

The third International Court of Justice trial over the suspect
XIV

1 – 30 April, 2017

The following summarizes the reconstruction of the Secret Society women's operation against the suspect and his website and the associated International Court of Justice trial from 1 to 30 April, 2017.

The names of persons follow the convention established in the previous chapters. The Secret Society women consist of (as of April, 2017): Karin (the German Lady, K), Angelica (Angelina, G), Kiersten (J), SDW (Maura, M), and Dr P (Petterson), along with auxiliary members like the Long Keng volunteer. For brevity's sake, the “Secret Society women” shall continue to be referred to simply as the “SS women” in the following narrative.

April is a time of increasing polarization or parallel reality between the Secret Society women and the suspect. The suspect is spending increasing amount of time reading philosophy trying to catch up with all the philosophers he has missed in the past few years due to his engrossment in some ICJ trial, in addition to working overtime applying for universities in Germany. The Secret Society women, on the other hand, are working overtime complaining about him as an extremely dangerous terrorist stalker of women with a terrorist website and recruiting people around the world to complain similarly. These are two completely different life-styles and yet they are joined together as if they had something to do with each other.

ERRATA

The “Dr P phenomenon”

Consider the observation about Dr P under the entry for 23 April. The most mysterious question in this entire story is of course why Dr P has developed such a high regard of herself and such a bizarre belief in her importance given her extraordinary stupidity and uneducation. We have clarified repeatedly that stupid people never have any idea that they are stupid and consequently always think themselves very smart because: in order to know that one is stupid, one must have some idea about what it is like to be intelligent with which to compare one's stupidity – but stupid people by definition have no conception of what it is like to be intelligent. More importantly, Dr P's bizarre self-confidence reveals the most serious problem that American higher education is today completely “fool-proof”: any idiot can get a degree in any of the human and social sciences simply by memorizing and repeating words from textbooks. (This presumably can't happen in the quantitative and computer sciences.) Dr P has been making herself look like an expert in human psychology by regurgitating some psychology jargon she has memorized from textbooks (without being able to actually relate the jargon to any of the human phenomena she has encountered). Surprising though it may sound, Dr P is not actually in contact with reality. When the suspect reflects on all the psychologists who actually understood him in the past and were “in touch with reality” – Dr C. Chapman, Dr D. Ely, or even Dr T. Caldeira – it's all because they had some talents for understanding human beings.<sup>1</sup> This is why oral exams are used in the traditional education setting: you can't tell whether the student has really understood the subject matter and is not merely repeating words unless you actually interact with him or her. The peculiar recent development of American higher-education is the removal of talent as a necessary ingredient for success in order to make the whole process “fool-proof”. This has enabled somebody like Dr P – of whom the suspect has always the impression that she is some sort of “red-neck”, a simple, vulgar mind most insensitive to other people's thoughts and feelings – to pass all the exams, obtain a degree, and get herself licensed in order to be able to present herself as an “expert”.

We have learned from previous chapters that Kiersten is the way she is because she is a particularly virulent instance of Narcissistic Personality Disorder. It is however surprising to find that, of all the characteristics which compose NPD, Dr P embodies quite a few of them: inflated assessment of one's own importance, insensitivity to other people's thoughts and feelings (lack of any ability to empathize with others), manipulateness, and always blaming other people for one's own failures (inability to discern one's own faults in unfortunate events). And yet, if you interact with Dr P, you will not get the impression that she is born with any personality disorder. Dr P is an artificial instance of “Narcissistic Personality Disorder” – this is another case of “convergence”. Dr P is “narcissistic” because she is a hard-core feminist, namely, because she has been trained to exhibit NPD features by a gnostic feminist ideology. As noted, the purpose of (cultural) feminism is to train women to become psychopaths. Scientists have discovered that the brain of people with NPD is different from the brain of normal people in that it has less gray matters (which are supposedly the seat of such emotions as empathy).<sup>2</sup> We have to wonder whether women, after becoming adherents of such gnostic ideology as cultural feminism, might over the years suffer a reduction of gray matters in their brain.

KEY EPISODES

4 April, MSGDP. The SS women repeatedly conduct status-check on the suspect's website.
5 April, the SS women are mystified that the suspect's website is even visible in Kazakhstan. The SS women want to recruit Oliver to the Murakami girls' complaint.
6 April, Trump orders missiles fired into Syria. Dr P attempts to open a stalking claim

1 We shall exclude Dr D. Wiss because she has understood the suspect out of sheer experience with him rather than out of any expertise in psychology.

2 See the ARD Sendung from 29 April 2016, “Narzissmus als Störung” (from Bayerischer Rundfunk 2016): <https://youtu.be/PUer3BpO1fA>.

against the suspect with the LAPD over the LTRDP incident. She gets hidden cameras installed in MSGDP incident location.

7 April, the SS women resume filing complaints on behalf of Shizuka. They try one more time to persuade Professor Fraser to join their enterprise.

8 April, the SS women resume filing complaints on behalf of Gaurav.

11 April, the Russian side is almost convicted. The Russians save themselves with the same dirty trick.

12 April, the Russians try to provoke the suspect to obtain evidence that he is dangerous; the SS women and the Partisans are mobilized to “save Russia”.

13 April, the SS women recruit Oliver to the Murakami girls' complaint. They reinforce their claim about their “victim confidentiality” (their first use of MJ12 bot).

14 April, the SS women try to recruit Ms Gannuschkina to the Murakami girls' complaint.

15 April, the “problem of Shizuka”.

16 April, a big fuss over the suspect's Facebook. Desperate to “save Russia”, the SS women are contacting Zizek wanting to recruit him to the Murakami girls' complaint.

17 April, MSGDP in the same location. Dr P is able to open a stalking claim against the suspect with a LAPD detective. The new case presumably combines with the Murakami girls' case with Sledkom. “Russia is saved.”

20 April, Sahra promises to help the Russians by enlisting herself on Murakami girls' complaint. The LAPD detective informs Dr P that her video of MSGDP can't be used as evidence. Dr P plans an operation with the Missionary Sisters.

21 April, the SS women try to recruit Professor Hochschild to their complaint process. 5 PM, they work with the Missionary Sisters to entrap the suspect, but the operation fails.

22 April, the SS women are considering recruiting more Japanese pop-singers to their cause (Akino Arai or Koizumi Kyoko). Then, the LAPD detective informs Dr P that her complaint has been dismissed for lack of evidence. The Murakami girls' case is also effectively dead. The Russians and its allies are being convicted just when election starts in France.

24 April, Dr P disconnects her phone numbers and the SS women argue, in vain, with the LAPD detective trying to repeal his decision.

25 April, the SS women work hard to find ways to save their claim with law enforcement and Russians', and their allies', case in the ICJ. They resume their perennial effort to prove that the suspect is a plagiarizer.

28 April, the CIA sends in Shizuka to rejoin the SS women's campaign and, through the same dirty trick, the Russians get the ICJ judges to temporarily suspend the new judgment convicting them and their allies.

29 April, Homeland Security trollers' complaints and Shizuka's confession that she is not harassed cancel each other out with Sledkom so that Sledkom's investigation of the suspect is effectively paralyzed.

6:30 AM, wotbox.com indexing. 4:41 PM, a volunteer from Moscow looks up “Cheney Plan”. There are no visits between 6 PM and 10 PM. 12:22 AM, the Oceanside volunteer seen on 24 and 29 March comes again (lightspeed.sndgca.sbcglobal.net):

Is she conducting a status check? False report?

02/04 Sun

Early morning, 4:45 PM, the suspect posts another video of Professor Fraser's lectures on his Facebook. When the suspect is chatting with Daniel in Elysee this afternoon, he tells him, for the first time, about his status as a terrorist. As for the SS women, they continue to mobilize throughout the whole day their volunteers to make false reports about the suspect's plagiarism. 11:51 PM, they check the suspect's Facebook and would have seen the new video of Fraser's lecture. 1:34 AM, they send another volunteer to check the suspect's Facebook.

