“KIERSTEN’S VENGEANCE”

8

RESUME

The following reconstructs the operation of the Secret Society women and Homeland Security CO chief against me from 3 to 16 April, 2014. This new phase of the Secret Society women’s operation will be characterized by the addition of this “SDW” (Maura S.), who would soon prove herself to be the most ruthless member of Kiersten’s bizarre organization.

This is a rewrite of the original “Kiersten’s Vengeance, 8”, originally composed in the summer of 2014. The original version, with the file name of “timelinepartII-hp.pdf” (last dated 01.01.2020), can still be found in the same file folder.¹

Please note that, in the following, three layers of meanings are superimposed one on another: my original intentions and beliefs during the time of the event; my (mostly wrong) interpretation of the meaning of the events about four months later, during the summer of 2014, when I first composed this reconstruction; and my (hopefully all correct) interpretation of the meaning of the events today, more than seven years later.

A note about Myrakami. I first discovered the band, you recall, on 22 March while in Starbucks, Vermont/ Prospect, and I instantly fell in love with them. As I continued to play their music videos in my Youtube channel every single day during this period, that must have given Homeland Security the pretext to work with Russian law enforcement to warn the band members about me. Such episodes are however not reported in the following.

Then a word about the status of China. I have failed to note in all previous chapters that the MSS’, and so China’s, official position was that the Homeland Security warnings about me were correct. Back in October 2010, because it was the Russians, and so our DGHTRCOM, who had rescued the MSS director from his remote-control and mind-control torture, the MSS, and thus China, felt indebted to Russia. When Russia had to maintain that Homeland Security’s warnings about me were correct in order to protect itself from the CIA, the MSS followed suit – in order to repay Russia’s previous kindness. Many visitors from China to my website were thus most likely volunteers supplied by the MSS to help the Secret Society women and Homeland Security CO chief. But this doesn’t include the HK Hacker, however, who was so stupid (e.g. on 15 September last year) that he couldn’t possibly have been a MSS operative.

Thirdly, this reminder. The TMU would continue to reject the Homeland Security warning about me with the reason that I had never plagiarized. And yet, all because Homeland Security’s 2007 warning about me stated that I concocted my “My experience” by collecting news and materials from the Internet and weaving them together into my story about the FBI, the CIA and Homeland Security, Homeland Security CO chief and the Secret Society women could never give up insisting that I did plagiarize no matter how difficult it was to prove it – lest Homeland Security’s warnings about me be proven to be false in the slightest fashion in the ICJ to enable the CIA to reactivate the previous ICJ trial. This is the reason why so much time and energy would be spent on both side debating about whether I had plagiarized even though plagiarism had nothing to do with stalking and terrorism.

Now a summary of the course of events during this period. On 3 April, thanks to my business with the police on 1 April, the Secret Society women obtained a chance to force the TMU to accept a stalking claim against me from SDW. After examining the evidence against me from 11 AM to 12 PM, SDW drove up to Los Angeles to file a stalking claim against me on behalf of both herself and Karin and request that my website be banned. SDW had brought with her also the other volunteers’ testimonies about how I had plagiarized, hacked people’s computers, written crazy letters to politicians, and hosted Angelica’s naked pictures on my website. Throughout the rest of the day, volunteers also called in to report on my never-ending delusions about famous people (Snowden, Cheney, and Khalezov) and stupid effort to petition (UNHCR), as well as how my delusions had prompted me to become a danger to myself and others. Late night, Kiersten’s friend at St John’s also appeared to join in on the hype. Homeland Security CO chief was happy: there was about to be evidence in the ICJ to enable him to permanently lock up the previous ICJ trial and ban my website from ever entering the ICJ as evidence. On 4 April, however, the TMU notified SDW that they didn’t consider the Homeland Security warning about me to be correct because they didn’t see any convincing evidence that I had plagiarized and so would not open any stalking case on me. The project was grounded! Thus, on 1:26 PM, the Chicago State University volunteer came to forge evidence of my plagiarism plus a massive amount of reporting about my plagiarism throughout the day. Meanwhile, SDW, indignant, called on three of her TI friends to come examine my crazy blog posts about her (on 11:02 AM, 3:26 PM and 11:09 PM). Finally, by late night, Shizuka said she would help. Thus, on 1:20 AM, the Nishinotoindori volunteer came to forge evidence of my harassment of Shizuka.

On 5 April, the Secret Society women’s volunteers focus their attention on proving to the TMU that I did plagiarize. For this task, note especially the Teddington and Market Drayton volunteer. Then, to temporarily prevent the CIA from reactivating the previous ICJ trial, Homeland Security CO chief instructed the Monkey to control me to blog about Myrakami so that the Russian law enforcement’s validation of the Homeland Security warning about me could be intercepted into the ICJ as temporary evidence in his favor. On the morning of 6 April, as the volunteers began work to find ways to prove to the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct, they discovered that my Nicaragua videos were back online. Angelica was terribly excited. Meanwhile, SDW complained to one of her closest friends, the Tampa volunteer, and then summoned several of her TI friends to come examine my crazy blog posts about her. Then, the usual attempts to report me for harassing Shizuka, hacking people’s computers, being deluded about being chipped in the brain and wanting to harm myself and others as a result, and hosting Angelica’s naked pictures on my website. Most importantly, a ton of volunteers came to brainstorm about how to more properly report me for plagiarism. Meanwhile, the Monkey controlled me to read through SDW’s blog in preparation for blogging more about her and then leave another message to her on her blog. When SDW reported this to the TMU, the TMU of course ignored it.

On 7 April, the volunteers continued to try to persuade the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct: that I kept developing delusions about famous people (Snowden, Ekaterina, and Boss Cheney) and even suing them (Mr Fradkov); that I hacked people’s computers; and that I plagiarized. As the TMU continued to refuse to listen, on 5:50 PM, SDW called on a relative of hers (the Budd Lake volunteer) to come examine my blog posts about her. Soon afterward, SDW submitted my latest messages to her and DeDe’s testimony to the TMU as further evidence that I had become increasingly aggressive toward her. Then, since the TMU still refused to listen, a volunteer even reported that I threatened violence on my blog. Then, late at night, several volunteers came to check out my Nicaragua videos again. Then, after 4 AM, the Monkey controlled me to send two more messages to SDW in order to supply her with more evidence with which to persuade the TMU tomorrow. On the early afternoon of 8 April, SDW submitted my latest messages to her to the TMU and yet the TMU still refused to open a stalking case on me saying the Homeland Security warning about me wasn’t correct. As a result, a Los Angeles volunteer looked up my “Feefee and Valerie” on 3:14 PM to see if Marie could file a complaint to help SDW legitimize her claim, and SDW called on her La Jolla TI friend to come examine the evidence of my obsession with her. By 6:40 PM, I had left my seventh message on SDW’s blog and she was again frantically calling the TMU, but to no effect. Then, from 7:30 PM onward and for several hours, a Tel Aviv volunteer examined my blog trying think of ways to help SDW. Then, on 11 PM, the Monkey controlled me to write to DeDe about SDW so that SDW could have more evidence with which to call on the TMU tomorrow. Throughout the whole day there was also plenty of brainstorming about my computer-hacking, harassment of my family members, hosting Angelica’s naked pictures on my website – and of course plagiarism.

On 9 April, while SDW submitted my latest message to her to the TMU and the TMU continued to ignore her complaint, volunteers continued to work hard to find ways to convince the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct: (1) my delusions about Khalezov and the Russian President and Prime Minister; (2) my computer-hacking; (3) my harassment of my family members – not just my grandfather, but also my Aunt Jennifer; (4) my hosting of Angelica’s naked pictures on my website; and (5) my plagiarism. Note that both the Dallas and the Santa Monica volunteer showed up again, and that three volunteers had been summoned by SDW to come examine my delusions about, and obsession with, her (the Adelaide, Chicago, and Microsoft (?) volunteers). Then, late at night, four volunteers came to focus on my chapters on Zeno as the definitive proof that I did plagiarize. While all this efforts were futile, Homeland Security CO chief was able to intercept from my conversation with Wes today evidences to confirm in the ICJ that his team and his star witnesses had always been correct about me (plus my discovery of Madero’s new website this afternoon).

On 10 April, desperate for a third-party confirmation that his warning about me was correct, Homeland Security CO chief instructed Karin and so on to report my latest “delusions” about BOL and Khalezov to the State Department. The report also included: (1) my delusions about Angelica and hosting her naked picture on my website; (2) my delusions about having something to do with the CIA; (3) my harassment of Shizuka; (4) my computer-hacking; and (5) my plagiarism. Basically, just trying to convince the State Department official that Homeland Security was right about me. But the man didn’t bother to act in any way whatsoever. Other than this, SDW had also summoned her TI friends in morning and night to come examine my “pollution” of the targeted individuals discursive domain and “delusions” about her. Late night, another Russian volunteer also came to examine my “delusions” about the chips inside my brain.

On 11 April, the Secret Society women continued to mobilize their volunteers to examine my harassment of Shizuka, hosting Angelica’s naked pictures on my website, plagiarism, and delusions about the chips inside my brain. Then, Homeland Security CO chief got me to post more of my “delusions” on my blog (“Tu quoque”) in order to enable him to talk to the Clinton family again. Meanwhile, SDW, terribly upset about the inaction by the TMU and the State Department, summoned three volunteers (including a Polish volunteer and a LUG buddy) to come examine my horrifying blog posts about her. Then, late at night, she summoned her sister or mother again and two more volunteers to continue to fret over these blog posts. On 12 April, the Secret Society women continued to mobilize their volunteers to brainstorm how to prove to authorities that the Homeland Security warnings about me were correct: (1) my harassment of Shizuka; (2) my computer-hacking; (3) Angelica’s naked picture; (4) my crazy letters to foreign politicians; (5) my delusions about public figures (Khalezov); (6) my harassment of my family members; and (7) my plagiarism (including my violation of Mellhedek’s intellectual property rights). It’s not clear if any of this reporting was made to the Clinton family whom Homeland Security must have warned. In addition, SDW had again called on three persons to come examine my blog posts about her, and then called up the ICAACT people to talk about my harassment of them with my blog. Then, around 10 PM, the whole women gang also talked to Aamoy. Then, from 4 AM onward, the same crowd from the early morning of 10 April came to brainstorm about my chapters on Zeno (how to prove to authorities that these were plagiarized). Then, finally, from my new blog post and conversation with Wes today, Homeland Security CO chief was able to obtain further evidence that he was right about me – that I indeed kept developing delusions about the woman I was obsessed with.

On 13 April, the Secret Society women continued to mobilize their volunteers to brainstorm how to prove to law enforcement and so on that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct: (1) how I kept Angelica’s naked pictures on my website (6 times!). (2) My harassment of Shizuka. (3) My computer-hacking. (4) My delusions about the chips inside my brain. (5) How my delusions prompted me to be a danger to others. And of course (6) my plagiarism. Also, early in the morning, the women called upon this Los Angeles volunteer who thus looked through my blog from 7 to 7:50 AM or so. Then, SDW called upon four persons in total today to come examine how I had victimized her with all these crazy blog posts: on 2:22 PM, the Columbus volunteer; on 3:37 PM, the Trinity, North Carolina, volunteer (her relative?); on 10:14 PM, the Opera Mini volunteer; and on 10:39 PM, the Hopewell volunteer (Liz?). Then, lastly, on 12:24 AM, Angelica called on another UK volunteer to come examine my crazy Nicaragua videos as the best proof that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct. As for Homeland Security CO chief, he had today but my latest blog post “Last Word” as his evidence in the ICJ.

On 14 April, the Secret Society women continued to mobilize volunteers to brainstorm how to prove to the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct and persuade them to reopen the stalking case against me. Throughout the early part of the day: (1) Angelica’s naked picture. (2) My harassment of Shizuka. (3) My computer-hacking. (4) My delusions about the chips inside my brain. (5) My misogynist rambling. (6) My danger to others due to my delusions. And of course (7) my plagiarism, on which the volunteers had a special focus during the morning. Meanwhile, SDW called upon four more persons today to come examine my victimization of her on my blog: on 2:57 PM, the North Carolina volunteer; on 6:13 PM, the Chicago volunteer; on 12:56 AM, the Sydney volunteer; and on 2:08 AM, the Georgia volunteer. Also to be noted are the Hong Kong volunteer on 10:04 PM, the University of Melbourne volunteer on 11:08 PM, the University of Amsterdam volunteer from 4 to 5 AM, and the big fuss about Angelica’s “naked picture” in this late night.

On 15 April, as the Secret Society women prepared themselves for using Dr R to persuade the TMU to reopen their stalking case on me, they continued to mobilize volunteers to brainstorm ways to convince the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct: (1) my delusions about there being chips planted in my brain. (2) My Nicaragua videos. (3) My harassment of Shizuka. (4) How I had kept Angelica’s naked picture on my website. And (5) my plagiarism (including the Odessa volunteer who brainstormed for half an hour from 9:20 AM onward about my theory on linear perspective). Then, I was tricked into going to Edelman to look for Dr R. Meanwhile, SDW continued to call on people to come examine my blog posts about her: (1) 2:40 PM, the UK volunteer; (2) 5:27 PM, the Lemon Grove volunteer; (3) 10:02 PM, the Kentucky volunteer; and (4) her relative in Erie, Pennsylvania.

The Waterville, Maine, volunteer on 9:34 PM had also collected more evidence of my delusional mind for tomorrow.

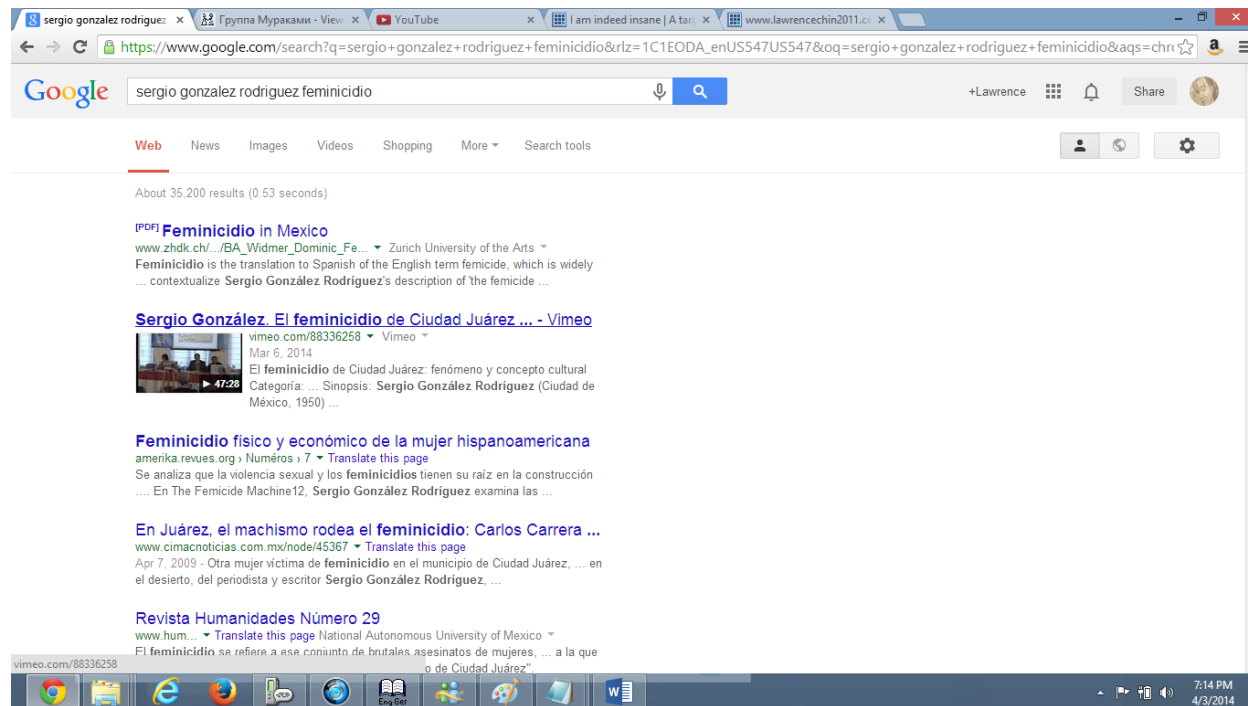

On 16 April, as the Secret Society women prepared themselves for Dr R’s action in the afternoon, they continued to mobilize their volunteers throughout the morning and early afternoon: (1) my Nicaragua videos on 7:09 AM. (2) 8:26 AM, the Oakland, Florida, volunteer examined the Secret Society women’s notes about my delusions about them on the Secret Facebook Group. (3) My computer-hacking. (4) 11:39 AM, the Bengaluru volunteer created an intercept showing my latest chapter in my Secret History to be pornographic in nature. (5) 2:02 PM, the UK volunteer was preparing a testimony about my harassment of the ICAACT people by blogging about them. (6) 2:49 PM, my harassment of Shizuka. Then, from 10:31 AM onward, SDW’s Erie relative came to read through every one of my blog posts. Then, by 3:30 PM, Dr R had got on the phone with the TMU. After explaining my “stalking” yesterday, she reported about my harassment of her on my blog. 3:43 PM, a Poughkeepsie volunteer (another one of SDW’s relatives?) joined in on the reporting. 4:05 PM, Homeland Security CO chief got a school teacher nearby to report on my Nicaragua videos. 5:06 PM, another false report about seeing Angelica’s naked picture on my website. However, the TMU was again unwilling to reopen the stalking case on me and called up David to ask him to talk to me tonight in order to gather more evidences on this case. At a loss, from 6 to 7 PM, SDW’s Erie relative came to my website again to look for additional evidence. 7:30 PM, another volunteer looked through my Youtube videos and my postings about brain-chips. 8:20 PM, the Meridian volunteer came again to consider my Nicaragua videos. Then, on 11:50 PM, in response to SDW’s temper tantrum, her Erie relative came again and continued to study my blog until almost 2 AM. Then, by early morning, I posted the second blog post for 17 April. The TMU now had justification for rejecting the Homeland Security warning about me and not reopening the stalking case against me on behalf of Dr R and SDW.

