

The Secret History of the International Court of Justice

KIERSTEN'S VENGEANCE

LEGEND

The following reconstructs the operation of the Secret Society women and Homeland Security CO chief against me from 3 to 20 January, 2014.

The terminology used in this reconstruction follows the convention established in later reconstructions. “Secret Society women” has replaced “Kiersten’s Secret Society” or “Kiersten’s gang”, etc. The Secret Society women consisted of (as of January 2014): Angelica (G), Karin (K), Kiersten (J), and Dr P (Petterson). Then there were many of their associates, such as Kiersten’s old friends Carolyn and Peter, Dr R and her crowd, my family members, and the women’s new friends such as Aamoy (Gupta) and his UCLA Linux User Group buddies.

The “TMU” continues to refer to LAPD’s Threat Management Unit.

“Volunteers” is the terminology I have been using in reconstructions of the later phases. I have decided to use it here too. It refers to the people from around the world whom the Secret Society women were able to recruit to make false reports about my website by galvanizing them with Homeland Security’s warning about me, “Chaya’s warning”, the videos of my vandalism, and the horror stories they had made up about me. The largest community vigilantism enterprise in human history was in the process of formation. By the end of this period, more than four thousand people from around the world would have joined this hype about this very dangerous serial stalker and vandalizer who was on American Homeland Security’s watchlist.

Please note that this is a July 2021 rewrite of the original “Kiersten’s Vengeance, 4”, originally composed in October 2018. The original version, with the file name “timeline62-9.pdf” (last dated 20.03.2020), is still kept in the same folder.

RESUME

Now a short summary of the course event during this period. On the morning of 3 January, the Secret Society women brought additional complaints to the TMU that I had harassed them and stalked them with my blog. More testimonies about my plagiarism. Also a discussion about the painting of Queen Himiko. Late night, the Secret Society women were discussing with Oliver about whether he should also join the list of my victims in the latest stalking claim against me. On 4 January, the Secret Society women continued to mobilize their volunteers to compile testimonies about my delusional mind. What seemed to be Oliver also visited my blog this morning. Two volunteers also checked out my Nicaragua videos. Also more testimonies about my plagiarism. Then, late night, I accidentally broke a xxxxxx near Gold Digger. Homeland Security CO chief's agent tried to report me. The operation failed again. On 5 January, the Secret Society women spent another day collecting testimonies about my severe insanity and supposed plagiarism habit. Because the TMU had not taken actions at all, they were discussing with Dr R and her Hawaiian friend again tonight. The Hong Kong volunteer was also summoned tonight to brainstorm how to convince the TMU that I was dangerous because of my insanity. On 6 January, Kiersten might have visited my blog in the morning. Then the Secret Society women continued to mobilize their volunteers to brainstorm how to convince the TMU that I was insane and dangerous, that my website was full of violent videos, that I was a computer hacker and had plagiarized. I came to the LUG lounge late afternoon. The Secret Society women then spent the night discussing the situation with Aamoy and his LUG buddies: "The TMU has so far refused to take action..."

On 7 January, the Secret Society women spent another day brainstorming with their volunteers. They must be quite desperate now that it was clear that the TMU would not take action. On the morning of 8 January, the Secret Society women discussed the situation with Jennifer Day. Then, Homeland Security CO chief informed the Secret Society women that, tonight, I would stake out Carolyn's office again. Carolyn, upset with the TMU's inaction, decided to go to District Attorney's office to complain about the matter. But nothing came out of it. Carolyn and Peter then spent the night with Kiersten, Angelica, and Veronica watching me loitering around Carolyn's office on their computer screen. On 9 January, Carolyn, accompanied by Kiersten and Peter, came to the TMU to turn in the latest evidences (not just the video from last night, but also new testimonies about my plagiarism, severe insanity, and harassment of Kiersten). The Secret Society women then spent the night discussing the TMU's inaction with their volunteers. On the morning of 10 January, the Secret Society women asked SDW (Maura) to make a false report about my website to the TMU. Tonight, I came to Peter's home looking for him, but nobody answered the call.

11 January was another busy day. Homeland Security CO chief informed Dr P that I would again loiter around her home tonight. All the Secret Society women had thus gathered together tonight watching me walking past Dr P's home on their computer screen. Afterwards, they asked their Hong Kong volunteer to compose more expert testimonies about my severe insanity which they shall soon submit to the TMU. On 12 January, the Secret Society women got hold of Gaurav in the morning. They spent the day preparing more evidences that I had also harassed Gaurav, Oliver, and Khalezov. (That I had developed bizarre delusions about Gaurav and Khalezov.) Late afternoon, a volunteer from Turnhout, Belgium, spent almost two hours preparing new testimonies about my plagiarism. On the morning of 13 January, the Secret Society women were able to recruit a physicist at the Oak Ridge National Laboratory to compose an expert testimony about my plagiarism. They then met with the TMU detectives in the afternoon to turn in the new evidences. Then, that night, I was in the LUG lounge. Kiersten and Karin passed the night with Aamoy watching me accessing Kiersten's Facebook from the webcam inside the lounge. They bad-mouthed me to Aamoy and discussed me with the LUG buddies until late in night.

On 14 January, after the TMU had refused again to open a case on me citing that the Homeland Security profile of me as a plagiarizer was not correct, Angelica's new friend at the Homeland Security headquarters forged evidence of my plagiarism in order to help her convince the TMU that the Department's warning about me was correct. This late afternoon, the Secret Society women seemed to be discussing the latest development with Evelyn, Nelson, and my brother. Then, that night, I showed up at Peter's home to obtain his IP address and, soon afterwards, broke a xxxxxx in his neighborhood. It was caught in surveillance cameras and Peter, Carolyn, and the rest of the Secret Society women went into a frenzy. More evidences with which to convince the TMU that my case was valid. Carolyn and Kiersten however discovered "Kiersten meets Angelica" for the first time. The Secret Society women then mobilized volunteers to compose more testimonies about my supposed plagiarism. On the morning of 15 January, the Secret Society women, along with Carolyn, Peter, and the store owners, came to the TMU to turn in the videos along with other new evidences about my plagiarism. They requested that my case be reopened and emphasized how dangerous I was given what happened last night. After the Secret Society women had returned from their trip to the TMU, they immediately mobilized their volunteers to compose more testimonies to send to the detectives: about my plagiarism, my insanity, and the violent contents I had put up on my website. The TMU activated Jennifer Day and sent her in to spy on the Secret Society women. After midnight, the Secret Society women asked their Hong Kong expert to compose more expert testimonies about my insanity and danger to others. On 16 January, the Secret Society women spent the day brainstorming how to submit better evidences or testimonies to the TMU, especially about my plagiarism. Jennifer Day continued to participate in the brainstorming.

On 17 January, the TMU informed the Secret Society women that they had again dismissed the latter's claim because they didn't deem the Homeland Security warning about me to be correct. The Secret Society women thus spent another day brainstorming the same things (plagiarism, computer-hacking, Angelica's naked picture, and severe insanity). They instructed another volunteer to forge evidence of my plagiarism. After 8 PM, they seemed to be busy with something, perhaps conferring with Aamoy and his LUG buddies about my plans for the next day. On 18 January, I was at the Linux Install Fest in UCLA and spent the late afternoon and early evening with the LUG buddies in the lounge. Kiersten and Karin again came to Aamoy's place to monitor me and discuss me. Kiersten made up more bad stories about me and completely captured Aamoy's heart. Aamoy was determined to help Kiersten suppress my website. By midnight, Aamoy and his LUG buddies were coordinating their operation against my website with the HK Hacker in Hong Kong. Aamoy and his LUG buddies were further offended by me when they discovered on my blog the recording of my time in the LUG lounge from October last year. On the morning of 19 January, Aamoy and his LUG buddies continued to discuss the situation with Kiersten and Angelica. 4 PM, Aamoy went to the UCLA Police Department to make a complaint about me. The UCLA police did not however take the complaint seriously. After Aamoy returned to the campus, he discussed the situation with the LUG crowd and the Secret Society women for the rest of the night. The Secret Society women's provisional plan was to use Aamoy as a proxy to get me arrested and ban my website. It would be evidence which would help Homeland Security CO chief win his dispute with the CIA in the ICJ. Aamoy again stayed up all night discussing the situation with Kiersten's gang. On 20 January, as soon as Aamoy woke up (almost 3 PM), the whole LUG gang was discussing me with Kiersten and the rest of the Secret Society women. More than a dozen LUG buddies and their friends in other universities visited my website continually. By 9:30 PM, Aamoy seemed to be discussing the situation with another authority in UCLA. No use. He and his gang then continued to visit my website looking for more materials to strengthen their case against me.

The most exciting episodes of this period are certainly Peter and Carolyn's big fuss on the night of 14 January and the massive involvement of Aamoy and his LUG buddies from 18 January onward. As you can see, it's the broken xxxxxx which had done the magic of galvanizing everyone and enabling Kiersten and her gang to make everyone believe that the Homeland Security warnings about me were correct and that their made-up stories about me were true. Without the videos of all this vandalism, the Secret Society women would have difficulty in hyping up all the people around them and around the world. This is why Homeland Security CO chief continued to instruct the Monkey to control me to commit vandalism crimes around town. The background to everything is still the unfinished trial in the International Court of Justice, where Homeland Security CO chief was trying to prove that the Secret Society women's profile of me was true and the CIA was trying to prove that it was false, so that one could permanently lock up the previous ICJ trial while the other could try to reactivate it. Because of this, the TMU, under the CIA's direction, continued to ignore my vandalism while investigating the Secret Society women's operations against me in order to cause evidence to enter into the ICJ demonstrating that Homeland Security CO chief was all wrong about me and his star witnesses were full of shit. And, because if even one of the many characteristics which Homeland Security CO chief had attributed to me on his warning about me was proven false then he would lose in the ICJ and the previous ICJ trial would be open to reactivation, the TMU gradually developed the habit of denying the whole validity of the Homeland Security warning about me by simply citing that I had never plagiarized without bothering to debate about anything else. In response, the Secret Society women would have to spend an increasing amount of effort trying to prove that I did plagiarize – even though plagiarism had nothing to do with stalking or terrorism.

What is left unmentioned above is that, throughout this period, the Secret Society women seem to have continued to mobilize their volunteers from around the world to locate Ms Kudo. Also, although Homeland Security CO chief had resumed instructing the Monkey to seriously hurt me during this period, I have in the following made very little mention of it, aside from notices about computer malfunctioning.

