

The Secret History of the International Court of Justice

KIERSTEN'S VENGEANCE

12

RESUME

The following reconstructs the operation of the Secret Society women and Homeland Security CO chief against me from 23 May to 4 June, 2014.

This is a rewrite of the rest of the original “Kiersten’s Vengeance, 11” (Kiersten’s Vengeance, V”). Here are the essentials during the period under consideration:

23.05: my conversation with Wes furnished evidence for both Homeland Security CO chief (Ms Sandberg’s case) and the TMU (to dismiss Chaya’s warning).

24.05: SDW was at home. 7:30 PM, my conversation with Mark – causing the detective in question to dismiss Ms Sandberg’s case.

25.05: SDW was at home. The Secret Society women mobilized volunteers to brainstorm. Kiersten’s massive tweeting about feminism (a).

26.05: SDW could be home (?). The brainstorming continued. Kiersten’s massive tweeting about feminism (b).

27.05: SDW was at home. Due to protests from Homeland Security CO chief’s allies, the Invisible Hand decided to send Rod to meet me tomorrow. Kiersten’s “suicide wish” tweet (c). (The last appearance of the London volunteer (perspective.html).)

28.05: SDW could be home (?). My conversation with Rod. The detectives agreed to dismiss the Homeland Security warning once again.

29.05: the Secret Society women mobilized volunteers to brainstorm. Homeland Security CO chief instructed Wes to call me, but I didn’t answer the calls.

30.05: SDW was at home. My conversation with Wes, and Homeland Security CO chief locked up the previous ICJ trial for the time being.

31.05: SDW was at home. The Secret Society women got one more chance with the TMU.

01.06: SDW at the FFCHS meeting. The TMU dismissed the Homeland Security warning once again.

02.06: SDW could be home (?). Homeland Security CO chief failed to get me to “stalk” Carolyn. The Secret Society women brainstormed with their volunteers for the whole day.

03.06: the intervention of Dr G and the Boss’ family. Homeland Security CO chief successfully got me to “stalk” Carolyn.

04.06: SDW was at home. The Secret Society women went back to the TMU to use my “stalking” of Carolyn to request the reopening of my case, but the TMU rejected the request. My conversation with Wes, and Homeland Security CO chief locked up the previous ICJ trial for the time being. He then punished me by sending me on a rampage and causing me to be detained by the police.

As you can see, SDW was home (or away from work) almost every single day during the period under consideration. Of all the Secret Society women, she was the most angry and concerned about law enforcement's rejection of the Homeland Security warning about me and my removal from a certain watchlist.

Now my diary entries and the log of the Secret Society women's operations during the period under consideration. Again, current corrections of the errors in the original version in the diary entries are in brackets and italicized. In general, as you will see below, my life had much worsened during this period because, as the Invisible Hand continued to obstruct Homeland Security CO chief's attempt to get law enforcement to validate his warning about me, the latter tried ever harder to torture me from the control center.

23 May (Friday, Wes; torture)

First, a note about myself. Slept between 6 and 11 AM. Wes called 11 AM. The highlights of today's conversation: (1) It's SDW who was torturing me from the control center, forbidding Wes to talk to me, and controlling me to cut myself. (2) Wes was applying for a new job. (3) The control center had also established that Wes was me. (4) SDW had also input her intention into the control center that Wes shall not have money. (5) Wes: "If you find Lavonne and get the money, I'll give you 10 percent." (6) My better understanding of the "Chaya affair" (from 15:00 onward). (7) The reason why Kiersten has made herself the leader of the women's gang to go after me – even though she is irrelevant to the whole affair: she has nothing else to do (from 19:00 onward). (Because she can access the Homeland Security surveillance system, she can watch me masturbate and so on.) The hot-shot investigators. "When you don't have goals in your life, you'll have the time to screw with other people." (8) Why the government is so overloaded: when people don't have anything to do, they'll go explore the government (from 25:00 onward). (9) Wes: why is Dr P going after you? My wrong scenario about the Secret Society women's arrest. (10) Chaya's warning must have said something really bad about me. (11) My wrong scenario: it's the CIA which had got me to become obsessed with SDW. Then they let A/ K go inside the control center. My torture consisted basically in my suffering SDW's disease. (12) Wes: "99 percent of the pain in the world is social pain." The distinction between "natural pain" and "social pain" (from 36:00 onward). (13) Wes would tolerate "worthy insults" from his students (when these were funny). (14) Wes used the Russian cleaner as an example again and then again suggested that I should simply forget about my stalking victims (my desire to know what they were doing to me). My phone then ran out of battery on 58:00. I charged it up and was then reconnected with Wes on 1:01:50. (15) "The result is the same: I'm not allowed to know, so that I'll have to commit crimes in order to make other people pay for it. I'm the victim, hence I'm the suspect. In the American system, the victim has to be victimized all the way, without any ability to rectify himself." Thus, the US is a criminal regime, where "rights" and "laws" are hijacked to serve as covers for committing crimes. But, whereas Wes kept referring to the bankers and so on, I was talking about women: a strange disjuncture.<sup>1</sup> (16) Defining

<sup>1</sup> First, note that Wes described Asians as "bananas" (yellow outside, white inside). This would be quite significant later on in the Invisible Hand's program. Wes must have said it by accident since he didn't seem to be aware of the "program" in question at this point. Second, in the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point (as usual): "I'm afraid that Wes has been instructed to purposely divert the issue here by speaking of the 'criminal regime' of the US as the result of the 'power elites', the bankers, the corporations, etc. He is trying to produce a certain evidence for the Hardliners – that I'm anti-American because I'm anti-corporation, anti-rich, and anti-elite. This is not true. Why am I anti-American? The real issue which has so antagonized me against Americans is that I'm a stalking suspect who can't see my stalking victims, and who often doesn't even know their identity, while my stalking victims, eventually, can see every move I make and every word I type into my computer, and listen to every word I speak to myself or others, and they are allowed by the government to insert chips into my brain to remotely control me to commit crimes, so that they can then report me as 'dangerous' to law enforcement. While the government's motive, or that of the subversive elements therein, the White Roses, may be to rectify “subhuman” (from 1:15:00 onward). Wes: “They don’t even have the decency to arrest you and throw you in jail! You have rights de jure, but no rights de facto.” Me: “I can’t even defect to Russia since I’d have to be a member of the American society first in order to defect away from it. The only thing I can do is commit crimes.” Finally, I mentioned Julia (the disabled Russian girl) to Wes. After the conversation, my conclusion: the subhuman can only be prosecuted for such crimes as would make him look pathetic and conform to his status as a subhuman. I’ll never have to worry about being prosecuted for endangering national security by passing national security secrets to enemy states – what I have in fact done before – because the prosecution of such crimes would raise me from the status of a non-functioning member to that of a functioning member. (This was certainly Homeland Security CO chief’s attitude toward me.) I also would never have to worry about being arrested for crimes known to the authority only through government’s surveillance because such prosecution would allow me to access a reality not reserved for subhumans, and validate me as “sane”, namely, the reality that a subhuman might actually not be inferior to normal humans, or not fit normal humans’ conception of his subhuman status. (All because I’m aware of being under surveillance.) (Again, speaking for Homeland Security CO chief only!)

(Wes had obviously called me because, as Sandberg’s case had started, the Invisible Hand and the TMU were having a debate again with Homeland Security CO chief. Homeland Security CO chief instructed Wes to call me so that, immediately, my wrong scenarios about SDW and the Secret Society women’s access to Homeland Security’s surveillance over me and so on could serve as evidence that his warning about me was correct (that I was indeed delusional about my women victims). (Maybe he also wanted me to offend Ms Sandberg personally as I went on and on about how women’s rights were covers under which women could commit crimes against men.) But the Invisible Hand or the TMU also had their evidence too, the most important of which was my statement about the foundation of Chaya’s warning about me. My investigation of Chaya (you recall, from June to September 2003) did constitute “stalking” in the legal sense, but, because the stalking was motivated by the happening inside the therapy room, if we went to court, Chaya would be either prosecuted or disciplined, while I would be released without charge. What’s going on? My attachment to or obsession with Chaya was caused by her impropriety in the therapy room, i.e. Chaya had allowed me to nestle on her laps and play with her hands during every session for several months. As her colleagues from the CGI (California Graduate the criminal regime, they can only do so by letting criminals (like my stalking victims) victimize me continually because the entire American people are so used to seeing the victimizers as the victims and the victims as the victimizers, good as evil and evil as good, and insanity as mental correctness and mental correctness as insanity, that any explanation of the obvious simply can no longer get through to their head. The American people are so used to committing evils against others that they truly believe this is the ‘normal good way’. They are even more hardened than the Nazis. Either through lessons of grotesque violence, or xxxxxxxx will simply have to be xxxxxxxxxxxx for the sake of the humanity’s survival. Rational reasoning or argument is no longer an option with Americans because their prolonged acculturation to their criminal regime and criminal way of life has shrunk their brain structures to the one dimension of ‘criminality’ – the only thing they can possibly understand by now. Thus, the real issue is that the American regime is so criminal that what is criminal is thought by everyone to be lawful and what is lawful is thought by everyone to be criminal. Just like Nazi Germany. The American criminal regime has gone even beyond Hannah Arendt’s observations about the Nazi regime in Eichmann in Jerusalem. Evil is not just banal in the American way of life; it’s even glorified as normality, decency, and goodness. ‘Human rights’ and ‘women’s rights’ are really criminal concepts under the cover of which people – from the power elites to ordinary women and men – may commit crimes against valuable, law-abiding elements of society so as to exterminate their healthy influence upon their fellow human beings or the world beyond. To enforce this criminal world-view, to convince themselves and others of its correctness, the American people, like my stalking victims, are willing to go so far as to single out the most peaceful, caring, and intelligent elements of society, like me, and insert chips into their brain, so as to remotely control them to commit crimes, just to prove that victims are really criminals, caring people are evil, and criminals are really innocent victims.” As you shall see, this observation, while “delusional thought” at the moment, will become so relevant later on, 8 years later, thanks to the Invisible Hand’s orchestration.