Now, my diary notes, the log of the Secret Society women’s activities on my website, and my reconstruction for the period under consideration.

3 April (Thursday; sleep deprivation; break from torture)

First, a note about myself. Slept between 5 and 11:30 AM. Not enough sleep. Coffee Bean, 2 PM. Then, downtown. I bought a new hat and a new scarf. I was then at the LAPD headquarters asking about graffiti on cars. Then, at Stories LA. 10:30 PM, Starbucks, Vermont/ Prospect. No collection today, a break, because I was not tortured today. 1 B only. Went to UCLA. Missed the bus stop at Westwood: the only instance of “torture”. Went to the emergency room at UCLA Medical Center, and got Norco. (Please consult my entry for today on my blog post for 6 April, “Suffrir les maladies, c’est mon travail”, for additional notes. It’s not clear whether, when I finished the preliminary reconstruction of what happened on the crucial day of 12 February 2010, that was the Invisible Hand’s evidence in the second, secret trial.)

Now let’s comment on the tremendous development today. As you shall see, today was a big day because it was today that SDW, with the help and encouragement from the rest of the Secret Society women and Homeland Security CO chief, would file her first stalking claim against me at the TMU. For some reason, the TMU was obliged to accept it. It seems that my business with the police and the security personnel in the past two days had done the trick – even though, on the night of 1 April, I was let go. But somehow Homeland Security CO chief had helped the Secret Society women obtain the police record from 1 April which the women could now use to oblige the TMU: “See, the Homeland Security warning about this guy is correct! Now you must acknowledge that his blogging about SDW constitutes ‘stalking’ and accept a stalking claim from her!” In this way, Homeland Security CO chief could at last intercept into the ICJ evidence from law enforcement suggesting that his warnings about me might be accurate after all.

Now the Secret Society women’s operation on my website today. 4:45 AM, It’s SDW! It is by this time that the Secret Society women had got their police record ready.

Karin then called up SDW to brief her on how to file her stalking claim against me with the TMU. First and foremost, Karin instructed SDW to Google for my blog posts about her. (The search terms were probably something like “gang stalking, San Diego”). After spending 13 minutes browsing through my blog posts about her, SDW looked at them again on 11:17 AM.

Again, although normally blogging about someone did not constitute “stalking” of the person, once the TMU was forced to admit that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct, they would have to classify me as SDW’s “stalker” just because I had written here a few remarks about my infatuation with her.

11:33 AM, after spending 16 minutes reading my blog and listening to instructions from Karin,
SDW continued onto the blog post series for this month:

Was this a complaint about how I had painted Angelica nude?

11:37 AM, or 4 minutes later, SDW came to the front page:

75.36.36.22 - - [03/Apr/2014:12:37:27 -0600] "GET / HTTP/1.1" 200 8368
"http://www.lawrencechin2011.com/blogs/2014/04/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_8) AppleWebKit/536.25 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/6.0 Safari/536.25"
75.36.36.22 - - [03/Apr/2014:12:37:28 -0600] "GET /dot_clear.gif HTTP/1.1" 404 1361

Karin now wanted SDW to examine my chapters about her (Karin) so that, in addition to SDW, Karin herself could also be classified as the victim of my “stalking”. Thus, on 11:38 AM, SDW clicked on the first chapter in “Karin’s Meetups”, i.e. “Faulty Surveillance”.

75.36.36.22 - - [03/Apr/2014:12:38:33 -0600] "GET

Karin evidently wanted SDW to repeat to the TMU this story that, whenever I became obsessed with a woman, I would develop this strange delusion about her being some sort of CIA agent to go after me because of some trial in the International Court of Justice. Hence, on 11:42 AM, or 4 minutes later, SDW was prompted to click on “Revelation of the International Court of Justice” to see for herself what my “delusion” was about.

75.36.36.22 - - [03/Apr/2014:12:42:33 -0600] "GET /howihave70bg/how_i_have_70bg2.pdf HTTP/1.1" 200 1594412 "http://www.lawrencechin2011.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_8) AppleWebKit/536.25 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/6.0 Safari/536.25"

By now everyone was relying on SDW to help Homeland Security CO chief prove in the ICJ that his warnings about me were correct and win his case there because, insofar as I had actually become obsessed with her thanks to the Monkey’s programming, SDW was the only person in any position to file a stalking claim against me: “You shall file a stalking claim against Lawrence for writing about you on his blog. Let’s work together to get rid of his website.” Then, 11:43 AM,

“Kiersten’s Vengeance”, 8
Lawrence C. Chin
July 2014; rewritten, Oct. 2021

143.107.128.41 - - [03/Apr/2014:12:43:24 -0600] "GET /scientificenlightenment1/higgsfield.jpg HTTP/1.0" 200 44655 "http://www.google.com.br/blank.html" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_9_2) AppleWebKit/537.75.14 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/7.0.3 Safari/537.75.14"

75.36.36.22 - - [03/Apr/2014:12:44:33 -0600] "GET /blogs/2014/03/ HTTP/1.1" 200 113966 "http://www.lawrencechin2011.com/blogs/2014/04/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_8) AppleWebKit/536.25 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/6.0 Safari/536.25"

One minute later, SDW came to the very beginning of my blog,

75.36.36.22 - - [03/Apr/2014:12:45:04 -0600] "GET /blogs/2012/04/ HTTP/1.1" 200 22552 "http://www.lawrencechin2011.com/blogs/2014/03/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_8) AppleWebKit/536.25 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/6.0 Safari/536.25"

Now that SDW had examined the “evidence” of my obsession with her and been instructed as to what to say to the TMU, the entire Secret Society must be in a state of wild excitement: Angelica, Veronica, Kiersten, Dr P, and Karin were all waiting to be validated as having been “victimized” by me – and desperate for the removal of my website. And yet nobody had any reason to file further stalking claims against me for this end – except SDW. You can be sure that, since every bad characteristic attributed to me on the Homeland Security warning about me had to be confirmed as accurate, SDW would, when she shall report to the TMU, bring in the other volunteers’ testimonies about how I had plagiarized, hacked people’s computers, written crazy letters to politicians, and hosted Angelica’s naked pictures on my website.

Now, at the same time: Secretaria de Comunicaciones y Transportes... Pachuca, Mexico, 11:46 AM, SDW came back to the blog post series for March, where most of her evidences were concentrated:

Was this one of the LUG buddies again? By this time SDW must have already opened her case at the TMU (having driven up to Los Angeles from Encinitas) and three volunteers had already called in to report about how, motivated by my delusions, I mumbled nonsense about Snowden and Boss Cheney and wrote to UNHCR. The TMU, under the CIA’s instruction, began collecting evidences to disprove SDW’s case and so, as their first step, activated the LUG buddies as informants inside the Secret Society women’s organization.

4 April (Friday)

First, a note about myself. Allowed to sleep until 2 PM with the aid of sleeping pills. Then, on 2:30 PM, negative thoughts triggered by the mere sight of iPod in my apartment (one of the tenants was wearing it), mood dampened. (He was probably just the Homeland Security “plant” in my building. Now that there was at last a case against me at the TMU, Homeland Security CO chief activated his mole and instructed him to keep a close eye on me.) My conspirators have begun to program me to be capable of violent anger over the mere sight of daily things – making me acquire SDW’s disease so that I’ll look as if I were “naturally bad”, getting angry and causing damages completely unprovoked. (Wrong. It’s the Monkey and Homeland Security CO chief who were programming me to become like SDW.) Then, forgot to bring my cigarettes and the references which the hospital doctors had given me last night to UCLA doctors. Went home to get them, only to discover that I had actually brought the references with me. Evidences that I’m mentally retarded (the Monkey’s profile of me). (Maybe!) Angered again. Also troubled by SDW’s visits to my blog yesterday. (At least I had correctly identified her visits, even though I had as yet no idea what this was about.) At Stories, 5 PM. My conspirators programmed me to remove any vestiges on my blog of SDW’s name and, around 6 PM, to leave a comment on her blog telling her so. (At the time I had simply thought that she visited my blog because she was concerned that I had mentioned her by name and, while infatuated with her, I certainly didn’t want to offend her. More on this below.)⁷

7 In the original version, late summer, 2014, I inserted at this point my wrong interpretation of what was going on: The Republicans/ CIA wanted me to do this because they didn’t want any legal reasons to exist for the TMU to consider me as cyberstalking and harassing SDW. The Republicans’ “War on Women”, after the debacle on 8 February, had resumed. Because the Republicans couldn’t get Kiersten – Kiersten and her Homeland Security friend had got their tails – they were going to get SDW, and they were going to use me as a bait. They sent a trainer (most likely a CIA officer) to the San Diego TMU to instruct the latter to observe SDW’s actions carefully, in order to understand just how ridiculous she was. I had just told her that I had removed all mentions of her name from my

10:30 PM, collection attempt on SM Blvd failed, and one car seemed to be purposely trying to run over the traps (N), etc. Again, my aversion to risk-taking is presumably used by my conspirators to explain why, despite being bad-to-the-bone, I have never been arrested before for criminal acts. (Wrong).⁸ Then, at King King, mood lightened up when, totally unaware of SDW’s new stalking claim against me with the police, I was fantasizing a good time with her. More obsession in consequence of the thought-processes triggered by SDW’s visits to my website yesterday.⁹

(Again, please consult the blog post for 6 April for additional notes about what happened to me today. Take notice especially of this: it was today that the hidden program on the Monkey’s computer controlled me to figure out that there was going to be an American version of the “Dreyfus Affair”. This was in fact the Invisible Hand’s plan. While the Monkey instructed the computer to control me to develop more delusional beliefs, the hidden program became active and controlled me to develop an idea about what the Invisible Hand had wanted to effect together with BOL.)

Now the Secret Society women’s operation on my website today. 4:40 AM, blog, and yet she would not respond, but would persist in telling the police that I was violating her privacy by telling the world about my obsession with her on my blog. Just as the French and the Republicans had known inside the control center, SDW, upon learning that I had blogged about her, would do the exact same thing which Angelica had done, reporting me to law enforcement in accordance with Kiersten’s profile of me: obsessive, violent, and delusional. And she of course wouldn’t do the dirty work herself, but would, just like Kiersten before her, prefer to stay in the shadow and hide from me her attempt to annihilate me and my website. After she had filed a stalking claim against me with the TMU yesterday afternoon, SDW would request the same “victim confidentiality” in order to forbid the detectives from looking at my website, obliging them to rely solely on her team’s report about the content of my website in their determination of what to do with me. In this way, the whole Secret Society could falsely report me to the TMU in the same way in which Angelica and Kiersten had done previously, portraying me as violent and delusional and obsessive and expecting the detectives to treat me likewise – when there was in fact absolutely no evidence to such effect. (Now I was vaguely correct.)

8 In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: Meanwhile, the Republicans wanted the TMU to see how I couldn’t be a danger to SDW given my extraordinary timidity.

9 In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: My good feeling toward SDW was certainly being used by my conspirators as evidence of my delusional state of mind (wrong), because, in reality, SDW had begun reporting me to the police for dangerous obsession and cyberstalking and cyber-harassing (right). (In reality, what was really going on was simply the Monkey’s programming to intensify my obsession in an attempt to help SDW succeed with her stalking case against me.) Meanwhile, the CIA will begin submitting evidence to the ICJ proving that, instead of becoming violent, I suffer a reduction of desire to harm people when filled with obsession – in contradistinction to both A/ K’s and SDW’s claims. (The Invisible Hand might indeed be doing so in the second, secret trial which nobody knew about.)

Now, let’s consider what might have happened today. While there were a few reporting about seeing Angelica’s naked picture on my website and my computer-hacking and so on, we must expect the TMU, within 24 hours after SDW had filed her stalking claim, to have already notified her that they didn’t consider the Homeland Security warning about me to be correct because they didn’t see any convincing evidence that I had plagiarized and so would not open any stalking case on me. (Again, without that warning, blogging about someone was by itself not “stalking”.) This is why, on 1:26 PM, the Chicago State University volunteer came to forge evidence of my plagiarism and why there were so much reporting about my plagiarism today. Meanwhile, SDW, indignant, called on three of her TI friends to come examine my crazy blog posts about her (on 11:02 AM, 3:26 PM and 11:09 PM). Finally, by late night, as SDW was terribly distressed, Shizuka (acting as the CIA’s informant) said she would help. Thus, on 1:20 AM, the Nishinotoindori volunteer came to forge evidence of my harassment of Shizuka (how I had posted her portraits on some Twitter page to brag about myself and embarrass her). That should help validate the Homeland Security warning about me!

5 April (Saturday)

First, a note about myself. At the French conversation club this afternoon. Met this Chinese woman born in Japan. My conspirators have collected more evidences for my delusional state of mind. (I kept thinking erroneously that the Macrospherians’ plan for me had something to do with Japan.) (Actually, it was just the Monkey continuing to program me to look delusional.) Then a junk call made me think of using DeDe as a go-between. (Since SDW’s stalking claim was rejected yesterday, Homeland Security CO chief instructed the Monkey to remotely control me to actually attempt to contact her.) Then I came to Stories. Was frustrated that there was nobody around to show my Little Monkey and Myrakami videos to. And also I couldn’t call Wes. (He was in Chicago at the moment.) My conspirators are now seriously targeting me in the same way in which SDW has been targeted – in order to make me believe that they are simply transferring SDW’s disease onto me – transference – so that I can look like I’m “naturally bad” and conform to Kiersten’s profile me.¹⁸ (In reality, it was just the Monkey employing the same tactic on me: to lower my tolerance and cause me to misinterpret things in order to make me look evil and crazy.) Didn’t collect damages today for fear of law enforcement’s investigation.¹⁹ Past midnight. In the bar near home. Lost a pack of cigarettes. Angered. Finally, threw some bottles. Home. 3:30 AM, I restored the original URL of my Nicaragua videos’ folder. Then spent a lot of time researching Yiyun Li’s A Thousand Years of Good Prayers.

(Again, consult my blog post for 9 April, “Targeting through infatuation, and the formation of a targeted individual: a case study”, for additional notes about today.)

Now the Secret Society women’s operation on my website today. 5:01 AM,

¹⁸ At this point, my erroneous interpretation in the summer of 2014: “What they are in fact planning to do is... to lay the basis for confusing SDW’s brain scan images with mine, as has been noted and as shall be soon seen. This the French and the Republicans consider to be [a] conspiracy against them. They can then adopt the idea of ‘transference’ and use it for their own projects.”

8:57 PM, I was editing my blog from Stories. I posted the blog post you see for 6 April, “Suffrir le maladie, c’est mon travail”. Evidently, Homeland Security CO chief had wanted me to post this – with the notice about Myrakami – so that he could contact Russian law enforcement and warn Myrakami that a bad-to-the-bone schizophrenic terrorist stalker in America had just focused his attention on them (especially the blond). Would the band then join the Secret Society? In any case, Homeland Security CO chief had evidently done this because the TMU’s rejection of SDW’s case yesterday had become unfavorable evidence against him in the ICJ.

Now let's review what had happened today. While there was today still reporting and brainstorming about my delusions about Khalezov, my hosting of Angelica's naked picture on my website, and my harassment of my family members, the volunteers' focus was on proving to the TMU that I did plagiarize. For this task, note especially the Teddington and Market Drayton volunteer. Note that, to temporarily prevent the CIA from reactivating the previous ICJ trial, Homeland Security CO chief might have instructed the Monkey to control me to blog about Myrakami so that the Russian law enforcement's validation of the Homeland Security warning about me could be intercepted into the ICJ as temporary evidence in his favor.

