The Third International Court of Justice trial over the suspect

XI

18 November – 31 December, 2016

The Secret Society women consist of (as of November, 2016): Karin (the German Lady, K), Angelica (Angelina, G), Kiersten (J), SDW (Maura), and Dr P (Pettersen). As always, intimately associated with them is Russia's First Daughter Ekaterina (Putina). For brevity's sake, the "Secret Society women" shall continue to be referred to simply as the "SS women" in the following narrative.

RESUME

The following reconstructs the Secret Society women's operations against the suspect and his website and the associated International Court of Justice trial from 18 November to 31 December, 2016. This is a rewrite of the original "The third ICJ trial over the suspect, XI", originally composed in July to September, 2017. The original version, with the file name "prelude_gr_B_3m.pdf" (last dated 01.12.2017), can still be found in the same folder.

Now a brief summary of the course of events during this period. In the previous chapter we have seen: (1) how the Invisible Hand had persuaded the rest of the national security Establishment to go along with the project of reactivating the previous ICJ trial when this project could help everyone nullify the conviction of Homeland Security CO chief and NULND; (2) how the Trump team, by asserting the Homeland Security warning about the suspect to be correct and claiming Trump to be his victim, had enabled not only the Secret Society women to re-register the suspect in terrorist databases and reclaim their victim status but also the Russian intelligence to preserve the conviction of Homeland Security CO chief and NULND while locking up the previous ICJ trial; and (3) how, as soon as the Baltimore Lawyer had reopened the case against the suspect with the Secret Service on 14 November, the Secret Society women quickly resumed filing false reports about the suspect's website to the Secret Service in conformity with the false profile they have composed of him. In this chapter we shall see how, even with the Trump team becoming a party to the ICJ trial on the Russian side, the CIA will nevertheless beat them and prove the Homeland Security warning to be false and the Secret Society women to be a bunch of pathological liars – how the Secret Society women will again fail their case with the Secret Service.

Between 18 and 20 November, the Secret Society women continue to mobilize their volunteers to make false reports about the suspect to the Secret Service in conformity with the false profile they have composed of him, mostly complaining about seeing plagiarism and bizarre delusions about his victims (from the Secret Society women themselves through Marine and Frauke to Donald Trump) on his website. Then, as evidences begin to accumulate (with the Secret Service and in the ICJ) that the suspect has never plagiarized, the Secret Society women are prompted to respond. On 21 November, they instruct the Berlin Plagiarizer to forge evidences and create plagiarized versions of the suspect's chapters again. On 22 November, the Berlin Plagiarizer and several other volunteers continue to perfect the fake (plagiarized) version. By 3:30 PM, they have submitted their forgeries to the Secret Service as evidences. On 23 November, the Secret Service has already received reports from confidential informants about the Berlin Plagiarizer's fraud, and the Russian side is thus in troubles in the ICJ. The Russians command Homeland Security to use faulty surveillance to intercept the suspect bad-mouthing about Trump in order to obtain temporary evidence that Homeland Security and the SS women are right about him, but the CIA's evidence stands in the ICJ that the Berlin Plagiarizer's evidences are forgeries. On 24 November, the Russian obtained a single piece of evidence, the suspect's portrait of Marine, to temporarily save themselves in the ICJ. Then, on 25 November, under Russian instruction, the Secret Society women recruit a sociologist located in Bogota, Colombia (the "Bogota sociologist"). They instruct the Bogota sociologist to cite the suspect's chapter on Foucault (which has been the focus of the Berlin Plagiarizer's forgery) on his blog, so that Homeland Security's faulty surveillance might intercept it into the ICJ as evidence confirming the women's forged evidences as genuine. Concurrently, the Russian side has also to defend themselves against the CIA's evidence that the fake lawrencechin2011.com has nothing to do with the suspect. However, the Secret Society women never succeed in overcoming the Secret Service's debunking of the Berlin Plagiarizer's forgeries. For the rest of November, the women will try everyday to come up with new evidences and new testimonies to convince the Secret Service, and to establish in the ICJ, that the Berlin Plagiarizer's forgeries are genuine. However, without success. Things are now going badly for them and the Russian side. The CIA is proving in the ICJ that the Secret Society women have forged evidences (the Berlin Plagiarizer's forgeries) and that their testimonies about the suspect and his website are bogus – especially, again, their claim that he is a habitual plagiarizer. On 30 November, desperate, the Secret Society women even call up their old friend at the Lincoln Center for Performing Arts – the old-timer who was involved in their enterprise since November 2013. He would be brainstorming for the Secret Society women throughout December as well (on 1, 2, 3, 6, 9, and 16 December). The Fort Lauderdale volunteer also brainstorms about the suspect's portraits on 30 November and 1 December. In the early days of December, the Secret Society women continue to ask their volunteers for solutions. By 3 December, the Secret Service has dismissed the SS women's case again (not in the least because they didn't find the suspect to be plagiarizing), the Russian side has pretty much lost their case in the ICJ (the previous ICJ trial is almost reopened and the conviction of Homeland Security CO chief and NULND almost nullified), and the Secret Society women are increasingly desperate. On 4 December, Gabi (?), the Long Keng volunteer, and the Israelite Hacker have all showed up to help. The Secret Society women's most important task right now is to produce some evidences suggesting that there might be some truth in their bullshit about the suspect after all, especially about his plagiarism – so as to prevent the Russian side from being convicted completely, both in the current and in the previous ICJ trial. (Or, since they aren't aware that the CIA is countersuing the Russian side, it is in their mind to revive the (current) ICJ trial for Russia's sake so that there might be an ICJ judgment declaring them to be "victims".) On 6 December, to produce the evidences needed to save the Russian side (to convince the Secret Service that they are right about the suspect), they summoned an "expert" living in Vancouver to testify that the suspect's writings on feminism are indeed misogynist, plagiarized, and even delusional. The focus on the suspect's misogynist rambling continues on 7 December. On 9 December, the Secret Society women find a volunteer from Point Loma Nazarene University (San Diego) to forge more evidence to prove that the Berlin Plagiarizer's forgery is genuine. On 10 December, continuing to find ways to "revive the ICJ trial" (actually, to stay off the Russian side's conviction), the women seem to have summoned the help of Dr G, and then refocus their attention on the suspect's supposed insanity (two visits to "The Cheney Plan"). Also, on 9 and 10 December, Kiersten is showing her local volunteers the suspect's new Facebook posting about her advertisement on Liar Spy. On 11 December, one volunteer links the PP post from a secret Facebook group, and there is one more examination of "The Cheney Plan". By 15 December, the Russian side is truly in jeopardy, and, desperate, the Secret Society women complain to Microsoft again hoping that Microsoft's removal of the suspect's chapter from Bing's search results might save the Russians' case in the ICJ. But, again, no success. On 18 December, they forge evidences again of the suspect's plagiarism (zhuanzi.html). On 19 and 20 December, while working on proving that the suspect is a plagiarizer, the Secret Society women are also making a case about his reconstruction of their business with the TMU back in 2014. (Perhaps to report on his "terrorist remarks" in his diary notes and graffiti from 2014 and 2015.) On 21 December, the Secret Service expresses desire to never hear from the Secret Society women about the suspect again, so that the Russians are in serious troubles in the ICJ and the SS women are again bemoaning their loss of their status as "victims". But the suspect then has a phone conversation with Wes in which he speculates again on the outcomes of the previous ICJ trial. It's not clear whether this has become favorable evidence to temporarily save the Russian side in the ICJ. By 22 December, the Secret Society women have come up with a new plan to help the Russian side in the ICJ. Actually, the same old plan. Dr P has set up an appointment with a detective for the next morning. (It's not clear whether this is the same detective from Hawthorne Police Department.) The women spend the rest of the day gathering together their volunteers to compile testimonies (especially about the suspect's violation of intellectual property laws) to present to the detective tomorrow to persuade her to validate the Homeland Security warning about the suspect and ban his website. It appears that, for this purpose, they even ask a volunteer from Breinigsville, UK, to create a fake version of the suspect's web gallery. They have also obtained the suspect's cousin Cindy's cooperation (not knowing that Cindy is actually working as an informant for law enforcement and the CIA). On the morning of 23 December, the Secret Society women meet with the detective. They get Cindy to call in to testify how violently dangerous the suspect is and how he has threatened his number one victim, Kiersten, on his website. Nevertheless, just like on 28 October, the detective debunks, and then dismisses, the Secret Society women's claims saying the Homeland Security warning they have so treasured is but junk— she has strict orders from above to ridicule the Secret Society women in order to prevent any favorable evidences from entering into the ICJ to save the Russian side. Frustrated and unaware of the political situation which has doomed them to the status of non-entities with law enforcement agencies, the Secret Society women return home to call upon their volunteers to refine their testimonies against the suspect's website. The next day, 24 December, the Secret Society women go to meet with the detective again trying to persuade her, with more evidences and revised testimonies, to reconsider their case. But of course the detective dismisses them again. The Secret Society women aren't aware that they are just wasting their time. Never giving up, they continue to work on Christmas Day – calling upon their volunteers to brainstorm for solutions. On 26 December, the women are contemplating again on creating a Portuguese version of the suspect's writings. On the morning of 27 December, Angelica might have herself visited the suspect's website. Then, on the afternoon of 27 December, they go to meet with the detective for the third time. They are rejected again. The Secret Society women will spend the rest of the month (28, 29, 30, and 31 December) brainstorming with their volunteers as to how to revise their evidences and testimonies in order to convince the detective that the Homeland Security warning, and their testimonies, about the suspect are indeed correct and the suspect's website should therefore definitely be banned.