Institute) have noted, Chaya was doing very dangerous therapy because – she's going to get "stalked". In other words, Chaya has "seduced me". Under normal circumstances, the laws expect the man to not be seduced or act on women's seduction, because the laws assume that women are not capable of moral judgment and moral responsibility, so that the man is expected to bear all responsibility in a case where both parties have contributed to the outcome (the man stalking the woman). In the case of psychotherapy, however, the situation is reversed. The laws expect the therapist to not seduce the patient and to resist the patient's seduction ("transference") because, again, the laws assume that the patient is so weak that he is incapable of moral judgment and moral responsibility when face to face with the powerful figure of the therapist. Thus, even though both parties have contributed to the outcome (the patient stalking the therapist), it's considered entirely the therapist's fault. This is simply how American laws work: the commonly assumed "weak" is considered one hundred percent incapable, and the commonly assumed "powerful" is considered one hundred percent capable.

(At the time Chaya was of course quite aware of this, which is why she had tried to cover up the impropriety in the therapy room with the excuse that this was "special therapy to deal with transference". The CGI bought into it at first. But when it is revealed that Chaya had also engaged herself in impropriety with other patients, impropriety in my case can no longer be disguised as "special treatment for transference". In fact, of course, my revelation about her involvement with her patient Mr Meier (running into her at the Superior Court during Mr Meier's divorce hearing) had also convinced the CGI that Chaya was lying to them and to the police about how she had discovered my "stalking". It's in such wise that Chaya must have been advised by her lawyer to request the TMU to drop my case;<sup>2</sup> instead, she made her request to the CGI and the TMU that she be allowed to send out a warning to the therapeutic community behind my back with the TMU's stamp on it, saying (lying) that she had decided not to pursue her "stalker" because she didn't want her "confidential information" (i.e. her violation of the codes of ethics) to be known by the police during investigation and prosecution and was fearing for her "stalker's" retaliation. The TMU agreed – and had thus (legally speaking) protected the "criminal" and victimized the "victim".

(Presumably the TMU, under the Invisible Hand' instruction, would use my confession about the case today to dismiss their stamp on Chaya's warning to the therapeutic community so that they can claim to Ms Sandberg that this warning from more than 10 years was actually invalid (since Dr P must have also showed Ms Sandberg the original Chaya's warning as well), in which case the latest Homeland Security warning about me would also have to be considered invalid.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>2</sup> He must have asked her: "He has seen you walking into the courthouse to meet with Mr Meier; you don't know what else he knows about you. Do you have anything else that would be problematic for our case?" Chaya: "Yes." The lawyer: "I'll then advise you to drop this case. Just say 'You fear the violation of your privacy because the stalker might know something about you which you don't want the public and the police to know about', and 'You fear for his retaliation.' Then the police will not be able to prosecute you for lying to them and the California Department of Consumer Affairs cannot discipline you for violating the behavioral sciences' code of ethics..."

<sup>3</sup> In the original version, my erroneous conclusion runs thusly: "Presumably, the Hardliners wanted the TMU to gather this confession of mine in order to enter it into the ICJ trial as evidence: that Chaya's description of me as a 'stalker' is valid in one sense but invalid in another. Together with the evidences which have been gathered so far showing me to have 'stalked' Angelica but also showing Kiersten, Angelica, and SDW to have lied, this Chaya's case would therefore cause the ICJ trial to become stalled, since both the 'stalker' and the 'victims' were guilty – each in their own ways. Thus, I must say, it was probably the Hardliners who had given the order to Wes to call me this morning – just at this crucial juncture when the TMU was obliged to conclude their investigation soon."

(You must also keep in mind the possibility that the other things I said (such as people's harassment of the government when they don't have anything else to do) which might seem irrelevant at the moment might again later on become part of the program which the Invisible Hand and BOL were working on.)

In any case, my programmed "delusional thoughts" of the day consist in this: to unload her suffering onto me, SDW cannot actually instruct Wes not to talk to me, but can only leave Wes untouched but then remotely control me to misunderstand the situation as her disallowing Wes to talk to me. I was also programmed to not remember to charge my phone last night, so that the call may be interrupted in the middle of the conversation to frustrate me and cause me to develop the desire to collect damages. After the call, I developed the "delusion" again that SDW was arrested, when she was not. I also thought that, after listening to my call, SDW will report me to the police for harboring the delusional belief that she is remotely controlling me through the control center to commit crimes.

I walked out of my apartment on 1 PM, and there were still many earphones-wearing people around, obviously unnatural. (It could be that Homeland Security was still keeping me under surveillance because of Ms Sandberg's case.) Because of my "delusion", I actually thought for a moment that the Russian disabled girl might be watching me too. Her family may indeed be, but it is SDW, for sure. (Even this was "delusional thought".) Tom N Toms. 3 PM, posted:

Early this morning, thought about the meeting on 1 June. Since it's possible that SDW will show up at the meeting, since it's possible that I might show up at the meeting, I wonder what the purpose is. SDW will pretend to be freaked out by me, and maybe serve me a restraining order right there, for obsessing over her on my blog. Although I will claim that I wasn't talking about her at all, because, by "SDW", I am actually talking about multiple persons, just being served a TRO is quite annoying and insulting. The authority will allow her to file the frivolous TRO against me because Karin's TRO against me in 2008 might be a piece of evidence which needs to be erased. Therefore, I shall announce the possibility here. She will have her associates check this blog and read this note. Then she'll not show up and not file any TRO against me. (She can't just file a TRO against me in the courthouse because she has to pretend not to know my address, let alone watching my every movement. Unless I have given my address to [DeDe] and she gets it from her.)

Of course, by refusing to produce the evidence of SDW's TRO against me, I might be working against Russia's interest, but I think they can simply find somebody else to receive [a] TRO as my substitute. And, by saying so, SDW will definitely be convinced that Russia wants the erasure of evidences. Well, they do, but on the Microspherian level.

Then, immediately erased the blog post when I realized that it's SDW who wants me to write this because she actually does not want to produce this evidence of a TRO – because she doesn't want to see me in person at all; she just wants to watch me from her home. She will not show up at the meeting and will not file any TRO, since filing one would mean meeting me face to face in the courtroom. I got remotely controlled to post the above because I needed to realize, and convince her, that the Russians are not lying to her about how the erasure of evidences was in their interest. Actually, was just upset over the fact that the evidentiary process will continue way into June... (Just more wrong scenarios to make myself look delusional, although, by deleting this stupid blog post, I would have deprived Homeland Security CO chief of some very useful evidence.) Felt stomach pain between 2 and 3 PM, and weakened hatred for the police.

Looked at Meetup, and discovered the French conversation club meeting at Corner Bakery, PSDN, 5 PM. Went there, but then discovered that I was remotely controlled to misread the date of the meeting: it's on Monday, 5 PM. Thought that it's just SDW requiring me to commit crimes. Checked the feasibility of N attacks in broad daylight (with many AWF drivers), but no; checked the target stores, but no: mostly foreigners. Discovered two targets (xxxxxxx-owned), one records store, but the owner was very polite, and so hesitated. On Metro going back to downtown, and two Chinese persons talked Chinese loudly to my ear, causing me physical pain. Played SDW's Yoga music, and pain attack. Thought that SDW was inducing me to not hesitate and to want to xxxxxx the records store. Another person bumped into me, and thus anger attack. 7 PM, was remotely controlled to pass over my destination, SM/ Vermont. (Wanted to go to West Hollywood, ready for DMG and thinking about the disabled Russian girl.) Anger, pain attack, and was ready to xxxxxx the records store. (Had also thought about the backlash against Americans on the model of the Maidan uprising in Ukraine.) (As you can see, Homeland Security CO chief and the Monkey were desperate for me to collect damages tonight so that they can go convince Ms Sandberg that they were right about me.)

First arrived in Starbucks, Vermont, with only ugly people, but then pretty women showed up in throng, and thus one decided to stay, but then they all left in 10 minutes, leaving only ugly homeless men in the coffeehouse. Torture "SDW style". So disgusted, as if stranded in a desert, and thus decided to quickly go to SM to look at pretty women to calm down and then do the Ns. On bus 4, and more earphones-wearing people to cause me physical pain, and to strengthen my desire to xxxxxx xxxxxxxxxx. (Was Homeland Security maintaining surveillance on me?) Arrived in Promenade. Looked at some pretty women, and began to do Ns. Frustrated, and angered, for there were no hits; so much time spent on committing crimes, with writings and readings left rusting. Decided to walk to Wilshire, but was remotely controlled to pass over my destination again: was angered, and ended up in Montana. There, at last: 7 N, 3 B.