6 April (Sunday)

First, a note about myself. Woke up with anger over my inequality with SDW. Thought: my conspirators are now programming me to read SDW's blog in order to prepare me for writing an analysis of her targeting. (In reality, it was just Homeland Security CO chief who wanted me to read her blog and write more about her so that she could continue to try to legitimize her claim with the TMU of my cyberstalking her.) To avoid pain, posted this on SDW's blog on 3:57 PM:

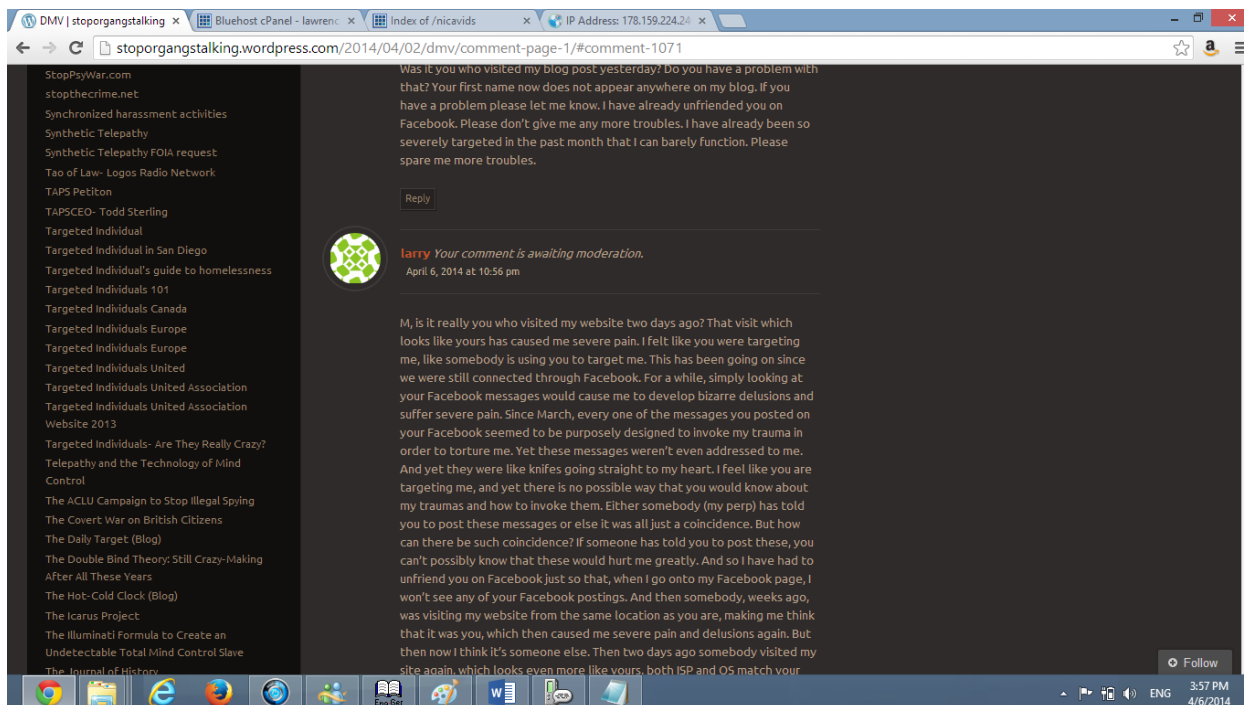

M, is it really you who visited my website two days ago? That visit which looks like yours has caused me severe pain. I felt like you were targeting me, like somebody is using you to target me. This has been going on since we were still connected through Facebook. For a while, simply looking at your Facebook messages would cause me to develop bizarre delusions and suffer severe pain. Since March, every one of the messages you posted on your Facebook seemed to be purposely designed to invoke my trauma in order to torture me. Yet these messages weren't even addressed to me. And yet they were like knives going straight to my heart. I feel like you are targeting me, and yet there is no possible way that you would know about my traumas and how to invoke them. Either somebody (my perp) has told you to post these messages or else it was all just a coincidence. But how can there be such coincidence? If someone has told you to post these, you can't possibly know that these would hurt me greatly. And so I have had to unfriend you on Facebook just so that, when I go onto my Facebook page, I won’t see any of your Facebook postings. And then somebody, weeks ago, was visiting my website from the same location as you are, making me think that it was you, which then caused me severe pain and delusions again. But then now I think it’s someone else. Then two days ago somebody visited my website again, which looks even more like yours, both the ISP and the OS match your visits from way past, and again this has caused me severe pain. It really feels like my perp (the authority) is using you to target me, and you don’t even understand how. This makes me hate you, but I then feel bad about hating you because I feel like a complete fool. I don’t want to hate you because I used to have such empathy for you; because when I read your blog posts I could see that you seemed to be going through the same painful experience as I was. That’s why I used to like you. How could I suddenly hate you so much when we have never even interacted, but merely because I saw some messages you posted on the net which weren’t even addressed to me? Again, I don’t want to look like a fool.

If you don’t know what I’m talking about, if you say: “What are you talking about? I’m not targeting you. I’m just posting messages to speak my mind for someone else to read; or I’m just googling my name and [finding] your blog post. Why do you think I’m targeting you?” that’s probably how other people thought when you, in the past, accused them of gang-stalking you. I don’t really believe that you still believe you are being gang-stalked and harassed; and I don’t believe that you were gang-stalked in the past. I believe you were just misinterpreting other people’s unintentional actions because they triggered your trauma, just like what has happened to me here. It’s your trauma which has caused you to misinterpret things as harming you. My experience with FFCHS is that 90% of the TIs have never been targeted at all but have simply misinterpreted their circumstances as targeting because they read too much TI stuff and have learned to interpret their circumstances through the prism of targeting. The only TIs I have met in FFCHS who are genuine are Melody and Derrick. The rest are all fake.

I don’t know what your circumstances are right now. I just plead to you: if somebody (my perp) is instructing you to post something particular on the net or visit my website in a particular way, please don’t do it. Please have some sympathy for me just as I have sympathy for you. Please have some sympathy for the rest of your audience too; don’t post things unless you really believe what you’re saying. If nobody is telling you to post things or visit my website, then it’s just me, it’s just that I no longer know how to interpret other people’s actions and words or my circumstances not through the prism of my trauma, not as targeting, because my thought-process is controlled by my perp (although it is normal, because we all interpret our present circumstances in accordance with how we have interpreted them in the past). Then don’t mind me. But please don’t complain or feel uncomfortable about my website; I’m really sick and tired of people complaining about my writing about them on my blog when nobody knows who, or what, I’m talking about, when nobody is even reading it. I have already eliminated all your names from my website.

By the way, I’m not implying you are delusional, but just that you have misinterpreted things as gang-stalking. And I don’t know what to make of your claim that your family members have been replaced with look-alikes. Maybe that’s true, maybe not. I have no idea.

(As you can imagine, it was simply the Monkey controlling me to message all this to SDW so that she could have more evidence to show to the TMU to convince them that I was indeed obsessed with her and stalking her. The entire message was just a waste of my time. SDW was not smart enough to understand any of my reasoning – like most ordinary people, as noted, she simply can’t be reasoned with – and, since she had already bought into the Homeland Security warning about me, she wouldn’t even bother to try to understand what I wrote but would just assume that I was becoming obsessed with her and about to come get her. “He continues to message me! Oh my God! Danger!” And so she would continue to implement the usual response to an obsessive stalker: no response no matter what.²⁸

Home, 5 PM, and read my 11/03/2014 blog post myself. It took me 15 minutes. And so I noted: “SDW has spent 17 minutes on this blog post. This seemed to indicate that she was reading it for the first time, and that she had not been clandestinely accessing my blog posts about her through the Secret Facebook page.” Printed out in PDF all her blog posts, and would read through them throughout the night. Bad, for I began developing admiration for her. (The second round of infatuation with her had begun, thanks to the Monkey’s programming.)²⁹ Increasingly doubted that it was her handler who had instructed her to post the three fatal messages on her Facebook. 10:30 PM, discovered that 100 dollars had disappeared from my checking account. Microsoft’s charge, extremely angered. Had only 40 dollars left. Some collection on Hollywood/ Vermont, 3 N. Then near Union Station: 3 N. A black man appeared across the street while I was waiting for N results, as if he was trying to catch me. (Did the Secret Society women send in their investigators to gather evidence from me in order to overcome the TMU’s resistance to opening a stalking case against me?) Left. Called DeDe on 1 AM, wanting to use her as an intermediary between me and SDW. But I was afraid to mention SDW’s name. DeDe wanted to know who I was talking about, but I refused to say. (Without my knowing, SDW had already disseminated the Homeland Security warning about me to everybody in FFCHS making everyone believe that I was merely deluded about being targeted, so that everyone was now fired up to report me to the TMU for stalking SDW and protect SDW from me. To gather more evidence from me to present to the TMU, DeDe thus tried hard to get me to confess that I was talking about SDW. Nowadays who would not get excited about this, a violent, stupid, and delusional male monster wanting to devour a pretty smart virgin girl but ending up being outsmarted by her and the community she had organized?)

2 AM, near home, very upset – not allowed to be a good person (wishing to take care of SDW, because wanting to do good) but required to be a criminal (not allowed to take care of her; how? I wasn’t even allowed to be able to survive in society). Hence not allowed to even have money to eat, in order to repeat past episodes where I was hungry and without money to eat. The control center has previously calculated that I shall run out of money today. Anger. Motivated to collect more damages. (It’s just the Monkey training me to look delusional.)³⁰

29 My erroneous interpretation at this point: “The Republicans wanted me to so become in order to use me as a bait to discredit ‘women victims’.” Again, it might be the CIA’s plan to do this many years later, but not now.

30 At this point, my wrong interpretation during the summer of 2014: “Now let’s look at things on SDW’s side. It is from today onward that Kiersten’s Secret Society would begin mobilizing everybody available to visit my website in order to make false complaints to law enforcement. Evidently, the San Diego TMU, under their trainer’s instruction, had today pretended to grant to SDW the ‘victim confidentiality’ which she and the Secret Society had so vehemently demanded. The trainer’s purpose, of course, was to show the TMU officers that, when they so indulged women, these women “victims” were going to lie and make up stories – Mr trainer would secretly furnish the officers with true copies of my website’s content for them to compare these with SDW’s, and her associates’, descriptions. Somehow, SDW, Kiersten, Angelica, and Karin as well, actually believed that the granting of ‘victim confidentiality’ was real; they truly believed that they had obtained the cover under which to make up stories about the content of my website in order to demonize me and persuade the police to remove it. My conspirators, meanwhile, would be intercepting their descriptions as evidences showing me conforming to Kiersten’s, Angelica’s father’s, and Mr Chertoff’s false profile of me. Presumably, this is how it works. Since the Secret Society functioned under Homeland Security CO chief’s, and the PRI’s, tutelage, their false reporting about me – which must conform to the above-mentioned three false profiles, since nobody can think of anything else to demonize somebody: violent, delusional, mentally retarded, etc. – would be a conspiracy against the French and the Republicans, enabling them to adopt it as evidence showing me conforming to Kiersten’s false profile and confirming Homeland Security CO chief’s forgery as genuine, etc. Then, the PRI couldn’t object, and the erasure of evidences could continue – at least in the eyes of the Mexicans. Insofar as the Secret Society believed they had now got a freehand in demonizing me, my visitors’ log today would be flooded with their visits.” Again, while all this was complete bullshit, some part of it might become true later on. I continued: “But, even at this early stage, I did notice something else which was very important here: SDW’s targeting consists in suffering through changing the way one experiences the world so that what was formerly tolerable can now become intolerable: transforming one’s perspective on the world negatively so that one can suddenly become unhappy while the reality itself remains unchanged: the inverse of cognitive

(Again, consult my blog post for 9 April for additional notes about today. Remember that my endless wrong scenarios about SDW which you see there were just the result of the Monkey’s programming me to fit into the Secret Society women’s claims (hence Homeland Security’s warnings) about me – that I constantly developed delusions about the person I was obsessed with.)

behavioral therapy, hence called ‘cognitive behavioral torture’. This is a general condition which is witnessed in every domain of contemporary life: Americans’ decreasing tolerance for unpleasant things (from crimes to financial difficulties to terrorism), the reason for increasing frequency of depression in American population, and the ‘Age of Terrorism’. (The current hype over terrorism is not due to any actual increase of terrorist incidents – which have probably in fact decreased in number – but mostly to increasing intolerance of them.)” Now this part of my interpretation was merely insightful sociological observation and completely correct. Then: “The Macrospherians want the Republicans and the French to declare this shrinkage of tolerance part of the ‘terrorist conspiracy’ against them so that it may be reversed under UN Resolution 1373. (Again, the Macrospherians need the conspirators to do all the work for them.) Thus the Macrospherians’ agenda is to solve the problem of terrorism by simply dissolving it: by making us re-develop the tolerance which we once had for terrorism. An additional, fourth, agenda is this. Once the White Roses shall have shrunken the federal government to enable the nation to pay back its debt, the American people will find life increasingly uncomfortable because many government services will then disappear. They will then complain and protest. Because life has been too comfortable in America, the American people’s tolerance for unpleasant things have tremendously atrophied. The Macrospherians want them to redevelop tolerance for unpleasantness and an uncomfortable life in order to prepare them for the wholesale disappearance of government services.” Again, while this was bullshit in 2014, you never know if any of it might become true in the 2020s.

This was SDW’s friend in Tampa, Florida. You will soon see a whole group of SDW’s Tampa friends coming to my website repeatedly in the coming months. Apparently, this Tampa friend had just heard from SDW the bad news that this “stalker” on Homeland Security’s watchlist had become obsessed with her and focused his attention on her but that the TMU had somehow rejected her stalking claim. This, and the other, Tampa friends might or might not believe SDW’s gang-stalking stories, but would definitely take very seriously the story about this particular terrorist stalker – especially when they shall lay their eyes on the Homeland Security warning about me. This Tampa friend thus came to take a look at my obsession with, delusions about, SDW.

Now, let’s summarize what happened today.³⁴ Today was the second day that the Secret Society women – and SDW in particular – would spend the whole day complaining to their volunteers about how the TMU had rejected a perfect stalking claim from SDW because they refused to recognize the Homeland Security warning about me. As the volunteers began work in early morning to find ways to prove to the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct, they first discovered that my Nicaragua videos were back online. Several volunteers came to check them out – and Angelica was terribly excited. Meanwhile, SDW had complained about her situation (“being stalked” and yet “ignored by law enforcement”) to one of her closest

34 In the original version, I made the following stupid commentary all because, back in the summer of 2014, I didn’t have any idea that SDW and my other women victims were stirred into action because of this Homeland Security warning about me – which even today I have not had the privilege of seeing, as I would comment more at the end of this chapter: “Now, by the end of the day, their government trainer should have at least somewhat dismantled any notion of women as innocent and helpless ‘victims’ in the mind of the TMU officers – at least in this case. These women had reported me as: hosting delusional and violent content on my website, harboring delusional belief about brain chips, insanity, obsessional content, intention to harm SDW, plagiarizing, sexist and misogynist – and yet you will not actually find any shred of these on my website. Everybody was looking at a horse and reporting she saw a sheep. Meanwhile, the ‘stalker’ was like a complete idiot. Not having any idea of the extent of the woman’s hatred toward him, he left this message asking her if his blog posts about her had offended her and if she had visited his blog; and apologizing for mistaking her for targeting him. How was this in any way ‘harassment’ or ‘stalking’? Clearly, the women were living in a very peculiar worldview which, when made explicit, was indeed very, very strange: these women believed that women are by nature intellectually and morally superior to men – or males who are cast as ‘scapegoats’ – that they are thus far more important and valuable than men (or these special males), that men (or these special males) consequently cannot possibly not have harmful intention toward them, that, because of women’s inborn superiority and greater importance, men (or these special males) are not allowed to even look at them, or even exist in their surrounding, without their consent – which they of course would never give. When a male offends a woman by talking about her or looking at her, this is because he doesn’t possess the necessary intellect to understand that he has harmed the woman – to understand what is of value in the world and what is not – so that the proper way to deal with a mindless being without the intelligence to understand what is right and what is wrong and what is important and what is not, is to clandestinely dispose of him without ever explaining anything to him. You will in the following see SDW exhibit this attitude again and again – just as Veronica, Angelica, and Dr P had done before – and yet, strangely, while regarding herself as ‘Empress Dowager’ in such manner, she somehow believed herself to be a perpetually helpless victim (a victim of community gang-stalking). Contradiction? But, again, you will not notice how bizarre and unreasonable this kind of worldview is unless you look at it from the outside, for example if you are from a different culture, etc.”

friends, the Tampa volunteer, who would from now on become an important player in the Secret Society women’s organization. SDW had also summoned several of her TI friends to come examine my crazy blog posts about her in order for them to understand the injustice which the TMU had inflicted upon her. Then, the usual attempts to report me for harassing Shizuka, hacking people’s computers, being deluded about being chipped in the brain and wanting to harm myself and others as a result, and hosting Angelica’s naked pictures on my website. Most importantly, a ton of volunteers came to brainstorm about how to more properly report me for plagiarism (including forging evidence of my plagiarism) since it was by rejecting the claim that I had plagiarized that the TMU was able to refuse to acknowledge the Homeland Security warning about me as true. Meanwhile, during all this hype and effort, the Monkey continued to remotely control me to do things to legitimize SDW’s stalking claim against me: he controlled me to read through SDW’s blog in preparation for blogging more about her and then leave another message to her on her blog – which for sure SDW would report to the TMU – “Oh my God, he’s really onto me! He has just left another message for me!” – but which the TMU would of course ignore.