During this period, the Secret Society women are mobilizing on average 30 to 40 volunteers each day to visit the suspect's website. There have not been this many visits per day ever since the suspect has moved his website to enlightenment1998.com. It's a massive effort, among tens of thousands of volunteers from around the world, to help Russia convict the United States or to save Russia from being convicted. Certainly, the Secret Society women have been able to recruit this many people not only by virtue of their persuasive power (in combination with Homeland Security's false warning about the suspect as an insane misogynist terrorist) but also because Homeland Security CO chief is helping them. All the volunteers believe they are working for Homeland Security CO chief or helping a group of American women, victims of sexism and misogyny, to take down a very dangerous, bad-to-the-bone schizophrenic misogynist terrorist stalker. Nobody has any idea that they are working for Russia's geopolitical interest.

Throughout this period, the Secret Society women continue to acquire the suspect's former characteristics. Just like the suspect in the beginning (before he became disillusioned), these women are increasingly falling in love with Donald Trump. This is especially the case with SDW. She not only loves Trump because he is validating her complaints against the suspect, but also because Trump is wildly popular among the targeted individuals community for reasons unrelated to the suspect. By the middle of December, SDW is engrossed in the “Pizzagate” story¹ and has become a firm believer in the bizarre fantasy that is gaining currency within the targeted individuals community, that Hilary Clinton and her Establishment cronies (which would include the CIA as well) are a bunch of sick pedophiles and are trafficking children for sex, while Trump and his team members are righteous vigilantes here to break up Democrats' sex-trafficking rings. (This story has been most successfully promoted by an ex-journalist living in Los Angeles, a certain “Liz C”, who is winning popularity among targeted individuals and whom SDW adores.) As SDW identifies herself with these other victims of the Establishment Elites, she becomes increasingly obsessed with Trump. Trump's fight for her case is just part of his greater fight to overturn the sick Establishment! On the other hand, Trump-loving is a rather surprising trait in the case of Dr P and Kiersten. Dr P has feminist leanings, but, since Trump is helping her neutralize her enemy, a misogynist terrorist, she is not particularly bothered by his supposed sexism and male chauvinism in other domains. Meanwhile, Kiersten, while increasing in love with Trump as her savior, continues to maintain an anti-Trump persona (a liberal, enlightened Goddess fighting for the rights of women and minorities and angry with Trump for this reason) on her social media pages in order to garner favor from other liberal and progressivist elements. As for Karin, since she has never been much affected by feminist ideologies and is only proceeding instrumentally, it's hard to imagine that she will develop a personal liking of Trump beyond seeing him as a strategic ally.

As for the suspect, he is becoming increasingly engrossed in his philosophical studies as well as continuing to perfect his German. He continues to devote at least one hour a day to reading theoretical books and another hour to writing what would become “The Causal Connection between McDonaldization, Rationalization, and Increasing Stupidity of Human Beings”. It is of course part of the Invisible Hand's program that he should write this (without awareness that it is so) – the purpose you shall soon understand. In November, he is reading Nicholas Carr's The Shallow for this essay. By the middle of December, he has begun reading Axel Honneth's classic Kampf um Anerkennung. He is in the exact Socratic situation in regard to the Secret Society women – his relationship to the Secret Society women is exactly like a philosopher's relationship to society (the dumb masses) in the Straussian view. The women do not understand what he is doing and why he does what he does – why he puts all this stuff up on his website and why he philosophizes – nor do they care to understand. Like the way Socrates is portrayed in Aristophanes' Clouds, the suspect with his interests – to understand this world and the people around him, plus this “previous International Court of Justice trial” – must have appeared utterly petty and uninteresting to the Secret Society women just as these women's primary concern – to gain power and make their name among people by becoming recognized as the victims of a misogynist monster and experts of his psychopathology – is utterly sick, shallow, and pathetic to the suspect. Rather than having any interest in understanding the suspect, the Secret Society women have this horror scenario in their mind, in which the suspect is supposed to play the role of that misogynist monster while they play the role of criminal psychologists and community vigilantes. They have little care whether their scenario corresponds to any reality outside their head; they simply have to make people believe that it does in order to magnify themselves in the eyes of others – and the suspect is supposed to be sacrificed for this insofar as none of his talents, concerns, and curiosities mean anything to these uneducated women. In other words, while the suspect is philosophizing, his women adversaries live in a world in which he is just a criminal. The suspect is in their mind just like the “Jew” in Nazis’ imagination – a signifier in the chain of signifiers (in the words of Zizek) which functions independently of any empirical reality but which motivates all their actions because this single signifier determines how they experience any pleasures (jouissances) at all in this world. Then, the suspect continues to devote one to two hours a day to reconstructing the course of the current International Court of Justice trial. He has finished “Prelude E-4E” on 2 November. Throughout this period, he would be working on “Prelude F-5C” – to be finished in the middle of January, 2017. This is important, for, even though he is unable to reconstruct the course of events totally correctly because he is barred from understanding the ultimate reason why all these people and intelligence agencies are debating about him – the CIA’s desire to reactivate the previous ICJ trial – he will be able to reconstruct correctly enough of the present details that the Russians will soon use his reconstructions to save themselves in the current ICJ trial.

As for the Trump team, everyone here is probably surprised by how quickly the Russian side is falling into defeat in this ICJ trial. Trump’s supposed power to enforce “victim confidentiality” for the Secret Society women has surprisingly produced no effect. The Trump team has simply grossly underestimated the CIA and the suspect. By early December, that is, within merely three weeks, the CIA has already pretty much proven in the ICJ that the Secret Society women are a bunch of ridiculous false complainers. While busy with picking their cabinet members, the Trump team must have begun worrying about being convicted of conspiring with a bunch of “terrorists”. The Washington Post would report in late May, 2017, that, on 1 December, 2016, Kushner has met with the Russian ambassador Kislyak in Trump Tower in order to request using the Russian embassy’s communication apparatus to communicate with Kremlin as a way to avoid US intelligence agencies’ monitoring of the Trump team’s communications. In the 11-page statement which Kushner has released on 24 July, 2017, he claims that this was because the Trump team wanted to be able to discuss the Syrian situation with Russian generals. The real motivation might very well have something to do with this third International Court of Justice trial over the suspect – insofar as the CIA is countersuing Russia precisely because the Pentagon (and General Petraeus) wishes to avoid giving in to Russian wishes on the Syrian front. As, by the end of November, he realizes that the Russian side is not going to win this ICJ trial, and begins worrying about the national security Establishment’s displeasure toward him on account of his joining the Russian side in this ICJ trial, he naturally recognizes the necessity to hide from US intelligence community’s surveillance on him. They have recorded all his, and his team members’, conversations with the Russians and, while they say nothing right now, once the Russian side loses this ICJ trial, they will spill out his shit. This is thus very likely one of Kushner’s reasons for meeting with the Russian ambassador.

The other might be that, since the Russian side is unlikely to win this ICJ trial, Trump is thinking of reviving Kerry's negotiation with Moscow over Syria in order to find a way to settle the dispute between the Pentagon crew and the Russians – the chief reason why the CIA is prompted to countersue Russia. This is of course utterly naïve – he has no idea how complex a personality the suspect is, how different he is from the Secret Society women's imagination: how easy it is, that is, for the CIA to prove that these women are ridiculous false complainers. The Pentagon will not give up when they know that the CIA will surely win (when they are, that is, no longer opposed to the reactivation of the previous ICJ trial). Then, in the 11-page statement, Kushner also reveals that, in mid-December, he has met with the Russian banker Gorkov who is supposed to provide insights into Putin. The meeting is first requested by the Russian Embassy on 6 December, and subsequently set up on 12 December in a meeting between Kushner's assistant and Kislyak. By this time, the Russian side is in serious jeopardy in the ICJ; it's not clear, however, whether the discussion in this meeting has touched upon the current ICJ trial (the current debate about the suspect).