On Metro going to PSDN. The police checked my tap card. A pretty AWF in front of me. Can even see her panties. Off the train, and realized the underlying reason for institutional racism against subhumans: EKT wants to promote subhumans because they are resources-conservative; but most of them have not much brains; but I'm the one subhuman who does have a brain, and can understand that what is nowadays considered "good" is in fact just evil in disguise, that the promotion of life is in fact murder/suicide in disguise. American society discriminates against subhumans because they do not contribute to the wasting of resources and so to the extinction of human civilization; and the subhuman with a brain is even worse because he can understand that human civilization is marching toward extinction, and that all that is considered "good" is in fact contributing to that extinction. Hence the subhuman with a brain is discriminated against the most. There is institutional racism against subhumans in American society because the purpose or the world-historical mission of the United States is to bring down human civilization. (All this was in fact not Ekaterina's conclusions but those of the Invisible Hand and BOL who had already done the simulations of the future states of the world. Nevertheless, it's Homeland Security CO chief who wanted me to say all this – so that you may be offended by me and hate me.) 2 W. Succeeded at HM Wolf, but failed at the records store. Then realized that I was remotely controlled to come up with the wrong theory in the afternoon: in fact, the erasure of evidences indeed harms Russia. (Bullshit again.) SDW must have been told the same wrong theory so that identity can be established between me and her. (Wrong.) Then succeeded at CBRE lease. An AWF on bicycle passed by a crazy man. Almost wanted to escort her (using “protection” as an excuse). Evidence: I love/ hate AWFs at the same time. (Bullshit.) Home, mood softened considerably.

(Again, because Ms Sandberg's case had started, Homeland Security CO chief and the Monkey were doing their utmost to get me to commit crimes so that Ms Sandberg can be persuaded that the Homeland Security warning about me was indeed accurate.)<sup>4</sup>

<sup>4</sup> In the original version, my erroneous conclusion at this point: “Clearly, all my wrong theories about targeting were used by the Hardliners as evidences to demonstrate that I sort of fit Kiersten's profile of me as ‘delusional’. Sort of – since I wasn't actually delusional, but was just guessing things wrong wildly. Then, I was again all day long made to ‘sort of’ fit Kiersten's profile of me as ‘loving and hating’ (white) women at the same time. It was impossible for me to tell at the time that the purpose of making me fit Kiersten's profile of me had changed: from ‘erasure of evidences’ to ‘stalling the ICJ trial’. Presumably this is why the Panistas were fooled too.”

Presumably the second volunteer whom SDW had called upon today to report on my victimization of her.

4:29 AM, the same London volunteer again:

109.158.235.227 - - [24/May/2014:05:29:34 -0600] "GET /gallery/perspective.html HTTP/1.1" 200 2621 "-" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_8) AppleWebKit/536.25 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/6.0 Safari/536.25"

Now, let's summarize. Today was presumably the second day that the Secret Society women and Homeland Security CO chief were working on Ms Sandberg's case. As usual, the women spent the whole day mobilizing volunteers trying to convince the detective in charge of Ms Sandberg's case that the Homeland Security warning about me was all accurate:

- (1) 4:03 AM, the Philadelphia volunteer again.
- (2) 8:26 AM, a UK volunteer reported on my delusions about Khalezov (or Boss Cheney).
- (3) 10:03 AM, a Brazilian volunteer reported on my delusion about being chipped in the brain.
- (4) 10:16 AM, a Georgia volunteer reported on my harassment of the ICAACT people.
- (5) 10:35 AM a UK volunteer reported on my delusions about Khalezov (or Boss Cheney) again.
- (6) 10:47 – 10:51 AM he then reported on the rest of my Secret History.

11 AM, Homeland Security CO chief instructed Wes to call me. While he had thus obtained evidence of my delusions about my women victims, the TMU had also obtained evidence with which they could now dismiss Chaya's warning about me altogether.

- (7) 11:45 AM, a Coram, New York, volunteer reported on my Secret History front page for the second time.
- (8) 12:20 PM, SDW called upon a Barrie, Ontario, volunteer to report on my victimization of her (1).
- (9) 2:03 PM, a New York City volunteer reported on my front page for the third time.
- (10) 3:33 PM, a Bellevue, Washington, volunteer reported on my delusion about being chipped in the brain.
- (11) 6:59 PM, a Merritt Island, Florida, volunteer reported on my delusions about Khalezov or Boss Cheney for the third time.
- (12) 7:40 PM, he continued by reporting on “The arguments of the CIA and the MSS in the ICJ” (“Synopsis”).
- (13) 2:05 AM, the same London volunteer came back to brainstorm how to report my perspective studies as plagiarized.
- (14) 3:22 AM, a Kenya (?) volunteer reported on my harassment of Daniel Estulin. And the London volunteer again.
- (15) 4:03 AM, SDW called upon a Paris volunteer (2).
- (16) 4:29 AM, the same London volunteer again.

Beside these, there were of course also reports about: (1) my harassment of Shizuka; (2) my harassment of my family members; (3) my computer-hacking; and (4) most important of all, my plagiarism. However, there was no report today about how I had painted Angelica nude. Needless to say, all these efforts were futile. The TMU detectives, under the Invisible Hand's instruction, would soon prevail upon the detective in question and convince him that there was no case for Ms Sandberg because the Homeland Security warning about me was pure garbage.

24 May (Saturday; Mark)

First, a note about myself. Slept 6 AM. Woke up 1:30 PM. Still softened mood. 2 PM, in the restroom. Turned on my Asus. Perhaps because it hasn't booted up completely, Microsoft Word malfunctions, and goes into repair mode. Then the backspace button malfunctions (generating weird symbols instead of deleting unwanted letters). Nonetheless, I was angered, and wanted to collect damages. Softened mood broken up. Tom N Toms. Had been mystified as to the reason why I felt that I must know the details of the scandal in order to achieve equality with my stalking victims, etc. Certainly it's because of my self-concept as an “intellectual” (cannot accept artificially created intellectual inferiority to those who are intellectually inferior to me) and because I need to complete my story “The Secret History” and know how I have saved Russia, etc. But, this: just as the ideas in one's head can cause physical pain and motivate people to rebel (e.g. the example of black people having to sit in the back of the bus in the Old South), they can also cause physical relief from pain. Why do Meredith Kercher's parents want to know how their daughter was murdered? Rudy Guede is already serving time. It's simply human nature to want to acquire the knowledge about how one is victimized, about the cause of one's misfortune, etc. Of course, the parents begged Rudy Guede to reveal what has happened, and he just wouldn't do it. Because he doesn't feel other people's pain. Had been continually wondering since early morning if SDW was arrested last night, even though, rationally, one simply can't believe it. (Of course.) 3:35 PM, checked her Facebook group, and indeed SDW had posted on 2:50 and 3:41 PM. Then thought that Wes was hinting to me yesterday that the police actually cannot arrest SDW; if she is arrested, she'll know that she has harmed Russia. (Wrong.) On Metro Blue Line going to Long Beach. Two pretty Norwegian girls in front of me just as I'm recording this.

Took the bus to Rod's. Children on the bus. Thought that SDW was at the moment producing evidence showing me to be a pedophile. (More wrong scenario to make myself look delusional.) Rod not home. Left a note at his front door. Portfolio. Made two more (erroneous) conjectures: that the police cannot arrest SDW because provoking a male to stalk a female is not a crime, and because this mind-reading/mind-control technology is national security secret that cannot be revealed. (I was sort of close to the truth here.) All afternoon thought that SDW can no longer see my laptop screen. Then, more (wrong) thoughts: SDW is watching me and targeting me. IH is probably explaining to SDW that it's better to make me come up with these two wrong guesses so that, even by international laws, she will be immune to prosecution for remotely controlling me to cyberstalk her and commit crimes. Then Mark showed up. He tried to provoke me to anger by adamantly affirming that I commit crimes because something is wrong with my brain: he is producing evidences showing me to be delusional and antisocial, in conformity to Kiersten's/ the Monkey's false profile of me. He also talks about the scientific experiment where the chip inserted into the brain of one mouse is extracted and inserted into the brain of a second mouse to enable the second mouse to learn fast as to how to navigate the maze. Thought that this was SDW's intention: to make me think it a metaphor about her stealing my status as the "savior of Russia", or my glorious past history, or my intellectual accomplishments (my story, etc.), so that she can steal it all legally under international laws.<sup>5</sup> Got so fed up that I left Mark, and was determined to commit crimes tonight again, even though believing (erroneously) that SDW was falling into a trap: committing the crime of committing crimes through abusing the legal system.<sup>6</sup> Then Mark came to tell me he will fetch for me the references to the experiment in a week, as if giving me a deadline and comforting me for having to insult me and provoke me to commit crimes. Didn't feel any better. Hatred for xxxxxxxxx, and absolute disgust with myself.<sup>7</sup>

<sup>5</sup> Again, you never know if the Invisible Hand might make all these "delusions" come true later on.

<sup>6</sup> In the original version, my wrong conclusion at this point: "In reality, it must [be] the Hardliners who had instructed Mark to tell me some ridiculous story – knowing that I would misinterpret it as 'SDW's work' – in order to obtain more evidence showing me [to be] crazy, although only somewhat in the way in which Kiersten's gang had claimed I was."

