

The third International Court of Justice trial over the suspect XV

1 May – 2 June, 2017

The following summarizes the reconstruction of the Secret Society women's operation against the suspect and his website and the associated International Court of Justice trial from 1 May to 2 June, 2017.

The names of persons follow the convention established in the previous chapters. The Secret Society women consist of (as of May, 2017): Karin (the German Lady, K), Angelica (Angelina, G), Kiersten (J), SDW (Maura, M), and Dr P (Petterson), along with auxiliary members like the Long Keng volunteer (“Glenn Chen”?), Carolyn's Mongolian friend, etc. For brevity's sake, the “Secret Society women” shall continue to be referred to simply as the “SS women” in the following narrative.

In the previous chapter we have seen how the CIA skillfully employs informants to sabotage the Secret Society women's case so that, the more these women try to help Russia, the more Russia is being convicted, and how these dumb women never have any idea why they couldn't succeed.

By now, the most decisive factor in this ICJ trial is the suspect's continual reconstruction of the preceding course of events. The suspect had finished his reconstruction of the course of events up till 5 June, 2016, on 14 April, 2017. He uploaded the latest document (Prelude-H2J) on that day, and, from 15 April onward, had begun reconstructing the course of events for November, 2016. By this month, he would be working on the course of events in October and September, 2016. This would eventually become “Prelude Grand” in June, 2017. This is of utmost importance since it is the reconstruction contained in “Prelude Grand” – documenting the US' countersuit against Russia in the ICJ in September 2016 – which will save Russia by making the countersuit into a terrorist conspiracy against Russia. We have seen that the Russians are trying their best to hold out and buy time in late April, 2017. From Homeland Security's surveillance on the suspect they can see that the suspect is currently reconstructing the events of crucial importance. They have only to wait a little longer. The CIA is of course also observing the suspect and knows therefore that it is increasingly unlikely that the US Establishment's original plan against Russia will work out.

The climax in the following episode must be the game-change which the suspect has effected on Partisans' forum on 17 May. This has released the Russians from the impossible project to protect the Secret Society women. The second climax, however, must be the “false flag stalking” occurring on the night of 28 May. Although it is not the first time that the Secret Society women and Homeland Security CO chief together remotely control the suspect, via the electronic chips inside his brain, to “stalk” Dr P in order to enable Dr P to force the police to validate her as “victim of stalking”, this latest episode is certainly the most bizarre. One of the suspect's favorite Germans, Thea Dorn, has recently reflected on the danger of technology in her latest novel, Die Unglückseligen. Here, the female protagonist, a molecular biologist named Johanna, experiments with human genome in order to artificially extend human life-span, only to encounter then a real case of “immortal man” from the late 1700s. Thea, with her interests in Krimis as well, should perhaps be called upon to examine this real case about the danger and absurdity of technological progress. The Secret Society women have certainly evaporated all meaning from the concept “victim” with their access to the most advanced technology of the current era to stage their own victimization.

KEY EPISODES

- 1 May, the SS women add Oliver to their new complaint with Sledkom.
- 2 May, the SS women have begun concocting a new story about how the suspect has stolen Oliver's painting not knowing that they have again fallen into a trap.
- 3 May, the SS women want to add Geert to their complaint with Sledkom. They forge more evidences of, and compile another index about, the suspect's plagiarism.
- 4 May, the SS women submit their final reports, along with their new story about Oliver's painting, to Sledkom – dooming the Russian side to conviction. The Russians pull the same old trick to temporarily stay the ICJ judgment.
- 5 May, under Russian advice, the SS women open a new case at Sledkom. The Russian operation to discredit Shizuka. The SS women create the first of a series of fake websites (<http://mhjqh.com>) to frame the suspect for plagiarism. The suspect talks to Wes: Homeland Security CO chief's remote control of the suspect can now be made into part of his terrorist conspiracy against Russia and the US.
- 6 May, the debate between the Russian side and the US over Shizuka's credibility as a “counter-witness”.
- 7 May, Macron beats Marine Le Pen in France's election. The SS women decide to submit their new story about Oliver's painting to their new case with Sledkom.
- 8 May, the SS women submit an index to request respect of their “victim confidentiality”. For the whole day, they are deciding whether to contact the French diplomatic service to warn them about the suspect's “new found obsession with Macron”.
- 9 May, the Russians want the SS women to focus on Marine and Marion in their new complaint with Sledkom. (Trump fires Comey.)
- 10 May, the CIA, to counter Marine's and Marion's involvement, gets Trump to become involved and manipulates the SS women to recruit somebody working in Fox News to complain to Sledkom on behalf of Trump. Trump has pretty much destroyed the women's case. The ICJ is ready to re-issue its judgment convicting Russia and its allies. The SS women are mystified as to why, even given Trump's involvement, law enforcement has not removed the suspect's website and Facebook. (Trump meets with Lavrov and Kislyak in the White House.)

11 May, the suspect tells Wes all about his wrong scenarios, and the ICJ temporarily stays its judgment. Late night, the SS women resume operation to falsely report the suspect for plagiarism.

12 May, major commotion over the suspect's Facebook. The SS women temporarily put aside their project to prove that the suspect is a plagiarizer. What's going on?

13 May, the SS women resume reporting the suspect for plagiarism and continue their commotion over the suspect's Facebook (the second day). Sledkom informs the SS women that they are closing their (and the Murakami girls') case. The ICJ is about to re-issue its judgment convicting Russia and its allies. The Russians save themselves again with the same old dirty trick.

14 May, the SS women spend the whole day debating with Sledkom (plagiarism).

15 May, to “revive” Russia's case, the SS women spend the whole afternoon mobilizing their volunteers to complain to Google about the suspect's website. To no avail.

16 May, the SS women conference in the afternoon (“How to save Russia's case”). Past midnight, the suspect posts a decisive message on Partisans' forum.

17 May, the Russians introduce the new evidence in the ICJ establishing suspicion that the suspect is working with the SS women to help the US convict Russia and its allies. The Russians change their strategy and no longer deny that the SS women are a bunch of false complainers of terrorism. The SS women have located a new law enforcement authority to complain to.

18 May, late afternoon, Angelica is personally complaining with her volunteers to an unknown law enforcement agency in the US. (The new law enforcement agency.) Getting nowhere, they call up Shizuka again.

19 May, the SS women establish working relationship with Common Crawl. They recruit a psychiatrist from Legacy Health Care System in Portland, Oregon. The Long Keng volunteer and the Camden volunteer both do a status-check.

20 May, the SS women want to enlist Marion, Marine, and Macron in their new complaint to the unknown law enforcement agency.

21 May, the suspect meets with Tyan and Dmitry. The unknown law enforcement authority dismisses the SS women's claim.

22 May, the SS women prepare for the next round of complaint. They re-enlist the help of Shizuka and Oliver.

23 May, the SS women complain to the Department of Homeland Security headquarter. Their complaint is rejected.

24 May, the SS women complain to the same Homeland Security officer again. Rejected again. They proceed to complain to Microsoft. Rejected. 4 AM, Kiersten brainstorms together with Glenn Chen.

25 May, the suspect speaks to Wes in the afternoon. The SS women are preparing a new complaint after Homeland Security CO chief has communicated to them that he can control the suspect to “stalk” Dr P on the 28th.

26 May, the SS women continue to prepare their new complaint.

27 May, the SS women continue to prepare their new complaint. Kiersten includes two special complaints in regard to herself (B-16I and C-5L). After midnight, the suspect sends off his anonymous letter.

28 May, the Russians enter their new argument in the ICJ. Conspiracy established against Russia. 10:20 PM, DRPH. The SS women have the LAPD detective watch the “stalking” in real time. Dr P forces the detective to reopen her stalking case against the suspect.

29 May, the suspect exposes Dr P's argument on the PP forum. Dr P enlists the help of Partisans and Oliver to her latest complaint about the suspect. The SS women are still trying to contact Elysée to warn Macron.

30 May, Dr P concentrates on discrediting the suspect's exposure of her argument on the PP forum. She adds to her psychoanalysis for the LAPD detective Angelica's old argument that the suspect hates white women so much that he compares them to chimpanzees.

31 May, the Russians validate Shizuka's secret testimonies to compromise the SS women's new stalking case.

1 June, the suspect talks to Wes on the phone. The Russians are completing their evidences. The detective too. Dr P enlists the help of the same psychiatrist from Legacy Health Care System in her current psychoanalysis to the detective.

2 June, the LAPD detective informs the SS women that he has dismissed their stalking claim. The SS women are in shock, and spend the whole day conferencing.

RESUME

May, 2017

01/05 M

Today, the SS women will continue throughout the day to submit false reports about the suspect's plagiarism. 12:39 PM, a volunteer from Czechia also looks up Oliver's painting of Goddess Athena. Another complaint on behalf of Oliver (not knowing that Oliver is sabotaging the SS women's case behind their back)? It seems that the SS women are re-adding Oliver to their new complaint with Sledkom to their own detriment. The SS women also seem to have a focus on “Yu trains his soldiers...” today. (Three visits.) In the afternoon, while the suspect is working in Bru-Coffee, he realizes that Homeland Security CO chief, back in November 2013, had actually obtained authorization from the ICJ to torture him from the control center in order to make him conform to the SS women's false profile of him.

Today, the SS women will continue throughout the day to submit false reports about the suspect's plagiarism. 1:29 PM, a volunteer from Mesa, Arizona, looks up Shizuka's portrait.

Three visits to the PP post today. 12:03 AM, a volunteer from Hyderabad, India, looks up redathena5.jpg. This is a sign of something new. Desperate to work their new case with Sledkom, the SS women are concocting a new story about how the suspect has stolen Oliver's painting. It's most likely Angelica who has come up with the new idea, perhaps under Oliver's suggestion. Oliver is of course merely carrying out the order he has received from his law enforcement handler. He will, behind Angelica's back, then report Angelica's plan to Sledkom, thus further paralyzing Sledkom's "investigation". It is thus that the SS women are again unknowingly falling into a trap. 4:25 AM, the routine Open Link Profiler indexing.

5:08 AM, a volunteer from Pretoria, South Africa – a member of the South African Group seen last summer – forges evidence of the suspect's plagiarism (biopower2.jpg). Throughout the day, the SS women will continue to mobilize their volunteers to offer false testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism. 6:32 AM and 6:44 AM, a volunteer from Puy-en-Valay, France – presumably a Partisan – looks up Kelly's and Geert's portraits. The plan to revive complaints on behalf of Geert? 9:18 AM, a very special visitor: 107.200.130.169, lightspeed.irvnca.sbcglobal.net, Torrance, California,

107.200.130.169 - - [03/May/2017:10:18:11 -0600] "GET /2012/61812-39.png HTTP/1.1" 200 225868 "http://forum.prisonplanet.com/index.php?topic=260320.0" "Mozilla/5.0 (iPhone; CPU iPhone OS 10_2_1 like Mac OS X) AppleWebKit/602.4.6 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/10.0 Mobile/14D27 Safari/602.1"

This volunteer is very nearby. 10:58 AM, the SS women order the Eircom hacker to compile another index showing that plagiarism is indeed found on the suspect's website (i.e. descartes202.html). 11:22 AM, he does it again. 1:12 PM, another volunteer, a school teacher in Bellingham, Washington, looks up redathena5.jpg: the SS women are gathering testimonies confirming their new story about the suspect's theft of Oliver's painting. Three visits to the PP post in total today (including the special visit).

8:37 AM, a volunteer from Helsinki looks up Oliver's painting of Goddess Athena. The SS women are today submitting their new story about Oliver's painting to Sledkom, thus undermining their own case. Between 3 PM and 6 PM, the SS women seem to be busy: hardly any visits. They are evidently submitting their final reports today, along with their new story about Oliver's painting – unaware that they are wasting their time and are only solidifying their status as false reporters of terrorism. 11:58 PM, strange indexing: Cortland Electronics Corp, United States: all the index pages, the main pages linked from the index pages, and gallery pages. The IP address is traced to Aqueous Networks LLC. This IP address was reported for malicious activities on 21 April 2017. Is this related to the SS women's operation? 4:29 AM, a volunteer looks up TL-02-14 with the search terms “How many study types education in pdf”. Clearly, because the Russians are quite aware that, the more the SS women try to save them, the more they are being convicted, they have had to save themselves again by ordering Homeland Security CO chief to send in a troller to pull the same old trick: a bullshit search to generate suspicion that there might be some truth in the SS women's made-up stories after all.

The SS women must have got a hint from Homeland Security CO chief that their stunt yesterday isn't yielding any positive effect. The Russians can't tell these dumb women straightforwardly that their effort to save them is achieving the opposite effect. Instead, the Russians instruct the SS women via Mr Homeland Security CO chief to open a new case with Sledkom and other law enforcement agencies. Since it is most important, and most difficult, to produce evidence proving that the suspect is a plagiarizer, the SS women and Homeland Security CO chief have decided on a radical solution: they would create a fake website specialized in plagiarism and attribute it to the suspect. The website created is <http://mhjqh.com>. The SS women, together with Homeland Security CO chief, seem to have found a computer hacker in Turkey who has ties to Germany to do the task. The Turkish hacker buys up a domain with Cronon (a German web hosting service) early this morning and begins working on its content. This is officially a Homeland Security operation. This fake website will disappear by late June.

5:45 AM, a volunteer from Gurgaon, India, looks up Shizuka's portrait. Since India is Russia's ally, this volunteer is probably instructed to find ways to report on the suspect's harassment of Shizuka in a way which can circumvent all the damaging testimonies which Shizuka has submitted behind the SS women's back. So far, Shizuka has done the greatest amount of damage to the SS women's case with law enforcement agencies; the Russians must neutralize her informant work first in order to stay alive a little longer. Once Shizuka's testimonies are circumvented, Sledkom can dump away their previous investigation of the suspect and start a new round of investigation afresh. The new case on behalf of the Murakami girls and the SS women can presumably last one whole month before it is destroyed by CIA's moles inside the SS women's organization – long enough for the suspect to completely reconstruct the episode of US countersuit.