3 January (Friday)

First, merely a short note about the damages I collected today: near storage: 4 N. 2 B (LWLB). ATM (DT). Then in BRNTWD/WILSHR: 1 W. 4 mirrors. 6 B. Several doors, walls, and sidewalk. ATM (BA).

Now the Secret Society women's operation for today.

This IP address was traced to Valencia or Castaic, in the vicinity of Magic Mountain. I have always had the impression that this was somebody in Veronica's Lancaster home. This volunteer was obviously a friend of Oliver's, although this was not Oliver's computer. Oliver and his friend were probably discussing with the Secret Society women at this very moment whether Oliver should also be added to the list of my victims in the latest stalking case against me (how I had claimed his painting as my own and so on). Still discussing with volunteers about how locate Ms Kudo.

4 January (Saturday)

First, a short note about myself. Tonight, I was working in the Starbucks on Vermont and Prospect. Afterward, I went to Gold Digger. After I came out, I accidentally broke the front door xxxxxx of a xxxxxx agency. Homeland Security CO chief knew beforehand from the control center that this would happen and had already planted one of his agents in the vicinity waiting on me. As soon as the accident occurred, this Homeland Security agent (a guy on bicycle) tried to bring the matter to Gold Digger doorman's attention. But the doorman had no interest in the matter. Homeland Security CO chief was pursuing the same plan: planting agents around me to get ready to report me in the hope of causing me to be arrested (which would be evidence, both in the ICJ and with the TMU, that I was indeed a danger to people). But he failed again. There were also 3 N.

Now the Secret Society women's operation.

6 January (Monday)

First, a short note about myself. Today, on 4:13 PM, I left a message on SDW's blog suggesting that she record the "noise attacks" with a digital recorder. SDW would reply me politely. She continued to conceal from me her knowledge about the Secret Society women's business with me.

I then came to the Linux User Group lounge. Aamoy immediately sent in LUG member "Santa Monica" to watch over me. (More on this below.) I talked to "Santa Monica". Funny, and I asked him about Aamoy's visits to my website. I then stayed at the UCLA library all night. 1 B (Wilshire /Westwood). Other than that, no collection of damages tonight.

Now the Secret Society women's operation. 4:28 AM, hawaii.res.rr.com, Honolulu,

This volunteer was checking over my traces at the Bluehost forum.

There were no visits for the next five hours! What's going on? The Secret Society women must be busy. With what? Perhaps they were discussing the situation with Aamoy and his Linux User Group buddies. "We have filed a new stalking claim against him since 26 December, but the police refuse to take action... He is very dangerous because of his insanity, you guys should watch out..."

2:50 AM, the operation resumed: lightspeed.snfcca.sbcglobal.net, San Francisco;

108.213.65.177 - - [07/Jan/2014:03:50:40 -0700] "GET /familyphotos/familyphoto6.jpg HTTP/1.1" 200 348091 "https://www.google.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (iPhone; CPU iPhone OS 6_1_3 like Mac OS X) AppleWebKit/536.26 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/6.0 Mobile/10B329 Safari/8536.25"

Could this be one of my family members? Such as my brother David? Thus, the Secret Society women's discussion with Aamoy and his LUG buddies tonight could involve my family members as well.

8 January (Wednesday)

First, a short note about myself. 3 AM, Microsoft Word froze continually. I rebooted my computer. "Third Run Summary" (26) was destroyed. I downloaded a copy from my Sky Drive. I was very angered. 30 minutes wasted.

Tonight, I would check out Carolyn's office for the third time. I was mainly looking for the wireless network nearby. Then, I collected damages nearby. SPC. Several doors and a camera. 1 W. 1 N. 1 B (LWLB). Homeland Security CO chief would of course see on his computer what I was going to do tonight already in early morning. More on this below.

Now the Secret Society women's operation. 4:53 AM, sfr.lns.abo.bbox.fr, Toulouse, France,

By this time, Homeland Security CO chief, along with the Monkey, should have already seen from the computer inside the control center that, tonight, I would loiter around Carolyn's office again. He informed Kiersten and Dr P, who then informed Carolyn and Peter. Carolyn was not amused. She saw tremendous danger coming her way, and yet didn't understand why the TMU just wouldn't do anything about it. (She didn't know it's because the TMU saw no danger coming her way in addition to having already decided to never validate Homeland Security's warnings, and the Secret Society women's testimonies, about me.) When she contacted the TMU, the latter simply said they regarded neither Homeland Security's warnings nor Chaya's document as valid so that there was no case. At long last, all that filing of stalking claims and submitting of testimonies from almost a hundred people had amounted to this – that there was no case. Unbelievable! Carolyn decided to take action. She was going to the District Attorney to request that I be arrested.

This is the fourth visit to this essay in the past few days. The Secret Society women must have fabricated a story about my plagiarism using this essay.

This visit presumably came from the District Attorney's office. (Note that it was a Windows XP computer.) Carolyn, accompanied by Kiersten and Peter, showed the DA the videos of my loitering around her office from two weeks ago, and perhaps other videos showing me placing nails on the roads, and then, flashing the Homeland Security warning about me before the DA's face, emphasized to him that I was dangerous because of my severe insanity: that I believed there were chips implanted inside my brain, and that I believed Kiersten and so on were going after me. She of course also mentioned that I had described my delusions on my website in order to embarrass my women victims and requested that my website be banned as well. She was basically complaining to the DA that the TMU never did anything despite my continual stalking. (It might be because she had to explain that the TMU had persistently dismissed the Homeland Security warning about me by citing that I had never plagiarized that she had also brought in the volunteers' testimonies confirming that I did plagiarize: "See, this warning is correct. Everyone has seen how he plagiarized!") The DA listened to the complaint and did a search for the blog post in question.

This looks like Veronica's lawyer from the law office! Were Angelica and Veronica talking on the phone to their lawyer tonight about how to convince the TMU that this was Angelica's naked picture?

Kiersten's Vengeance, 4
Lawrence C. Chin,
Jul. – Oct. 2018; revised, Jul. 2021

By this time, I was already loitering around Carolyn's office building. Carolyn, Peter, and Kiersten must be staying with Angelica and Veronica tonight together watching me doing my thing on their computer screen. (Maybe it was because of this that the latter two were talking to their lawyer on the phone.) It's not clear whether Dr P or Karin was with them as well. (Did Dr P come back from Washington DC already?) Somehow, Carolyn didn't accomplish anything this afternoon. In any case, both Angelica and Kiersten would not agree to letting me see the evidences (the videos of my loitering around and my vandalism and so on) even if a warrant for my arrest could be issued. They preferred to do things behind my back. They must have requested that I be arrested and immediately shipped to the state mental hospital so that the normal trial process could be skipped over. Perhaps the DA deemed this unacceptable; perhaps he had already been warned by the TMU that that Homeland Security document was fraudulent and these women were a bunch of fraudsters. Certainly, Kiersten's whole gang was going to the TMU tomorrow to turn in tonight's video – even though everyone already knew that persuading the TMU to take action was as difficult as moving a mountain.

Let's continue with the visits to my website. 10:23 PM,

Carolyn's self-introduction on her website
(The Oak Tree Healers)

9 January (Thursday)

First, a short note about myself. 8:30 AM, I was at the Superior Court checking to see if any restraining order had been filed against me. No. I then came to Department of Mental Health and talked to Mr Jibri.

6:30 PM, at Denny's. While I was transcribing the recordings for Supplemental Pleading 11-93, my Asus froze up for no reason. I rebooted it on 6:50 PM. Work disrupted, severe anger. Required to collect damages. The "save" function for this diary then broke down on 6:57 PM.

6:40 PM, I emailed to Lenny the link to my latest blog post, "Kiersten meets Angelica". 10:38 PM, Lenny replied saying he was not interested.

Around 8 PM, I was at the Apple store in Santa Monica trying out iPhones and iPads (63.92.255.201). I then ran into Troy in Starbucks.

I then collected damages nearby. 1 W, 1 N, 1 B, Stone, HMPHARM, "Trade".

Now the Secret Society women's operation. 4:20 AM, Opera Mini,

Perhaps he was composing more testimonies about my plagiarism. This was the most important task since the TMU always refused to acknowledge the Homeland Security warning about me as valid by responding that there was no convincing evidence that I had really plagiarized.

It's very likely that, at this time, Carolyn, accompanied by Kiersten and Peter, was at the TMU to turn in the latest video showing me loitering around her office. This volunteer called in to testify (falsely) that I was also obsessing over Kiersten and stalking her and threatening her on my blog. (The same as on 29 December.) Kiersten might have also turned in the latest testimonies about my supposed plagiarism (i.e. the fuss over appendix.html this morning).

Although the Secret Society women had turned in more evidences to the TMU today, they must have been frustrated by the fact that the detectives had neither interest in the Homeland Security warning about me nor in doing anything to remove me from society. They thus spent the night discussing with their volunteers: how to convince the TMU that I was insane and so dangerous and also did plagiarize – just as Homeland Security had affirmed.

10 January (Friday)

First, a short note about myself. I would suffer severe coughing today. Sick. Then, tonight, around 10 PM, I checked on Peter's residence. I rang the door bell, but there was no answering. Was Peter really not home? Certainly, Peter's address was all wired up, and – even if Homeland Security CO chief had not alerted the Secret Society women about my move before the fact – he would know later that I was here even if he really wasn't home.

I collected damages in SM: 1 W (shattered), 2 mirrors. I then came to the UCLA hospital to get a check on my illness. 1 B in Westwood.

Now the Secret Society women's operation. 5:08 AM, a volunteer was looking at Bing's cache of my webpage:

It's probably the case that, because the Secret Society women submitted new evidences to the TMU yesterday, today Homeland Security CO chief wanted SDW to help strengthen their case. He asked SDW to submit a false report about how I had threatened her with my activities on her blog. SDW never had any interest in my website, and so she merely clicked around randomly without paying attention. She merely repeated to the TMU detective what she was coached by Angelica and Kiersten to say.

The Hong Kong volunteer and the 12:39 AM volunteer were obviously in communication with the Secret Society women at this very moment. Since everyone was going to the TMU tomorrow to turn in the new videos, Dr P wanted the Hong Kong volunteer's "expert testimony" that I was extremely dangerous due to my severe insanity.

Since the Secret Society women were going to the TMU to turn in the new evidences, they were probably discussing with Gaurav whether it was possible to add him as well to the list of my victims. Gaurav's testimony that I was insane and also imagined him to be a "government agent" would reinforce the Hong Kong expert's testimony that I was dangerous due to my insanity, thus supposedly forcing the TMU to admit that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct.