03/04 M

7:18 AM, the SS women send their Eircom hacker to index the suspect's website: /, thermex2.html, gallery.html, acad.html, links.html, and 1.html. What's this about? Then, 11:53 AM, the Eircom hacker comes again and, this time, indexes atpcycle.jpg along with the other index pages. Thus it's evident that the SS women are submitting this index as proof that plagiarism (atpcycle.jpg) is indeed found on the suspect's website. Then, 3:53 PM, the Eircom volunteer comes for the third time, and this time he indexes the folder scientificenlightenment1/ along with the other index pages. Thus another proof that the suspect's website is full of plagiarism. As for the rest, the SS women continue to send volunteers to look up images and chapters on the suspect's website (plagiarism and decoys). 12:10 AM, a volunteer from Texas looks up "PC Books". Then, 1 AM, a certain "Veselin Georgiev" from Bulgaria sends the suspect a job offer via ProZ. 1:40 AM, another "Ichen" sends the suspect a job offer via ProZ. It seems that the SS women are thinking that a confirmation of the "David Chin" document as genuine may achieve the breakthrough they are looking for.

04/04 T

7:12 AM, the SS women send a volunteer from Lawrenceville, Georgia, to the suspect's website.

172.126.33.0 - - [04/Apr/2017:08:12:05 -0600] "GET /thermh1.html HTTP/1.1" 200 23988
"- "Mozilla/5.0 (iPad; CPU OS 10_2_1 like Mac OS X) AppleWebKit/602.4.6 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/10.0 Mobile/14D27 Safari/602.1"

33 seconds later, he clicks on the first chapter.

172.126.33.0 - - [04/Apr/2017:08:12:38 -0600] "GET /1/thermhch1.html HTTP/1.1" 200
20668 "http://www.enlightenment1998.com/thermh1.html" "Mozilla/5.0 (iPad; CPU OS
10_2_1 like Mac OS X) AppleWebKit/602.4.6 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/10.0
Mobile/14D27 Safari/602.1"

It would appear that he is doing a status check. No, the website is still up. The SS women probably think that Sledkom needs more time. They would spend the rest of the day mobilizing their volunteers to make false reports about the suspect's plagiarism – still striving for the "breakthrough". 8 AM, Open Link Profiler indexing.

As for the suspect: On 3 PM, LTRDRP. At the post office, a fat woman with a broken foot and wearing earphones is standing behind the suspect. This might be the reason why Wes mentioned "post office" the last time. The Russians will not be able to use LTRDRP to confirm that the SS women's testimonies about the suspect might have some truth in it because the incident is made into the suspect's conspiracy with Homeland Security CO chief. Then, MSGDP. The Russians will probably also have difficulty in making use of the episode.

After a whole day of operation, on 4:26 AM, the SS women send the Long Keng volunteer to conduct another status check (Rackspace Hosting):

180.150.157.21 - - [05/Apr/2017:05:26:45 -0600] "GET /thermex2.html HTTP/1.1" 200
530 "- "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_11_6) AppleWebKit/602.1.50

(KHTML, like Gecko)"

Dr P must have reported the MSG to LAPD such that the SS women are wondering whether, tonight, law enforcement will take action. But no, the website is still up. The SS women must be mystified. Why are all the helps from Gaurav, Eva, Robin, Marie, and so on not achieving effect? Why is the police disregarding MSGDP?

05/04 W

Today, international conference over Syrian begins in Brussels.

5:20 AM, the SS women send the link to the suspect's website to a volunteer in Almaty, Kazakhstan. Within a minute, he clicks on soft.pdf and the Preface to "Friends I". The SS women have probably been discussing their mysterious failure with the Long Keng volunteer in the past hour and now ask this volunteer all the way in the Russian sphere to conduct a status check. The website is even visible within the Russian Internet domain! This means that Sledkom has done absolutely nothing at all – not simply failing to persuade law enforcement on the American side!

10:54 AM, IPS-Agent indexing. It's not clear whether this is related to US law enforcement action. The indexing includes Oliver's painting of Goddess Athena. Coincidentally, after much fuss (sending visitors to look up images on the suspect's website), the SS women send a volunteer from Tempe, Arizona, to look up precisely this painting by Oliver on the suspect's website. They are probably thinking of adding Oliver's complaint to the Murakami girls' case. That might finally achieve the breakthrough needed! Strangely, past midnight, the suspect is not allowed to log into his Bluehost account. Is US law enforcement checking his website again in order to gather evidences to refute the SS women? The suspect then posts another video of Professor Fraser's lecture on his Facebook!

06/04 Thu

The Trump administration is in disarray today: Bannon is removed from Trump's National Security Council. Then, the press reports that "chemical attacks in Syria have changed Trump's mind about Assad", such that he orders the Navy to fire cruise missiles into Syria. Anyone familiar with the situation can tell that Trump is merely here bowing to the pressure from US Establishment to renounce his bizarre loyalty to Russia.

The suspect is talking to Wes today on the phone from 2:18 PM onward:

Conversation with Wes (06/04/2017)

The suspect is connected with Wes from 24:00 onward. (1) He is concerned that he might not be able to study in Germany after all. He is reminded not to mention his “thermodynamic interpretation of history” in his motivation letter. Should he just focus on being a terrorist, a criminal, and a mental patient, the role which American society has required him to play? He should harass some movie stars in order to provide the SS women with more ammunition. He is the SS women's toy, they get their fix from complaining about him. (2) There is a debate in the ICJ about whether he means what he says. The Invisible Hand has been arguing that he understates his ability when he is frustrated, but the Russians – which is their purpose in lowering his TestDaf score – assert that he means what he says. The suspect is merely elaborating on what he has already confessed on 18 February. The suspect corrects himself from the last time: the Russians haven't won, and they have screwed up his future just to obtain a single evidence to temporarily prolong their life. What the suspect says here is completely correct: he has grasped the argument in the ICJ, which is evidence in favor of the CIA (that he is not insane). (3) The US is his real enemy; as long as the Russians are harming the US, he should be happy. Again, this would enable the Invisible Hand to continue to argue that the suspect is a fake terrorist who uses his fake terrorist status to help the Russians. (4) The Russians have wanted all these other parties to become involved because they have wanted everybody to share in the spoil of Homeland Security. The Russians are sharing secrets from Homeland Security's “secret box” with all the “victims”. The suspect is only half correct here. What the Russians have really wanted is to use Homeland Security to run operations to benefit the “victims”. (5) This ICJ trial will turn out an indefinite result, in order to replace evidences from the previous ICJ trial (which couldn't be undecided). The Russians will then maintain permanent command of the conspirators from the previous round, Sarkozy and Erdogan and so on... What has happened with Erdogan... He did all this because he is under Russian command... The suspect is completely mistaken here. Nobody else sees any replacement of evidences, and everybody knows that Erdogan has been doing all these crazy things because there is another case in the ICJ which Russia has won. This is thus evidence in Russia's favor (that the suspect is indeed insane). (6) The suspect should look at the positive as well as the negative aspects... (7) About retaliating against the SS women. (8) Wes' mention of “post office”; is that an oracle? Strange coincidence. LTRDP has already been carried out. It is indeed received today, which the Russians couldn't quite use as evidence in their favor! (9) The suspect should have remained homeless. Wes suggests Kierkegaard's Either/ Or: he will regret if he moves in; and he will regret it if he doesn't move in. How to appropriate his outcast status, how to become the best criminal, terrorist, and mental patient. (10) The suspect has discovered “DeGrowth” and “Convivialism”. Wes suggests an historical example of a perfect communistic society that once existed in New York.

As for the SS women, they will, for the whole day, continue to mobilize their volunteers to file false reports about the suspect's plagiarism. Noteworthy is that, 6:22 PM, they send a volunteer from Philadelphia to look up the suspect's portrait of Shizuka. They have not done this since the end of last month. The CIA has commanded Japanese law enforcement to send in Shizuka again to check on the SS women.

From 5 PM onward, SDW would post a new post on her blog, her first time since 21 March: “Hollywood is run by the CIA and pedophiles.” She is becoming ever more engrossed in these crazy conspiracy theories and will gradually believe that it is these “pedosadists” (sadistic pedophiles) inside the CIA who are coordinating with the suspect to gang-stalk her and obstruct her complaint process with law enforcement agencies. However, she never posts anything on her blog unless it's in order to enable law enforcement to intercept the suspect “cyberstalking” her. Something has galvanized her today: Dr P must have this afternoon reported the LTRDP incident to LAPD and attempted to open a stalking claim against the suspect. There is, however, insufficient evidence, but the SS women feel that the mere suspicion is a boost to the Murakami girls' case – and a good evidence in favor of the Russians in the ICJ.