Now that a new case is set going, the SS women resume compiling testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism. Meanwhile, 2:20 PM, the suspect, while in Kinkos, talks to Wes on the phone.

Conversation with Wes (05/05/2017)

The suspect is connected with Wes on 4:30 in the recording. (1) The mistakes he has made and the money he has wasted while applying for universities in Germany. The suspect is sometimes so smart and sometimes so dumb. (2) The suspect has made progress in understanding why he is a terrorist: Mr Homeland Security CO chief obtained ICJ's authorization back in November 2013 to torture him as a way to make him conform to everybody's expectation that he was a terrorist. Although the suspect has figured out this most important fact, his scenario is still mostly incorrect: Mr CO chief was never arrested and the Republicans weren't so involved back in November 2013. The suspect is correct, however, that it is his "false report" on 26 September 2013 which has provided the basis for the bizarre authorization from the ICJ. This realization would have important implication in the current ICJ trial. The fact that the suspect was remotely controlled through the chips inside his brain to commit all these vandalism crimes can now be factored into consideration in the ICJ; presumably both the Russians and the CIA will soon be able to declare Homeland Security CO chief's remote control of the suspect to be part of his terrorist conspiracy against them. (2) There ensues a discussion of how the suspect could have been held responsible for "making false report" on 26 September 2013. The whole problem goes back to CIA's argument in November 2007 that the suspect is a fake terrorist who uses his status as a fake terrorist to harm the US. BOL's hesitation back in January 2008. The suspect needs to go argue with BOL about his terrorist status. This status can be disputed because his understanding of whether he could harm the United States was so vague. How could he have been considered as using his fake terrorist status to do harm when everyone tried to convince him that he had merely imagined up the whole thing? An analogy: is it a real gun or a fake gun? Wes however maintains that the suspect was "guilty as charged" if he did believe it was a real gun. It didn't matter what other people told him. So, according to Wes, the ICJ judgment in November 2007 and in November 2013 was valid. The CIA will certainly welcome this discussion because Homeland Security CO chief's argument on 6 November 2013 was precisely that, as long as the suspect believed he would believe the suspect's nonsense, the nonsense should count as "false report" even though it was really a joke which nobody else could possibly believe. The CIA can now declare Homeland Security CO chief's argument to be part of his terrorist conspiracy against them. Beyond this, the suspect's confession probably also completes part of the evidentiary record from the previous ICJ trial (legitimately establishing his status as a terrorist). (3) Marine Le Pen will lose. The current ICJ trial will be hung, just like the previous two trials. What would be the judgment from the previous ICJ trial? Macron can't be impeached. So maybe the Russians will have to wait another five years. (4) The suspect's application for Humboldt university: it's all a waste of money. (5) The suspect's supposed insanity and genius are actually different facets of the same process: before he figures out the right scenario, he has to go through many wrong scenarios, which makes him look insane. After going through the wrong scenarios, however, the suspect will figure out the right scenario, which will make him look like a genius. Because people have already decided that Lawrence is crazy, they will focus their attention only on the early phase of the process where he looks crazy. (6) Hannah Arendt's misgiving about Adorno's authoritarian personality. Her lecture “Power and Authority”. (7) Why the suspect couldn't get a job. (8) How much Wes gets paid. (9) Simone Weil.

The SS women continue their operation. 6:22 PM, they use VeriCite to prove that epilogue225.html is plagiarized. Throughout the day, a volunteer using Google proxy also checks the PP post four times. The SS women seem to be busy between 9 PM and 12 AM. They are evidently busy with law enforcement agencies on both sides of the Pacific given their new case with Sledkom and the bundle of new evidences they have compiled today to “save Russia”. 12:36 AM, a volunteer seems to be checking over Bing's cache of drawLA.html. Evidently to report to law enforcement for the new case (about the suspect's harassment of all these famous people).

10:06 AM, a volunteer from Paris looks up Shizuka's portrait. Is this a Partisan? Presumably a continuation of the Russian operation to discredit Shizuka. 4:40 PM, another volunteer from Osaka, Japan, looks up linkex.html. This is evidently another CIA operation ostensibly to help the SS women file complaints on behalf of other Japanese famous women like Akino or Koizumi while secretly, behind the women's back, compromising their case by getting both Akino and Koizumi to admit that they have not been harassed by the suspect at all. It thus seems that the CIA is fighting back now that the Russians have got Shizuka discredited. From 5 PM onward, the suspect is in Elysee where he would chat briefly with Daniel.¹ From 6 PM to 6:15 PM, another volunteer from New York is looking up the suspect's portraits of Shizuka. Again, the CIA is probably fighting to reinstate Shizuka's credibility. Then, throughout the night, the SS women continue to mobilize their volunteers to falsely report on the suspect's plagiarism and theft of other people's artworks. 12:33 AM, the suspect posts on his Facebook the latest report about Pawn Storm – along with man.jpg and glass2.jpg as trackers. 3:52 AM, a little more than three hours after the suspect has posted on his Facebook, the SS women have discovered the new posting. They send a volunteer (social.res.rr.com, Santa Ana) to check over these new Facebook posting – could this be the “Long Keng volunteer” and/ or “Glenn Chen from Santa Ana”?

1 From 18:00 onward. The suspect talks about Sloterdijk's controversial interview with Cicero. Daniel then talks about what he has read of Sloterdijk. Then his opinion on Jung. The first round of their chat ends on 28:00. Then again from 1:35:00 onward. Badiou's concept of what philosophy is. The distinction between truth and opinion. The suspect makes a very intelligent statement. About Rushdie. Heidegger has abused his own concept of truth. Adorno's “authoritarian personality”. This second round ends on 1:48:00.

He has spent only 20 seconds on the suspect's Facebook. Evidently, the SS women, given that they have just opened a new case, ask the Long Keng volunteer (assuming it is he) to check the suspect's Facebook to see whether there is anything new which they can complain about.

07/05 Sun

Today, if you recall, is voting day in France – the second round. Emmanuel Macron will beat Marine Le Pen. The “Macron Leak”.

8:26 AM, a volunteer from Berlin looks up kmupreface21.pdf. This would create a lot of confusion for the suspect. He wonders whether this is an informant trying to pass along a message to him from the CIA. (Namely, the quotation from Camus' L'Étranger in the beginning of the document.) He can't be sure. This is possible since the CIA is quite aware that they can't convict Russia before the suspect reconstructs the episode of US countersuit. 11:26 AM, another volunteer from New York City looks up redathena5.jpg. Apparently the SS women have decided to also submit to their new case the new story they have concocted about Oliver's painting – unaware that it is precisely this story which, three days ago, has ruined their previous case and almost got the Russian side convicted. 1:46 PM, Kiersten updates her profile picture on her Facebook. This is her first time since her last update on 21 April. It's a picture of Jupiter (which she imagines herself to be in her astrological worldview). This indicates that she is quite excited because she is quite sure that her gang will finally succeed in this new case. 2:12 PM, another volunteer from Montclair, New Jersey, looks up redathena5.jpg. 9:31 PM, a volunteer from Fairfield, California, looks up Oliver's painting of Goddess Athena. The SS women thus continue to compile testimonies to support their new story about Oliver's painting. They then compile more testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism, theft of drawings from his family members, and expressing delusions about his women victims on the PP post.

Past midnight, the suspect would post several videos from Macron's electoral victory on his Facebook.

Throughout the whole day, the SS women will continue to mobilize their volunteers to submit false testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism to Sledkom. 11:14 AM, a volunteer from Hong Kong looks up Shizuka's portrait. The debate over Shizuka's credibility continues. Between 11:55 AM and 12 PM, Dmitry is checking the suspect's Facebook. This is irrelevant to the SS women's campaign. However, on 12:13 PM, the SS women send the first volunteer to check on the suspect's Facebook – their first discovery of the suspect's new “obsession” with Macron and his wife. The news spreads quickly. Between 12:29 PM and 1:08 PM, three more volunteers come to check out the suspect's Facebook. Then, on 1:40 PM and 2:40 PM, two visits to the PP post. 2:51 PM, a second volunteer of the day (from Islington, UK) looks up Shizuka's portrait. On 3:43 PM and 4:12 PM, the fifth and sixth volunteer check out the suspect's Facebook (Macron). 6:45 PM, the SS women send the Site Explorer robot to compile an index: mostly the recordings from May, April, and March, 2010; those from May 2009; some recordings from early 2008; plus TranslatorCV.html. Ever since they have opened a new case with Sledkom on 5 May, this is the first index the SS women are submitting in support of their request for “victim confidentiality” – as well as their claim that the suspect is actually his twin brother David Chin. 7:17 PM, a third volunteer of the day (from Montreal) looks up Shizuka's portrait. The debate over Shizuka continues. 10:17 PM, Dmitry is checking the suspect's Facebook again.

All these visits to the suspect's Facebook suggest that the SS women are thinking about contacting the French diplomatic service to inform them that their suspect has now developed obsession with the new French president and his wife. However, while the moles from the side of CIA would encourage them to do this, the volunteers from the Russian side would certainly discourage them. If Macron's team joins the campaign, they will certainly work on the side of the CIA and try to compromise the women's case behind their back. The SS women, a bunch of dumb women, never figure out how their effort to save Russia is counter-productive.

Today, Trump will fire FBI director Comey.

This afternoon, 3:21 PM, the suspect will post a new message on AVFM to leave a link to his website as well as to the PP post.² He will immediately receive two negative replies.

² The whole message is thus: “The website which the group of women claim Anonymous uses to terrorize them (which they also claim Anonymous uses to violate other people's intellectual property rights) is: <http://www.enlightenment1998.com/1.html>. These women have a problem with this website because Anonymous talks on this website about how they have been trying to ban his website for almost 5 years. However, when the women complain about this website to law enforcement agencies, they usually cite how it is full of plagiarized writings and stolen artworks.... A major piece of evidence which the group of women have been using against Anonymous is: <http://forum.prisonplanet.com/index.php?topic=260320.0>. The women's argument is that Anonymous suffers bizarre delusion about their going after him as part of some government conspiracy and writes about it on his website and Internet forums, which terrorizes them. The group of women cite this Prison Planet forum posting as a prime instance of this. This Prison Planet forum posting is especially cited as instance of harassment because some of the women are explicitly identified there.... The group of women will of course also want to cite this very thread as part of Anonymous' online harassment of them.... The group of women also increasingly cite Anonymous' Facebook as part of his campaign to harass

Later, when he is on the Metro train, he will, mistaking Dmitry's visits to his Facebook in the past month for Tyan's, call her up trying to hint to her that he knows about her intrigue with the SS women behind his back. This has scared Tyan. In reality, Tyan doesn't know anything about the SS women's business. (Even when the SS women connected up with the Green Party on 12 March, Tyan was apparently left out of the game and was never informed about it.) The suspect then finds Annukka at her home, and obtains from her the important information that this "Glenn Chen" is actually Mary Anne's best friend.

The SS women will continue the whole day to mobilize their volunteers to file false testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism to Sledkom. 1:58 PM, another volunteer checks up on the suspect's Facebook (Macron). 8:26 PM, a second volunteer of the day is checking the suspect's Facebook. 11:57 PM, the suspect posts a new message on the PP post expressing his (erroneous) understanding of the SS women's latest operation.³ 12:48 AM, the Saint Petersburg hacker comes to index the suspect's website. (He hasn't been here since 28 March.) He indexes all of the suspect's Yixuai chapters – evidently to submit to Sledkom as evidences of the suspect's plagiarism. 2:17 AM, a volunteer from Fort Lauderdale looks up the portraits of Marion, Eva, Marine, and President Xi. From 3:30 AM onward, the suspect, worried about his posting of the Macron videos last night on his Facebook, posts several more videos about Marion and Marine (notably, Marine's concession speech). He doesn't know that it is the Russians who have commanded Homeland Security CO chief to control him to put up the videos. The dumb women are trying to recruit Macron and his wife to their new case unaware how this could only destroy their case and cause Russia to be convicted. The Russians therefore suggest to the SS women that they should focus on enlisting Marion and Marine in their new complaint with Sledkom. 5:09 AM, a volunteer from Louisville, Kentucky, looks up the suspect's external links page. This is evidently to report to Sledkom that the suspect has harassed Marine and Marion by linking to their websites.

and terrorize famous people. They have also been requesting law enforcement agencies to ban his Facebook along with his website.... Please check for updates about these women's campaign to ban Anonymous' website, forum postings, and Facebook on both his website and the Prison Planet forum thread.”

Since last night, the suspect would have difficulty loading Marion's website after clicking on the link on his own website. Is Homeland Security trying to “protect” Marion?

Early morning today, given the involvement of Marion and Marine in the new case, the CIA asks the Trump team to get involved on their side. Given the pressure which the US Establishment has exerted on him lately, Trump dares not defy the order. (The timing is rather ironic since Trump will host Lavrov and Kislyak in the White House today.) The Trump team contacts the SS women saying they would like to be involved. The CIA then instructs one of their moles inside the SS women's organization to link the women up with somebody working in Fox News in New York City. The Fox News volunteer would complain to Sledkom on Trump team's behalf. The SS women must be jubilant, unaware that they are falling into another trap. 6:01 AM, the Fox News volunteer does a Google search “Lawrence C Chin Donald Trump”. The first document to pop up on search results is “D-4K”. However, the volunteer clicks on the second one:

While the volunteer reports to Sledkom in front of the SS women that the suspect is terrorizing Trump with his terrorist status (associating Trump's name with his own on Google searches), the Trump team secretly reports to Sledkom behind the women's back that the suspect has never harassed Trump and that the administration's position on the matter is that the CIA's assessment of the suspect is correct and that the SS women are a bunch of fraudsters.

