KIERSTEN'S VENGEANCE

9

RESUME

The following reconstructs the operation of the Secret Society women and Homeland Security CO chief against me from 17 to 28 April, 2014. By now the Secret Society women would consist of: Karin (the German Lady), Angelica (the Mexican Girl/ the Pyramid), Dr P (Pettersen), Kiersten (Ms Piggy), and their new addition, SDW (Maura). Always around was also Russia's First Daughter Ekaterina (Putina).

This is the rewrite of the original "Kiersten's Vengeance, 9", or "Kiersten's Vengeance, Part III", originally composed in late 2014. The original version, with the file name of "timelinepartIII-t-cnr-b.pdf (last dated 16.02.2017), can still be found in the original folder (timelinepartIII-s).<sup>1</sup>

Now a summary of the course of events during this period. On 17 April, the Secret Society women continued to mobilize volunteers to brainstorm how to prove to the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct: (1) Angelica's naked picture (8 times!). (2) My harassment of Shizuka. (3) My harassment of my family members. (4) My computer-hacking. And (5) my plagiarism. Meanwhile, SDW continued to call on people to come examine my victimization of her and pollution of the targeted individuals discursive domain: (1) the New Zealand volunteer on 6:18 AM; (2) SDW's second Tampa friend on 1:20 PM; (3) the Oklahoma City volunteer on 2:09 PM; and (4) Uncle Chad (?) on 2:18 PM. Meanwhile, her Erie relative continued to read through every one of my blog posts – from 10:20 AM all the way to 2:40 AM the next day – in order to find ways to persuade the TMU that Homeland Security was all correct about me. There were also Prof. Naweed Syed's visit on 1:27 PM and then another UK volunteer's checking on my Nicaragua videos on 3:42 PM.

On 18 April, the Secret Society women continued to mobilize their volunteers to brainstorm how to persuade the TMU to accept the Homeland Security warning about me and reopen the stalking case on me: (1) my harassment of Shizuka. (2) My harassment of my family members. (3) My delusion about there being chips planted in my brain. (4) My naked pictures of Angelica – 9 times! And, toward the end of the night, 4 times from Taiwan! Meanwhile, SDW had called upon five persons in total today to come examine my victimization of her with my crazy blog: (1) the unknown volunteer on 11:06 AM; (2) the Hollywood, Florida, volunteer on 12:15 PM; (3) the Michigan volunteer on 12:28 PM; (4) the Japanese volunteer on 12:28 AM; and (5) the Houston volunteer on 3:02 AM. Then her

1 Note that the original version, unlike the current version, covers the period from 22 April to 9 May, 2014.

Erie relative came again to read through all my blog posts – from 9:14 AM all the way to 2 AM the next day. As for Homeland Security CO chief, he had at least Wes' accusation against me in the morning, my message to Elaine around noon, and then my crazy blog post at night as his temporary evidence with which to temporarily lock up the previous ICJ trial.

On 19 April, the Secret Society women continued to mobilize their volunteers to brainstorm how to persuade the TMU to reopen the stalking case on me: (1) my naked picture of Angelica; (2) my harassment of Shizuka; (3) my delusion about there being chips planted in my brain; and (4) my plagiarism. Meanwhile, SDW seems to have called upon four people in total today to come examine my victimization of her on my blog: (1) the Minnesota volunteer on 5:15 AM; (2) the Georgia volunteer on 12:45 PM; (3) the UK volunteer on 1:15 PM (“gang-stalking induces stroke”); and (4) the Atlanta volunteer on 1:42 PM. Then, her Erie relative continued her research, from 7 AM until 3:40 AM the next day! And this time she actually took care to examine the other parts of my website.

On 20 April, everyone was excited because Homeland Security CO chief had informed everyone that I would show up at the gun range this afternoon. Everyone thought that that would be enough reason to persuade the TMU to reopen the stalking case on me. Hence SDW's Erie relative stopped her research by 10:30 AM. By 5:30 PM, when I had left the gun range and the TMU had received the information about me from the gun range employees, the Secret Society women started mobilizing their volunteers to report me to the TMU: (1) 5:28 PM, my pollution of the targeted individuals' discursive domain; (2) 6:01 PM, my harassment of Kiersten on my blog; (3) 8:44 PM, my delusion about the Clinton family; and (4) 8:47 PM, my delusions about the chips inside my brain. But, unfortunately, by late night, the TMU concluded that Homeland Security and my women victims had all been wrong about me so that they saw no reason to reopen the stalking case on me. Thus, on 11:58 PM, SDW called on the Union City volunteer to come examine my blog posts about her.

On 21 April, devastated by the TMU's decision last night, the Secret Society women spent the whole day brainstorming how to force the TMU to change their mind. The essentials of their actions today: (1) 10:20 AM, Angelica was telling a Rancho Cordova volunteer about the current predicament (how I could keep mentioning her name on my blog with complete impunity). (2) 11:51 AM, SDW's Erie relative started examining my blog. (3) 1:52 PM, a Los Angeles volunteer brainstormed whether my delusions about synthetic telepathy had made me a danger to people. (4) 4:15 PM, SDW's Erie relative continued. (5) 4:44 PM, the Secret Society women contacted Prof. D'Zmura of UCI (synthetic telepathy). (6) 5:59 PM, SDW summoned the first, Palm Coast volunteer to come examine my victimization of her. (7) 7:03 PM, SDW summoned the second, Nashville volunteer. (8) 7:32 PM, SDW's Erie relative tried to leave a message for me as the women gang decided that they needed more damaging evidence. (9) 8:53 PM, SDW summoned the Nashville volunteer again. (10) 10:15 PM, SDW summoned the third, Missouri volunteer. Besides this, the Secret Society women seem also to have sent in volunteers to look at my feminism chapters 3 times in order to brainstorm how to connect my practice yesterday with my “misogynist ideology”. Meanwhile, Homeland Security CO chief ordered the Monkey to control me to threaten to cut myself, and then to cut myself, in order to obtain at the very least temporary evidence with which to lock up the previous ICJ trial for the time being.

On 22 April, the Secret Society women continued to mobilize their volunteers to brainstorm how to force the TMU to accept the Homeland Security warning about me and reopen the stalking case on me: (1) 6:55 AM, SDW summoned a volunteer from Nice, France, to come examine my blog posts about her. (2) 7:41 AM, a friend of Gaurav's or Angelo's came to brainstorm whether my harassment of them in “My experience...” could force the TMU to change their mind. (3) 8:21 AM, a volunteer from Sears, Illinois, came to examine my delusions about the chips inside my brain. (4) 9 AM, a Texas volunteer came to examine my misogynist ideology. (5) 11:10 AM, SDW summoned her Tampa friend to come examine my latest blog posts about her. (6) 7:27 – 7:48 PM, SDW's Tampa friend came again. (7) 8:47 PM, a Chicago volunteer came to examine my blog posts about the mosquito drones. (8) 1:22 AM, did SDW summon a third volunteer? Although all this effort was in vain, Homeland Security CO chief still had my new blog post as evidence with which to temporarily lock up the previous ICJ trial.

On 23 April, the Secret Society women would make even greater effort in mobilizing volunteers to brainstorm new ways to force the TMU to accept the Homeland Security warning about me: (1) 5:19 AM, a UK volunteer examined my delusions about the chips inside my brain; (2) 8:23 AM, SDW called on the first, Hyderabad volunteer; (3) 9:36 AM, SDW called on the second, Los Angeles volunteer; (4) 2:53 PM, SDW herself showed up; (5) 3:26 PM, the St. John's College volunteer examined my delusions first on Prison Planet Forum and then my blog; (6) 3:31 PM, SDW called on the third, Carlisle volunteer; (7) 6:22 PM, SDW's Erie relative came and would be here on and off until 12:30 AM; (8) 7:35 PM, Homeland Security CO chief, needing temporary evidence in the ICJ, instructed the St John's College volunteer to link up my 14 April blog post from Reddit. By 4 AM, a total of 27 persons would have looked at this 14 April blog post; (9) 11: 21 PM, a University of Washington volunteer examined my misogynist ideology (the fifth). (10) 1:02 AM, SDW called on the fourth, Opera Mini volunteer; (11) 1:08 AM, Angelica called on a University of Geneva volunteer to come examine “Ying and Yang, I”. The Secret Society women had today also come to focus on “humandispersal.html” as the definitive proof of my plagiarism (7 volunteers in total today).

On 24 April, the Secret Society women continued to mobilize their volunteers to brainstorm how to convince the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct and persuade them to reopen the stalking case on me: (1) 4:23 AM, SDW called on the first volunteer, someone from the University of Singapore. (2) 6:37 AM, a South Carolina volunteer examined my misogynist rambling (the sixth). (3) 7:40 AM, SDW called on a second, UK volunteer. Then the volunteers would make a particular effort to brainstorm how to convince the TMU that Homeland Security was indeed right about my insanity given my belief about being chipped in the brain: (4) 8:53 AM, the Sears volunteer came to examine my delusions about brain-chips again. (5) 10:03 AM, SDW's Erie relative showed up – also to examine my delusions about brain-chips. (6) 10:20 AM, SDW called on a third, Texas, volunteer. (7) 12:44 PM, SDW called on a fourth person, the same Los Angeles volunteer from yesterday. (8) 12:45 PM, SDW's Erie relative was now back to my blog posts about SDW this month. (9) 12:57 PM, the Arcadia volunteer examined my delusions about brain-chips. (10) 2:10 PM, the Brooklyn volunteer examined my delusions about my women victims' going after me. (11) 3:21 PM, the Opera Mini volunteer examined my delusions about being mind-controlled. (12) 5:43 PM, SDW's Erie relative's last appearance. (13) 6:43 PM, SDW called on a fifth person, the same Nice volunteer from 22 April. (14) 12:45 AM, SDW called on a sixth, New Mexico volunteer to come examine my comments to her on her blog. Meanwhile, a total of 20 people had checked out the stupid Reddit post today. As for Homeland Security CO chief: to save himself in the ICJ, he had got me started on Ekaterina again today.

On 25 April, as the Secret Society women continued to brainstorm how to prove to the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct, they reverted back to proving my plagiarism as the best way to force the TMU to admit that the said warning had some truth in it. For this, they continued to focus on my chapter humandispersal.html as the best proof and would in total send in 22 volunteers today to report this chapter as plagiarized. They will also send in several volunteers to forge evidence of my plagiarism. As for the other essential visits: (1) 7:21 AM, the Le Mans volunteer came to examine my harassment of Prof. Dylan-Haynes. (2) 7:33 AM, a New Jersey volunteer examined my obsession with, and delusions about, Ekaterina and her Russia. (3) 9:37 AM, SDW called upon the first, San Rafael volunteer to come examine my victimization of her. (4) 12:15 PM, a Denver volunteer examined my delusions about the chips inside my brain. (5) 1:56 PM, SDW's Erie volunteer showed up to brainstorm. Now she came at the right time for, in order to help the Secret Society women and intercept more favorable evidence into the ICJ, Homeland Security CO chief had instructed the Monkey to control me to blog about my new suicide wish just at this time. Thus: (6) 3:33 PM, SDW's Erie relative saw my suicidal expressions on my latest blog post. She immediately told SDW about it, and both of them thus called up the TMU to attempt to oblige them to open a stalking case for SDW. But, after 3 hours of debating, the TMU wouldn't budge. Thus: (7) 6:45 PM, SDW's Erie relative went back to examining my delusions about brain-chips. (8) 7:55 PM, as the brainstorming started again, a San Mateo volunteer came to examine my delusions about Khalezov. (9) 8:47 PM, SDW called on the second, Plymouth volunteer to come examine my victimization of her. (10) 11:11 PM, as the brainstorming continued, the Portland volunteer came to listen to my recording about synthetic telepathy. (11) 11:28 PM, SDW's Erie relative examined my blog for one last time. (12) 12:29 AM, the St. John's College volunteer came to continue to brainstorm. (13) 1:20 AM, the St. John's College volunteer continued to examine my suicide wish. (14) 4:05 AM, SDW called on a third, Highland volunteer to come examine my victimization of her.

On 26 April, the Secret Society women continued to brainstorm with their volunteers about how to convince the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct. Just like yesterday, the volunteers focused on my chapter humandispersal.html as the best proof of my plagiarism: 15 visits in total today. The other essential visits are: (1) 8:29 AM, SDW called upon the Opera Mini volunteer to come examine my crazy blog posts about her. (2) 12:34 PM, SDW called upon the Victoria volunteer. (3) 12:55 PM, SDW called upon the Connecticut volunteer (her relative?). (4) 4:27 PM, the Secret Society women called upon Prof. Naweed Syed again. (5) 6:58 PM, SDW's Erie relative came to examine my blog posts for this month. (6) 1:46 AM, a Hong Kong volunteer examined my delusions about Snowden on both Prison Planet Forum and my blog. (7) 1:54 AM, SDW called upon a Germantown volunteer (the "Baltimore Lawyer"?). (8) 3:56 AM, an Australian volunteer examined my delusions about Obama.

On 27 April, the Secret Society women continued to mobilize their volunteers to find ways to convince the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct and to persuade them to open a stalking case on behalf of SDW. First of all, the volunteers continued to focus on my chapter humandispersal.html as the definitive proof that I did plagiarize: 34 visits today. Then: (1) 5:53 AM, SDW called upon a Singapore volunteer to come examine my victimization of her. (2) 6:28 AM, SDW was still talking to the Germantown volunteer (the "Baltimore Lawyer"?). (3) 8:04 AM, SDW called upon two more volunteers. (4) 8:52 AM, a Hilversum volunteer came to examine my videos and recordings (Maria's friend?). (5) 10 AM, SDW called upon the Darien volunteer. (6) 2:31 PM, SDW's Erie relative came to examine the blog post series for this month. (7) 4:53 PM, a Greensboro volunteer examined my stalking of a certain famous woman on my external links page. (8) 5:30 PM, SDW called upon a New Jersey volunteer to come examine my victimization of her (in the 03/03/14 blog post). (9) 5:40 PM, a UK volunteer came to examine my harassment of Kiersten by blogging about her. Then, 7:20 PM, Homeland Security CO chief got me to post something new on my blog – what could be interpreted as a "threat" against SDW. Thus: (10) 9:26 PM, SDW called upon another New Jersey volunteer to come examine my victimization of her (my comments on her blog). (11) 9:41 PM, the St. John's College and the Euclid volunteer together discovered my "threat" against SDW on my latest blog post. Everybody was excited: the definitive evidence to persuade the TMU to open a stalking case for SDW! (12) 12:16 AM, a US volunteer examined my delusions about there being chips planted in my brain: a second reason why I must be considered a grave danger to SDW. (13) 12:38 AM, SDW's Erie relative also came for a look. (14) 2:18 AM, to come up with a third reason, the Secret Society women got another physicist from the Commissariat à l'Énergie atomique to make a false report about my plagiarism. (16) 2:48 AM, another UK volunteer forged evidence of my plagiarism.

