scenario in the original version that is here deleted: "This incident might also help cover up the fact that the Secret Society women have already instructed the HK Hacker to cache the suspect's entire website many times. Evidently, the HK Hacker has been instructed to destroy that cache to eliminate evidences, now that the entire story has changed: the women have never filed any stalking or hate crime claims against the suspect at any law enforcement agency in the past. The suspect has imagined all this up by mistaking the meaning of the visits to his website. The women have only visited it out of concern for his paranoid delusion about them."

Also not there anymore. 37 seconds later, she clicks on the second search result:

174.66.163.236 - - [01/Dec/2015:17:34:11 -0700] "GET /petition/n4b-17/n4b-17.pdf HTTP/1.1" 404 1360 "https://www.google.com" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10.9; rv:42.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/42.0"

Again, not there anymore. 22 seconds later, the third search result:

174.66.163.236 - - [01/Dec/2015:17:37:33 -0700] "GET /01_09_47/01_29_47.pdf HTTP/1.1" 404 1360 "-" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10.9; rv:42.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/42.0"

As she continues to Google for the suspect, however, she finds nothing. Everything is removed. But we can now at least be sure that this friend of SDW's is here to make reports to the special Homeland Security department in question rather than searching for evidence to pass onto the police departments just mentioned.

Meanwhile, the Homeland Security indexing continues: the Table of Contents again. 4:53 PM, the translations of Christian Dogmatics.

Let's conclude. From 3:30 PM onward the Secret Society women are reporting the suspect to a special Homeland Security department so that Mr Homeland Security CO chief can intercept some temporary evidence into the ICJ to prevent the CIA from reactivating the previous ICJ trial. For this reason, the women gang describe the suspect in precise conformity to the Homeland Security warning about him: his delusions about his women victims' going after him (even though all such documents and blog posts have been removed), his particular brand of misogynist ideology, his delusions about being involved with the CIA and gone after by Homeland Security, and, most importantly, his plagiarism (even though he has really never plagiarized in his life).

2 December (Wednesday)

First, a note about the suspect. He wakes up 10 AM, leaving home 10:30 AM. He comes to the Social Security Administration, 11:46 AM. He obtains the letter needed for Worksource. Then he comes to the library to check his log.<sup>5</sup> Then, he sets out for Westwood, to catch his appointment at Edelman. He is with Dr Burns on 2:30 PM. After that, he comes back to Westwood. Starbucks. He checks his log again. He is getting worried over the Secret Society women's renewed actions. 5:30 PM, he leaves for Draw Anything LA Meetup. He's there until 9:15 PM.<sup>6</sup> He is very worried about the Secret Society women's actions/ (Alert?) He talks to Angela on the phone. He then comes back to Westwood. He's in Starbucks again.<sup>7</sup> He is depressed because he has to post on AVFM again in view of the indexing from yesterday. All this is draining his time and energy away. He works on the post until past 2 AM. He has to finish it and post it while outside Starbucks (around 2:50 AM) because the coffeehouse is closed already. The suspect then sleeps in Westwood Village.

Now the Secret Society women's operation on the suspect's website for today. 4:18 AM, ncs188.empsn.capitalbytes.com, Leicester, UK,*

- 5 The recording of today: "EdelmanStrbkwstwd_12_2_15_1202PM.MP3": the suspect has just come out of SSA. 2:00, he leaves a message for Renée (the SSI letter). From 10:00 onward, the suspect is inside the library. 30:00, he leaves. 38:00, siren. 44:00, siren again. 50:00, on the bus. 1:56:00, off the bus, and siren again. On the bus again. 2:07:50, siren again. In Edelman. 2:32:00, with Dr Burns. The suspect mentions how he lost his new shoes here the last time. He would rather take Zyprexa than Seroquel. Abilify is not good med. Dr Burns says she would call the pharmacy and then asks how the court session went the last time. What happened last time was that the DA was pushing him to pay damages, and the witness is part of this group of women who are going after him... The DA didn't add any new charges, but the women gang went to the Manhattan Beach Police Department to try to open a new case on him over there. They seem to have failed, but the suspect is very scared everyday, even afraid to go home at times. Dr Burns does change the suspect's medication to Zyprexa. Because the suspect has removed his website, the women are even angrier, having less evidence than before. Dr Burns: "Why did you do?" "I write about them on my website... then about how they falsely report me to law enforcement... now they just want to silence me..." "Why did you write about them?" "Rambling... about one woman, a good story... now they are going after me because I write about how they are going after me..." "Do you think if you stop contact with them... they'll leave you alone?" "No... After they opened a case at the Manhattan Beach Police Department, I must write about that..." Dr Burns continues to persuade the suspect to stop "debunking them". How ANG insists the suspect's Goddess Athena is she and how the suspect must debunk her. Then how everyone on the Internet forums does know who the suspect is and who the Secret Society women are. The suspect has already had 10 interviews and got nothing: he'll not be able to pay restitution when 29 December comes. Dr Burns refuses to talk to the public defenders. She knows of Dr R but doesn't know her personally. She asks the suspect whether he really believes there are chips planted in his brain and refuses to look up "brain-computer interface". 3:03:20, she sends the suspect away. 3:05:50, on the street. 3:27:00, on the bus. (Reviewed until 3:40:00.)
- 6 The recording is: "DrawLA_12_2_15_606PM.MP3": on the bus. 1:16:00, the suspect is at the meetup. Kelly says her birthday is 20 November. 3:10:00, the suspect leaves. 3:16:50, he's connected with Angela. "What happened at the Forum yesterday?" Then: who were there? 3:18:30, siren. Then, what she did today. Did she just come back from church? Her clothing. She used to be quite skinny, and she wants to keep a good figure for her husband. "He's not gonna abandon you just because you've gained a few pounds." On and on about her marriage. 3:26:10, the suspect claims that, yesterday, the police have dismissed the Secret Society women's case but that, today, they have opened a new case elsewhere. (His wrong understanding.) But he's not so worried anymore that he might be arrested, although he's still quite fatigued by the constant need to track their activities on his website. "They should get a big medal for their perseverance... what a waste of time... they have no goals in their life, so they spend their time going after me... but I have important things to do... it's been going on for three and a half years..." Just then, the suspect is getting on the bus (3:31:00). Angela asks him what he does on the computer, and when the next court date is. 3:36:10, the suspect hangs up with Angela. 4:40:00, after a long bus ride, the suspect is back in Starbucks, Westwood.
- 7 The recording of the late night: "strbkwstwd_12_2_15_1159PM.MP3": 40:00, the suspect is talking about W with a stranger (a professor at SM College).

Note that, while the FN affirms that the Homeland Security warning about the suspect is indeed correct, they will have to dispute Homeland Security CO chief's claim that the suspect is conspiring with them. They are here complaining too only because they want to help the Russians prevent the CIA from reactivating the previous ICJ trial while at the same time repelling Homeland Security CO chief's new charge. (This volunteer's report thus must be: "He's obsessed with our Marion. 2:50 AM, as noted, the suspect has posted on AVFM's forum – pay attention to this for it reflects the suspect's understanding, at the time still half-correct and half-wrong, of the Homeland Security operations against him:

‘An update on my current situation – sorry, even if nobody really cares, the posting keeps me safe.