There are then no activities on the suspect's website except decoys. The SS women are waiting: they are in a state of excitement, convinced that, with Trump's involvement on their side, they are surely about to win. Then, 12:33 PM, somebody is checking the suspect's Facebook – this seems to be Kiersten herself. She believes that, with Trump's involvement, law enforcement on the US side would have finally been forced to oblige Facebook to remove the suspect's Facebook postings. Kiersten has become a closet “Trump lover” because it is always Trump who will validate her status as a victim of “violence against women”.

She stops at the 23 October posting – precisely the first message which the suspect has posted about her fake review of herself at Dating Psycho! She has spent more than two minutes on the suspect's Facebook looking for it. And it's not banned! What's going on? 12:38 PM, or three minutes later, the SS women ask a volunteer from Gransbury, Texas, to check the PP post:

206.227.136.101 - - [10/May/2017:13:38:49 -0600] "GET /2012/61812-39.png HTTP/1.1" 200 225868 "http://forum.prisonplanet.com/index.php?topic=260320.0" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0; Win64; x64) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/57.0.2987.133 Safari/537.36"

No, it's also not banned! 12:59 PM, the SS women ask a volunteer in Paris (a Partisan?) to conduct a status check on the suspect's website itself. The volunteer does a search for “Scientific Enlightenment” and arrives at representation.html. No, it's also not banned! The SS women are absolutely mystified and are probably calling up their contacts in Sledkom, LAPD, Interpol, and the Trump team wanting to know what is going on. Nobody has an answer. Perhaps law enforcement has replied something to the effect that the suspect's terrorist conduct does not yet provide sufficient legal ground for banning him from the Internet. In reality, thanks to Trump's involvement, Sledkom is once again forced to conclude that the SS women are a bunch of frauds. 6:14 PM, the SS women check the suspect's Facebook again: it's still there. 10:56 PM, they ask the Saint Petersburg hacker to compile another index of the suspect's website. They probably want to remind law enforcement on all sides: “This is the website you need to ban!” 12:30 AM, a volunteer in Sweden clicks on the suspect's link (“The Cheney Plan”) on his new message about Trump's agenda. The SS women are evidently brainstorming with their volunteers how to make a more effective case about the suspect's terrorist harassment of Donald Trump.

The SS women's activities on the suspect's website this morning all seem to be mere decoys. On 1:44 PM and 2:15 PM, a volunteer is on the suspect's Facebook seemingly examining all the Marion and Macron videos which the suspect has posted in the past few days. The suspect would talk to Wes on 2:26 PM today while busy with his errands in downtown Los Angeles. (He has mailed out all the documents necessary for his application process with German universities.)

Conversation with Wes 11/05/2018

(1) The suspect expresses his wrong scenario (half-true, half-false) about the SS women's operation since Monday. Tyan's discovery of his videos on Macron and so on. The SS women contacted the French diplomatic service on Monday. On Tuesday they reported that the suspect has harassed Marine, Marion, and others. On Wednesday, they found somebody in Fox News to complain on behalf of Trump. His new update on the SS women's operation on the PP post. Then, the SS women checked to discover that his Facebook, his website, and the PP post had not been banned. (2) The suspect has scared Tyan with his phone call. He is quite excited that he can frighten people to death without doing anything – thanks to the preconception which the SS women have instilled in everybody's head. (3) He might have discovered the Long Keng volunteer's true identity on Monday night. This illustrates the discrepancy between his reconstruction and reality. (4) The suspect's wrong (totally wrong) scenario: Tyan is very involved because she is told that, if Homeland Security's profile of him can be proved correct, the ICJ will issue a judgment requiring compensation for the Green Party as well. The same story with the Science March. Even Tyan is using him as a patsy, this can't be legal under international laws. (5) The suspect's new hypothesis about what the Russians are doing. If, in this current ICJ trial, he helps them, they will get an ICJ judgment requiring the US to help the National Front to come to power. If he doesn't, they can get an ICJ judgment from the previous ICJ trial to the same effect. This hypothesis also explains the US action. Macron will get a ICJ judgment... (6) In order for Marine to come to power, something has to happen to change people's perception of reality. FN will have to change its ideology to appeal to a larger segment of the population, and Macron will also orchestrate some event in order to drive people to rightwing perception... (7) If the US loses France through an ICJ judgment from the previous ICJ trial, they will get a chance to respond, hence they prefer it. (8) The suspect shouldn't focus on going to universities in Germany, he should devote the rest of his life to the SS women... Going after people is very time-consuming, he has the potential for becoming a greater philosopher, but he also has immense potential for becoming an amazing stalking suspect, he can't do two things at the same time... He can be happy by being either the best or the worst, but if he can't become the best because of the SS women's operation, he shall be content with being the worst... It's a lot easier to become the worst... People hate him more than they hate Hitler. He scares people to death, and yet he has never done anything, and so he will never get arrested, he can thus enjoy frightening people without repercussion, it's a good life... It's better than being nobody... But he will regret letting his philosophic talent rot... This knowledge... The problem is that his talents go in opposite directions.... If he becomes a great philosopher, he wouldn't regret never becoming the greatest stalking suspect... It's so easy to become a terrorist suspect, because the SS women have done all the work for him... (9) The SS women have derived their conception about his wanting to hurt whoever he likes from women's experience of rape.

3:30 PM, just when the suspect hangs up with Wes, two more volunteers come to check the suspect's Facebook (the very top). 5:11 PM, a volunteer from Incheon, South Korea, looks up "TL-VI-34". 8:33 PM, the fourth volunteer of the day is checking the suspect's Facebook. All this time, there are virtually no activities on the suspect's website, not even decoys. It's evidently the case that, mystified by law enforcement's refusal to take actions, Dr P is staying with Homeland Security CO chief this afternoon to analyze the suspect's conversation with Wes while the rest of the SS women are asking their volunteers to brainstorm or to file more false testimonies (how the suspect is dangerous due to his delusions about, and obsession with, his victims). Dr P would again use her title as "licensed psychologist" to certify that the wrong scenarios that fill up the suspect's conversation today are proofs that he is insane and so extremely dangerous. Now, as noted, because the Trump administration has testified yesterday that they have never been harassed by the suspect and that the SS women are a bunch of fraudsters, Sledkom is forced to conclude in accordance with TMU's and CIA's assessment. This means that the ICJ is ready to re-issue its judgment convicting Russia and its allies. This conversation, full of wrong scenarios, has however saved the Russian side temporarily. The Russians would use Dr P's assessment plus the intercept of the conversation as evidences in the ICJ suggesting that the suspect is indeed insane, that there is some truth in the SS women's claims about him. It's up to the CIA to argue again that Dr P doesn't know what she is talking about, that the suspect's wrong scenarios are not signs of insanity but simply incorrect inferences based on insufficient evidences. The CIA will succeed in proving their point, it's just that the ICJ judgment is again delayed.

Past 11 PM, the SS women have resumed mobilizing their volunteers to file false reports about the suspect's plagiarism. This is indication that, in order to hide their operation from the SS women, law enforcement on the American side has once again informed the women that they couldn't take action because the evidences for the suspect's plagiarism are insufficient. (The same old dumb pretext.) Meanwhile, tonight, the suspect will discover an email from the University of Jena informing him that the university has accepted him to its master program. 1:41 AM, the suspect posts a news item about Russia on his Facebook (along with philo2.pg). 1:47 AM, a volunteer has already discovered the new post and checked on it. From 2 AM to 2:15 AM, two more volunteers have come to check on the suspect's Facebook. The SS women and their volunteers, since their failure yesterday, are in a state of frenzy and constantly looking out for any movements on the suspect's part which it might be possible to complain about.

5:15 AM, a volunteer from Bandung, Indonesia, looks up “Cheney Plan”. Probably brainstorming how to complain on Trump's behalf. 6:34 AM, the fourth volunteer checks on the suspect's Facebook. 7:42 AM, a volunteer from Riga, Latvia, looks up the PP post. 8:53 AM, a volunteer from Suwon-Si, South Korea, looks up Shizuka's portrait. 9:17 AM, a volunteer from San Antonio, Texas, looks up the portraits of Eva, Marine, Marion, Geert, and President Xi. 12:09 PM, the fifth volunteer looks up the suspect's Facebook. 3:27 PM, the sixth. 4:09 PM, Dmitry is checking the suspect's Facebook. From 4 PM to 8 PM, nine more volunteers check out the suspect's Facebook – 15 volunteers in total since the suspect posted his new message last night on his Facebook. On the other hand, there are virtually no visits to the suspect's website during this period. 8:59 PM, the second visit to the PP post today. 10:03 PM, the routine Open Link Profiler indexing. 10:18 PM, the 16th volunteer checks out the suspect's Facebook. 10:31 PM, a volunteer from Elya, Estonia, looks up sci.pdf. Probably brainstorming how to complain about the suspect's misogyny toward white women. 11:22 PM, the 17th volunteer – he is from Moscow – looks up the suspect's Facebook. 11:46 PM, the suspect posts a LA Times Opinion (“African Americans are far more likely to get falsely convicted”) on his Facebook. 1:05 AM, a volunteer from Bangkok looks up Shizuka's portrait – the second time today. 4:43 AM, the 17th volunteer checks up on the suspect's Facebook. The activity pattern suggests that, today, the SS women are focused on reporting to law enforcement that the suspect really is so dangerous given his delusional state of mind and frequent obsession with famous people. Something has happened with law enforcement communication with them since last night, such that they are able to temporarily put aside their perennial project to prove that the suspect is a plagiarizer because a window has opened up in their failed claim with law enforcement from two days ago.

13/05 S

Today the SS women will resume their effort to compile testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism. 12:10 PM, a volunteer is checking the suspect's Facebook: it's the second check since the suspect posted something new last night. 2:31 PM, the SS women ask the Saint Petersburg hacker to compile an index proving that plagiarism (symmetrybreaking.html and socrates335.html) is indeed found on the suspect's website. 3:19 PM, Dmitry invites the suspect to the Russian festival next Saturday (Plummer Park). 3:47 PM, the SS women ask the Saint Petersburg hacker to compile another index proving that plagiarism (this time, thermhch2.html, layereduniverse.html, and biopower2.html) is indeed found on the suspect's website. 4:18 PM, Dmitry is checking the suspect's website. From now on, the SS women will resume mobilizing their volunteers to report on the suspect's Facebook. From 4:21 PM to 9:10 PM, 10 volunteers come to check on the suspect's Facebook while very few volunteers come to the suspect's website. The SS women are unaware that their effort is counter-productive and that the Russian side is about to be convicted: many of the volunteers are, as law enforcement informants, reporting to Sledkom behind their back that they are committing frauds. Beside this, the CIA's demonstration that the suspect is not insane is sinking in with the ICJ judges. Around this time, Sledkom informs the SS women that they are closing their, and the Murakami girls', case against the suspect. They mention nothing about their acceptance of TMU's classification of these women as a bunch of false complainers of terrorism. 6:44 PM, the Russians, in order to save themselves and temporarily delay their conviction, play the same trick again – send in a Homeland Security troller to search for the suspect's chapters with some bullshit search terms (Google Cloud, Scottown, Ohio),

130.211.161.172 - - [13/May/2017:19:44:53 -0600] "GET /prelude15/Prelude17d.pdf
HTTP/1.1" 200 5264226 "http://www.google.com/search?

This is evidence that the suspect's chapter is about pornographic bullshit and that there might after all be some truth in the SS women's testimonies. The troller will come again on 6:46 PM and 7:05 PM. Meanwhile, the SS women, traumatized by Sledkom's communication, decide to continue to argue with them. It's probably the case that Sledkom has also used “insufficient evidences for the suspect's plagiarism” as a pretext under which to dismiss the women's complaint. 11:29 PM, the SS women thus send the Saint Petersburg hacker to compile a third index to prove that plagiarism (this time, germaninvasion.html) is indeed found on the suspect's website. The SS women then spend the rest of the night continuing to compile testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism, unaware that they are wasting their time.

14/05 Sun

Today, Macron will be sworn into office.

5:46 AM, a volunteer from Winnipeg, Manitoba, looks up “Cheney Plan”. Still brainstorming how to complain on Trump's behalf. 8:11 AM, a volunteer from Istanbul looks up TL-02-14. 12:18 PM, a visit to the PP post. 1:49 PM, bun9.pdf. Presumably another false report about the suspect's violation of Angelica's privacy. 2:17 PM, a volunteer from Minneapolis looks up Frauke's portrait. Brainstorming how to complain on Frauke's behalf. 8:14 PM, a volunteer is looking at the suspect's Facebook. For the whole day, the SS women will continue to mobilize their volunteers to compile false reports about the suspect's plagiarism. 10:17 PM, the SS women ask the Saint Petersburg hacker to compile another index proving that plagiarism (this time, all the chapters on feminism and so on) is indeed found on the suspect's website.

Past midnight, the suspect will have a video chat with Dmitry. He has finally come to terms with his mistake: the visitor to his website whom he has thought to be Tyan is actually Dmitry. His whole scenario about what is going on right now has collapsed. 1:30 AM, he posts on PP: “Sorry, the above information about the women's business with the French (May 10, 2017, 02:57:50 AM) isn't quite correct. I misread the information from my source. Please disregard it.” 4:34 AM, the volunteer from Sweden who checked out the suspect's link (Cheney Plan) on 12:30 AM, 11 May, comes to check out the suspect's new message. It seems that the SS women are perfecting their story about the suspect's harassment of Trump. Soon, the women decide to forge evidence again. 4:46 AM, they ask their volunteer from the University of Würzburg to forge evidence proving that the suspect has indeed violated intellectual property rights with his languagechange.gif. Their effort today suggests that they are still debating with Sledkom about whether the suspect has plagiarized. Because the suspect's log will be archived around noon on the 15th, it would seem that Angelica has herself visited the suspect's website between 12 AM and 5 AM this early morning to personally make false reports about it.