On the morning of 28 April, the Secret Society women submitted the latest evidence (my "threat" against SDW) to the TMU to request that they open a stalking case on behalf of SDW. They thought this was a sure shot, and yet the TMU refused to do so citing again that the Homeland Security warning about me was not valid. The Secret Society women thus went back to brainstorming with their volunteers: (1) 11:10 AM, a Texas volunteer brainstormed how my reposting of the mosquito drone should confirm that Homeland Security was right about me. (2) 2:01 PM, a UK volunteer considered whether the ICAACT people might join SDW's case in order to force the TMU to act. (3) 4:15 PM, the Traverse City volunteer came again to consider how my violation of Mellhedek's intellectual property rights should confirm that Homeland Security was right about me. (4) 5:33 PM, SDW called upon another Florida friend. (5) 7:04 PM, the same Dallas volunteer came to examine a certain external link on my front page. (6) 8:02 PM, the Ridgefield, New Jersey, volunteer came to my blog again from SDW's blog to brainstorm for solutions. (7) 11:11 PM, SDW's Erie relative came to my blog to brainstorm for solutions. (8) 12:17 AM, given the impasse, the Secret Society women called upon Marie for help. An Indian volunteer thus examined "Feefee and Valerie". Meanwhile, the women continued to focus on my chapter humandispersal.html as the best proof that I did plagiarize: 27 visits today. Then, to remedy the current disaster, Homeland Security CO chief instructed the Monkey to control me to fantasize and write about Ekaterina again

Now my diary entries and the log of the Secret Society women's operations on my website for the period under consideration. Note again that three layers of interpretations about the meanings of events are superimposed one on another: my interpretation at the time of the incident; my interpretation about half a year later, during the original composition; and my current understanding, more than 7 years after the incident. Again, only the third layer is likely to be accurate, and this current understanding, when inserted into diary notes, is italicized and in brackets.

17 April (Thursday; cutting myself; Karin's meetup canceled)

First, a note about myself. SDW posted "Personality Disorders" on her blog. Obviously for me to see; obviously instructed to do so. This was very strange. While SDW was communicating with the stalking units in LAPD and San Diego Police, the detective, or her FBI handler, would suddenly tell her to post something on her blog. And yet she didn't think it strange at all. Of course the detective or the FBI officer got the instruction from the CIA, who got the instruction from the control center. My conspirators have three purposes here: (1) make me understand that Kiersten suffers from Narcissistic Personality Disorder. (2) A signal for me to begin cutting myself anew (to replace evidences). (3) SDW quotes: "However, feminists have argued that Borderline Personality Disorder merely appears to be more common in women, since women presenting [...] angry and promiscuous behavior tend to be diagnosed with Borderline Personality Disorder, whereas men presenting [...] identical behavior tend to be diagnosed with Antisocial Personality Disorder." When I collect damages, people will see me as manifesting Antisocial Personality Disorder, when, in fact, I'm doing it to manifest Borderline Personality Disorder (to externalize the internal, invisible suffering). This superficial "coincidence" ("overlapping", "looking alike") will be made into part of the terrorist conspiracy against the French and the Republicans. They can then use it to prolong their life (to prevent the PRI from objecting).

Furthermore, my entire Borderline Personality Disorder will also be made into part of the terrorist conspiracy as an artificially created psychological condition.

(The above includes my erroneous interpolation back in late 2014. All this was of course complete garbage. I had simply completely misunderstood the situation. Either SDW posted the said blog post out of her own accord, or she was instructed by Homeland Security CO chief to post it, with precisely the purpose of stimulating me to speculate wrongly like I did above so that I could continue to look completely delusional. The only positive effect of SDW's blog post was to enable me to understand that it is Narcissistic Personality Disorder that Kiersten was suffering from.)

At the SM library. Severe targeting before the French meetup. Had to collect damages before darkness set in. Very dangerous. At the meetup. Mommy showed up. My conspirators have ordered her to provoke me by ignoring me. Replacement of evidences.<sup>2</sup> Then, more targeting. Collected damages all night. Home, my conspirators controlled me to cut myself. Thus, another day of torture and total misery, while my "stalking victims" were attacking me behind my back.

(Again, for more details about what happened to me today – all the heavy-handed targeting – consult the blog post you see for 19 April, "Hypothetical scenario of targeting, 17 and 18 April". Note first of all that the woman I thought was Mommy (Tiffany) wasn't really Mommy at all: I was simply mistaken. Secondly, all that was going on was just the Monkey's continuing to program me to commit crimes so that, eventually, the TMU might be forced to admit that the Homeland Security warning about me might be true after all. Out of desperation, he even controlled me to resume cutting myself. As for the other blog post you see for today, "17 April, a break from computer-programmed infatuation torture", while it was just the Monkey continuing to control me to blog out more evidence of my obsession with SDW and delusion about Angelica and so on, it in fact contained an important insight: ordinary people can only understand black-and-white stories because it would simply be too confusing for their simple mind when the idea of evil as well as the idea of goodness or innocence shows up in the person of the victim. While such insight would definitely fly over Homeland Security CO chief's uneducated head, perhaps the Invisible Hand had wanted me to write this out so that he might obtain a secret ICJ judgment to enable him to orchestrate the scandal in the future only in such a way that it would be understandable, "categorizable", for the common people. My bullshit about how he had manipulated SDW, while evidence for Homeland Security CO chief that I was indeed delusional about the woman I was obsessed with, might also be something the Invisible Hand had needed – precisely what he would do to somebody else or to a whole community of people in the future.)

(Note also that Karin would cancel her meetup tonight: Happy Hour at Amigo's Restaurant on 6 PM and then the movie "The Monuments" at Academy Theater on 7:30 PM. Was it because she was terribly disappointed that, yesterday, after all that effort, the TMU didn't reopen the stalking case on me?)

<sup>2</sup> At this point, my wrong interpretation in the original version: "Meanwhile, the CIA has submitted more evidence in regard to the true nature of my obsession: the admiring mode, the opposite of Kiersten's and Angelica's claim."

She thus came to continue to brainstorm – how to persuade the TMU to accept the Homeland Security warning about me as correct and thus open a stalking case on behalf of SDW. This Erie relative would spend her entire waking day on my blog today.

10:45 AM, after 23 minutes on that stupid blog post, SDW's Erie relative searched for "April" again:

Out of desperation, the Secret Society women contacted Prof. Naweed Syed at the University of Calgary again in order to warn him that a dangerous and delusional stalker on Homeland Security's watchlist had talked about him on his blog. But we have to assume that Prof. Naweed Syed didn't, in the end, have the time to join the Secret Society women's campaign against me and file any stalking claims with the TMU.

Let's summarize. Today was just another day that, because the TMU had refused to open any stalking case on me on the basis of Homeland Security's warning about me, the Secret Society women continued to mobilize volunteers to brainstorm how to prove to the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct. (1) Angelica's naked picture (8 times!). (2) My harassment of Shizuka. (3) My harassment of my family members. (4) My computer-hacking. And (5) my plagiarism.

Meanwhile, upset that the TMU would not validate her as the victim of my stalking, SDW continued to call on people to come examine my victimization of her and pollution of the targeted individuals discursive domain: (1) the New Zealand volunteer on 6:18 AM; (2) SDW's second Tampa friend on 1:20 PM; (3) the Oklahoma City volunteer on 2:09 PM; and (4) Uncle Chad (?) on 2:18 PM. Meanwhile, her Erie relative continued to read through every one of my blog posts – from 10:20 AM all the way to 2:40 AM the next day – in order to find ways to persuade the TMU that Homeland Security was all correct about me. (She must be indignant: “This guy is obviously insane! Why wouldn't the TMU admit so?”)

Also to be noted are Prof. Naweed Syed's visit again on 1:27 PM and then another checking on my Nicaragua videos from the UK on 3:42 PM.

18 April (Friday; Wes)

First, a note about myself. In the morning, around 9 AM, Wes called me back (“IMPwesargue_4_18_14_502-1058AM.MP3”, from 5:05:00 onward). Me: “You are so lucky, you don't have to be tortured and commit crimes... this morning I was even required to cut myself again...” Then I described the torture last night: how I was in a French meetup where what seemed to be a CIA agent showed up only to ignore me, how I had had to spend 3 to 4 hours collecting damages, how I had had to cut myself again, and how I was required to constantly fantasize about SDW. The difficulty in categorizing my experience. “The fact that she is so lucky – something is very wrong here.” And how I wasn't allowed to sleep more than two hours today. Throughout last night, I wasn't even allowed to urinate. I had to look like a liability to the government's sting operation. The control center signaled to me again that SDW would show up today. So running out of money, I had to ask Wes for money. But Wes scolded me: you feel anger because you don't have anything to do. I disputed him: I was required to feel anger whenever I was doing something important to me. Wes continued: “You called, you woke up my wife, and she got angry.” “But the control center wanted me to do that!” Then, from 5:29:00 onward, Wes got angry and I couldn't understand why he couldn't understand I was simply being remotely controlled. He continued to insist that my problem was all due to my not having anything to do and then denied that I was under mind-control. Finally, when I got angry he just hanged up (5:31:50).<sup>7</sup>

(We have to wonder whether Wes was instructed by Homeland Security CO chief to falsely accuse me in order to produce evidence showing me conforming to the Secret Society women's false profile of me

<sup>7</sup> At this point, my wrong interpretation in the original version: “It seems that it is Angelica and Kiersten who are doing this from the control center, since the control center seems to operate on the belief that obsession increases violent tendency. But the only thing that matters is that I need to repeat past episodes.” It was in fact probably the Monkey who had misunderstood me in such fashion.

so that he could have temporary evidence in the ICJ to temporarily lock up the previous ICJ trial. Hence Wes was charged with the task of talking to me as if I were antisocial and extraordinarily selfish and self-centered in order to confirm the Secret Society women's claim that I suffered from Antisocial Personality Disorder and was more like a 10 year-old brat.)<sup>8</sup>

Wrote a short message on 12:39 PM to Elaine to see if she was going to the pub tonight – mistakenly believing that the CIA had set me up to meet SDW over there. She replied me within minutes. Napped. Woke up feeling suicidal and wanting to collect damages.<sup>9</sup> Began planning for suicide, wanted to go to Party City, but was feeling too timid, and so gave up. Spent the night in Starbucks, Westwood. Posted the latest blog post. (That one you see for 19 April.) Suddenly, one's thought-process was programmed to result in one's finding SDW disgusting, because, when one keeps one's protection of another a secret from that other (my wrong assumption about what SDW was doing), one is preventing the other from becoming a full human being capable of making ethical decisions as to who is good, who bad, etc. This protection is in fact harm under the disguise of doing good. Like doing harm while believing that one is doing good.<sup>10</sup> Damage collection on SM Blvd. Then, the UCLA hospital. Couldn't obtain Norco, and infatuation with SDW returned.<sup>11</sup>

(Again, for more details about my thoughts and torture for today, see the blog post for 19 April. As you can expect, it was simply the Monkey programming me to want to kill myself today so that, first of all, I

8 On the other hand, my wrong interpretation in the original version: “My conspirators (the French, the Republicans, and the Panistas) have taken up my claim that obsession lessens violent desire, and are going to use this to modify the negative profiles of me in order to justify the erasure of the previous ICJ trial. Meanwhile, the CIA has submitted more evidences to the real ICJ: that I'm indeed the opposite of what those women victims have claimed, and that I operate according to the traditional logic, which is the inverse of the contemporary logic. The women have been operating under the contemporary logic which says, roughly, that, when a man loves a woman, he wants to hurt her. But the traditional logic is such that, when a man loves a woman, he wants to take care of her. This is of course a simplification of the situation of the reversal. The fact is that Dr P would not consider her husband's love for her a sign that he wants to hurt her, but she would consider my love for her (or rather transference, not love) such sign, because I look crazy and disgusting to her. The inversion of the traditional values can never completely succeed because human beings need to have somebody to love and need to be loved by somebody; and so, when society needs to die, only in certain cases are traditional values completely inverted, i.e. in those disposable cases. Since I'm so ugly that women do not need me to love them, they can afford to apply the inversion of traditional worldview to me; but they can't afford to apply it to the men whom they actually need for their emotional survival. The CIA has presumably entered something like this to the ICJ for consideration (in regard to America's entrance to [its] 'death phase'). Again, it is the feminists who have invented the contemporary logic – which can never be applied universally, but only regionally – in order to accord with the trend of the evolution of human society. After Wes has provoked me, suddenly, [my] infatuation dissipates. After my conspirators have collected their evidences, they are 'kind enough' to wake me up from my continual attempt to make a total fool out of myself.”

9 In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: “My conspirators want more evidences demonstrating that I'm perpetually suicidal and wanting to be violent, in conformity to Kiersten's claims about me.” In reality, it was just Homeland Security CO chief and the Monkey.

10 In original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: “This is how my conspirators could have collected another piece of evidence showing me hating, at the same time, the person I love: by manipulating me to see that the person I love is actually harming me.” Again, it's not my “conspirators”, but Homeland Security CO chief and the Monkey.

11 In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: “My conspirators have programmed me to produce another piece of evidence demonstrating that I love the person I hate at the same time.” Again, not my “conspirator”, but Homeland Security CO chief and the Monkey.

might conform to Homeland Security's warnings about me and, secondly, in case I did die, the CIA would never be able to reactivate the previous ICJ trial. All that painful reflections just for this end! And the Monkey also controlled me to post the latest, 19 April blog post in order to enable SDW's Erie relative to find more materials with which to persuade the TMU that I was a danger to people. And it was of course thanks to the Monkey's programming that I suddenly found SDW disgusting after posting my latest blog post – I must mean harm to the woman I was obsessed with in order to conform to Homeland Security's warning, and the Secret Society women's testimonies, about me.)

As noted, Karin had originally scheduled a meetup tonight at Ethiopian Food (in Little Ethiopia). Somehow she had decided to postpone it to tomorrow. Perhaps it was again because everyone was still too busy with the problem of how to force the TMU to reopen the stalking case on me.

10:21 PM, I was editing my blog from Starbucks. I posted the blog post you see for 19 April: "Hypothetical scenario of targeting, 17 and 18 April."

10:23 PM,

10:53 PM, I logged out of my blog.