The SS women seem to be on break after 11 PM. They are perhaps conferencing how to open a new stalking claim against the suspect with the LAPD. Dr P, thinking herself to be very smart, decides to ask Veronica's investigators to install hidden cameras in the vicinity of the PYPHN. It's not clear whether Homeland Security has assisted her in this endeavor. The women are probably also discussing why Shizuka's complaint has not made any difference with law enforcement agencies on both the Russian and the American side.

07/04 F

Today, when the suspect is in Elysee late afternoon, he chats with Daniel about “revolution”. Then with Elliot about Trump. As for the SS women, they resume operation after 4 AM this morning: mobilizing volunteers to make false reports about the suspect's plagiarism. 4:52 PM, another volunteer from France looks up Shizuka's portrait. This is evidently a Partisan trying to see whether Shizuka's complaint could still make a difference. (The question as to what the Partisans know about Shizuka's informant status will be posed later.) 6:46 PM, another volunteer from Vincetown, New Jersey, also looks up Shizuka's portraits. Meanwhile, on 6:44 PM, and between 8:56 PM to 9 PM, and on 12:48 AM, several volunteers (Chinese located in the US) are sending around ancestorcult.html and whyshouldwebejust.html in order to brainstorm new ways to convince law enforcement that the suspect is really a plagiarizer. Also, between 8 PM and 9 PM, Kiersten would tweet and retweet 11 times about Trump's strike on Syria. She is desperate to get into the groove with fellow liberal progressives. 9:22 PM, the SS women are checking the suspect's Facebook. They would have seen the new post about Degrowth, another one of Professor Fraser's lectures, and a news item about Donald Trump. The SS women are evidently still trying to persuade Professor Fraser to join their enterprise. They seem to be spending three hours tonight trying to talk to Professor Fraser – there are no visits between 9:30 PM and 12 AM.

08/04 S

6:13 AM, the SS women send a volunteer working at YHC International BV (Powerhouse Management) in London to look up “Prelude F-5C”. This might be a complaint on Gaurav's behalf. Not knowing that they are informants here to compromise their case, the SS women believe that getting Shizuka and Gaurav to complain more might finally persuade law enforcement agencies on both sides of the Pacific. Then follow the usual complaints about the suspect's plagiarism or decoys. 1:02 AM, they send another volunteer from Oman to look up “Prelude F-5C” again.

09/04 Sun (Facebook)

Since early morning, the SS women continue to send volunteers to file false reports about the suspect's plagiarism. 11:36 AM, the SS women send another volunteer from the University of Minnesota to file a complaint on behalf of Shizuka. 2:48 PM, another volunteer from Warrington, UK, makes a complaint on behalf of Shizuka. Strangely, on 6:48 PM, when the suspect is going to French in Mind, Tyan calls him to invite him to Kenneth's Secret Facebook Group. The suspect would assume, erroneously, that it's the SS women who have instructed to her to do this. The suspect would especially get this impression since, between 6:30 PM and 3 AM, there are only three insignificant visits! It seems almost as if the SS women were discussing with Tyan their next move (to use Tyan to “get him”). This is in fact not the case. Things get more complicated for the suspect when, between 2 AM and 4 AM, somebody in southern California is checking over every recent post on the suspect's Facebook. The suspect assumes it's Tyan who is doing this while listening to the SS women's explanations about his harassment of various women on his Facebook. His impression is further solidified when, 4 AM, Tyan accepts the suspect's “friends” request. In reality, the person checking over the suspect's Facebook during these two hours is Dmitry – and Dmitry never seems to have anything to do with the SS women. The mysterious question is then: what are the SS women busy with between 6 PM and 3 AM? Are they conferencing over the mystery of why Shizuka's, and others', complaints seem to have made no difference at all? Are they still trying to contact Professor Fraser?

10/04 M

The first hypothesis is confirmed when, 6:45 AM, the SS women seem to have sent a volunteer to look up Shizuka's portraits on Google's cache. Then, 8:18 AM, the SS women's volunteer looks up the suspect's posting of the painting of Robin on his Facebook. Evidently, the women are arguing with law enforcement: both Shizuka and Robin are terrified of the suspect; why aren't they taking action? Then, 9:09 AM, somebody is looking at the suspect's Facebook postings between 19 March and 12 February. This might however be Dmitry, and so unrelated to the SS women. Then, 12:47 PM, the SS women send a volunteer from Scarborough, Ontario, to make another complaint on Shizuka's behalf. 2:39 PM, they check the suspect's Facebook again. Between 4:10 and 4:35 PM, another person is looking at the suspect's Facebook, scrolling down to the posting of 28 March. It's the SS women's volunteer. The SS women are telling their volunteer about their mysterious impasse. Then, 6:09 PM, they ask their Eircom volunteer to compile an index – of all the index pages but nothing else. What's this about?

Then, from 6:24 PM to 6:27 PM, they send the Long Keng volunteer to do a status check. First, the Table of Contents:

180.150.157.13 - - [10/Apr/2017:19:24:52 -0600] "GET /thermex2.html HTTP/1.1" 200 530 "-" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_11_6) AppleWebKit/602.1.50 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/10.0 Safari/602.1.50"

Within 6 seconds, he comes to the index page:

180.150.157.13 - - [10/Apr/2017:19:24:58 -0600] "GET / HTTP/1.1" 200 3248 "http://www.enlightenment1998.com/thermfr2.html" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_11_6) AppleWebKit/602.1.50 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/10.0 Safari/602.1.50"

21 seconds later, he goes to “Feefee and Valerie”.

180.150.157.13 - - [10/Apr/2017:19:25:19 -0600] "GET /feefeeval5rev/feefeeval5rev.pdf HTTP/1.1" 200 445270 "http://www.enlightenment1998.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_11_6) AppleWebKit/602.1.50 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/10.0 Safari/602.1.50"

6:27 PM, he goes to “Conclusion to the Syrian scandal”.

180.150.157.13 - - [10/Apr/2017:19:27:15 -0600] "GET /conclusionrev10-2/conclusionrev10-2-cnsrd.pdf HTTP/1.1" 200 288134 "http://www.enlightenment1998.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_11_6) AppleWebKit/602.1.50 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/10.0 Safari/602.1.50"

It would appear that the SS women are telling the Long Keng volunteer about the mysterious circumstance: even with the help of Russian law enforcement, the website is still not banned!

7:43 PM, the suspect posts enstehdet.jpg on his Facebook. Dmitry immediately comes to check it several times. This would cause the suspect to erroneously believe that the SS women are having a commotion over the image. However, on 9:58 PM, somebody from

Alden, New York, check the suspect's latest Facebook posting. This should be the SS women's volunteer. Then, 9:59 PM, a volunteer from El Dorado Hills, California, looks up the suspect's portrait of Shizuka. Then, 10:05 PM, a volunteer from Hyderabad, India, looks up enstedet.jpg. Then, 10:31 PM, another volunteer checks the suspect's Facebook. 2:06 AM, another one. 3:07 AM, another one. This is evidence that the SS women are indeed having a commotion tonight: "Shizuka has repeatedly complained! And law enforcement doesn't do anything! And now he's posting on his Facebook drawings he has stolen from his family!"

11/04 T

Somebody is thoroughly checking the suspect's Facebook during three rounds: 6:39 AM, 9:47 AM, and 12:37 PM. Is this Dmitry?

Meanwhile, the SS women have resumed operation to mobilize their volunteers to complain about the suspect's plagiarism. This would go on for the first half the day. On 7:24 PM, Karin writes to everyone in her meetup about the cancelation of the meetup on the 19th. Then, on 8:21 PM, the Russians order Homeland Security CO chief to instruct the SS women to produce a piece of evidence suggesting the suspect's website is full of pornography. (Quantil, Kolkata: the "Quantil Group".)

like Gecko) Version/4.0 UCBrowser/11.1.5.890 U3/0.8.0 Mobile Safari/534.30"

Clearly, because not even Sledkom can submit evidences favorable for the Russian side to the ICJ, the Russians can only save themselves and their allies from total conviction through such dirty trick: "This is evidence that there might after all be some truth in these women's testimonies about this website. The judgment must be delayed!"