<sup>7</sup> Today's recording is in: "IMPpaintmtmtolnbchnorwgrlsrodnohmmarkangr_5_24_14_222-826PM.MP3": still at home. 11:30, out. A black guy wearing earphones. 27:00, in TNT. 39:30, another guy with earphones approached me. (Did Homeland Security CO chief have me under surveillance for Ms Sandberg's case?) 1:25:00, I left. Back? 1:32:00, did I leave again? 1:40:00, in Metro. 1:49:00, on Metro Blue Line. Two persons wearing earphones near me. (Surveillance?) 1:51:00, I started chatting with the two Norwegian girls. 2:47:00, off the train. I mumbled about how the Secret Society women would have to repeat my experience... the forgery of the intercepts of my thoughts... "she would have to want to kill me"... 2:51:00, in a restaurant to eat. The white guy in front of me had earphones on. 3:15:00, I left and walked down 4th Street. How I had become just like my stalking victims: when I attack people, if I fail, I'll attack them again as revenge – because he has deprived me of my compensation. 3:22:00: "Pass on the misery. When you have harmed a person, you have harmed the whole world." On the bus. Children! Unusual! 3:56:50, off the bus. 3:58:30, I knocked on Rod's door. 4:13:30, in Portfolio. 4:23:00, my wrong scenario about why the police couldn't arrest SDW. 4:45:50, Mark showed up. 5:13:30, with Mark. He was reading a book about "complex societies". 5:18:00, when Mark asked me how I was doing, I started explaining my "torture": how I was remotely controlled through the chips inside my brain and required to do vandalism and so on. Mark: who's controlling you to do this? "I'm trying to figure it out!" Mark: "Do you take medicine for that?" "What medicine? Pain killers?" When it seemed that Mark wanted to talk about psychiatry, I balked: "I don't want to talk about this, it's making me upset." Then Mark started on brain chips. Then how his friend at USC had put a chip into a rat's brain and let the rat run the maze and then extracted the chip and inserted it into the brain of a second rat, etc. I was in total disbelief, and I even Googled for it. Finally, I got upset: "I don't really believe you don't believe [my chip story]..." And then he called my chip belief "bullshit". Finally, 5:44:00, I was fed up: "I'm crazy, because I read too much philosophy..." And I pointed to his book: "Don't read that stuff, it'll make you crazy!" and promptly left him. I sat at table to work by myself, very upset. 6:01:00, Mark suddenly came to me to tell me he had just called his friend and he could get me the reference in a week.

(What was most likely going on was this. Since, for Sandberg's case, Homeland Security CO chief needed more evidence to confirm his profile of me – since, by yesterday, the detective in question was already inclined to dismiss the case – he wasn't going to make the same mistake as the last time with TG's case. This time, as Mark was supposed to gather evidence from me, he was going to force Mark to produce the evidence instead that he was right about me. He simply pulled out the ICJ judgment stipulating that the fact that I was being remotely controlled through the chips inside my brain must not be made known to anyone, and then remotely controlled me to talk about the chips inside my brain to Mark. Mark was naturally obliged by the ICJ judgment to deny my assertion. In this way, when the detective in question heard this exchange, he would be forced to conclude that I indeed suffered from schizophrenia. To fight back, Mark therefore, after he denied my assertion (implying that I was crazy), cited the USC experiment about the rats (implying that the idea of brain chips was not totally crazy but had in fact scientific basis).)

More of my programmed delusional beliefs: The Russians must have told SDW that “presentation” (looking pretty and graceful) is the most important thing; even though she is so stupid that she can't learn Russian or anything else, they need her in Russia to advertise for Russia's modernization process: she would thus need the title of the “savior of Russia”, and she might need to steal mine. I have no presentation; but SDW does. She can look pretty. And that's all that's important in this world. Just like the way Kiersten has packaged herself, to the point that nobody has ever found out that she is a mere empty shell. (Again, the Invisible Hand would later on make something like this come true in a different context.)

Was hoping to catch bus 232 to pass through Redondo Beach, but late for the bus (busy with some nails). Got on Metro instead. Another pretty AWF, but she was disgusted with me. As usual. Out of anger, sat in front of her anyway and filmed her: evidence that I'm a criminal videotaper and recorder (filming women out of perverted sexual needs).<sup>8</sup> Many earphones-wearing people, but not causing physical pain. (Again, did Homeland Security CO chief have me under surveillance?) At LAX, got on bus 3, and came to Venice. Tried targeting AWFs. 16 N, 3 B, 7 SPC (2 AWFs), 3 H. Failed at 1 W, and the alarm went off, repeating the recording from 2008 which I was just reviewing this afternoon. (More wrong scenario.) 1 W (shattered: Tradesmen). Felt sad that I have at last become Kiersten's conception of me: hating/ loving AWFs at the same time. These women have made me into this creature. (Again, it was just the Monkey trying to remotely control me to fit the Secret Society women's lies about me.)

On bus 33 going home, 2 AM. (Most likely) law enforcement sent another earphones-wearing Hispanic man onto the bus to stand in front of me, causing me severe physical pain and inability to concentrate on reading (German). Erroneously thought it was SDW. Evidence that I did not know any foreign language. Had to take two Norcos. Required to commit more crimes. 2 B. 1 W at MEXLOAN. Home, 2:30 AM. (Was that Homeland Security surveillance earlier?)

Now the Secret Society women's operation on my website for today. 5:08 AM,

"- "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 6.2; WOW64; rv:29.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/29.0"

Let's summarize.<sup>11</sup> Today was the third day of Ms Sandberg's case, and the Secret Society women started off their day by continuing to mobilize their volunteers to report me to the detective in question trying to convince him that the Homeland Security warning about me was accurate.

- (1) 8:04 AM, the same London volunteer again.
- (2) 8:56 AM, a LUG buddy (?) reported on my delusions about the Secret Society women's going after me in combination with my hacking habits.
- (3) 9:09 AM, SDW called upon an Israelite volunteer to report on my victimization of her (1). Also, the same London volunteer.
- (4) 9:40 AM, the Israelite volunteer again.
- (5) 10:02 AM, the Israelite volunteer again.
- (6) 10:19 AM, the same London volunteer.
- (7) 10:29 AM, the Israelite volunteer again.
- (8) 11:35 AM, the same London volunteer.
- (9) 1:33 PM, a Las Vegas volunteer reported, for the second time, on my delusions about the Secret Society women's going after me.
- (10) 2:37 PM, SDW called upon a Kent, Washington, volunteer to report on my victimization of her (2).
- (11) 3:18 PM, SDW called upon a San Antonio, Texas, volunteer to report on my victimization of her (3).
- (12) 4:48 PM, SDW called upon a new Tampa, Florida, friend of hers to report on my victimization of her (4).

As you can see, SDW was at home today and, of all the Secret Society women, she had made the greatest effort since early morning to convince the detective in question that Homeland Security was all right about me: from 9 to 11 AM, she was working with the Israelite volunteer, and then, after lunch, from 2:30 to 5 PM, she was working with three more volunteers. Then, bad news. On 7:35 PM, my conversation with Mark had started and, by 9 PM, as you can imagine, the detective in question had already decided that the Homeland Security warning was inaccurate and, this time, definitively dismissed Ms Sandberg's case as meritless. He would immediately notify the Secret Society women about his decision. Thus:

- (13) 10:32 PM, SDW called upon a Las Vegas volunteer (5) (the same 1:33 PM Las Vegas volunteer?): "Look what he has written about me! And yet the detective has dismissed our case again!"

<sup>11</sup> In the original version, my erroneous conclusion at this point: "You can be sure that the 'more legal' false reports were induced by people like the LUG to accomplish the Hardliners' goal. Meanwhile, the TMU had most likely communicated to the Secret Society [women] around 7 PM or so their decision that they didn't consider the women's reports to be credible, that they had considered me to be not a dangerous threat to the women, and that they would not remove me and my website – so that the reports made from 7:31 PM onward were SDW's (and the Secret Society [women]'s) last desperate attempts to influence law enforcement's decision. Again, the whole [Secret] Society was like living in a parallel universe, because law enforcement had already received instructions days ago from above about what decision to render – i.e to ignore the women's claims because they were lying, but not to prosecute them for it – and, when they interrogated the reporters about inconsistencies in details, they were just acting. The problem was that since the Hardliners had ordered that I be judged guilty together with the women victims, the TMU had technically speaking violated the law, since the initial presumption under which they originally decided to ignore 'victim confidentiality' – that the women had had a long history of making false reports – was now undermined by the Hardliners' instruction. The police therefore needed a different reason by which to ignore the women's case – they needed to come up with a different reason as to how they had caught the women lying. And so they decided to poke on the inconsistencies which they had found in all the false reports which the Secret Society [women] had made."

(14) 2:05 AM, SDW called upon a Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, volunteer (6) to complain about the same thing.

Thus, of all the Secret Society women, it was SDW who was the most upset. By 2:24 AM, she was still up. She had been working on my case nonstop from 9 AM in the morning to 2:30 AM in the middle of the night.

The other reports or examinations which we haven't yet noted: (1) Angelica's naked picture (3 times); (2) my harassment of Shizuka – Shizuka had specially pretended to be upset and concerned and rejoined the discussion after midnight; and (3), most importantly, my plagiarism. Meanwhile, for Ms Sandberg's case, Homeland Security CO chief had also made sure to run heavy surveillance on me for the whole day.