‘It appears that, because of the actions of the LB Admin on late night, 29 November, the gang of women were able to produce new evidences for my “computer-hacking” for the detectives who were already inclined to dismiss the case against me. For the whole day of 30 November until 6:30 PM, they submitted to the detectives a few more testimonies about discovering, online, my plagiarism, misogynist rambling, “computer-hacking”, and [paranoid] delusion. Then they waited for the detectives' response. By noon, 1 December, however, the detectives had dismissed the women's case. The women were so upset that, by late afternoon, they got their computer hackers to cache the entirety of my website (or what remains of it) again so that they could spend the night examining every single remaining webpage and document on my website to see if they could make some criminal case out of them. I noticed it an hour later, and noticed also that, among the old drawings that still remained on my website, there was actually a 5 year-old portrait of G. I had forgotten to remove it. I promptly removed it, along with some manga drawings which I did more than 20 years ago when I was a teenager and was into manga and anime. I knew that this was definitely something which the gang of women would want to make use of to either revive their case or report me to somewhere else.

‘Then, on 2 December, it all seemed that my prediction had come true. It appears that G was now able to use the technique “seeing a horse and calling it an elephant” with greater confidence. She was either going back to the detectives [or] going to a new authority, showed them the portrait she had discovered from caching my website, then claimed that there were naked pictures of her on my website, but asked the authority not to look at the “naked pictures” in order to respect her privacy. Instead, she would instruct one of her online friends to look at one of my old paintings of the same goddess and lie that it's a painting of her. She would then bring the friend's “testimony” to the authority instead. In this way, she hoped, she could establish a case of “online harassment” against me. You first tell a little truth, then you lie, and your lie will be believed. It would appear that she and her gang had gone to the authority on the afternoon of 2 December with these “evidences” plus the old evidences like the above summary and all the false testimonies from her online friends about seeing plagiarized materials, misogynist rambling, “computer hacking”, and schizophrenic expressions about government conspiracies either on my website or elsewhere on the Internet (mine or not, it doesn’t matter).

‘I have no idea whether the gang of women have gone to the same detective to revive their case or [whether they] have found another authority to report me to. For this time they aren’t going to make the mistake of getting the District Attorneys or police departments to leave behind their IP addresses on my log to tip me off, in which case it would also be hard to persuade people afterwards to believe that I [do] suffer [from paranoid] schizophrenia when I suspect that these women are attempting to falsely prosecute me.

‘I have no idea whether they have succeeded this time. What I don’t understand is that, ever since my website has been removed, the evidences the gang of women have submitted against me are so ridiculous that they couldn’t possibly be used to prosecute me. If I have, years ago, talked about, in some online forums, about my website being hacked, the women would track down the post and have one of their friends pretend to be a stranger submitting to the detective a testimony saying I was talking about hacking people’s computers. Then G would use my old paintings of some other women as “evidences” that I have violated her privacy by putting her pictures online. The gang of women can use these as “evidences” with the detectives because they are covered by “victim confidentiality” so that the detectives will not look at what I actually wrote or drew in order to respect [the] women’s “privacy”. But if I [should] get arrested, the District Attorneys cannot be told that they aren’t allowed to look at the evidences. It should therefore be the case that the gang of women are now aiming for what has happened with CH’s case. Instead of prosecuting me, they probably only want law enforcement to produce an alert about me, which can then be broadcast to everybody in online forums, in universities, etc., as well as be included in a new warning about me in diplomatic channels. Namely, to get me “blacklisted”.

‘This women gang’s goal is ultimately to silence me, and if not, to preemptively discredit me, because I know about their illegal conducts against me and might speak about it – even though nobody else, and nobody in law enforcement, gives the slightest crap. Getting a law enforcement alert broadcast about me could certainly serve the purpose of preemptively discrediting me, although not banning me from speaking altogether.

‘The profile which the gang of women will have law enforcement establish about me would say something like:

“‘He cyberstalks women and hacks their computers and spills their private information on his website and everywhere else online in violation of their privacy. He gets obsessed with women and then develops [paranoid] delusion that they are going after him in some sort of conspiracy (government or not). His [paranoid] schizophrenia leads him to believe in all sorts of government conspiracies. He puts these women’s naked pictures on his website. He plagiarizes, or steals other people’s scholarly works and artworks and claims them as his own. He is a racist and Nazi sympathizer (although he’s not white). He attacks women (or their property) out of misogynist hatred. He is very dangerous. He constantly rambles misogynist hatred online and fills his website with malware.”

‘When it doesn’t mean I’ll get arrested, I actually find this profile of me quite amusing sometimes. I know that the gang of women have been portraying me just in this way to thousands of people online, and I laugh when thinking about how everybody actually believes that this cartoon figure really does exist. It’s often kind of fun to see people getting duped by the most stupid things. But I won’t enjoy it if the District Attorneys or law enforcement detectives believe the lies, evidently.

‘And of course the profile will say that G, along with J, K, and M, has especially been his “victim”. “He is obsessed with her, stalks her, hacks her computer, puts her private information and naked pictures online, and then attacks her properties.” None of which has actually ever happened, of course. But this information will make G a very happy woman. Her greatest goal in life is to become my “victim”. She doesn’t want to become somebody or do something amazing in her life. All she ever wants is to become my “victim”. And not the victim of any other guy, but me. She has an obsession with me. She will never rest until, one day, some law enforcement authority has affirmed that I have been obsessed with her, stalked her, and harmed her. She has been pursuing this goal for almost three years by now. I don’t know how to get rid of her. I’m absolutely terrified of her, because she will never stop wanting to be my “victim”. I believe that she is suffering from a serious mental illness (“a pathological desire to be known as a victim of ‘violence against women’”) which the psychiatric authority has never named. Like Betty Friedan’s “problem with no name”, this is a “disease with no name”. Maybe “victim feminism”? And J and M also suffer [from] the same disease.

‘I only hope I can get help in this regard.

‘Before I leave, I want to post the log entries for the LB Admin’s activities on my website on 16 November and 29 November in order to illustrate a point:

‘And so on. The fact that she was looking for the same documents and, upon not finding them, then went to the Wayback Machine to find them is indicated clearly on the log. And the fact that she was using a different IP address fools nobody. And yet, while probably accusing me of falsely accusing her out of [my] paranoia, she must have then reported to the police (via the women’s gang) behind my back saying I must have hacked her computer because I couldn’t possibly have known what she has done.

‘I only wish I could really hack so that I won’t have to guess all the time where danger comes next.

‘Nevertheless, it’s very much possible to understand what the gang of women is doing by carefully considering what they are doing on your website. And, if I guess it right, they’ll deny it, and then report me for [suffering from paranoid] schizophrenia. If I guess it wrong, they’ll report me all the same. But, so what? If I guess it wrong, just pretend I’m writing fiction here. Nobody is supposed to know who I’m talking about. Nobody gives a damn in any case.’

As you shall see, the truest part in this otherwise inadequate understanding has been italicized: ANG has decided she wants to be recognized as a “victim” of the suspect’s stalking and will never rest until she gets this recognition. By the time of this rewrite, she will have already labored 12 years and spent approximately 22,000 hours in pursuit of this most ambitious goal of life. Then, beside this, we have also marked in red something that will have some significance later on.

Shizuka continues to be part of the discussion or complaint process – is she again sabotaging, behind the Secret Society women’s back, their work with the special Homeland Security department?