12/04 W

The suspect will experience a lot of provocation today. (3 times.) These Hispanic agents are evidently instructed by the Russians to try to pick a fight with the suspect so that, per chance, there can be evidence entering the ICJ supporting the SS women's claim that he is physically dangerous to other people. This is the second sign that the Russians and their allies are being convicted in the ICJ. As for the SS women, they continue to make false reports about the suspect's plagiarism – this is how they are "saving Russia". Then, 3:54 PM, a volunteer from Greenville, South Carolina, receives a link to "lepen6.pdf". Is this an expert here to brainstorm how to make some evidence out of it to save Russia's case? 1:57 AM, the SS women send MJ12 bot to index the suspect's website – recordings from early 2009, from summer 2009, from autumn 2008, and from early 2010. This is probably another ploy of the SS women's to “save Russia”. This is the first time they employ MJ12, an Internet company based in UK. They would frequently resort to MJ12 in the future. Then, from 2:09 AM to 2:16 AM, a Parisian Partisan is examining the folder /lepen/ on the suspect's website and all the versions of the suspect's essay therein. He is evidently brainstorming how to save the Russians and National Front from total conviction. He downloads the Word version of the suspect's essay. He may have forged evidence to frame him.

13/04 Thu (Wes)

12:13 PM, somebody is either discovering the suspect's link on his Facebook, or checking the Montreal volunteer's Secret Facebook group (dot_clear.gif from Facebook). 2:21 PM, a volunteer from Puebla City, Mexico, looks up Oliver's painting of Goddess Athena. It seems that the SS women are thinking about adding Oliver to the Murakami girls' case. Around 2:23 PM, the suspect would speak briefly with Wes (from 4:30 onward).

Conversation with Wes (13/04/2017):

(1) The suspect is afraid that the Russians will sabotage his application to the University of Jena. He is aware that the Russians have lost again. Would this be bad news for him? It would be bad time for him to apply for school. (2) Did Professor Jaeggi get alerted about him? Humboldt is gone! (3) He saved Russians' life, and they will get him. What should he do? (4) The SS women have recruited Tyan and instructed her to add him to Kenneth's secret Facebook group. She spent two hours on his Facebook. She was sitting face to face with the SS women. They realize they have failed again when they discover his Facebook is still in existence. Is Tyan a double agent? Again, all these are wrong scenarios! The Russians will certainly use these as evidences that the suspect is indeed insane to temporarily save themselves from total conviction. The suspect continues: The Partisans were mobilized yesterday. Did they forge evidences again? (5) Can the Russians not ruin his school plan? They will never win in any case. Just one piece of evidence which will be debunked in five minutes. (6) The oracle, “The old man is pissed.” It meant nothing: Invisible Hand's tactic. (7) Degrowth and Convivialism are in fact quite different from his “leftist conservative” revolution. Does he have to join a revolution before starting his own? Also the Post-Carbon Institute. Their common fault: love of democracy and confidence in the common people. (8) He can't move out. Wes has to end the conversation early in order to go out with a student.

3:08 PM, a volunteer from Cedartown, Georgia, looks up “Kulturindustrie”. Then, from 3:33 PM to 3:57 PM, the SS women instruct MJ12 bot to conduct another round of indexing (recordings from April 2010, January and February 2009, and 10 and 11 June, 2009; videos from December 2008; and finally some of his drawings and paintings). Again, the SS women feel the need to remind law enforcement agencies on all sides that their “confidentiality” must be respected. But they still want to reinforce their claim about “confidentiality”. And so, from 2:43 AM to 2:59 AM, they order another round of MJ12 bot indexing. This time, videos of Homeland Security actors from May and June 2009, four TIH chapters (chinesepatriarchy.html, chinesepatriarchy220.html, classicalpatriarchy.html, and consumerization.html), and several more of his drawings (including Shizuka's portraits).

14/04 F

Today the suspect would submit his application for master program to the University of Jena.

5:16 AM, the SS women send a volunteer from Westfälische Wilhelms Universität to look up the suspect's external links page. This is probably to file a report emphasizing that the suspect is also stalking and harassing Marine Le Pen and so on by linking to their websites. 10:59 AM, the SS women send a volunteer from Singapore to look up “softappende.pdf”. Is this a false report emphasizing to law enforcement agencies on both sides that the suspect is expressing hate speech against womankind on his website? Or is this rather an attempt to add Ms Gannuschkina to the Murakami girls' complaints? (That the suspect is stalking and harassing her by mentioning her name in his political commentaries without her consent.) Very likely – since the Russians are well-aware that every single person whom the SS women have added so far (including Oliver) is a US law enforcement mole here to sabotage the women's case. Gannuschkina, although an anti-Establishment liberal, could be easily instructed to join American women's fight against “violence against women”! With the Murakami girls and Ms Gannuschkina both validating the SS women's claims, the Russians can at least enter reasonable doubts into the ICJ to prolong their life there. Then, from 11:10 AM to 11:14 AM, the SS women send MJ12 bot to conduct another round of indexing – this time it is mostly Scientific Enlightenment chapters. This is probably to emphasize to Sledkom that the suspect's plagiarism also constitutes violation of people's privacy. Then the women wait. 3:26 PM, they send a volunteer from Toronto to look up the front page of the suspect's website. This is probably a status check. With the addition of Oliver to the Murakami girls' case and new evidences validating their “victim confidentiality”, the SS women believe that even law enforcement on the US side will finally be obliged to conclude investigation in their favor and remove the suspect's website. And yet nothing happens! There are then only two visits until 11:30 PM: the SS women are conferencing because they are mystified as to why they are not succeeding.

After 11:30 PM, the SS women resume operation. They must try again! 11:38 PM, they send the MJ12 bot to conduct another round of indexing: this time, mostly recordings from April 2010. More forceful argument obliging everyone to respect their “victim confidentiality”! Then, almost 1 AM, the suspect posts on PP the links to all his “Third ICJ Trial” chapters. 3:44 AM, a volunteer from Edmonton, Alberta, looks up “Cheney Plan” (37). This seems to be a report emphasizing that, because the suspect suffers bizarre delusions about Angelica and expresses these delusions on his website, this website must be banned.

15/04 S

Strangely, before 7 PM, Kiersten would retweet 3 times, including: “myhackerhouse.com/training/”.

There will be far fewer activities today on the suspect's website – apparently because the SS women are recovering from their mysterious failure yesterday. 9:56 AM, a volunteer looks up TL-02-14. 11:50 AM, a volunteer from Peru looks up Shizuka's portrait. Is this another complaint on her behalf or are the SS women simply explaining the “problem” to their volunteers? 6:48 AM, another volunteer from Bangkok looks up Shizuka's portrait. There is a focus today on the “problem of Shizuka”.

16/04 Sun

5:02 AM, the suspect posts two videos of Zizek's lectures on his Facebook. 5:15 AM, Dmitry is looking at the suspect's new Facebook postings. However, the SS women also immediately get wind of the suspect's new postings. A big fuss followed. By noon, 12 volunteers have checked the suspect's Facebook. It would seem that the SS women, desperate to “save Russia”, are now planning to recruit Zizek to the Murakami girls' complaint. Afterwards, in the afternoon and early evening, they compile a few more testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism.

6 PM, the suspect chats with Daniel while in Elysee. He tells him something about his business with the SS women and explains to him how he tracks visits to his Facebook.

Note that, today, Erdogan's referendum has succeeded in Turkey.

17/04 M (stalking claim)

The SS women will be busy today gathering testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism or his theft of his family members' drawings. 2:52 PM, a volunteer from Colombia looks up “TL-02-14”. 3:50 PM, MSGDP. 8:24 PM, a visit to the PP post from Manchester Township. It's the second visit after the suspect has posted the new note.

Take note of the SS women's break between 8:30 PM and 10:30 PM. They are probably discussing the “harassment” with Dr P. They are quite happy about this “harassment” because, this time, the incident is caught on video. (The incident happened in the same location today, near Chrysalis.) It is favorable evidence with the potential of forcing law enforcement on the American side to substantiate the women's claim about the suspect. Dr P goes to LAPD today or tomorrow and is able to successfully file a stalking claim against the suspect with a LAPD detective. The stalking claim, when Homeland Security CO chief intercepts it into the ICJ, might save Russia!