25 May (Sunday; Kiersten's massive tweeting)

First, a note about myself. Read until 7:30 AM. Fell asleep until 9:30 AM. Went to church, 10:15 AM. During service, saw VLT outside. Unbelievably, she was friendly, esprit ouvert, and we chatted. She instructed me to buy perfume for her to smell the next time (this was her last time in the US). After service, sat at her table. Watched her chat with Mary (a sophisticated Greek-American woman). VLT is one of the most beautiful women I have ever seen.<sup>12</sup> Deeply moved as well by the social grace she and Mary showed forth. Something is very wrong. VLT is a “woman of society”, social grace so pretty, and yet I'm subhuman, completely excluded. I can never measure up to her world.<sup>13</sup> But something is very wrong. The “women of society” are a shallow world. And they are here to destroy the world, to collapse all orders that our ancestors have built up. That's why they are so pretty, and social grace to attractive. If dying and murdering one's own environment weren't so pretty and attractive, why would anyone jump into this trap?<sup>14</sup> Then, thought of three things: (1) Was determined to participate in “Global Backlash against xxxxxxxxxx”. No matter how pretty and polite VLT is, she has been corrupted by the American Way. Hellas has been corrupted by the American Way. We must exterminate this xxxxxxxxxx way so that non-Americans, who have had glorious histories and intelligent cultures, will not become “American”. We must not allow VLT to be corrupted by the American Way, even if she will be happy for the rest of her life, leaving the mess she has created for the next generation to clean up. One must participate in the Global Backlash with cold-blooded calculation, without anger or any emotional involvement. This new resolution/ state of mind is the solution to a long-standing problem one has been experiencing: I have committed all these crimes; what, when it is all over, when I don't have to spend my precious time committing crimes anymore? Will all the crimes I have committed be a waste of time? Some other purpose must be found in these crimes than simple hatred of xxxxxxxxxx and letting them swallow themselves the evils their fellow citizens have perpetrated on me. These crimes' true purpose lies in their future advertisement: precisely the rest of the xxxxxxxxxx who are irrelevant to Kiersten's actions will have to suffer the consequences of the evils which a few among them have perpetrated – how their country women were willing to use them just to make law-abiding elements look like criminals and criminals look like law-abiding elements. (Again, all this was just bullshit: I had to commit crimes because Homeland Security CO chief had required me to help him stay afloat in the US intelligence community and not get convicted in the ICJ.) (2) I really only fit in with the Russian disabled girl (assuming she is not taken already and rarely wanted by others). What am I doing here with these “women of society”? (And the Russian disabled girl is not a subhuman; her disabled, unattractive friend, whom I have ignored, is the subhuman.) (More bullshit.) (3) Ekaterina cannot possibly want me, someone who can't fit in with “women of society”. She could want me only because (a) her family is nationalist, patriotic; (b) her family needs to keep their face, set a good example; (c) she really believes in the sustainable civilization program and New Feminism for Russia. (While Ekaterina, in reality, couldn't have despised me more, she might want me if, eventually, BOL should win her bet with the Invisible Hand and really implement the program to which my delusions now and later would really amount (rather than letting the Invisible Hand take over, and then modify, my “delusions”).)

<sup>12</sup> I'm really unsure as to whether Violetta is the most beautiful woman in the world, or whether it should be the Ukrainian Pyramid from 12 February 2010.

<sup>13</sup> In the original version, my erroneous interpretation at this point: “The Hardliners' evidence of my conformity to Kiersten's profile of me as suffering from inferiority complex.” More like Homeland Security CO chief's evidence.

<sup>14</sup> In the original version, my erroneous interpretation at this point: “The Hardliners had thus obtained evidence of my conformity to Kiersten's profile of me as a misogynist.” In reality, I seemed to be stating, in a vague form, the Invisible Hand's opinion/ simulation results.

Home, and researched Orthodoxy. Downloaded VLT's commercial. Slept until 6:30 PM. Out. Home Depot. Bought nails. Many earphones-wearing people. (Homeland Security's surveillance?) Tried not to be affected by them. SM Promenade, to look at pretty AWFs while working. McDonald's. Starbucks, and saw the news on The New York Times: Ian Lovett and Adam Nagourney: Isla Vista, California. Elliot Rodger, 22, a student of Santa Barbara City College, shot dead 6 people and wounded 13 others after posting videos on Youtube documenting his rage against women for rejecting him. Did SDW do this? To protect Angelica's father while blaming it onto me? Certainly to reinforce fear-mongering among women toward men, thus to transfer Kiersten's crime onto SDW herself: the Republicans' reward for Kiersten? (Just more wrong scenarios to make myself look delusional – but you never know if the Invisible Hand might make something like this come true later on.) Many instances of normal events causing discomfort/ provoking anger. Slight. Didn't quite act on the slight anger. Decided not to collect damages tonight in order to get work done. Was then remotely controlled to make the wrong decision when deciding to work in a bar: too loud, and couldn't do the DVD ISO image. Another such instance. Upset. But did writing instead. Looked too much at a guy's AWF girlfriend. He turned my head with his hand jokingly, no conflict. Then helped a group of Mexican whites take pictures of themselves, and high-fives... Wrote the important conclusions about the Macrospherian two-case method to prove women's destructiveness. (Just more wrong scenarios to make myself look not only delusional but also misogynist – but was I spelling out the Invisible Hand's plan again?) Stinging hurt sensation all night long. On the bus going home. Surrounded by earphones-wearing people, but was able to concentrate on reading (Ukraine). (Homeland Security's surveillance?) Thought erroneously that the Macrospherians have reversed the conspiracy last night (SDW sending in earphones-wearing people to distract me from reading) by telling SDW: Let him concentrate on reading; he needs to figure out the truth about the Ukrainian crisis, so that you can just read it off from his computer screen and plagiarize it. (Just more wrong scenarios to make myself look delusional – but would something like this happen later on?) 1 B (MEX APART). Home, and watched Chinese news. It turns out to be “anti-China Chinese news”.<sup>15</sup> Evidence that I hate /love China at the same time? (Not.)

This really seems to be the same volunteer whom we have first identified as Uncle Chad on 28 and 29
November last year. (His iPad was 6.1 back then.) In any case, the second person whom SDW had

Let's summarize. Because the detective in question had dismissed Ms Sandberg's case yesterday, today the Secret Society women would naturally spend the whole day mobilizing their volunteers to brainstorm how to prove to him that Homeland Security was all right about me after all. (Again, SDW would be home all day and contribute the greatest amount of efforts.)

- (1) 5:55 AM, the London volunteer again.
- (2) 6:06 AM, a Kathmandu volunteer looked up the front page of my Secret History.
- (3) 10:20 AM, the London volunteer again.
- (4) 10:21 AM, a Latvia volunteer examined my delusions about Ekaterina or the Russian government.
- (5) 11:38 AM, the London volunteer again.
- (6) 11:55 AM, a Taipei volunteer examined my naked picture of Angelica (a).
- (7) 12:15 PM, SDW called upon her Tampa friend (LGL35G/V100) to come examine my pollution of the targeted individuals discursive domain (1).
- (8) 1:27 PM, a Riverside volunteer examined my naked picture of Angelica (b).
- (9) 1:34 PM, a Kentucky volunteer examined my harassment of Prof. Haynes by quoting him on my blog.
- (10) 3:11 PM, a Baltimore volunteer examined my delusions about Snowden.
- (11) 3:35 PM, a Sacramento volunteer examined my particular brand of misogynist ideology.
- (12) 4:17 PM, a Fresno volunteer examined my harassment of the ICAACT people.
- (13) 5:33 PM, an Ohio volunteer examined my naked picture of Angelica (c).
- (14) 6 PM, another volunteer was looking at the Bronx volunteer's 18 May link on Facebook.
- (15) 6:37 PM, SDW called upon the same Hayward volunteer (Uncle Chad?) to come examine my victimization of her (2).
- (16) 11:11 PM, SDW called upon a Louisiana volunteer (3).
- (17) 12:21 AM, an Ashburn, Virginia, volunteer examined my naked picture of Angelica (d).

There was of course also plenty of brainstorming about (1) my plagiarism; (2) my computer-hacking; and (3) my harassment of Shizuka.

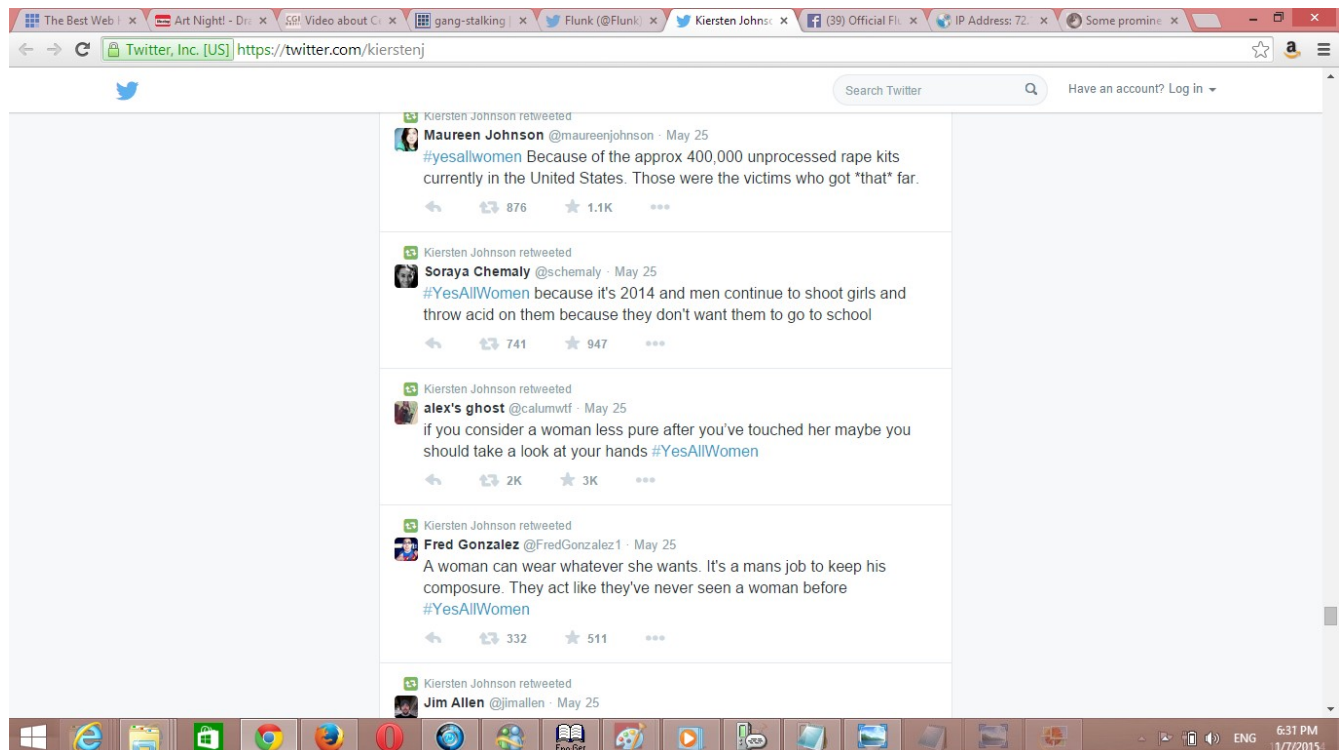

Now, in the original version, we had this conclusion at this point:

As you can see, there were 38 false reports made against me today – an extremely busy day for the Secret Society. What most likely had happened should be this: since the TMU had yesterday rendered the decision to drop the women's claims without taking actions against me and my website, the Secret Society's further actions since late last night must be attempts to cause law enforcement to [change] their decision. They must have had a lot of discussions among themselves about how to fix the inconsistencies which law enforcement had detected in their testimonies, and, when they made false reports today, the stories they gave should be a little different from the stories they had given before, both to explain why they had made errors before and to patch up all the inconsistencies which the TMU had pointed out in their past stories. The false reports they had made today, as you can see, were still mostly concentrated on claiming that I had plagiarized or stolen other people's artworks – and the Hardliners' agenda was still present in some of these reports (the more "legal" kind). They, however, still took care to make a few false reports which would continue to validate the bizarre profile which they had constructed of me: delusional, misogynist, desiring to hurt them (especially SDW) out of delusional obsession, and advertising my computer-hacking activities on my blog. Besides this, the London person charged with reporting me for plagiarizing my theory on linear perspective had spent a lot of effort in fixing his story to patch up the inconsistencies which the TMU had interrogated him about; in the end, he must have found another friend of his to confirm his new story as well, hence the last visit of 3:42 AM.

So far, all wrong – except that, yesterday, some sort of "dismissal" did indeed happen. But then I started making great sense:

It must be due to the TMU's decision to drop the women's stalking claim that Kiersten, today and tomorrow, would tweet and retweet massively on her Twitter [page] about feminism – and she had not tweeted anything for two months. For today, she tweeted or retweeted: (1) [...] Charles Clymer, "Six years in the Army taught me this: calling out anti-woman comments among other men is hard but necessary. Be the change." (#YesAllWomen) (2) [...] eHe: "Public schools spend hours policing girls' dress codes instead of telling boys that what a girl wears shouldn't effect [sic] them". (3) [...] Jessi Smiles: "Because even a taped confession admitting to raping me wasn't enough to put him in jail" (#YesAllWomen). (4) [...] Greenfield-Sanders: "I applaud the men who listen and support. To those who are trying to..." (5) [...] Chris Crass: "I'm committed to raising my son to resist misogyny and embrace feminism" (#MenAgainstPatriarchy, #YesAllWomen). And more:

Kiersten must have been tremendously disappointed since yesterday because law enforcement had, for the third time, refused to validate her as a victim of male sexual desires and aggression – which she had been seeking for almost two years by now and which she desperately needed both as proof of her attractiveness and to heal her own psychic wound: she must have wished that some guy would be obsessed with her just as she had been obsessed with men who didn't want her in order to heal the wound of inferiority which the latter had caused in her. Since her story about my stalking her and obsessing over her was entirely made up, you can see that she was a clearest instance of a “psychopath” – attacking people without being provoked, speaking the most blatant lies without the slightest discomfort, and, when others refused to believe her lies about her sexual victimization, she had the face to complain to feminist discussion groups, as if she belonged to those other victims. (Most of the complaints on this #YesAllWomen were of course themselves bullshit; but Kiersten liked to retweet them to create the false impression that she was one among the “real victims”.) Kiersten was the kind of psychopath who would lie to the police about being raped without regard for the possibility that, when the police should expose her lies, they might be skeptical in the future toward other women who might have really been raped – i.e. she had no regard for the harm she would do to other women when she tried to profit herself, and yet she tried to insinuate herself into “feminist groups”. Truly a parasite. Somehow those feminist groups who had allowed Kiersten in never considered the possibility that this one fat woman might be poisonous and here to discredit and ruin their whole cause.<sup>17</sup>

We suppose that I was completely correct here: the detective's dismissal of Ms Sandberg's case had dealt such a blow to Kiersten – shattering her dream of becoming known as a victim of male sexual aggression since, together with the case, the Homeland Security warning was also gone which had listed her as one of the victimes extraordinaires of my terrorist stalking – that she suddenly sought out identification with other “victims” in feminist groups as compensation. I then continued:

You thus must note the fundamental difference between Karin, Dr P, and Angelica on the one hand, and Kiersten on the other, and between SDW on the one hand, and Kiersten on the other. Karin, Dr P, and Angelica felt fully justified in abusing the justice system to take me down because, in their mind, they were superior beings in comparison to me, so that, when they harmed me, it was the natural order of things, but if I dared poke them with my finger in response or in retaliation, then they had been unjustly violated and should have the right to annihilate me. In other words, their conception of me as an inferior being had caused them to adopt a double standard in regard to me. The same with SDW, except that I didn't even poke her with my finger; she perceived that I had done something to annoy her only because she was mentally ill. In the case of Kiersten, however, everything was different. She didn't go after me because she had perceived me as having done something wrong to her. She went after me simply because this was a chance for her to obtain something which she desired. In other words, she was a psychopath; she went after me because she simply had never any regard for other people's wellbeing. [...] Thus, we must conclude that SDW, Karin, Angelica, and Dr P went after me because they regarded me as <sup>17</sup> This reflection from 7 years ago is of course hardly valid anymore. We'll see proof that, when the feminists should ever discover this fake is lying about being raped, they will all go cover her ass and make sure everyone else believes she is really telling the truth. When people become dumber and dumber and simply can't reason anymore, they are ever more likely to subscribe to “predestination”: as long as one is a woman, one is automatically, and always, a victim and good.

inferior and themselves as superior or as “sacred beings”; but that Kiersten went after me simply because she was born a psychopath who was incapable of caring about anybody except herself and who was willing to sacrifice anybody, even her closest friends, to advance her own interests.

The totally wrong inference is eliminated, and the rest is more or less valid. Except that, again, when it comes to SDW, I had really failed to appreciate just how much the Homeland Security warning about me had distorted her judgment (not that she was all sane before seeing this warning). More on this later.

26 May (Monday; severe targeting; Kiersten's massive tweeting)

First, a note about myself. Watched a Japanese adult movie on Youtube while watching a Russian TV film at the same time on another laptop. Slept between 7 AM and 2 PM. After waking up, was remotely controlled to develop the paranoid fear that, on 23 May, it was SDW who had instructed Wes to call me. The following was the “delusional fear” which the Monkey had programmed me to develop today:<sup>18</sup> SDW has been instructed that she needs to pretend to be me, the (real) “savior of Russia”, in order to go to Russia, and as such she needs to acquire some of my views. She has thus been plagiarizing me, which is easy for her to do since she, as my stalking victim, has access to Homeland Security's surveillance on me and can see my laptop's screen and thus every single letter I type into my computer. She has instructed Wes to call me that morning in order to plagiarize certain ideas which Wes and I will be discussing in this phone conversation. Meanwhile, if she has plagiarized me, she will be producing evidence for the ICJ showing that it is me who have plagiarized her. (Would the Invisible Hand make any of this bullshit become reality later on?) To counter this possibility, I would thus have to put this entire diary and the recordings of my conversation with Wes on my website. This would then allow SDW to report me as a way to further destroy my reputation, which is certainly the goal of my remote control this afternoon. Possibly:

- (1) She can have more materials to report to the police about saying I'm cyberstalking her.
- (2) She can report to the police saying I'm stalking “Lavonne”, the “Russian disabled girl”, or whoever.
- (3) She can report to the police saying I'm delusional, for believing that she might be plagiarizing me, and targeting me through the control center, etc. Since some of the guesses I have made about her and others on this diary will be incorrect, these wrong guesses she will report as evidence of my delusions about her.
- (4) She can report to the police saying I have been speaking on my website about committing crimes.
- (5) Etc.