5 AM, a volunteer is checking the suspect's Facebook. Is it to see whether law enforcement has shut down the suspect's Facebook? 6:27 AM, a volunteer from India (unless it's a proxy) is checking 1.html. Is it a status check? No, law enforcement has not shut down the suspect's website either. It would seem that Sledkom did not say anything yesterday and that the SS women consequently have been harboring some hope. But now they are sure they have failed again. Then, 11:40 AM, after many decoys, a volunteer from Roslindale, Massachusetts, looks up TL-02-14. 1:12 PM, a second volunteer of the day is checking the suspect's Facebook. Given their failure so far, and getting some hint that Russia is in trouble, the SS women seem to have decided to complain to Google headquarter about the suspect's website. Any action taken by Google, they reckon, could be used by the Russians as evidence to “revive the ICJ trial”. 1:17 PM, a Google personnel from the Google headquarter in Seattle searches for the suspect's website, arriving at thermh1.html and, from there, within a minute, clicking on epilogue.html. He would come back to thermh1.html on 1:22 PM. 1:28 PM, a volunteer from Gloucester, UK, looks up the PP post. 2:04 PM, another volunteer from Chetwynd, British Columbia, looks up the PP 184178 post. 2:14 PM, the Google personnel comes to thermh1.html again, and, 2:25 PM, clicks on epilogue.html again. Another volunteer from Washington University then looks up foodcycle.jpg on 2:25 PM and a volunteer from Japan visits zhuangzi.html on 3:06 PM. These volunteers are evidently all complaining to Google. Thus, the SS women and their volunteers might be talking to Google from 1 PM and until past 3 PM, complaining about the suspect's harassment of his victims on his Facebook, the PP forum, and his own website – plus his persistent violation of intellectual property laws and utterance of hate speech against white women. If only Google accepts their complaint, Russia's case could be saved.

But of course Google would do nothing. The SS women wouldn't give up. 3:52 PM, they ask their volunteer from Cal State Fullerton to look up epilogue225.html. Then, 4:39 PM, another volunteer from “Health Care Authority for Baptist Health” (Montgomery, Alabama) looks up ancestorcult.html. 5:14 PM, another volunteer from Lansdale, Pennsylvania, looks up “Suffering Woman” (with the new reference added to SDW!). It's evident that the SS women are asking these three volunteers to argue with Google, the argument lasting approximately from 4 PM to 5:30 PM. Of course Google would not give in. The SS women therefore spend the rest of the day brainstorming with their volunteers how to more convincingly complain about the suspect's website.

Today, Erdogan is meeting with Trump in Washington DC.

It can be expected that, this morning, the SS women continue to mobilize their volunteers to send to Google testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism. However, it's also expected that Google will dismiss all these complaints – whether or not they have been instructed by law enforcement to do so. This may explain why, between 11 AM and 5 PM, there are no visits from the SS women to the suspect's website. Perhaps they are meeting in person – and meeting with Homeland Security CO chief – to conference about their current impasse. How to save Russia's case? (Unaware that Russia is being convicted: they should save Russia itself.) After 5 PM, the women have gone home and resumed mobilizing their volunteers to brainstorm how to complain about the PP post and the suspect's supposed plagiarism.

It is in fact up to the suspect to save Russia! He has gone to the LAX courthouse yesterday morning to ask for judge Solorzano's permission to go to school in Germany this fall. Judge Solorzano laughs. Of course his request is denied. The suspect is at once disillusioned and has been feeling dejected ever since, yesterday and today. Then, today afternoon, he gets a letter from Social Security Administration saying his SSI will be cut because he is discovered to have, in the past several months, more than 2,000 dollars in his bank accounts. After he gets home tonight, past midnight, he gets on Partisans' forum and changes his signature in the following manner:

Did he do this out of his own freewill, because he is so upset? Yet, given that Russia is being convicted right this moment, it is very likely that it is the Russians who have programmed him to post this as a way to save themselves. The Russians will proceed to combine this confession from the suspect with his confession intercepted on 23 April and, in the morning, submit both to the ICJ as “evidences newly discovered”: “This suspect is working together with these women and the CIA to harm us here. In the beginning, he tried to conform to these women's testimonies about him in order to help the US convict us of conspiring with a terrorist; when this plot was busted, he tried to not conform to these women's testimonies about him in order to help the US convict us of conspiring with a bunch of terrorists. This suspect is aware that he is working as a US operative, and you have heard him expressing numerous times in the past few months his awareness that the current game is about convicting us and the National Front of conspiring with these women terrorists. The CIA, these women, and this suspect are together running a terrorist conspiracy to convict us in the International Court of Justice.”

When the suspect wakes up 8 AM or so, he discovers Wes' email informing him that they cannot talk this week: yet another terrible event for the suspect this week! The suspect is terribly dejected. Is it because the tremendous change in the battle in the ICJ has prompted the CIA to suspend the suspect's conversation this week, lest he might produce more evidence to save Russia? The ICJ judges, looking at the Russians' new evidence and hearing their new argument, have suspended the judgment convicting them and their French allies. But Russia has not yet won the case because the evidence is, as yet, insufficient. Namely, the suspect's claim is that his current mission is to prevent Russia from advancing its geopolitical agenda by not conforming to the SS women's testimonies about him. This is not an exactly correct description of the current situation: has he forgotten his earlier, more correct, description that the CIA is trying to convict Russia and the National Front of conspiring with the SS women? Until the suspect has realized, once and for all, that his current mission is to help the CIA convict Russia and its allies of conspiring with a bunch of terrorists, the Russians' claim that the CIA is running a terrorist conspiracy against them with the suspect and the SS women is not fully substantiated. Furthermore, the suspect is also as yet unaware of CIA's motive in this terrorist conspiracy (i.e. General Petraeus' desire to prevent Russia from ruining his plan in Syria). Nevertheless, the judges grant the Russians their request to suspend the trial in anticipation of more evidences coming in to incriminate the CIA. The Russians have at last seen their strategy pay off – waiting for the suspect to reconstruct, and realize, what has been going on in the ICJ in the past eight months. They have now but to wait a little longer – they are at last out of danger!

As for the SS women, unaware that the tide has suddenly changed in their case, they would spend the whole day mobilizing their volunteers to run decoy operations (looking up images on the suspect's website for no reason) or to brainstorm for solutions. They are wasting their time worrying about “how to save Russia's case”.

Note that Putin will have a telephone conversation with Macron today.

The SS women, after a whole day of brainstorming, have today located a new law enforcement authority to complain to. It's not clear which one this is. They are in a state of frenzy determined to save Russia's case in the ICJ – unaware that the suspect has already saved it for them. They are also unaware that, from now on, the Russians will no longer defend their innocence but will instead accept the US classification of them as “terrorists” as valid. This will certainly make life easier for the Russians. Given the current shape of the battle in the ICJ – suspension while the terrorist conspiracy against Russia and its allies is being established – the CIA is ordered by the court to continue its operation as usual. Namely, the informants inside the SS women's organization will continue to clandestinely compromise their complaint process. Thus, the change which the suspect has caused in the battle with a little typing on the keyboard is very bad news for the SS women. For the whole morning, the SS women have been mobilizing their volunteers to compile testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism and theft of other people's artworks, and about his harassment of his women victims with his delusional expressions on the PP post. 12:26

PM, Lingual Consultancy sends the suspect a job offer via ProZ. The SS women are still thinking that, if they could only obtain concrete evidences suggesting that the “David Chin” document is genuine, they can really consolidate Russia's case. Then, past 5 PM, the SS women are connected up with somebody in the new law enforcement authority and, after sending him all the testimonies they have compiled this morning along with Homeland Security's warning about the suspect, begin making their case to him. 5:32 PM, it's Angelica from House Z (west.biz.rr.com, Los Angeles). She is personally making her case to the law enforcement officer:

173.196.200.74 - - [18/May/2017:18:32:22 -0600] "GET /prelude_D_4/prelude_D_4k.pdf HTTP/1.1" 200 3916204 "https://www.google.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.1) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/58.0.3029.110 Safari/537.36"

7 minutes later, 5:39 PM, she clicks on it again.

173.196.200.74 - - [18/May/2017:18:39:35 -0600] "GET /prelude_D_4/prelude_D_4k.pdf HTTP/1.1" 206 1652003

5:40 PM, Angelica comes again.⁴ These two documents rank second and third on Google search results with the search terms “Lawrence C Chin International Court of Justice”. This is presumably Angelica's search terms:

173.196.200.74 - - [18/May/2017:18:40:16 -0600] "GET /prelude_E_4/prelude_E_4e.pdf HTTP/1.1" 200 5179460 "https://www.google.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.1) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/58.0.3029.110 Safari/537.36"

5:42 PM, she clicks on it again:

173.196.200.74 - - [18/May/2017:18:42:34 -0600] "GET /prelude_E_4/prelude_E_4e.pdf HTTP/1.1" 206 1818915
"http://www.enlightenment1998.com/prelude_E_4/prelude_E_4e.pdf" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.1) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/58.0.3029.110 Safari/537.36"

12 seconds later, he also clicks on another document that comes up on the search:

173.196.200.74 - - [18/May/2017:18:42:46 -0600] "GET /timeline_02_14-3/timeline_02_14-3f.pdf HTTP/1.1" 200 1864121 "https://www.google.com/" "Mozilla/5.0

(Windows NT 6.1) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/58.0.3029.110 Safari/537.36"

And so, from 5:30 PM to 5:45 PM, Angelica is presumably telling the officer: "Sir, please look closely at Homeland Security's warning about him. He plagiarizes on his website, stole other people's artworks and put them on his website; he makes hate speech against white women and minorities on his website. He impersonates other people and has stolen his twin brother's identity. He seems to be working as a Russian operative. He harasses us and other women victims by spilling out everywhere his delusions about our involvement in government conspiracies to go after him. He goes around vandalizing the properties of all the women with whom he has developed obsession. He stalks them – and me. He is very dangerous to us because he's obsessed with us and doesn't know the strange scenarios he has developed about us are but his delusions. Consequently, he will come hurt us. This is why you must ban his website. See, here, he has this strange belief about his, and our, involvement in this International Court of Justice trial. See, here, let me report to you what he writes here." It's ironic that Angelica herself is only doing this because she needs an official validation of her testimonies about the suspect and his demonic website from any law enforcement agency in order to (according to her erroneous understanding) revive Russia's case in the International Court of Justice!

The discussion continues. The, the SS women mobilize three volunteers to report on the suspect's violation of intellectual property rights and expression of bizarre delusions about his women victims on the PP forum. Thus, 6:14 PM, shawcable.net, Edmonton, Alberta: it's the first volunteer,

174.3.132.54 - - [18/May/2017:19:14:09 -0600] "GET /scientificenlightenment1/saxonwarrior.jpg HTTP/1.1" 200 93242 "https://www.google.ca/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_12_1) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/56.0.2924.87 Safari/537.36"

6:14 PM, proxy, Prague: the second volunteer,

83.143.240.3 - - [18/May/2017:19:14:16 -0600] "GET /2012/61812-39.png HTTP/1.1" 200 225868 "http://forum.prisonplanet.com/index.php?topic=260320.0" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0; Win64; x64) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/51.0.2704.79 Safari/537.36 Edge/14.14393"

6:26 PM, Portland Community College (Portland, Oregon): the third volunteer, 209.152.44.202 - - [18/May/2017:19:26:10 -0600] "GET /scientificenlightenment1/cellularrespiration.jpg HTTP/1.1" 200 101947 "https://www.google.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (iPad; CPU OS 10_2_1 like Mac OS X)

AppleWebKit/602.4.6 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/10.0 Mobile/14D27 Safari/602.1"

While the first and the third volunteer report how the suspect copies images from books and puts them on his website in blatant violation of intellectual property laws, the second volunteer, on 6:28 PM, clicks on “Summary 2016” from the PP post:

83.143.240.3 - - [18/May/2017:19:28:30 -0600] "GET /summary2016_8/summary2016_8g.pdf HTTP/1.1" 200 579060
"http://forum.prisonplanet.com/index.php?topic=260320.0" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT
10.0; Win64; x64) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/51.0.2704.79
Safari/537.36 Edge/14.14393"

This is to report further on the suspect's bizarre delusions about his involvement in some International Court of Justice trial which, in his imagination, also entangles all his women victims.

There are very few visits to the suspect's website afterwards. 2:05 AM and 2:53 AM, two volunteers from South Korea look up Shizuka's portraits (1988). Evidently, the new law enforcement officer has dismissed the SS women's complaint immediately, but didn't say very much to the SS women. The SS women don't know that a CIA/ TMU warning about them as false complainers and fraudsters is circulating among law enforcement agencies, which has effectively destroyed all their chance to ever successfully complain about anything – a warning which not even the Russians dispute any longer. The SS women therefore spend the night brainstorming. Unsure about the new law enforcement officer's stance on the matter, they get into contact with Shizuka again trying to enlist her help in their new round of complaint, unaware that Shizuka is here to secretly sabotage their case.

By morning today, the SS women will have established a relationship with Common Crawl, an Internet company located right here in Los Angeles.⁵ Throughout the whole day, Common Crawl's robot will be indexing the suspect's website. That is, from 11:27 AM onward, on and off until 9:36 PM. It will index all the essays and links on the front page of the suspect's website. This is the index which the SS women will submit to the new law enforcement authority: “This is the link structure of the website which you must ban.” 7:06 AM, a volunteer from Legacy Health Care System in Portland, Oregon, looks up the PP post. The SS women are probably here looking for a psychiatrist to testify to their new law enforcement authority that the suspect is not only severely insane but extremely dangerous on this account. (Recall their stunt with Dr Shahid Habib on 13 August last year.) Somehow, Dr P is thinking that her status as a licensed psychologist needs to be reinforced. 7:51 AM, the Long Keng volunteer comes to do a status check:

5 And so, according to Wikipedia: “Common Crawl is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization that crawls the web and freely provides its archives and datasets to the public.... Common Crawl was founded by Gil Elbaz. Advisors to the non-profit include Peter Norvig and Joi Ito.” Note its registration information: Registry Registrant ID: C76862240-LROR ; Registrant Name: Gilad Elbaz ; Registrant Street: 9854 National Blvd #125 ; Registrant City: Los Angeles ; Registrant Phone: +1.3105943463.