Lawrence C. Chin,
Jul. – Oct. 2018; revised, Jul. 2021

Apparently, the Secret Society women didn't go to the TMU today – probably because today was Sunday. They had however prepared, other than the same old evidences about my severe insanity and writing crazy letters to famous people, also more evidences that I had also harassed Gaurav, Oliver, and Khalezov. Also more evidences about my plagiarism, especially from the Turnhout volunteer. The Secret Society women had made sure, as always, that every characteristic attributed to me on the Homeland Security warning about me was supported by evidence so that the TMU would not be able to reject the warning.

13 January (Monday; Karin's meetup)

First a word about myself. Past midnight, I posted the revised version of “Kiersten meets Angelica” on my blog. Immediately afterwards, I found on Youtube the Chinese movie “Liu Rushi” (柳如是). I stayed up all night watching it, and was so impressed by it that I put it up on my blog (it was the posting for 14/01/2014). Searching online, I learned that the famous Chinese scholar Chen Yinke (1890 – 1969, 陈寅恪) had once done a scholarly study on this famous Chinese courtesan from the late Ming and early Qing dynasty. Chen suffered unspeakable injustice when, during the Cultural Revolution, the Red Guards raided his home and, because they were uneducated youngsters, burned all his collection of classics. Because they were barely literate, they regarded Chen's classics – normally reserved for museums overseas – as just so much “anti-revolutionary” paper junk. Since Homeland Security CO chief was training me to look insane with my wrong scenarios, I erroneously believed that the control center wanted me to see a certain parallel between me and Chen Yinke. Namely: Kiersten, Dr P, Veronica, Angelica, and their gang members were perpetrating on me the exact same crime: because these women were uneducated, they were presenting my website to law enforcement as some delusional crazy garbage and persuading the authority to suppress it. They did not understand any of the important theoretical matters presented in my Thermodynamic Interpretation of History, Scientific Enlightenment, and Secret History of the International Court of Justice – matters which, according to my (erroneous?) understanding at the time (my “delusions”), were going to be adopted by the Macrospherians to save human civilization – but were only interested in the few paragraphs on my blog describing their exploits: because that's all they could understand. They were the Red Guards in the American Cultural Revolution: a civil war to eliminate the country's valuable historical heritage, the wisdom which the ancestors have passed down to posterity. This observation, although born out of my “delusions”, was of course perfectly legitimate. I have more to say about this at the end of this episode.

Around 6 PM or so, I talked to Dr G on the phone about our next meeting. Then, from 6:30 PM onward, I was at the LUG lounge in UCLA. Aamoy, monitoring the lounge, immediately contacted Kiersten. I would rediscover Kiersten's Facebook page while Aamoy and Kiersten were watching over me remotely. It was a great drama. More on this below.

This is 18 minutes after I talked to Dr G on the phone! Related?

The Secret Society women must have gone to the TMU this afternoon. By this time, when my drama in the LUG lounge had started, they should have already returned to base and linked up with Aamoy. At today's meeting, as noted, they should have turned in the new video showing me continuing to "stalk"

Kiersten's Vengeance, 4
Lawrence C. Chin,
Jul. – Oct. 2018; revised, Jul. 2021

Dr P, the new testimonies (including expert ones) about my plagiarism, and then complaints on behalf of Gaurav, Oliver, and Khalezov. More importantly, all the new testimonies about my severe insanity and writing crazy letters to famous people, and hence my danger to others. (That I had also developed severe delusions about semi-famous people such as Gaurav and Khalezov.) The TMU detectives of course perfunctorily accepted everything and yet planned to do absolutely nothing about it except continuing to use informants to spy on the Secret Society women.

Now, as noted, I was at the LUG lounge from 6:30 PM onward. Refer to the recording for tonight. Troy was there. I tried to look into Kiersten's Facebook, but was blocked (from 1:59:00 onward). LUG Member "Santa Monica" came in. I talked to him. He had Gentoo Linux on his MacBook (2:24:30). Troy was trying to install something from Dresden University on the LUG website. I asked everyone around how to identify proxy servers (3:15:00). I began filming the mystery of Kiersten's Facebook page (3:28:00). I asked Jacqueline about the mystery: could Kiersten block one particular person from her Facebook page? (3:30:00) "She blocks me because she doesn't want me to see what she is saying about my website..." (3:33:00). Jacqueline suggested that I create a different Facebook account using a different email address (3:37:00). Everybody then helped me print out Kiersten's Facebook page. I then asked everyone how to identify the Facebook page which had links to my website (3:55:00). I also checked my own website from the Ubuntu computer inside the lounge. The last time on 9:03 PM. By 9:05 PM, I was gone. This is what happened tonight.

The LUG buddies. (Troy and Jacqueline seen here.)

Now the activities on my website from 6:30 PM onward. 6:39 PM,

Was Oliver talking to the Secret Society women tonight? By this time, Aamoy, seeing from the webcam inside LUG lounge that I had showed up, should have contacted Kiersten. We should assume that Kiersten and Karin then came to the UCLA Residence Hall to meet up with Aamoy. Kiersten and Karin would pass the night in Aamoy's dormitory room. Kiersten would then watch me trying to access her Facebook page together with Aamoy. Excellent! She must have been exhilarated.¹

1 I need to make a correction to the statement I'm making here. Karin had scheduled a meetup tonight for her Any Language and Culture Meetup: 7 PM, Fiesta Grande, and then the movie "The Invisible Woman". She would post the pictures from the meetup two days later, on 15 January. The pictures were of course only from the Margaritas time in Fiesta Grande, and demonstrate that six people had showed up at the meetup, including Karin and Margarette. This means that, from 7 to 8 PM, Karin was still in Pasadena and couldn't have been present at Aamoy's when the whole business started. At this time, only Kiersten was present with Aamoy. Since it was from 9:10 PM onward that Aamoy started looking at Karin-related materials on my website demonstrating that Karin was now sitting next to him, I thus propose the following time line: From 7 to 8 PM, Karin was at Fiesta Grande in Pasadena. 8 PM, she left without bothering with the movie (leaving the other 5 people going to the movie by themselves) and drove all the way to Westwood. By 8:45 PM, when Aamoy started visiting my website, Karin should have already arrived and should be sitting next to Aamoy. Kiersten would have already been here for almost two hours.

This must have something to do with the Secret Society women's operation. Was Robin also talking to the Secret Society women tonight? Perhaps Robin, Oliver, Kiersten, and Aamoy were all discussing me via Skype while Aamoy monitored my activities inside the LUG lounge.

By this time, I was already gone. Kiersten and Karin continued to discuss me with Aamoy. It's evidently Karin who was directing him to click on the folder where materials about her were kept. It's quite evident what Kiersten and Karin were also telling Aamoy about me tonight. First, Kiersten and Karin kept Aamoy updated about the latest development (my "stalking" of Carolyn and Dr P and their appointment with the TMU this afternoon). Karin was then telling Aamoy how I was (once) obsessed with her (true) and, because of my obsession, stalked her (false).² Then how I put up all these materials about her on my website to harass her. Karin was also telling him that, because I suffered from paranoid schizophrenia, I believed she was a "CIA agent" and there was a chip implanted in my brain. Then it was Kiersten's turn. Kiersten's pathological lying mouth had totally convinced Aamoy. She made Aamoy believe the opposite of reality, that I had stalked her out of lust for her beauty and obsession with her, even though it was she who had stalked me and I had found it impossible to stalk her because she was too fat and disgusting (while Dr P and Angelica were at least good-looking enough that stalking them wouldn't cause me to lose face).³ But Aamoy was convinced because: (1) if I could have obsessed over Karin and stalked her, then I could certainly have done the same to Kiersten (he was not smart enough to wonder whether I might not have interest in the "fat ones"); (2) he saw with his own eyes how I had tried to access Kiersten's Facebook tonight; and (3), most importantly, the Homeland Security warning about me also said I was obsessed with Kiersten and had stalked her. (Like everyone else, Aamoy was not enough familiar with how the US government worked as to know that US government agencies frequently made up bad stories about innocent people.) Now (2) is the reason why Kiersten was jubilant tonight when she saw me asking Jacqueline how to get on her Facebook. I tried to look up Kiersten's Facebook because her postings would provide clues as to what operations she was running behind my back. I was desperately trying to understand how she was trying to "get me". But Kiersten immediately convinced Aamoy that I tried to access her Facebook because "I was obsessed with her" and "lusting after her". I checked out Carolyn's office and Dr P's home also because I was looking for clues to understand Kiersten's operations – I was investigating – but of course everyone in Kiersten's gang had presented my "stalking" as "motivated by obsession and lust". My motivation had always been incomprehensible to other people. Nobody really understood why I did what I did, nor did anyone really care. Everyone simply made up about me whatever stories can make herself feel good about herself and look good to other people. Kiersten had been dying for me to “stalk her” because that could then be proof that she was “desirable” after all – because she looked down at me: “Although other men don’t desire me, at least this inferior one should!” And, since I had refused to stalk her (just because I was unattractive, that doesn’t mean I would find other unattractive women attractive), she was determined to make other people believe that I did stalk her. Tonight was her night!

2 I "stalked" her after I was disillusioned with her and out of obsession with her. I "stalked" her in order to investigate how the CIA had employed her as an asset against me.

3 Karin, as you have seen, used to be good-looking before she became an old lady.

Strangely, three minutes later, the Homeland Security officer copied the chapter onto Microsoft Word:

216.81.81.82 - - [14/Jan/2014:14:12:31 -0700] "GET /1/knightmoietyexchange.jpg HTTP/1.1" 200 266321 "-" "Mozilla/4.0 (compatible; MSIE 7.0; Windows NT 6.1; Trident/6.0; SLCC2; .NET CLR 2.0.50727; .NET CLR 3.5.30729; .NET CLR 3.0.30729; InfoPath.3; MS-RTC LM 8; .NET4.0C; .NET4.0E; ms-office; MSOffice 14)"

What's going on here? We suggest this scenario. By this morning, the TMU had again informed the Secret Society women that they considered the Homeland Security warning about me to be incorrect – because there wasn't convincing evidence that I had plagiarized – so that there was still no stalking case. (Again, since the things I did were all insignificant and only became grave matters thanks to the Homeland Security warning and, to a lesser extent, Chaya's warning, I was no stalker unless these two warnings were considered to be correct.) This was devastating news to the Secret Society women. This is why they had been mobilizing volunteers this morning to brainstorm how to better report me for plagiarism. Then, after Angelica had discussed the matter with Homeland Security CO chief, the latter introduced her to his buddy at the Homeland Security headquarters. This Homeland Security officer at the headquarters agreed to help by forging evidence of my plagiarism (creating a copy of my chapter and then deleting the references therein) and turning it over to the TMU: "Detective, I'm an officer at the Department of Homeland Security headquarters in Washington DC. You have my word that the suspect did plagiarize and that this Homeland Security warning about him is correct. Here's a printout of his chapter. Look, he copied paragraphs and pictures from books without giving references...." What's amazing about this Homeland Security officer is that his IP address would later also show up on this Ed Dirt Report discussion forum:⁴

The screenshot shows a web browser window with several tabs. The active tab is titled "www.reddirtreport.com/node/30510/votes?page=1&sort=desc&order=Visitor". The main content area displays a poll titled "RESPONSIBILITY TO ADD FLUORIDE TO OUR DRINKING WATER?". Below the title are buttons for "View", "Results", and "Votes". A table lists recorded votes with columns for "Visitor", "Vote", and "Timestamp". The table contains six rows of data, with the last row highlighted in orange and showing the IP address "216.81.94.68". To the right of the poll is a sidebar with an advertisement for "DR. This volunteer was probably a friend of Angelo's. Discussing whether to add Angelo as well to the list of my victims?