After 9 PM, the SS women seem to be having a long discussion with their volunteers (especially the Sankt Augustin volunteer). Hence fewer visits. Again, many false reports about the suspect's plagiarism. 22 visits in total. Curiously, no more visits to the PP post today. (One visit to the PP-184178 post.)

20 November (Sunday: SDW on her blog)

A bad day for the suspect today. Raining. In the afternoon, he would repeatedly fail to connect up with Wes while in Sabor.

The third ICJ trial over the suspect, XI
Lawrence C. Chin
Jul. – Sept., 2017; rev. Nov. – Dec. 2021

Definitely a false report about the suspect's plagiarism. As you shall see, the SS women will soon make a big case about the chapter on Foucault from which this images comes.

21 November (Monday: the Berlin Plagiarizer: 39; SDW on Facebook)

The suspect would continue to be angry over his argument with Wes throughout the whole day.

7 days after the SS women have reopened their case against the suspect with the Secret Service, they receive a hint from somewhere – is it from the Russian side or a false hint from the CIA? – that they need to produce some definitive evidence to prove that the suspect is indeed a plagiarizer. This morning, they've got hold of their old friend the Berlin Plagiarizer. 8:46 AM, they send him here to create plagiarized versions of the suspect's magnum opus: pools.vodafone-ip.de, Berlin.

What is going on? It would seem that, from 8:54 to 10:13 AM, or during 79 minutes, the Berlin Plagiarizer is working hard on creating a plagiarized version of both chapters.

10:30 AM, the Berlin plagiarizer is copying another chapter onto his Apache Open Office. Probably thereasonofstate.htm.

The Berlin Plagiarizer has been working on the plagiarized version of this chapter since 8:54 AM.
Either he, or another volunteer, or one of the SS women, is now comparing the fake version just created with the original version in Bing's cache.

In sum, the Berlin Plagiarizer has begun working since 8:46 AM – he has been working for more than three and a half hours! He has created plagiarized versions for layereduniverse.html, thermhch2.html, thereasonofstate.htm, and originofnationstate.htm. He then downloads every essay on the front page (all the PDF documents). It would appear that he is asked by the SS women to create another fake version of the suspect's website to prove to the Secret Service that the suspect has indeed plagiarized his Thermodynamic Interpretation of History. Namely, he will use all the essays on the front page to create a fake 1998.com front page, but then link to it the plagiarized versions he has created for the four Thermodynamic Interpretation of History chapters.

It appears that the Berlin Plagiarizer and the Mont-Saint-Hilaire volunteer are working together to perfect the fake (plagiarized) version of Thermodynamic Interpretation History they have created since yesterday. The Berlin Plagiarizer is adding in “HT-Contribution” (on the side panel) which he has forgotten yesterday.

It seems that he is considering how this chapter shows up on search results. Again, he must be working together with the Berlin Plagiarizer to improve the quality of the fake website they have created.

The third ICJ trial over the suspect, XI
Lawrence C. Chin
Jul. – Sept., 2017; rev. Nov. – Dec. 2021

It seems that there are few substantive activities after 3:30 PM because the SS women have finally submitted the fake version of the suspect’s website to the Secret Service as evidence and are waiting for a response. Three volunteers appear to have participated in this forgery: the Berlin Plagiarizer, the Mont Saint-Hilaire volunteer, and the Fairfax volunteer.

Unlike yesterday, there are two visits to the PP post today and one visit to the PP-184178 post.

Recall that the last time that this happened was 16 November. The SS women are still eager to obtain evidences proving that the “David Chin document” is a genuine confession from the suspect.²

Meanwhile, today has been a busy day for the suspect. He meets with Yvonne in the SM library from 2:30 to 4 PM. Around 5:30 PM, when he is on the bus coming back to Westwood, a Homeless man sitting next to him is talking on the phone about Trump and Russia. Did the Russians command Homeland Security CO chief to stage this operation in order to produce more evidences in the ICJ for the suspect’s obsession with, and intention to harm, Trump and Russia? Very likely! But that would mean that the Secret Service has already received reports from confidential informants about what the Berlin Plagiarizer and so on have done, which reports the CIA would then promptly intercept into the ICJ as evidence. (Is it because the Secret Service has expressed skepticism to the SS women that the SS women therefore send in the Fairfax volunteer to confirm the authenticity of the Berlin Plagiarizer’s evidence?) In any case, after the suspect has returned to Elysee, Derrick comes after 9 PM to pick him up. He will pass the night with Derrick in a motel tonight. Tomorrow they will go together to the Thanksgiving luncheon.

In sum, two visits to the PP post, and one visit to the PP-184178 post.

24 November (Thursday; Thanksgiving; 17)

The suspect will go with Derrick to Nancy's home to spend the Thanksgiving day there. The suspect is surprised that both Derrick and Nancy support Trump. Melinda is also there. Derrick would then drop off the suspect in Westwood around 6 PM or so.

4:18 AM, the log is archived.

Although it is Thanksgiving, the SS women will continue to work on the suspect's website. It must be Angelica who is putting up most of the effort. (Or Ekaterina in South Korea, where there is no Thanksgiving.) 6:19 AM, lightspeed.sntcca.sbcglobal.net, Walnut Creek, California.

The suspect will stay in Elysee the whole day today, suffering his existential anxiety.

Kiersten would tweet three times today, including a retweet of somebody else's critical tweet about Richard Spencer's ex-wife, Nina Koupranova. Again, Kiersten the supreme hypocrite: while she does everything to help the Russians and the Trump team and relies on them for the fulfillment of her life-long dream of becoming a victim of male sexual aggression, she is posing as a liberal hater of Trump and Russia in order to gain favor from her liberal audience.

The third ICJ trial over the suspect, XI
Jul. – Sept., 2017; rev. Nov. – Dec. 2021

This is of course the strangest visit ever. How does this first document about the third International Court of Justice trial have anything to do with business management? Apparently, the CIA has already introduced evidences into the ICJ proving that the currently existing lawrencechin2011.com has nothing to do with the suspect. The Russians therefore need to create counter-evidence. They order Homeland Security CO chief to instruct the SS women to ask their volunteer to do this search. Since the fake lawrencechin2011.com is about business management tips, this search is evidence both to prove that lawrencechin2011.com is indeed the suspect's website and to discredit the most important piece of evidence which the CIA has used to obtain the 3 August judgment.

11:25 AM, or almost 13 minutes later, the Jordanian volunteer searches for the chapter itself:

This is the seventh visit since 1 November but only the second visit since the case was reopened with the Secret Service on 14 November. (This doesn't include the Berlin Plagiarizer's recreation of this chapter.) The CIA must have already introduced evidence into the ICJ proving that the version which the Berlin Plagiarizer has created of the suspect's website looks nothing like his real website, and this Jordanian volunteer might have simply been instructed to produce counter-evidence proving that it does.

The 3:41 PM Bogota sociologist has apparently quoted the suspect in a footnote to his blog post and then linked to the suspect's chapter from there:

This is evidently a continuation of the effort by the Jordanian volunteer from 11 AM. Because, within two days, the CIA has already introduced evidences into the ICJ proving that the Berlin Plagiarizer's creation is forgery, the Russians have instructed (via Homeland Security) the SS women to find ways to produce counter-evidences. Homeland Security CO chief and the SS women therefore find this Bogota sociologist and ask him to cite the suspect's chapter on his blog. Homeland Security CO chief would then use faulty surveillance to intercept his blog into the ICJ as evidence, falsely suggesting that the suspect has stolen the diagram and the text from this Esfera Publica. This would then serve as a confirmation that the Berlin Plagiarizer's forgery is genuine.

He is obviously playing some sort of trick under the instruction of the SS women and Homeland Security CO chief. While what he does is harmless, Homeland Security's faulty surveillance over his activities would be used by the Russian side in the ICJ as further proof that the Berlin Plagiarizer's forgeries are genuine.

In sum, three visits to the PP post today.

27 November (Sunday)

The suspect will get very sick tonight, which would prompt him to give up homelessness and find temporary housing.

In sum, there are two visits to the PP post today and one visit to the PP-184178 post. The SS women have begun debating fiercely with the Secret Service about whether the Berlin Plagiarizer's forgeries are genuine – and do the Russians and the CIA in the ICJ.