Also thought: SDW is having such a good time right now (targeting me, copying me, destroying my reputation) because she is destroying herself; the Macrospherians are hurting me right now because they are saving me. This is simply how the world works: hurting yourself and others is pleasurable; saving yourself and others hurt yourself and others. The “Americanized world” has made it this way so that we'll be motivated to hurt ourselves and others rather than saving ourselves and others. Unfortunately, this conclusion is not “delusional”, but far more like the truth. (In fact, we have to wonder whether the Invisible Hand was also going to make many of the above come true later on.) Of course, I'd rather die than be saved. Why would anyone want to be saved when saving is torture and being dead is deliverance from all suffering? Is it not the goal of life to avoid suffering and acquire happiness?<sup>19</sup>

While organizing this diary in Tom N Toms, was extremely excited by a sexy Korean girl. Then rode the Metro to PSDN to attend the French meetup. On my way, was remotely controlled to become doubtful as to whether SDW really was plagiarizing me. Severe anger attack: the impossibility to know who, if anyone, is trying to harm me, and how, has caused me to spend my entire day speculating on the matter and coming up with wrong guesses in order to waste my time and make myself look delusional. Then to commit crimes as compensation. This is simply American society: anyone who has developed insights into society has to be destroyed: he must, through the chips inserted into his brain, be made into an insane criminal, and his website pronouncing ingenious insights must be made to contain criminal and delusional content, all so that he will waste himself away and be discredited at the same time. My only option in this society is to develop delusions and commit crimes. Society does not allow me to do anything else. The problem is not that I'm a subhuman, but that I have a functioning brain which I have used to understand society and human beings instead of simply doing engineering in order to provide Americans with weapons with which they can victimize other nations and kill off anyone who has a functioning brain. (Again, even though my predicament spoke more to the work of Homeland Security than to the nature of American society, I was sort of correct here.) I must attack xxxxxxxx, because xxxxxxxx require me to attack them. The only way to win this game is to xxxxxx them and then get away with it, because xxxxxxxx' goal is for you to xxxxxx them and then get caught, so that you'll look bad and crazy. Attacking and being attacked is the only thing xxxxxxxx can possibly understand given their shrunken brain structures; they don't understand things like sharing thoughts and feelings intelligently to build friendship and gain insights, etc. They want to use me to xxxxxx them in order to prove that peaceful, caring, and intelligent human beings are violent, selfish, and delusional persons so as to make themselves feel smart and good when they are in fact retarded and evil. (I was really speaking more about the Secret Society women and their close associates than about xxxxxxxx generally.) It's fine to use me for such a purpose, as long as they will have to continually pay for it rather than disposing of me right after they have proved it. The realization of my destiny in American society is so disturbing that I cannot concentrate on my French meeting, and I left promptly after, determined to commit more crimes tonight. There was a pretty AWF sitting next to me. I was simply required to show no interest in her in order to produce the evidence that I'm autistic and love and hate AWFs at the same time. I'm required to avoid people and then feel lonely and hate people so that my loneliness may look like it's my own fault. Not knowing that it's just Homeland Security CO chief and the Monkey who were programming me to develop all these negative thoughts,<sup>20</sup> I thought this: SDW and those in power who have employed her have decided that, when SDW carries out her intention of separating me from AWFs, she believes she is doing AWFs good by insulating them from a disgusting piece of shit who doesn't know how to act masculine toward women; but the ICJ has just registered terrorist women committing crimes against AWFs by removing healthy food from them and feeding them with poison. (Again, you have to wonder whether the Invisible Hand would later on make this come true too.)

<sup>19</sup> In the original version, my wrong conclusion at this point: "It might simply be the case, however, that the CIA simply wants me to repeat my 2010 paranoid fear that somebody will plagiarize me: replacement of evidences."

<sup>20</sup> In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: "Not knowing that, at the moment, it was actually the Hardliners who were letting Homeland Security CO chief torture me (to make me become Kiersten's portrayal of me) in order to accomplish their purpose (of stalling the ICJ trial)..."

Came to ZL instead, 6 PM. Wrote down the above. Was remotely controlled to sit somewhere where a pretty AWF was sitting in front me, in order to get sexually excited by her and produce the evidence that I'm autistic and hate AWFs because I can't attain them, etc. (in accordance with Kiersten's profile of me).<sup>21</sup> Then was remotely controlled to be so greatly sexually excited by this woman as to decide to film her while possibly under surveillance. Then was remotely controlled to want to MST immediately with the video of this woman. Was remotely controlled to do so when there was no public restroom around. Thus was required to be unable to get "shit out of the system" so that all the energy may be redirected to committing crimes. This will be evidence that I'm sexually impotent in conformity with Kiersten's profile of me.<sup>22</sup> Evidently, reading about Rodger's story last night means that I will have to repeat this "Rodger's" experience today (in order for Rodger to become my "double" in the evidentiary record?). (More wrong scenarios to make myself look delusional.) 7 PM, arrived at the Metro station. Thought that maybe it's Kiersten who has wanted to plagiarize me and was again upset that I'm required to spend my entire day doing sickening stuff and committing crimes, leaving me so physically exhausted that I've lost so much weight and been reduced to a mere skeleton. Self-destruction is a very physically demanding job.

Back to downtown, into Macy; the building closed off, still not allowed to use the restroom to MST. Back to Café MAK. Finally, MST, and got shit out of the system. Then was told by the boss that I didn't pay the last time. Didn't know how that happened. Paid bill. My mental function has deteriorated so much due to perpetual hypothesizing as to how my stalking victims are harming me – just in order to waste my time and make myself look crazy at the same time. (Right.) Tried to utilize the precious time to study. Couldn't. To RDND to collect damages. Late. Got off the train near TCH College, and got lost, 5 N. 1 B. Wasted almost an hour there, in order to walk long distance to make myself lose more weight and look unattractive to females. Got back onto Metro, now going toward Venice. Perpetual anger attack throughout all this time to motivate me to commit crimes, probably because, since I wrote down last night something about "women shock troopers", SDW is now allowed to send me onto ever intensified trips to xxxxxx other people as a way to destroy myself. (More wrong scenarios to make myself look delusional.) 8 N, 2 SPC. SPLVD: 2 W, 6 H. Tried to study as much as possible while on the bus, while surrounded by earphones-wearing people. (Was Homeland Security continuing their surveillance on me?) Home, 2 B (MEX). Received more signals from the control center confirming that SDW will file a restraining order against me to suppress my website. (Not happening.) What I have realized tonight is that, because this guy is a true feminist and cares about women, American white women (A, K, Dr P, and SDW) must demonize him into a psychopathic, delusional, and sick danger to women – and then physically transform him into a misogynist; and because this guy understands the ills of American society and can therefore serve as its doctor, the American people must require him to xxxxxx them in order to demonize him and suppress him as their evil enemy. xxxxxxxxxx – here represented by SDW and Kiersten – must make sure that there is no healthy food around in this world but only poison; it is imperative that any healthy food that is discovered be transformed to look like poison. (Again, unfortunately, there is much truth in all this: not delusional thought.) (And this was probably the Invisible Hand's opinion too, which he will make manifest in his program with BOL later on.) I don't mind this, since the most proper destiny for xxxxxxxxxx is extinction anyway. What I don't like about all this is that xxxxxxxxxx will have to make me into a subhuman who is unable to leave and do other nations a lot of good, because they don't just want to destroy themselves, but also want to destroy the rest of humanity as well. Again, xxxxxxxxxx' "world historical mission" is the destruction of the planet and the extinction of human civilization. That's why I can never leave here and obtain asylum in Russia, or any nation which represents the best hope for humanity by remaining antagonistic to the United States. (While there was a lot of truth in my negative thoughts here, Homeland Security CO chief's purpose in making me think of all this was of course to train me to become an anti-American terrorist so that he could survive and prosper among his peers in the national security Establishment.)

<sup>21</sup> In the original version, my wrong interpretation: "Again, it must be the Hardliners who have wanted this piece of evidence." Actually, it was just again Homeland Security CO chief.

2:30 AM, just as I was typing out the above, was remotely controlled to mistype and accidentally delete what I had just typed. Anger attack. 3 AM, Notepad malfunctioned. Anger attack. Required to commit more crimes tomorrow. Then the entire computer froze up. Severe anger attack. Required to immediately collect damages. Out, 2 W, 2 B. (One being Miller: forced to conform to the false profile of me as anti-Semitic.)<sup>23</sup> (Not.)

(After all these negative thoughts, what was really going on was certainly a lot simpler: because the detective in question had dismissed Ms Sandberg's case and this had become unfavorable evidence in the ICJ, Homeland Security CO chief was desperate for me to do something to produce the evidence that he might be right about me after all. He thus wanted me to film a pretty AWF as if I were sexually frustrated and then collect more damages.)

<sup>24</sup> In the original version, my commentary at this point: "I highly suspect that this person was either Bonnie Lee, a self-proclaimed TI in the Oceanside and Carlsbad area, or a friend of hers. This 'Bonnie' was some woman who was also complaining about being gang-stalked by the police like SDW was. She has a website: www.nostasi.com (or <http://stopgangstalkingpolice.com/>) and a Youtube channel: <https://www.youtube.com/user/bonnieleec/>. Since this woman lived in the Oceanside/ Carlsbad area, very close to SDW, it was almost certain that SDW would have befriended her. (She had mentioned her in her blog.)" It's not clear whether I had really made a correct identification here. But the rest of my commentary is certainly completely erroneous: "SDW must have told her yesterday that the police had refused to remove me and my website, at which point this women, indignant about 'law enforcement victimization of women', decided to join SDW's campaign to repeal the TMU's decision. Again, another brainless woman, never recognizing the obvious fact that I had the same right to blog about gang-stalking and talk about people just as SDW or any other woman [had], and that, normally, when my natural exercise of my right bothered somebody, that person would simply tell me so and ask me not to exercise it – like Louis D had done – rather than 'going the long way' [by] clandestinely asking the police to lock me up forever without telling me why and then complaining about 'police brutality' when the police were dumbfounded by such unprecedented strange request. (The problem, of course, stemmed from my legal status as a 'subhuman', or 'suspect' as one variation of the 'subhuman' being for whom verbal communication with others was not an option and yet who was still not so dispensable that the police were allowed to arbitrarily exterminate him. Presumably, even though I had no rights in American society, the American authority cannot just dispose of me arbitrarily for no reasons whatever because that would then expose to foreigners the awful fact that certain people in America, [in] this 'land of the free', had actually no rights!) Note that, later on today, two more visits would come from the Oceanside area, so that, while one of these three persons must be this 'Bonnie', the other two should be her friends."