Immediately, he looked up Google's cache of my blog post:

AppleWebKit/536.26 (KHTML, like Gecko) GSA/3.2.1.25875 Mobile/11D167 Safari/8536.25"

Now, let's summarize. Today was just another day that the Secret Society women continued to mobilize their volunteers to brainstorm how to persuade the TMU to accept the Homeland Security warning about me and reopen the stalking case on me: (1) my harassment of Shizuka. (2) My harassment of my family members. (3) My delusion about there being chips planted in my brain. (4) My naked pictures of Angelica – 9 times! And, toward the end of the night, 4 times from Taiwan!

Meanwhile, SDW had called upon five persons in total today to come examine my victimization of her with my crazy blog which the TMU had refused to do something about: (1) the unknown volunteer on 11:06 AM; (2) the Hollywood, Florida, volunteer on 12:15 PM; (3) the Michigan volunteer on 12:28 PM; (4) the Japanese volunteer on 12:28 AM; and (5) the Houston volunteer on 3:02 AM. Then her Erie relative came again to read through all my blog posts – from 9:14 AM all the way to 2 AM the next day – looking for any evidence which might be used to convince the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct and that her little niece (?) should indeed be considered as the victim of my stalking.

While all this was but futile effort, Homeland Security CO chief at least had Wes' accusation against me in the morning, my message to Elaine around noon, and then my crazy blog post at night as his temporary evidences to lock up the previous ICJ trial for the time being.

19 April (Saturday; Karin's meetup)

First, a note about myself. Morning, called Wes. Not allowed to leave a message. Remotely controlled to feel severe pain, suicidal again.<sup>22</sup> Even called the suicide prevention hotline a little past noon. Home. Searched for gun ranges; schools and Fly Away buses along the way. Developed the delusional thought that I'm being framed (law enforcement is moving into action). That was some time past 2 PM. Then, felt okay. Napped. Woke up, some pain again, and then the delusional thought that it is A/ K all this time inside the control center, not SDW or Madero, etc. Spent the whole night in Starbucks, Westwood, writing out a new outline on the SDW episode under the wrong thesis: A/ K had been brought inside the control center.

(As you can imagine, it is Homeland Security CO chief who had instructed the Monkey to control me to feel suicidal and seek out gun ranges: as the TMU continued to refuse to reopen any stalking case on me, he needed temporary evidence in the ICJ that his warnings about me had always been correct. Furthermore, when I did show up at the gun range tomorrow, it would be more evidence to enable the Secret Society women to convince the TMU that I was indeed a danger to people so that the Homeland Security warning about me should be taken seriously. The Monkey then controlled me to develop new wrong scenarios and to write them out in my new blog post "A summary of targeting, government operation, March and April 2014" so that Mr Homeland Security CO chief could have evidence in the ICJ that I was indeed delusional (was indeed deluded about the women I was obsessed with) and a hater of womankind (all that garbage about "keeping women out of the workforce"). My last comment about how I was destined to marry Ekaterina was also evidence that I continued to be obsessed with, and delusional about, Russia's First Daughter, enabling the Russian diplomatic service to continue to have a reason to be alarmed about me. But, as usual, mixed into the wrong scenarios of this new blog post were again ingredients of the "plan" which the Invisible Hand and BOL were working on: (1) the use of linguistic typology (language change) to illustrate the simplification of the human mind during the digital age; (2) the removal of much of the Sentient World Simulation functions from the mind-reading computer (this had in fact already been done); (3) to get the Secret Society women to make a fool of themselves in order to convince people that women are not as smart as people think they are under the influence of the current feminist climate; and (4) how a famous woman, the supposed victim of this stalker, would discover him to be in fact a super gift. Furthermore, whenever I speculated about the Invisible Hand's analysis of me to SDW in my blog post, the Invisible Hand would use it to educate the TMU detectives as to what I was really feeling so that they could have more evidence with which to discount the Homeland Security warnings, and the Secret Society women's testimonies, about me.)

<sup>22</sup> In the original version, my erroneous interpretation at this point: "My conspirators have collected another piece of evidence showing me conforming to Kiersten's claim about me as being perpetually suicidal."

Now let's summarize. Today was just another day that the Secret Society women had continued to mobilize their volunteers to brainstorm how to persuade the TMU to reopen the stalking case on me: (1) my naked picture of Angelica (5 times); (2) my harassment of Shizuka; (3) my delusion about there being chips planted in my brain; and (4) my plagiarism.

Meanwhile, SDW seems to have called upon four people in total today to come examine my victimization of her on my blog: (1) the Minnesota volunteer on 5:15 AM; (2) the Georgia volunteer on 12:45 PM; (3) the UK volunteer on 1:15 PM ("gang-stalking induces stroke"); and (4) the Atlanta volunteer on 1:42 PM. Then, her Erie relative continued her research, from 7 AM until 3:40 AM the next day! From 4:25 to 8:30 PM, somebody else seemed to be directing her so that, during these four hours, she actually took care to examine the other parts of my website.

While all this effort was futile, Homeland Security CO chief made some progress today. He not only had my new blog post as temporary evidence in the ICJ that I was indeed delusional, but had also succeeded in prompting me to decide to go to the gun range tomorrow: that should help convince the TMU that he was indeed right about me, that I was indeed a danger to people.

20 April (Sunday; sleep deprivation; gun range)<sup>24</sup>

<sup>24</sup> In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: "My conspirators have collected ample evidence demonstrating that I would never stalk SDW (and thus fit Kiersten's profile of me as an obsessive stalker) as long as I was still obsessing over her. I'm correct on my 17 April blog post – which my conspirators would have used to modify the false profile about me – that the only circumstance under which I could stalk SDW is if I have come to hate her. (Meanwhile, my new belief that A/ K are inside the control center targeting me, and SDW and her relative's reporting me as crazy, will be used as further evidence supporting everybody's claim that I'm delusional.) From the next day onward, my conspirators would begin to wear down my loving obsession for SDW by gradually making me develop bizarre delusional scenarios about SDW's being allowed to target me to profit herself. This would make me hate her, and so remove all my moral scruples which had been preventing me from reaching for SDW despite [my] gasping for

First, a note about myself. Slept 5:30 AM. Woke up 10:30 AM. Rushed to Tom N Toms to post the "Outline" to correct all past mistakes. (I didn't yet know that the scenario of A/ K going inside the control center was all incorrect, and that all this was merely more evidence for Homeland Security CO chief of the delusional state of my mind.) Then, suggested that SDW might be tested for her ability to distinguish between the right order and the wrong order. (It would seem that the Monkey had strategically timed my thinking to coincide with some honking and with the appearance of somebody wearing earphones so that I would believe that SDW had actually heard my confession through the surveillance agent near me. In reality, the surveillance – if the person wearing earphones was indeed doing surveillance – was either from the TMU or from Homeland Security. In the case of the latter, just her as if for oxygen in a vacuum. Then, I would be made to suffer severe physical pain while believing that it was SDW who was doing it. Then, so the strategy goes, since nobody would tell me anything about SDW so that I would be unable to verify if I was indeed correct in attributing my suffering to her, I would, out of the natural human desire to have an explanation for one's misfortune, and now that I would no longer care about offending her, actually set out to 'stalk' her – although only on the cyberspace, since I didn't have any means to travel to her city to stalk her physically. (And, by 'cyberstalking', we mean only 'looking for information about her online', which was not 'cyberstalking' for anybody else save for me, all because I was already a 'suspect' on the basis of Chaya's warning about me.) This was still not enough, however. I would also have to be manipulated to believe that the government had instructed SDW to make false reports about me as part of a sting operation to bust her, and not me; otherwise, I would still not 'stalk' SDW out of fear for arrest, or getting into trouble with law enforcement in general. Meanwhile the CIA is submitting evidence to the secret ICJ demonstrating just how different I was from the women's original conception of me: I would not stalk unless I was not obsessive; and I would not stalk unless I was sure that I would not be in trouble with law enforcement. (Of course, law enforcement had believed A/ K's false claim about me in the beginning all because, when I was stalking Chaya 11 years ago, I was indeed obsessed with her; even though, at the time, I was only doing so under the impression that I wouldn't be discovered.) Thus, my conspirators would use SDW as a 'bait' for the third time – all without her knowing, of course. While making me conform to A/ K's false profile of me as an obsessive stalker, the operation would continue to produce evidences for my delusional state of mind since it would require me to develop more false scenarios about SDW, thus continuing to force me to conform to A/ K's false profile of me as delusional. The CIA was quite aware of the irreversibility of the process: that, by proving in the ICJ that I do not conform to A/ K's original conception of me, they would in the end cause me to forever conform, superficially that is, to the modified conception of me as perpetually criminal, since, once I shall have discovered that I have been deceived into looking delusional, and wasting my precious time on writing down false scenarios, I will continue to commit crimes in American society to the end of time out of racist hatred toward Americans and Mexicans. This is, of course, the Macrospherians' original goal – because I need to be bad-to-the-bone for life in order to allow for the reconstruction of that official version of the evidentiary course in which the setting of the mind-reading computer had [never] been tampered with in 2010. That is, a scenario is needed on the Macrospherian level where the French, the Republicans, the Panistas, and their opponents the Priistas and Homeland Security CO chief are somehow working together to [make sure I shall commit] crimes for the rest of my life. In this case, it's probably like: the Priistas and Homeland Security CO chief want to use the opportunity of the erasure of evidence to destroy me by making me commit crimes for life because they hate me. The Panistas also think this a good idea, and thus want to adopt it as a product of conspiracy against them that [could be] beneficial to them. Mexicans simply cannot help but enjoy seeing the inversion of the natural order, turning a peaceful Asian nerd who has never committed any crimes in his life into his opposite, a disgusting delusional criminal who commits crimes every day for life. The Republicans and the French then let the Mexicans have their way in order to prove to the world that Mexicans are bad people. (Meanwhile, Angelica and Kiersten would presumably also enjoy seeing me committing crimes for life.) Also, just like before, my delusional state of mind would serve – in addition to becoming evidence for the previous ICJ trial and enabling the erasure of evidences (or making the Panistas believe that evidences are being erased) – the purpose of testing my true character for the current ICJ trial and generating, on the Macrospherian level, ideas for global reform (sustainable civilization and New Feminism). Since the true purpose of all this – the Macrospherian goal – was to reconstruct that official version of the previous ICJ trial in which the setting of the mind-

to catch me developing more delusions about the woman I was obsessed with.) Then, 2 PM, ran to catch the buses to go to the gun range.<sup>25</sup> Still couldn't understand why the Metro website did not produce a bus route but only Fly Away buses, as if I was required to leave all these traces (a credit card was required to purchase the ticket) and waste money (it's more expensive). It looks like an operation to frame me. (Probably!) Arriving at Van Nuys, realized: It's Sunday, and that's why there are no buses.<sup>26</sup> The gun range personnel pulled me aside to question me why my name came up during "background check". This can't be me – or it could be; but they had never checked before – but, when I denied it, they just forgot about it. Why?<sup>27</sup> Finger prints also taken.<sup>28</sup> I would then think that, tonight, SDW will be notified, and tomorrow the police will allow her to purchase a gun even though, under normal circumstances, she is not allowed to do so, because of her 5150/ 5250 records (just like me, in other words). Nice practice, and I didn't use the opportunity to shoot myself, of course.<sup>29</sup> But reading computer had never been touched in April 2010, I would presumably also have to be delusional for life (constantly thinking out wrong scenarios about the stalking scandal and the ICJ evidentiary course).” As you can imagine, all that had happened was that Homeland Security CO chief and the Monkey wanted me to develop more delusions about SDW and start hating her so that the TMU could be forced to admit that the Homeland Security warning, and the Secret Society women's testimonies, about me were correct and thus reopen the stalking case on me. My wrong scenario continues: “The deal which has come from the Macrospherians is therefore basically this. To have their new New World Order and sustainable civilization, they shall allow A/ K and the Mexicans to have their revenge against me because, by the end of the process, I would have been so thoroughly conditioned by mind-control torture as to spend my entire life committing crimes and thinking delusional scenarios and doing nothing else, thus wasting away my intellect, my time, and eventually my life while getting no benefits at all from the process but simply suffering perpetual, chronic physical pain and deteriorating health. Like a drug-addict, basically. Thus, by exonerating me, the CIA is actually killing me, all because a scenario is needed on the Macrospherian level where I am simply bad-to-the-bone and crazy for life.” In reality, other than wanting his warning about me to be validated by everyone else, Homeland Security CO chief simply enjoyed watching me wasting my life away committing crimes.

25 It's The Target Range, at 16140 Cohasset St., Van Nuys, CA 91406.

26 In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: “Apparently my conspirators have timed my desire to practice in the range with Sunday so that I would end up misinterpreting it as an operation to frame me: SDW's manner of targeting, letting myself frustrate myself by setting the wrong goal at the wrong time and getting myself into troubles.” Again, it was just the Monkey and Homeland Security CO chief who were doing this.

27 In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: “My conspirators had thereby obtained more evidences for my delusional state of mind, for I was made to believe erroneously that A/ K were arrested again, and then believe erroneously that the CIA was so kind to me and so valued me as to be teaching law enforcement to be open-minded and allow mental patients to practice shooting. Later I would believe erroneously that the White Roses (or the Republicans/ Mexicans) needed me to believe that A/ K were arrested when they were not, in order to convince them that this was not a sting op.”

28 In the original version, my wrong (or perhaps half-right) interpretation at this point: “Apparently, the gun range personnel had already been contacted by law enforcement and instructed to collect my finger prints. This is probably why they did a background check on me; and yet law enforcement had instructed the gun range personnel to allow me to practice anyway because their ‘government trainer’ had instructed them: Just let him practice; he is not going to hurt people or himself. We need this as evidence; both for you guys to study just how wrong these women ‘victims are about him and to allow the government to submit such evidence to the International Court of Justice. (Thus there is actually some truth in my “delusion” about CIA's kindness.) Presumably, the police would later collect the finger prints as evidence: they were doing all this under their obligation to protect SDW, whose case with them about me was still open. But all my wrong beliefs about this episode my conspirators had intercepted as evidences: this delusional, deranged, obsessive individual who liked dangerous things.”