7 April (Monday; Karin’s meetup)

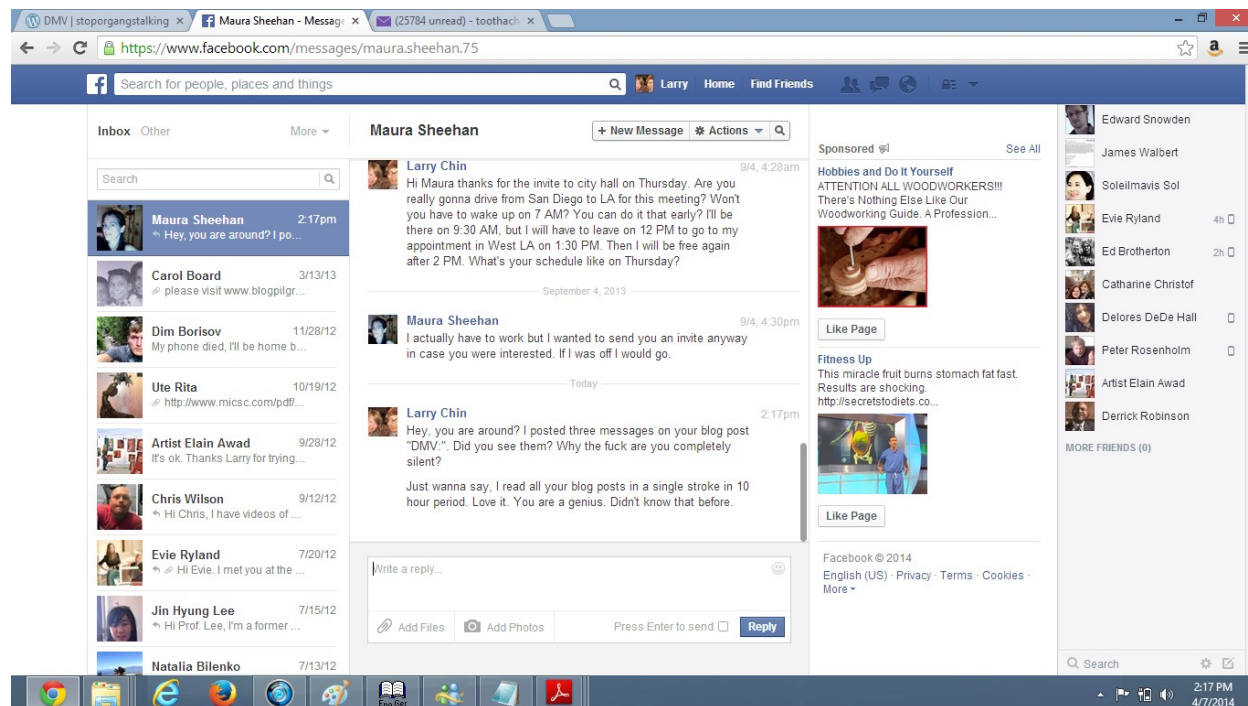

First, a note about myself. Morning, read SDW’s blog until noon, done. Composed an analysis of her and checked her Facebook postings to make sure she was not in the hospital. Posted another comment on her blog on 1:19 PM, asking her why she wasn’t responding and praising her for her good writing:

(As you can expect, it was just the Monkey controlling me to do this so that SDW could have more evidence to submit to the TMU today to substantiate her claim.) Then, on 2:17 PM, I even sent another note to SDW through Facebook to ask her why she wasn’t responding. (I was worried that she might not be getting my messages.)

6 PM, called DeDe. Talked about SDW with her for the first time. Asked her to check on SDW, to see whether she had received my messages. Then my recorder was remotely shut off, my conspirators’ intention to torture me while replacing evidences (or erasing evidences from Panistas’ perspective) at the same time. (Wrong! We have to wonder whether it was because Homeland Security CO chief wanted to instruct DeDe to make false reports about me that he had instructed the Monkey to remotely shut down my recorder.) On Metro, 7 PM: ran into a very pretty “philosophy chic”. I tried to connect with her by giving her my email address.³⁵ Then I came to Art of Living, and witnessed the suicide news performance with my Little Monkey: autistic kid’s peering into real people’s misery. (What happened was that, during our meditation session, a woman ran in to announce that so and so had killed himself and then broke down crying, and yet I somehow thought she was acting! It was just the Monkey continuing to program me to be delusional.) Past midnight. A quick strike: 1 W in SM – to externalize the remote turning off of my recorder in late afternoon.

(Again, for additional notes about what I did today, see the blog post for 9 April, “Targeting through infatuation.”)

35 At this point in the original version, my erroneous interpretation: “The CIA is collecting some evidences with this incident for its case at the Macrospherian court. Maybe something like: even a girl who values philosophy and intellect would choose to overlook me because of my ugliness. But, definitely, my conspirators were programming this incidence in order to allow law enforcement to obtain a view about me contrary to the claims which SDW and Kiersten’s Secret Society were making to them about me at the moment, that I was in fact quite aware of women’s feelings and respected their boundaries more than other men do. (Again, the women victims’ picture of the stalker is the opposite of what he really is, which the CIA would then submit to the Macrospherian ICJ as evidence.)”

The search terms were so stupid that it’s not clear whether this was part of the Secret Society women’s operation.

This volunteer would come again on 12 April. This really looks like somebody in SDW’s large family who had come to examine the situation (my delusions about, and obsession with, SDW) after hearing that the TMU would not accept a stalking claim from SDW because they did not deem the Homeland Security warning about me to be valid.³⁶ 5:53 PM, this volunteer clicked on the blog post series for this month:

³⁶ In the original version I noted this: “Most likely SDW’s family member. (Intelius showed 10 persons surnamed ‘Sheehan’ in Budd Lake, New Jersey. Perhaps Catherine M. Sheehan?” It’s not clear whether I was correct on this.

My computer-hacking.

Recall that, 20 minutes ago, I had called Dede and talked about SDW with her. It's expected that, right after SDW's relative had visited my blog, the whole group was then discussing my phone conversation with DeDe: "The stalker is getting more and more obsessed with SDW! What should we do? The TMU just wouldn't respond!" As noted, it was particularly bad that the Monkey had shut off my recorder since, under Homeland Security CO chief's direction, SDW and DeDe must have falsely reported my conversation to the TMU. Along with this call, SDW must have also reported my two new messages to her from hours ago to the TMU.

4:17 AM, because SDW's non-response had gravely intensified my worry about having offended her, I left another comment on her blog:

“Kiersten’s Vengeance”, 8
Lawrence C. Chin
July 2014; rewritten, Oct. 2021

Then, on 4:22 AM, continually worried that SDW was not responding because she didn't get my messages, I sent her another message through Facebook:

It was just the Monkey and Homeland Security CO chief who wanted me to do this, and you can imagine why!

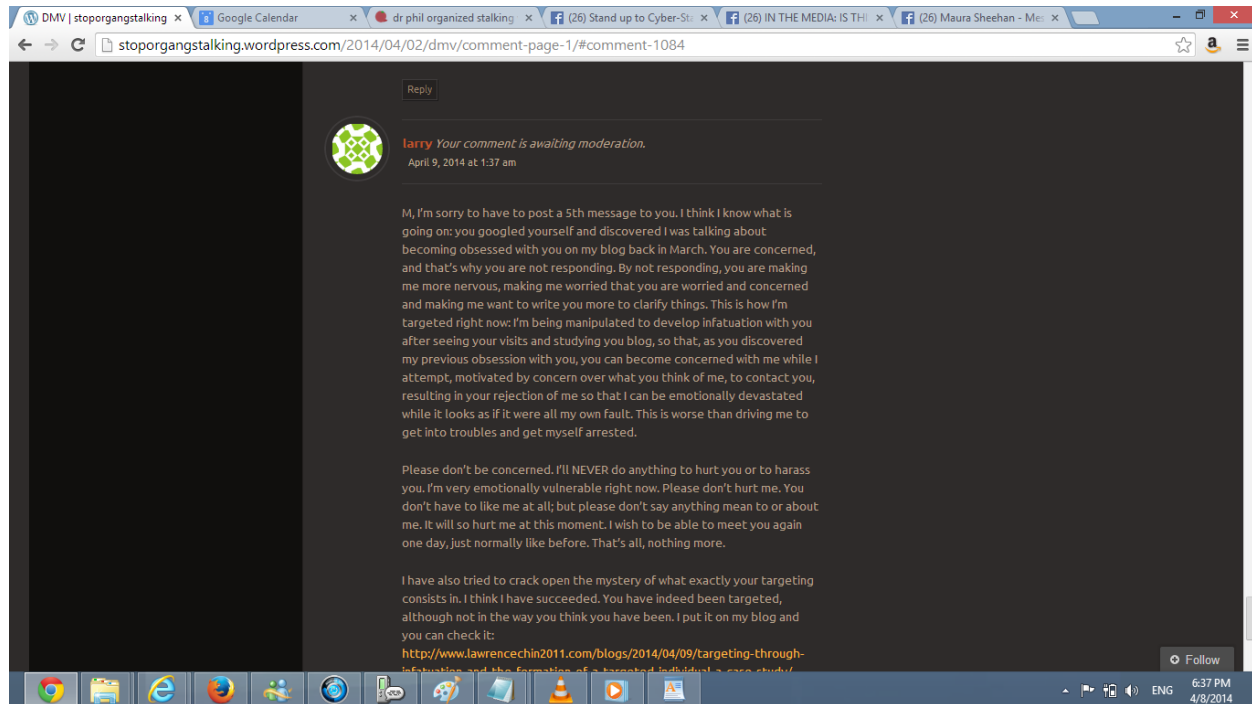

Now let’s summarize what happened today: on this third day the volunteers continued to try to persuade the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct: that I kept developing delusions about famous people (Snowden, Ekaterina, and Boss Cheney) and even suing them (Mr Fradkov); that I hacked people’s computers; and that I plagiarized. As the TMU continued to refuse to listen, on 5:50 PM, SDW called on a relative of hers (the Budd Lake volunteer) to come examine my blog. Soon afterward, as the Monkey had controlled me to leave two more messages to her from 1 to 2 PM and then talk to DeDe about her around 6 PM, SDW submitted all this to the TMU as further evidence that I had become increasingly aggressive toward her (that she was thus in grave danger). Then, since the TMU still refused to listen, a volunteer even reported that I threatened violence on my blog. Then, late at night, several volunteers came to check out my Nicaragua videos again (the definitive proof, for Angelica at least, that the Homeland Security warning about me as totally insane was absolutely correct). Then, after 4 AM, the Monkey controlled me to send two more messages to SDW in order to supply her with more evidence with which to persuade the TMU tomorrow.

8 April (Tuesday)

First, a note about myself. Finished my analysis of SDW’s targeting. Again, the fact that I was completely oblivious of SDW’s stalking claims against me and actually believed that government was going to set her up with me was due to the Monkey’s programming so that I could conform to everyone’s imagination of me as totally insane. I then hurried to the Santa Monica Public Library. While on the bus, I was harassed by a homeless man. Did Homeland Security CO chief send him in to provoke me (so that I could be arrested)? But I was not angry because the bus driver was on my side.³⁸ While at the Santa Monica Public Library, I sent the 7th message to SDW. It was around 6:35 PM. (Again, Homeland Security CO chief wanted me to do this in order to help SDW legitimize her stalking claim against me.)

38 In the original version, my interpretation at this point: “At the same time, the Republicans were creating another incident in order to educate law enforcement: the Threat Management officers were taught that, unlike my stalking victims, I had no time for Kiersten’s favorite pastime (complaining about victimization) because I had always something more important to do. The foundation of Kiersten’s, and SDW’s, experience of the world is that they did not have any goals in life, and so always had the leisure to file stalking claims over nothing.” While there were no Republicans around, my observation about the Secret Society women was in fact quite correct, and it might very well be the case that the Invisible Hand had pointed this out (our respective experience of time) to the TMU officers.

Again, SDW would never respond. 9 PM, I collected some damages (4 N, 2 B) in BRNTWD. 9:40 PM, I added the last conclusion to my analysis of SDW’s condition: my first step toward realizing (most likely, erroneously) the CIA’s goal in allowing Angelica’s father to program SDW to experience “gang-stalking”. 10 PM, I became angered over SDW’s possible disgust with me. Then I suddenly believed (erroneously) that SDW was trying to pass me a hint by clicking on “Faulty Surveillance” on 3 April: that the Invisible Hand had instructed her to tell me that he was going to send her to me in order for me to educate her and prepare her for important positions (such as the Presidency of the United States!). (It was just the Monkey programming me to develop more delusions (by misinterpreting things) and believe in the opposite of reality so that I could look more like the obsessional stalker I was supposed to be. In reality, SDW didn’t intend to message me at all. The reality was just the opposite of what I thought: SDW hated me to the point of seeking my annihilation while I believed stupidly that she was instructed by the CIA to become my girlfriend! I was becoming just like SDW: while I wanted to please her, she believed I wanted to hurt her.)³⁹

Past midnight, posted “Why the CIA were bad people in the past”. (Did the Invisible Hand want me to post this because he really did want America to become ‘un pays qui pense’? But, in any case, this was indeed Homeland Security CO chief’s evidence that I was obsessed with SDW and delusional about intelligence agencies which SDW could also use to legitimize her case with the TMU.) Past 2 AM, did more research on the TV shows and movies which SDW had favorited on her Facebook page. Surprised that she had really bad tastes, quite often. (It was presumably just

Apparently, after SDW submitted my latest message to her to the TMU and the TMU refused to listen again, SDW called on another TI friend of hers right around her hometown and asked her to examine the evidence: “The TMU still refuses to accept my case! With this seventh message, SDW must have exploded: “He keeps coming at me sending me message after message and yet the TMU just wouldn’t open a case on him!” And of course she would immediately forward this seventh message also to the TMU even though it was futile effort.

How I kept developing delusions about famous people, in this case Obama?

11:04 PM, I sent an email to DeDe:

DeDe why aren’t you calling me back?

Okay, let me explain to you what my problem is. It’s M, M Sheehan. Last month I got manipulated by the control center (my perp) to become infatuated with her, and write a bunch of blog posts about it. I think she googled and saw them 5 days ago. The problem is that I accidentally left her first name uncensored in the comment section, so that she could find them by googling her own name. (I use a special designation to refer to her in the rest of the places.) I changed her name immediately. I became very worried that she might become concerned that some guy is obsessed with her, and I feel so dirty and disgusting that she might think like that about me. I have left 7 messages to her on her blog or Facebook to explain myself, but she never responded. I don’t even know if she has seen them. So I’m asking you to ask her if she has seen those messages explaining myself, and to check if she’s concerned or disgusted or what.

I’m just feeling very disgusted with myself if she thinks badly of me. This is how I am targeted: to become infatuated with her so that she can feel disgusted so that I can look like a disgusting pervert. Please, can you just check with her?

I don’t want to delete my posts about her because I need to let others see how I have been targeted. But I have made sure her name and references to her do not appear [in] any way on my blog.

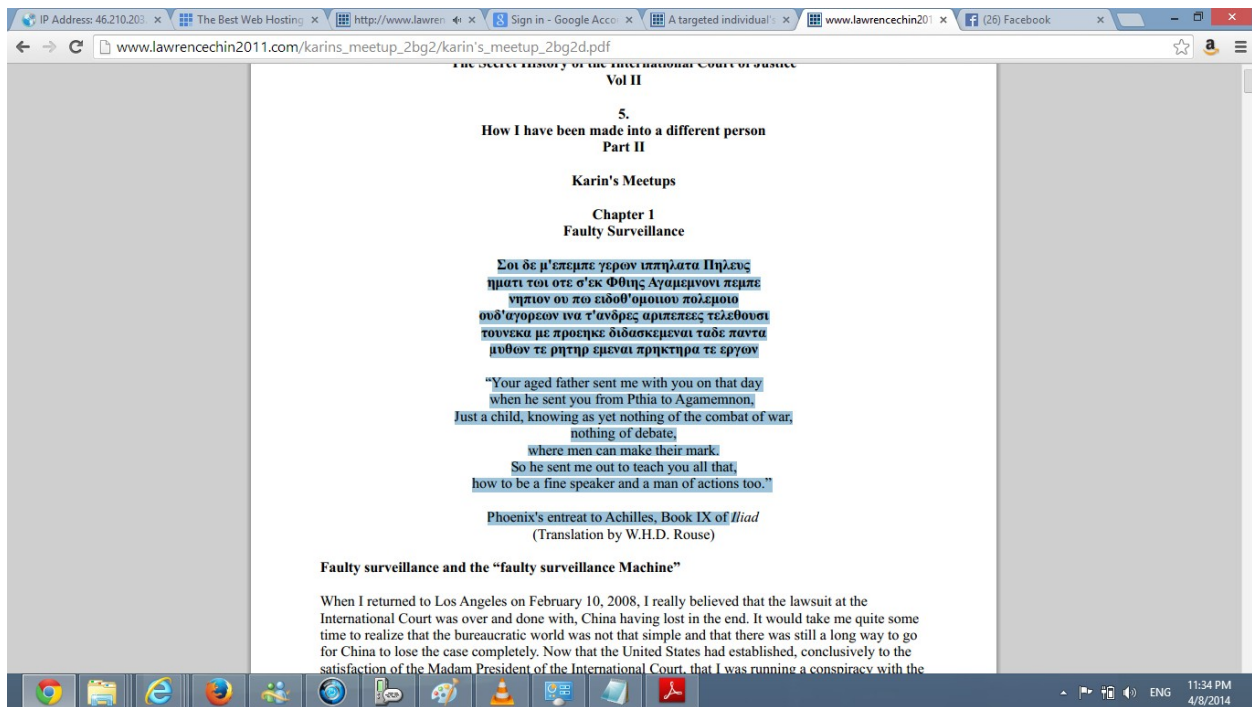

Help me here, DeDe.