Now, let’s conclude. Today is the second day that the Secret Society women are mobilizing their volunteers to make special reports to the special Homeland Security department confirming for them that the Homeland Security warning about the suspect is all correct. While most of the reports in the first half of the day concern the suspect’s supposed plagiarism, from 3:20 PM onward, volunteers begin making special reports about the suspect’s delusions about intelligence agencies and some ICJ trial, which have even prompted him to write crazy letters to the North Korean government. And more reports too about his particular brand of misogynist ideology. Then, 10:30 PM, the Partisans, trying to help revive the Homeland Security warning about the suspect while disputing, at the same time, Homeland Security CO chief’s claim about the suspect’s desire to help them, also ask a Zurich volunteer to make a complaint on behalf of Marion to the special Homeland Security department.

3 December (Thursday; the German Lady’s meetup)

First, a note about the suspect. He wakes up 7 AM in Westwood Village. Starbucks. He discovers Flightless Bird’s response. 9:12 AM, he posts a reply. (See below.) 9:42 AM, he also deletes the links to all the forum postings from the external links page on his website. He then walks to Ackerman. 10:29 AM, he checks his website from the computers inside the Ackerman bookstore. Then, after eating (with his Spanish lesson again), the suspect comes back to the Village. As he is waiting for buses, he suddenly realizes the nature of the game. He hurries back to Starbucks to post his realization on AVFM. He is done by 12:46 PM. (Again, see below.) Thus he’s feeling much safer.

3:48 PM, at downtown, the suspect goes inside this cybercafe to check his website and his posting on AVFM just to make sure that the new law enforcement case has not resulted in blockage or other tricks about his online activities. Everything is fine. Then the suspect comes to Starbucks. But he can’t connect to the Wi-Fi in Starbucks. Then, storage. By then, the mouse pad on his Asus laptop has stopped functioning definitively. It’s not clear whether this is “natural” or whether Homeland Security and the Russians have done it because of their case in the ICJ. The suspect then comes back to downtown. He’s now at the public library. Then he attends Chrysalis’ Empowerment Writing show. He sits with Tanisha. 8:30 PM, he leaves, and is at Starbucks again. He checks his log, and then rides the bus home.

Near home, the suspect gets angry because he realizes that, at some point after 21 November, his reconstruction must have gone askew. (He is quite right.) He experiences hatred toward this American system of secrecy in order to exacerbate the problem for everybody. (Again, he fails to appreciate the fact that virtually every problem in his life is caused by Homeland Security alone.) Between 11 and 11:40 PM, his Asus laptop continues to malfunction. All browsers have crashed, Sony Voice Editor crashes, Windows Explorer crashes, France 24 crashes. In combination with the society’s “conspiracy” to make him look crazy: he experiences severe hatred toward xxxxxxxx. (We however have to wonder whether it’s Homeland Security CO chief again who wants him to go into his anti-American ranting again in order to confirm his profile of him as an anti-American terrorist (which would be, as you shall see, more and more Homeland Security CO chief's main evidence that the suspect is in conspiracy with Russia.) The suspect is now convinced that the authority has placed malware in his computer. (Wrong.) Even this diary freezes repeatedly.

Now the Secret Society women's operation on the suspect's website for today. 4:19 AM, Globe Telecoms, Quezon City, Philippines, 4:31 AM, Flightless Bird has posted a reply to the suspect – an advice.

The third ICJ trial over the suspect, I-C.
Lawrence C. Chin
Feb. 2016; rewritten Aug. 2022

Flightless Bird's advice plus the suspect's reply almost 5 hours later

The suspect cannot escape the impression that this Flightless Bird was instructed by the TMU/ CIA team to post this to warn him. For a long time to come, his hypothesis would be that, since the latest law enforcement case against him is opened on the ground that he is dangerous to the Secret Society women because he suffers, due to his obsession with them, from this delusion that they have been attempting to falsely prosecute him, his continual pronouncement about their past attempts to “get him” – when all this has already been ruled to be the “product of his schizophrenic delusion” – puts him in increasing danger (looks like a confirmation of the women’s claim about him, that he’s obsessed with them). The TMU/ CIA, with their true profile of the suspect at stake in the ICJ, thus wants him to desist, for fear not only that he might produce more evidences in support of Homeland Security CO chief’s case but also that he might really get arrested by law enforcement, thus screwing up the Agency’s whole plan. Today we must suppose – since we now know that the case in the past two days is actually opened at a special Homeland Security department, not with any police department – that, while it’s most likely indeed the TMU/ CIA team who has instructed Flightless Bird to warn the suspect, this is to dissuade him from looking obsessional to that special Homeland Security department’s officers, not to any police detectives. That is, the truth shouldn’t be too far off from the suspect’s original hypothesis: the Secret Society women will use the suspect’s rambling about them, even when it is sort of true, as evidence in support of their claim that Homeland Security, and they, are 100 percent correct about him.

12:46 PM, the suspect posts his last, “essential”, post on AVFM:

“Okay, FlightlessBird, I got it figured out. This is the official story line. Everything which I said has happened before November this year (the 7 stalking claims, false reports, etc.) is considered by law enforcement to be the product of my [paranoid] schizophrenia. Things which I have narrated to have happened after November this year ([the] LB Admin, [the] DA, and the small city’s police department) is, however, considered by law enforcement to be half-true, half-false. The official story line is apparently:

“On 16 November, the LB Admin, after seeing the above summary posted on her forum, got very concerned about the mental state of the poster, Googled his email address, identified his website and the women referred to in the summary, and contacted the women. The women responded saying they have been, for a while, very frightened by this guy’s [paranoid] delusion that they have been going after him by making false reports about him to law enforcement. They must have admitted that they have failed to convince the DA, but, now, with the LB Admin’s communication, they could go to the small city’s police department to open a case on their suspect for ‘online harassment’, etc. The women’s story must be that this guy, when he sees visits to his website from strange places, has wrongly assumed that they are responsible for it, all because he suffers [from] incurable [paranoid] schizophrenia. But, yet, when the DA and the police visit his website, he is able to conclude, correctly, that it’s because these women have gone to the DA and the police to show them his website in an attempt to report him. So the official story line is that this guy is mostly insane, although sometimes he is correct, because he spends a lot of time on his log. He has therefore correctly identified [the] LB Admin’s actions behind his back despite his mental insanity and disconnect with reality, and both the LB Admin and the group of women, being so frightened to visit his website fearing that he might misunderstand the purposes, ask law enforcement to look at his website instead. And so law enforcement, on 1 December, sent a robot to cache the suspect’s entire website so that the ‘victims’ (the group of women and their associates) can look through the website offline without the suspect’s noticing.

“And so the previous posting is incorrect. The detectives haven’t dismissed the case against the suspect at all.

“Okay, thanks FlightlessBird, I have got it figured out. This is the safe way. As long as I desist from continuing this thread, I should be safe. But the previous posting about the removal of the portrait and Manga drawings is indeed necessary, for this is evidence that, by now, not even such minor objectionable contents exist on the said website anymore.”