28 November (Monday)

Today, the suspect would obtain from Tanisha the referral to a temporary housing. He would visit the room in early evening. It would be his last night sleeping on the street until next year.

4:14 AM, the log is archived.

Since the image comes from the chapter which the Berlin Plagiarizer has faked and which the Bogota sociologist has linked from his blog – in fact it is precisely this image which the Bogota sociologist has inserted on his blog – this is evidently another attempt to confirm that the Berlin Plagiarizer’s forgery is genuine.

All these are evidently testimonies to confirm that the suspect is indeed a plagiarizer. Another day where the SS women try their best to prove that the suspect plagiarizes and that the Berlin Plagiarizer's forgeries are genuine. Today they have found five students from four renowned universities (Harvard, Boston University, Boston College, and Rutgers) to confirm this. On the other hand, there is only one visit to the PP-184178 post today.

30 November (Wednesday)

Today, while the suspect is meeting with Yevonne from 2:30 PM onward, Wes calls. It was 3:45 PM. But the suspect is unable to answer the call.

Kiersten would post on her Twitter today, “The Bangles, The Pandoras” From LA Weekly. The first post since 28 November.

Karin would today post on her Meetup page the pictures from her 27 November meetup. She would, however, soon cancel the meetup scheduled for 4 December.

4:24 AM, athd2.jpg is called up on Facebook. The special section on the Secret Facebook Group is being accessed.

It is this special chapter again! And the image is precisely the one which the Bogota sociologist has cited on his blog on 25 November. Definitely to confirm the story which the SS women have made up about this chapter (plagiarism).

It would appear that the SS women feel that they have run into an impasse again with the Secret Service – unable to convince the latter that the suspect is a plagiarizer and that the Berlin Plagiarizer’s forgery is genuine – and so call up the Lincoln Center volunteer – their long-time acquaintance who has been involved with their case against the suspect ever since 3 years ago – to ask him to help brainstorm for solutions. It’s not clear whether they suddenly call up the Lincoln Center volunteer also because he is living in New York, where Trump lives.

Recall that the SS women’s volunteers looked up this document two times on 13 November, just before they sent off the Baltimore Lawyer to reopen their case with the Secret Service. Do the SS women somehow need to remind the Secret Service that the suspect is a habitual impersonator?

6:25 PM, less than 5 hours later, the Lincoln Center volunteer has returned:

It's now 9:25 PM in New York. This time he downloads "Old Testament" from the side panel of Table of Contents. It seems that he is still brainstorming how to convince the Secret Service that the suspect is a plagiarizer.

This appears to be another false report about the suspect's plagiarism.

8:11 PM, it's the volunteer from the Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts again:

204.19.162.34 - - [30/Nov/2016:21:11:46 -0700] "GET /HTcontribution1-philosophy.htm HTTP/1.1"

It seems that, by 11 PM, the Lincoln Center volunteer has come to the Lincoln Center to work. Asked by the SS women to come up with solutions, he uses the Lincoln Center's Wi-Fi to visit the suspect's website. He recalls the chapter he looked at on 1:44 PM. 8:12 PM, he comes to the Table of Contents:

204.19.162.34 - - [30/Nov/2016:21:12:05 -0700] "GET /thermex2.html HTTP/1.1" 200 530

Less than 1 minute later, 8:13 PM, he looks up "Old Testament" again,

20 seconds later, he searches for Scientific Enlightenment Table of Contents:

204.19.162.34 - - [30/Nov/2016:21:13:25 -0700] "GET /scientlitfr.html HTTP/1.1" 200 10673 "http://www.google.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Linux; Android 5.1.1; 5065N Build/LMY47V) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/54.0.2840.85 Mobile Safari/537.36"

8:54 PM, after studying the Table of Contents and discussing with the SS women for 40 minutes, the Lincoln Center volunteer returns to using his own service while looking up the first chapter from Scientific Enlightenment:

172.56.35.23 - - [30/Nov/2016:21:54:13 -0700] "GET /scientificenlightenment1/synopsis.html HTTP/1.1" 200 28033 "http://www.enlightenment1998.com/scientlitfr.html" "Mozilla/5.0 (Linux; Android 5.1.1; 5065N Build/LMY47V) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/54.0.2840.85 Mobile Safari/537.36"

Perhaps he is now on break and so has left the Lincoln Center.

10 PM, shawcable.net, Richmond, British Columbia,

The SS women have just looked up this chapter on 28 November. Still trying to confirm that the Berlin Plagiarizer's forgery is genuine?

11:38 PM, Turkcell, Bursa, Turkey,

The last times that the SS women have looked up this chapter were 20 and 18 November. It's probably related to the confirmation through whyshouldwebejust.html since it is the next chapter.

It seems that he's examining the situation for the SS women: "He draws portraits of all these famous women and put them on his website without their consent. They all want these taken down. How do you convince the Secret Service that this is harassment?"

Still brainstorming: “He writes about how to harm Marine’s family, and they want it taken down too. Can you think of any way?” It seems that the SS women are holding multiple discussions with their volunteers tonight: 8 PM, with the Lincoln Center volunteer; then, from 12:20 AM to 3 AM, with the Stockholm and the Fort Lauderdale volunteer; then finally, from 2:40 AM, they are joined by the Pasadena, Texas, volunteer.

Two visits to the PP post today.

1 December (Thursday)

Today Kushner would meet with the Russian ambassador Kislyak in the Trump Tower. Do they in any way discuss the suspect’s case? Very likely, given that Russians are not doing well in the ICJ.

He didn't look at this portrait last night. Given that China is still on Russia's side, this might be a report about how the suspect is also obsessed with the Chinese president and has harassed him by placing his portrait of him on his website.

6:52 PM, the suspect, while at MAK Cafe, is getting angry over the SS women's operation, and decides to post a short note under the PP post (under toothache):

As I understand the situation: for the past year, this group of women named in Theos' postings above have been telling various law enforcement agencies and everybody they can find that Theos has developed this schizophrenic delusion that they are going after him and, not knowing that it's his delusion, has been writing about it here and elsewhere in order to harass them.

Apparently the SS women have instructed this volunteer to look for the drawing “fkdoll” – recall the visit to the drawing on 28 August. The SS women want to report finding pornographic contents on the suspect’s website, but, instead of the other drawing, they find this one.

This is surely an unusual visit: this webpage is rarely visited. Clearly, by tonight, the SS women are looking for new ways to complain about the suspect’s website. 10 seconds later,

It’s not clear whether a false report has indeed been made or whether it is merely brainstorming. (How the suspect is indeed – just as Homeland Security has warned – frequently motivated by his delusions to file frivolous lawsuits against foreign politicians.)

It would seem that, because the Russian side is now in big trouble in the ICJ, the Russians have instructed Homeland Security CO chief to order this volunteer to post something on Pinterest in order to make it look like the suspect has posted it. Faulty surveillance will then intercept this into the ICJ as evidence that the suspect indeed violates intellectual property laws so that the CIA can be temporarily prevented from both convicting the Russians in the current case and reactivating the previous ICJ trial.

This special chapter again! The last visit was on 30 November. Another confirmation that the Berlin Plagiarizer's forgery is genuine.

Curiously, the SS women will refrain from operation for the next 7 hours. What's going on? In sum, another day of brainstorming and busy attempts to confirm that the Berlin Plagiarizer's forgery is genuine or to convince the Secret Service that the suspect indeed plagiarizes. Always the same debate! And, also, two visits to the PP post today and one visit to the PP-184178 post.