29 In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: “The CIA had thus submitted more evidences to the secret ICJ demonstrating that I couldn't quite decide to kill myself even with the weapon in hand, that I was the exact opposite of the women's claims about me.”

afterwards discovered that my recorder had run out of space: my activity is timed by the computer in the control center so that I will make mistakes like this, and misinterpret everything normal as “targeting”, thereby frustrating myself and making myself look delusional.<sup>30</sup> Incidental thought: all my painful feelings toward SDW seem capable of being eliminated in a single stroke by simply reinterpreting her as “government-sent sister”. This is the first stage of my conspirators’ plan to wear down my moral scruples in order to prepare me to hate SDW and “cyberstalk” her; this would at once also complete the cycle of Borderline obsession (from idealization to devaluation) in order to make me conform to Kiersten’s claim that I love and hate womankind at the same time. (If this was correct, it was just the Monkey who was doing this.) Got on the bus to go back to the airport. 6:10 PM, charged up my phone and called Wes, but he did not turn on his answering machine to allow me to leave a message. Severe physical pain under the chest. Required to decide to systematically destroy one’s own body in addition to collecting damages, just to kill pain. My conspirators want me to resume self-mutilation in order to erase (replace) evidences while forcing me to conform to Angelica’s and Kiersten’s claim about my being a danger to myself. (Again, it was just the Monkey who was doing this.)<sup>31</sup>

Night, mood okay. SM, Starbucks. I posted more on my blog, and did some people-watching. 10:30 PM, a homeless man tried to provoke me by reporting my smoking on the Promenade to the security guard. An actor? Why would anyone do that?<sup>32</sup> While on the bus, I noticed another surveillance agent near me. Presumably this was a real surveillance agent (earphones-wearing) because law enforcement was still tracking me in order to “protect” SDW. (It could either be the TMU’s or Homeland Security’s surveillance.) Collected some damages in SM. Proposed merely masturbating on top of SDW in order to complete the “pair up”, and received a signal about “working to clean up the TI culture”. (More evidence of the delusional state of my mind.) 3 AM, home. Because Wes had refused one’s calls, cut oneself 12 times. Programmed by my conspirators (in fact, just by the Monkey) to feel bad, embarrassed, and disgusted again about my look when filming myself cutting myself. This was evidence of my conformity to Kiersten’s claim that I hated myself (self-hatred as the foundation for my “misogyny”). (This interpretation was sort of correct.)

(As noted, Homeland Security CO chief wanted me to go to the gun range in order to force the TMU to admit that I was indeed a danger to people. For this reason, he might very well have informed the Secret Society women – and SDW in particular – that I had gone to the gun range in the afternoon. This might be the reason why SDW’s Erie relative stopped looking at my blog after 10:17 AM and

30 In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: “Again, I must repeat SDW’s experience – or look like I’m repeating it – in order to develop the belief that the Macrospherians want some sort of identity established between me and her, thus allowing the French and the Republicans to adopt this as a ‘good idea’ and proceed to plan for the ultimate strategy to clean up the mess which the Homeland Security CO chief had created (mixing up different people’s brain-scan images and the ‘dynamic approach’).”

31 In the original version, my erroneous interpretation at this point: “Meanwhile, the CIA has submitted evidences to the ICJ showing that I was so not a danger to myself, in that cutting myself was the best I could do even while being mind-controlled to desire suicide.”

32 In the original version, my erroneous interpretation at this point: “Presumably he was not an actor, and my conspirators wanted more evidences for my delusional state of mind and identity with SDW. (SDW has had the same problem, thinking that everybody around is ‘acting’ when nobody is.)” The man could in fact be sent in by Homeland Security to provoke me to a fight.

would not come back until the next day: SDW and her family might be discussing the matter about the gun range with the TMU. When the gun range personnel took my finger prints and so on, all this was of course later passed onto the TMU. While SDW and so on would use my trip to the gun range as the reason to force the TMU to reopen the stalking case on me, the Invisible Hand would have instructed the TMU detectives to use this as an opportunity to disprove Homeland Security's warning about me once again. Thus, when I was coming back to Santa Monica, the TMU had surveillance on me: they would afterward conclude, once again, that I wasn't a danger to people (since nothing happened with my trip to the gun range) so that there was no reason to open any stalking case on me. Perhaps it was for this reason that Homeland Security sent in an actor to provoke me when I was on the Promenade. But at least, late in night, Homeland Security CO chief succeeded in getting me to cut myself again. That would at least be temporary evidence in the ICJ to temporarily prevent the CIA from reactivating the previous ICJ trial.)

My harassment of Shizuka.

3:22 AM, I was editing my blog from home. I posted my next blog post, "Targeting, 20 April 2014".

3:48 AM, I was still editing my blog.

Let's summarize. While there was some brainstorming in the morning and early afternoon – (1) my naked picture of Angelica; (2) my harassment of Shizuka; (3) my delusional mind; (4) my computer-hacking; and (5) my plagiarism – everyone was excited today because Homeland Security CO chief had already informed everyone that I would show up at the gun range this afternoon. As noted, everyone thought that that would be enough reason to persuade the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about my being a danger to people was correct and that the stalking case on me should therefore be reopened. This was why, as noted, SDW's Erie relative stopped her research by 10:30 AM. And so, by 5:30 PM, when I had returned from the gun range and the TMU had received the information about me from the gun range employees, the Secret Society women started mobilizing their volunteers to report me to the TMU:

- (1) 5:28 PM, the Philippines volunteer reported on my pollution of the targeted individuals' discursive domain (my delusion about being a TI).
- (2) 6:01 PM, a St. Louis volunteer reported on my harassment of Kiersten on my blog.
- (3) 8:44 PM, a RPI volunteer reported on my delusion about the Clinton family.
- (4) 8:47 PM, a volunteer reported on my delusions about the chips inside my brain.

Namely, to emphasize that, because of my delusions about being mind-controlled and my women victims, I could be very dangerous to them. And of course also reports about my plagiarism and so on to emphasize that Homeland Security had always been right about me. But, unfortunately, by late night, the TMU had concluded that I wasn't a danger to people and that Homeland Security and my women victims had all been wrong about me so that they saw no reason to reopen the stalking case on me. Thus, on 11:58 PM, terribly disappointed, SDW called on the Union City volunteer to come examine my blog posts about her: "Look what crazy things he wrote about me! Given all this, the police just wouldn't accept the Homeland Security warning about him to be valid!"

21 April (Monday)

First, a note about myself. Slept between 4:30 and almost 11 AM. Almost 1 PM, Tom N Toms, programmed to read many information on "Threat Management Units" in both LA and San Diego. Who have been listening to me? None trustworthy. (They were not educated enough.) Revised my blog posts. Home, 4:30 PM. Emailed to Wes: will cut myself. Napped. Woke up 7:30 PM. Made more revisions on my blog, on SDW. Then, going to Westwood. While on the bus, read more about BOL: she doesn't believe that international laws should be simply a set of rules (obeying them as an end in itself) but believes that they should be "means to an end" – a process to lead to desired goals. (This might be important! This was how the implementation of the "program" would be justified.) Starbucks. Many honks all day long to correspond to my hypothesis that SDW has escaped a sting operation yesterday thanks to my confession ("right order, wrong order"), but hours later I'd believe it's just A/ K trying to deceive me.<sup>39</sup> While in Starbucks, debated with myself about the utility of cutting myself.

11:15 PM, was compiling the project for DVD-370. Remotely controlled to delete the ImgBurn project accidentally. Had to recompile it. Severe heartache. Required to collect damages. Going to SM/ WLSHR. Discovered that I was remotely controlled to forget to bring my nails in order to frustrate myself. 1 W. Got on the bus going toward LCNGA. Remotely controlled to pass over my stop, ending up in FRFX. No targets. Angered. Decided to postpone. At a loss: 5 B, 2 mirrors. Got home, and discovered that I had in fact brought my nails with me, but that I was remotely controlled to overlook them earlier. Again, the disintegration of my mental functioning in order for me to fit Kiersten's/ the Monkey's profile of me as mentally retarded. (Perhaps!) Upset that my mental function had been

39 In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: "In reality, my conspirators have begun conditioning me to believe in this erroneous scenario that SDW would soon be tested by following the wrong orders, which false belief would lead to the next false belief in 'Operation Substitution': that SDW has become bad-to-the-bone and hence qualified under international laws for suffering my pain in my stead. The wrong belief would cause me to hate SDW and so enable me to 'cyberstalk' her while justifying the continual use of 'substitutes' throughout the evidence-replacement process."

completely destroyed through mind-control. In the end, made one deep cut on myself. Hoping that Ekaterina will feel hurt by this. (Ha! Certainly not! She wanted me dead!) Evidence for my delusional belief. (Indeed!) 1 B at MEX APART. Urinated. The man came out to yell at me. Angered.

(As you can expect, both my threat to Wes that I'd cut myself and my act of cutting myself later were Homeland Security CO chief's evidence in the ICJ to temporarily lock up the previous ICJ trial, now that the TMU's conclusion last night that I wasn't a danger to people had become unfavorable evidence for him over there.)

There is no showing of favicon.ico. Note that this FOIA document listed two persons from UCI, Darlene K. Sullivan and Thomas Michael D'Zmura. This is evidently Prof. D'Zmura, who somehow had a Linux computer in his office. Namely, the Secret Society women, after the TMU had refused to reopen their stalking case on me last night, were desperately trying to come up with something to convince the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct. Thus, out of desperation, they decided to contact Prof. D'Zmura to warn him that a serial stalker who was on Homeland Security's watchlist and who had a habit of violating people's intellectual property rights had put his document on his website in violation of his intellectual property rights. The women then advised him to report the matter to the TMU which had already a case on the stalker in question.<sup>46</sup> But of course, even if Prof. D'Zmura was willing to file a complaint against me at the TMU, the TMU would not budge.

It seems that the Secret Society women had a particular interest in my feminism chapters today. Perhaps they were thinking of making an argument that my practice yesterday was significant in that I had already professed misogynist ideologies.

184.56.169.16 - - [21/Apr/2014:20:32:09 -0600] "GET /blogs/2014/04/12/self-defense-claim-against-tu-quoque-etc/ HTTP/1.1" 200 19591 "-" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.0) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/34.0.1847.116 Safari/537.36"

Amazingly, she now tried to log into my blog!

184.56.169.16 - - [21/Apr/2014:20:32:22 -0600] "GET /blogs/wp-login.php?redirect_to=http%3A%2F%2Fwww.lawrencechin2011.com%2Fblogs%2F2014%2F04%2F12%2Fself-defense-claim-against-tu-quoque-etc%2F HTTP/1.1" 200 1565 "http://www.lawrencechin2011.com/blogs/2014/04/12/self-defense-claim-against-tu-quoque-etc/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.0) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/34.0.1847.116 Safari/537.36"

Apparently she wanted to leave a message for me! At the same time,

107.184.76.168 - - [21/Apr/2014:20:32:42 -0600] "GET /scientificenlightenment1/coatlicue.jpg HTTP/1.1" 200 75699 "-" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.1; WOW64; Trident/7.0; rv:11.0) like Gecko"

Now, having no account and password, SDW's Erie relative came back to the blog post:

184.56.169.16 - - [21/Apr/2014:20:33:17 -0600] "GET /blogs/2014/04/12/self-defense-claim-against-tu-quoque-etc/ HTTP/1.1" 200 8045 "http://www.lawrencechin2011.com/blogs/2014/04/12/self-defense-claim-against-tu-quoque-etc/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.0) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/34.0.1847.116 Safari/537.36"

And she clicked on:

184.56.169.16 - - [21/Apr/2014:20:33:33 -0600] "GET /blogs/wplogin.php?action=lostpassword HTTP/1.1" 200 1439 http://www.lawrencechin2011.com/blogs/wp-login.php? redirect_to=http%3A%2F%2Fwww.lawrencechin2011.com%2Fblogs%2F2014%2F04%2F12%2Fself-defense-claim-against-tu-quoque-etc%2F "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.0) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/34.0.1847.116 Safari/537.36"

Namely, she was just trying to see if there was a way to set up an account to leave a message for me. It's clear: after a whole day of brainstorming, the Secret Society women had concluded that there was no way to advance their case without more damaging evidence. SDW thus wanted to revive the old trick: send someone to pretend to be interested in my blog posts and befriend me in order to lure out from me some damaging confessions (how I wanted to hurt her and so on). But this idea couldn't even take off the ground! After this, the Erie relative would not come back to my website until 23 April. She had evidently surrendered for the time being!

7:46 PM, I logged into my blog again from TNT.

Let's summarize. Devastated by the TMU's decision last night, the Secret Society women today spent the whole day brainstorming how to force the TMU to change their mind (to accept the Homeland Security warning about me). Here are the essentials of their actions today:

- (1) 10:20 AM, Angelica was telling a Rancho Cordova volunteer about the current predicament (how I could keep mentioning her name on my blog with complete impunity).
- (2) 11:51 AM, SDW's Erie relative started examining my blog.
- (3) 1:52 PM, a Los Angeles volunteer brainstormed whether my delusions about synthetic telepathy had made me a danger to people and counted as intellectual property rights violations.
- (4) 4:15 PM, SDW's Erie relative continued.
- (5) 4:44 PM, the Secret Society women contacted Prof. D'Zmura of UCI (synthetic telepathy).
- (6) 5:59 PM, SDW summoned the first, Palm Coast volunteer to come examine my victimization of her.
- (7) 7:03 PM, SDW summoned the second, Nashville volunteer to come examine my victimization of her.
- (8) 7:32 PM, SDW's Erie relative tried to leave a message for me as the women gang decided that they needed more damaging evidence.
- (9) 8:53 PM, SDW summoned the Nashville volunteer again.

(10) 10:15 PM, SDW summoned the third, Missouri volunteer to come examine my victimization of her.

Throughout the day, they also continued to brainstorm how to report me for: (1) harassment of Shizuka; (2) hosting Angelica's naked picture (6 times); and (3) my plagiarism. They seem also to have sent in volunteers to look at my feminism chapters 3 times in order to brainstorm how to connect my practice yesterday with my misogynist ideology. While all this effort was in vain, Homeland Security CO chief ordered the Monkey to control me to threaten to cut myself, and then to cut myself, in order to obtain at the very least temporary evidence with which to lock up the previous ICJ trial for the time being.