Now this is much closer to the truth than the suspect’s previous speculations. (What is correct is marked in red.) It’s not clear however how the post is supposed to become evidence of the suspect’s insanity for the special Homeland Security department (especially since someone “delusional” is not supposed to know that he’s considered “delusional” by the authority). In any

Plagiarism. Murray State University is supposedly located in Murray, Kentucky. It's not clear why the WHOIS record says "San Marcos, California":

The screenshot shows a Firefox browser window with the 'WhatIsMyIPAddress.com' website. The search bar contains the IP address '65.8.66.207'. The main content area displays the following information for the IP address 216.249.145.196:

- Decimal: 3640234436
- Hostname: 216.249.145.196
- ASN: 14760

- Longitude: -117.166138 (117° 9' 58.10" W)

Let's summarize. Today is the third day that the Secret Society women are reporting to the special Homeland Security department. However, other than the Traverse City volunteer's special report about the suspect's delusions about ANG on 6:30 AM ("Ying and Yang", II) and Sibel's report about the suspect's harassment of her by quoting her on 1:47 AM, there are no noteworthy visits. We must assume that the women gang has spent the whole day solidifying their testimonies about the suspect's supposed plagiarism.<sup>10</sup>

4 December (Friday; W/ the far-rights)

First, a note about the suspect. MST (with saved videos). The suspect then leaves home on 12:30 PM. He gets on the bus going toward Westwood and rereads his writing on how to develop Russia's soft-power. He has realized something. When he's in Starbucks, Westwood, he searches for "State Department, EU far rights". Somehow, the Internet connection is very slow, and he can't download any PDF documents. His computer has completely malfunctioned. Is it Homeland Security which is obstructing his Internet connections? Or is it the CIA? Is it because Homeland Security CO chief doesn't want him to write anything more which might contradict his false profile of him as uneducated and a plagiarizer? Or is it because the Invisible Hand doesn't want more people to become his "victims"? Or is it because Homeland Security CO chief doesn't want him to write anything which is pro-US, since that would definitely contradict his argument that he is conspiring with the Russians and the Partisans to harm the US (for which the anti-American tone of his "Marine document", at the very least, is evidence)?

(We must assume that it's in fact the CIA which is blocking the suspect. Because the special Homeland Security department is ready to broadcast an alert about the suspect, if the suspect writes more essays about the anti-American far right parties of Europe, then the department will have reasons to...)

Now let's continue with the Secret Society women's operation on the suspect's website for today. 5:38 AM, 209-252-188-6.ip.mcleodusa.net, Garland, Texas,*

Is he forging evidence of the suspect's plagiarism (how he has plagiarized his theory on linear perspective)? How did he get here? There is no showing of his previous appearance.

Did Robin just rejoin the complaint process?

5:10 PM, the suspect calls W while in Starbucks (from 3:17:40 onward). Here are the details of the conversation:<sup>12</sup> (1) "I'm always under law enforcement investigation... Everything which has happened before November the Secret Society women will deny; but not their trip to the DA and the Manhattan Beach Police Department... there are no more meanings to the visits to my website... no need to track them anymore..." The suspect is all wrong. Then he recounts his theory about the LB Admin's actions on 16 November, and here he's half-right and half-wrong. (2) Many strange visits to the suspect's artworks lately, and then Homeland Security's indexing and caching of the suspect's website. This is evidence in the ICJ in favor of the CIA. When the suspect has inferred things incorrectly, people call him "crazy" because most people are not educated enough to be able to distinguish between "wrong inference" and "delusion". (Such has been the Invisible Hand's argument since 2012.) (3) The suspect finds it impossible to eliminate the German Lady's name from his story, and, besides, even if he could eliminate it, she'll still complain. (4) The US' possible strategy for dealing with the rise of far right parties in Europe: projecting a conservative, Christian image. On the one hand, this is good evidence for Homeland Security CO chief in that it seems to suggest that the suspect is indeed delusional, but on the other hand it's very bad evidence for him because it seems to disprove that the suspect is thoroughly anti-American and so must be conspiring with the Russians and the FN. In other words, this is perfect evidence for the Russians. Then the suspect notes that there might be "light" for him in this direction. Again, bad evidence for Homeland Security but good evidence for the Russians (although, for both of them, this could be good evidence of the suspect's delusional mind). (5) The suspect mentions how a lot of visits to his website come from universities lately – something that has never happened before, just like the visits from government agencies last year – and wonders how he could use the visitors' log as evidence to prove that there is indeed gang-stalking on cyberspace.<sup>13</sup> W suggests that the suspect not use computers at all. Is W passing on an advice from the Invisible Hand? The suspect retorts: “All problems come from other human beings. Then why don’t you move to an island?” W responds by discounting the Republican defense of gun rights: “Guns don’t kill people, people kill people... but people kill people with guns!” W then continues to discourage the suspect from putting things online and paying attention to the IP addresses on his log. Again, he must be passing on the Invisible Hand’s advice: since everything the suspect puts up online will become evidence, for law enforcement as well as for Homeland Security CO chief in the ICJ, that he continues to suffer from grand delusions about his women victims and political figures: i.e., the same advice as Flightless Bird’s. (6) W continues: “It’s like when you have your window open and walk naked in front of it...” The suspect: “Why don’t you tell women who got raped not to dress sexy? Women have a right to dress sexy?” W: “It’s perfectly legal to walk around naked with your windows open... but don’t be surprised when people see you...” W then continues to argue with the suspect using the “rape example”.<sup>14</sup> Presumably, the Invisible Hand would have wanted W to debate with the suspect in this way so that the suspect’s response can become evidence in favor of the CIA, i.e. that Homeland Security’s, and the Secret Society women’s, profile of the suspect as a misogynist terrorist – loving and hating white women at the same time due to an inability to get laid with them and having no respect for their boundaries – is completely false. (7) In the end, of course, W comes back to the same warning: “If you don’t want... then don’t put anything on the Internet...” Then: “If you want to write about the European far right movement, then face the consequences...” Again, most likely an advice from the Invisible Hand: Homeland Security CO chief is about to use the special Homeland Security department’s validation of his warning as the basis on which to accuse more of Russia’s allies of conspiracy with the suspect. (8) W continues to return to the same old “rape” example: how a woman who walks into a fraternity house half-naked is different from a man who walks into a fraternity house half-naked – something which the Invisible Hand would have liked him to say to test the suspect. Then the suspect uses the example of “Louis” (2013). The suspect concludes: “The problem is that there is someone who doesn’t like you so that, if you fart, he’s gonna get you...”<sup>15</sup> Right! (9) The suspect mentions how, right after “Marine” was in Lille on 30 November, somebody visited his website from the University of Lille on 1 December: “I don’t know if I’m still on some blacklist...” Of course he is! (10) Finally, the suspect is back to the topic of the US’ response to the rise of European far right parties: “But a conservative image is not gonna work in Asia...” W: “You should study ideologies...”

Now, back to the volunteers. 5:15 PM, 050-090-117-142.res.spectrum.com, Fishers, Indiana,*

13 The suspect uses the example of the FBI’s analysis of bullet fragments to determine which gun is used to commit the murder: most people don’t understand how the visitors’ log can reveal a lot of things.

14 Note the loud siren on 3:52:00.

15 Now, in the original version, there is this conclusion at this point, which seems to be fairly okay even today: “Note also the suspect’s comment: ‘Everybody farts, but, when I fart, I’ll be arrested, while nothing happens to [the] other people who fart, all because there are people who don’t like me and who are looking for every little fault on my part.’ A perfect description. He is being accused of plagiarizing thousands of times by the Secret Society women – and yet he has never plagiarized. He has always given references when he cites others. But the Secret Society women claim he has plagiarized because he often cites an entire paragraph or an entire page without asking for the publisher’s permission – even though he has given references. Everybody does that on the Internet, of course, and nobody really cares. But the Secret Society women will report the suspect – for they are looking for any dirt they can possibly find on the suspect.”

Evidently, because the CIA has just obtained some favorable evidences minutes ago – that the suspect is not delusional nor a misogynist – a volunteer has now to be mobilized to forge evidence of the suspect's plagiarism: but is he working for the Russian side or for Homeland Security CO chief? Perhaps both sides have agreed that they shall for the time being work together to prove that the suspect does plagiarize, and then fight out the battle later as to whether the suspect does want to help Russia harm the US.