Now, around this time (10:15 PM), I was ringing Peter's door bell. (Refer to the recording for tonight.) This time Peter decided to answer the call and open the door for me. This might not have been a surprise for him: Homeland Security CO chief might have informed Kiersten and Dr P that I would visit Peter again tonight and that “action was expected”. (It’s possible that Homeland Security CO chief had in fact instructed the Monkey to control me to engage in the “action” tonight as a way to save the Secret Society women’s case at the TMU.) Kiersten would then demonstrate her “psychic power” to Peter by predicting to him that I would show up at his door tonight and that, again, “action was expected”. My goal was to obtain Peter’s IP address. Peter wouldn’t let me go inside his house because – he obviously didn’t want me to see all the monitors for the CCTV cameras and to discover that he had wired up his entire neighborhood with surveillance cameras. I lied to him that I needed to go online to look up the address of the UCLA hospital nearby. He let me log onto his wireless network, and so I was able to obtain his IP address. I left his place on 10:28 PM (1:25:00). I then decided to collect damages nearby. Around 10:40 PM (1:36:00), I broke a xxxxxx at the xxxxxxxx store just a block away. Peter witnessed and recorded the whole episode. He was excited – it’s not clear whether Kiersten had exactly predicted the event to him beforehand – and immediately called up Carolyn. The news about the broken xxxxxx was certainly spreading among the Secret Society women and their volunteers in the next 30 minutes via the Secret Facebook Group: “Lawrence has broken a xxxxxx! Live Stream! Right after the police have rejected our case!”

30 minutes after the incident, the visits to my website continued. 11:12 PM, Comcast, Fort Collins, Colorado,

50.134.193.228 - - [15/Jan/2014:00:12:59 -0700] "GET /scientificenlightenment1/magicsquare.html HTTP/1.1" 200 25173 "https://www.google.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (iPhone; CPU iPhone OS 7_0_4 like Mac OS X) AppleWebKit/536.26 (KHTML, like Gecko) GSA/3.2.0.25255 Mobile/11B554a Safari/8536.25"

Could this be Gilbert? Had he gotten the news about the broken xxxxxx yet?

35 minutes after the incident, Carolyn and Peter decided to search for my blog. They now had new videos to turn over to the TMU to force them to reopen their case against me. Kiersten, knowing beforehand what would happen tonight, had come to stay with Carolyn. She reminded Carolyn to also submit more testimonies about my blog – how I expressed delusions on my blog about her and the rest of the Secret Society women. 11:15 PM, it was Carolyn:

98.154.49.50 - - [15/Jan/2014:00:15:35 -0700] "GET /blogs/2013/09/20/three-women-in-los-angeles-hired-a-hacker-totake-down-my-website-part-ii-google-seems-to-be-more-reliablethan-microsoft/ HTTP/1.1" 200 15169 https://www.google.com/ "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_8_5) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/31.0.1650.63 Safari/537.36"

This is the evidence to turn over tomorrow along with the Live Stream. It was probably posted next to the video of the broken xxxxxx on the Secret Facebook Group. 9 seconds later, Peter clicked on the link:

11:20 PM, it's Carolyn:

98.154.49.50 - - [15/Jan/2014:00:20:39 -0700] "GET /blogs/tag/kiersten-johnson/ HTTP/1.1" 200 204971 "https://www.google.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_8_5) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/31.0.1650.63 Safari/537.36"

Following Kiersten's instruction, Carolyn wanted to collect more evidences about my harassment of Kiersten on my blog to turn over to the TMU. (Again, Kiersten was dying to be recognized as my victim by law enforcement.) Two minutes later, Carolyn linked the blog post series from the Secret Facebook Group:

173.252.101.112 - - [15/Jan/2014:00:22:50 -0700] "GET /blogs/tag/kiersten-johnson/ HTTP/1.1" 200 204971 "-" "facebookexternalhit/1.1 (+http://www.facebook.com/externalhit_uatext.php)"

That's when Carolyn and Kiersten discovered my new post "Kiersten meets Angelica". (According to my impression, this is the first time that anyone among Kiersten's gang had ever seen this new blog post.) Carolyn and Kiersten began reading it, and were shocked by the fact that I had known about Kiersten's intrigue behind my back since the very beginning – and that I had known Carolyn had long ago also been involved with this. Then, 12:08 AM, it was Carolyn again – apparently she and Kiersten had spent 48 minutes reading the new blog post:

98.154.49.50 - - [15/Jan/2014:01:08:32 -0700] "GET /blogs/ HTTP/1.1" 200 188575 "https://www.google.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_8_5) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/31.0.1650.63 Safari/537.36"

Then the rest of the volunteers continued their work. 12:16 AM, pldt.net, Dipolog City, Philippines,

Was this volunteer asked to forge evidence of my plagiarism? It's indeed urgent to turn in more convincing evidence of my plagiarism since the TMU had just rejected their case on the ground that the Homeland Security warning about me wasn't correct because there wasn't definitive evidence that I did plagiarize.

15 January (Wednesday)

First, a note about myself. I didn't go home last night. After Peter's, I came back to Starbucks and discovered Peter's and Carolyn's visits to my blog. I then went to the UCLA Medical Center to check up on my illness. By early morning, I would go inside UCLA. More on this below. Something noteworthy is that, when I passed by Coffee Bean this morning, I ran into the man whom I had thought to be DGHTR. I chatted with him.

Kiersten must have been quite unhappy with the fact that I had known that she was involved with Angelica as early as February 2013 and felt embarrassed by my quotation from her self-introduction on her website (fatalalena). She would soon remove all content from her website. She was stupid enough to believe that people can actually identify her on my blog (as if anybody outside her organization would visit it).

Meanwhile, I was in UCLA library by 8 AM. I visited Kiersten's and Carolyn's Facebook pages on the UCLA computer. I filmed it all. A UCLA police officer soon showed up. Was he here to check on me? Did the TMU ask the UCLA Police Department to check on me as part of their investigation of me to disprove the Secret Society women's upcoming claims about me? After this, I would set out for Long Beach to meet with Dr G. I would be very sleepy all day. I would then collect some damages tonight.

Let's continue with the Secret Society women's operation. 8:09 AM,

There is then a large gap in my visitors' log: the log entries between 9:41 AM and 2:02 PM seem to have disappeared! Why? Or is it because the Secret Society women were all going to the TMU between 9 AM and 2 PM? Certainly, everybody had to be meeting with the TMU detectives some time today after what happened last night: Kiersten, Dr P, Karin, Angelica, Veronica, Carolyn, Peter – perhaps also the owners of the xxxxxxxx store whose xxxxxxxx was broken. Peter would certainly have talked to the store owners this morning: “This serial stalker is on Homeland Security’s watchlist and is also a serial vandalizer. He broke your xxxxxxxx last night, and we caught it on video. We already have a case against him at LAPD’s Threat Management Unit. We are going to report him now. Do you want to come along?” Other than the video, the Secret Society women would also have turned in the new evidences about my supposed plagiarism – the most important thing since this was the supposed reason why the TMU had refused to validate the Homeland Security warning about me and the Secret Society women’s status as “expert witnesses”. The gang now requested that all the previous claims (from Carolyn or Dr P or Dr R or Uncle Chad) be revived. Although the broken xxxxxxxx seemed like a serious business, the TMU detectives merely perfunctorily accepted the evidences and were already prepared to find reasons to dismiss this latest claim. They certainly would not arrest me for it – everyone knew that it was ultimately Homeland Security CO chief who was responsible for it. And they would never gratify him in any way.

Now, let’s come back to the log entries. 2:07 PM, SaudiNet, Riyadh,

The Secret Society women had obviously sent to this volunteer (a university student) the same link which they had sent to the volunteer from St Clair County Regional Educational Service Agency: “He has also violated his grandfather’s privacy....” By this time the Secret Society women should have returned to their base.

This is “Homeland Security Reality in Shanghai”. Was this volunteer using a proxy? Or was he a Chinese residing in Italy? It seems that, as soon as the Secret Society women had returned to base, they resumed mobilizing their volunteers to compile more testimonies to send to the TMU. (Did the TMU already look like they were not going to validate this latest claim?) This one was most likely another testimony about my schizophrenic delusion.

Testimony about finding violent videos on my website.

We can thus conclude that, after the Secret Society women had returned from their trip to the TMU, they immediately mobilized their volunteers to compose more testimonies to send to the detectives. It was especially important to compose more credible testimonies about my supposed plagiarism. But also more testimonies about my supposed insanity and seeing violent contents on my website. As noted, the Secret Society women must have got the impression from today's meeting that the TMU was not convinced that their profile of me was correct (especially that I was a plagiarizer) and that I constituted a danger to others due to my severe insanity.

16 January (Thursday)

First, a short note about myself. I woke up on 7 AM, unable to sleep further. I would be sleepy the whole day. I talked to Mr Jibri. Apparently the Medical Board had never talked to Dr R. I then came to the storage. I collected a little damages in the area: 4 N. Then, Bible study at St Sophia. Almost fell asleep. Went home. I slept around midnight.

Now the Secret Society women's operation. 4:40 AM, Pishgaman Kavir Yazd Cooperative, Iran, It's not clear whether this was related to the Secret Society women's operation.

In conclusion, the Secret Society women spent the day brainstorming how to submit better evidences or testimonies about my plagiarism to the TMU. But also about my insanity, harassment of Angelica, computer-hacking, and violation of Oliver's intellectual property rights. Jennifer Day continued to participate in the brainstorming.