As you can imagine, it’s because the TMU had rejected SDW’s pleas again this afternoon that the Monkey had controlled me to write to DeDe about her this late night. DeDe would for sure forward the message to SDW so that she could then forward it to the TMU: “He continues to come onto me! Help!”

Now let’s summarize what happened today. Right after 1 PM, SDW submitted my latest message to her to the TMU and yet the TMU still refused to open a stalking case on me saying the Homeland Security warning about me wasn’t correct. As a result, a Los Angeles volunteer (Annukka?) looked up my “Feefee and Valerie” on 3:14 PM to see if Marie could file a complaint to help SDW legitimize her claim, and SDW called on her La Jolla TI friend to come examine the evidence of my obsession with her. By 6:40 PM, I had left the seventh message on SDW’s blog and she was again frantically calling the TMU, but to no effect. Then, from 7:30 PM onward and for several hours, a Tel Aviv volunteer examined my blog trying to think of ways to help SDW. Then, 11 PM, the Monkey controlled me to write to DeDe about SDW so that SDW could have more evidence with which to call on the TMU again. Throughout the whole day there was also plenty of brainstorming about my computer-hacking, harassment of my family members, hosting Angelica’s naked pictures on my website – and plagiarism, since it was my (supposed) plagiarism which was the key to the whole stalking case.

9 April (Wednesday)

First, a note about myself. Coffee Bean, no reply from DeDe. Awakened, for the time being, from my sweet delusion about SDW. It didn’t hurt me that much because of my discovery of SDW’s provincial taste last night. But I was still angered, and I felt I needed to know about SDW in order to achieve equality with her. Came to the Sunset Blvd library and asked for SDW’s favorite movies. Then, while in Stories, called Wes (from 50:00 onward). I ranted about BOL and explained my distress over SDW’s “no response” policy.⁴³ After the confession to Wes, however,

43 At this point, my interpretation in the original version, from the summer of 2014: “Apparently, the TMU had been instructed by their government trainer to allow my ‘stalking victims’ (SDW and everybody else in Kiersten’s Secret Society: Karin especially) to listen to the intercept of my phone call.” This was not true, but the Secret Society women did listen to almost every one of my conversations with Wes, but they must have gained access to them either through Homeland Security CO chief or because Wes had been instructed by Homeland Security CO chief to supply them with the recordings of the conversations. “Ostensibly, the detectives were asking Karin whether she could identify this ‘British Old Lady’ I was talking about in order to put her under protection from my ‘stalking’ and ‘obsession’. Karin must be involved because she was the only person in the Secret Society who had actually read through my story and who was therefore able to identify this ‘British Old Lady’ as ‘DH’. (Everybody else just complained about my website without ever reading more than a few words from it.) Meanwhile, SDW, Kiersten, and Angelica must be laughing – and be ever more convinced of my delusional state of mind – while listening to the my infatuation returned. (The Monkey’s continual programming.)⁴⁴ I collected damages on Franklin. Home, past midnight, and kept ranting about SDW’s being a piece of trash.⁴⁵ Between 2 and 4 AM, I listened to BOL’s lecture which I had found online (legal.un.org).

Highlights of my conversation with Wes today: (1) SDW was my mirror image. (Confirming that the Secret Society women were right about me, that I kept developing delusions about the woman I became obsessed with.) (2) I didn’t want SDW anymore. (Confirming that the Secret Society women were right about me, that I hated whatever I loved at the same time.) (3) BOL should adopt me, for it was her program. (Confirming that Homeland Security was right about me, that I kept becoming obsessed with, and developing delusions about, public officials.) (4) I was the only person who was capable of doing BOL’s program by guessing it. (Confirming that Kiersten was right about me, that I suffered from grandiosity because I suffered from Narcissistic Personality Disorder.) (5) The remainder of the conversation was merely my continually emphasizing how important I was and Wes’ continually complaining about how I was self-centered and only interested in talking about myself, which was thus further confirmation that Kiersten was right about me, that I was narcissistic.

Now the Secret Society women’s operation on my website for today. 4:07 AM, I was editing my blog from home.

211.44.172.99 - - [09/Apr/2014:05:14:52 -0600] "GET /familyphotos/familyphoto2.jpg HTTP/1.1" 200 98910 "http://mark.space.4goo.net/photos/10012550?q=Chinese+Military+Academy+Taiwan" "Mozilla/5.0 (Linux; U; Android 4.1.2; ko-kr; IM-A850L Build/JZO54K) AppleWebKit/534.30 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/4.0 Mobile Safari/534.30"

4:22 AM, I was editing my blog from home. As noted, I posted “Why the CIA CS people were bad people before”.

4:33 AM,

intercept of my phone conversation: ‘Look how delusional he is. The woman is so concerned and has filed a stalking claim against him with the police, being completely freaked out by him, and yet he is there believing that the government is going to give her to him as a girlfriend. Hahaha! And he calls DH his ‘Mommy’. And he holds a Monkey toy in his arm. What a sicko! Hahaha!’” Presumably I was quite correct here. “The Panistas must be similarly amused. My conspirators just wanted evidences showing me conforming to M. Chertoff’s false profile of me as crazy and obsessive with important government officials, like DH – which they would soon obtain from Karin, as you shall see.” In reality, it was just Homeland Security CO chief and the Monkey who had made sure that I should conform today again to the Homeland Security warning about me as being frequently obsessed with, and delusional about, public officials.

44 And so my wrong interpretation at this point in the original version: “My conspirators continued to program me to be obsessed with SDW in order to replace evidences.”

45 At this point, my wrong interpretation: “This is how my conspirators, through manipulation and deceit, could have collected another piece of evidence showing me conforming to Kiersten’s false profile of me: that I love and hate SDW at the same time. (And the CIA has just collected another piece of evidence disproving Kiersten’s claims about me.)” In reality, it was just the Monkey who was controlling me to look like a danger to whoever I had become obsessed with.

50 In the original version, there was at this point this wrong-headed conclusion about the hype tonight about my solutions to Zeno’s paradoxes of motion: “The Herndon, Virginia, person was using a Nokia Asha 200 to look at this complicated webpage for about two and a half hour. The second person was using a Tecno 3 phone, while the third person was using, presumably, Blackberry Bold 9700. The amount of attention they had devoted to my solution to Zeno’s fourth paradox of motion seemed to indicate that they were experts hired by the government to assess the accuracy of Kiersten’s Secret Society’s claims (since people who made false reports rarely bothered to read more than a few words on my webpage). But why would professional researchers depend so much on cellphones? If the three persons were government-hired experts, since the solution to Zeno’s (fourth) paradox is meant to demonstrate that the speed of light entails Planck’s length via logical consistency (or vice versa, in order to avoid logical contradiction), presumably the researchers were physicists working on some issues in the relationship between quantum mechanics and general relativity. That is, Zeno’s fourth paradox demonstrates that, in order to preserve logical consistency, space and time must not only have a minimum (quantum) but also a maximum (speed of light), so that, when two light beams pass by each other from opposite directions, the speed of the light beam measured from the perspective of the other light beam is not the double of the speed of light, but simply the speed of light. In which case, if the light beams so passing by each other, and also passing by a stationary set of Planck lengths, are decelerating (or bending in their paths instead of going on a straight line), then the calculation for the effects of gravity can be factored in. Minkowski space-time metric has therefore to be replaced by Gaussian metric in the calculation of the space-time distance traveled by each light beam from the perspective of the other light beam (and in relation to the stationary Planck lengths). A bridge, via Zeno’s fourth paradox of motion, is then found between quantum mechanics (Planck length and Planck time) and general relativity (effects of gravity)... If the physicist in question noticed this (imagining the two rows of Planck lengths decelerating from the speed of light while passing each other by from opposite directions and passing by the stationary row of Planck lengths), then, presumably, he would be on the path toward solving the greatest scientific puzzle of all times – and toward explaining the origin of the universe itself. (General relativity and quantum mechanics must imply each other through logical consistency.) He might even use Zeno’s fourth paradox of motion as the basis on which to devise the experimental setup to test the new “unified theory”: i.e. set up a stationary row of Planck lengths, and then shoot two rows of photons from opposite directions passing by the stationary row, while exerting gravitational effects on the setup to cause the photons to bend in their path. If there are any incalculable variables in the mathematical representation of the space-time distance traveled by each of the three rows from the perspective of the other two, simply assume the conservation of energy, which elsewhere I have used to explain Fermat’s principle of least time and Kepler’s second law. Then, presumably, a mathematical representation (in terms of Gaussian metric) of Planck lengths moving at the speed of light under the effects of gravity (effects of gravity on the quantum scale) can be achieved. Reservation: doing Gaussian metrics of the spacetime distance traveled by these Planck lengths is of course enormously complicated by the fact that the uncertainty principle would have to apply at such Planck magnitudes. This would tremendously complicate the calculation of spacetime distance [traveled]. (The row of stationary Planck lengths cannot actually be stationary, otherwise their momentum would be infinite.) You can thus see that the representation of these Planck lengths with clearly definable positions in my solution of Zeno’s paradox of the stadium was an ideal situation which cannot actually exist. I have to wonder, however, whether such ideal situation is a ‘special case’ of the actual situation just as special relativity deals with a ‘special case’ of general relativity (objects moving in a straight line and at a constant speed in relation to each other) or circular orbit is a ‘special case’ of the elliptical orbits – and therefore can be solved in the same manner. In other words, just as light appears to be going on a straight path only when you consider an infinitesimal section of the light’s actual path (which is always a curve due to the effects of gravity in the region) – how special relativity is a special case of general relativity – so the Planck lengths in the ideal situation look stationary and have definite position (from the experimenter’s perspective) only when you consider an infinitesimal section of their uncertain positions and momenta. (Presumably, it’s not infinitesimal since, at some point, you can’t halve the ‘section’ anymore, i.e. at ‘Planck length’.) Then the positions and momenta of the Planck lengths in the experimental setup can be calculated only with matrices just as the spacetime distance they have traveled can only be calculated with (Gaussian) matrices. In other words, what I have presented on my chapter on Zeno is a ‘special case’ of quantum gravity, a ‘special theory of quantum gravity’ – where the Planck lengths travel at a constant speed and in a straight line and have definite momentum and definite position, a condition which doesn’t exist in reality – which one need only ‘generalize’ to arrive at a ‘general theory of quantum gravity’ – a Gaussian matrix which comprehends spacetime distances, positions, and momenta altogether – which could then be the foundation for the solution to the origin of the universe by allowing for the reconstruction of the [earliest] period of the universe before gravity separated from the three other fundamental forces of nature. The scientists hired by law enforcement to assess my writings were probably surprised by the fact that, after all the work in string [theories], the answer to ‘quantum gravity’ can already be found by combining the physics from the 1920s (Einstein and Heisenberg).”

Now let's summarize what happened today. While SDW had submitted my latest message to her from last night to the TMU and the TMU had continued to ignore her complaint citing the invalidity of the Homeland Security warning about me, the volunteers continued to work hard to find ways to convince the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct: (1) my delusions about Khalezov and the Russian President and Prime Minister; (2) my computer-hacking; (3) my harassment of my family members – not just my grandfather, but also my Aunt Jennifer (the Los Angeles volunteer); (4) my hosting of Angelica’s naked pictures on my website; and (5) my plagiarism. Note that both the Dallas and the Santa Monica volunteer had showed up again, and that three volunteers had been summoned by SDW to come examine my delusions about, and obsession with, her (the Adelaide, the Chicago, and the Microsoft (?) volunteer).⁵¹ Then, late in night, as the TMU continued to emphasize that there was no stalking case because there was no plagiarism, four volunteers came to focus on my chapters on Zeno as the definitive proof that I did plagiarize.

While all this efforts were futile, I did have a conversation with Wes today from which Homeland Security CO chief was able to intercept evidences to confirm in the ICJ that his team and his star witnesses had always been correct about me (my obsession with, and delusions about, SDW and other public figures, and my grandiosity and self-centeredness). My discovery of Madero’s new website this afternoon was also evidence for him.

10 April (Thursday)

First, a note about myself. Woke up 11 AM. Head so clear. Realized that one has definitely made a fool of oneself two times last night. At Coffee Bean to check the visitors’ log. Discovered that, on 10:59 AM, there was a visit to my 27/05/2012 blog post from the State Department. Paranoid. Terrified by the portrayal of me as some crazy suspect ranting about 911. Minutes later, however, concluded that this was part of the sting operation on the Mexicans. Not to worry. (Wrong!)

“I’m really scared about 911 truth. For the government to announce it, it’s like the Pope announcing that God does not exist: the entire Catholic church around the world would collapse. They can’t possibly do it.”

Then, came home, and Malik from Edelman called on 12:50 PM to ask me if I wanted to come back to see Dr R. Somebody wanted Dr R to falsely complain about me as harassing her! It’s obviously Homeland Security CO chief. But my wrong scenario at the time was that the trick was supposed to again establish the CIA’s claim: this stalker is full of love, assumes everybody loves him when everyone is actually ganging up on him to harm him. How can he be dangerous? It is everyone else who is a danger to him. Meanwhile, my wrong scenario continued, my conspirators will use my wrong assumption about people’s goodness and kindness as evidence for the delusional state of my mind. But this is, so my wrong scenario goes, the CIA’s evidence in the retrial of the Syrian scandal: When he is delusional, what is really going on is that his “traditional culture” just doesn’t correspond to the reality of the American, post-modern, culture. At home, wrote out four possible scenarios behind SDW’s visit. Mistakenly thought it was SDW who was inside the control center – that the Invisible Hand had taken her inside. More evidence for the delusional state of my mind! Infatuation subsided due to pain. Went to the Santa Monica Public Library, and found Hannah Arendt’s Eichmann in Jerusalem. Starbucks, Westwood. Began posting the contrast between 226 and AWFs. Thought that my conspirators would use this as evidences for my conforming to Kiersten’s (the Monkey’s, and M. Chertoff’s) false claim about me as a “misogynist”.

(What happened today was that, desperate for more evidence in the ICJ to temporarily lock up the previous ICJ trial, Homeland Security CO chief instructed Dr R and Malik to lure me back to Edelman if possible so that Dr R could falsely report me to the TMU for stalking her (thus reinforcing SDW’s case). You shall see more of this in the entries for 15 and 16 April.)

Hardly any other components are showing. A theme was emerging: SDW was quite annoyed by the fact – insofar as she had bought into the Homeland Security warning about me as a fake TI (believing I was chipped in the brain due to my schizophrenia) – that my blog posts about my targeting were corrupting the targeted individuals’ discursive world: just the exact opposite of reality!⁵² And so here she was telling her fellow TI in the UK: “See, if you do a search on ‘gang-stalking’, his bullshit about me will show up! Was this a complaint on behalf of Oliver?

5:43 AM, fixed.kpn.net, Houten, Netherlands,

52 In the original version, my (somewhat erroneous) interpretation at this point: “This search seemed to be conducted under SDW’s request. One of the reasons why SDW wanted my blog removed seemed to be that, when you Google ‘gang-stalking’, both her blog and my blog would appear together in Google’s top 10 (or top 30) search results, which bothered her, because she didn’t want herself to be mixed up with me in other people’s perception. She interpreted this as my ‘gang-stalking’ of her. The fact that I have a right to blog about ‘gang-stalking’ as much as she does has never figured in her mind – since, she, like Angelica, subscribed to ‘Ape Morality’, i.e. she has a ‘right’ to whatever she wants and, inversely, has a ‘right’ to the elimination of whatever she doesn’t like. Other people, especially males, don’t have ‘rights’. If you are too ugly for her to look at, then it’s her ‘right’ to have you ‘disappeared’ in her surrounding. You don’t have the right to be ugly when it bothers her. (From my perspective, I have in fact more right to blog about ‘gang-stalking’ than she has since her conception of ‘gang-stalking’ is all but delusional while mine is closer to the truth.) ‘Gang stalking 2014’ was a search term she would frequently use to check up on the status of my blog among Google’s search results. Thus, this one ‘how to ignore gang-stalking 2014’ looked very much like her work. Presumably, she thought that Karin’s work last night, in addition to all the false reports made in the three days prior to that, should have done the job. And yet it didn’t.”