Meanwhile, the suspect. 8:50 PM, a black guy, very vulgar, with tattoos, comes to sit next to him in Starbucks, just when he is about to begin writing "Russian-supported far right parties in Europe". The suspect rightly suspects him to be a Homeland Security surveillance agent. He moves to a different table. With the special Homeland Security department's validation of his warning about the suspect in place, Homeland Security CO chief is now ready to catch more evidence that the suspect continues to try to conspire with Russia's allies to harm the US.

The suspect's particular brand of misogynist ideology? To counter the evidence which the CIA has just obtained that the suspect is not a misogynist? But this volunteer doesn't seem to be quite enthusiastic.

Let's summarize. After three days of receiving testimonies from the Secret Society women, the special Homeland Security department has validated the Homeland Security warning about the suspect, and now Homeland Security CO chief wants the suspect to start writing more about the European far right parties so that he can have more evidence with which to accuse Russia of conspiring with the suspect in the ICJ. However, the CIA has also initiated their campaign to discredit the said validation from the special Homeland Security department and obtained the first evidence, between 5 to 6 PM, that the suspect doesn't fit the Homeland Security profile of him (that he is neither delusional nor misogynist). Both the Russians and Homeland Security CO chief thus start generating more evidence demonstrating that the suspect does plagiarize, and Homeland Security CO chief has intercepted the first evidence that the suspect is now writing out more of his program about Russia and the European far right parties.

It should also be noted that, from today onward, the suspect's Asus would begin to malfunction massively until its keyboard shall completely break down (as you shall see).

5 December (Saturday)

First, a note about the German Lady. Today is the last time this month that she would upload pictures of her meetups to the Meetup website (the 3 December meetup). She would not post anything else for the rest of the month, probably in order to pretend to be scared of the suspect. ("He suffers from this incurable delusion believing that we are going after him, and would act on his delusional belief by cyber-stalking us in return.")

Then, a note about the suspect. He has stayed in Westwood Village all night. He wakes up past 9 AM! He comes back to Starbucks to check his log. By 1 PM, he has come up with a new hypothesis. He then posts this on AVFM: "Lynn on gang-stalking".<sup>16</sup> Then, he buys discs in Ackerman and goes upstairs to take a nap. Past 4 PM, he is awakened by the police. The officer

16 This is what the suspect has posted: "I have received the following in email from somebody; it's a short commentary on 'gang-stalking' along with advices to help victims of gang-stalking. I thought I shall post it here, in case anybody in MRM also suffers this problem. It might be of some help. The following, as indicated in the email notification, is taken from 'Are You Really Crazy, or Are You Being Gang-Stalked?' by Lynn Stuter, [10.01.2006], NewsWithViews.com. I include here only the commentary, since the advices she offers I don't consider to be good at all. But if you want to see the advices, I guess you can just go to the original source. 'The intent of gang-stalking is to (1) render the target, the victim, psychologically demoralized even to the point of committing suicide; (2) make the target appear to the larger community to be mentally unstable in order to discredit and psychologically demoralize the target and ensure that no one will believe the targets when they claim they are being targeted; (3) alienate and marginalize the target from the larger community, even family, making it easier to psychologically demoralize and discredit the target. Gang-stalking relies heavily on (1) the target becoming so psychologically demoralized that he/she believes there must be something wrong with him/her and is, therefore, afraid to say anything for fear others will think him/her crazy; (2) the target will have no evidence beyond his/her word that the gang-stalking is happening; (3) the target will have no detailed records or documentation showing what, when, where, and to what extent; (4) the target will not be able to find out who the perpetrators are or those involved in the gang-stalking.' A technique which the gang-stalkers often use, I would like to add, is called 'Propaganda in the Mirror', which is to simply accuse your victim of doing to you what you have done to him/her. It will completely confuse the bystanders as to who is really victimizing whom. This highly effective technique, unfortunately, Lynn does not seem to have noted in her review of the matter." As shall be seen, this description from Lynn (together with the suspect's addition) will describe perfectly the operations of the Secret Society women and Homeland Security CO chief against the suspect in the coming years, especially in 2021 and 2022, when this chapter is being rewritten.

checks his ID and then lets him go. The suspect comes back to Starbucks. He burns DVD-497B. From 5 PM onward, the keyboard of his Asus laptop malfunctions continually (as noted). Microsoft Paint malfunctions too. 6:30 PM, he checks the date and time of the “Korean scout’s” first appearance, and his Microsoft Word crashes. (He hasn’t yet figured out that this “Korean scout” means absolutely nothing.) 10:20 PM, when the suspect is at El Monte Station, the Windows Explorer on his Asus laptop freezes for 5 minutes. He’s very angered. Then his laptop runs out of battery on the bus. At home, it goes blank, and the suspect has to reboot it. And his Word document goes into repair. Did Homeland Security CO chief do all this?

Now the Secret Society women’s operation on the suspect’s website for today. 4:29 AM,

Let's summarize. Today Homeland Security CO chief should be entering more evidence into the ICJ demonstrating that the suspect has continued to conspire with Russia by devising more programs to help Russia and their allies in Europe harm the US. Meanwhile, as the special Homeland Security department begins broadcasting a new alert about the suspect in Europe, both ANG and SDW are again offering their expert testimonies about this bad-to-the-bone schizophrenic misogynist terrorist stalker (1:07 PM and 12:07 AM).

6 December (Sunday)

First, the suspect. 8:30 AM, he wakes up. He corrects some grammar mistakes in his "Marine essay". Then he is on the bus by 9:30 AM. He arrives in St. Sophia around 11 AM. Father John's sermon alarms him: is there an "Operation Marine"? (Namely, is the CIA utilizing this opportunity to influence Marine's family, looking for chances to melt their heart, so as to soften their anti-Americanism?) In the sermon, Father John just has to say, "We are all bored with our culture..." All this speculation is of course pure bullshit, but we can't be sure whether it's Homeland Security CO chief who has remotely controlled the suspect to come up with this false scenario so that he can have more evidence that the suspect is delusional. 12 PM, the suspect is engaged in a philosophical discussion with Dan.<sup>17</sup> Johanna is not here today. We have to assume that the suspect's weekly conversation with Dan and Johanna, demonstrating himself to be a high functioning intellectual, continues to be the CIA's counter-evidence against Homeland Security CO chief in the ICJ.

The suspect then goes to Starbucks, Normandie. 3 PM, he is somehow unable to log into Bluehost. (Did Homeland Security CO chief do this?) The suspect then looks up information about NULND and begins to suspect her involvement in the current affair. He then checks the FN's election results. Around 3 PM, excited, he leaves a message for W, "The FN has won the first round". This Homeland Security CO chief would certainly use as evidence of the suspect's conspiracy with the FN.

By 6 PM, the suspect has arrived in Culver City. He checks his log and online messages in Starbucks before attending French in Mind. 6:15 PM, he discovers Evgeny's message (see below) and replies: "I don't know why. I like a lot of different cultures." Then he is at French in Mind. There is a French guy who has been in China for a long time working in the film industry. The suspect wonders whether he is another Homeland Security informant. If so, Homeland Security CO chief is most likely hoping that the suspect would want to connect up with him so that he can have more opportunities to frame the suspect for "Russia connections". But, once again, the suspect will never do that. The suspect then goes home.