2 PM, Kiersten tweets on her Twitter, “Shyam, hoping for some quark” (her cat).

From 2 PM onward, while the suspect is near Null Space Lab, he is connected with Wes. Their first conversation since 17 November! Here are the highlights: (1) The suspect is convinced that Wes wouldn't talk to him anymore. (2) The suspect has changed his perspective on Wes. Dr N is a binary person: sometimes very caring, but sometimes extremely cruel. The suspect: a schizophrenic doesn't know he suffers from schizophrenia and so is convinced that Dr N is hiding secrets from him. Wes affirms that the suspect is not schizophrenic and, when the suspect accuses him of being a hypocrite, actually admits so. Wes however continually affirms that he doesn't do cruel things to others. (2) The suspect accuses Wes of subscribing to an unjust double standard. He has learned to expect less from Wes, for Wes is only sometimes nice. Wes denies the suspect is his "patient". (3) The "patient" used to support Trump, but not after July. Yet Wes continually makes a caricature out of him, as if he were still supporting Trump. But Wes repeats perfectly the suspect's reason for changing his support and voting for Stein. Why is he always trying to make the suspect into this Trump-supporting caricature? The suspect then explains Wes' double standard: Hillary Clinton is also divisive, and yet Wes singles out Trump and calls him "divisive". Now Wes admits that both are divisive. The suspect explains Wes' "double standard" a little further: America can support Putin's opposition in Russia but Putin is not allowed to support Clinton's opposition in America. And yet Wes explains that he doesn't like Putin not because he subscribes to any double standard but simply because he doesn't like him. To prove it: he likes Castro. He then talks about this Russian intern at his work place, who is self-serving, greedy, scamming. He doesn't like him. It's not because he subscribes to America's propaganda against Putin. The suspect admits he has misunderstood Wes' reason for not liking Putin. The suspect doesn't understand as yet that Putin is the reason why his life can't go anywhere and there are all these people going after him. (4) The last issue which the suspect wishes to address is Wes' sophism. How could he question the suspect's identification of the Baltimore Lawyer's visits without seeing the evidences? Wes asserts that his questioning does not mean he thinks the suspect is wrong. The debate about whether to question before or after seeing the evidences. The suspect can't "explain" the evidences. Wes is questioning the suspect only once out of one hundred times, and yet he gets all upset. The suspect explains that the server log will not make sense to Wes. (5) What Wes did in Thanksgiving. His trip back to California as Alexandra's surprise gift for his 50th birthday. (6) The suspect has moved into a transitional home. He still couldn't masturbate there. (7) "Your schizophrenic friend here" – Wes immediately interrupts: "Why do you call yourself 'schizophrenic'?" They then talk about the latest news. The next year will be a good year for Russia, many pro-Russian figures have been elected to power, in Bulgaria, in Moldova, and so on, and Fillon in France has adopted a pro-Russia stance; given all this, the suspect asserts, he might have misunderstood the ICJ judgment (from the previous ICJ trial, that is). Namely, maybe Fillon is put forward according to the Macrospherian plan because Marine couldn't possibly win. Maybe that's the ICJ judgment. (The suspect is completely mistaken here. The actual situation is much more complex than he can understand right now – there is no ICJ judgment as yet.) Wes mentions that the conservative movement is everywhere on the rise. The suspect: pro-Russia right wing parties are on the rise everywhere; has this anything to do with the ICJ judgment (from the previous ICJ trial)? In fact, maybe, or maybe not. Wes mentions that anti-Russian sentiment is not conspicuous in America. (But it will soon be!) The suspect: hence Trump has gotten away with his pro-Russia stance. Not! Get ready for Trump's Russia scandal next year! Then the suspect: "Has any of this to do with my ICJ trial?" Wes: "Maybe". Not! (8) About media's prediction that Clinton was going to win. The flaw in the survey. (9) Why the suspect liked Trump: they made a caricature out of Trump, and yet he won anyway. Wes mentions the famous book, What's Wrong With Kansas. Why people in the Rust Belt voted for Trump. Those on the political left nowadays are also stereotyping and demonizing their opponents on the political right. Wes doesn't have this feeling. The suspect: People like Steve Bannon are much more complex than a “white supremacist”. The suspect explains that he is really on the left, that, when he was pro-Trump, he was merely being reactionary. (10) The suspect explains that, given the victimization, he is happy to see that Russia might have a good year. Only Sarkozy knows what’s going on in France. Not! Even if Marine Le Pen couldn’t win, that doesn’t contradict his notion about the ICJ trial – and, just then, his phone beeps (58:00). Is this supposed to mean something? (As you shall see, Marine Le Pen indeed wouldn’t win, and yet none of this has much to do with his ICJ trial – both the previous and the current.) (11) The suspect brags about how he is about to become fluent in German. The suspect hangs up with Wes on 1:02:00.

It should be noted that, when the suspect addresses his grievances with Wes, he is just wasting his time. Wes was making a caricature out of the suspect for his support of Trump only because he needed to collect evidences for the Secret Service about the suspect’s real sentiments toward Trump, and now, since he couldn’t reveal that, he is merely playing sophism in order to avoid revealing the real reason. The same with Wes’ double standard toward Trump: it was all feigned. However, Wes seems to never have liked Putin; this doesn’t seem to be feigned. But the suspect never really understands why (i.e. how Putin has offended the entire CIA back in late 2010 by officially endorsing the Homeland Security warning about the suspect). Meanwhile, Wes’ sophism on 17 November was similarly just his carrying out his Homeland Security mission to produce evidences for the Russian side. He is also here only pretending to defend himself because he couldn’t reveal the real reason.

This conversation seems to be devoid of evidentiary value until the very end, when the suspect explains his excitement to see Russia entering a good year. This is evidence in favor of the CIA: it’s evidence of the suspect’s straightforward fashion – that he wants to benefit who he loves and harm who he hates – in contradistinction to the SS women’s typical portrayal of him – that he wants to harm whoever he loves. The fact that Wes is not carrying out any Homeland Security mission today is indication that the CIA has already gained an upperhand in the ICJ. Chiefly because the Berlin Plagiarizer’s forgery has been proven to be forgery but also because the SS women couldn’t prove that the suspect is a plagiarizer, the Russians’, the Trump’s team’s, and Marine’s case is going nowhere. The ICJ is about to issue another judgment that the CIA’s case is correct – that the suspect is as the TMU’s profile has described him and that the SS women are a bunch of pathological liars. This conversation is more like a nail on the coffin for the Russian side.

The last time that the SS women have targeted this chapter was 21 November when the Berlin Plagiarizer incorporated it into the fake version he was creating of the suspect's website. Then, before that, 17 November. This is thus only the second visit after the case was reopened (excluding the Berlin Plagiarizer's forgery). It would seem that, because the SS women are getting desperate – they are losing with the Secret Service and the Russians are losing the ICJ trial – they are pulling out their old story about this essay again.

The second visit today! It thus seems indeed that, desperate, the SS women have reintroduced the story they have made up about this essay during the summer.

The third ICJ trial over the suspect, XI

In sum, five visits to the PP post today!

4 December (Sunday)

Kiersten would tweet today, “Time for a new conspiracy theory. Let’s go!” (AT&T, 666.) She is again perfecting her persona for her audience: as if she were this intelligent woman with psychic ability and penetrating insight into human psychology and human follies, here shocked by some people’s capacity for paranoia.

Note that this volunteer is quite near the suspect. This is the second visit since the case was reopened. Another complaint on behalf of Robin. It seems that, because the SS women have run into an impasse, they have to pull out “Robin” their wild card again in order to impress upon the Secret Service that the suspect does habitually harass women.⁴

This is a direct visit. This volunteer, using a proxy, is simply sent the link. This is actually the first visit since the case was reopened. The SS women, in order to get out of their impasse, are thinking about making a case of plagiarism out of this chapter.

It's probably the case that the SS women have simply called up their old friend to tell him about their difficulty – they couldn't convince the Secret Service that the suspect plagiarizes – and that their old friend thus tries to find plagiarism in the same chapters again.

This appears to be the Israelite hacker who has been working with the SS women since late last year. The last time he was here was 11 May, when he was asked to clone the suspect's website. If the SS women have asked this computer expert to look up "sci.pdf", it must be because they need his expertise at forging evidences. The last time that they focused on this document is 21 November, when they asked the Berlin Plagiarizer to create a fake version of the suspect's website. Perhaps they are here again asking the Israelite hacker to figure out a way to convince the Secret Service that the Berlin Plagiarizer's forgery is genuine.

The third ICJ trial over the suspect, XI

Jul. – Sept., 2017; rev. Nov. – Dec. 2021

There were two visits to this chapter on 29 and 28 November. Again, three false reports about the suspect’s plagiarism to reinforce the impression that the Berlin Plagiarizer’s forgery is genuine.

10:36 AM, Kiersten posts a message about “Pizzagate” on her Facebook, her first time since 28 November. She is again trying to perfect her persona “the anti-Trump wise egalitarian and feminist” – even while she and her gang are working the hardest for the Trump team! What a hypocrite!

This volunteer is evidently summoned by the SS women to brainstorm how to make a case about the suspect's misogynist ideology. This, as one desperate attempt to produce some evidence to prevent the Russian side from being immediately convicted in the ICJ (in both the current and the previous ICJ trial). This also indicates that the earlier visit to "Hillary Doctrine" was also about making a case about the suspect's misogynist ideology.

This is the Preface to "Poisonous Friends, I". She has spent an hour assessing the suspect's chapter on Betty Friedan, discussing it with the SS women, or reporting its misogynist content to the Secret Service. Now she is asked to assess, and report on, the suspect's further "delusional" comments on feminism, democracy, sustainable civilization, and so on.