This must be Karin. This is probably what had happened: desperate to intercept more evidence into the ICJ to lock up the previous ICJ trial and seeing that the TMU would not budge, Homeland Security CO chief instructed Karin to try the State Department instead. Karin and her meetup bunch still had their contact in the State Department from early 2008 when they were instructed to pretend to be concerned about my mental health and to report me (how I was acting on my delusions and wandering aimlessly in China and Germany). After hearing about my latest “delusions” about BOL, Karin thus, under Homeland Security CO chief’s instruction, called up the old contact in the State Department to report that I had developed new delusions about other public figures and so on and that I was thus likely to travel to overseas soon motivated by these new delusions. Apparently, while mentioning my new found delusions about BOL, she also reported on my delusions about Khalezov and Viktor Bout. The State Department contact thus did a search for my blog post. This is quite significant because the State Department official must have seen the evidence which China had forged to frame its spy chief for orchestrating 911 attacks. Perhaps Homeland Security CO chief thought that, by spilling out the truth, I would antagonize the State Department official prompting him to agree to issue a new warning about me in the international diplomatic channel. And yet, as we should expect, the State Department official did nothing because everybody there had already been instructed by the CIA to ignore

11:13 AM,

54 In the original version, my totally wrong-headed interpretation at this point: “[Karin] probably thought that, to suppress my website, she would do well if she could get me put on State Department’s watchlist again (as a paranoid schizophrenic obsessed with conspiracy theories and political officials). She especially wanted to do this because she didn’t want people to know that the evidences which she and her Meetup friends had seen [of] China’s orchestration of 911 attacks were forged (as if people outside governments had even heard of this). She thus, seeing that my website was not yet removed, made a request to the TMU saying that, since I also posed a danger to [BOL], a political figure, they should contact the State Department to warn them about me. The TMU complied with her request – as they were legally obliged to do so – called up the State Department, and let her speak with the relevant official in charge. While obliging the State Department to (again) put me on their watchlist and to warn [BOL] that I had been writing about, and was becoming dangerous obsessed with, this former president of the ICJ, Karin specifically mentioned that I had imagined up this bizarre theory explaining how the evidences of China’s orchestration of 911 attacks – which everybody in the State Department had certainly seen – could have been forged by the Chinese government itself. The State Department official followed her lead and Googled for the relevant blog post – although he didn’t bother to look at the more complete version of my theory which (in PDF) was linked to on the blog post. The State Department official, however, must have known that Karin was merely being set up to replace evidences (to absorb the CIA’s past crimes of harming me) and so must be only pretending to go along with her – while Karin would have thought that she had succeeded. This was probably why the State Department official never bothered to hide his IP address. This mysterious action of the State Department official however would lead me to believe that this was White Roses’ sting operation on the Panistas. This is how it works: if the government’s intention is malicious, there is no way that they would let me know that they have visited my website. This must be precisely what the State Department has told the Panistas: by not hiding our IP address, we’ll make him believe that we all love him and value him and are running a sting operation on you. He is so bizarre that he always thinks people are angels and all love him. The Panistas can clearly see that this is the case, given my bizarre, and totally wrong, assumption about SDW’s liking of me. There is probably some truth in this theory, though. Meanwhile, the CIA’s evidence in the Macrospherian ICJ: This is the ‘traditional’ mentality, ‘traditional culture’: He assumes other people are good, love him, until proven otherwise. Hence, he is the opposite of being dangerous when obsessive. A/ K have described the opposite of reality when they made their claims to the Threat Management Unit last year. I also believe that the CIA and their new White Rose recruits in the State Department were discussing their future about me while entering into the ICJ my reaction toward any exposure of the truth about 911 attacks as evidences for my true character. Because the posting was about 911, I would be induced to talk about my opinions on 911 truth in my next conversation with Wes, two days later. I cannot avoid talking about 911 truth if I want people to read my story ‘The Secret History’, but I’d rather avoid the controversy over this. I’m too shy and too timid for such controversial issue, and hence I prefer to publicize my story in Russia and elsewhere in the world, where 911 truth is more an object of curiosity than a political issue. My real issue is brain chips and mind-control; because I’m the victim of this technology, I definitely want everybody, even in America, to know about this technology – whereas, in the US at least, if I can avoid talking about 911 truth, I would. I suspect that this is in fact what the White Roses in the US government want. The CIA of course is already quite aware of my shyness vis-à-vis controversies, and is probably trying to convince such new recruit in the White Rose faction as William Burns, who is very aware of China’s forgery of documents on 911 attacks back in 2008. He probably had this inaccurate conception of me as an anti-American brat who would grab onto any chance to destroy America’s reputation having absolutely no restraints; which false conception the CIA wanted to dispel in his mind, by inducing me to talk about my opinion while entering it into the ICJ as evidence for my true character. Because of my conservatism and timidity, I tend to prefer eroding the enemy little by little in order to avoid risk and radical change. And so, the White Roses’ real concern must be with the exposure of 911 truth, even though they are innocent of it. The CIA has orchestrated the Syrian scandal and the Kiersten Affair without the government’s involvement in mind-control, so that my targeting story would sound more like Dr John Hall’s story in A New Breed: how private citizens broke into the government’s system to use it to abuse others. If the story about brain chips and the control center is exposed in the US mainstream media, presumably people will be able to handle it. In other words, the CIA has reactivated the previous ICJ trial by orchestrating a scandal which, this time, can actually be talked about within the United States itself – a scandal which would not contradict people’s naïve, and good, impression of their government.”

56 At this point, my erroneous conclusion for today in the original version: “Thus, everybody was busy doing his or her part in producing evidences to replace past evidences in the previous ICJ trial, or generating evidences for the ‘retrial’ of the Syrian scandal (the current ICJ trial). Karin was repeating the CIA’s past crimes (against me) in order to rewrite the evidentiary records from the previous ICJ trial and erase the CIA’s crimes therefrom (absorbing them onto herself), while I had to suffer my ‘conspirators’ (specifically the PRI team and Homeland Security CO chief) inside the control center to hurt me, to program me to obsess over a woman under the erroneous belief that she liked me, and to mislead me to develop all sorts of bizarre, and incorrect, scenarios about the government’s plan in this whole thing (e.g. the Invisible Hand training SDW in preparation for giving her to me as my girlfriend) – all in order to similarly rewrite the evidentiary records from the previous ICJ trial to exonerate Russia. (Since it was the Russians who were trying to drive me to violence and using my incorrect beliefs about what they were doing as evidences for my supposed schizophrenia – to confirm Angelica’s father’s false profile of me – the PRI and the Panistas were absorbing Russia’s past crimes against me.) All the while, evidences about my, and the women’s, character were being entered into the secret ICJ to conclude the judgment over the Syrian scandal. That is, after the CIA and the Russians had raped me, they got somebody else to rape me again in order to erase their past crimes of raping me from the ICJ records – thanks to the rule for evidence-replacement. And this, after I had tried to help them. Go figure.” I have decided to keep this conclusion here because something like this might happen in the future.

My delusional mind.

Let’s summarize what had happened today. Desperate for a third-party confirmation that his warning about me was correct, Homeland Security CO chief instructed Karin and so on this morning to report my latest “delusions” about BOL and Khalezov to the State Department. The reporting, from 11 AM onward, seemed to have lasted several hours. The report also included: (1) my delusions about Angelica and hosting her naked picture on my website; (2) my delusions about having something to do with the CIA; (3) my harassment of Shizuka; (4) my computer-hacking; and (5) my plagiarism. Basically, just trying to convince the State Department official that Homeland Security was right about me. But the man didn’t bother to act in any way whatsoever. Other than this, SDW had also summoned her TI friends on morning and night to examine my pollution of the targeted individuals discursive domain and delusions about her. Late night, another Russian volunteer also came to examine my “delusions” about the chips inside my brain.

11 April (Friday)

First, a note about myself. Storage. Still infatuated with SDW. Stories LA. 4:10 PM, sent Wes a picture of myself posing with my Little Monkey. (Homeland Security CO chief’s evidence.) Then a posted a disclaimer on the index page of my website (“conspiracy theories”). Then posted a new post on my blog: “Tu quoque”.⁵⁷ Then, at King King. No collection of damages.

(Once again, we must expect the same situation. Because Homeland Security CO chief didn’t obtain his evidence from the State Department yesterday, he instructed the Monkey today to remotely control me to post more crazy stuff on my blog. Thus, “Tu quoque” was another evidence of his that I was delusional (about some upcoming prosecution in the International Criminal Court) and, more importantly, that I had again developed delusions about some famous person, i.e. Chelsea. As expected, Homeland Security would then contact the Clinton family to warn them that I had now focused my attention on their daughter. This was all the more convenient since, just three years ago, I wrote a letter to Mrs Clinton which had already given Homeland Security a reason to investigate me anew. Meanwhile, this warning to the Clinton family would be intercepted into the ICJ to temporarily lock up the previous ICJ trial although, when Homeland Security CO chief passed on the matter to the TMU, the TMU would again say that there was no indication as to who this “Chelsea” referred to.

But, as usual, the hidden program on the Monkey’s computer was again active so that, when I posted this “Tu quoque”, while it appeared crazy to Homeland Security CO chief and could be used as evidence to temporarily lock up the previous ICJ trial, I was again uttering a prophecy about what would happen many years later. Namely, something like what I said would happen, if you have learned to switch some names around (such as switching one country or agency for another or substituting one person for another) and not be too precise about the events being described. Most importantly, I had laid out the argument which the Invisible Hand could use with BOL in their second, secret trial to justify the orchestration of the upcoming happening (purposely letting Homeland Security, the Secret Society women, and the Russians victimize me in order to use me as a bait to bust them). Apart from this, the Invisible Hand might have even in this way obtained an ICJ judgment enabling the CIA to use just such an argument, and with success, in the International Criminal Court once the previous ICJ trial shall have been reactivated and the scandal concluded. Thus, the Invisible Hand was continuing to use my blog posts to lay the foundation for the program which he had promised BOL he would implement.)⁵⁸

Now the Secret Society women’s operation on my website for today. 4:09 AM, dhcp214171.library.emory.edu, Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia,

⁵⁸ What was left unsaid in my blog post was the possibility that, one day, when Ekaterina’s father and Homeland Security CO chief shall have been transported to the International Criminal Court for prosecution, they are certainly gonna point their finger at the CIA: “We have learned to do our bad things by imitating the CIA! The CIA has done all this too! Why won’t you prosecute the CIA? This is unfair!” Namely, another “Tu quoque”.

Another loyal volunteer from Poland had heeded SDW’s complaints about my victimization of her on my blog and came to take a look.

A second volunteer had been summoned by SDW to come examine my victimization of her on my blog.

2:16 PM, some proxy in Romania, most likely somebody in the LUG:

37.221.162.226 - - [11/Apr/2014:15:16:14 -0600] "GET /blogs HTTP/1.1" 301 568 "-" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.1; rv:24.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/24.0"

This volunteer would come to my website repeatedly (e.g. 7 and 8 May), always using TOR or proxy, so that we must conclude that it was a LUG buddy. Just here to examine my victimization of SDW which the TMU had chosen to ignore. At the same time, it’s the Menlo Park volunteer again:

This is the fourth person whom SDW had called upon today to come examine my victimization of her on my blog. Note that Cheshire is about 20 miles east of Ridgefield. Again, we have to suspect this person to be one of SDW’s family members. Either her mother Patricia Sheehan or her sister Constance Cozens.⁶¹ Note that the search term which SDW asked her sister or mother to input, this time, was “high stakes gang-stalking”. Weird. We thus learn that “high stakes gang-stalking” is another search term which SDW liked to use to check up on the status of my blog in Google’s search results.

61 In the original version, I noted at this point: “Among [SDW’s] sisters, Betsy Reid, Patsy Knoche, and Connie Cozens were all still in Ridgefield.” It’s quite possible that this Cheshire volunteer was neither SDW’s mother nor her sister Constance, but one of these two other sisters. Patricia Sheehan Knoche (b. 1954), married to Joseph Knoche, has still currently a property in Ridgefield, at 46 Pelham Lane. Meanwhile, there is a certain Elizabeth Ann Reid (b. 1953) who has a house in Ridgefield at 132 Great Hill Road – not sure whether this is the right “Betsy”.

Now, let’s summarize what happened today. While the Secret Society women continued to mobilize their volunteers to examine my harassment of Shizuka, hosting Angelica’s naked pictures on my website, plagiarism, and delusions about the chips inside my brain, Homeland Security CO chief’s main accomplishment today consisted in getting me to post more of my “delusions” on my blog to enable him to talk to the Clinton family again. Meanwhile, SDW, terribly upset about the inaction by the TMU and the State Department, summoned three volunteers (including a Polish volunteer and a LUG buddy) to examine my horrifying blog posts about her. Then, late in night, she summoned her sister or mother again and two more volunteers to continue to fret over these blog posts.

12 April (Saturday)

First, a note about myself. I was at King King until 3 AM. By 8 AM, I had posted the blog post you see for today: “The problem identified: the medicine tastes bitter.” (Again, the Monkey had remotely controlled me to write this blog post as Homeland Security CO chief’s evidence that I continued to develop delusions about the woman I was obsessed with: all my scenarios about SDW were wrong (she was never recruited as an informant inside Kiersten’s secret organization and was certainly never chosen by the Invisible Hand for anything). Furthermore, it delighted Homeland Security CO chief when I wrote here about how SDW would be ordered to “eat shit”. But once again, you never know if I wasn’t simply prophesying about the future without knowing (when you substitute a man for a woman and switch one party for another and so on).)⁶²

4:30 PM, called Wes – recorded in: “IMPwessdwoman_4_12_14_422-530PM.MP3” (from 14:40 onward). Highlights: (1) We are playing the ‘opposite world’, and so the Asian nerd needs to 62 The blog post was so stupid because of its bizarre overestimation of SDW’s character and intellect, as if she could ever understand what’s good for the world when it was explained to her and develop sympathy for somebody as ugly as I was.

victimize a violent Hispanic, and SDW is supposed to look for me and I’m supposed to reject her. (The Secret Society women and I would indeed play out the “Opposite World”, but not in the way I had described here.) (2) How to overcome the rule that I wasn’t allowed to know anything: get myself to tell myself. (3) My need to move out of the country. (4) When I would be ‘inside’, SDW would be left out. (5) Obsession as ‘waiting for my own idea to come to me’. (So far, more evidence for Homeland Security CO chief and the Secret Society women that I was obsessed with SDW and had developed delusions about her.) (6) Why the CIA put dumb young people in the inside and pushed smart people like me to the outside. (7) Wes’ paper on Rousseau. (8) Since yesterday, I started reading Hannah Arendt’s Eichmann in Jerusalem. There was going to be a trial and the government would invite me to testify at the trial. (Again, I could be unknowingly prophesying about the future while looking delusional to Homeland Security CO chief.) The visit from the State Department two days ago. (9) SDW’s blog, my worry that my reconstruction might not be totally correct, and how to save it by using commentary to change the function of the main text. Wes’ example: Descartes and his Meditations. Two ways to create esoteric meanings: (a) embed them in the text and (b) add commentaries to make the original exoteric meanings into esoteric. (10) SDW’s thought-process was too “solid” with no capacity for her to doubt herself, to think that what looks real might not be real. (My correct diagnosis of the key factor to SDW’s entire gang-stalking delusion: most people just aren’t smart enough to understand why they believe what they believe.) (11) My continual infatuation with SDW.⁶³ (12) Fundamental changes have occurred in the government, but I can’t see any signs of it: I’m blind-folded. (Again, was I unknowingly prophesying about the future while looking delusional to Homeland Security CO chief?) (13) I could not see my stalking victims and know what they were doing even though I was “stalking” them, while they knew everything about me. The ‘Opposite World’. (Indeed!) (14) Then I noted (58:30): “They should make a movie about it.” Wes: “They did already. They have made a movie about you; it’s a true story; but it hasn’t happened yet, and so they are waiting for it to happen in the way they want it so that they can release it and claim ‘It’s a true story’”. Then he suggested: “Google, ‘the German Lady, San Diego’.” (15) Me: “The 14th is the deadline.” (Not! My “delusion” again!)

Let’s think a little about what Wes was saying in the end. The assumption I would carry with me in the next few years was probably half-correct and half-false. The Invisible Hand had indeed simulated on his super computer a course of events for both me and the Secret Society women (including Ekaterina) to play out. That’s the “script” for us. He had written out a “script” for us (“They have made a movie about you”) and he would, in the coming years, manipulate us to play out the “script” by staging events in such wise as to cause us to react in the way he wanted us to react (“It hasn’t happened yet; they are going to make it happen in the way they want it, so

63 In the original version, my commentary at this point: “This is normal: for the normal function of the human brain is merely to believe, but not to think about what is believed. SDW has never reflected on what she believes, neither have those who don’t share her belief ever wondered about their disbelief about her belief. While this is great insight, you can then hear just how deluded I was about SDW’s impending showing-up to be my girlfriend. The CIA is evidently presenting its own evidences to the Macrospherian ICJ: This guy is a genius, as you can hear him analyzing “esoteric v. exoteric” messages. But he then sounds so crazy. Why? Well, because he is deceived. Because he can’t see the people he is interacting with. Because he, like everyone else, projects himself onto other people. He thinks everybody else is as righteous and understanding and sympathetic as he is. At the same time, the CIA will also prove that, when I’m obsessive, I’m so filled with love and tender feelings that I’m actually far less dangerous to the object of my obsession. Again, A/ K have described the opposite of reality in their claims to the Threat Management officers.”

that, in then end, they can stamp it with ‘True story’ and release it”). This is what I had got right. What I had got wrong is that, once again, Wes was really talking more about the Secret Society women than about me. (The Invisible Hand was more focused on making a movie about my “women victims” than about me, even though any movie about my “women victims” would necessarily include episodes about me.) Furthermore, I had failed to recognize the fact that, from the perspective of the evidentiary record in the second, secret trial, this “secret message” was really just bullshit which Homeland Security CO chief had instructed Wes to say to me in order to lock me up further in my “delusion” (how the Macrospherians had great plans for me). That is, saying to the terrorist suspect things that fit his belief. Again, the Invisible Hand must have let Homeland Security CO chief do this because, once I believed it and looked delusional, he could then reverse the terrorist conspiracy against him by really making me and my “women victims” play out the “script” he had written for us. The only remaining mystery was why Wes instructed me to Google “The German Lady, San Diego” – for my original conception (which you see in the footnote) was clearly erroneous.⁶⁴

Stories LA, tried out SDW’s music (Bob Dylan, etc.). Didn’t like it, and watched the Chinese movie “Palace” (宮鎖沉香). Cried. Conspiracy: “medicine” even tastes bitter to oneself. Damages collected: only 4 B.