22 April (Tuesday; sleep deprivation; anger/ pain; obsession subsiding)

First, a note about myself. Slept between 6 and 8 AM. That's all that the control center allowed. 10 AM, came to Tom N Toms. The thought that the control center permitted me so little sleep caused me anger. Severe pain. Took Tylenol. Then the (delusional) thought that SDW was benefiting from my suffering caused me more anger and pain. Going to the storage. Feelings for SDW are being programmed to subside, and be replaced by the desire to know about her activities in order to achieve equality/ intellectual parity with her. Inequality also causes physical pain. At the storage. Out, 3 N. Then severe pain again, over the fact that SDW can see me but that I can't see her.<sup>50</sup> Then, around 4 PM, wrote out the blog post 22/04/14, again on the debate from last night: I have been a Santa Claus to SDW again (thanks to me she is now able to own guns). (Wrong.) Why do I keep benefiting her? Then, shocked: Why is one so upset about sacrificing oneself to make her happy? This contradiction residing in one's emotions: jealous of her and yet liking/ caring about her. Wrote also about cognitive therapy/ rationalization to calm one's discontent with being forced to save America: China and Russia will benefit too. (Yeah right!)<sup>51</sup> Decided also to go to the hospital again to get food and complain about pain. Then made a summary of the structure of one's obsession with SDW.<sup>52</sup> As is noted, there is no visit from SDW's Erie relative to my blog today. SDW and her family must be busy with law enforcement all day long trying to devise measures to protect her against me, and yet all law

50 In the original version, my erroneous interpretation at this point: "All this was of course used by my conspirators as evidence for the delusional state of my mind: it was not true that SDW can see everything I was doing, but only occasionally, such as right now when she and her relatives were in close contact with law enforcement over the danger I might pose to her." In reality, it was just the Monkey who had continued to control me to develop wrong ideas about SDW in order for me to fit into the false profile that I kept developing delusions about the woman I was obsessed with.

51 Even if I would later on be suffering to save America, China and Russia would hardly benefit from it at all.

52 In the original version, my erroneous interpretation at this point: "My conspirators wanted me to write this in order for law enforcement to see it. They wanted the law enforcement officials around to witness the bizarre fact that the stalking suspect is full of moral debates while the stalking victim is incapable of even appreciating the ability to distinguish between right and wrong, or even caring about what is right and what is wrong and what is real and what is not – that the American society is upside down. (Not that, of course, anybody in the threat management business would understand what I was talking about initially.)" In reality, it was most likely the Invisible Hand who wanted me to write this down, not only in order to enable the TMU detectives to produce a better profile of me, but also in order to educate them on this point so that they would be more motivated to invalidate the Homeland Security warning about me. (Although, of course, later on the Invisible Hand would indeed make the entire law enforcement profession in America notice that American society is really totally upside down.)

enforcement would see me doing was writing down these incomprehensible moral scruples on my blog. (This was not quite what happened.)

On the Metro, 12 AM. Was programmed to think about the “philosophy chic” met on the Metro on 7 April, and to develop a new perspective on SDW: have gravely overestimated her, and now believe that she has input her desire into the computer in the control center to program me to forget about her because she is utterly uncomfortable with me. (Bullshit. Just being programmed to continue to be “delusional” about the woman I was obsessed with.) Upset. Then demanded that the government require her to be one’s sister for life and to maintain a relationship with oneself which one is allowed to know about and see. Cannot let her, and the government, get away with this.<sup>53</sup>

One collected damages tonight in West LA and LACNGA: 2 W. Then, going to the UCLA hospital, for food and pain killers. Got nothing, and was sent home around 5 AM (23 April). Wondered if there is any reporting about me in the hospital; or if the hospital is considering me a “frivolously complaining patient”. (Most likely the latter.)

(Again, for more about what happened today – mostly the thoughts and feelings that preoccupied me – see the blog post dated today (although modified again tomorrow): “Targeting, 22 and 23 April, with new resolution and final conclusion” (specifically the entry for 22 April). As noted, the Invisible Hand would carefully teach the TMU detectives as to how to construct a more accurate profile of me from my analysis of my feelings in order to have something to counter the Homeland Security warning about me in the law enforcement system, both domestically and internationally. While Homeland Security CO chief would use the blog post as evidence in the ICJ to confirm that my women victims were right about me, that I was indeed delusional and hated whoever I loved at the same time – and he would be allowed to use this evidence to lock up the previous ICJ trial for the time being – the Invisible Hand, by making the TMU detectives understand the origins of these contradictory feelings in me which I didn’t even quite understand myself, would enable them to see through my superficial resemblance to Homeland Security’s warning about me and understand that, upon closer look, I was in no way the creature Homeland Security and my women victims had described.)

53 In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: “While my conspirators had programmed me to develop these false beliefs in order to make me conform to Kiersten’s false profile of me as delusional, this programming of the feeling of injustice is the third stage in their programming to wear down one’s moral scruples.” Again, it was just the Monkey doing this under Homeland Security CO chief’s instruction.

My harassment of Shizuka.

Let's sum up. Today was just another day that the Secret Society women continued to mobilize their volunteers to brainstorm how to force the TMU to accept the Homeland Security warning about me and reopen the stalking case on me. Here are the essentials:

- (1) 6:55 AM, SDW summoned a volunteer from Nice, France, to come examine my blog posts about her. (The first.)
- (2) 7:41 AM, a friend of Gaurav's or Angelo's came to brainstorm whether my harassment of them in "My experience..." could force the TMU to change their mind.
- (3) 8:21 AM, a volunteer from Sears, Illinois, came to examine my delusions about the chips inside my brain.
- (4) 9 AM, a Texas volunteer came to examine my misogynist ideology.
- (5) 11:10 AM, SDW summoned her Tampa friend to come examine my blog posts about her. (The second.)
- (6) 7:27 – 7:48 PM, SDW's Tampa friend came again.
- (7) 8:47 PM, a Chicago volunteer came to examine my blog posts about the mosquito drones.

(8) 1:22 AM, did SDW summon a third volunteer to come examine my blog posts about her?

And throughout the day there continued to be brainstorming about: (1) my harassment of Shizuka; (2) my naked picture of Angelica (3 time); (3) my harassment of my family members; and (4) my plagiarism. Again, although all this effort was in vain, Homeland Security CO chief still had my new blog post as evidence with which to temporarily lock up the previous ICJ trial.

23 April (Wednesday, sleep deprivation)

First, a note about myself. Allowed to sleep between 6 and 10:30 AM. 6 PM, tremendous hurt, humiliation, over the possibility that one has been forced by the government to doubly make a fool of oneself through obsession with SDW: she may have already fallen in love with a Russian government informant. Proposed to take her to meet her love on a deal. Honks to confirm. Wrongly believed that the SVR has the intention of recruiting SDW for the sole mission of marrying a SVR agent as mirror image of the CIA's recruitment of oneself for the sole purpose of marrying Ekaterina (this to save oneself from the dark hole of being a "terrorist suspect").<sup>62</sup>

By this time, as one demands government's compensation by making SDW into one's sister, one's anger is shifted more and more to the government rather than to SDW herself. At this time one also begins to realize that SDW wants to be dominated by a strong man.

Starbucks, Westwood. 10:36 PM, called Dr G for the second time. Reached his answering machine only. Remotely controlled to feel severe pain in order to look like I was hurt by Dr G's unavailability. Required to collect damages as a matter of survival. Pain so severe. Shaking. SM/ Wilshire, 6 N. 5 SPC, 1 W (PCKUP). 4 B. Came to the UCLA hospital. Thought about political asylum. 2 AM, Open Office (this diary) did not allow export to PDF. Pain again. Required to collect more damages.

(Again, see the blog post for 22 April for more notes about what happened today. As usual, Homeland Security CO chief had nothing but my diary notes for today as evidence with which to lock up the previous ICJ trial for the time being.)

Note that SDW posted something on 5:59 PM on her Facebook group (edited), made a reply on 7 PM, and then changed the group's profile picture around 12 AM. Note also that Karin had originally scheduled a meetup for tonight, Happy Hour and Jazz at Redwhite Bluezz on 6 PM, but that she had again decided to change it to tomorrow.

Now the Secret Society women's operation on my website for today. 4:20 AM,

<sup>62</sup> In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: "Again, my conspirators wanted me to develop all these bizarre beliefs in order for me to make myself look crazy and conform to Kiersten's false profile of me." No, it's just the Monkey who was doing this.

Apparently, just a moment ago, the St John's College volunteer was instructed by Homeland Security CO chief to link up this blog post from Reddit. This is what the Reddit post looked like:

7:36 PM, the St John's College volunteer listened to the recording – two hours after taking a first look at this blog post:

But she merely came to the next blog post:

4:01 AM, I was checking my own blog from Starbucks.

Let's sum up. Today the Secret Society women would make even greater effort in mobilizing volunteers to brainstorm new ways to force the TMU to accept the Homeland Security warning about me, and Homeland Security CO chief would also try new tricks to cause evidence to enter into the ICJ to lock up the previous ICJ trial. Here are the essentials:

- (1) 5:19 AM, a UK volunteer came to examine my delusions about the chips inside my brain.
- (2) 8:23 AM, SDW called on the first, Hyderabad volunteer to come examine my blog posts about her.
- (3) 9:36 AM, SDW called on the second, Los Angeles volunteer.
- (4) 2:53 PM, SDW herself showed up to examine my blog posts about her. How exactly to convince the TMU?
- (5) 3:26 PM, the St. John's College volunteer, after examining my postings about brain-chips on Prison Planet Forum, came to my blog.
- (6) 3:31 PM, SDW called on the third, Carlisle volunteer.
- (7) 6:22 PM, after much discussion among SDW and the St. John's College volunteer, SDW's Erie relative came to examine my blog. She would be examining my blog posts on and off until 12:30 AM.
- (8) 7:35 PM, Homeland Security CO chief instructed the St John's College volunteer to link up my 14 April blog post from Reddit in order to enable faulty surveillance to confuse her with me: the message which the St. John's College volunteer would post on Reddit was so stupid that this could be temporary evidence in the ICJ to demonstrate that I was indeed as dumb as the Homeland Security warning had described. By 4 AM, a total of 27 persons would have looked at this 14 April blog post: 25 from Reddit, one from Facebook, and one from a Google search.<sup>72</sup>
- (9) 11: 21 PM, a University of Washington volunteer came to brainstorm about my misogynist ideology (the fifth).
- (10) 1:02 AM, SDW called on the fourth, Opera Mini volunteer.
- (11) 1:08 AM, Angelica called on a University of Geneva volunteer to come examine my delusions about her in "Ying and Yang, I".

<sup>72</sup> Certainly, not every one of them was a volunteer; some were just regular surfers on Reddit who had nothing to do with the Secret Society women.

The Secret Society women, while brainstorming how to prove to the TMU that Homeland Security was right about my plagiarism, had also come to focus on my chapter "humandispersal.html" as the definitive proof of my plagiarism (probably because of the long citation therein from Bomhard and Kern). They summoned today 7 volunteers in total to come examine this chapter: (1) 9:44 AM; (2) 11:36 AM; (3) 12:51 PM; (4) 1:39 PM; (5) 4:53 PM; (6) 8:23 PM; and (7) 8:52 PM. Several volunteers also forged evidence of my plagiarism. Two volunteers also looked up Best Mommy's picture. But only two visits to Angelica's "naked picture" today. Also, my harassment of my family members.

To temporarily lock up the previous ICJ trial, Homeland Security CO chief had thus not only my latest blog postings, but also the stupid Reddit message from the St. John's College volunteer today as temporary evidences.

The St. John College volunteer's message can still be seen today

24 April (Thursday; sleep deprivation; Karin's meetup)

First, a note about myself. Out of the hospital. Starbucks, Westwood. Angered. Believed that most of what I believed about SDW's activities in the past two months were delusional beliefs programmed into my mind by the control center. It seems that the filter has continually controlled me to believe something and then to not believe it, in order to establish a pattern to confuse A/ K, SDW, and the Mexicans as to the trustworthiness of my conception of the purpose of the operation. Now I began to doubt whether SDW is really accessing the surveillance on me. And upset that half of the materials on my blog are in fact delusional. Even doubted if there has indeed existed any Macrospherian Study Group on sustainable civilization. Then wondered if the entire reform program for the US might also be delusional thoughts programmed into my mind. 4:40 AM, Open Office crashed again, causing anger.

Wrote an email to David on 5 AM, confessing my realization that he has been part of Kiersten's Secret Facebook Group and has known SDW since October last year, and that it is she who has asked him to check on me on 16 April. (Half-correct and half-false.) Then confessed that other than being physically attractive, SDW actually doesn't have any of the qualities one looks for in a woman, even though one knows that one is pathetic enough that one shouldn't even bother to look for women at all.<sup>73</sup> Then collected damages. Westwood, 2 B. 5:30 AM, Fairfax, 1 W. 1 H. Slept 7 AM. David replied, 11:22 AM, denying my accusation. I simply presumed that SDW has instructed David not to tell me the truth, that she has gathered everyone around me to falsely report me.<sup>74</sup> Woke up 11:30 AM. Felt virtually

73 The email to David runs thusly: "Hey David, I think I have figured out what is going on with you and the woman I was obsessed with, Maura. You have been part of Kiersten's Secret Facebook Group and have known her since October last year, and she, after finding out my obsession with her, has asked you to check on me. Maura wants to orchestrate some reporting on me to law enforcement through you, but doesn't want me to know that she and you already know each other on the Secret Facebook Group. And so she asks you to pretend to obtain her blog's link from me. Then, when reporting happens, it could look as if she and you haven't planned the orchestrated reporting. But you were, I guess, kind enough, on 16 April, to give me a hint that she has been feeling very uncomfortable about my obsession with her as expressed on my blog. And yet I was so deluded that I believed that the government is about to send her to me. Thanks for trying to wake me up. By the way, I don't know if you believe this. Like I said, there are chips inside my brain, and it's the government which has purposely programmed my thoughts, since March, to make me obsess [over] her. I have been attracted to her since August last year, but ever since she has rejected me in September, I have never attempted to contact her. Then, suddenly, I became obsessed with her this March, because the government wants me to produce some evidence in regard to Kiersten's claim about me. Yesterday, as the government has programmed me to waste enough time obsessing with her and writing delusional thoughts about her on my blog, it suddenly programmed me to forget about her. It's so strange. Now I suddenly have no interest in her whatsoever, and in fact don't know why I have been obsessed with her at all. It seems that other than being physically attractive, she actually doesn't have any of the qualities I look for in a woman. (Of course, I do know that I'm pathetic enough that I shouldn't even bother to look for women at all.) But I just want to clarify my current position."