Finally, 1:51 AM, the SS women send a volunteer from Cameroon to copy the suspect's chapter (ancestorcult.html) onto Microsoft Word. The SS women are forging evidence of the suspect's plagiarism because – when filing their stalking claim against the suspect, the women must also present proof that the suspect plagiarizes, otherwise Russia and its allies cannot win the ICJ trial.

18/04 T

With a new case opened on Dr P's behalf, the SS women begin filing false reports about the suspect's plagiarism to LAPD. This will continue all day long. 11:14 AM, a volunteer from Gallipoli, Italy, looks up Oliver's painting. Probably a complaint on behalf of Oliver. 2:10 PM, LC Services sends the suspect a job offer via ProZ (tataidc.co.in, Delhi, India). The women are probably still hoping to use the “David Chin” document as evidence against the suspect in their new case. The SS women then take a break between 3 PM and 6 PM. Are they busy talking to the LAPD detective about their new stalking claim against the suspect? It's probably also for this reason that there are far fewer activities on the suspect's website after 6 PM. On 7:31 PM, Karin sends a notice to everyone in her meetup about the cancelation of the meetup even on 24 April. Then, after 12 AM, the SS women resume operation and mobilize their volunteers to file several more false reports about the suspect's plagiarism.

19/04 W (pedophilia)

Some time between 5 PM last night and 5 PM today, SDW posts something new on her blog: “Stephen Shellen and CIA directed energy targeting”. Clearly, with Dr P opening a new stalking case, SDW wants to join in and posts something on her blog in the hope that law enforcement surveillance might pick up the suspect's cyberstalking her. Meanwhile, Kiersten, today or tomorrow, would retweet something that looks like it came from a child: “Update on Fox News Lineup”. It would seem that she is trying to trick the suspect to click on it so that law enforcement can intercept him “stalking” minors on the Internet. She is evidently instructed by the Russians (via Homeland Security CO chief) to do this. If the SS women can succeed in making the suspect into a pedophile suspect, then law enforcement will be obliged to observe their “victim confidentiality” (law enforcement will be absolutely forbidden from looking at any contents which the suspect has produced). The Russian side will then definitely win this ICJ trial.

The SS women will then spend the whole day filing false reports about the suspect's plagiarism and his delusional expressions on the PP post. On 2:21 AM, a volunteer from Berlin even files a false report about actorinir2.pdf. Then, after 3 AM, after they have filed so many false reports about the suspect's plagiarism, the SS women decide to submit a bundle of concrete evidences. From 3:07 AM to 3:35 AM, they use VeriCite to demonstrate that xper.html, sacrifice.html, elementarystructures20.htm, and elementarystructures.htm are stolen or plagiarized contents. Then, from 4:29 AM to 4:43 AM, they use VeriCite to demonstrate that representation.htm, oppressionofwomen1.htm, evolution.htm and healer.htm are stolen or plagiarized contents.

20/04 Thu

The SS women will continue today to mobilize their volunteers to make false reports about the suspect's plagiarism. Especially, chapters and webpage underlined in red in yesterday's VeriCite activities are reported upon today. (See the Diary.) 8:10 AM, a volunteer from Padua, Italy, looks up the suspect's portrait of Sahra. Does Sahra's party (Linke) suddenly agree to join Murakami girls' complaint? Are they not afraid of being dragged down the water by the Russians? Then, something unusual: from 11:45 AM to 11:53 AM, a volunteer from Turkey looks up chinesepatriarchy220.html two times and then TL-02-14 one time. The SS women usually assign only one specific task to each of their volunteers: if the volunteer is required to report on a chapter in Thermodynamic Interpretation of History, he or she would not be charged with reporting on a chapter from The Secret History. 7:08 PM, a volunteer from Alger, Michigan, looks up "PC Books".

Then, something strange. On 8:56 PM, the Missionary Sisters call the suspect, specifying that they shall tomorrow meet with him in the garden outside the Temple rather than inside Visitors' Center. What is going on? In the past two days, the CIA and law enforcement officers here in Los Angeles must be discussing how to dismiss Dr P's evidence (the video) – since national security itself is at stake, in addition to their absolute loathing of this "licensed psychologist". Somehow they have found legal technicalities in the video and, early evening today, the LAPD detective informs Dr P that the video couldn't quite be used as evidence to initiate an investigation. Dr P must be furious. Because she only has a vague notion about her own status as a terrorist and is characteristically insensitive to other people's interests and feelings, she has very dim awareness of how much what she wants contradicts the national security interests of the United States. Therefore, together with Homeland Security CO chief, she calls up the Missionary Sisters and asks them to meet with the suspect in an open space instead for their lesson tomorrow. Mr CO chief is going to remotely control the suspect to talk about his business with the SS women, and Dr P wants the Sisters to record it as evidence for the detective. She is counting on the fact that the suspect will confess how the MSGDP incident works. But, in order to use the Sister's recording as evidence, the confession must be recorded in an open space where there is the possibility of being overheard by third parties.

12:17 AM, a volunteer from Japan looks up “writings_visitors.pdf”. This is perhaps a report on behalf of Karin and her bunch (how the suspect was suffering delusion about their going after him and stalking them in consequence back in 2008). Then, around 1 AM, the suspect posts a new message on the PP forum. This time it is merely a short explanation of Trump's unspoken agenda, with a link to “The Cheney Plan”.<sup>3</sup> Within an hour, 2:08 AM, a volunteer from Winchester, UK, looks up the message and clicks on the link and explores the suspect's website for a few minutes. Specifically, on 2:15 AM, he clicks on healer.html. Then, past 3 AM, the suspect posts three of Arlie Hochschild's lectures on his Facebook. 3:35 AM, a second volunteer from the UK is instructed to check on the suspect's new message and explore his past messages on the PP forum. He then clicks on one of his links, “Summary 2016”. These volunteers from the PP forum are obviously Homeland Security trolls and so are under Russian command: they are here to help the SS women by submitting false reports to the LADP detective in preparation for the big day tomorrow. 3:15 AM, a volunteer looks up the suspect's new messages on his Facebook. Wow! Maybe the suspect is now developing obsession with, and stalking, Professor Hochschild! Another victim that can be recruited! Then, 3:52 AM, a third volunteer from Albuquerque, New Mexico, looks up the suspect's new message on the PP forum and clicks on the link “The Cheney Plan”.

21/04 F (SS women's major operation day)

5:52 AM, a fourth volunteer from Morristown, Nova Scotia, looks up the suspect's new message on the PP post and clicks on the link (“The Cheney Plan”). 7:22 AM, the SS women send the siteexplorer.info bot to index the suspects' website: gallery.html, thermex2.html, acad.html, 1.html, and links.html. It seems merely to compile an index of the link structure of the suspect's website. The women will presumably submit it to the detective: “This is the website which you need to ban...” 8:39 AM, a fifth volunteer from Cardington, Ohio, looks up the suspect's new message on the PP forum and looks through all his past messages. 8:52 AM, a second volunteer is looking through the suspect's new posts on his Facebook. Then, on 9:52 AM, Kiersten changes her profile picture on her Facebook. This is a sign that she, along with the rest of the SS women, are very much looking forward to the operation this afternoon – that she is sure that the operation will be successful and that law enforcement will be forced to validate her and her gang as victims of the suspect's “stalking”. (It's a picture of herself touched up with Photoshop. She has no idea how ugly she looks in her picture!)

Then, between 10 AM and 10:30 AM, four more volunteers look up the suspect's new postings on his Facebook. 12:41 PM, a volunteer from Lancaster, New York, looks up the suspect's new postings on his Facebook. Seven volunteers in total have so far checked the suspect's Facebook. Evidently, the SS women are now trying to contact Professor Hochschild. Then, all activities on the suspect's website and Facebook cease between 2:20 PM and 6:30 PM. The SS women have left home and are meeting with the LAPD detective and the Missionary Sisters to plan for the operation this late afternoon. Meanwhile the suspect, in Elysee, has a conversation with Wes on the phone on 2:20 PM.