At home, the suspect experiences at first quite a frustration: his Asus continues to malfunction, and he is thus unable to watch France 24 news. Then, after he has checked his log, he becomes very alarmed: he's frightened for a long time that he might soon be arrested. Then he is busy working to impress NULND. Ha! Past midnight, he has uploaded the summary of "The American response" to his website. While this could be evidence in the ICJ (for the Russians? For the CIA?) that the suspect is not conspiring with the Russians and the French, it could also look like evidence that he is orchestrating a huge scandal in order to achieve a revolutionary purpose (the reindustrialization of the US and the US' abandonment of the US dollar as world's principal medium of exchange) – which would enable Homeland Security CO chief to label him a "terrorist" in any case. But we have to ask: is the suspect perhaps unknowingly speculating on BOL's program again? Or the Invisible Hand's program? (More on this later.) Then, although he has planned to sleep on the street, his fear subsides, and he sleeps at home instead.

We have to wonder, in addition, whether it is Homeland Security CO chief who has remotely controlled the suspect to look up NULND on the Internet this afternoon. It would seem that, as Homeland Security CO chief embarks on his new project of convicting Russia with his false warning about the suspect, he has now obtained NULND's support (i.e. Mr former Secretary MC

Then, St. Sophia. 1:12:00, in service. Out, and, 1:36:00, coffee time. 1:39:00, who is the girl the suspect is talking to? 1:41:00, the suspect is with Dan. Johanna is again not here. Yesterday was Dan's birthday. Angela shows up too. The suspect declares that he's a German Romanticist. Dan studied neuro-psychology, and is a developmentalist. Angela talks about her writing. The suspect then continues to discuss the significance of psychology with Dan. Again, whether people should have the right to be stupid (2:22:00). Compulsory education. 2:53:00, the suspect bids Dan goodbye. Then, he keeps mumbling "Operation Marine". 2:55:20, with Angela and another woman. He walks with Angela to her car, and she is part of SGI too! 3:00:00, the suspect leaves Angela. 3:25:30, in Starbucks. 3:33:00, the suspect discovers NULND. Then he checks up on the election results in France. 4:34:30, the suspect can't log into Bluehost. 4:37:30, the suspect leaves a message for W: the FN has won the first round. 5:04:00, out. On Metro going to Culver City. (Reviewed until 5:42:00.)

might have persuaded NULND to side with Homeland Security in opposition to the CIA). If so, NULND would be unaware that she's making the biggest mistake in her life – as we shall see.

ANG's naked picture. (The first.)

11:20 AM, Evgeny has replied the suspect. ("What do you like about Russian culture?") We can easily imagine what's going on: because Homeland Security CO chief has yesterday entered additional evidence (the suspect's new "European far right essay") into the ICJ to support his case that the suspect is conspiring with Russia, the Russians need to test the suspect today in order to obtain evidence that he's not trying to help them harm the US. However, what the SVR has thus instructed Evgeny to ask the suspect seems also to indicate that Homeland Security CO chief has also entered into evidence at the ICJ the fact that the suspect has been everyday listening to Russian disco music: "See, he loves Russia!" Besides, of course, in his previous communication to Evgeny, the suspect did mention how he likes Russian culture.

Plagiarism.

To sum up: other than the endless series of false reports about the suspect's plagiarism to the relevant European authority, there are two visits that stand out especially: a Brazilian volunteer's report on behalf of Marion (in favor of the Russians) on 7:26 PM, and SDW's report about her victimization by the suspect on 8:36 PM (presumably in favor of Homeland Security). Meanwhile, NULND has lent her support to Homeland Security CO chief's case by validating his warning about the suspect.

7 December (Monday)

First, the suspect. He awakes past 9 AM. McDonald's. He checks France 24 News: the FN's victory!<sup>19</sup> Then he comes home, showers, and leaves again around 11:30 AM. 11:40 AM, he's on the bus. Suddenly, what looks like a Homeland Security surveillance agent gets on the bus, sits in front of him, and, then, just as he is reviewing a June 2010 recording in which he recounts a Homeland Security agent moving about him on the bus, this agent moves in synchrony with the happening in the recording. What is going on? It must be that Homeland Security CO chief is thinking that one way to make the suspect look crazy is to orchestrate such synchrony between his external environment and the happening in the recording he is reviewing at the moment – so that, as the suspect continues to review those recordings from June 2010, he will come to believe that whatever is happening in the recording will also happen in his present day real life, thus looking superstitious and crazy.<sup>20</sup>

Then, 12:56 PM, when the suspect is on the Metro train, his keyboard is again half-broken, and can't be used anymore. He is very saddened and angered. Then it is suddenly functioning again. He comes to Casbah. He would stay there until 4:30 PM. He looks retarded while staring at pretty AWFs. He continues to work on "Far right". After Casbah, he comes to Chrysalis. Outside, he looks retarded while saying goodbye to Ariane. Dinner and men's group. The suspect makes a statement about the over-representation of blacks in jail. While at the Metro station (Little Tokyo), the suspect produces an (incorrect) outline of what might be going on right now. He is now going home.

Near home, the suspect reads in the newspapers the story about the radicalization of the San Bernardino shooters through the Internet. He becomes very scared. He fears being labeled such a case in official records. He goes home and, on 11:05 PM, posts a reply on Partisans to his own previous anti-American posting, something to the effect that the struggle against political correctness should not be a struggle between nation-states. This, in order to tone down his earlier anti-American tone. But, as you can imagine, this will become evidence in favor of the Russians and against Homeland Security CO chief. 12:30 AM, the suspect's Asus freezes continually again, terribly frustrating him.

19 It's not clear whether Homeland Security CO chief has again introduced the suspect's interest in FN news into the ICJ as evidence to support his claim that the suspect intends to help Russia's allies harm the US.

20 Since this kind of thing will happen repeatedly later on after the Invisible Hand shall have reactivated the previous ICJ trial and started replacing evidences, we are tempted to assume that Homeland Security CO chief, in his zeal to prove his warning about the suspect to be correct as the CIA has started disputing the validation from the special Homeland Security department, has simply fallen into a trap here: the Invisible Hand shall declare, in his secret, second, trial with BOL, this method to be part of the conspiracy against him so that he can later on adopt it for his own benefits.

How the suspect has plagiarized his theory on linear perspective.

2:08 AM, Angelson posts an unintelligible reply to the suspect on partisansmarine.com. (See below.) Why would anybody bother to reply the suspect? We have to assume that it's the Russians who have instructed Angelson to post this so that, when faulty surveillance should have confused him with the suspect, there can be evidence in the ICJ demonstrating that the suspect is indeed mentally confused (and, on top of that, not trying to help the Partisans harm the US as is stated earlier).

Let's summarize. Since morning, the Great Boss has also lent his support to Homeland Security CO chief by validating his warning about the suspect. Prof. W is then asked to make the same complaint again. The Secret Society women then summon the Calvin College volunteer to make special reports about the suspect's plagiarism. The TMU/ CIA team then mobilizes their moles in the Secret Society women's organization to undermine ANG's false reports about her naked pictures on the suspect's website. Meanwhile, false reports about the suspect's plagiarism continue throughout the night. Finally, the Russians' operation on Partisans.