74 David's very instructive reply goes like this: "I'm glad you're losing interest in her, since that was causing you pain. I tried calling you the other day to discuss, but couldn't get through. Is your phone working now? Everything I've said to you about, uh, I guess Maura is her name – is pure guesswork. Total complete guesswork. I'm often a pretty good guesser, but I really truly don't know any of these people. To my untrained eyes, based on reading her blog, I would guess that Maura appears to have some sort of acute paranoia. But of course I'm not a psychiatrist, so I don't really know what's going on. But conspiracies about noise and disabled people and people walking and... all this stuff, it's just complete nonsense. The human mind is pretty powerful, though! If we look hard enough for things, we can find them! And we can also convince ourselves that it's not just random coincidence combined with a heightened awareness of certain peculiarities in the environment. I'll give a tangible example – my friend Zach thought there was a conspiracy of cars with J's, Q's, and X's in their license plates. Every time he turned around he saw one, they were everywhere. And J, Q, X, are supposed to be uncommon. But statistically, it turns out there is a 30% chance that a random license plate will have one of those three letters in it – that means almost one in three cars is going to. If you're looking for something that one in every three cars has, you're going to find a lot of it for sure. (The probability works like this – for a single letter there's a 23/26 chance that it is *not* J, Q, or X – because these are license plates, not english words, J Q and X are equally as likely to appear as any letter. For 2 (and then 3) letters, we multiply the probabilities together, so  $(23/26) * (23/26) = 69.2\%$  chance that none of those letters will be present; thus  $100\% - 69.2\% = 30.8\%$  chance that ONE of them will be present.) So yeah, every time he turned around he saw one of these cars, but that would happen to anyone who was tuned into noticing these things, because 30% of cars qualify. (Cars with standard license plates nothing for SDW. David was right. Realized just how crazy she was. At Tom N Toms, posted: the use of August Schleicher's theory to illustrate the simplification of the American mind. Then discovered David's reply, and was angered by his denial. (David was actually just following the normal procedure of hiding law enforcement agency's investigation of the suspect from the suspect.) 4 PM, actually hoped that SDW's possible Russian boyfriend would put her away (incite her to harm me in order for her to get herself arrested/ hospitalized).<sup>75</sup> Meanwhile I began developing the false belief that SDW hated me because she hated those who cared about her. Thought mostly about Ekaterina. By this time had developed the false belief that SDW is used by the Russians/ Ekaterina to test my attitude toward romance. It is Ekaterina who is trying to learn how my psychology works. (Wrong. I couldn't be further away from the truth. It was just Homeland Security CO chief who wanted me to "obsess" over Ekaterina again.) Triphon friended me on 5:16 PM, as if to confirm SDW's arrest or the correctness of my wish for SDW's demise. (Wrong. It was just SDW who wanted to send in Triphon to befriend me in order to lure from me the bad confession she would need to convince the TMU to open a stalking case on me on her behalf.) Soon, however: although detesting SDW (she is both lousy, her fault, and too lucky, reason not intrinsic to her), still found it hard to have her suffer pain in my stead because she has suffered similarly in the past. That is, I have begun developing the false belief that the Macrospherians have wanted her to victimize me so that she could by international laws be forced to suffer my fate as my substitute. (Ha!)<sup>76</sup> anyway. The relatively small, maybe 2% of cars with custom plates might make that 30% into 29% or 28% or something, but anyway it's still over 1/4 of all the cars) Years ago, after noticing things like this, I took a step back and decided it was just random; and when I stopped looking for things, I didn't notice them happening as much. All these things happen to all of us; but if we pay inordinate attention, it has the appearance of uncommon frequency. I've never heard of Kiersten (I do have a friend named Kirsten who lives in England, but the spelling is different, and I haven't talked with her in 3 years.) I am not a member of any such facebook group. I'm not sure where you get these ideas but I'm not acting as any kind of agent for anyone. But that brings me to another point – if you have so little trust in me as to think I might be some kind of undercover agent for god-knows-what, I don't think there's anything in the world I can do to help you. I'm not sure what your experiences of me have been, but from my perspective I've gone out of my way considerably to help you out on numerous occasions; I've introduced you to my friends and been social and inclusive with you; I've fed you and welcomed you into my home and given you rides when I've hardly had any money for gas; I visited you in the hospital and brought you books. And so it hurts me quite a bit when you suggest I might have some kind of ulterior motive or be a part of some monumental conspiracy. It just really sucks. I'm not really sure what to do about it, but it doesn't make me feel very good about being friendly and helpful with you as I have been." His last comment to me is a good lesson for me on human interaction. When people, such as my aunt Jennifer and David, do little favors for me to take care of me, I often don't show enough gratitude, and then when they help government agencies run operation on me, I'd get angry with them without remembering what favors they have done for me. Meanwhile, they usually have no idea about how hurtful it is to me when they help government agencies and informants and so on to pull pranks behind my back, so that when I accuse them, they are stupefied by how ungrateful I am. I'll since then have to learn to express gratitude to people when they do me favors so that, when Homeland Security or what not wants to recruit them to run malicious operations on me, they will at least think twice.

- 75 In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: "This is the fourth stage in my conspirators' plan: they need me to hate SDW to the point of wishing for her destruction, in order to cause me to at last 'stalk her'." Again, it was just Homeland Security CO chief and the Monkey who had wanted to prepare me to "stalk" SDW, as you shall see.
- 76 In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: "My conspirators need this delusional belief on my part in order to justify using SDW as a substitute for Angelica and Karin in the replacement/ erasure of evidences from the previous ICJ trial." It's not clear if the Invisible Hand was actually doing something along this line.

It was just Homeland Security CO chief and the Monkey who were trying hard to make me look delusional.*) Anger and hatred all night over the fact that the CIA wants me to look dumb and ridiculous in order to replace evidences.

Kiersten's Vengeance, 9
Lawrence C. Chin
Nov. 2014; rewritten, Dec. 2021

Let's sum up. Today the Secret Society women continued to mobilize their volunteers to brainstorm how to convince the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct and persuade them to reopen the stalking case on me (especially on behalf of SDW):

- (1) 4:23 AM, SDW called on the first volunteer, someone from the University of Singapore, to come examine my victimization of her.
- (2) 6:37 AM, a South Carolina volunteer examined my misogynist rambling (the sixth).
- (3) 7:40 AM, SDW called on a second, UK volunteer.

From now on the volunteers would make a particular effort to brainstorm how to convince the TMU that Homeland Security was indeed right about my insanity given my belief about being chipped in the brain:

- (4) 8:53 AM, the Sears Department volunteer came to examine my delusions about brain-chips again.
- (5) 10:03 AM, SDW's Erie relative showed up – also to examine my delusions about brain-chips.
- (6) 10:20 AM, SDW called on a third, Texas, volunteer.
- (7) 12:44 PM, SDW called on a fourth person, the same Los Angeles volunteer from yesterday.
- (8) 12:45 PM, SDW's Erie relative was now back to my blog posts about SDW this month.
- (9) 12:57 PM, the Arcadia volunteer examined my delusions about brain-chips.
- (10) 2:10 PM, the Brooklyn volunteer examined my delusions about my women victims' going after me.
- (11) 3:21 PM, the Opera Mini volunteer examined my delusions about being mind-controlled.
- (12) 5:43 PM, SDW's Erie relative's last appearance.
- (13) 6:43 PM, SDW called on a fifth person, the same Nice volunteer from 22 April.
- (14) 12:45 AM, SDW called on a sixth, New Mexico volunteer to come examine my comments to her on her blog.

Meanwhile, a total of 20 people had checked out the stupid Reddit post today – certainly many of them volunteers, here to report to the TMU that the stalker had posted this stupid thing demonstrating that Homeland Security was all right about him. There were also 2 examinations of Angelica's supposed naked picture, 2 examinations of my computer-hacking, 2 examinations of my delusions about the Russian president and prime minister, and many reports about my plagiarism throughout the day (but with only 2 visits to humandispersal.html).

As for Homeland Security CO chief: to save himself in the ICJ, he had got me started on Ekaterina again today.

25 April (Friday, sleep deprivation)

First, a note about myself. Slept 3 AM. Woke up 11:30 AM. Severe pain from 12 PM onward. So immobilized that one quickly rode the bus to Westwood to write down on one's blog the train of thoughts which had preceded the current episode of severe pain and then to go inside the UCLA hospital: there is no possible way to know how much of the bizarre scenarios which (as one thought at the time) the government has programmed oneself to develop about SDW are actually true. (In fact, it's not the government, but just Homeland Security!) This sudden doubt about whether SDW has indeed accessed the surveillance on me is again to convince everyone that I'm full of errors (partially false belief). So unfair, that the government has fucked me up like this. (Not! It's Homeland Security.) Wrote that the government has an obligation to reverse the damage, yet that it will never do so. And then my wish for the government to furnish me with the log of SDW's activities – and the absolute impossibility for this to happen. Then wrote: Thinking that I'm so smart, so valuable to society, while everybody involved in the scandal is merely laughing at me: Look, he believes we all love him and value him; he doesn't know how pathetic he is... Again, to convince A/ K and the Panistas that this is indeed an op against me, not against them (and so went my false belief until the middle of June). Then wrote: "Life is so not worth living when you are not allowed to know anything about your circumstances... I beg the government to institute a euthanasia program like the Netherlands has done...." Then wrote: "Severe physical pain also when I just can't reach my Best Friend to talk about this...."<sup>83</sup>

While in the hospital, I called up Dr G in desperation. He couldn't meet me however, saying he had guests from Norway. After waiting in the hospital for hours, I left, and got online in Starbucks. By this time, although pain had subsided, I was terrified. Meanwhile, SDW posted on Facebook, on 8:45 and 9:20 PM. Came home early. Spoke to myself about transferring my pain onto SDW on 8:38 PM. Cut myself on 8:47 PM. Medium wound, accidental wound on the right foot. SDW posted on Facebook again on 11 PM. One's "May false belief" would have it that Ekaterina and her sister have also joined Kiersten's Secret Facebook Group, and that the Invisible Hand, Ekaterina, SDW's Russian lover, and the Republicans have all begun revealing to SDW the full extent of the operation. One's false belief would be that they have explained to her that, for her good job in saving Russia, they will reward her with a "package", but that, first of all, she must target me herself to unload all her past suffering onto me – I'm her substitute, they tell her – and do other bad things to erase all the evidences. The erasure of evidences, again, will save Russia, they all tell her. In order for her to unload all her suffering/ targeting onto me, I would have to develop the desire to unload my suffering onto her first, so that, by virtue of the enforcement of UN Resolution 1373, she can "revenge" by unloading all her suffering onto me. (While all this was just wrong scenarios which Homeland Security CO chief wanted me to develop so that I could look crazy, something similar would happen many years later.) Then went out again to collect damages in PSDN: 1 W, 1 H; SM/WILSH: 9 N, 3 H, 2 B. While coming back home and looking at my diary, enormous hatred for SDW (for not making a sound but just letting me suffer in ignorance). No empathy. Angry. Wrote on the diary: wanting to xxxx her (falsely believing that law enforcement might be letting her see my laptop's screen). Will erase the statement the next night, however.<sup>84</sup>

83 In the original version, my erroneous interpretation at this point: "My conspirators wanted me to write down my death-wish on my blog so that SDW's Pennsylvanian relative can report me for being delusional and a danger to myself and others." As you can now finish my thoughts for me: I kept thinking that it was the "government" which was torturing me when it was just Homeland Security, and later I kept thinking that it was my "conspirators" when it was, again, just Homeland Security. Homeland Security CO chief had instructed the Monkey to severely torture me today so that I would write down on my blog all this wish to get myself exterminated thus enabling, as you shall see, SDW and her Erie relative to have something substantive with which to persuade the TMU to reopen the stalking case on me.

84 In the original version, my erroneous interpretation at this point: "In reality, My conspirators have simply obtained another piece of evidence showing me conforming to Kiersten's claims about me: always loving and hating somebody, which by now has been modified: I always hate somebody after loving her.” Again, in fact it was just Homeland Security CO chief who wanted me to hate SDW so that I might want to stalk her later.

85 In the original version, I noted: “There were going to be a lot of visits to this chapter today. Not understanding what the Secret Society women were doing, I actually thought at the time that the authority was instructing these people to pass me a ‘secret message’ telling me that the Macrospherians will implement my idea of ‘making Feefee lovable by increasing the frequency of his type among the population’: I thought people are trying to draw my attention to the ‘MALIQA’ on the document. <sup>89</sup> According to a current trace.

Presumably the third volunteer whom SDW had called upon today to come examine my victimization of her (her discussion with her Erie relative and the St. John's College volunteer aside).

Let's sum up. Since early morning, as the Secret Society women continued to brainstorm how to prove to the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct, they reverted back to proving my plagiarism as the best way to force the TMU to admit that the said warning had some truth in it (so that SDW should definitely be considered a victim of my stalking). For this, they focused on my chapter humandispersal.html as the best proof again and would in total send in 22 volunteers today to report this chapter as plagiarized. They will also send in several volunteers to forge evidence of my plagiarism. As for the other essential visits:

- (1) 7:21 AM, the Le Mans volunteer came to examine my harassment of Prof. Dylan-Haynes (using his research to feed my delusions about being mind-controlled).
- (2) 7:33 AM, a New Jersey volunteer examined my obsession with, and delusions about, Ekaterina and her Russia.
- (3) 9:37 AM, SDW called upon the first, San Rafael volunteer to come examine my victimization of her. (How the TMU just wouldn't open a stalking case for her.)
- (4) 12:15 PM, a Denver volunteer examined my delusions about the chips inside my brain.
- (5) 1:56 PM, SDW's Erie volunteer showed up to brainstorm how to persuade the TMU to open a stalking case for SDW.

She came at the right time for, in order to help the Secret Society women and intercept more favorable evidence into the ICJ, Homeland Security CO chief had instructed the Monkey to control me to blog something new just at this time – to express my desire for death. Thus:

(6) 3:33 PM, SDW's Erie relative saw my suicidal expressions on my latest blog post. She immediately told SDW about it: "This might be it! This is proof that there is some truth in the Homeland Security warning about him after all!" They thus both called up the TMU to attempt to oblige them to open a stalking case for SDW. But, after 3 hours of debating, the TMU wouldn't budge. Thus:

- (7) 6:45 PM, SDW's Erie relative went back to examining my delusions about brain-chips: the stalker must also be established as totally insane in order to force the TMU to make a move.
- (8) 7:55 PM, as the brainstorming started again, a San Mateo volunteer came to examine my delusions about Khalezov: "This also confirms that Homeland Security is right about him!"
- (9) 8:47 PM, SDW called on the second, Plymouth volunteer to come examine my victimization of her. ("The TMU just wouldn't open a stalking case for me, even given all his crazy blog posts about me!")
- (10) 11:11 PM, as the brainstorming continued, the Portland volunteer came to listen to my recording about synthetic telepathy: "Perhaps this can confirm that Homeland Security is right about him!"
- (11) 11:28 PM, SDW's Erie relative examined my blog for one last time. She had spent around 10 hours today reading my blog and helping SDW.

Kiersten's Vengeance, 9
Lawrence C. Chin
Nov. 2014; rewritten, Dec. 2021

(12) 12:29 AM, after SDW's Erie relative had gone to bed, the St. John's College volunteer came to continue to brainstorm. She had just heard about SDW's failure with the TMU this afternoon and so came to examine my suicidal expressions.