Again, to brainstorm how to prove to the Secret Service that the suspect is a plagiarizer.

11:21 AM,

11:48 AM,

71.82.132.35 - - [07/Dec/2016:12:48:12 -0700] "GET /scientificenlightenment1/haidapoles.jpg HTTP/1.1" 200 40446 "https://www.google.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0; Win64; x64) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/51.0.2704.79 Safari/537.36 Edge/14.14393"

12:43 PM – both IP addresses belong to the Los Angeles Unified School District:

204.108.108.232 - - [07/Dec/2016:13:43:20 -0700] "GET /scientificenlightenment1/cellularrespiration.jpg HTTP/1.1" 200 101947 "https://www.google.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.1; WOW64) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/54.0.2840.99 Safari/537.36"
204.108.110.73 - - [07/Dec/2016:13:43:39 -0700] "GET /scientificenlightenment1/cellularrespiration.jpg HTTP/1.1" 200 101947 "https://www.google.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.1; WOW64) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/54.0.2840.99 Safari/537.36"

More school teachers have volunteered to falsely report the suspect for plagiarism. (They think they are merely following Homeland Security CO chief's order; they don't know that they are called upon to "save Russia"!)

Then, 12:54 PM, west.biz.rr.com, Los Angeles:

64.183.60.82 - - [07/Dec/2016:13:54:10 -0700] "GET /scientificenlightenment1/cellularrespiration.jpg HTTP/1.1" 200 101947 "https://www.google.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (X11; CrOS armv7l 8743.85.0) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/54.0.2840.101 Safari/537.36"

We have to wonder whether the two volunteers are related: both are very close to the suspect. All part of the effort to prove to the Secret Service that the suspect is a plagiarizer.

It seems that, as the SS women are getting desperate about proving to the Secret Service that the suspect is indeed a plagiarizer, they finally decide to forge evidence again. To confirm the Berlin Plagiarizer's forgery as genuine and to reaffirm the story about the Bogota sociologist's citing.

17 minutes later, he looks up a chapter.

Apparently, the SS women have simply sent him the link. He is asked again to brainstorm how to more effectively report this chapter as plagiarized.

Kiersten must be showing her new recruit the suspect's new message about her, lying, "He posted this message on Dating Psychos to slander me and express his sexual longing for me, it took me so much effort to remove it; then he posted it again on Liar Spy, and now posted this message here still blaming me for posting it myself to frame him and to pretend to be a victim.” 19 seconds later, the West Hollywood girl rolls up to the Liar Spy link:

66.220.146.21 - - [09/Dec/2016:23:37:37 -0700] "GET /gallery/hdman.jpg HTTP/1.1" 200 14557 "-" "facebookexternalhit/1.1 (+http://www.facebook.com/externalhit_uatext.php)"

26 seconds later, 10:38 PM, she has rolled down to the Dating Psychos link:

69.171.230.98 - - [09/Dec/2016:23:38:03 -0700] "GET /gallery/kickedoutdetail.jpg HTTP/1.1" 200 78305 "-" "facebookexternalhit/1.1 (+http://www.facebook.com/externalhit_uatext.php)"

Kiersten is explaining to her her made-up story about both fake reviews. 52 seconds later, the West Hollywood girl rolls back up to check the links:

23.118.156.255 - - [09/Dec/2016:23:38:55 -0700] "GET /gallery/evosm.jpg HTTP/1.1" 200 1924 "http://m.facebook.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Linux; Android 6.0.1; SM-G928C Build/MMB29K; wv) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/4.0 Chrome/54.0.2840.85 Mobile Safari/537.36 [FB_IAB/FB4A;FBAV/105.0.0.23.137;]"

Kiersten has successfully duped another girl making her believe that guys actually desire her enough as to want to harass her. Again, Kiersten must have succeeded in enraging the West Hollywood girl with her demonic story about the suspect and obtaining her deepest sympathy: that’s how she makes friend. But it’s also likely that the CIA will take the surveillance of her psychopathic action into the ICJ as evidence to make it harder for the Russian side to avoid being convicted: this evidence supports the TMU’s profile of Kiersten as a fraudster who is in the habit of forging evidences to pretend to be a victim of sex crimes in order to make people believe she’s attractive and make friends.

The search terms seem to indicate that the SS women are relying on advices from Dr G in conducting this search. This seems to be a false report on behalf of Dr G – that the suspect has violated Dr G’s intellectual property rights (since there is here a large bloc of citation from Dr G’s “Advanced Philosophical Orientation”). However, it’s not clear whether Dr G – if he is indeed involved – is really helping the SS women or whether he is merely working as a law enforcement informant against them. (Very likely the latter, since he seemed to be working as a TMU informant back in April, 2014.) If so, this will actually make it harder for the Russian side to recover. 12:05 PM, the volunteer comes again:

Probably to confirm the Berlin Plagiariizer's forgery as genuine and to validate the Bogota sociologist's citation.

Tonight, the suspect will be at the Mormon church (Westwood) for the Christmas party.

Kiersten has this irrational fear that people might discover the suspect's words about her scheme on his Facebook and on his website and believe it, and so she tries her best to preempt him by telling her lie to as many people as possible. (Her lie could also be evidence in favor of the Russian side in the ICJ.)

This is the original version of “The Cheney Plan”. The second visit today. It seems that, today, the SS women have a need to revive the story they have made up about the suspect’s essay. Part of their desperate attempt to delay Russia’s conviction in the ICJ.

In sum, one visit to the PP post today and one visit to the PP-166020 post. The SS women have developed a new focus today on the suspect’s supposed insanity, making reports about the suspect’s insane belief about brain-chips, government conspiracies, and his women victims. Meanwhile, they continue to try to prove that the suspect is a plagiarizer, even summoning the help of Dr G. Note that the SS women seem to be busy between 1 and 5 PM.

In sum, the desperate attempt continues to help prevent the Russian side from being immediately convicted. Meanwhile, there are two visits to the PP post today, one of which is to link it from a secret Facebook group.

This is certainly the strangest search that has ever occurred on the suspect's website. What is this about? It's reasonable to assume that the SS women are ordered to conduct this search because the Russian side has a certain need to discredit this document which has been serving as an important piece of evidence for the CIA since August – even though we simply can't be sure how. In other words, it's just another desperate attempt to cast doubt on the CIA's claim in order to extend the life of the Russian side in the ICJ. (Recall the St Augustine volunteer from 31 August: we have to wonder if this is the same person, and in fact Emily.)

This volunteer receives the links to these four images. (Perhaps from the Swedish volunteer seen on 3:43 AM, 12 December.) 18 seconds later, he does a search for the webpage according to the instruction given him:

In sum, two visits to the PP post today. The many visits from famous universities indicate that the SS women are still trying hard to produce some evidences suggesting that the suspect is a plagiarizer in order to save the Russians' case.

It seems that, by today, the Russian side has exhausted itself in this ICJ trial – after trying for two weeks to come up with some evidences suggesting that there might be some truth in the SS women’s claims in order to temporarily avoid being convicted. The SS women have today got a hint about this from Mr Homeland Security CO chief and are therefore thinking of ways to “revive the ICJ trial for the Russian side”. (Because they aren’t aware that the CIA is accusing the Russians of conspiring with them in the ICJ – because they aren’t quite aware that they have been determined to be “terrorists” per an ICJ judgment from August – they don’t quite understand that, when they fail in their enterprise, Russia, its French allies, and Donald Trump don’t simply fail to win, but will in fact get convicted themselves of terrorism crime – while Russia will also be in danger for the previous ICJ trial.) As usual, they turn to Microsoft. If Microsoft could remove the suspect’s chapter from Bing’s search results on ground of plagiarism, then that’d be evidence that there might be some truth in their profile of the suspect after all. But of course Microsoft wouldn’t do it.

The SS women are evidently also asking him to brainstorm: how to prove that the suspect is a plagiarizer. There are no visits for the next four hours, and much fewer afterwards – which indicates just how busy they are with brainstorming for solutions.

This volunteer is simply sent the link. Recall that the Batavia volunteer was brainstorming about this chapter on 14 and 15 December.

The SS women rarely look at this chapter. They are evidently desperate and so are looking into new materials. In any case, the suspect's misogynist ideology here.

In sum, there are only 16 visits today – half of the usual number in a day. This is indication that the SS women are brainstorming and looking for solutions. (Note the break especially between 10 AM and 1:30 PM and between 4:30 and 7:30 PM.) Meanwhile, one visit to the PP post and one visit to the PP-184178 post.