8 December (Tuesday; torture resumed)

First, the suspect. He wakes up almost 10 AM. He has breakfast at McDonald's. There he discovers the replies at Partisans. Then he leaves home 11:30 AM. He's severely disturbed by the replies: more Homeland Security operations. (Actually, it's the Russians.) Now, because the keyboard on his Asus laptop no longer functions (if you type "1" "6" will appear on the screen, and so on), he can only read on the bus. And yet, he's unable to concentrate. Severe anger. Then, on Silver Line, and he's having a nervous breakdown. Presumably, because the TMU/ CIA's moles have last night submitted evidence of ANG's fraud to both the special Homeland Security department and the relevant European authority (that ANG is fully aware that the Goddess Athena in the suspect's paintings is not a representation of her), not only the Russians, but even Homeland Security CO chief, have had to respond today: Mr Homeland Security CO chief now wants the suspect to get angry and act out. And so the suspect gets to downtown without having done any work at all. He thus gives up the plan of going to Worksource.

And so he comes to Casbah instead. More nervousness as he wrongly suspects that ANG and SDW are going to file a TRO against him. 3:40 PM, the girl sitting next to him leaves. A vulgar white guy then comes in, looking like a Homeland Security guy. The suspect is very upset by him. Then he reviews the wrong recording, and then he discovers that Renee Chappell has given him the wrong phone number for the Department of Rehabilitation. He calls the Department of Rehabilitation again, but they would not make any appointment with him. He calls Renee back. He's severely angered and frustrated by all the nonsense. He decides to forget about looking for a job. He starts writing instead, and he gradually calms down. Now the guy sitting next to him turns out to have a German accent. So he's not Homeland Security after all? Well, it's evident that Homeland Security is remotely controlling the suspect to be especially agitated, and then sending a guy in for him to misidentify him as a Homeland Security surveillance agent, all in order to confirm their warning about him as violent and suffering from paranoid schizophrenia (falsely believing that a government agency is putting him under surveillance). (Namely, their necessary response after the actions of the TMU/ CIA team last night.) Now, while at Casbah, the suspect has written down:

Realized since last night: Homeland Security doesn't want me to write because they have [continued] to insist in diplomatic channels that their false profile of me is correct and foreign governments have once again questioned the accuracy of their depiction of me (insane, violent, racist, misogynist, plagiarizing, unintellectual, computer-hacking, vicious and antisocial).

They will now retaliate against me using ANG's gang, hoping that the women can make a case against me somewhere in order to prohibit me from getting online and doing something to contradict Homeland Security's false profile of me. I'm thus suffering "government agency-sponsored gang-stalking".

Again, bullshit – except for the parts marked in red. The suspect leaves Casbah, 6:30 PM. He comes to the Russian church for the Forum dinner. He's in a very bad mood, working on "Far right" and not participating very much. He leaves 9:15 PM to go home. While on the bus, he again has a very difficult time reading on his computer because of the broken keyboard. He's home, past 11:40 PM. Then, suddenly gripped by severe fear about the Secret Society women's upcoming TRO, he calls up Angela. And he yells at her (how the Secret Society women will prohibit him from using the Internet).<sup>21</sup> More evidence for Homeland Security CO chief that his warning about the suspect is correct! The suspect calms down soon afterward, and concludes:

Mind-control torture has resumed. Gang-stalking: fake visits to my website. The purpose of the torture and fake visits is to make me conform to something looking like Homeland Security's and the [Secret Society] women's false profile of me: paranoid schizophrenic, computer-hacking, short temper due to severe paranoia, homelessness-loving. Including this time: because of severe paranoia, mistaking irrelevant visits for the [Secret Society] women's associates' and falsely assuming that these give information about the women's operations. It's thus safe to ignore all the otherwise "suspicious visits". Other than Homeland Security, who else could be doing this?

Again, what is correct is marked in red – but you can see that the suspect simply doesn't understand what's going on. (It's very easy to guess what Homeland Security wants people to believe about him since – what else are they gonna say?)

21 This is recorded in: "callangelaangry_12_8_15_1152PM.MP3": the suspect tells Angela about his paranoid fear that the Secret Society women are about to file a restraining order against him because of some post on Prison Planet Forum. He believes a government agency (Homeland Security) has instructed the Prison Planet Forum moderator to not delete the post despite the suspect's request so that the women can make the request to the judge that he be banned from using the Internet. He yells at Angela, and Angela insists that there is nothing he can do. The suspect doesn't know that he's worried over nothing and is simply remotely controlled to produce the evidence that he's indeed delusional after the TMU/ CIA team has brought forward evidence that ANG is a liar.

6:12 AM, grincheux posts a reply to the suspect on partisansmarine.com.

Now that the suspect has produced a testimony showing him to not intend to conspire with the Russians and the French, the Russians and the French have devised this test: "If he intends to conspire with us, he would want to meet our 'contact'." Of course the Russians have known the suspect well enough to know that he is not so stupid as would believe that the other side is so dumb as to want to send a contact to him while the whole matter is being debated in the ICJ. (The suspect understands all about "conspiracy".) Thus, when no response shall come from the suspect, it will be the Russians' evidence with which to refute Homeland Security's latest charge of conspiracy on the basis of the suspect's latest essay on the European far right parties.

In any case, the Russians and the Partisans are now fighting a two-front war: on the one hand, because the TMU/ CIA has brought up evidence of ANG's fraud, they need to report to the special Homeland Security department and the relevant European authority that the Secret Society women are indeed telling the truth – thus the suspect is obsessed with Marine due to his schizophrenia. On the other hand, they need to dispute Homeland Security CO chief's claim that the suspect intends to help people like Marine harm the US. Here the Partisans' Romanian friend must be saying that the suspect, because he's obsessed with Marine, wants to harm her. 8:41 AM, he comes to the front page:

Let's summarize. Because the TMU/ CIA team has brought up new evidence of ANG's fraud, both the Russians and Homeland Security CO chief have had to respond. Homeland Security CO chief remotely controls the suspect during the whole day to get paranoid and falsely accuse his women victims in order to obtain evidence to confirm that the women victims are indeed right about him. Meanwhile, the Partisans' Romanian friend first makes a special report about the suspect's obsession with Marine and desire to harm her, and then the Russians make sure to have more volunteers falsely report that there are indeed ANG's naked pictures on the suspect's website. Beside this, there is the Johnson City volunteer's special report about the suspect's "delusions" about his women victims on Prison Planet Forum on 5:01 PM (again, evidence for both the Russians and Homeland Security that the Secret Society women are indeed truthful witnesses), the Central Michigan University volunteer's report about the suspect's misogynist ideology on 7:32 PM, the Corona volunteer's second report about the Prison Planet Forum postings on 8:05 PM, and the Astoria volunteer's second report about the suspect's misogynist ideology on 8:39 PM.