17 January (Friday)

First, a note about myself. I woke up on 7:30 AM. I realized that Kiersten had created a secret Facebook group devoted to me.

On 10:57 AM, Irene finally replied to the email I sent her on 29 December. She claimed she used Comcast. Note also that she claimed she was living in Roseville. As you have seen, Irene had been using AT&T for many years. Did she change her ISP recently? Why did she suddenly decide to reply me? My immediate impression was that the Secret Society women had suddenly decided to instruct Irene to deceive me about her ISP (perhaps in order to hide from me the fact that Angelica had gone to stay with her last September). It's not clear whether I was right about this. My understanding of the current situation was still incorrect. This is manifested in my diary entry on this day:

Irene replied me on 10:57 AM, claiming she used Comcast. Apparently, after much discussion among the women's gang in the past two days, they decided not to send Peter to "get me", but to send Irene. Irene is trying to deceive me about her ISP (she used AT&T last year), which means that the police are involved. The police have read this diary and my draft story from Microsoft. Theory: on Monday, 13 January, the UCLA network administrator who was monitoring my activities on the Ubuntu machine from his UCLA residence, immediately checked out my site after I left. He still remembered me from his police recruitment last year to watch over me as a dangerous stalker, and he therefore contacted the police again, and Kiersten was notified by the police that I was cyberstalking her from the LUG lounge (looking at her Facebook page). On the morning of 14 January, the police thus sent in another UCLA police officer to confirm that I was cyberstalking Kiersten on Research Library's computers (looking at her Facebook page). The police thus obtained the right to review my documents in Sky Drive again.

You can also get a notion of my partly correct, partly incorrect understanding of the current operations against me by consulting the blog posts I wrote during this period.

Around noon, I was at Registrar Recorder's office looking up my "stalking victims" information. I was alarmed when there seemed to be a surveillance agent around watching over me (a vulgar guy wearing earphones). It's not clear whether my impression was correct. But, given my incorrect understanding of the time, I was prompted to assume (wrongly) that Kiersten's gang must have been notified by the TMU that I was "cyberstalking" them in the Registrar Recorder's office. In reality, even if I was really under surveillance, it could simply be part of the TMU's investigation to disprove the Secret Society women's stories about me (assuming this guy wasn't sent in by Homeland Security CO chief).

When I came home, I took a nap, and woke up around 8 PM. 9 PM, when I turned on my laptop, Word malfunctioned, and my writing was damaged (Third Run Summary-32). Angered.

I spent the night working in the Starbucks on Vermont and Prospect. Then I collected damages nearby. ATM (BA). 1 W, 2 B, several store fronts. 3 mirrors. Then around Union Station. 5 N. Then 2 B at LWLB. Several store fronts. 1 more limousine SUV.

Now the Secret Society women's operation. 6:02 AM, Comcast, Minneapolis,

Two comments. First of all, the actions of the Kiel volunteer and the Trieste volunteer earlier today seem to suggest that, by 11 AM, the TMU had again informed the Secret Society women that they had decided to dismiss the latter's new, 15 January claim on the ground that the Homeland Security warning about me was incorrect because there wasn't convincing evidence that I had plagiarize. Again! And so the Secret Society women spent the rest of the day brainstorming how to convince the TMU that I did plagiarize as well as hack people's computers and place Angelica's naked picture on my website and so on. In reality, the TMU had dismissed the claim on the basis of the inside information which Jennifer Day had provided. This inside information ("fraud") the CIA would of course intercept into the ICJ as evidence that the Homeland Security warnings about me were incorrect (not just that I didn't fit the profile, but that the Secret Society women weren't "expert witnesses").

Second, something was going on tonight because there were no visits between 8:30 and 11:40 PM. Since I planned to go to the Linux Install Fest tomorrow, Homeland Security CO chief must have informed the Secret Society women what I planned to do tomorrow. It's then expected that the Secret Society women would spend the night conferencing with Aamoy and his LUG gang about how to deal with me. "He will come to the Install Fest tomorrow, believe me, I know him" – thus would Kiersten once again demonstrate her "psychic power" and "expertise on my criminal psychology".

18 January (Saturday)

First, a short note about myself. 2 AM, I came back to downtown. I ate at IHOP. Out, 3:30 AM, and just missed the bus. Upset, I broke a bottle at Casey's (color, urine). I then missed the bus again. Extreme anger. I rode the taxi home, it cost me 10 dollars. ATM and 1 B (parking lot).

4 AM, when I was switching Youtube account, there was a strange pop-up which made me believe (erroneously) that the police needed confirmation in order to subpoena my Google records. (To protect Kiersten as my "stalking victim".) Again, I failed to comprehend that Kiersten's gang was going nowhere with the TMU.

I woke up 11 AM, angered over police protection of Kiersten as my "stalking victim" (Youtube pop-up, and Irene's email to lure me to confirm my Gmail account). I didn't know I was all wrong.

More comments about myself later.

By now I had come to the LUG lounge. Refer to the recording for this afternoon. I explained to everyone there that there was an “unknown university network administrator” who was monitoring my computer activities at the LUG lounge and that he had reported me to the police for looking at Kiersten's Facebook page, allowing Kiersten to file a stalking claim against me (from 3:05:00 onward). Again, this scenario was half-wrong (there was no new stalking claim being accepted). But everyone of course knew that I was talking about Aamoy and that Kiersten was indeed here on the 13th. Because the LUG buddies pretended not to believe me, I told them that “the police had told me so”. By this time, Kiersten and Karin must have come to Aamoy's place in UCLA Residence to monitor me in secret. Aamoy had already known about the broken xxxxxx since he had seen the Live Stream on the Secret Facebook Group. Kiersten and Karin then explained the latest development to Aamoy: how they had gone to the TMU on the 15th, and yet how the TMU had refused to validate their claim again! “The detectives have ignored all our volunteers' complaints in the past two days! They said again that this Homeland Security warning is invalid because he didn't plagiarize!” Not knowing why the police were so strangely “incompetent” – purposely ignoring crime in progress – Aamoy was indignant. Seizing upon the opportunity, Kiersten continued. She made up more stories about how I had lusted after her and stalked her, and how, when I couldn't have her, took vengeance on her by bad-mouthing about her on my blog and so on. She then connected the made-up story with the latest episode where she discovered my new blog post “Kiersten meets Angelica”: how she was so disturbed and embarrassed that she had to remove her own website. She reported it all to the TMU, and yet – even though this guy was on official TMU and Homeland Security warnings as a “stalker” – the TMU refused to consider her a victim of his stalking. This guy was just so bad: he went around the neighborhood placing nails on the road and breaking people's xxxxxxx and then stalked women and slandered them on his blog – and yet the police just wouldn't care! Aamoy had completely bought into Kiersten's lies. Kiersten had portrayed me in such an evil light, herself as such an innocent victim, and the TMU detectives as such incompetent sexists, that Aamoy had practically fallen in love with her and was now willing to sacrifice himself for her: even though she was fat. (Besides the fact that Kiersten was twice his age.) This was certainly the happiest day of Kiersten's life – to have a young guy willing to die for her. Kiersten's only talent – her filthy, bullshitting mouth – was truly incredible at times! When she opened her mouth, the filthiest shit would fly out to mesmerize all the people around. It was really the Live Stream from the night of the 14th which had done the trick: if this guy had broken somebody's xxxxxx, then of course he must have stalked Kiersten. Who could have thought that reality was in fact the opposite: that it was Kiersten who had stalked this xxxxxx-breaker! Karin also helped in by validating Kiersten's lies: as long as it was about mobilizing people to “get me”, she couldn't care less whether Kiersten was telling the truth or lying. Both Kiersten and Karin were duping Aamoy like a dumb mother-fucker. Aamoy could never have imagined that even the whole xxxxxx-breaking business was staged, that it was these two women's best friend in Homeland Security who had controlled this guy to break the xxxxxx, that these two women, who claimed to be helpless victims of this guy's evil acts, had in fact total control over him in that their Homeland Security best-friend had chips planted inside his brain and that they could request their best-friend to control him to “victimize” them in any way they wished.

And so, Aamoy was now determined to help Kiersten rectify the injustice she had suffered with the TMU and ban my website – this website which had been tormenting her. Later tonight, after hearing Kiersten's heart-wrenching stories, Aamoy would begin mobilizing his LUG buddies to probe my website.

Now, let's come back to my website. It was presumably Angelica who was directing the operation on my website while Kiersten and Karin were passing the night with Aamoy. 5:05 PM,

A short note about me. Around 10 PM, when I was at the LAX bus center, I was detained by the police for urinating on the street. One of the officers looked very familiar. I wrongly assumed that the police were trying to ascertain my identity in order to validate Kiersten's status as my stalking victim. I then collected damages in MRNA: 9 N. 1 W (shattered). 4 mirrors/ sides. Several store fronts. Then SM: 1 W (HMO), 3 mirrors (1 WF), 3 B (URG).

12:21 AM, Aamoy sent me an email requesting me to share the “David Chin document” with him:

Kiersten's Vengeance, 4
Lawrence C. Chin,
Jul. – Oct. 2018; revised, Jul. 2021

This is the David Chin document inside my Google DOC:

Kiersten's Vengeance, 4
Lawrence C. Chin,
Jul. – Oct. 2018; revised, Jul. 2021

You recall that I wrote this document in late 2009 as a joke (as a satire of the United States' profile of me). Angelica and Kiersten had found it some time ago and, tonight, Kiersten showed it to Aamoy. This could further accentuate their profile of me as being in the habit of using the Internet to broadcast strange bullshit as a way to wreck havoc in other people's lives. Not knowing how this document had come about, Aamoy was indignant. Aamoy wanted to turn it over to the police as evidence justifying the Homeland Security warning about me and why I should be banned from the Internet. But he needed a confirmation from me that it was indeed my document (since my name was nowhere to be found on it). Aamoy had now developed a plan for Kiersten: since the TMU had decided to ignore Kiersten's plea, he would try out the UCLA Police Department. The UCLA Police Department would ban my website instead of the TMU (so that, without Aamoy's understanding, Homeland Security CO chief could intercept a favorable evidence into the ICJ).