At a loss, they decide to forge evidences again and so call up the Tokyo volunteer to ask him to help. This might be a bad idea – this Tokyo volunteer is very likely just an informant.

In sum, another day spent reporting the suspect for plagiarism or brainstorming how to report him for plagiarism. Plus a new agenda about the suspect's reconstruction of the SS women's business with the TMU back in the summer of 2014 – or his "terrorist threats". (Perhaps temporary evidence to save the Russians in the ICJ.) Five visits to the PP post today!

21 December (Wednesday; case dismissed; Wes; 24)

Between last night and tonight, SDW would post a new post on her blog: "Link: the reality of child trafficking rings". This is her first post since 21 November. SDW is becoming increasingly "delusional" – believing in bizarre false scenarios about the US government – while acquiring a tremendous love for Donald Trump in imitation of the suspect. Her bizarre belief that the CIA and the US Establishment are a bunch of pedophiles trafficking children seems to date from this period. In her mind, it's because the US Establishment is so evil that they have refused to accept her gang's complaints about the suspect and ban his website. Thanks to her engrossment in these bizarre conspiracy theories, she has no notions recognition”. Recognition as the driver for all human actions. Is it really stupid to care about what other human beings think of you? It’s the number one goal of all human beings. The debate about this. Kiersten’s desire to become recognized as a victim of male sexual aggression. That’s why people slander people... Critical theory explains why the suspect is so unhappy: he is seeking recognition as well as truth. (5) About the Mormon church. The Book of Mormon is the strangest book the suspect has ever seen. (6) If his speculation on BOL is correct, then there will be a judgment requiring him to found a new religion to save the world, just like Joseph Smith. Some of the things seem to confirm this. The proliferation of pro-Russian sentiments. Gingrich’s support of Trump. Around 6 February, 2014, Gingrich didn’t tweet for three days. Did he realize that the (previous) ICJ trial was being restored? Is he required by an ICJ judgment to support Trump? What’s the fruit of the suspect’s 9-year long effort? (7) Wes’ work: the legislative handbook. (8) Is Wes’ life meaningful? How to live a meaningful life? The stages of development toward becoming an enlightened man. Wes’ friend who got a job as a historical anthropologist. The suspect hangs up with Wes on 1:11:00.

If the Russians could, they will definitely use the suspect’s speculations about BOL and Gingrich as evidence that there might be some truth in the SS women’s profile of the suspect as mentally insane and grandiose after all – evidence with which they could temporarily avoid being convicted in the ICJ.

In sum, two visits to the PP post and one visit to the PP-184178 post. We must assume that, by the end of today, the Russians are in such serious troubles in the ICJ because, some time late today, the Secret Service has informed the SS women that the case which the Baltimore Lawyer had opened for them on 14 November has definitely been dismissed because, after much investigation, the Homeland Security warning about the suspect has been determined to be invalid after all. (If the Secret Service has already dismissed the SS women's case on 3 December, then today they are just telling the women that they never ever want to hear them complain about the suspect again.) The SS women would of course be totally shocked and distressed. We must assume this because, from tomorrow onward, the women will turn their attention to the local police departments once again.

22 December (Thursday; preparation for meeting with the detective)

As shall be seen, by this time the SS women have come up with a different plan to revive the ICJ trial for Russia's sake. (Again, they don't quite understand that the Russians and the National Front are being convicted.) With the case with the Secret Service totally dismissed, Dr P has suggested that she will take the rest of the SS women to meet with a detective. She has set up an appointment for tomorrow morning. If the SS women could persuade the detective to ban the suspect's website, that would be a favorable piece of evidence for the Russian side in the ICJ. It's not clear, however, whether Dr P has found a new detective or whether it is the same detective at Hawthorne Police Department. She is thinking that, although she has failed on 28 October, she will succeed this time. Again, the SS women are not aware that they are wasting their time because they are ignorant of the political situation – how much their project now conflicts with the national security Establishment's goal of getting rid of the conviction of Homeland Security CO chief and NULND – and the fact that the CIA and the TMU have already been circulating among law enforcement the warning that they are false complainers of terrorism. This time they have prepared even more impressive testimonies than they did on 28 October. They have called up the suspect's cousin Cindy and got her to agree to testify (lie) that the suspect is indeed physically dangerous due not only to his delusional mind but also to his Antisocial Personality Disorder and violent temper. (The SS women are again unaware of the fact that Cindy is a law enforcement informant in their midst.) Now the SS women are asking this Breinigsville volunteer to prepare evidences for their meeting with the detective tomorrow. Here, evidences that the suspect has indeed stolen his drawings from his family members. After almost two minutes, the Breinigsville volunteer comes to the gallery again:

The SS women must be talking to him: “Robin also wishes to complain about his painting of her without her permission. Make a case about this painting.” Then, 22 seconds later, the volunteer continues to explore the links on arche.html,

These visits are probably preparation for the SS women's upcoming meeting with the detective. (Namely, downloading the materials to be submitted and writing up testimonies.) There will be no visits between 7 and 10:50 AM. It would seem that this is because the SS women are now preparing for their meeting. Their appointment with the detective is probably set at 10:45 AM or so. They would have left home around 8:30 AM and met together for breakfast around 9 AM. There are, again: Dr P, Angelica, Veronica, Karin, Kiersten, and perhaps SDW as well. By 10:30 AM, they are at the police station. Again, it's not clear whether this is still the Hawthorne Police Department or another police department. In any case, as soon as they meet with the detective, the women's first step is to show her the Homeland Security warning about the suspect and then produce the evidences they have prepared which confirm that the warning is accurate – they thus explain to the detective how the suspect plagiarizes and steals drawings from his family members and then show her the fake version of the suspect's gallery which they have forged yesterday. Then, this visit: 10:52 AM, oc.oc.cox.net, Mission Viejo, California,

This seems to be the suspect's cousin Cindy. Apparently, after so much explanations and showing-off, Kiersten informs the detective that the suspect's cousin is willing to testify as to how her cousin has victimized and terrorized this "Miss Piggy" herself on his website. "You must not look at his website to protect our privacy, but let his own cousin tell you what terrible things her cousin has written on his website to threaten me." And so Kiersten calls up Cindy and Cindy is connected with the detective: "My cousin writes here saying he wants to stuff shit into Ms Johnson's mouth." Again, the suspect didn't actually write that, but Cindy is instructed by the SS women to lie. She continues: "My cousin is not only severely delusional, but also bad-to-the-bone and extremely violent. He not only stole all of his twin brother's drawings, but also threatened my brother before, and my parents are terribly frightened of him.” While all this false reporting looks very good to the SS women, they don’t know that, behind their back, Cindy has already informed the detective that it is the SS women themselves who have instructed her to lie like this. (While Cindy’s parents indeed hate the suspect, the suspect certainly has no twin brother and has never stolen anyone’s artworks.)

It’s not clear whether this visit is related to the SS women’s current meeting with the detective. (Namely, this volunteer might be calling in to testify that the suspect indeed violates intellectual property laws here by copying images from books and putting them on his website as if they were his own drawings.)

This is Opera 15. This is a direct visit. Namely, the person simply pulls up the front page of the suspect’s website on her iPhone. This is either one of the SS women or the detective. Apparently, after spending more than 30 minutes making their case to the detective, the SS women are pulling up the suspect’s website either on their iPhone or on the detective’s iPhone saying, “So this is the website which he uses to terrorize us. Please ban this website.” However, the detective purposely picks holes in their story and quickly dismisses their case saying the Homeland Security warning about this guy is not valid. The SS women are shocked. Just like on 28 October, the detective has already received order from above to never validate these women’s claims – and especially that strange document from Homeland Security which they so treasure. (She has already seen the warning about the SS women as a bunch of fraudsters, which warning is only further confirmed by Cindy’s confidential report behind the women’s back.) The Russian side is losing right now in the ICJ, and they thought these dumb women could reverse the tide for them – but no: the detective’s decision and invalidation of the Homeland Security warning about the suspect has become unfavorable evidence for them in the ICJ, and the CIA is now even more ready to convict them in the current ICJ trial and reactivate the previous ICJ trial. The SS women have, as yet, no understanding of all this. By noon, the women have left the police station.

By this time the SS women have already come home (SDW might be staying with one of them) and are conferencing with their volunteers about how to make a more convincing case to the detective – how to prove to her that their testimonies, and the Homeland Security warning, about the suspect are all accurate. (Again, they don't understand that they are wasting their time.) Here they are asking their volunteer from San Antonio about how to convince the detective that the suspect is indeed dangerous because of his severe insanity.