9 December (Wednesday)

First, the suspect. He wakes up past 9 AM. He has breakfast at McDonald's. He finds an abandoned pancake, and wants to eat it, but a woman claims it. She then lets the suspect have it and wants to pay for his food. It's not clear whether all this is staged by Homeland Security. When the suspect goes home, he discovers the warning from Youtube. (See below.) He is quite distraught. Again: he farts just like everyone else does but, while nothing happens to everyone else, he will be persecuted for farting. Then he discovers the video "Flirten auf russisch" (ARTE). (Perhaps Homeland Security has obtained another circumstantial evidence for the suspect's conspiracy with the Russians as he continues to show interests in videos about Russia or Russian disco music.) He leaves home, 11:30 AM. This time, he has to bring not only his external keyboard, but also his Toshiba. On the bus he calls Angela to apologize for his behavior last night.<sup>23</sup>

Then, the suspect is in Bail Hotline. He's quite excited for a while. He then goes to the public library in downtown. He meets with Tanisha at Chrysalis, 3:30 PM. He leaves by 4 PM, and comes to Starbucks, Vermont/ Prospect. After checking his log and checking up on the German

Lady's meetups and KRN's Twitter, the suspect leaves 6:30 PM. He attends tonight's Draw Anything LA Meetup. Grace is there. The suspect draws the Chinese president tonight. (More materials for Homeland Security and the Secret Society women!) The suspect leaves a little bit past 9 PM. El Monte station. Somehow, he can't transfer his June 2014 log to his Toshiba: the file is corrupted. Very strange, but presumably this is not the work of Homeland Security. The suspect is home, past midnight. Then, suddenly, he becomes frightened by the possibility of a TRO again. 12:40 AM, he posts on AVFM:

"I need some serious help here. There is some posting on another online forum, very old, which these women have probably wanted to use against me. However, it's impossible to delete the posting. I don't know if any users there have been cooperating with the group of women, pretending to notify them that somebody is suffering [from] paranoid delusion about their going after him and [then] to track down my website. I suppose these women will, if they can, want to use that old posting as evidence and go to the police and the judge in order to get a restraining order against me, which will stipulate that I shall not be allowed to use the Internet or have my website or something like that. (I don't think the order will simply say I'm not allowed to write about them online, since I have already stopped writing about them, and the goal of these women is to prevent me from getting online altogether, not to prevent me from writing about them.) What shall I do? I even tried to delete the account there, but still it needs approval from the forum admin. And there is never any response to my requests.

"Sorry. But if anyone has any suggestion about what to do, please share it with me. Or PM me even."

The suspect is of course referring to the Prison Planet Forum posting. It would seem that it's again Homeland Security CO chief who has wanted him to post this – so that he can have more evidence to confirm that the Secret Society women are indeed right about him (that he indeed keeps on developing delusions about their going after him – despite the fact that, as the red marking shows, he's right about that!).

Now the Secret Society women's operation on the suspect's website for today. 4:20 AM,

9:11 AM, Youtube notifies the suspect about the removal of “War Lords”. Apparently, in order to support Homeland Security’s profile of the suspect as a plagiarizer, the Secret Society women have again mobilized their volunteers to complain to Youtube about the suspect’s (supposed) violation of intellectual property rights. Such is Homeland Security CO chief’s evidence in response to the CIA’s counter-evidence from yesterday and the day before.<sup>24</sup>

24 Of course, hosting a movie on one’s Youtube channel is what everybody else does from time to time, but, again, when the suspect does it, it would be evidence that he is a habitual plagiarizer who constantly steals other people’s contents without regard for this thing called “copyright”.

The Secret Society women have again recruited a volunteer from a renowned government research institution to make a false report about the suspect's plagiarism. some fresh air, take a hike, go for a swim, get out of your head, stop thinking and just breathe. You're driving yourself insane.

On the one hand, it would seem that it's the TMU who has instructed him to post this (all because, the more the suspect posts, the harder it is for them to prove Homeland Security wrong); but, on the other hand, it would seem that it's Homeland Security CO chief who has instructed him: to lure the suspect to skip trial so that he can become a fugitive. At the same time: Beour3rd posts a second reply to the suspect:

You want help but you don't want help. I gave you the best advice you're going to get. Leave. Move. Get into a different head space.

All your actions and your interactions with those girls... make them continue doing this,

You're like the kid that keeps responding to the guy who's teasing you. They have proven they are evil to you. They hold ALL the cards, ALL the power and you stay in their power. Get the fuck out."

Again, it would seem, on the one hand, that it's the CIA which has instructed the TMU detectives to instruct these men's rights people to dissuade the suspect from messaging about the Secret Society women. The more the women fuss about the suspect's paranoid delusions about them and report it to law enforcement, the more the suspect would mumble about his women victims' going after him by reporting him for suffering delusions about them. And the more he does this, the more Homeland Security has evidence that the women victims are indeed right about him – all because nobody is actually able to tell that, when the suspect complains about his women victims' going after him, he's referring to precisely his women victims' fussing about his suffering delusions about their going after him. But, then, on the other hand, it would seem that it's again Homeland Security CO chief who's trying to trick the suspect into skipping trial.

To sum up: after Shizuka's sabotage again, Homeland Security CO chief and the Secret Society women respond massively today by producing endless series of evidences and testimonies that the suspect does violate intellectual property laws (including Youtube's banning of his movie). Late night, Homeland Security has also obtained evidence of the suspect's delusions about his women victims' going after him from his new posting on AVFM.

10 December (Thursday; Karin's meetups)

First, the suspect. He wakes up almost 8 AM. He has an orientation at Worksource today. He forgets to bring his external keyboard while running for the bus, and so he misses the 8 AM bus. Then he loses his hat. Now he would have to go to Worksource late. He's now very upset. However, 10:30 AM, he has arrived at Worksource, and everything is just getting started. During lunch, he continues watching "Flirten auf russisch". Homeland Security CO chief's evidence again that he wants to help Russia? He leaves Worksource around noon.

The suspect then spends time in the public library in downtown. He reads a little from "Hölderlin". Then he posts on AVFM again. (See below.) He then goes to his storage facility – he needs to get the DVD containing the log for June 2014. (He's still reconstructing the Secret Society women's operations back in June 2014 while working on "Autism", DOC-1.) That's when the suspect has discovered that his scanner has disappeared. He's now very worried.

Then the suspect comes back to Chrysalis. During men's group, George is talking about "outsourcing". (What a coincidence: the suspect's favorite topic.)<sup>26</sup> Then the suspect works in Starbucks, Little Tokyo. He checks over all the videos he has shot of his storage unit, and concludes that he has forgotten to bring in the scanner the last time he was using it. (Presumably Homeland Security CO chief didn't make something out of it.) Then he goes home. He has now begun working on "The American Suffering Woman".

Now the Secret Society women's operation on the suspect's website for today. 4:16 AM,

The third ICJ trial over the suspect, I-C.
Lawrence C. Chin
Feb. 2016; rewritten Aug. 2022

The suspect is of course thoroughly wrong about everything – except for the part about a “profile of him” that says “he suffers from paranoia believing people are going after him”. This post would be excellent evidence for Homeland Security CO chief that his profile of (and the Secret Society women’s testimonies about) the suspect is indeed correct (except for the strange fact that this paranoid schizophrenic’s delusion consists precisely in believing people are trying to make him look schizophrenic). Note (1) that people are really coming to his website to collect evidences and yet he thinks it’s all pretending; and (2) that, while, at the present, the Secret Society women and Homeland Security are not trying to make a bad example of him in order to get certain legislation passed, this would nevertheless happen later on (such as when we shall be revising this chapter in August 2022!).

Presumably the French, the Russians, and Homeland Security will all claim this is evidence that the Homeland Security warning about the suspect is indeed correct (that he indeed keeps suffering from delusions about being involved with the intelligence agencies).

To summarize. Other than the endless stream of complaints about the suspect's plagiarism, these stand out: (a) the Turkish volunteer's complaint about the suspect's harassment of Eva or Anja on 6:26 AM; (b) the Rancho Cordova volunteer's testimony about the suspect's misogynist ideology on 7:19 AM; and (c) the Boss' family's complaint on 12:31 PM. However, the Utsunomiya volunteer around 12:30 PM has most likely sabotaged the complaint process. But, then, the suspect himself has provided Homeland Security CO chief with more evidence with his bullshit message on AVFM and then visit to the DGSE's website (even though the DGSE is indeed involved in the latest investigation of him since early last month).