Conversation with Wes (21/04/2017)

The suspect is connected with Wes from 3:14:00 onward. (1) The suspect talks about what he realizes has happened between 9 November and 17 November last year: the Trump team has become a party to the ICJ trial on 12 November. Also how the CIA has removed the suspect's terrorist status. The Baltimore Lawyer was in Washington DC on 14 November to talk to the Secret Service. Trump was truly malicious. People will sell him to the lions for two dollars. (2) How the suspect has developed a new, ambiguous feeling toward Trump: he now hates Trump because Trump has sought to destroy him; but he loves Trump because Trump makes the liberals miserable. Should he be pro-Trump or not? The Russians will definitely seize upon this confession as evidence to confirm in the ICJ that there is some truth after all in Homeland Security's false profile of him. This will help prolong their life! (3) The US Establishment has now completely controlled Trump. (4) Now the suspect understands that he has actually something to do with Trump's "Russia connection". It is Trump himself who has made himself into an enemy of the CIA. (5) The Russians have screwed up the suspect's future plan: this is yet another example of how cheap he is to other people. He saved Russians' life! (6) Zizek's book Living in the End Time. The suspect wants to become the best suspect he can be, he has a lot of talent for being a suspect, he even violates the law which stipulates that a terrorist is not allowed to know he is a terrorist. Zizek's reflection on India's caste system – the "Untouchables". The suspect's position in American society is precisely the "Untouchable". He has believed he performs an indispensable function in American society by playing the role of "criminal suspect" and "mental patient" – but he has actually no part in American society, he is merely the excrement of American society, he is not an indispensable element, but the shit which the system necessarily produces but which it must exclude. (7) Marine Le Pen. The current ICJ trial is to replace evidences only, to show that he didn't conspire with Russia back in the first round. Putin's permanent command over Erdogan, Sarkozy, Cheney, etc. Again, all this is erroneous scenario. It is Russians' evidence that he is insane. The suspect continues: Marine Le Pen has to win by herself, not via him. She won't win the second round. Erdogan did all these offensive things because he is under Putin's command. This is half-true: Erdogan is indeed under Putin's command, but this is because there is a second case, not because of any judgment from the previous ICJ trial. The suspect continues his erroneous understanding: Cheney will lose all his influence when everybody knows he is under Russian command. More evidence of the suspect's insanity to prolong the Russians' life! Soon the US Establishment will find out that the previous ICJ trial has never disappeared. (8) About the Green party's connection with the SS women. The suspect is sick of this parallel reality: what's going on inside him (he has no intention to harm people) has no relationship to people's reaction toward him (everybody thinks him dangerous). He needs to harass the SS women in order to minimize this parallel reality, but he doesn't have time. His violation of the SS women's privacy through reconstruction of their operation on him is too weak an instance of harassment. (9) Baudrillard. The problem with his application for the University of Jena: his high school diploma. (10) Did Professor Jaeggi get a warning that he's a terrorist? Whatever happened to the warning which Homeland Security broadcast about him in Frankfurt back in 2008? (11) The suspect is a very special terrorist suspect: he doesn't do anything terrorist but spends his whole time trying to figure out why he is a terrorist, he is a "self-referential suspect". Wes disputes this, explaining: "I can talk" is self-referential. Or "cogito". A suspect can be a suspect without trying to figure out why he is a suspect. Zizek's paradox (Kant). Hochschild's new book, Strangers in Their Own Land. He is in the same dilemma as the poor whites. Why he is pro-Trump when it's against his interests.

The suspect hangs up with Wes on 3:33 PM. He then chats with Daniel.<sup>4</sup> 4:31 PM, Sister Maldonado calls, wanting to make sure the suspect will meet with her in an hour. Evidently, after so much preparation, the SS women are worried that he might not show up.

And so, from 5:05 PM to 5:40 PM, the suspect is meeting with the Missionary Sisters. As planned, the Sisters choose the garden outside the Temple in order to enable the SS women to legally record their conversation. However, even though the suspect does indeed talk about the SS women's gang-stalking of him with the Sisters for the first time, he mentions nothing about MSGDP. The SS women, monitoring the conversation in a hidden location, didn't find the evidence they were looking for. They decide that they need to resume recruiting Professor Hochschild to their complaint process. 6:44 PM, the eighth volunteer checks on the suspect's Facebook. The SS women then discuss the matter throughout the whole day. Between 8 PM and 3 AM, they send merely four volunteers to look up images on the suspect's website as part of their decoy operation. 3:20 AM, the suspect posts the video "The Taking of Patty Hearst" on his Facebook. 3:39 AM, a first (and only) volunteer checks up on the suspect's new message on his Facebook.

9:24 AM, a volunteer from Aliquippa, Pennsylvania, looks up Prelude 17 D. 1:11 PM,

4 With Daniel on 13:00. About Zizek's Living In the End Time. Daniel now gives an excellent lecture on objet petit a, how it works during romantic love, and Zizek's psychoanalysis of fascism and Stalinism. The conversation ends by 40:00. The Sisters call on 56:00. The suspect is leaving. With the Sisters from 1:25:00. The Sisters notice the wounds on his arm. It's God's fault that the suspect has failed the test. The suspect begins talking about the group of women going after him, how he is a suspect, and how they are expert witnesses about him (1:33:00). Why did God make him fail his test? (1:51:00) when the suspect calls up Tyan, she says she is not going to the Green party meeting tomorrow and encourages him to join “March for Science” that is going on right now in downtown Los Angeles. Then, 3 PM or so, MSGDP (HM). 4:04 PM, a volunteer from Osaka, Japan, looks up linkex.html. Is this to add another female to the Murakami girls' complaint? Could it be Akino Arai or Koizumi Kyoko? (Namely, the suspect has linked to their websites, which constitutes stalking and signifies danger to them.) If so, the SS women are unaware that they falling into more traps: any Japanese woman they recruit will only end up becoming a mole inside their organization to sabotage their complaint process. Then, 6:40 PM, a Harrow (UK) volunteer looks up the PP post. 6:55 PM, he clicks on G-3H from there. What is this about? Are the SS women thinking about enlisting Trump's team's help not knowing that Trump has switched side and will only sabotage their case? Throughout the whole day, the SS women continue to file false testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism and theft of other people's artworks. After 7 PM, however, their operation has slowed down. Not surprisingly, the LAPD detective has notified Dr P tonight that he has dismissed her stalking claim – despite her reporting of another MSGDP incident this afternoon! The Russians, seeing that they are in trouble again, order Homeland Security CO chief to control the suspect to do something to save them. Thus, 1:26 AM, the suspect, in view of the beginning of voting in France, posts a short message on Partisans:

The suspect then adds a new signature, “I can talk' is self-referential”. Then, on 2:58 AM, he posts another short message on PP:

“To be more precise: these women's claim is (1) Theoph continues to harbor bizarre schizophrenic delusion about these women being part of some government conspiracy to go after him; (2) Theoph, because he doesn't know that it's all his delusions, continues to act on these delusions by harassing them and writing about their going after him on internet forums, such as here (including me, Theoph's alter ego), and on his website: <http://www.enlightenment1998.com/1.html>; and (3) these women are consequently very frightened of Theoph and are therefore going to law enforcement or hiring private security.”

The message is inconsequential. The suspect is trying to express his awareness that he is currently under law enforcement investigation. 4:25 AM, the same Albuquerque volunteer seen on 21 April discovers H2J for the first time while checking over the suspect's new PP post and clicking the link to 1.html.

Both the Albuquerque volunteer and “egypt” are here to help save Russia and its allies by reporting to law enforcement to save Dr P's case. But, under CIA's strict order, the LAPD detective will ignore any further complaints about the suspect.

23/04 Sun

Note that, today, Marine Le Pen and Emmanuel Macron enter the first round of presidential election – the former under the dark shadow of a possible ICJ judgment convicting her of conspiring with a bunch of terrorists to harm the United States.

There are very few activities on the suspect's website this morning: the SS women are conferencing about their disastrous failure yesterday. 10:17 AM, the routine Open Link Profiler indexing.

After 11 AM, however, the SS women have resumed operation. 11:38 AM, a volunteer from Athens, Greece, looks up Oliver's painting of Goddess Athena. 12 PM, a volunteer from Fayetteville, Arkansas, looks up "PC Books". 12:06 PM, a volunteer from Oxford, Ohio, looks up "Prelude-17D".