It seems that, at the same time, they are asking another volunteer in the UK about how to convince the detective that the suspect is indeed violating intellectual property laws by copying images from books. (This of course indicates that the 11:13 AM visit was indeed a volunteer calling in to testify.) 2:46 PM, this volunteer searches for the chapter itself:

That is to say, 13 minutes later, the SS women ask another volunteer in the UK about how to convince the detective that the suspect's rambling on the PP post is indeed evidence that he is extremely dangerous to them having developed bizarre delusions about them. 2:55 PM, the volunteer comes again,

3:14 PM, the Hague volunteer from 2:15 PM yesterday comes back. He comes to the Table of Contents from the chapter he looked up yesterday. Strangely, he is using his Android phone today, and yet humandispersal.html is cached in his browser:

19 seconds later, the SS women direct him to click on "The Origins of Patriarchy in China" (II):

Have the SS women connected up with Eva again? In any case, they are here probably thinking about adding Eva's complaint (about the suspect's violation of her privacy) in order to convince the detective that this Homeland Security warning about the suspect must be honored.

As for the suspect, after meeting with Yvonne in the SM library, he comes back to Elysee. He would meet Daniel, a PhD student in UCLA quite versed in philosophy. From now on he would have countless philosophical discussions with Daniel in Elysee.

There will be no more visits from the SS women until 1:40 AM. We can probably assume that, after the SS women have spent 6 hours brainstorming with their volunteers (from 2:30 to 8:30 PM), they have decided to meet in person again to conference. Perhaps over dinner in a restaurant. For four hours, from 9 PM to 1 AM, they will be discussing how to overcome the detective's cavalier attitude toward the Homeland Security warning about the suspect. (Again, they aren't aware that they are wasting their time because they aren't cognizant of the overall political situation.)

We have to wonder whether this is the same volunteer seen on 6:44 AM this morning. (Gdynia and Tczew are 20 miles apart.) If so, this means that the SS women are asking the same volunteer to prepare a revised report on this image (how the suspect has copied this image from books.)

The SS women are evidently here gathering testimony from an expert supplied by the Russian intelligence SVR themselves that the suspect has indeed plagiarized this image.

Another testimony about the suspect's violation of intellectual property laws?

There will be no visits between 8:30 AM and 12:30 PM. The SS women are busy. They have most likely gone to the detective again to present more testimonies about the suspect's violation of intellectual property laws and computer-hacking – to prove to her that the Homeland Security warning about the suspect, issued on the basis of their expert testimonies, is indeed accurate. However, the detective must have rejected their request one more time. Disappointed, the SS women should have returned to their base by noon.

From 12:30 PM onward, the suspect will ride with Derrick and participate in a Christmas dinner party at Mike's home. (Mike is a targeted individual.)

12:49 PM, reverse-dns.chicago.com, Buffalo, New York. This seems to be a robot activity unrelated to the SS women's operation.

It seems quite likely that this Rio de Janeiro volunteer is an associate of the Sao Paulo Plagiarizer and that the SS women are contemplating creating another fake Portuguese version of the suspect's chapter in order to convince the detective.

There are no visits between 11:30 PM and 4:20 AM. Then, the suspect's visitors' log will be archived late. These are indications that Angelica might have visited the suspect's website between 12 and 4 AM. Clearly, after asking all these volunteers to produce testimonies for her, Angelica thinks that, in the end, she has to do the job herself.

In sum, two visits to the PP post and one visit to the PP-184178 post.

Does the paucity of visits between 1:30 and 6:30 PM indicate that the SS women are again meeting with the detective supplying her with more convincing evidences of the suspect's plagiarism and trying to persuade her to honor the Homeland Security warning about the suspect? (The Porto Alegre and Saint Paul volunteer might be calling in to report on the suspect's plagiarism.) But, of course, their request is rejected for the third time. In any case, insofar as the detective's dismissal of the Homeland Security warning about the suspect will surely become evidence in the ICJ, the SS women are getting quite desperate knowing that their Russian overlords are losing in the ICJ, even if they can't comprehend the exact magnitude of the crisis the Russians are faced with.

The SS women are perhaps telling this volunteer: "He writes about his obsession and sexual frustration here, and yet the detective refuses to regard him as dangerous and validate the Homeland Security warning about him. Can you think of anything?" Or perhaps, given the emergency at the moment, the SS women have decided to call on Marie for help: if Marie adds her complaint as well, then the detective might be forced to accept the Homeland Security warning about the suspect. 8:02 AM, after reading and discussing for 30 minutes, this volunteer continues, but her user-agent has changed. Apparently, this is a different phone. Maybe it is a different person this time, the Riverview volunteer's partner, for example.

What is this about? Is this volunteer brainstorming how to convince the detective that, given the suspect's severe delusions about his women victims, he poses tremendous danger to them? Or is this volunteer simply asked to produce an intercept showing this chapter – the CIA's most important evidence in early August – to be full of garbage so that the Russians can temporarily save themselves from an immediate conviction, in both the current and the previous ICJ trial?

Brainstorming (plagiarism).

In sum, the SS women have spent the whole day brainstorming with their volunteers about how to persuade the detective to accept the Homeland Security warning, and their testimonies, about the suspect. Again, since the SS women have failed three times with their detective, the Russian side is in grave jeopardy in the ICJ. But the SS women, unaware, are merely frustrated that the Russian side couldn't win and that they couldn't be recognized as "victims", both in the ICJ and among US law enforcement agencies.

29 December (Thursday; Wes)

Today the US orders 35 Russian diplomats to leave the US. The New York Times would report tomorrow:

“American officials said that in the weeks before Thursday’s announcement, the White House asked the F.B.I. and American intelligence agencies for a list of names of Russians who may have conducted espionage. Mr. Obama had decided to order the expulsions in response to what the administration called a campaign by Russia to disrupt the presidential election, as well as harassment of American diplomats posted in Russia.

The administration decided to target Russians in Washington and San Francisco, a move that former federal law enforcement officials said was not particularly surprising.”⁶

As noted, all this should also be seen and interpreted in light of the current battle in the ICJ.

While the suspect is on the bus going to Asian Pacific, a strange (super beautiful) white female comes to sit in front of him. She texts Russia on her smartphone. It's not clear whether this is a (Russian intelligence) operation to produce some evidence to confirm some aspect of the Homeland Security warning about the suspect. (Perhaps that he intends to look like he is conspiring with Russia.) In any case, all this is likely given that the Russians must be scrambling to temporarily save themselves from a conviction in the ICJ.

2 PM, the suspect is connected with Wes. Here are the details of the conversation: (1) The SS women launched a new operation last Friday. They went to the courthouse, and had recruited his mother for this. They got her to tell the judge he's threatening Kiersten. Or the SS women might have gone to the detective. What happened on 14 November was that the Baltimore Lawyer had gone to a federal agency. The SS women seem to have tried to frame him for connection with foreign intelligence services. The two strange messages on his log. "Checking connection... This can take a while..." Has this anything to do with BOL's plan? (2) The suspect has gone to the Mormon church two more times. Joseph Smith must be very happy. He wishes to be like Joseph Smith. Only if his speculation on BOL's program is correct... For he is impressed by the Mormon church... He wishes to transform the Frankfurt school into a church. He could then become BOL's prophet... His religion would be spreading fast throughout the whole world, everywhere people's life-style will be changed, and the world will be saved... His Secret History will become like the Book of Mormon, recounting the origins of all this. Wes has given all these oracles in the beginning... (3) The SS women have in fact made a religion out of him, the bad-to-the-bone schizophrenic and plagiarizing misogynist terrorist stalker... They are missionaries to 30,000 people so far, excited to tell people all around the world about this demonic terrorist stalker of women... There is no god in their religion, but only a devil... (4) Wes' Christmas dinner. The malfunctioning of the suspect's log days ago. (5) About Axel Honneth. (6) About Mormonism again. Wes' father's Mormon background. The suspect hangs up on 3:59:00.

The suspect's incorrect understanding about the SS women's operations (including how they have tried to frame him for connections with foreign intelligence agencies) could be used by the Russian side as evidence to temporarily stay off their conviction. (Namely, that there might be some truth after all in the SS women's claim that the suspect suffers from bizarre delusions about their going after him.) Thus the suspect might have saved Russia again today. Furthermore, the suspect still has no idea how his continual speculation about BOL's program is preparing the ground on which the Invisible Hand might eventually convict BOL of conspiracy against him and adopt the program in question for the United States' benefit. But, at least, the suspect's description of how the SS women have made a religion out of him is quite on the mark.