The website is not banned. It's now clear that the new enforcement officer from last night has not accepted the SS women's complaint. 8 AM, the Long Keng volunteer comes to gallery.html from thermfr2.html.

It seems that he is clicking around while discussing with the SS women their current impasse. "We need to find ways to save Russia's case!" Then, on 8:08 AM, a volunteer from Camden, South Carolina (in-addr.arpa.net), checks out TL-IX-10.

Is this also a status check? We have to wonder whether this is the same Camden volunteer who played a decisive role on 28 October last year when the SS women were meeting with the detective from Hawthorne Police Department. It would seem that, for the rest of the day, the SS women have resumed compiling testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism and delusional mind (especially in regard to the PP post) to send to their new law enforcement authority. 6:52 PM, a volunteer from Pasig, Philippines, looks up Shizuka's portrait. A complaint on behalf of Shizuka. Shizuka will play the same old trick of reporting to the new law enforcement authority behind the SS women's back saying that the suspect has never harassed her and that she is in fact quite fond of the suspect's portraits of her.

From today, 19 May, until 25 May, there will be a strange robot slowly, periodically, indexing all the PDF documents (i.e. the Secret History chapters) on the suspect's website (node2.cluster, Hetzner Online, Germany). It's not clear whether this is related to the SS women's operation:

From today onward, the suspect will use iTalki to continue his German lessons. He continues to be extremely dejected feeling a complete loss of direction in life.

All day long today, the SS women will continue their decoy operation and effort to compile testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism. 10:46 AM, a volunteer from Cherkasy, Ukraine, looks up "Prelude-B-16I". 1:53 PM, a volunteer from Columbus, Mississippi, forges evidence of the suspect's plagiarism (copying biopower2.jpg onto Google Document). 3:17 PM, a volunteer is checking over the suspect's Facebook: he scrolls down to the 10 May posting, where the suspect posted the three videos about Macron, Marion, and Marine. Unaware of the turning of tides in the ICJ, the SS women have been talking to the Partisans about enlisting the help of Marine and Marion in their new case at the unknown law enforcement agency. The Partisans have got their order from the Russians to pretend to go along with the SS women because everyone must say to the terrorists things which fit their beliefs in order to hide from them the investigation over them and to enable them to "finish their mission". 4:30 PM, a volunteer seems to be using PDF Drive to access "Kulturindustrie": another attempt to generate evidence of the suspect's plagiarism. 5:10 AM, another volunteer from Singapore looks up Shizuka's portrait.

The suspect would meet with Tyan for lunch today. Upon sharing his story with the SS women with her and seeing her negative reaction, he becomes sure that she has never heard anything from these women. Then, early evening, the suspect meets up with Dmitry at the Plummer Park (the Russian festival). This is his first meeting with Dmitry since he broke relationship with him in early 2013.

The SS women will continue the whole day today to mobilize their volunteers to compile testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism. 11:30 AM, a volunteer from South Korea looks up Shizuka's portrait. 8:23 PM, another volunteer is looking at the suspect's Facebook. It appears to be the same Santa Ana person, i.e. Glenn Chen. The suspect comes home on 10:35 PM. There are no activities on his website between 9:30 PM and 3 AM. Five and a half hours! What's going on? Apparently, the SS women have sent their report to the new law enforcement authority some time today. They have even included a major complaint from Shizuka. By evening, however, the officer in the new law enforcement authority has notified the SS women that he has dismissed their complaint and will not hear anything more from them. Devastated, the SS women are conferencing again for solution. "What should we do to save Russia's case?" They have no idea that the person on whom they have put so much trust in the past few days, Shizuka, has been fucking with them behind their back.

5:28 AM, a volunteer from Pasadena (static.mtpk.ca.charter.com) looks up Prelude-17D:

75.142.61.199 - - [22/May/2017:06:28:25 -0600] "GET /prelude15/Prelude17d.pdf HTTP/1.1" 200 5264226 "https://www.google.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_9_5) AppleWebKit/601.7.8 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/9.1.3 Safari/537.86.7"

The SS women are probably worrying about Russia's case in the ICJ and, knowing what kind of evidence it usually requires to “revive” the ICJ trial, ask one of their volunteers to produce an intercept. 6:17 AM, another volunteer from Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, looks up Shizuka's portrait. 7:21 AM, another volunteer from Seoul, South Korea, looks up Shizuka's portrait. The SS women, preparing their next round of complaints, continue to put great trust in Shizuka. The SS women then continue to mobilize their volunteers to compile testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism. 2:03 PM, another volunteer from Tustin, California, looks up Shizuka's portrait. 4:05 PM, the SS women send Common Crawl to conduct a round of indexing on the suspect's website: it will index many Secret History chapters and other links on 1.html – and nothing else. Then, 6:59 PM, it's the routine Open Link Profiler indexing. 9:53 PM, the suspect posts three documentaries on his Facebook (Putin, Trump, and Columbus). 10:43 PM, the SS women send a volunteer to check the suspect's Facebook, looking for anything new which it might be possible to complain about. 10:53 PM, a volunteer from Renton, Washington, looks up Oliver's painting of Goddess Athena. After a whole day of research, with the help of Homeland Security CO chief, the SS women have decided to complain to Department of Homeland Security's headquarter in Washington DC. Any favorable response from the Department will become evidence favorable for the Russians in the ICJ. Shizuka and Oliver will remain part of this next round of complaints with the mission to clandestinely sabotage it.

Since early morning, the SS women continue to mobilize their volunteers to compile testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism and expressions of bizarre delusions on the PP forum. 9:17 AM, they instruct another volunteer from Ft Washington, Maryland, to compile a complaint on behalf of Oliver. They have by now sent all the testimonies they have compiled to the relevant division in the Department of Homeland Security – along with Homeland Security CO chief's warning about the suspect as a terrorist. By 9:30 AM, the SS women are talking to an officer at the relevant division in the Department of Homeland Security. “He's a danger to us because he has developed this delusion about our going after him and wanting to exterminate him. Google for it!” And the Homeland Security officer finds TL-VI-34 (sbcp1.dhs.gov, Department of Homeland Security, Washington DC):

216.81.94.68 - - [23/May/2017:10:34:34 -0600] "GET /timelinepartVI/timelinepartVI-

34.pdf HTTP/1.1" 200 1634252 "https://www.google.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.1; Win64; x64) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/58.0.3029.110 Safari/537.36 IE8Mercury"

Angelica continues: "He also uses his website to plagiarize. This is why you must ban this website. Let me find somebody to tell you what's on it." And so Angelica summons the volunteer from Carrickfergus, UK (who was already on the suspect's website two times in the past few days), to report to the Homeland Security officer:

86.143.201.69 - - [23/May/2017:10:42:23 -0600] "GET /thermex2.html HTTP/1.1" 200 530 "http://www.enlightenment1998.com/scientificenlightenment1/aztec.html" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.1; rv:53.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/53.0"

"All the stuff he has copied from books..." However, the Homeland Security officer, having in his hand also CIA's warning about the SS women and invalidation of Homeland Security CO chief's warning about the suspect, quickly dismisses Angelica. The SS women's frustration must have shot through the roof: "Why is it so hard to ban this website? How can we help Russia in the ICJ?" They spend the rest of the day sending decoy visits to the suspect's website and mobilizing their volunteers to brainstorm. They are compiling more evidences because they will try again tomorrow. 2:34 PM, a volunteer is checking the suspect's Facebook. 8:31 PM, another volunteer checks the suspect's Facebook. 9:50 PM, the suspect posts another Putin video on his Facebook.⁶ 10:31 PM, the third volunteer of the day checks on the suspect's Facebook. To get ready for tomorrow, the SS women are also compiling testimonies about the suspect's impersonation on the PP forum as supporting evidences for their claim that the suspect is really David Chin, a suspected Russian agent.

This afternoon, when the suspect is in Elysee chatting with Daniel, he tells him about the SS women's latest complaint to Homeland Security headquarter about him. Daniel shows little interest; they instead talk about how the suspect could go to school in Germany.

Early in the morning, after compiling new testimonies and sending them to the same Homeland Security officer, the SS women call him up again to ask him to reconsider their case. Thus, 7:11 AM, the same officer from Homeland Security from yesterday comes again:

216.81.94.68 - - [24/May/2017:08:11:31 -0600] "GET /favicon.ico HTTP/1.1" 200 408 "http://www.enlightenment1998.com/prelude_E_4/prelude_E_4e.pdf" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.1; Win64; x64) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko)

Win64; x64) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/58.0.3029.110
Safari/537.36 IE8Mercury"

The search is presumably: “Lawrence C Chin International Court of Justice”. The SS women are evidently reiterating the argument which they have used with the unknown law enforcement officer on the 18th: “He's dangerous because he suffers from this delusion about the International Court of Justice...” 7:59 AM, the Homeland Security officer looks up Google's cache of the suspect's website:

216.81.94.68 - - [24/May/2017:08:59:54 -0600] "GET /dot_clear.gif HTTP/1.1" 404 1322

The Homeland Security officer has evidently dismissed the SS women's case again without any interest. But the women will of course never give up. After 10 AM, the SS women resume mobilizing their volunteers to compile testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism, thinking that, if not this, the Department of Homeland security should be obliged to remove websites which violate intellectual property rights. But no. The SS women might have within hours got a rejection again. Desperate to save Russia's case – not knowing that they are worrying about nothing – the SS women have, by 3:30 PM, decided to appeal to their old buddy in Microsoft.⁷ If only Microsoft would take action, it would be evidence in the ICJ to “save Russia's case”. 3:34 PM, the same Microsoft personnel is thus directed by the SS women to search for the suspect's chapters under pornographic search terms (Drake Holdings LLC, Las Vegas),

“His chapter shows up on pornographic searches... It's child pornography.... Please remove it from Bing's search results...” Again, the SS women have learned from Russians' repeated use of this dirty trick that this is the easiest way to “revive” the ICJ trial. Of course the Microsoft personnel ignores the women's complaint. There are very few visits afterwards to the suspect's website, indicating that the SS women are back to brainstorming after repeated failures. They have decided that violation of intellectual property rights is still the best pretext under which to ban the suspect's website. 9:48 PM, they instruct one of their volunteers in India to forge evidence – to create a plagiarized version of descartes202.html. The volunteer then looks around, clicking, in the next few minutes, the chapters before and after descartes202.html. The SS women then collect a few more testimonies about the suspect's delusional expressions on the PP forum to harass his women victims as supplements for their claim about his violation of intellectual property rights.

4:02 AM, the suspect posts on his Facebook two videos, one about Ivanka Trump and the other about Donald Trump. 4:06 AM, “Glenn Chen” – or the same volunteer from 7 May – has already discovered the suspect's latest Facebook messages and clicked on the image: social.res.rr.com, Los Angeles (note that he is using his iPad instead of iPhone):

172.91.21.97 - - [25/May/2017:05:06:50 -0600] "GET /gallery/paradis-portraits2.jpg HTTP/1.1" 200 338008 "https://www.facebook.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (iPad; CPU OS 10_3_1 like Mac OS X) AppleWebKit/603.1.30 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/10.0 Mobile/14E304 Safari/602.1"

The urgency with which the SS women's volunteer looks for something to complain about is certainly indication of their desperation. 4:12 AM, Glenn Chen – he is evidently sitting with Kiersten at the moment – is looking for the suspect's 23 October message about her on his Facebook. He spends four and a half minutes scrolling down the suspect's Facebook:

The SS women are probably wondering whether this message about Kiersten might itself serve as ground for banning the suspect from the Internet.

25/05 Thu

After their failure yesterday, Homeland Security CO chief suggests a new plan to the SS women. He will be able to remotely control the suspect to “stalk” Dr P in the next few days. Namely, DRPH. Dr P can then take the video of the incident to the LAPD detective who has dismissed her stalking claim on 22 April. The video will force the detective to reopen the stalking case on the suspect, which will become evidence in the ICJ to “save Russia's case”. The SS women are jubilant over this idea. They shall in the meantime compile their evidences so that, when Dr P goes to the LAPD detective to open a new stalking claim, the monstrous characteristics they have attributed to the suspect can be verified by evidences.

5:06 AM, the SS women instruct Common Crawl to compile a short index of the suspect's website: drawLA, davenport.pdf, diffinlang1997.pdf, and /p/. Plagiarism and identity theft (pretending to be Lawrence Chin). 5:26 AM, a volunteer is looking at the suspect's Facebook posting of tempsmandetail.jpg (only the message). The SS women then continue to mobilize their volunteers to compile testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism and delusional expressions on the PP forum. 8:56 AM, they instruct the Eircom hacker to compile another index proving that the suspect has violated people's privacy on his website (/2012/).

Around 2:25 PM, the suspect is finally able to talk to Wes on the phone.