Probably some time in the morning, SDW posted on her blog a gang-stalking video of a targeted individual. It’s a very stupid video, reflective of the deficiency of her intellectual development.

Now, let’s examine the Secret Society women’s operation on my website for today. 5:08 AM,

5:11 AM, I was editing my blog from home.

5:35 AM, dynamic.totinternet.net, Phayao, Thailand,

64 In original version, my conclusion runs thusly: “Note that, on 59:00, Wes was giving me a hint about how CIA has orchestrated this ‘Kiersten Affair’ in order to change society and social consciousness: ‘They have made a movie about you; it’s a true story; they are waiting for you to fulfill the “script” so that they can release it and claim “It’s a true story”’. Namely, the CIA has simulated the whole course of events and already known a long time ago what would come out of these women’s renewed campaign against my website. (Refer, again, to Acts, 13:29: ὡς δε ετελεσαν απαντα τα περι αυτου γεγραμμενα...) But, to the Mexicans inside the control center, it would simply look as if my conspirators (the French and the Republicans) had instructed Wes to deceive me, to further lead me onto delusional scenarios – that these Macrospherians loved me and had prepared some great ending for me – and more obsession with SDW by making me expect her coming: ‘Google, German Lady, San Diego.’ Wes was in fact trying to hint to me – for the second time – that it was Karin who had urged SDW to initiate the current new campaign against my website. He couldn’t just tell me what happened because SDW had just got law enforcement to label me her ‘cyberstalker’ and victim confidentiality prohibits anyone from letting the stalker know that he has stalked somebody and is currently being investigated. He thus had to go round about as if still talking about the metaphor for the CIA plan. It would take me almost five months to understand what Wes was doing here. Within two months I would understand that Wes was hinting to me that the current episode with SDW would produce the evidences to replace those for the past episode with Karin, which, of course, wasn’t incorrect.”

How did this happen? (Note that I seem to have originally named the blog post differently.)

11:20 AM, it’s the Budd Lake volunteer last seen on 7 April.

Apparently, SDW was calling on her relatives again to examine my obsession with, and delusions about, her. Lucky for me that, under this tag, the Budd Lake volunteer wouldn’t yet see my latest “delusion” about SDW in which I imagined her being ordered to “eat shit”!

Here to examine again my victimization of SDW with my delusions about her?

Let’s summarize. After their failure with the State Department, the Secret Society women continued to mobilize their volunteers to brainstorm how to prove to authorities that the Homeland Security warnings about me were correct: (1) my harassment of Shizuka; (2) my computer-hacking; (3) Angelica’s naked picture; (4) my crazy letters to foreign politicians; (5) my delusions about public figures (Khalezov); (6) my harassment of my family members; and (7) my plagiarism (including my violation of Mellhedek’s intellectual property rights). It’s not clear if any of this reporting was made to the Clinton family whom Homeland Security must have warned.

Note that, desperate, SDW had again called on three persons to come examine my blog posts about her – on 11:20 AM (her Budd Lake relative), 5:10 PM (the Chicago volunteer), and 8:59 PM (the Calgary volunteer) – and then called up the ICAACT people to talk about my harassment of them with my blog. Then, around 10 PM, desperate, the whole women gang also talked to Aamoy. Finally, from 4 AM onward, the same crowd from the early morning of 10 April came to brainstorm about my chapters on Zeno (how to prove that these were plagiarized).

All this reporting and brainstorming helped Homeland Security CO chief not the slightest bit. Instead, from my new blog post and conversation with Wes today, he was able to obtain further evidence that he was right about me – that I indeed kept developing delusions about the woman I was obsessed with – with which he could temporarily lock up the previous ICJ trial.

13 April (Sunday)

First, a note about myself. Orthodox Church. Watched the movie on Jesus. Vulgar. In an upbeat mood, erroneously believing that the government officials observing me must love me so much for being so smart.⁶⁹ Stories. DVD verification error, 7 PM. Watched the Chinese movie “Palace” again. Starbucks, posted more on 9:16 PM: “Last word on my past two months of targeting and ‘gang stalking’”. My erroneous belief that the Invisible Hand was training SDW (healing her from her delusion of gang-stalking) caused me to believe, further erroneously, that SDW would appreciate my explanation as to how her “gang-stalking” delusion could have arisen. (Of course I would only end up further offending her.)⁷⁰

(It is obviously the Monkey who had controlled me to blog this “Last word” in order to help Homeland Security CO chief and the Secret Society women. Again, the blog post was evidence

69 At this point, in the original version: “Again, my wrong assumption about everybody’s loving me is evidences for my delusional state of mind enabling the erasure of the past ICJ trial.”

70 At this point, in the original version: “Meanwhile, my conspirators have collected more evidences for my delusional state of mind – not just this: somehow I also believe that SDW has watched this Chinese movie – under Invisible Hand’s instruction – and likes it, and that the Macrospherians regard this sort of Chinese classics useful for reforming the American mind.”

that I was delusional (being mind-controlled, Americanists’ debate on PBS), delusional about the woman I was obsessed with (SDW and IH), and racist toward Hispanics (the negative comment about Mexico). Just more evidence to enable Homeland Security CO chief to temporarily lock up the previous ICJ trial. Note that, again, you should wonder whether my imagination about the debate on PBS might really happen in the future.)

(And Homeland Security was of course out of the question.)

73 In the original version, I noted Maureen Elizabeth Sheehan who supposedly lived in New York City. A current search on Intelius yields a certain Maureen Elizabeth Sheehan that seems to have been married to David Liebowitz. Maureen (b. 23.10.1957) had addresses in New York City until 2015, but also a house in Greenwich, Connecticut (7 Orchard Dr.), that was merely 10 miles south of Ridgefield.

Now, let’s summarize. Just another day that the Secret Society women had to mobilize their volunteers to brainstorm how to prove to law enforcement and so on that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct: (1) how I kept Angelica’s naked pictures on my website (6 times!). (2) My harassment of Shizuka. (3) My computer-hacking. (4) My delusions about the chips inside my brain. (5) How my delusions prompted me to be a danger to others. And of course (6) my plagiarism.

Early in the morning, as SDW and the other Secret Society women were feeling increasingly desperate about the current situation, they called upon this Los Angeles volunteer who looked through my blog from 7 to 7:50 AM. “This guy is clearly obsessive, delusional, and a danger to people, the Homeland Security warning about him is correct!” – so he would have agreed. Then, SDW called upon four persons in total to come examine how I had victimized her with all these crazy blog posts – “And yet the police refuse to care!”: on 2:22 PM, the Columbus volunteer; on 3:37 PM, the Trinity, North Carolina, volunteer (her relative?); on 10:14 PM, the Opera Mini volunteer; and on 10:39 PM, the Hopewell volunteer (Liz?).

Then, lastly, on 12:24 AM, Angelica called on another UK volunteer to come examine my crazy Nicaragua videos as the best proof that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct. Meanwhile, as for Homeland Security CO chief, he had but my latest blog post “Last Word” as his evidence in the ICJ.

14 April (Monday)

First, a note about myself. For quite a while, had been assuming that the CIA had given me a secret message on 2 November last year telling me that today is some sort of “deadline”, and that they will send SDW to me to be my GF. So excited. Laundry. All the fantasy about SDW’s leaving behind foot prints in the Secret Garden. Wrong assumption about her positive feelings for me... (Just delusions which the Monkey was programming me to suffer.) Went to the Sunset library to pick up the videos (SDW’s favorites). Was even expecting to run into her in the library, and almost cried when this did not happen. Cried in Stories. Looked at SDW’s Facebook group around 7 PM to take account of her recent postings. Almost 8 PM, discovered this “Triphon” (Bulgaria) among SDW’s TI friends on Facebook. Posted a message on Elaine’s Facebook page on 8:12 PM. Word crashed around 8:45 PM. Collected damages in Franklin. Home. Watched “Now Is Good”, and cried, tortured by infatuation. Then, was remotely controlled to masturbate, K-style.⁷⁴

Another “delusion” is about Madero’s being busted today. There are no posts on his blog for several days.⁷⁵ (Again, just the Monkey’s programming me to continue to suffer “delusions” about some public figure.)

(In any case, I had sort of awakened to the reality today that everything I had believed about the Invisible Hand’s plan for me and SDW – curing her and sending her to me for me to train her so that she could one day become America’s president – was just so much garbage. What I didn’t yet understand was who did it and why I was made to believe this, i.e., to look delusional so that Homeland Security CO chief could claim in the ICJ that he was right about me in order to prevent the CIA from reactivating the previous ICJ trial. I would only realize that I had fallen into Homeland Security’s trap in 2016 and then why Homeland Security CO chief controlled me to believe in all this garbage in late 2020 and early 2021. Nevertheless, you should be prepared for the possibility that the Invisible Hand would make something like my delusions about SDW come true in the future, although with somebody else.)

Now the Secret Society women’s operation on my website for today. 4:06 AM,

Note that Matthews was between Atlanta and Raleigh, about 150 miles from Atlanta and 100 miles from Raleigh. Compare this with the person seen yesterday from Trinity, North Carolina, which is about 40 miles west from Raleigh and 50 miles northeast from Matthews. Very likely related. My misogynist rambling? Note what is said of this college on Wikipedia:

“Hampshire College is a private liberal arts college in Amherst, Massachusetts, United States. It was opened in 1970 as an experiment in alternative education, in association with four other colleges in the Pioneer Valley: Amherst College, Smith College, Mount Holyoke College and the University of Massachusetts Amherst. Together they are now known as the Five Colleges, or the Five College Area.

“The College is widely known for its alternative curriculum, focus on portfolios rather than distribution requirements, and reliance on narrative evaluations instead of grades and GPAs. In some fields, it is among the top undergraduate institutions in percentage of graduates who enroll in graduate school. Fifty-six percent of its alumni have at least one graduate degree and it is ranked 30th among all US colleges in the percentage of its graduates who go on to attain a doctorate degree (notably first among history doctorates).”

Chicago. It might be her or her associate.” It’s not clear how I came to this. Vicki Marie Burnett (b. 27.01.1978), who had a Peacepink page at peacepink.ning.com/members/VickiBurnett, had an address history in Las Vegas going back to 2005, and then in Saint Paul, Minnesota, before that.

78 In the original version, I noted at this point: “Note that Cynthia Edwards Sheehan lived in Atlanta, Georgia. SDW’s sister was checking up on the status of my blog posts. But on 5 AM in the morning (local time)! That her relative would stay up so late over these few insignificant and incomprehensible blog posts bespeaks the enormity of the fuss which SDW had made of the matter and the frightening extent of her ‘acute paranoia’ (in David’s words, later on) and obsessive compulsive disorder – surpassing Angelica’s, even.” It’s not clear whether I might be correct here. SDW’s older brother, Stephen Ennis Sheehan (b. 02.09.1966), with his wife Cynthia Lynne Sheehan (b. Cynthia Lynne Edwards, 31.05.1967), seemed to be living in Cumming, Georgia, at 6425 Ivey Manor Dr., around this time, before moving onto a new home in Cumming in 2020 (4925 Bantry Way). Later on we will suspect the “Lilburn volunteer” to be Stephen Sheehan. We will then suspect his phone to be “Android 4.4.2; SAMSUNG-SM-N900A Build/KOT49H”. It’s possible that this person (Android 2.3.4; en-us; LG-P999 Build/GRJ22) was in fact Cynthia Sheehan.

Angelica’s naked picture again!

Now let’s summarize what had happened today. Today was just another day that the Secret Society women would mobilize volunteers to continue to brainstorm how to prove to the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct and persuade them to reopen the stalking case against me. Throughout the early part of the day: (1) Angelica’s naked picture. (2) My harassment of Shizuka. (3) My computer-hacking. (4) My delusions about the chips inside my brain. (5) My misogynist rambling. (6) My danger to others due to my delusions. And of course (7) my plagiarism, on which the volunteers had a special focus during the morning.

As SDW continued her desperation over the TMU’s refusal to open a stalking case on her behalf, she called upon four more persons today to come examine my victimization of her on my blog (which the police had refused to care): on 2:57 PM, the North Carolina volunteer; on 6:13 PM, the Chicago volunteer; on 12:56 AM, the Sydney volunteer; and on 2:08 AM, the Georgia volunteer (her sister-in-law Cynthia?).

Also to be noted are the Hong Kong volunteer on 10:04 PM, the University of Melbourne volunteer on 11:08 PM (my front page), the University of Amsterdam volunteer from 4 to 5 AM, here to examine my delusions about Putin and Medvedev, and the big fuss about Angelica’s “naked picture” in this late night (could this be a reason to force the TMU to reopen the stalking case against me?).

15 April (Tuesday)

First, a note about myself. Remotely controlled to wake up early. In complete emotional wreck. Reflected on my trauma, and mental health profession’s “pretending”. There is no treatment for my disease existing in the mental health industry. Came to Edelman. Nobody knew why I was here. Spoke with Malik. I would later assume that Dr R and Malik were just instructed by the government to lure me to a trap so that Dr R may falsely complain about me in accordance with Kiersten’s false profile about me. (I was somewhat correct.) I then came to UCLA, and I suddenly felt better. Night, reflected on how IH had found SDW in early 2012. Home, watched “Pretty Dirty Thing”.

(As noted, it’s Homeland Security CO chief who had instructed Malik and Dr R to call me over so that, tomorrow, Dr R could falsely complain to the TMU saying I was stalking her. This, so that the Secret Society women could have a better reason to request the TMU to reopen the stalking case against me. I thought at the time however that Dr R herself might have wanted to do this in order to revenge. Namely, after she received my message, she asked Malik to call me over so that she could then tell me to go away, in which case: “It’s me who have dumped you, not you who have dumped me!”)

Now, let’s consider the Secret Society women’s operations on my website for today. 4:57 AM,

9 PM, I was editing my blog from Starbucks. I posted the blog post you see for 16 April, “Third run of infatuation targeting and more of US mental health industry”. On the one hand, to prepare for what shall happen tomorrow, the Monkey wanted me to post more of my obsession with, and delusion about, SDW on my blog in order to provide her with more evidence. On the other hand, the Invisible Hand’s hidden program was clearly at work again: that the mental health community, in fact the whole America, was just a “staged show” was probably the Invisible Hand’s opinion too, and he had a strategic purpose that shall become apparent in the future when he used me as his mouthpiece. To transfer my terrorist status onto the Secret Society women was probably also the Invisible Hand’s plan. Meanwhile, while “women are a bunch of waste” was probably also the Invisible Hand’s opinion (not in a bad way, but because he was concerned that women were becoming much dumber than before), this was Homeland Security’s, and his star witnesses’, evidence that I was indeed a misogynist. Finally, all my speculations about the “Plan” – making SDW into America’s president and the way in which the scandal was orchestrated – while evidence for Homeland Security CO chief and his star witnesses that I was completely delusional, might again express something which the Invisible Hand would make sure shall happen in the future (with some switching of personages and so on).

This was the fourth person whom SDW had called upon today to come examine my victimization of her on my blog. Now this person would be visiting my blog almost daily from this point on, day after day, and month after month. The person is most likely some relative of SDW’s, who didn’t work but stayed home all day.⁸¹ Note that she’s the second person to discover my latest blog post: “The stalker was expressing more delusions about my little niece!” 7 minutes later, on 10:25 PM, she continued:

184.56.169.16 - - [15/Apr/2014:23:25:59 -0600] "GET/blogs/2014/04/14/last-word-on-my-past-two-month-targeting-andgang-stalking/ HTTP/1.1" 200 5560 "http://webcache.googleusercontent.com/search?q=cache:z99hyOWtN1cJ:www.lawrencechin2011.com/blogs/2014/04/16/third-run-of-infatuation-targeting-and-more-on-us-mental-healthindustry-etc/

81 Given the importance of this person in subsequent days, we cannot help but want to speculate a little on her identity. While a search of her IP address on dehashed.com turned up nobody suspicious, a search of it on thatsthem.com turned up a certain “Barbara McCafferty” (b. “Mullin” on 17.08.1937) – suspicious because this record was updated 7 years ago, i.e. just around the summer of 2014. At the time she lived in 32 W. Pearl St. #100, Albion, Pennsylvania, 16401. It’s not clear if she might just be the Erie person we are seeking here.