(13) 1:20 AM, the St. John's College volunteer continued to examine my suicide wish.

(14) 4:05 AM, after the St. John's College volunteer couldn't come up with any solutions, SDW called on a third, Highland volunteer to come examine my victimization of her.

There was today also plenty of brainstorming about my harassment of Shizuka; my stalking of my family members; my naked picture of Angelica (4 times); and my computer-hacking.

What is so interesting about today is the fact that, late into the night, SDW posted on her blog "Government technology to read your thoughts and implant new ones", with a link:

<http://www.jeffpolachek.com/mind-control/mc-research-docs/199-government-technology-to-read-your-thoughts-and-implant-new-ones>. It's an article on remote neural monitoring technology.

Apparently, after 11 PM, when she and her volunteers (e.g. the Portland volunteer) had come to focus on my recording about synthetic telepathy as the reason with which to convince the TMU that Homeland Security was indeed right about my insanity, she decided to do some research on the matter herself. She ended up being convinced that such technology existed and so posted something on the matter on her blog. While she and her relative wanted to report me for being delusional about being subjected to such technology, she herself believed it and posted something similar on her blog. And so: when she believed it, it was okay. But when I believed it, she would report me for being delusional. That's how she was: a supreme hypocrite.

26 April (Saturday; sleep deprivation; no more extreme pain)

First, a note about myself. In the original version, I began today's entry with this commentary:

From now on the control center would no longer induce in me severe, excruciating anger pain. Operation has changed. My conspirators' goal was two-fold: first, to cause me to speculate wrongly on the causes, first coming up with the scenario that Angelica and Kiersten had been grabbed out of the control center and perhaps even arrested again, then later with the scenario that the government and the Russians had hooked up SDW with the control center in order to allow her to target me. Secondly, my conspirators were "graduating me": they wanted me to learn to commit crimes even when I was no longer in pain. For this, they had to gradually reduce the amount of pain they were inflicting on me while keeping me in the habit of committing crimes. More on this later.

(There were of course no conspirators but only Homeland Security CO chief and the Monkey. It's not clear whether they were really trying to "graduate me". But here are described at least the new wrong scenarios I was about to develop to make myself look delusional.)

Slept between 4 and 9:30 AM. Awakened by Dr G's phone call: he can meet me! 1 PM. But I was tremendously frustrated while riding the Metro to Long Beach: accident on the rail. Had to call Dr G to beg him to come to LA. Met him in West LA, 2 PM. Barnes and Nobles. Read Keith Jeffrey, The Secret History of MI-6: 1909 – 1949. It reminded me of SDW's association with the CIA (in fact, non-existent), and the CIA's provision of secret documents to her but not to me (never happened: evidence of the delusional state of my mind). Jealous of SDW, being left out, which caused physical pain. 6:30 PM, saw Zachary Shore's A Sense of the Enemy (2014). Pattern breaks: the deviation from routine, when the enemy imposes costs upon himself, which reveals what he values the most. By now, no feeling left for SDW except anger. Anger from jealousy, etc. She is "on the inside", saw the whole scandal, and is provided with government secret documents, whereas one is left rotting outside and not allowed to know anything. (Wrong: if she knew the "scandal", it was only because she was a participant in it.) 7:30 PM, with Dr G in the car. Couldn't help but talk about the feeling of "relative deprivation" toward SDW with Dr G. The whole thing is recounted in the next day's blog post.

(I would later on always suspect that Dr G had come to meet me today as the TMU's informant. To clear up the matter about SDW's frenzy lately, the TMU had Dr G wear a wire and was listening in on my conversation with him about SDW. It's not clear whether my suspicion was correct.)

Starbucks, Westwood, until 11 PM. A very pretty Asian chic sitting in front of me. King King. 3 B. My conspirators were giving me a break from the requirement to commit crimes. (Actually, it's just the Monkey.) Required to develop another wrong theory about the "plan" with SDW: double binary opposition: in/ out and good/ bad. (Again, just working hard to make myself look delusional.)

(SDW has not posted anything on her Facebook group and blog today as well. This would cause me to believe later, wrongly, that she has spent the whole day inside the control center learning about the machines there, and, as usual, is listening in on one's conversation with Dr G about her, and gets quite disgusted by it.)<sup>90</sup>

Now the Secret Society women's operation on my website for today. 4:18 AM, TCE, Esfahan, Iran,

90 In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: "SDW was back home waiting for the police's decision. Again, SDW was disappointed: the police found no reasons to suspect me of posing imminent danger both to myself and to her, and, without hospitalizing me, SDW would not request the removal of my website – because she, like Angelica before her, did not want me to know that my website had disappeared. I have to comment that SDW's goal was in fact not to remove my website per se. If she didn't want me to talk about her on my blog, she simply had to ask me, and, given my intense obsession with her at this time, I would remove all my blog posts about her immediately, just to please her. But she refused to ask – law enforcement must have told her the same thing: just tell him not to write about you. Just like Angelica and Kiersten before her, SDW's real goal was to establish intellectual superiority over me, domination. She wanted me to be put away, with my website removed, without my knowing why and who did it. It is the feeling of superiority involved in the act of destroying an inferior being without his understanding how it has happened – like euthanizing a dog in the animal shelter: the dog has never understood why he ends up dead – that SDW was ultimately looking for. She was trying to prove to herself that she is a human being while I'm no more than a subhuman, some inferior being who can't understand how he has posed threat to others better than he and how he has been neutralized by them." This analysis was of course not quite correct. SDW's ultimate goal was to become validated by law enforcement as the victim of my stalking because the title of a "stalking victim" was supremely pleasing to her – although for an entirely different reason than Kiersten's. But it is quite true that she saw me as inferior – but that's because she had seen no reason to doubt the Homeland Security warning about me and, the more the TMU refused to validate her as the victim of my stalking, the more she became disgusted with me (something that was no fault of mine).

Let's sum up. Today is just another day that the Secret Society women continued to brainstorm with their volunteers about how to convince the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct so that a stalking case should indeed be opened on behalf of SDW. Just like yesterday, the volunteers worked hard to find proof that Homeland Security was right about my plagiarism and, for this purpose, they continued to focus on my chapter humandispersal.html: 15 visits in total today. The other essential visits are:

- (1) 8:29 AM, SDW called upon the Opera Mini volunteer to come examine my crazy blog posts about her.
- (2) 12:34 PM, SDW called upon the Victoria volunteer.
- (3) 12:55 PM, SDW called upon the Connecticut volunteer (her relative?).
- (4) 4:27 PM, the Secret Society women called upon Prof. Naweed Syed again to come examine my harassment of him.
- (5) 6:58 PM, SDW's Erie relative came to examine my blog posts for this month.
- (6) 1:46 AM, a Hong Kong volunteer was examining my delusions about Snowden on both Prison Planet Forum and my blog (how this confirmed that Homeland Security was indeed right about me).
- (7) 1:54 AM, SDW called upon a Germantown volunteer (the "Baltimore Lawyer"?)
- (8) 3:56 AM, an Australian volunteer came to examine my delusions about Obama (how this confirmed that Homeland Security was indeed right about me).

There were also sporadic examinations of my computer-hacking, harassment of Shizuka, naked picture of Angelica (only 1 times), and stalking of my own family members. Also two persons came from the crazy Reddit post.

Again, we have to suspect that the Germantown volunteer was in fact the so-called "Baltimore Lawyer" whom we shall later meet for sure. If so, what does this mean? Perhaps that Dr P was again talking to her friend in Baltimore about the TMU's persistent refusal to consider Homeland Security's warning about me to be valid and that the latter was thus heeding SDW's complaint so late in the night.

27 April (Sunday, severe targeting)

First, a note about myself. Slept between 6:30 AM and 1 PM. Allowed by the control center to sleep more than 6 hours, what a miracle! Then discovered that Bluehost had charged me almost 100 dollars for the renewal of the domain, which left me with no money to live on. Suffered a nervous breakdown, required to commit crimes and cut myself. It really feels like I have been targeted/ tortured again today, but of course it looks like I have not been, since the charge is normal and planned by myself a long time ago, and I was merely programmed to not remember it. But in fact I have been targeted, because my entire expenditure has been predetermined and programmed by the computer in the control center since a long time ago. My life is merely a computer program, and this program says that I need to collect damages, be self-destructive, run out of money, suffer unbearable emotional problems, look like a piece of trash to others, and wish for political asylum in Russia just to get out of the program, etc. This is SDW's manner of targeting, again: alteration of one's own memory, motives, goals, and attitude in order to experience the same, hitherto non-torturing, environment as torturing. Called up Dr G for help on 2:33 PM, even though the last thing I want in the world is to get him involved in my personal problems. Not only was he available to meet right this afternoon, but he was also willing to help. I went to Long Beach to meet him. Met him around 4:15 PM (phone call with him on 48:00 in the recording and meeting him on 2:30:00 in the recording). However, he played the role of a disciplining parent, saying he would only lend me 100 dollars in order to prevent me from developing the bad habit of irresponsible borrowing. Disgusting and stupid. It's as if there was indeed positive evaluation of one's genius from experts from around the world, he has heard about it, is proud of it, and wants to take me under his wing in order to promote himself as well, hence showing off how he could "train me" and "teach me" (when in fact the teaching is just so dumb). (None of this was of course the case.) Furthermore, Dr G's mention of Zachary's book from last night caused me to speculate erroneously that Mr Zachary had also been notified and was listening in on my intelligent speech on relative deprivation and the tactics used by one faction in the government to discredit another. (Bullshit.) Dr G then told me he would be gone to Santa Barbara until 8 May, as if trying to deprive me of him just at this desperate time in order to cause me to need him more later. I would later develop the wrong impression that the White Roses wanted to exclude Dr G from my life by programming me to become disgusted with him – they do not like him at all, a neocon-lover and staunch believer in the "American Way" – with the side effect of making him my "substitute" so that my eventual hatred of him could serve to establish my identity with SDW. (Indeed a wrong scenario. It's not even clear whether Dr G was indeed meeting me as a TMU informant. At the time I presumed that Dr G was enthusiastic about meeting me – despite having guests at his house – because he really enjoyed working as a law enforcement informant.)

In any case, although Dr G has solved my money problem temporarily, the most pressing problem still remains: not being allowed to know anything about my circumstances, about the stalking scandal, what people have done to and about me. Condemned to forever gasp for oxygen in a vacuum. Since it's not possible to destroy SDW to kill pain, and since there is no possibility that one will ever be allowed to know anything about one's circumstances, one can only look forward to perpetual collection of damages and continual self-destruction. Anger also over the fact that one is in such desperate position because one's actually working overtime, but that the job description is that one has to look like one is not working, with the consequence that one's not getting paid. Then theorized that the White Roses

actually hate SDW to the point of wanting her destroyed. (Bullshit. But something like this might happen in the future.) Home, posted the blog post 28/04/14, with a more thorough explanation of “relative deprivation” and the justification for one’s hatred for SDW. Then a hint for SDW to share her knowledge about the scandal with oneself. I would later develop the wrong theory that SDW was inside the control center by now and would read this blog post from there, and would thus become even more disgusted by it (an Asian male’s theoretical discussion of his feelings toward her). Again my conspirators’ gradual wearing down of my moral scruples in regard to stalking SDW (to enable me to begin to hate her). (In reality, it was Homeland Security CO chief who wanted me to post this so that SDW and her relatives could again have more evidence with which to persuade the TMU to open a stalking case on her behalf. Again, Homeland Security CO chief wanted me to say I wanted to hurt SDW, but a reflection on relative deprivation was really the best I could do.) Finally a comment about the CIA’s frequent tactic to manipulate people to leak secrets, to incite hatred toward them, for their own benefits. (And my fear for ending up like Snowden.) (Did the Invisible Hand want me to write this because he was indeed planning something along this line? In any case, while the theory about the CIA’s own orchestration of the public outcry against the rendition program was most likely correct, the theory about Snowden’s scandal being orchestrated was certainly wrong-headed. Hopefully you have already learned to distinguish good theories from bad theories rather than simply assuming “All correct” or “All wrong”.)

Night. Cut oneself four times to obtain one medium wound. Then collected damages in HLLYWD/HGHLND in response to the “targeting” this afternoon. As noted, because SDW has not posted anything on her Facebook group today as well, I would later wrongly theorize that she had had another busy day inside the control center.

She had also discovered my "threat" to SDW along with the St. John's College volunteer.<sup>103</sup>

<sup>103</sup> In the original version, after presenting an entirely wrong-headed scenario about what happened today behind the scene, I concluded thusly: "The whole course of events obviously works like this – from the perspective of the Mexicans and Kiersten. Because the Republicans can't get Kiersten – Kiersten and her Homeland Security friend had got their tails – they are going to get SDW. They use me as a bait. They continually program me to obsess over SDW, and then cause me severe pain to drive me to suicidal ideation and collection of damages – and to talk about it on my blog. SDW, although she is not a psychopath and does not suffer from any personality disorder – such as Kiersten and Angelica do – would nevertheless want to harm me in the same way when I talk about my obsession with her on my blog, even though I do not mention her name. Why? Because the disease lies in the ideology which infects every woman (or at least every white woman) in America. And this is the point which the CIA wants to make to the judges in the secret International Court of Justice. My conspirators were thus causing me pain in order to provide SDW with some pretexts to act on her disease – to deal with me as an undeserving subhuman entity through clandestine disposal without my knowing, as if she were intellectually superior to me when she is actually intellectually inferior. (The revolt of the masses.) Again, the White Roses were using SDW to demonstrate in Court that, in America, the Monkeys are trying to dispose of human beings as if it were human beings who are trying to dispose of the Monkeys, all because the Monkeys are too stupid to realize they are Monkeys and to notice that human beings are not Monkeys. This is why, no matter how loudly SDW complains – ‘He just practices shooting guns! He just says he cuts himself on his blog! He vandalizes things! He is angry with me!’ – the police persistently ignore her while getting educated by those from above. SDW and I were manipulated to stage a show, basically. I wish I were in the position of Dr G, because he must know that the person who directs his handler is someone who is part of the puppeteers over me and SDW. And he enjoyed manipulating me: duping me, erasing evidences to harm Russia and to empower the United States by damning the rest of the world, and enforcing the Republicans’ War on Women – all at the same time. What a piece of trash. He didn’t know that the Republicans were now compelled to do the White Roses’ program, and that, as the White Roses have planned, the Republican Party will become extinct within the coming decade.” All this was of course complete nonsense – except that the Invisible Hand would indeed later on use Homeland Security’s and the Secret Society women’s operations on me to educate the rest of the country and the whole world about the fact that, with all this hysteria about protecting women and minorities from sexism and racism, America is indeed allowing the monkeys to dispose of human beings as if it were human beings who were disposing of the monkeys.