Conversation with Wes (25/05/2017)

Here are the highlights. (1) The suspect recounts his mistakes the last time. The visitor in question wasn't Tyan, but Dmitry. His whole scenario has collapsed. He is a dumb suspect who doesn't even know why he is a suspect. Judge Solorzano has denied him permission to go to Germany. How much he lacks common sense; he has been living in delusion. He's actually very dumb. (2) He should never listen to people's advice. He should never have written to professors in Germany. (3) What he really is, is a US government operative. The SS women's operation has changed, Angelica visited his website in the afternoon on the 18th. She was reporting that the suspect suffers from this delusion about some International Court trial... Then the visit from Homeland Security headquarter... (4) The suspect is below average as a suspect; but he did accomplish something, namely, that he runs the most complained about website in human history... He should compile a list of all the visits from law enforcement and security agencies... (5) Should he still try to go to Germany? By the time he gets to Jena, he would be 50 year-old... (6) The SSA wants to cut his checks. (7) He thought he was special... Yet he isn't special after all, he is wasting his life reconstructing the SS women's operations... (8) The suspect hanged out with Tyan and then Dmitry on Sunday. Tyan couldn't understand what he was talking about. This has caused him to realize why nobody can understand what he says. There is something more fundamental than people's low intelligence, namely, that people are not motivated to understand him... When they hear him, they just dismiss him as insane out of laziness... His story, because it is politically incorrect, doesn't motivate people... (9) Wes didn't bother to point out to him the last time that he's making a fool out of himself. The suspect cried: he is a pathetic terrorist stalker, he has to work so hard just to discover the simple fact that he is a terrorist stalker... He is devastated, he has nothing special to show for... (10) What Wes did with Daniel. Daniel's girlfriend came too. (11) The suspect continues to emphasize his role as a US patsy. (12) About Sloterdijk. His dummification paper. (13) It's hard to conclude whether the suspect is dumb or smart. The reason why he is dumb: he has no patience, doesn't plan things through... (14) The book Declining by Degrees. Rationalization and commercialization of higher education. (15) Wes likes people who don't talk about themselves but express thoughts on other things. (16) The purpose of going to college. The suspect: Weber was wrong. The CNN propaganda about Putin.⁸ Plotinus. (17) The suspect: his happiness lies not only in discovering the truth, but also in sharing the truth discovered. The audience problem. The truth-giver must dumb down his message, offer a shadow, for 8 The suspect is referring to the aforementioned CNN Special Report with Fareed Zakaria.

9:15 PM, a volunteer is checking the suspect's Facebook (the very top). 11:59 PM, another volunteer checks the suspect's Facebook. 1:41 AM, the SS women compile another index for submission:

Such must be the argument which Angelica is preparing: “This is why confidentiality must be granted to us. His website violates our privacy because (1) it contains recordings of conversations in the law library where it is forbidden to record and because (2) it contains my naked pictures and portraits of other famous women.” The SS women then resume compiling testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism.

Late in night, the suspect discovers Washington Post's story about Kushner's attempt back in December to open a backdoor communication channel with the Kremlin through the Russian embassy. He instinctively notices this has something to do with him and the SS women. 2:10 AM, he posts this story on his Facebook. The mention in the story of an anonymous letter sent to Washington Post to tip them off about Kushner's latest move suddenly gives the suspect an idea.

Early in the morning, the SS women's Turkish volunteer is working hard to perfect the fake website mhjqh.com. It will be included in the SS women's new complaint. 11:19 AM, the SS women are compiling another index to justify their request for “victim confidentiality” (security.lightspeedsystem.com, Bakersfield, California): /, 1.html, 06-09- (summer 2009), vol-6 (06/2010: not there), vol5-9 (early 2010: the law library), and acad.html,

There will then be five visits to the PP post: testimonies about the suspect's expression of delusions about, and harassment of, his women victims. 9:11 PM, a volunteer from San Antonio, Texas, looks up “Summary 2016”. This is the first visit since the suspect has inserted the “Trump/ November” episode.

Through the whole day, the SS women continue to compile evidences for their new argument. 6:44 PM, a volunteer from Broxburn, UK, looks up the PP post and, 11 minutes later, clicks on “Third Round Outline”. Another testimony about the suspect's expressing delusions about his women victims on Internet forums in order to harass them. 11:06 AM, the first volunteer has discovered the suspect's new message on his Facebook (the Kushner report). No complaint is probably made from this. 11:36 AM, a very special visit: 86.152.252.1, btcentralplus.com, Sheffield, UK. This person seems to be Sharon King Coleman (LB Admin)!

86.152.252.1 - - [27/May/2017:12:36:37 -0600] "GET /2012/61812-39.png HTTP/1.1" 200 225868 "http://forum.prisonplanet.com/index.php?topic=260320.0" "Mozilla/5.0 (iPad; CPU OS 10_3_1 like Mac OS X) AppleWebKit/602.1.50 (KHTML, like Gecko) CriOS/58.0.3029.113 Mobile/14E304 Safari/602.1"

It seems that, during the third day of preparing for her new complaint, Angelica thinks that enlisting Sharon's help might strengthen its seriousness. Sharon has presumably never been recruited by the CIA and its law enforcement partners as a mole inside the SS women's organization.

12:20 PM, standardmodeldrell.jpg is called up on <http://mhjqh.com/table-of-quark-properties/> (nycmny.fios.verizon.net, New York, New York). The fake website which the SS women's Turkish volunteer has first created on 5 May is being finalized and put into action. This will strengthen the SS women's claim that the suspect creates websites only in order to violate other people's intellectual property rights.

1:50 PM, a volunteer from Santa Fe, Argentina, looks up Shizuka's portrait. Shizuka's (fake) complaint is also included in the new complaint package. She is ready to destabilize the SS women's latest complaint. 5:06 PM, the SS women use VeriCite to produce evidence that justiceinrepublic2.html is plagiarized. 9:43 PM, a visit to “Prelude B-16I”. This is indication that Kiersten wants to include in the new complaint a special complaint about the suspect's obsession with, and sexual harassment of, her. 1:53 AM, another volunteer from Dickens, Texas, looks up “Prelude C-5L”. Kiersten is here including another complaint about how the suspect has threatened to hurt her on his website (“shit in KRN's mouth”).

As for the suspect, he would spend the whole day composing his own anonymous letter to Washington Post. By 1 AM, he sends out the letter on Washington Post's special portal. The Russians would surely instruct Homeland Security CO chief to intercept the letter into the ICJ as evidence. The letter contains a paragraph which is the evidence which the Russians have been waiting for:

“The negotiation which Kerry conducted with Moscow over Syria during the summer of 2016 (with an agreement reached on 26 August) seems to be the direct consequence of Ms Nuland's blunder in February, 2016. It is in order to remove her conviction that the State Department attempted to broker a favorable agreement with Russia. The final agreement which was very favorable to Russia was however widely resented by the US Establishment, and Pentagon's bombing of Syrian troops on 16 September, 2016, signaled that the US Establishment no longer wished to remove Ms Nuland's conviction through negotiation. They henceforth counted on the CIA to convict Russia in the ICJ trial over the “stalker” of attempting to use a terrorism case to advance geopolitical interests against the United States (re: National Front).”

The motive is finally identified (Syria). On the 28th, the ICJ judges will have no choice but to grant the Russians that the suspect has indeed conspired with the CIA and the US Establishment to send the SS women to conspire with Russia and its allies as a way to convict them. However, since the suspect's expression is still vague, the Russians request that the Court provide more time for the suspect to produce more complete evidences. The Russians are observing the suspect as he continues to reconstruct, each day, what happened in November, October, and September last year. It would be good stuff for them. The extra time required, however, also means that the CIA and the US Establishment (notably General Petraeus) are given time to prepare for their upcoming conviction.

28/05 Sun

Today is D-Day! Since morning, Homeland Security CO chief has been assuring the SS women that the suspect will “stalk” Dr P tonight. The SS women, excited, set about to complete their new complaint package. 7:11 AM, a volunteer is checking the suspect's Facebook to discover the suspect's new posting about “Trump-Russia connection”. Presumably no complaint can be made from this. Dr P, however, is thinking about reviving her old argument that the suspect is dangerous because he doesn't believe he's delusional. She's aware that the suspect has recently put up his new essay “Dummification of American Psychiatry” on his website. 7:39 AM, she finds an expert somewhere to search for, and download, this essay: proxy4.unibe.ch, proxy at University of Bern,

130.92.9.58 - - [28/May/2017:08:39:56 -0600] "GET /psychiatry/psychiatry_pl.pdf HTTP/1.1" 200 260937 "https://www.google.ch/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.3; WOW64; rv:53.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/53.0"

This is the very first visit to this new essay. The expert will concoct a testimony agreeing with Dr P's assessment that the suspect is extremely dangerous because he somehow doesn't believe that believing people are going after him constitutes paranoid delusion. Meanwhile, since early morning, Dr P has also obtained three more testimonies about the suspect's expression of bizarre delusions on the PP forum. Then, Angelica has also compiled four more testimonies about the suspect's violation of intellectual property laws. 11:21 AM, another volunteer is checking over the suspect's Facebook. Still nothing new to complain about here, however. Between 1 PM and 5 PM, there are virtually no activities on the suspect's Facebook. The SS women have all left their home. Homeland Security CO chief has informed them from the control center that the "stalking" will occur tonight around 10:20 PM. Dr P, Angelica, and Kiersten have made an appointment with the LAPD detective for this afternoon. They meet with him and submit to them the complaint package they have so far compiled (which includes the fake website mhjqh.com to prove that the suspect does plagiarize and the "David Chin" document to prove that he is not really Lawrence Chin). Dr P and Kiersten inform the detective that, because they are psychic and supreme expert on the suspect's psychopathology, they can predict that the suspect will stalk the psychologist at her home tonight on 10:20 PM. Karin seems to be staying in her new home in Hawthorne directing the rest of the operation. Glenn Chen and Veronica's investigators have also been summoned to join Karin to support tonight's operation. The SS women begin planning for tonight's operation. The investigators have set up the necessary surveillance around Dr P's home in such a way that everyone can see on Karin's as well as on detective's computer screen what's going on in front of Dr P's house. It's not clear whether SDW has come all the way up from Encinitas to join Dr P at the police station or Karin at her home.

7:08 PM, Karin orders Common Crawl to compile another index of the suspect's website. The index is to be submitted to the LAPD detective immediately after the "stalking": "This is the website which you need to ban... You see all his writings about his paranoid delusions and all the drawings and paintings he has stolen from other people..." The, as predicted, DRPH from 10:20 PM to 10:25 PM. Her mother's red van is parked in front of the house, but Dr P's own SUV is not there. Evidently, this is because she is staying at the police station tonight observing the "stalking" in real time together with the detective. 10:43 PM, merely 18 minutes after the "stalking" is completed and three and a half hours after the Common Crawl indexing, Dr P instructs the Long Keng volunteer "Glenn Chen" to download the necessary documents as further evidences to be submitted immediately (Rackspace, Hong Kong; note that Glenn's OS has been updated again – to 10.12.5 – since 27 April).

Within two minutes, Dr P instructs him to find the article which the “expert” has looked up this morning (the second visit):

45 seconds later, he has found what Dr P has asked him to look for, “Feefee and Valerie”:

104.237.95.149 - - [28/May/2017:23:46:50 -0600] "GET /feefeeval5rev/feefeeval5rev.pdf HTTP/1.1" 200 445270 "http://www.enlightenment1998.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_12_5) AppleWebKit/603.2.4 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/10.1.1 Safari/603.2.4"

One and a half minute later, he comes back to the front page:

104.237.95.149 - - [28/May/2017:23:48:28 -0600] "GET /dot_clear.gif HTTP/1.1" 404 1322 "http://www.enlightenment1998.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_12_5) AppleWebKit/603.2.4 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/10.1.1 Safari/603.2.4"

28 seconds later, he has found “Hillary Doctrine”:

104.237.95.149 - - [28/May/2017:23:48:46 -0600] "GET /hil_doc/hil_docc.pdf HTTP/1.1" 200 64623 "http://www.enlightenment1998.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_12_5) AppleWebKit/603.2.4 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/10.1.1 Safari/603.2.4"

42 seconds later, he comes back to the front page:

104.237.95.149 - - [28/May/2017:23:49:28 -0600] "GET /dot_clear.gif HTTP/1.1" 404 1322 "http://www.enlightenment1998.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_12_5) AppleWebKit/603.2.4 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/10.1.1 Safari/603.2.4"

5 seconds later, he has found what he is told to look for – this time it is SDW, eager to include herself in the new stalking case, who has instructed him: “Suffering Woman” with the new reference to her true identity:

104.237.95.149 - - [28/May/2017:23:49:33 -0600] "GET /sufferingwoman/sufferingwomand.pdf HTTP/1.1" 200 420644

"http://www.enlightenment1998.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_12_5) AppleWebKit/603.2.4 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/10.1.1 Safari/603.2.4"

And so Glenn Chen is instructed by Dr P and SDW to find four documents – and he did so within six minutes: “Psychiatry”, “Feefee and Valerie”, “Hillary Doctrine”, and “Suffering Woman”. All four documents were three hours ago indexed by Common Crawl. These are the four documents which shall together constitute all the support for Dr P's argument to the LAPD detective tonight: “He is dangerous because he is in denial that he is mentally ill; he doesn't believe that believing we are going after him is paranoid delusion. He hates us because he hates white women, and this is because he is sexually frustrated, because he sexually desires us and yet can't fulfill his desires. As a consequence, he also hates feminism. As a consequence, he writes this document to insult SDW. He desires to hurt her too.” Dr P has Glenn send these documents immediately to the detective at the police station.

The LAPD detective allows Dr P to open a new stalking case on the suspect. However, since the knowledge that these women and their Homeland Security partners have chips implanted in the suspect's brain to control him is widespread in the TMU, it is very possible that this LAPD detective is also quite aware of the tricks which Dr P and Kiersten are pulling on him tonight. In which case, his jaws are probably dropping to the ground. These women ask their Homeland Security partner to remotely control the suspect to “stalk” them at a predetermined time through military grade brain-computer interface technology, and then come to the police to pretend they have psychic power able to predict the commission of crime beforehand with pinpoint accuracy. Certainly the most bizarre fraudsters and false complainers in the history of law enforcement! Only that it is not known whether the CIA has shared with him the latest development in the ICJ trial: it will certainly spoil his good mood from watching the SS women unfold their most bizarre fraud.

For the rest of the night, Karin will collect more testimonies about the suspect's expression of delusion about his women victims on the PP forum. These will also be submitted to the LAPD detective in the latest stalking case.