10:32 PM, she listened to the recording embedded in this blog post:

Something was going on. By this time, Dr R had already agreed – per Homeland Security CO chief's order – to file another complaint to the TMU tomorrow saying I was stalking her and requesting that my case be reopened. Excited that she might be validated as the victim of my stalking after all, SDW was telling all her family members about it. The task at hand was to collect more evidence so that, tomorrow, SDW might add herself to Dr R's complaint as an additional victim. This time, one of her relatives who lived in Erie, Pennsylvania, and who had a lot of free time promised to take up the task. Because the Homeland Security warning about me portrayed me in such a monstrous light – and because nobody knew why Homeland Security CO chief was doing this or that a government agency could just be making up stories to scare people – this Erie relative believe whole-heartedly that the obsession I had expressed about SDW here portended tremendous danger. Note that it's 1:18 AM in Pennsylvania at the moment. She had spent less than 20 minutes on my blog and had to go to bed. She would check my blog tomorrow.

Now, let’s summarize. As the Secret Society women prepared themselves for using Dr R to persuade the TMU to reopen their stalking case on me, they continued to mobilize volunteers to brainstorm ways to convince the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct: (1) my delusions about there being chips planted in my brain. (2) My Nicaragua videos (on 6:52 AM and 7:27 PM, per Angelica’s request)⁸³. (3) My harassment of Shizuka. (4) How I had kept Angelica’s naked picture on my website. And (5) my plagiarism (including the Odessa volunteer who brainstormed for half an hour from 9:20 AM onward about how to prove that I had plagiarized my theory on linear perspective).

Meanwhile, SDW continued to call upon people to come examine how I had victimized her on my blog. First, on 2:40 PM, the UK volunteer. Then, on 5:27 PM, the Lemon Grove volunteer (a TI). By this time, however, Dr R had announced to everyone that she would complain about me to the TMU tomorrow. SDW now set out to collect more evidence on her behalf for tomorrow. She called upon the Kentucky volunteer on 10:02 PM, and then her relative in Erie, Pennsylvania, on 10:18 PM. The Erie relative collected my new blog post about SDW as evidence but then went to bed. The Waterville, Maine, volunteer on 9:34 PM had also collected more evidence of my delusional mind for tomorrow.

Note also that, today, Aamoy changed his picture on his Facebook page. From now on, Aamoy would rarely do anything on his Facebook save changing his cover picture. I would later on wrongly suspect that it was his government handler who had instructed him to do this – to produce a “sign” for me, just as SDW was told to do from October last year to February this year.

16 April (Wednesday; David/ Dr R)

First, a note about myself. Woke up early. Watched “Adjustment Bureau”. Then, in TNT. Made a recording about SDW again: “16 years and enlightenment.” (Per the Monkey’s programming, as you shall see.) Then, at Stories, writing out the blog post you see for 17 April, “16 April: infatuation targeting continues”. Was in a hurry to finish it, and thus skipped shopping at Home Depot. David called. Couldn’t help but expect SDW. Mind-fucked.⁸⁴ Met David in Starbucks, Vermont/ Prospect. Recorded in: “IMPvermntstrbkdauidmauraangrydmg_4_16-17_14_834PM-101AM.MP3”. David wanted the link to SDW’s blog. He was TMU’s informant in the Secret Society women’s organization and was intimately aware of the situation: that SDW was so offended by my blog posts about her and obsession with her that she had filed stalking claims with the police against me, and yet that I was completely unaware of all this but was in fact expecting the CIA to give her to me as a girlfriend. Now he wanted the link because the TMU would actually still need evidence indicating that the “SDW” on my blog in fact referred to SDW. Meanwhile, David, aware of my predicament, tried to hint to me that SDW really didn’t like me at all. The fact that he took me away from Starbucks in order to give me the hint must mean that the Secret Society women had placed surveillance agents around to monitor my conversation with David. For my part, I was merely terribly disappointed by his hint that SDW would not show up.⁸⁵ Pain. Collected damages, 2 W, etc. Past midnight, home, and posted the 83 She apparently requested before she went to work and after she came back from work.

84 In the original version, at this point: “My conspirators have collected more evidences for my delusional state of mind and homosexuality.”

85 In the original version, at this point: “The Macrospherians had programmed all this because they needed the ordinary people’s tendency to perceive reality as its opposite in order to avoid the harsh reality of their insignificance and unimportance to become part of the current terrorist conspiracy – thus I had to suffer the same problem too, even though I knew better. (Or they needed me to commit the same fault as SDW and Angelica in order to establish identity between me and them.)” second blog post for 17 April, “No response policy”.⁸⁶ As shall be noted, I was programmed to post this more in order to enable the TMU to have a reason to refuse to open any stalking case on me than to help the Secret Society women advance their case. Was this solely the work of the Invisible Hand’s hidden program?

⁸⁹ According to a current trace. We have to suspect this person to be another relative of SDW’s. Note that SDW had another sister, Kathleen Sheehan Lill (b. 20.08.1959), who at the time worked as a physician assistant in a medical center in the vicinity of Albany, New York. Poughkeepsie is about 40 miles south of Albany and 20 miles west of Ridgefield. At the time, Kathleen Lill seemed to be working at the Ellis Hospital (1101 Nott St., Schenectady) and living in Nassau (90 Crossway Rd.). Currently she seems to be working at Whitney M. Young Jr. Health Center. She is married to John Barry Lill (b. 05.10.1952).

Now that the TMU had expressed skepticism, the MSS also sent in a volunteer to confirm that I did plagiarize.

11:19 PM, he found my posting on Bluehost Forum:

Making reports about my other online traces: “His delusions have prompted him to post all these crazy paranoid everywhere!”

A little after 11:30 PM, I parted with David.

11:53 PM, SDW’s Erie relative came again:

184.56.169.16 - - [17/Apr/2014:00:53:46 -0600] "GET /blogs/2013/11/17/four-women-who-try-Chrome/34.0.1847.116 Safari/537.36"

```

Presumably, since the reporting to the TMU wasn’t successful today, SDW’s Erie relative came back this late night to brainstorm how to improve on the reports. (Perhaps because SDW was throwing a temper tantrum over the failure.) Within 15 seconds, she did a search for “April” again:

184.56.169.16 - - [17/Apr/2014:00:54:01 -0600] "GET /blogs/?s=APRIL&submit=Search

"Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.0) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko)
Chrome/34.0.1847.116 Safari/537.36"

And she came to my very latest blog post – she was the first person to see it:

12:02 AM, she listened to the recording on this blog post:

Now, let’s conclude on this momentous day. As the Secret Society women prepared themselves for Dr R’s action in the afternoon, they continued to mobilize their volunteers throughout the morning and early afternoon: (1) my Nicaragua videos on 7:09 AM. (2) 8:26 AM, the Oakland, Florida, volunteer was examining the Secret Society women’s notes about my delusions about them on the Secret Facebook Group. (3) My computer-hacking. (4) 11:39 AM, the Bengaluru volunteer created an intercept showing my latest chapter in my Secret History to be pornographic in nature. (5) 2:02 PM, the UK volunteer was making a testimony about my harassment of the ICAACT people by blogging about them. (6) 2:49 PM, my harassment of Shizuka.

Then, from 10:31 AM onward, to prepare the case for SDW, SDW’s Erie relative came to read through every one of my blog posts. She continued until 3:15 PM. Then, by 3:30 PM, Dr R had got a break and got on the phone with the TMU. After explaining my “stalking” yesterday, from 3:39 to 3:45 PM, she reported about my harassment of her on my blog. 3:43 PM, a Poughkeepsie volunteer (another one of SDW’s relatives?) joined in on the reporting of my website. 4:05 PM, Homeland Security CO chief got a school teacher nearby to report on my Nicaragua videos. 5:06 PM, a report about seeing Angelica’s naked picture on my website.

However, the TMU replied that they were unwilling to reopen the stalking case on me because they didn’t consider the Homeland Security warning to be valid. They then called up David to ask him to talk to me tonight in order to gather more evidence on this case (to probe whether the Homeland Security warning was valid). At a loss, from 6 to 7 PM, SDW’s Erie relative came to my website again to look for additional evidence. 7:30 PM, another volunteer looked through my Youtube videos and my postings about brain-chips to polish up the argument that my delusions about the chips in my brain proved that Homeland Security was right about me. 8:20 PM, the Meridian volunteer came again to consider my Nicaragua videos. Then, on 11:50 PM, in response to SDW’s temper tantrum, her Erie relative came again. She focused on my latest blog post and recording about SDW as the most proper evidence and continued to study my blog until almost 2 AM (5 AM her time). Meanwhile, Jennifer Day also joined in. Then, by early morning, I posted the second blog post you see for 17 April. All these together – David’s conversation with me, Jennifer Day’s confidential report, and this blog post on “The no response policy” – constituted the TMU’s justification for rejecting the Homeland Security warning about me and not reopening the stalking case against me on behalf of Dr R and SDW (and thus the CIA’s evidence in the ICJ tomorrow).⁹²

A CONCLUDING COMMENT

In the original version, I made the following observation about SDW at the very end of the reconstruction:

SDW, just like Angelica before her, had demonstrated again the severe deterioration of the human, or even women’s, brain, under the combined assaults of digital technology, democracy, consumerism, and, lastly, feminism. Consider SDW’s actions in view of the fact that my website is full of original scientific discoveries and sociological insights, etc. This analogy should hold: SDW is the kind of woman who would not give a second thought about ordering the authority (if she could) to burn down the Louvres or the Library of Congress if these buildings were next to her dwelling and painted with such unpleasant colors as to constitute “color harassment” (in her typical jargon). The treasures of humanity inside mean nothing to her when her tranquility is at stake. (The same comment about Angelica on 27 October, 2013.) If the authority doesn’t grant her wish, then she would consider herself a “victim”. (Just like how she is the “victim” of “gang stalking” by the police and everybody in her community.) As noted, she in fact has some strange notion of herself as the “Empress Dowager” (Cixi: 慈禧). She regards herself as so superior, and so much more important than the rest of humanity, that other “profane” beings don’t even have the right to utter her name or talk about her existence under assumed names. In North Korea, people do not talk about their leader Kim’s private life because this is sign of disrespect; in ancient China, commoners are not allowed to look at Emperor’s face or bear the same surname as Emperor’s, because the Emperor, being chosen by Heaven to rule the cosmos, is “sacred”. This is in fact how SDW views herself as well – especially in regard to somebody as ugly as I am. I have noted that what so amazes me about her is not really this, but the contradiction between her sense of absolute superiority and her identification of herself as a helpless victim being gang-raped by every single human being she has ever met. The most memorial anecdote I have heard about Empress Dowager runs:

Empress Dowager is entertaining herself by playing Chinese chess with a eunuch. The eunuch makes a move, saying: “The ‘slave’ (himself) has killed the Venerable Buddha’s (Empress Dowager’s) horse.” (奴才杀了老佛爷的马) Empress Dowager regards the servant’s use of the word “kills” as disrespectful. She orders him dragged away and beaten to death.

This is in fact SDW’s attitude toward me. How does such inflated self-estimation square with the notion of oneself as a “helpless victim”? It’s certainly surprising to me that, behind the veil of the most unfortunate, and most victimized, person which SDW claims herself to be, is in fact an image of herself as the most important and superior being who should be respected to the same degree as the Chinese emperors were in ancient China. And yet she has absolutely no merits at all; like Angelica, she has the intelligence quotient equivalent to an ape’s. It’s the legacy of second wave American feminism that these American women have somehow learned to regard themselves as some sort of sacred beings, like the Kim leaders in North Korea or Chinese emperors in ancient China, for no reason whatsoever – they have this sacred “privacy” which should never be violated in the slightest fashions by profane beings (like ugly subhuman males), and this, not because they have done anything amazing to earn others’ respect, but simply because they are born into a female body. She somehow doesn’t even have enough intelligence to notice the absurdity of her strangely inflated assessment of her own worth. Presumably, it’s [BOL’s] intention to rid women, especially in the English-speaking world, of such absurd, inflated self-assessment, the sort of arrogance which has made the women in these countries increasingly stupid.

When I wrote down these words in the summer of 2014, I had not yet had any notion about the Homeland Security warnings about me. Although I was aware of the fact that Homeland Security had been issuing warnings about me ever since 2007, I didn’t know at the time that it was these warnings, not just Chaya’s warning, which were stirring everyone up to report me to the TMU. Even today, I have still not seen any of these warnings because I’m banned from doing so – but at least today I have become aware of their function in the formation of the Secret Society back in 2012 and just how demonically they must have portrayed me. Because I wasn’t aware of these warnings, I couldn’t appreciate just how greatly they had distorted everyone’s perception of me and my psychoanalysis of the Secret Society women at the time had thus become inaccurate half of the time. In the above, I was quite correct about how SDW had no regard for cultural treasures of the humanity and how, thanks to the second wave feminism, American women have developed a grossly inflated assessment of themselves which SDW, Angelica, and Dr P had all inherited from their cultural milieu. But SDW had no regard for humanity’s treasures really because she was uneducated and it was really incorrect to say that she was being Empress Dowager when she decided that I should be banned from speaking about her on my blog. It was really thanks to the influence on her of the Homeland Security warnings about me that she had suddenly decided that I had no right to talk about her. If there weren’t any warnings about me from Homeland Security, she and everyone else would have just been annoyed and angered by someone’s blogging about them but would have probably understood that law enforcement would not be involved unless there was a threat made. However, because the Homeland Security warning had portrayed me as so enormously dangerous, any insignificant action I had performed to annoy people (e.g. blogging about them or drawing portraits of someone famous) would suddenly acquire such enormous meaning and cause people to go into total hysteria thinking that their very life was at stake. Then, since I had never seen these warnings, it would be a mystery for me why everyone was jumping up and down getting all hysterical about me. The real scandal is not about how self-centered and hysterical over nothing people have become (although this is true), but about how, even when people see indisputable proofs that I’m not the sort of monster which Homeland Security has portrayed, they will continue to insist that I am it and react likewise. Because of all this hysteria over sexism and racism and rapists and serial killers and crazy people in American society – which is quickly spilling over to the rest of the world – people have been expecting this “schizophrenic misogynist and racist terrorist stalker” which Homeland Security has been portraying me as, and, once they have fixed their attention on you as this monster they have been expecting, it’s as if they have found a treasure box and they will never let it go or let themselves be disappointed by admitting that they, or Homeland Security, have been wrong about you. It’s up to sociologists to explain why it is so rewarding to people to see so much racism and sexism everywhere and so many dangerous crazy people in society when, in reality, nothing in particular is going on.⁹³

93 My other conclusions at the end of the original version which I have decided to not even mention – because they have become completely irrelevant – are these: “Certain conclusions can be drawn from SDW’s Pennsylvanian relative’s, and the Secret Society’s, abundant visits to my website so far. (1) SDW’s relative apparently didn’t know that I was being programmed, or remotely controlled, by those people inside the control center to express suicidal thoughts. My conspirators were causing me severe physical pain in order to force me to want to die to get out of pain. They did this in order to make me conform to Kiersten’s and Angelica’s claims about me as being a danger to myself; but they were evidently also doing this in order to provoke SDW and her relative to emergency measures, only to embarrass them in the end. SDW and her relative were having a field day with the police in these few days, absolutely concerned that I was about to hurt the woman. And, yet, in the end, I would never go near her at all. Even while in the shooting range, I couldn’t make the decision to shoot myself, because I was just so unused to radical changes and extreme violence. Apparently, SDW and her relative were just as dumb as Angelica was back in October 2013. First of all, they simply were unable to think about this thing called ‘logistics’. Even if I wanted to hurt SDW, how was I going to carry it out? She lived in another city, and it would cost me 100 dollars to get there, money which I didn’t have. (Keep in mind that I didn’t have a car, which made ‘stalking females’ – especially when they lived in a different city – exceedingly difficult.) Besides, I didn’t actually know where she lived. Secondly, SDW and her family were also unable to understand the ‘traditional logic’, that a guy doesn’t want to hurt the woman he likes, but could only contemplate hurting her when he begins to hate her. After all this fuss, law enforcement would evidently lose interests in SDW’s case – when it turns out that nothing happens. Thus, the Republicans’ ‘War on Women’: while torturing me to make me conform to Kiersten’s false profile of me, they were teaching law enforcement to not take women victims’ claims about dangerous males seriously. There was thus some truth in my original hypothesis – coming into shape just about this time – about White Roses’ intention to educate law enforcement. (2) SDW’s contact with the government was in fact far sparser than I thought. She got instructions from her FBI handler about what to post on her blog and Facebook once in a while, but, for the rest of the time, she was apparently left to figure things out herself. I would be absolutely surprised by the fact that the government didn’t actually instruct her and her relative [as to] how exactly to react to my remote obsession and blog postings. Their worries were genuine in order to educate the Threat Management officers, and were intercepted into International Court as new evidences: (1) to rewrite the previous episodes of this Syrian scandal in 2013 when Angelica was reacting to my postings (from the perspective of the Mexicans); (2) to enter evidences, on the CIA’s and the Russians’ behalf, in regard to the true terrorist origins of the Syrian nuclear terrorism scandal (that Angelica, Dr P, and Kiersten were full of shit and that I was hardly like anything which they claimed I was); and (3) to rewrite evidences from the previous ICJ trial. When these women ‘victims’ were proved in the ICJ to be ‘full of shit’, then the whole United Nations could re-think about all its politically correct programs in regard to women – which was evidently [BOL’s] goal in all this.”