Almost a minute later, the same old blog post series for this month:

She had just heard from the St. John's College volunteer that I had "threatened" SDW on my latest blog post and so, excited, came to take a look. Hopefully, you have understood the situation: what everyone saw as my attempt to "threaten" SDW was just my reflection on "relative deprivation", but, because nobody here was educated, the whole philosophical discussion just flew over everyone's head. (Everybody merely thought all that reflection to be the typical symptoms of schizophrenia.) And so, as long as there was a statement describing my "anger" toward SDW, that was a "threat".

Let's sum up. Just another day that the Secret Society women continued to mobilize their volunteers to find ways to convince the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct and to persuade them to open a stalking case on behalf of SDW. In regard to my supposed plagiarism: once again, the volunteers had focused on my chapter humandispersal.html as the definitive proof that I did plagiarize: 34 visits today. Then, these were the essential visits:

(1) 5:53 AM, SDW called upon a Singapore volunteer to come examine my victimization of her.

- (2) 6:28 AM, SDW was still talking to the Germantown volunteer (the "Baltimore Lawyer"?).
- (3) 8:04 AM, SDW called upon two more volunteers (Opera Mini and Google proxy).
- (4) 8:52 AM, a Hilversum volunteer came to examine my videos and recordings (Maria's friend?).
- (5) 10 AM, SDW called upon the Darien volunteer.
- (6) 2:31 PM, SDW's Erie relative came to examine the blog post series for this month.
- (7) 4:53 PM, a Greensboro volunteer examined my stalking of a certain famous woman on my external links page.
- (8) 5:30 PM, SDW called upon a New Jersey volunteer to come examine my victimization of her (in the 03/03/14 blog post).
- (9) 5:40 PM, a UK volunteer came to examine my harassment of Kiersten by blogging about her.

Then, 7:20 PM, Homeland Security CO chief got me to post something new on my blog – what could be interpreted as a "threat" against SDW.

- (10) 9:26 PM, SDW called upon another New Jersey volunteer to come examine my victimization of her (my comments on her blog).
- (11) 9:41 PM, the St. John's College and the Euclid volunteer together discovered my "threat" against SDW on my latest blog post. Everybody was excited: this could persuade the TMU to open a stalking case for SDW!
- (12) 12:16 AM, a US volunteer examined my delusions about there being chips planted in my brain: a second reason why I must be considered a grave danger to SDW.
- (13) 12:38 AM, having heard about the new discovery, SDW's Erie relative also came for a look.
- (14) 12:47 – 1:35 AM, the 12:16 AM US volunteer continued to brainstorm about my delusions about brain-chips.
- (15) 2:18 AM, to come up with a third reason why Homeland Security's warning about me was true, the Secret Society women got another physicist from the Commissariat à l'Énergie atomique to make a false report about my plagiarism.
- (16) 2:48 AM, to convince the TMU that I did plagiarize, another UK volunteer forged evidence of my plagiarism.

There was of course also sporadic brainstorming about my naked picture of Angelica (1 time), my harassment of Shizuka, and my harassment of my family members.

28 April (Monday; sleep deprivation; Karin's meetup?)

First, a note about myself. Programmed to fantasize being a big brother to SDW for the whole night. 3 AM, checked the State Department personnel after thinking about the visit from there on 10 April. Still had not slept by 7:30 AM. Suddenly, severe pain from the cut wounds, was unable to sleep, and so walked to Tom N Toms, extreme despair and hatred. Decided to collect damages and cut oneself tonight. The immediate thought was that somebody, like Dr G, might be trying to prevent me from cutting myself by artificially causing my wound to hurt. This actually intensified my resolve to cut myself. Since this was my natural reaction, this must be the goal of the pain, and so my conspirators were just doing this in order to produce more evidence for my conformity to Kiersten's false profile of me as delusional and to replace/ erase some evidences. (Actually, it was just Homeland Security CO chief who wanted me to cut myself further as a way to confirm his warning about me.) Came back home on 8 AM. After pain, programmed to feel even more like a big brother to SDW. Then remotely controlled to want to MST, aggressively. Then slept until 11:30 AM.

Storage. Had developed the intention for a few days now to not wait for the scandal to finish but to begin unearthing the secrets regarding my stalking victims' operations on me. Came to the police station, Records and Identification. Unable to find traces of my case at all. Not even the case with Chaya. It seemed that every record about me is still kept in confidentiality, and the police have all been instructed to pretend that I have never been investigated and reported about. But the reality is probably that, because SDW's stalking case against me is still open, my records must be kept in secrecy from me given my status as the "suspect". My conspirators had however programmed me to respond to the honking on the street in such a way as to solidify my delusional belief that the government had taken SDW inside the control center and that the Invisible Hand was showing her how to work the machine there. (In fact, it was just Homeland Security CO chief and the Monkey doing this.) Going to the SM library. Saddened. Then remotely controlled to think that it would actually be fun to be a big brother to SDW and take care of her, but then programmed to feel disappointed in that one can't even take care of oneself, all wishes to take care of others being thus worthless fantasies. So much loving feelings inside, but simply not having the means to ever express them. Only crimes demand no prerequisites. Then fantasized meeting Ekaterina in a park in Europe, and was then remotely controlled to write, by midnight, that Ekaterina wanted to marry me only because I had saved her father's life. This is found in the blog post of 28/04/14, posted the next day. (Homeland Security CO chief wanted me to write this so that I could continue to conform to his warnings about me and he could have more reasons to go warn Ekaterina and the Russian diplomatic service about me, which he could then intercept into the ICJ as evidence to temporarily lock up the previous ICJ trial.) Stayed in Starbucks, Westwood, all night. No collection of damages tonight.

Note that Karin was supposed to host a meetup tonight, Margaritas and the movie "Bright Days Ahead" on 7 PM. She was however not seen in the pictures.

Now the Secret Society women's operation on my website for today. 4:33 AM, <sup>112</sup> In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: "If you piece it together with Liz's visit on 8:02 PM, what kind of picture do you get? The same thing, for a whole morning and afternoon, SDW wished that the police would act on the fact that I had practiced shooting 8 days ago and remove my website after hospitalizing me. I was out of the Records and Identification just before 5 PM (and left a message with Wes around 4:58 PM; he would still not talk to me); perhaps SDW had got word about it from the police. Perhaps the word was rather vague. Perhaps she was hoping that the police officers I met in the station would hospitalize me instead. In any case, when Liz checked my site from her blog on 8 PM, it was still there. SDW waited more. When her Pennsylvanian relative checked it again on 11:11 PM by Googling for it, it could still be found on Google searches. SDW must be very frustrated. Why is it that, no matter how many complaints she has filed with the police against me, they just wouldn't do anything about it? She apparently didn't know that she was being used by my conspirators to erase Kiersten's and Angelica's episodes from last year and being used by the Republicans to discredit women victims to law enforcement." Even though this was not what was currently going on, I have decided to keep this interpretation here in the footnote since something similar might happen in the future, many years from now.

The twenty-seventh.

Now, let's summarize. In the morning, the Secret Society women submitted the latest evidence (my "threat" against SDW) to the TMU to request that they open a stalking case on behalf of SDW. They thought this was a sure shot, and were again surprised when the TMU refused to do so citing again that the Homeland Security warning about me was not valid. Shocked, the Secret Society women went back to brainstorming with their volunteers:

- (1) 11:10 AM, a Texas volunteer brainstormed how my reposting of the mosquito drone should confirm that Homeland Security was right about me.
- (2) 2:01 PM, a UK volunteer considered whether the ICAACT people might join SDW's case in order to force the TMU to act.
- (3) 4:15 PM, the Traverse City volunteer came again to consider how my violation of Mellhedek's intellectual property rights should confirm that Homeland Security was right about me.
- (4) 5:33 PM, SDW called upon another Florida friend to come examine the matter (given the bad news).
- (5) 7:04 PM, the same Dallas volunteer came to examine a certain external link on my front page. (What?)
- (6) 8:02 PM, the Ridgefield, New Jersey, volunteer, after hearing the bad news, came to my blog again from SDW's blog to brainstorm for solutions. (She also examined the 20 April blog post.)
- (7) 11:11 PM, SDW's Erie relative, after hearing the bad news, came to my blog to brainstorm for solutions.
- (8) 12:17 AM, given the impasse, the Secret Society women called upon Marie for help. An Indian volunteer thus examined "Feefee and Valerie" (my harassment of Marie by writing about her).

Meanwhile, the women continued to focus on my chapter humandispersal.html as the best proof that I did plagiarize: 27 visits today. There were also two visits from the stupid Reddit post and 5 visits to Angelica's "naked picture". Shizuka didn't seem to have joined the discussion until after 11 PM.

To remedy the current disaster, Homeland Security CO chief instructed the Monkey to control me to fantasize and write about Ekaterina again – Ekaterina shall save the day soon. Also, all night long, the Monkey was controlling me to develop the erroneous impression that everyone was trying to help me – like Liz (the person I thought was Liz) here trying to erase my status as a stalking suspect, and SDW letting me know she had come home from the control center. My erroneous understanding: “Evidence for my conformity to Kiersten’s and the Monkey’s false profile of me as delusional, but probably also to convince the Panistas that the Republicans were in control and were really erasing evidences.”<sup>117</sup>

117 In the original version, my erroneous conclusion at this point: “SDW’s problem, as you can see, is that she had never understood that she was being set up by her government to waste her time complaining in vain to the police about my website. As we have noted, she was being set up to complain for two purposes: (1) to educate law enforcement that women victims’ testimonies cannot be trusted: they rarely knew what they were talking about (Republicans’ War on Women); (2) to produce/ replace/ erase evidences (for both the current ICJ trial about the Syrian scandal and the previous ICJ trial about me). To conclude, we can see that SDW was basically helping my conspirators erase Angelica’s and Kiersten’s episodes with me and arrest records (by repeating their actions toward me while achieving absolutely no results) on the apparent level of reality (the reality accessible to the Mexicans), and that she was, in regard to the previous ICJ trial, producing the brain scan images which the Macrospherians had wanted as evidences. At this juncture we may expand on our earlier explication of the mystery of SDW’s targeting and unveil the meaning of her ‘being a bridge between me and Angelica’. We have noted that the Macrospherians have allowed her to be ‘targeted’ (‘gang-stalked’) because her brain’s functioning patterns during episodes of paranoia were similar to mine during similar episodes. Currently, she was being set up to repeat Angelica’s (and Kiersten’s) actions toward me because, now, the functional patterns which her brain produced while going after me were very similar to Angelica’s when she was going after me. You thus see the point: at these moments, when you mix up her brain scan images with Angelica’s without labeling them to indicate which belong to whom, people would not quite be able to tell that these brain scan images belong to two different women, Angelica and SDW. The Macrospherians will then present these brain scan images to the ICJ as evidences demonstrating that SDW’s brain scan images and Angelica’s brain scan images in fact belong to the same person – the terrorist suspect in the previous ICJ trial. You can now see the point: the CIA and the SVR had originally, in 2012, selected SDW for targeting because she can serve as an intermediary between me and Angelica. Namely, if you mix my brain scan images with Angelica’s, people will be able to tell that these images belong to two different persons – because my brain and Angelica’s brain work very differently. However, SDW’s brain sometimes functions like mine (because we share the same template in brain functioning: the ‘alternative’, ‘artist’ type mentioned earlier) and sometimes functions like Angelica’s (e.g. because they are both women and because she has also been infected with ‘white female fear-mongering’, that American thing, etc.). If you then mix my brain scan images, SDW’s, and Angelica’s all together, all these images will actually look like they belong to a single person since they now at last form a continuum – thanks to SDW’s ‘intermediary forms’. This is why the CIA needed SDW to repeat both my experience of being targeted and then Angelica’s experience of targeting me. To sum up, the Macrospherians’ plan is probably to fabricate some story about a terrorist suspect using the continuum of brain scan images that are derived from me, SDW, and Angelica (and in which Kiersten’s and Dr P’s might also be mixed) as supporting evidences – and then pin the story onto Angelica’s person. This is how they are going to transfer my terrorist suspect status onto Angelica.” We have three ideas here: (1) using these women false complainers to educate law enforcement; (2) getting them to replace evidences; and (3) mixing up different people’s brain-scan images together. While all these ideas, when I conceived of them back in late 2014, were just bullshit which the Monkey remotely controlled me to develop so that I could look crazy, you never know if the Invisible Hand will make use of any of them later on. I continued: “You cannot of course expect an ordinary woman like SDW to understand all this. She will therefore spend another month trying to convince the police to remove my website, only to see no result at all. She cannot understand that she is being exploited. Presumably, when she begins asking the FBI to fulfill the promise of revealing the secrets of her gang-stalking experience to her, the FBI will simply refer her to my blog – because they know she cannot possibly understand the real reasons and will only be angered when the reasons given her contradict her own notions: namely, somehow the ‘perp entity’ has zeroed in on her family, and on her, and decided to drive them to insanity and violence with actors and provocateurs – because they hate her or because she carries some special genes which the ‘master perps’ (like Freemasons and so on) want eliminated from humanity. She can only feel insulted by the real reason – that a faction in the government has targeted her because it is her brain which is special – her brain can produce these colorful patterns such as under fMRI scanning which are just the right ones to support the government faction’s fabricated story in the ICJ and which other people’s brains can’t produce. You can try to imagine her situation of denial by imagining this analogy. In 1998 when this toy thing ‘furball’ was quite popular among American children, the Humane Society suddenly got NBC to broadcast the videos from their special investigation. It turned out that the ‘furs’ on these toys came from some inhumane fur-traders in China, who captured street cats and then strangled them to death one by one, in front of other cats, in order to skin them. If one of those cats, upon seeing her companions being strangled to death, tries to theorize why human beings kill them, presumably she would also come up with the theory that human beings hate cats, see cats as threats, and want to exterminate them all: genocide. If you tell the cat the real reason – these human beings kill them because they want to strip their furs off them, and that’s because, when they paste their furs onto some toys, they can ship the toys off to America where children really like them, and where parents pay big money – she will not understand it. She will not even like the real reason, because, as I have said, it’s therapy for the victim to suppose that the victimizers have harmful intentions; it’s therapy for the cat if human beings kill cats because they have this evil intention of exterminating them. The cat will not like the reality that these human beings actually couldn’t have cared less if cats exist or do not exist. They kill cats because they want their furs, which can bring in money.” Nice analogy! But it remains to be seen whether the Invisible Hand and BOL had really selected SDW to be part of the Secret Society women’s organization because she had the rare “artist brain”.