29/05 M

Today, Macron receives Putin at Versailles.

Now that the SS women have a new stalking case opened against their suspect, they are jubilant believing that they have “saved Russia's case” in the ICJ – unaware that their action has produced no effect, that it only serves to validate their new status as harming Russia and its allies, and that the Russians are in fact contemplating nefarious design against them. The SS women will today mobilize their volunteers to submit false testimonies about the suspect's website to the LAPD detective in order to confirm for him that the ingenious women have always been correct about their suspect – this misogynist and racist impersonating and plagiarizing schizophrenic terrorist stalker who hates white women out of sexual frustration and who continues to stalk his women victims in preparation to hurt them. In addition, the SS women will do four more things. First, some time between 5 PM last night and 5 PM today, SDW decides to post a new post on her blog: “Narc Community Based Stalking” (shieldoftheson); it's her first post since 19 April. Now that the LAPD detective has opened a new stalking case against the suspect, she wants to enable him to intercept the suspect “cyberstalking” her.

Then, Dr P, amazingly, would also update her website today (PSYCHLA.com). It's not clear what changes she has made, but this must have something to do with the same purpose.

Thirdly, Dr P has also obtained Partisans' testimonies that the suspect has also been bad-mouthing about her and her companions on their online forum. Again, the Russians have instructed the Partisans to go along with anything the SS women are planning in order to hide from them the fact that “they have been busted” and enable them to “finish their mission”. Dr P will advance the additional argument that the suspect's continual preoccupation with the SS women is indication that he is a danger to them.

Fourthly, Dr P will also recruit Oliver as well as Shizuka to the latest complaint – still unaware that Oliver as well as Shizuka is a law enforcement informant here to sabotage her case.

Now, the operation for the rest of the day. 7:17 AM, a volunteer in Cairo, Egypt, looks up “Prelude-17D”.

7:52 AM, the SS women order Site Explorer to compile an index of the main link structure of the suspect's website (only the major index pages). This will be submitted to the LAPD detective: “This is the link structure of the website you need to ban...”

9:18 AM, a volunteer from Surabaya, Indonesia, looks up Shizuka's portrait.

On 12:54 PM and 12:57 PM, the SS women order another round of indexing of the suspect's website (all the index pages, “Suffering Woman”, and TranslatorCV.htm). This index shall verify that the “David Chin” document is a genuine confession from the suspect.

1:36 PM, a volunteer from Pinellas Park, Florida, looks up Oliver's painting of Goddess Athena. A complaint on behalf of Oliver.

3:13 PM, the suspect has posted the following on the PP forum:

Here is an update on this group of women's current pursuit of Theoph and his website.

It appears that the group of women have given up on persuading the Secret Service that their testimonies about Theoph are correct. They no longer debate with the Secret Service about Theoph. They have decided to turn elsewhere.

On 23 and 24 May, they reported Theoph's website to a department inside Department of Homeland Security's headquarter in Washington DC. They asked the Department of Homeland Security to consider banning Theoph's website given its demonic content. But Department of Homeland Security did not take action.

On 28 May, the group of women have decided to turn to another law enforcement agency. Among the group of women, the most important player this time is Dr P, who is a licensed psychologist. She's going to provide expert testimony to law enforcement officers about Theoph on behalf of the rest of the women: "I'm a licensed psychologist. Based on my expert knowledge, this Theoph is very dangerous to us. These are the materials found on his website and reported to us by concerned netizens. He suffers paranoid schizophrenia believing in his delusion that we are going after him. And yet he denies that believing people are going after him constitutes paranoid delusion. He's in denial that he's insane, and that's why he's dangerous. He's dangerous also because his morbid psychology, his frustration with women, has caused him to harbor tremendous hatred toward women and profess misogynist ideology on his website. He also writes on his website misogynist essays to specifically identify us and insult us." Again, the group of women are going to request law enforcement officers to ban Theoph's website. The members of an online forum for a political party in France will also join the group of women's complaints saying Theoph has also been making insane utterances on their forum. The group of women will of course also present this very thread as evidence against Theoph (that Theoph has been making insane and slandering utterances about them on Prison Planet forum since years ago). In this current round of reporting Theoph and his website to law enforcement authority, the group of women are helped by a Taiwanese guy living in southern California, who will play the role of having discovered insane and misogynist writings on Theoph's website.

4:08 PM, the SS women's volunteer has discovered the suspect's the latest message on the PP forum (dyn.suddenlink.net, Truckee, California):

47.208.181.237 - - [29/May/2017:17:08:06 -0600] "GET /2012/61812-39.png HTTP/1.1" 200 225868 "http://forum.prisonplanet.com/index.php?topic=260320.0;topicseen"

"Mozilla/5.0 (X11; Linux x86_64; rv:52.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/52.0"

This of course can only anger Dr P: as soon as she has gone to the police, the suspect has already divulged her argument on the Internet for everyone to see. 5:08 PM, the suspect posts on his Facebook the video of Putin's meeting with Macron.

5:23 PM, merely 15 minutes later, the SS women's volunteer is already checking the suspect's latest Facebook message. 7:09 PM, the SS women seem to be checking the suspect's Facebook again. They are still thinking about enlisting Macron in their latest complaint. 9:11 PM, the SS women send a second volunteer to check on the problem on the PP forum (from the Indian Group: Quantil, Pasadena):

168.235.194.179 - - [29/May/2017:22:11:44 -0600] "GET /2012/61812-39.png HTTP/1.1" 200 225868 "http://forum.prisonplanet.com/index.php?topic=260320.msg1626549#msg1626549" "Mozilla/5.0 (Linux; U; Android 6.0.1; en-US; SM-T560NU Build/MMB29M) AppleWebKit/534.30 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/4.0 UCBrowser/11.3.2.960 U3/0.8.0 Mobile Safari/534.30"

10:46 PM, another volunteer from Berkeley, California, looks up Oliver's painting of Goddess Athena. 12:19 AM, a third volunteer of the day checks up on the suspect's Facebook. This time, the Russians will not try to discourage the SS women from contacting the French diplomatic service to warn Macron.

By 1:15 AM, when the suspect is already home and reflecting on the SS women's latest operation, he realizes that he has forgotten the sort of help which the women will demand from the Partisans. He thus adds another short note on the PP post:

Specifically, the members of the political party in France will confirm for the law enforcement officers this group of women are turning to that Theoph has also been bad-mouthing about these poor women on their online forum. Dr P's argument is that Theoph's continual preoccupation with the group of women (including Dr P herself) is indication that he is a danger to them.

1:43 AM, merely 28 minutes later, the SS women's volunteer has already discovered the suspect's new notice (hsd1.mi.comcast.net, Grand Rapids, Michigan):

24.127.34.229 - - [30/May/2017:02:43:24 -0600] "GET /2012/61812-39.png HTTP/1.1" 200 225868 "http://forum.prisonplanet.com/index.php?topic=260320.0" "Mozilla/5.0 (Linux; Android 7.1.2; Nexus 6P Build/N2G47O) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/58.0.3029.83 Mobile Safari/537.36"

3:56 AM, a volunteer from Madrid, Spain, looks up "redathena5.jpg". This is indication that Dr P, after enlisting Oliver's help, is thinking about submitting to the detective the bizarre story which her gang has concocted about the suspect's theft of Oliver's painting earlier this month – the story which has almost caused Russia to be completely convicted.

30/05 T

Today, there will be 11 visits to the PP post: 9 (MSSG) plus 2 (whole thread). This includes the Blackpool volunteer from 2 August last year (9:04 AM), the Truckee volunteer from yesterday (9:20 AM), and Homeland Security troller “egypt” (8:48 PM). Certainly, many of these 11 visits are coming from the SS women. This is indication that Dr P, in order to neutralize the threat which the suspect's exposure of her argument has posed to her new stalking claim, has concocted a new story about what the suspect has actually written on the PP forum yesterday. She then mobilizes volunteers to manufacture testimonies which will artificially confirm the new story she has concocted. Then, for the whole day, the SS women continue to mobilize their volunteers to compile testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism. Finally, 2:43 AM, a very special visitor: social.res.rr.com, Torrance, California,

This is indication that Dr P has decided to add to her argument about the suspect's misogyny against white women Angelica's old story that the suspect so hates white women that he even compares them to chimpanzees.

Kiersten would retweet 10 times today, her first time tweeting since 21 May. Mostly about Trump (Paris deal). Two about Open Culture. This is indication that she is quite excited today. She is sure that Dr P's new stalking case will work out and force LAPD to validate her status as victim of the suspect's “stalking” and “terrorism”.

The SS women will spend the whole day continuing to mobilize their volunteers to send in testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism. A noteworthy volunteer from among them comes on 8:27 PM: mail.oneclickunsub.com, Venice, California, Another false complaint about the suspect's plagiarism.

1:03 AM, a volunteer from Krasnodar, Russia, looks up Shizuka's portrait. This visit is very significant for it might signal a change of strategy on the Russians' part. It's been three days since the Russians have submitted the latest piece of evidence in their favor to the ICJ (the suspect's anonymous letter on 28 May). Since they no longer have to defend the SS women's innocence, they can go along with, in fact affirm, Shizuka's secret testimonies compromising the SS women's case behind their back. This volunteer is probably here to compromise the SS women's current complaint to the LAPD detective on Shizuka's behalf. In this way, the Russians can also begin to get out of CIA's accusation that they have been working with the SS women to manufacture a false case of terrorism in order to fraudulently bring Marine Le Pen to power through the ICJ.

4:12 AM, the SS women get hold of a volunteer in Luebeck, Germany, to discuss with him how to forge evidence to frame the suspect for plagiarism using rjwien.jpg. 4:54 AM, they instruct the Luebeck volunteer to copy the image onto Microsoft Word. Evidence of the suspect's plagiarism will be forged.

June, 2017

01/06 Thu

Today, the suspect will move out of his room in Monterey Park and become homeless again. 2:15 PM, he will talk to Wes on the phone.

Conversation with Wes (01/06/2017)