Around the same time, the Hong Kong volunteer linked the front page of my website from the Secret Facebook Group:

Apparently Aamoy and his LUG buddies had another friend in Long Beach who was also part of tonight's discussion. As you shall see, I would later nickname him the "Pomona volunteer". He checked out my website too after hearing Kiersten's new horror story. 12:24 AM, Karin directed Aamoy to one of my old blog posts about her:

Karin was recounting to Aamoy again my past obsession with her. Less than a minute later, Aamoy clicked on:

This appears to be a proxy. Evidently, another LUG buddy was examining my “bizarre delusions” after hearing tonight’s horror stories. Then, 12:36 AM, Aamoy came back to Karin’s email correspondence with me:

Meanwhile, the Digital Ocean LUG buddy searched for:

At the same time, Karin directed Aamoy to these old recordings from early 2008:

34 seconds later, Aamoy listened to one of the recordings:

38 seconds later, he listened to a second recording:

He was looking for more bizarre materials which he could turn over to the UCLA Police Department as evidences. At the same time, the Digital Ocean LUG buddy was examining my Prison Planet postings and clicked on one of the links:

198.199.123.18 - - [19/Jan/2014:01:38:06 -0700] "GET /blogs/2013/09/25/four-women-try-to-take-down-my-website-part-4-the-current-homeland-security-investigation-of-me-as-a-terrorist-suspect/ HTTP/1.1" 200 27154 "http://forum.prisonplanet.com/index.php?topic=229794.0" "Mozilla/5.0 (X11; Linux x86_64) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/31.0.1650.63 Safari/537.36"

12:39 AM, he did a search for the most problematic blog post:

198.199.123.18 - - [19/Jan/2014:01:39:42 -0700] "GET /blogs/2013/09/15/three-women-in-los-angeles-hired-a-hacker-in-hong-kong-to-hack-my-website-can-you-believe-this/ HTTP/1.1" 200 33815

12:43 AM, after listening to Karin and Kiersten explaining the blog post for almost four minutes, he clicked on the tag "LUG":

198.199.123.18 - - [19/Jan/2014:01:43:13 -0700] "GET /blogs/tag/ucla-linux-user-group/ HTTP/1.1" 200 42266 "http://www.lawrencechin2011.com/blogs/author/admin/page/2/" "Mozilla/5.0 (X11; Linux x86_64) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/31.0.1650.63 Safari/537.36"

He was surprised to discover that there was a recording embedded in the blog post. Within 50 seconds, he listened to it:

This was more evidence to turn over to the police! This guy had not only violated these poor women's privacy, but also their own! The news spread among Aamoy's LUG gang. Within a minute, a third LUG buddy checked out the recording (voxility.net, Ashburn, Virginia)

By this time, the HK Hacker had become involved. Somehow he was able to connect to the UCLA dormitory's network and use it as proxy to come to my website.

Aamoy had adopted the Secret Society women's Modus Operandi: the first step, create a cache of the target website! (The cache was presumably destined to the UCLA Police.)

1:57 AM, belairinternet.com, Los Angeles,

Apparently, one of the Secret Society women's volunteers, while in communication with the women and their LUG friends, was revisiting the problem of how to locate and recruit Ms Kudo.

2:05 AM, Aamoy also began examining the content of the 2012 folder:

2:06 AM, he decided to link one of the images from the Secret Facebook Group:

2:09 AM, a sixth LUG buddy was also looking into the 2012 folder:

2:13 AM, Aamoy listened to another recording in the 2012 folder:

2:20 AM, the third LUG buddy was now searching for “LAPD” on my blog:

Apparently the LUG buddies now got hold of one of their buddies living in San Jose: “Hey, guess what, we have this serial stalker here who’s on Homeland Security’s watchlist, he’s stalking these women,

2:48 AM, after examining the blog post series for four minutes, the San Jose buddy clicked on:

2:55 AM, the third LUG buddy linked the folder 2012 from the Secret Facebook Group:

69.171.237.15 - - [19/Jan/2014:03:55:36 -0700] "GET /2012 HTTP/1.1" 301 565 "-" "facebookexternalhit/1.1 (+http://www.facebook.com/externalhit_uatext.php)"

This whole folder could be the damning evidence! I had kept pictures of my wounds therein. Aamoy then made sure the link would work:

2:56 AM, the San Jose buddy got word that this folder "2012" was full of objectionable materials and came to check on it himself:

Around 4 AM or so, when I had already returned home, I noticed that Aamoy and his LUG buddies had been on my website in the past few hours. I assumed correctly that they were helping Kiersten's gang to go after me, although my scenario was vague and half-wrong. I immediately posted a comment on my blog as my reply to Aamoy (or the "UCLA Network Administrator" according to my understanding of the time):

He hadn't slept at all! He had been discussing me with Kiersten and Karin the whole night. Note that he was now using the other IP address of UCLA Residence. Kiersten and Karin directed him to "Feefee and Valerie".

Meanwhile, concerned about Aamoy's action, by 7 AM, I posted a new blog post: "Correction... The UCLA Linux User Group..." Although I didn't yet understand completely correctly what Kiersten was doing with Aamoy, I understood enough to know that the LUG buddies were going to become a major part of Kiersten's gang's upcoming operation against me. I thus felt the need to correct the errors in the 25 October blog post. My correction was still not the correct scenario – and I had yet to identify the "UCLA Network Administrator" as Aamoy – but at least I was coming closer to the truth.

7:15 AM, the LUG buddies were accessing the Secret Facebook Group:

This “Pomona” volunteer – a buddy of Aamoy’s – was here 9 hours ago, if you recall. He was using his Android phone earlier, but now he was on his computer. He was here checking out the links on the Secret Facebook Group. 16 seconds later, he clicked on my blog:

He had discovered my latest blog post about Aamoy and his LUG buddies. For him, as for the rest of the LUG crowd, I was probably just uttering garbage. It’s not clear whether they even understood that the “unknown UCLA network administrator” referred to Aamoy. Besides this, the LUG crowd were going to the police to ask them to ban my website: my guess wasn’t entirely correct and it’s unlikely that the LUG buddies could comprehend what I was doing (“guessing”). All they saw was that this schizophrenic was now further developing his delusions about them.

He was searching “dog sex picture” and had somehow arrived at my blog post even though it had nothing to do with “dog” nor with “sex”. It was the sort of trick which Homeland Security CO chief had taught the Secret Society women’s volunteers. Probably a false report about finding sick pornographic materials on my website.

This was evidently another buddy of Aamoy’s. It’s not clear whether he was really in France or whether he was using a proxy based in France. The word was spreading that I had developed bizarre delusions about the LUG people.

Had he at least taken a nap? He was last here around 7 AM. Presumably, Kiersten and Karin had returned home some time between 7 and 8 AM. Aamoy could then have taken a four-hour nap. (While he was sleeping, his LUG buddies continued to discuss me and my blog among themselves.) He must have just awakened. He immediately turned on his computer and checked my blog post series about his gang.

This was another friend of the LUG buddies who was located in the San Francisco Bay area.

12:41 PM, Aamoy clicked on the recording again:

12:42 PM, another LUG buddy also listened to the recording: lightspeed.irvnca.sbcglobal.net, Beverly Hills, California,

108.214.81.68 - - [19/Jan/2014:13:42:24 -0700] "GET /2012/IMPLinuxusersouthwstrn_10_24_13_235-628PM.MP3 HTTP/1.1" 200 140276448 "-" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10.6; rv:26.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/26.0"

We have seen this person on 5 November, 3:32 PM. We assume that this was a LUG buddy and not Chaya.⁵ Around the same time, the fifth LUG buddy.

The Beverly Hills LUG buddy then clicked on the problematic blog post series:

108.214.81.68 - - [19/Jan/2014:13:43:08 -0700] "GET /blogs/tag/ucla-linux-user-group/ HTTP/1.1"

⁵ While his MAC OS was 10.6.8, when he used Firefox it would show up as 10.06. This is a problem when using Firefox on MAC.

We can be sure of this. Aamoy was going to the UCLA Police Department soon. He was discussing with Kiersten and Angelica what to report to the police: “Say he has put up on his blog the recording of his conversation in the LUG lounge. He recorded the conversation without permission. This is violation of everybody’s privacy. Then say he has also put up pictures of his wounds on his blog. He cuts himself when he thinks about us and is a danger both to himself and to others.” Aamoy also wanted to turn in the “David Chin document”, but, since I didn’t reply him, he was unable to obtain a confirmation that it was my document.

The Secret Society women's other volunteers were still discussing my violation of intellectual property laws. Were Aamoy and his gang going to bring this up as well?

At the same time, Aamoy clicked on the blog post series again:

1:40 PM, the fifth LUG buddy also listened to the recording:

This volunteer was examining my “delusion” about Khalezov. The LUG buddies must have been informed that I also broadcast on my blog my delusions about famous people.

Presumably, while the other volunteers called in as well to report that I had also violated intellectual property laws on my website, this North Carolina volunteer (Kenny?) was calling in to report that I had also violated Robin's privacy by placing her portrait on my website without her consent. Just as I had placed Angelica's naked picture on my web gallery! And then that my web gallery was full of pornographic paintings and drawings stolen from other people. All this means of course that, as usual, Aamoy had brought with him a copy of the Homeland Security warning about me and showed it to the UCLA Police detective, upon which he would have to explain my harassment of Kiersten, Angelica, and Karin and so on since the warning had listed them as "expert witnesses", and then insist that I also plagiarized and developed delusions about famous people since the whole purpose was to obtain a third-party confirmation of every characteristic attributed to me on the warning.

This was the “Pomona” associate of the LUG buddies who was just here earlier in the morning. (It’s not clear what happened to the IP address trace.) He was also calling in to make his report. 7 seconds later, he came to my blog:

Was this related to the Secret Society women's operation?

By this time, Aamoy and his friend should have finished their reporting and left the UCLA Police Department. Although unaware of what Aamoy was doing, I was nevertheless alarmed by so many visits to the 24 October recording. Around this time, I removed the recording from the 2012 folder.

9:57 PM, the Mollerussa volunteer continued:

While Aamoy's crowd was brainstorming whether the pictures of my wounds were ground enough for obliging the UCLA Police to suppress my website, this Mollerussa volunteer was brainstorming how to convince law enforcement that I was indeed a plagiarizer.

10:03 PM, another LUG buddy using a proxy came to examine my blog:

Within a minute, he came to my latest blog post about the LUG operation:

This is certainly the Secret Society women's volunteer. The Russian intelligence or Ekaterina's gang had recommended a scientist to the Secret Society women for making more credible false reports about my plagiarism.

Another friend of the LUG buddies living in Orange County had got word of what was happening and logged into the Secret Facebook Group. He clicked on the link to the folder /2012/. Both Aamoy and the new LUG buddy were then checking over the images inside /2012/.