2:30 PM, the suspect is at the Green Party meeting in Grand Park. Upon seeing him, Mariam gives him a hug: it certainly doesn't seem that she has been affected by the SS women's warning about him in any way. 4:30 PM, the suspect goes to eat with Rose and other Greens. Again, the congenial atmosphere indicates that nobody here has known anything about the suspect's status as a terrorist and stalking suspect and his business with the SS women. This makes him doubt that the SS women have ever connected up with the Green party.

The suspect arrives home on 9 PM or so. He begins to have an inkling of what happened on Friday afternoon. 9:42 PM, he calls up Sister Maldonado to inform her that, because he is a criminal suspect under investigation, he will not come to the Mormon church anymore. (Note that Sister Maldonado is doing everything she can to conceal from him her work as a government informant on him.)

1:43 AM, somebody is checking over the suspect's Facebook. A volunteer? Then, on 4:53 AM, the SS women ask the Eircom hacker to compile another index of the suspect's website – standardmodeldress.gif along with all the index pages. All the activities today indicate that the SS women will not give up and will appeal the LAPD detective's decision. They are compiling more evidences of the suspect's plagiarism, theft of other people's artworks, delusions about his women victims, and misogynist and racist utterances due to suffering persecutory delusions. Meanwhile, Dr P is absolutely furious with the LAPD detective. As has been repeatedly pointed out, she has the highest self-esteem imaginable, sees herself as an extremely important person, will not tolerate anyone causing her the slightest discomfort, and expects law enforcement officers to think likewise and work the hardest to neutralize anybody's attempt to discomfort her in the slightest fashion. The massive suffering she has caused to other people is never any of her concerns because feminism has already convinced her that she, as a woman, is inherently superiority to the rest of humanity and that she, as a woman, has been unfairly devalued by those inferior creatures around her (men). (Other people, since they are inferior and unjust, do not enter into her consideration.) The blatant manner in which the LAPD detective has ignored her complaint – even given indisputable evidence – is virtually unbelievable to her and must have shocked her to her bones: this invalidation of her supreme importance in the universe is experienced by her as some sort of wanton disregard of undeniable objective fact such as when one looks into the sunrise and yet asserts "The sun rises up from the West". Unable to swallow the injustice, she will call up AT&T tomorrow to disconnect both her home phone number and her office number.<sup>5</sup>

<sup>5</sup> Dr P already believes she has suffered injustice from law enforcement when law enforcement wouldn't arrest the suspect on the basis of the SS women's false reports. She already sees the opposite of reality since

12:24 PM, a volunteer looks up the PP post. 1:46 PM, the SS women order another round of Eircom indexing – the same as yesterday's (standardmodeldrell.gif plus all the index pages). 4:54 PM, another volunteer from Morgan Hill, California, looks up bun9.pdf – evidently another testimony about the suspect's violation of Angelica's privacy. (Even though the person named in bun9.pdf, Emilio, has nothing to do with her: it's merely somebody with the same last name as hers.) 7:10 PM, the suspect uploads a revision of “Suffering Woman”. He has added in SDW's name.

The SS women seem to be busy from 6 PM onward. There are no activities on the suspect's website between 9 PM and 12:20 AM. It would seem that the SS women – all of them: Karin, SDW, Dr P, Angelica, and Kiersten – have gone to meet with the LAPD detective tonight arguing with him about his dismissal of their case: the stalking claim of Dr P, the Murakami girls' complaint, and all the other women victims plus Oliver and Gaurav (without the women being aware that many of these people are actually law enforcement informants). As usual, the detective will not give in – under strict order from the CIA.

25/04 T

The LAPD detective must have told the SS women last night that he was also obliged to dismiss their case because the profile they have offered of the suspect simply can't be confirmed, in particular the idea that the suspect is plagiarizer. The detective was merely bullshitting them (making up some reason because he didn't want to reveal to them the fact that they were under joint investigation by the FBI, the Interpol, and LAPD). Nevertheless, the women, insensitive as usual, believed that they still had a chance. They will never give up, not just for themselves, but also in order to “save Russia” – without their knowing, both Russia and the National Front are being convicted in the ICJ since they failed their argument with the detective last night. And, so, today, for the whole day, the SS women are mobilizing their volunteers to brainstorm how to convince law enforcement that the suspect is indeed a plagiarizer. (Their perennial, and worthless, debate with law enforcement about the suspect's supposed plagiarism.) They seem to have focused their attention today especially on the suspect's chapter on Foucault's bio-power. Note, however, that, 7:21 PM, everyone else would consider law enforcement to be overly generous with her for not arresting her for falsely reporting crimes and forging evidences to frame people. Anybody else in her position would be in jail by now. Feminism has distorted her perception of reality in this way: everybody gets a empty glass in this society, while Dr P gets a glass half full of water. She complains that society is sexist against her because she doesn't have a full glass, unaware that other people only get an empty glass. This is how a privileged person can mysteriously come to see herself as disadvantaged. Now, this time, she actually did not forge evidence but has presented valid evidence – the detective's dismissal is therefore like giving her an entirely empty glass when she is expecting a full glass, as if she were of the same subhuman status as the suspect. Her anger must have shot through the roof.

somebody is looking at the suspect's Facebook: japbanddet.jpg, dancernerw.jpg, and enstehdet.jpg are called up on Facebook. The volunteer browses through all the Hochschild videos, all the Zizek videos, and all the Fraser videos in 12 seconds. Perhaps the SS women are conferencing: how to get these three renowned intellectuals to join their complaint process. (None of them seems to have expressed any interest in participating in the women's campaign since they have already, since a long time ago, found the meaning of their life in other, more worthwhile things.) Note also that, 7:30 PM, Kiersten tweets "Fifty Nifty" (democracy).

26/04 W

The SS women spend another day mobilizing their volunteers around the world to compile false reports about the suspect's plagiarism. Again, they are in a state of emergency since they aren't just doing it for themselves but also to "save Russia" (even though their conception of it is merely "to revive the ICJ trial for Russia's sake"). After midnight, they have submitted their new compilation to law enforcement agencies on both sides of the Pacific.

27/04 Thu (status check)

6:49 AM, the SS women send a volunteer in the UK to make one more false report about the suspect's plagiarism in his chapter on quantum mechanics. They must have thought that this is a decisive complaint which cannot but oblige the LAPD detective to accept their profile of the suspect as true. 8:57 AM, the SS women, anxious about their success, send the Long Keng volunteer to do a status check: 180.150.157.11, Rackspace Hosting, Hong Kong. Note that his OS has been updated to 10.12.4.

180.150.157.11 - - [27/Apr/2017:09:57:56 -0600] "GET /thermex2.html HTTP/1.1" 200

(KHTML, like Gecko) Version/10.1 Safari/603.1.30"

31 seconds later, he clicks on HT-contribution.

180.150.157.11 - - [27/Apr/2017:09:58:27 -0600] "GET /HTcontribution1-philosophy.htm

No, the website is not banned. The LAPD detective has not taken action. But perhaps the Interpol over in Europe has been obliged. 9:32 AM, the SS women get hold of their volunteer in Zurich, Switzerland, and ask him to conduct a status check. He does a Google search and arrive at softappende.pdf. Now, the suspect's website is also visible in Europe.

The SS women are in shock. They discuss the situation with their Zurich volunteer and, 7 minutes later, 9:39 AM, the Zurich volunteer comes to the index page for another check. Then, 29 seconds later, he clicks on the suspect's web gallery. The SS women now realize that all their efforts have not convinced law enforcement (unaware that the LAPD detective and the Interpol have already decided in advance to reject their complaint: they are just wasting their time). The women immediately ask their volunteers for solutions. 4:08 PM, a volunteer from Chicago looks up marion.jpg on Bing's images. Perhaps he is asked by the Partisans – even by Marion herself – to brainstorm how to revive the SS women's and the Murakami girls' complaints with the Interpol. These days are the darkest days of National Front: although Marine has successfully entered the second round in the election in France, she is, unless something happens soon to save her, being convicted of conspiring with a bunch of terrorists to fraudulently use the ICJ to come to power at the US' expense. 4:46 PM, another volunteer is looking up dr-paradis.jpg on Facebook (only the message). Evidently to brainstorm how to successfully file a complaint on Marie's behalf in order to temporarily stay ICJ's judgment. (Again, the SS women are unaware that Marie is here to sabotage their case.) The SS women then spend the rest of the day brainstorming how to falsely report the suspect for plagiarism.