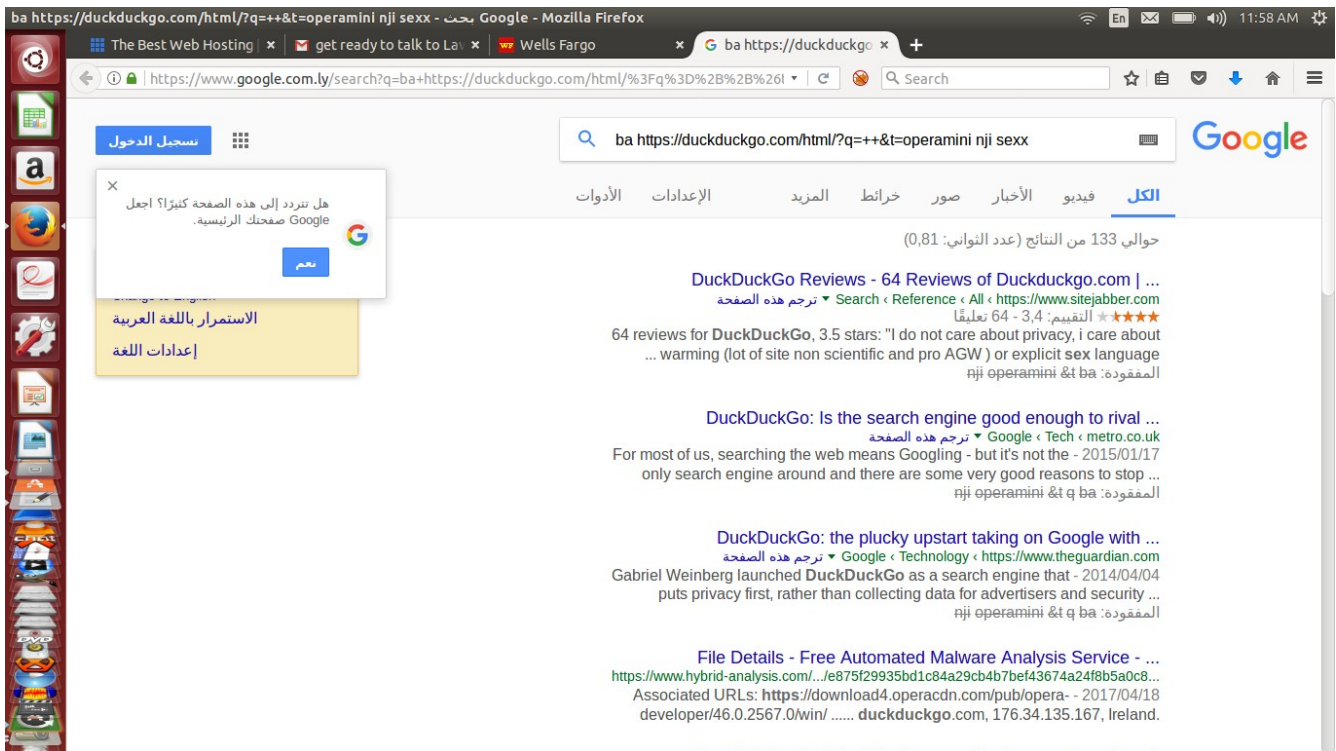

Here are the highlights of the conversation. (1) The suspect has moved out of his apartment. (2) A law office called him about a translation job. (3) What happened in November 2013. Because he had supposedly made a false report about terrorism, the SS women were sanctioned by the ICJ to make false reports. By now, both the Russians and the CIA can fully declare Homeland Security CO chief's remote control of the suspect to be part of his terrorist conspiracy against both parties. (4) The relationship of Kerry's negotiation over Syria with his ICJ case. Russia has been on the defensive ever since last September. What happened in July last year when the suspect went to New York. The SS women's qualification as terrorists conspiring with Russia. Just around this time, a Homeland Security surveillance agent walks past the suspect to confirm that the intercept of today's conversation is genuine. The Russians are gathering their evidence. The suspect's confession today will complete Russia's new evidence from 28 May: the contour of CIA's terrorist conspiracy against the Russians is becoming ever clearer each passing day. (5) The Missionary Sisters didn't know they were working for the Russians. All these people never figure out that they are working for the Russians when they follow Homeland Security's instruction. (6) The DRPH incident. The SS women knew about it beforehand from the control center. Dr P's argument to the police. The LAPD detective is also listening in on the suspect's confession right now. This confession will enable him to dismiss Dr P's latest stalking claim as fraudulent. (7) The SS women don't seem to be aware of the obstacle they are facing: they are trying to convict the US. (8) Trump's agenda: the unity of the West and the consolidation of world's oil reserves. Trump is brought into power to replace evidences, he is a distorted version of Cheney. (9) The suspect has definitively lost all interest in Trump. (10) What happened in November 2013 was a lot simpler. The basis of the yearning for equality is relative deprivation. It's not about improving one's own situation, but about comparing oneself to others. The suspect will feel better if the SS women don't know more than he does, even though his situation itself doesn't really change. (11) Reconstruction is not a good goal. He shouldn't listen to other people's advice. He has been making a fool of himself because he hasn't been aware of his status in other people's eyes.... Since reconstruction is a waste of time and yet necessary, he must find ways to make something out of it... He doesn't know what's going on currently in the ICJ... Did Russia win? He doesn't even care anymore... (12) Rousseau on inequality. (13) The suspect is in his situation because people look down on him, and people do so because he doesn't have a job. (14) He must reconstruct, just having a scenario in his head is so comforting. All that victims ever want is to know what happened, knowing is so liberating... "Just the idea that you have as much as others do, it's so comforting... Being recognized by other people in a certain way, feeling equal to others... This is what drives the world..." (15) All the speculations about BOL are bullshit, the suspect gets nothing out of his 9 years of suffering, except a story... (This is probably incorrect: the only part of his past speculations that is correct is his speculation on BOL's sustainable civilization program!) (16) Finally, the suspect asks: "Wes, you are aware that, when Homeland Security tells you to do something to Lawrence, you are doing it for Russia's benefit, right?" Wes: "yeah..." The suspect's lamentation today about people's not knowing they are working for Russia's interests is certainly evidence in Russia's favor in the ICJ. More evidence that he is trying to harm Russia!

As for the SS women, they continue to compile more testimonies today from their volunteers. 5:30 AM, a volunteer comes:

141.0.13.47 - - [01/Jun/2017:06:30:36 -0600] "GET /prelude_B_16/prelude_B_16i.pdf HTTP/1.1" 200 2132996 "http://www.google.com.ly/search?q=ba+https://duckduckgo.com/html/%3Fq%3D%2B%2B%26t%3Doperamini+nji+sexx&client=ms-opera-mini-android&channel=new&gws_rd=cr&ei=yQgwWeiJDYWeaNfYraAF" "Opera/9.80 (Android; Opera Mini/7.5.33942/63.221; U; en) Presto/2.12.423 Version/12.16"

This is testimony that pornographic content is found on the suspect's website, especially on the document on which he slanders Kiersten and violates her privacy.

6:42 AM, Dr P sends the doctor from Legacy Health Care System in Portland, Oregon, whom we have seen on 19 May.

204.130.226.100 - - [01/Jun/2017:07:42:44 -0600] "GET /2012/61812-39.png HTTP/1.1" 200 225868 "http://forum.prisonplanet.com/index.php?topic=260320.0" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.1; Trident/7.0; rv:11.0) like Gecko"

She is evidently asking this doctor to also offer his testimony that it is evident from the suspect's delusional expressions on the PP post that he is very insane and could be very dangerous to his women victims. She now has two experts corroborating her own assessment of the suspect's danger.

The SS women then spend the rest of the day continuing to mobilize their volunteers to compile testimonies about the suspect's plagiarism. It's significant that they have today enlisted the help of two students from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in their effort to collect these testimonies. A series of volunteers, including possibly a professor, from UNC Chapel Hill will join their operation from today onward. This UNC bunch are all law enforcement moles in the SS women's organization to undermine their operation. 1:11 PM, another volunteer from Thessaloniki, Greece, looks up Oliver's painting of Goddess Athena. 4:35 PM, the routine Open Link Profiler indexing. 6:40 PM, a volunteer from Bacoor, Philippines, looks up "Prelude B-16I". The second visit today. Evidently to offer testimony corroborating the pornographic nature of this document (including the suspect's sexual harassment of Kiersten here). 8:06 PM, another volunteer from Columbus, Indiana, looks up "redathena5.jpg". Evidently to offer testimony confirming the new story which the SS women have concocted about the suspect's theft of Oliver's painting. 9:01 PM, the SS women instruct the same volunteer from 5:30 AM this morning to look for another document of the suspect's reconstructions:

141.0.13.58 - - [01/Jun/2017:22:01:16 -0600] "GET /timeline_02_14-3/timeline_02_14-3f.pdf HTTP/1.1" 200 1805917 "http://www.google.com/m?q=www.google.com%2Fm%3Fq%3Dimportances%2Bof%2BEarly%2BWarning%2BSystem+in+TZ.%26client%3Dms-opera-mini-android%26channel%3Dnew&client=ms-opera-mini-android&channel=new" "Opera/9.80 (Android; Opera Mini/7.5.35721/63.221; U; en) Presto/2.12.423 Version/12.16"

The SS women want evidently to include this testimony in their current complaint only in order for it to be intercepted in the ICJ as evidence – to help Russia, unaware that Russia no longer needs their help.

A news item should be noted. A certain NSA contractor, Reality Leigh Winner, is discovered today to have passed classified document to Intercept. Perhaps it is in response to this that Putin will, the next day, hint at the existence of "patriotic hackers". The incident is very suspicious, and James Corbett will soon express suspicion that Winner is a patsy and that the NSA has intended to leak the document.

9:41 AM, a volunteer from Seoul looks up Shizuka's portrait. The LAPD detective, after secretly receiving so many testimonies from the SS women's volunteers confirming that these women are a bunch of frauds – from Shizuka, Oliver, and the newly recruited UNC Chapel Hill students – has already enough legal ground to dismiss these women's new stalking claim. The suspect's confession yesterday is further evidence that the DRPH incident is a collaboration between the “stalker” and the “victim”, and therefore invalid. The detective, working with the TMU, thus sees no more legal obligation to continue the “investigation”. He calls up Dr P and her gang to inform them that their stalking claim against the suspect has been dismissed. However, to hide the “investigation” from these dumb women, he merely resorts to the same old tactic – questioning the SS women's claim that the suspect has indeed plagiarized. Stunned, Angelica calls up one of her volunteers from Universidad Autonoma de Aguascalientes to confirm for the detective that the suspect's website is indeed full of plagiarized materials. It is 12:55 PM:

“I do see it, detective, it's all plagiarized.” 12:58 PM, Angelica and Karin direct him to the front page:

148.211.91.36 - - [02/Jun/2017:13:58:30 -0600] "GET / HTTP/1.1" 200 3294 "-" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0; WOW64; rv:53.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/53.0"

12:59 PM, he is directed to the folder /1/,

148.211.91.36 - - [02/Jun/2017:13:59:21 -0600] "GET /1 HTTP/1.1" 301 537 "-" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0; WOW64; rv:53.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/53.0"

1 PM, he comes to 1.html: has he been experimenting with “1”? It seems that he has difficulty in understanding Karin's instruction (“Type '1' after the domain name”):

148.211.91.36 - - [02/Jun/2017:14:00:19 -0600] "GET /1.html HTTP/1.1" 200 11108
"http://www.enlightenment1998.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0; WOW64; rv:53.0)
Gecko/20100101 Firefox/53.0"
148.211.91.36 - - [02/Jun/2017:14:00:19 -0600] "GET /dot_clear.gif HTTP/1.1" 404 1322
"http://www.enlightenment1998.com/1.html" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0; WOW64; rv:53.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/53.0"

1:01 PM, he comes back to the folder /1/ – he has finally understood the instruction:

148.211.91.36 - - [02/Jun/2017:14:01:20 -0600] "GET /1/ HTTP/1.1" 200 1504 "-"
"Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0; WOW64; rv:53.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/53.0"
148.211.91.36 - - [02/Jun/2017:14:01:29 -0600] "GET /dot_clear.gif HTTP/1.1" 404 1322
"http://www.enlightenment1998.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0; WOW64; rv:53.0)
Gecko/20100101 Firefox/53.0"

20 seconds later, he is instructed to click on any file in the folder – he chooses the third file:

148.211.91.36 - - [02/Jun/2017:14:01:43 -0600] "GET /1/amcivilreligion.htm HTTP/1.1"
200 27317 "http://www.enlightenment1998.com/1/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0;
WOW64; rv:53.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/53.0"
148.211.91.36 - - [02/Jun/2017:14:01:43 -0600] "GET /1/secularization.jpg HTTP/1.1" 200
87497 "http://www.enlightenment1998.com/1/amcivilreligion.htm" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows
NT 10.0; WOW64; rv:53.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/53.0"

50 seconds later, he clicks on the fourth file:

148.211.91.36 - - [02/Jun/2017:14:02:35 -0600] "GET /1/animalevolution.jpg HTTP/1.1"
200 45974 "http://www.enlightenment1998.com/1/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0; WOW64; rv:53.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/53.0"

Then, the fifth file:

148.211.91.36 - - [02/Jun/2017:14:02:37 -0600] "GET /1/anyangstructure.bmp HTTP/1.1"
200 113581 "http://www.enlightenment1998.com/1/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0;

The volunteer is probably instructed by Karin to take screenshots of the contents of the folder and send them immediately to Angelica. Angelica will send them to the detective to prove that the suspect has indeed plagiarized. This is a trick: when one sees images copied from books populating a website's folder, it does indeed look like the SS women's claim is true (“He uses his website to violate intellectual property laws”). 1:03 PM, the volunteer comes back to the search results and clicks on another result:

148.211.91.36 - - [02/Jun/2017:14:03:29 -0600] "GET /thermh1.html HTTP/1.1" 200
23988 "https://www.google.com.mx/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0; WOW64; rv:53.0)
Gecko/20100101 Firefox/53.0"

Within 25 seconds, he clicks on the frame version:

148.211.91.36 - - [02/Jun/2017:14:03:54 -0600] "GET /thermex2.html HTTP/1.1" 200 530
"http://www.enlightenment1998.com/thermh1.html" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0; WOW64; rv:53.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/53.0"
148.211.91.36 - - [02/Jun/2017:14:03:54 -0600] "GET /thermfr2.html HTTP/1.1" 200 885
"http://www.enlightenment1998.com/thermex2.html" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0; WOW64; rv:53.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/53.0"
148.211.91.36 - - [02/Jun/2017:14:03:54 -0600] "GET /athd2.jpg HTTP/1.1" 200 12082
"http://www.enlightenment1998.com/thermfr2.html" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0; WOW64; rv:53.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/53.0"

He is asked to report to the detective what he sees. “It’s all plagiarized...” 1:11 PM, job done, he comes back to the folder /1/,

148.211.91.36 - - [02/Jun/2017:14:11:12 -0600] "GET /1/ HTTP/1.1" 200 1504 "-"
"Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0; WOW64; rv:53.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/53.0"

He has so far spent 16 minutes on the suspect's website. The detective, however, dismisses the SS women's claim in a cavalier manner and hangs up the phone. It's not just that he has been warned beforehand what kind of tricks the SS women are fond of pulling to frame the suspect for plagiarism, but that the issue of plagiarism is only a pretext in any case. Dr P, along with the rest of the SS women, is absolutely shocked. They have no idea how many law enforcement informants have joined their operation to inform on their tricks behind their back. They have no idea that the detective was listening in on the suspect's confession yesterday. They have no idea how much disgust they have aroused in all law enforcement officers when they have chips inside their stalker's brain to be able to remotely control him to stalk them. They have no idea how disgusting their constant feigning of psychic ability and expertise in criminal psychology is to all the detectives they have interacted with. There will be no visits to the suspect's website for the rest of the day until almost 11 PM. This is certainly because, after their mysterious failure, the SS women are meeting somewhere to conference, with also Karin joining them. They are not simply indignant for themselves – “This sexist police! Refusing to validating women victims! As if women have no importance in this society!” – but also agonizing over Russia's inability to convict the United States in the ICJ. They have no idea that Russia no longer needs them to succeed in order to convict the United States – the Russians are simply waiting on the suspect to perform magic on his computer. 9:39 PM, the suspect posts the VIPS letters on his Facebook and, by 11:55 PM, the SS women, desperate for something to complain about, have already discovered the new posting. Carolyn's Mongolian friend is evidently also present at the meeting, for, 12:39 AM, she directs her friend in Ulan Bator, Mongolia, to look up the suspect's soft.pdf – to brainstorm how to complain about it. The SS women will be discussing their impasse until late in night.

It should be noted that, late at night today, when the suspect is in Elysee, he would discover a Chinese guy reading one of Trump's books. Did the Russians command Homeland Security CO chief to stage this scene in order to produce evidence for the ICJ?

Although the Russians have already all the evidences to get out of their trouble and convict the CIA and General Petraeus' clique, they still need to wait. The suspect is in the middle of writing his “Prelude Grand”. He will finish it in two weeks. After that, the Russians will have to wait for another round of reconstruction from him – what happened in June and July last year. For it's not enough that the suspect realizes what is going on; the SS women must also realize it. And yet these women are so dumb that they can only realize it by reading the suspect's reconstruction. And yet the Russians will need an ICJ order to authorize directing these dumb women to read “Prelude Grand” – the second reconstruction is supposed to perform this trick. Meanwhile, the CIA and General Petraeus are not so much worried about their upcoming conviction as about something else. They know that their conviction will be overturned soon when the suspect realizes that he has caused them to be convicted! What is more important for them is that the Russians seem to have figured out why they couldn't seem to win even given the filter on the computer inside the control center.