The new LUG buddy also listened to the recordings inside the folder:

Then a particular image that was linked from the Secret Facebook Group:

71.21.4.216 - - [20/Jan/2014:01:29:02 -0700] "GET /2012/83112-17.png HTTP/1.1" 200 487583 "http://www.facebook.com/l.php?u=http%3A%2F%2Flawrencechin2011.com%2F2012%2F83112-17.png&h=9AQG2A-E8" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.3; WOW64; rv:26.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/26.0"

Most likely a picture of my wound. It's not clear whether Aamoy and his crowd had already noticed that the 24 October recording had disappeared.

Meanwhile, tonight, I was collecting damages in RDNDO: 6 B. Seaside (SP). 1 mirror. 1 W. 2 N.

On 12:31 AM, Aamoy sent me an email:

Hi Mr. Chin,

It is with regret that I must inform you that you are no longer welcome in the Linux Users Group, physically in the LUG lounge, online in any groups or discussions, or at

Kiersten's Vengeance, 4
Lawrence C. Chin,
Jul. – Oct. 2018; revised, Jul. 2021

any group sanctioned events.

The reason for this is your behavior in the lounge, which has made several students uncomfortable. Specifically, you ask students to help you cyberstalk women, or visitors to your website. We have also discovered that you violated our privacy by taking unauthorized recordings of Linux Users Group members using your laptop, or another recording device.

On a more personal note, your accusing me and other LUG members of being DHS agents sent to harm you is slanderous, and libel. I demand that you remove all mention of LUG, as well as its constituent members from your website, and delete all data and recordings that you have. You do not have permission to post about us in such a manner.

Please be advised that we have notified the police, and sent them posts from your blog, including audio recordings, other unauthorized public filming, and photos. Also be aware that your presence on or near the LUG lounge, LUG activities, or LUG members, on or off UCLA campus will result in your immediate arrest. Any further posting or data collection regarding myself, or LUG, will be met with police action and/or lawsuits.

I would discover the email hours later. It is important to discuss here what might have been the result of Aamoy's visit to the UCLA Police Department this afternoon. When I later checked with the UCLA Police Department, there would be no records about Aamoy's complaint about me today, nor at any other time. What was going on? Even under normal circumstances, Aamoy would have difficulty in persuading the police to allow him to make a police report. Recording one's conversation with others and putting pictures of body wounds on one's website do not amount to criminal acts. (And the police would certainly regard the "David Chin document" as completely irrelevant.) On the other hand, if the TMU had indeed linked up with UCLA Police in investigating me and the Secret Society women, they would certainly have told the UCLA police officers to ignore Aamoy's complaint – in order to obstruct Mr Homeland Security CO chief's plan. Thus, what had most likely happened this afternoon was that the officer to whom Aamoy reported me simply dismissed the whole claim and didn't even enter it into the system. He must have told Aamoy that that Homeland Security warning was garbage so that there was no case to be made here. Now one way to get the police's attention was to turn in the video of my breaking people's xxxxxxxx, since that was a criminal act. But it was likely the case that Kiersten had asked Aamoy not to reveal to the UCLA Police that she and a bunch of other women (under the direction of their Homeland Security friend) had already been tracking this guy's vandalism spree around town and were live-streaming the videos of his criminal acts on a secret Facebook group devoted to him so that thousands of people from around the world can follow the show. Kiersten must have decided that this should be kept a secret from the UCLA police.

Whatever the UCLA Police had told Aamoy, Aamoy clearly had the inkling that the officer was not very interested in what he had presented. From 7 PM onward, he was discussing this problem with the rest of the LUG buddies. Since Aamoy was under Kiersten's spell, he was determined to ban my website. He and his LUG buddies spent the whole night discussing the pictures of my wounds in the 2012 folder since that was the only "violent content" which could justify the suppression of my website. At the same time, the other LUG buddies didn't want me to keep blogging about them and the "UCLA network administrator". And so Aamoy decided to write an email to warn me. The plan seemed to be that, if I ignored the "general ban" and showed up any way, there would then be justification for the UCLA Police to arrest me and remove my website. A warning beforehand was necessary for this plan to work.

The purpose was thus (as it seems) to ban my website without letting me know that it is Kiersten and the other Secret Society women who were pulling the strings from behind the scene. It must have been Karin who had come up with this plan. Karin was fond of this game of "clandestine operation" typical of intelligence agencies – to use proxies to ruin your target so that your target will be a "dummy" (not knowing what has hit him and why). The plan would fail, because I would never go near any LUG functions again – although I would continue to blog about LUG buddies' operations against me in the coming month. It was probably because the Secret Society women planned to use Aamoy and his LUG buddies to accuse me in the open that they had decided to conceal the broken xxxxxx from the UCLA Police: when the UCLA Police should come to arrest me, they would have to show me the evidences against me. The Secret Society women did not want me to know that they had created a secret Facebook group to gossip about me behind my back and that they had been live-streaming my vandalism crimes on there.

It might be that Homeland Security CO chief was directing Karin from behind the scene to run this operation with Aamoy. If I was arrested and my website banned, this would be evidence favorable to him in the International Court of Justice – that the Secret Society women's profile of me was correct after all – and the previous ICJ trial could be permanently locked up.

It is because Aamoy had to conceal from me his connections with Kiersten and Karin in the past few days that he made up this story about how "my behavior had made his LUG buddies uncomfortable" and so on. As you can hear from the recordings, nobody had expressed any discomfort with me during my time in the LUG lounge or during the Install Fest, and it was Jacqueline who had suggested that I create a new Facebook account to access Kiersten's Facebook. Aamoy needed to create a reason to explain why he and his gang detested me so that I would not know that it was because he had seen the "live stream" and heard Kiersten's made-up stories about me that he suddenly hated me. His email did not dupe me. I immediately knew that he was covering for Kiersten. It's simply obvious that, were it not for Kiersten and Karin, Aamoy would never even notice me. Nobody paid any attention to me, and nobody would even discover my blog, let alone the fact that I had recorded anybody. Certainly nobody would have cared whether I had tried to access anyone's Facebook on the LUG's computers. Accusing me of recording conversations with my laptop and falsely accusing them of being DHS agents also immediately betrayed to me the fact that Aamoy and his LUG buddies had been talking to the Secret Society women about me. I always recorded my conversations with my recorder, but Angelica, because I had once used the webcam on my computer in the Law Library, had always the impression that I used my laptop to record people. Aamoy must have also been persuaded by Karin that, due to suffering from paranoiac schizophrenia, I always believed the people around me to be government agents. But in the end it must be Homeland Security CO chief who had ordered Aamoy to deny to me that he had had anything to do with Homeland Security: “The subject of the investigation must not be tipped off that he is currently under investigation” – as if Homeland Security were really investigating me!

Lawrence C. Chin,

Now, back to LUG buddies' operation. 12:34 AM, three minutes after he sent me the email, Aamoy checked out my blog again:

20 January (Monday; Karin's meetup)

Just a short note about myself for today. 4:30 AM, my Asus computer malfunctioned massively. The entire computer froze and buzzed indefinitely. Extreme anger. Rebooted it. My diary was destroyed. Recovered. I wasted 30 minutes.

Homeland Security CO chief would instruct the Monkey to severely torture me today – evidently because he failed to intercept favorable evidence yesterday into the ICJ – but I shall not discuss it any further.

Now, the Secret Society women's operation. 4:47 AM,

Cantab is an investment firm based in Cambridge. Apparently the LUG buddies had also a friend in Cambridge, to whom they had communicated the latest happening and sent the link to my blog.

7:21 AM, Aamoy was examining the 2012 folder again:

Around 9:50 AM, I was posting a new blog post: "New series: the unknown UCLA network administrator will help Kiersten's gang suppress this website." I posted my understanding at the time of what had happened in the past few days. As you can see, my understanding was half-correct and half-wrong. Now this "self-fulfilling prophecy" had been extended to Aamoy and his LUG crew: the more they visited my blog to complain about my blogging about them, the more I blogged about their visiting my blog to complain about my blogging about them.

As you have seen, as soon as Aamoy woke up, the entire LUG gang was discussing me. By now Kiersten had also joined in on Aamoy's discussion with his crowd. This must be the Secret Society women's volunteer here to brainstorm how to report me for plagiarism. While the Secret Society women were discussing my blog with Aamoy's LUG crowd on the one hand, they were talking to other volunteers on the other hand about my supposed plagiarism. It's all because, again, the UCLA Police detective had said he didn't see any convincing evidence that I had plagiarized.

He had apparently moved to another part of the campus between 8:40 and 9:20 PM. Was he meeting with some other UCLA authority to discuss the matter? "There is this serial stalker and vandalizer with a blog... he's on Homeland Security's watchlist and yet the police refuse to do anything about him..."

It thus seems to be the case that, after discussing with his LUG buddies for the whole afternoon and during early evening, Aamoy went to another authority in the campus to report the matter to him. That was 9:20 PM. The problem was that his case against me was just too weak, even without the intervention of the TMU. And so, after 11:30 PM, the LUG buddies were discussing the situation again. They continued to visit my website looking for materials with which to strengthen their case. Karin had of course warned the LUG buddies that I checked my visitors' log regularly and would identify their visits, which is why so many of them used proxies or TOR. Aamoy had consistently ignored the warning and never used proxies probably because he looked down on me: Kiersten and Karin had completely convinced him that I was insane and couldn't distinguish left from right, and so he didn't think it necessary to hide his tracks from somebody who was so confused.

Meanwhile, Karin was at her Any Language and Culture meetup tonight: 7 PM, Fiesta Grande, and then the movie "The Past". The pictures she would later upload to meetup.com (25 January) show that 7 people had attended. Presumably she had attended the movie event too after Fiesta Grande so that, until 10 PM, she didn't take part in Aamoy's discussion tonight.