28/04 F

9:02 AM, SS women send a volunteer from Hong Kong to look up shizuka1988.jpg. Recall the last round of Shizuka's involvement from 6 to 15 April. This is indication that, to prevent the SS women from ever reviving their complaint, the CIA has ordered Japanese law enforcement to send in Shizuka to the SS women to pretend to be concerned while ready to secretly sabotage their case behind their back.

12 PM, Kiersten tweets: “Precision Medicine”.

4:21 PM, the Russians order Homeland Security to instruct the SS women to ask their volunteer to search for “Time Line III” with the search terms “Opera Mini Persin 2014”. This is a trick, the sort of bullshit that can serve as evidence that there might after all be some truth in the SS women's assertion that the suspect hacks people's computers. The Russians will introduce this evidence in the ICJ to request that, since reasonable doubt exists, the judgment convicting them and the National Front (and so on) be temporarily suspended.

5:15 AM, the SS women send a volunteer from Poissy, France (a Partisan?), to look up shizukadetail.jpg. It's the second time today. This is evidently to file a complaint on behalf of Shizuka in an attempt to revive the SS women's, and the Murakami girls', complaint. Since the Russians know that Shizuka is an informant on the US side, it's strange that this Partisan (if it's indeed a Partisan) somehow doesn't know this. The SS women then spend the rest of the night brainstorming and compiling false reports about the suspect's plagiarism. 11:48 PM, the SS women order a round of SiteExplorer indexing: the index pages, the links on 1.html, and some gallery pages.

Late at night, the suspect sends an email to Dr Colin Ross explaining his experience with mind-control torture. It's not clear whether the Russians have seized upon this email as evidence of the suspect's paranoid schizophrenia.

29/04 S

Now that the ICJ judgment is temporarily suspended, both sides fight on to enter evidences into the ICJ.

6:10 AM, a volunteer from Trenton, Michigan, looks up the PP post.

8:01 AM, a volunteer from Gloucester, UK, looks up the PP post.

9:53 AM, the Trenton volunteer clicks on Prelude-17D on the PP post.

9:55 AM, the Trenton volunteer clicks on 1.html on the PP post.

9:56 AM, did the Trenton volunteer click on 61812-39.png?

12:13 PM, a volunteer in Turkey looks up "Time Line 02-14". All these are certainly Homeland Security trolls whom the Russians have ordered to submit testimonies to Sledkom confirming the SS women's testimonies that the suspect suffers bizarre delusions about his women victims' going after him.

12:27 PM, a volunteer from Denver, North Carolina, looks up shizuka1988.jpg and shizukadetail.jpg. This is perhaps CIA's response: instructing Shizuka to submit to Sledkom again her testimony that the suspect has never harassed her and that she is in fact quite fond of the suspect's portraits of her. Again, the purpose is to paralyze Sledkom. All this is okay for the Russians – since their strategy is simply to wait for the suspect to reconstruct what has happened. They will need to hold out for just one more month.

1:09 PM, the suspect, after waking up in his room, talks to Wes.

Conversation with Wes (29/04/2017)

(1) His email to Dr Ross from last night. (2) Their conversation last week might have revived the ICJ trial thanks to his new "love and hate" attitude toward Trump. (3) The SS women's excitement last Friday: their access to his conversation and monitoring of his session with the Missionary Sisters. They were trying to convince law enforcement that they were his victims. About the Green party meeting. Were the Missionary Sisters recruited by Homeland Security and the Secret Service at the same time? Strangely, Wes asks: "Are the Sisters good looking?" "Average." Why does Wes ask this irrelevant question? Did Homeland Security CO chief instruct the Sisters to falsely report to law enforcement saying the suspect sexually harassed them so that law enforcement is now instructing Wes to gather evidence from the suspect that he didn't sexually harass them? This is very likely the case: the Russians will do anything to prolong their life in the ICJ. The suspect continues: the Mormon church is the pinnacle of Protestantism. He feels bad for the Sisters: they have spent a lot of energy on him, and yet in the end nothing comes out of it. The suspect is quite modest here: the Missionary Sisters have been instructed by Homeland Security CO chief to sabotage the suspect in every possible way – he should hardly feel sorry for them. (4) The “Myth of Sisyphus” really refers to the SS women. (5) The suspect's speedier method of reconstruction. (6) His paper for Humboldt: it is still too long. (7) His doubt about going to Germany. (8) The strange echo on Wes' side. (9) If the Russians keep trying knowing that they can't win, that it's all a waste of time, then there is something he doesn't know about. Actually, they keep trying because the US is countering them and convicting them – the suspect has not quite understood this. Wes however gives a wrong reason to distract him: “When you have invested a lot of time in something, it has become difficult to simply walk away.” The suspect knows that this is not the answer. He assumes wrongly that the Russians are trying to replace evidences for the previous ICJ trial. How is France going to become Russia's ally? Marine is not going to win. (10) The anti-psychiatry movement. (11) The trial is revived, but the SS women have lost out on their law enforcement case... (12) Wes is reading Cosmic Consciousness by Richard Maurice Bucke: from simple consciousness to self-consciousness to cosmic consciousness. One day we will all have cosmic consciousness... There will be no more spirituality. The Lokota Way. Lyotard. Wes was in Lyotard's class when he was in UCI. (13) The SS women are so lucky, they are helped by Homeland Security. (14) The suspect's new perspective on Trump. (15) Would Homeland Security (under Russian command) put the SS women on Federal Witness Protection program? Why are the Russians so nice to them? (16) The suspect has corrected 1,000 mistakes in his past writings. (17) Wes is busy with grading papers. 1:58 PM, the suspect hangs up with Wes.

Now the SS women will refrain from activities on the suspect's website between 2 PM and 5:30 PM. They are evidently staying with Homeland Security CO chief in a Homeland Security control room somewhere analyzing together the suspect's conversation with Wes. There is, however, not much to be gained from the suspect's confession today. Then, from 5:42 PM to 7:53 PM, the SS women use VeriCite to prove that there is indeed plagiarism on links.html, gallery.html, thermh1.html, democracy2.html, and detphi.html. They are submitting their evidences to Sledkom in order to “save Russia” – unaware of the futility of their efforts.

Meanwhile, Karin has a meetup tonight: she is hosting Korean food in a restaurant in Koreatown. As for the suspect, he will upload his new paper “The dummification of American psychiatry” to his website. 9:04 PM, a volunteer from Township of Langley, British Columbia, looks up the PP post. The third time today. Another false report to Sledkom. 9:12 PM, a volunteer from Charlotte, North Carolina, looks up singer.jpg. The second time today. Again, Shizuka's testimony to Sledkom that she is not harassed. Then,

1:07 AM, another volunteer from Nevada, Iowa, looks up the PP post for the fourth time. The final report to Sledkom today about the suspect's delusional mind.

30/04 Sun

A certain "Carmen" uploads to the Meetup website the pictures from Karin's meetup last night. Karin has received instruction from Homeland Security to lure the suspect to "cyberstalk" her.

7:20 AM, a volunteer from Singapore looks up Shizuka's portrait: it seems that Shizuka is filing another report denying that she is being harassed. Then, the SS women are busy between 9 AM and 11:30 AM: there are no activities on the suspect's website. Are they conferencing with Sledkom about the state of their complaint?

1:58 PM, another volunteer from Markham, Ontario, looks up Shizuka's portrait. Another denial to paralyze Sledkom's investigation.

3:13 PM, MegaIndex's indexing of the suspect's website. 4:17 PM, MegaIndex's indexing is finished. The SS women have probably obtained MegaIndex's help in compiling another index proving that the suspect has indeed violated people's privacy on his website (all these recordings he is storing there), with which proof they can then oblige law enforcement agencies on all sides to respect victims' confidentiality by not looking at the website themselves.

Afterwards, at least three false reports about the suspect's plagiarism. And three more visits to the PP post. Sledkom continues to get contradictory reports about the suspect and is completely paralyzed in this strange case.