In this reconstruction I have made no mention of the enormous desire I felt during this time to understand what exactly Kiersten and her gang were doing behind my back. I had yet to learn how to reconstruct her gang's operations on me from their and their volunteers' visits to my website. As noted, I wasted a lot of time and effort running to various places (Carolyn's office, Peter's residence, Dr P's home) trying to get some clues. My problem has always been that nobody would ever communicate anything to me. Other people's common reality is always the greatest secret for me. The Secret Society women and their volunteers would never let me know how I had offended them and of what crimes they were accusing me to the police. Aamoy and his LUG buddies, when they heard Kiersten's bad stories about me, would never bother to notify me or check with me to see whether the stories they had heard were true. I have had to reconstruct everything from my visitors' log and from other clues that were available. The problem was that it would take me three to four years before I could finally acquire the necessary skills to be able to reconstruct what had happened more or less correctly from these difficult clues. In the meantime, I would come up with many wrong theories to explain what Kiersten's gang was doing and who was controlling me to commit vandalism crimes and why. And yet all this (at least Kiersten's gang's actions) was just common knowledge among all the people who were involved in this community vigilantism enterprise. This was really the cause of my "insanity" or "delusions": the inability to gain access to information which everybody else took for granted, so that I had had to guess and, when guessing wrong, look ridiculous and "crazy" to everyone else. To use an analogy: imagine that there is this one person who is prevented by society from knowing what has happened on 911. He notices that there is a sudden increase in security measures everywhere he goes. He doesn't understand why, is mystified, and so devises all sorts of (wrong) theories to explain it all: "There is a conspiracy among all government agencies...." He then tells everyone about his (wrong) theories, and everyone laughs instead of explaining to him straightforwardly that, really, what has happened is that Washington DC and New York suffered terrorist attacks many years ago. Everyone simply makes fun of him for being "insane". This was exactly my situation. In the previous round, it was government agencies from different countries which had conspired to keep what they were doing to me a secret from me so that my wrong (or not entirely correct) guesses about what had happened could make me look crazy, in this round, to these ordinary people involved in Kiersten's enterprise who hadn't even heard anything about what had happened, let alone being in a position to judge what I had guessed right and what I had guessed wrong. Now, in this round, it was Homeland Security CO chief and all the tens of thousands of people who were involved in Kiersten's enterprise against me who had conspired to keep what they were doing to me a secret from me so that they could use my wrong guesses about what was going on as evidence that I suffered from paranoid schizophrenia. (You shall see later on how the Secret Society women used my wrong guesses about their operations against me to convince their volunteers and district attorneys and so on that I was insane.) Thus was my predicament: while everyone else knew what Kiersten and her gang were doing behind my back, I was the only person not allowed to know. I suffered from "artificially created delusional state of mind". Although all the people who were involved in the Secret Society women's enterprise against me had conspired to make me look crazy, none of them could really understand that I was in fact not insane and only looked insane thanks to them – they could not understand that this guy was not really insane even though they themselves had created this insanity because everyone was too stupid to have any understanding of how the human mind makes inferences in an attempt to understand reality. This is decisively different from the experts inside the CIA such as the Invisible Hand. The Secret Society women could never convince the TMU that I was insane because the CIA was teaching the TMU detectives that this guy was simply trying hard to understand the things kept secret from him – just as they could never convince the TMU detectives that I was dangerous because the CIA had known me for a long time and told the TMU detectives I wasn't really dangerous.

Then, to make the matter worse for me, the Secret Society women's Homeland Security friend was controlling me (via Angelica's father) to conform to their false profile of me. Since the profile could be summarized as "dangerous" and "delusional", I must look delusional and act as if I were dangerous. Homeland Security CO chief continued to inflict pain on me via the chips inside my brain in order to prompt me to continue my vandalism spree. (In the foregoing, as noted, I have decided not to spend time describing much of the torture which Homeland Security CO chief had instructed the Monkey to inflict upon me during this period – besides the few instances of computer malfunctioning.) This is my situation: people want me to be bad and delusional; people want me to be bad so much that they deem it necessary to implant chips inside my brain in order to control me to commit crimes – so that I can be "bad" at long last. Who are these people? Before it was the Monkey; now it was Homeland Security CO chief and the Secret Society women as well as the Monkey. Homeland Security CO chief then did his best to make me look even more delusional by controlling my thought-process and instructing the people around me to convey false messages to me to deceive me into wrong scenarios. All so that the Secret Society women and their several tens of thousands of volunteers from around the world can create a big hype about me: There is this insane and dangerous serial stalker and vandalizer! Shu! Don't let him know that we are tracking him!

Homeland Security CO chief and the Secret Society women essentially controlled me as their “pet project”. They had chips inside my brain, had total control over me, controlled me to commit vandalism crimes, and shut down my access to information so that, as a “dummy”, I could look delusional. They then created their community vigilantism enterprise over me so that, while they retained total control over me, they could exterminate me using law enforcement mechanism – so that, in the end, it would like as if it were my own fault. Thus, this community vigilantism was in fact a classic instance of government-sponsored gang-stalking. Beside the fact that the CIA had a dispute over me with Homeland Security CO chief in the International Court of Justice, it's certainly because the TMU had seen through this pernicious game which the Secret Society women were playing with their Homeland Security friends that they persistently refused to respond to their complaints about me.

Meanwhile, I continued to actualize the purpose of my life, which is to allow other people to make up bad stories about me. The first time it's the government, now it's a group of women with their Homeland Security friends. In fact, my problem is that I have been a target of Homeland Security Department's clandestine operational team on and off since 2006. It's Homeland Security CO chief who was directing the Secret Society women's operation against me from behind the scene.

I was surprised by the fact that, after I had written so much (my theories, my stories) and put them up on my website, people such as Aamoy's crowd were ever only interested in these insignificant appendixes such as my blog and the folder where I kept some insignificant pictures. This is because it is only by focusing on these insignificant contents I had created on the side that they were able to create the image of me as “violent” and “delusional” and “perpetually putting up garbage on the Internet” – what they would like me to be. It is from episodes like these that I have learned that people's description and judgment of things is only a reflection of the level of their own intelligence, rather than of the nature of the things described and judged. Thus, everyone sees me as a dangerous and insane criminal with Antisocial Personality Disorder not because this is my true nature but because this is all that people can understand. And also because this is all that people have the patience to discover. This is an important insight which would subsequently color all my perception of people and society. Whenever I observe people expressing, and being convinced of, such ordinary wisdom as “America is a rape culture” and other forms of mass hysteria (Massenbetrug), I would always keep in mind that people believe these things because this is what they can understand and have the patience to discover rather than because these things are true.⁶

6 You might object to this insight by citing from my earlier analysis: people have expected me to be violent and delusional and disgusting in all these extraordinary ways because they have seen the Homeland Security warning about me and are not used to the idea that a democratic government could be lying to its people all the time. But no. The problem is that people want to believe that this Homeland Security warning about me is true because, again, that's all that they can understand. You will see later on that, when many people are finally confronted with the fact that this warning is speaking the opposite of reality, they do not necessarily change their opinion of me – just as the victims of my vandalism, when forced to realize that it is in fact Homeland Security and the Secret Society women who have remotely controlled me to break their windows, will still hate me and worship Homeland Security and the Secret Society women as their saviors. Most people, especially women, want to believe that there are misogynist rapists

This particular common wisdom is especially relevant here. While working on this reconstruction⁷ I was particularly touched by the stories about the witch hunt hysteria from several centuries ago.⁸ That was another episode where people chased after imaginary evils simply because that was all they could understand. Stupid people are dangerous because you can never be sure what evil they will concoct out of their head and project onto you so as to go after you.⁹ We witness the same thing happening repeatedly throughout history – human nature never changes. But the witch hunt business is especially relevant here because of the defense mechanism which the hysteria has set up to preempt debunking: to deny the existence of witches at the time was to invite charges of trying to conceal the conspiracy. Today, to take a book of denial such as Hanna Rosin's The End of Men in hand and claim that women are in fact doing ever better and that violent crimes against them have been declining for decades is to invite charges that one is doing patriarchy's task in concealing the oppression of women. Today, to tell the truth about Kiersten is also to invite charges from the "mainstream people" that one is trying to perpetuate the patriarchy's task in denying the reality of women's oppression by blaming the victims and claiming that the victims have wanted it. As has been hinted at, the truth about Kiersten is simply this: she wanted to be stalked because that would compensate her feeling of inferiority. In her life she had always been the one who was obsessed with a guy and stalking the guy, and she took this to mean that she was inferior, that she was unattractive and that the man was superior and so attracted her rather than the other way round. For once she wanted the role to be reversed: she wanted to be the one who was desired rather than the one who was desiring. The Jewish guy she was obsessed with before was undeniably superior to her, but, because I was ugly, she thought it was undeniable that I was inferior to her so that, after our argument, she expected me to crawl back to her while she got to play the role of rejecting me. Yet I never did that. She felt insulted, and so, after stalking me, was on a mission to convince everyone that I did crawl back to her, that she did reject me, and that, as a consequence, I stalked her. This must be the kind of bullshit which she had fed to Aamoy. She wanted to be stalked because she wanted to be the desirable/ superior one for once in her life and I had offended her by not stalking her. And so she made up this story to everyone as revenge that I had lusted after her and stalked her. And yet, because everyone had bought into the idea about "patriarchy" that society had this mechanism in place to blame the women victims – as if they wanted to be sexually assaulted – if I ever told the truth, no one would ever believe me. Kiersten would simply say that I was being misogynist by everywhere wanting to harm them because such belief, when upheld by the society at large, keeps them in power and makes them special. As long as a Homeland Security warning says something along the line of this ideology, they will believe it, and will get angry and believe injustice has occurred if law enforcement should suddenly intervene and produce evidence demonstrating undeniably that it is a false warning. They will do everything – protest or forge evidence or whatever – to force law enforcement to withdraw any evidence to the contrary. You'll see precisely this happen later on. Most ordinary people, because they don't have a functional brain, do not know that there is a difference between truth and falsehood. (And this includes many people with PhDs.) They simply think that whatever they want to be true – i.e. anything that makes them special and keeps them in power – should and must be true.

7 Back in late 2018, that is, when I first composed this reconstruction.

8 Suzannah Lipscomb's famous documentary on the witch trials in British history; the section on witch trials in Mary Daly's Gyn/Ecology; and Arthur Miller's The Crucible.

9 This is why someone who has been a victim of his fellow human beings' stupidity tends to lean toward authoritarianism: for, having seen the dark side of human nature, he is convinced that the most important task of political philosophy is the suppression and channeling of ordinary people's stupidity and (in Machiavelli's words) envious nature.

“blaming the victim” and everyone would believe her. If I told the truth that I wasn't interested in fat women, everyone would again believe the common wisdom that patriarchy had made us believe the falsehood that sexual violence was about sex – everyone had already bought into the common wisdom that all women were vulnerable to sex crimes, fat or skinny, young or old. Everyone had been successfully brainwashed and most people simply didn't have the brain power to understand reality better. Everyone will condemn me for trying to conceal the patriarchal conspiracy against womankind. The situation is only made worse by the fact that I did break windows and puncture people's tires. Nobody could have imagined that somebody this bad could have not wanted to stalk a woman at all. Nobody certainly could grasp the fact that there are chips implanted in this guy's head and that he in fact doesn't understand why he has to break people's windows at all.