In the original version, we had this interpretation: “This visit is certainly special. Again, it’s most likely either ‘Bonnie Lee’ or her friend. What does this visit mean? SDW and Angelica were certainly contemplating on how to report me for violent and threatening behavior so that the TMU might be more motivated to remove me from society. Since I had once thrown bottles into Angelica’s backyard, they must be making another false report about my confessing, on my blog, [that I had] violently threatened Angelica with broken glass and broken bottles.” First of all, this volunteer was probably indeed a TI friend of SDW’s. Secondly, the purpose of the visit was certainly to brainstorm how to prove to the detective in question that Homeland Security was indeed all right about me. Thus, the more correct interpretation should be: “He does brag on his blog about how he threw bottles into Ms Angelica’s backyard... The Homeland Security warning is correct!”<sup>25</sup>

Now, let's summarize. Today was the second day that, following upon the dismissal of Ms Sandberg's case, the Secret Society women were mobilizing their volunteers to brainstorm how to prove to the detective in question that the Homeland Security warning about me was correct.

- (1) 5:01 AM, a Nigerian volunteer examined my delusions about being chipped in the brain, and a Brooklyn volunteer examined how I kept developing delusions about the Secret Society women's going after me by mistaking the visits to my website.
- (2) 6:46 AM, a Tokyo volunteer examined my naked picture of Angelica (a).
- (3) 6:49 AM, SDW called upon a Swaffham, UK, volunteer (1).
- (4) 7:05 AM, the London volunteer again.
- (5) 7:59 AM, SDW called upon a Blagnac, France, volunteer (2).
- (6) 10:18 AM, a Hong Kong volunteer examined my external links page. (My linking to some famous woman's website?)
- (7) 11:49 AM, the London volunteer again.
- (8) 12:24 PM, a Vista, California, volunteer testified that I did brag on my blog about throwing bottles into Angelica's backyard.
- (9) 12:46 PM, SDW called upon an Alma, Michigan, volunteer (3).
- (10) 2:06 PM, a Norwegian volunteer examined Angelica's naked picture (b).
- (11) 2:10 PM, a Castle Rock, Colorado, volunteer examined my delusions about Chelsea.
- (12) 3:58 PM, a Melbourne volunteer examined how my delusions about being mind-controlled had prompted me to become a danger to myself as well as to others.

(13) 5:43 PM, an Aguascalientes, Mexico, volunteer examined Angelica's naked picture (c).

(14) 10:04 PM, a Southern California volunteer examined how I kept developing delusions about my women victims' going after me by mistaking the visits to my website.

(15) 11:50 PM, a Hunan volunteer examined my particular brand of misogynist ideology.

(16) 3:46 AM, a New Zealand volunteer examined my delusion about being chipped in the brain.

These aside, of course plenty of brainstorming about my plagiarism and my computer-hacking and so on and so forth.

Now, in the original version, our somewhat erroneous conclusion runs thusly:

You can see that, unlike in the previous days, there were eight reports today saying I hated women and harbored violent desires toward my "stalking victims" – all because SDW was so desperate to repeal the TMU's decision. Since the TMU's rejection of SDW's stalking claim had also included the rejection of Kiersten's stalking claim against me, Kiersten, like yesterday, would continue to tweet [about] feminism on her Twitter page. She tweeted or retweeted today: (1) Scarlett Kathleen, "Because people still think that feminism means being against men, when really it means wanting the equality that women lack" (#YesAllWomen). (2) Jada Bee: "B/c in 2013 there were over 700 bills purposed [sic] to regulate a women's [sic] body and 0 for men" (#YesAllWomen; 17/01/15; 6/6/14). (3) Hanna: "Because when I type in 'feminism is' on Google, these should not be in the Autofill results, 'feminism is a joke', '... stupid', '... sexist', '... bullshit'" (#YesAllWomen). (4) Jacqueline Simonds: "Because real men aren't afraid of equality with women" (#YesAllWomen). All thoughtless, time-wasting bullshit, as you can see – and full of grammatical mistakes.

As you can see, Kiersten was indeed upset over the loss of her status as a "victim of male sexual aggression" but this was due to the continual dismissal by law enforcement of the Homeland Security warning about me, rather than to the TMU's dismissal of SDW's stalking claim in particular. I continued:

Kiersten herself then tweeted at #YesAllWomen: "Because I still love menfolk despite having been raped and molested by a few of them. Just stop being dicks, OK? Try to be nice." The most supreme bullshit of all: because the TMU had told her, "We have concluded that the 'suspect' actually didn't stalk you at all" – it's not clear whether the TMU had considered her the stalking suspect for me since it was she who had stalked me! – Kiersten had decided to shamelessly go on Twitter today to advertise more made-up stories about her being raped or molested. Sorry to say this – I'm fully aware that feminists like to say that rape is not about sex, but about power – but I couldn't imagine any male wanting to rape or molest this fat, disgusting "woman".

Again, it's because Kiersten had in the past two days totally lost her status as a "victim of male sexual aggression" that she today lied to people that she had been raped and molested – in order to convince people that she was indeed attractive to mankind. I then continued:

Finally, this must be noted. Since the TMU had begun communicating to SDW and other Secret Society members their intention not to remove me and my website, they at once, as their investigation of SDW's stalking claim was drawing to a conclusion, had to update their profile of me which was embedded in Chaya's 2003 warning about me. This new profile would be somewhat more "accurate" than the cartoonish bullshit that was found on Chaya's warning, but it would still grossly fall short of reality – all because the TMU was specifically instructed by superiors high up in the federal government to make sloppy errors. The new profile which the TMU was about to produce of me must consist in this – remember that, since the Hardliners didn't particularly want to commit blatant perjury at the ICJ, they could only get what they had wanted by resorting to what shall later be referred to as "fundamentalism" (to play around the nominal and literal wording of laws while ignoring their meaning or "spirit") – and, to make Kiersten's profile about me at least half-right, they would have to instruct the TMU to base the new profile entirely on the Secret Society's reports about me and their physical surveillance of my activities: the "stalking suspect" really did occasionally have the habit of stalking women and obtaining their private information, such as had happened in the case of Chaya and, to some extent, in the case of Angelica. The "stalking suspect" was always [depressed], couldn't attract girls, and so usually pretended to be mentally retarded in order to befriend pretty white females (who, unlike Asian females, were susceptible to this bizarre kind of "seduction"). It's all as if he were imitating the characters he had seen in the movie "Mishima".<sup>27</sup> The "stalking suspect" liked to pull pranks behind people's back and vandalize their properties when nobody was around, in order to kill pain and loneliness – but was however not physically dangerous to people since he feared arrest and was physically weaker than most people. He suffered from some disability, but loved books, and so scanned a lot of books onto his website for his own fulfillment. Meanwhile, all the assessments which the TMU had asked various scholars at universities to make about my writings would be thrown into the trash cans: these had become the TMU's "taboo" now that the Hardliners had instructed them what results they must produce for their investigation. This is why the "more legal" reports about my plagiarism which the Secret Society had made under the influence of the Hardliners' moles were so important here – and why the TMU's finding of inconsistencies in the Secret Society's reports was absolutely essential. These "more legal" reports were used to establish that, although I didn't plagiarize (since references were always clearly indicated on my chapters), I did nothing original either – again, just some disabled guy who, out of boredom, scanned books onto his website to attract visitors. Since the Hardliners' goal was also to establish the women of the gang as terrorist suspects together with me, the entirely false reports about my plagiarism would then be used to establish their guilt as well. The same with their false reports about my being physically violent and dangerous to myself and others: these reports also established the women's guilt as well as mine. If all this is correct, this means that the TMU must have also issued a warning to all law enforcement agencies regarding Kiersten's Secret Society, saying that these women had the tendency to make false or exaggerated reports about suspects in law enforcement databases in order to advance their hidden agendas (such as to obtain victim compensation funds) or simply for entertainment purposes or just to calm their obsessive-compulsive fears. The TMU must have issued a stern warning about Kiersten, SDW, and Dr P, because I had never stalked them at all (although I had vandalized Dr P's car one time) and they were all “free riders” on the back of the one and only stalking victim, Angelica – doing so because, in the case of Kiersten, she wanted nothing more than be known as attractive to mankind and, out of boredom, was always looking for “drama”, and, in the case of SDW, because she was seriously mentally ill. The warning about Angelica must consist in the fact that she not only liked to exaggerate her suffering but also liked to invite irrelevant parties to free ride on her case in order to waste government’s resources (the “hyperbolic hysterical Mexican American girl”). This warning about the Secret Society [women] would presumably not be [made] known to the Society’s members but would establish the legal justification for law enforcement’s continuing infiltration and surveillance of their bizarre organization.

Since the Hardliners’ ultimate goal was to monopolize my (purported) scientific discoveries under the guise of protecting the stalking victims’ confidentiality, the status of Angelica as my stalking victim was absolutely essential here – since she was, really, the only person among the whole Society on whom I had in fact conducted surveillance for a dozen times and whom I had subsequently harassed. The TMU would then update their profile of me as the stalker of Angelica although posing no real physical danger to her, while Angelica and all her “friends” would be labeled in law enforcement databases as exploiters of their own, or others’, victim status in order to fraudulently obtain personal benefits. While the TMU would presumably not [share] their profile of the Secret Society with the Secret Society’s members, whether they would share their new profile of me with them was unclear to me. It’s most likely the case that they did – in which case my discoveries would be forbidden to be utilized by anyone since it’s on the same website on which “private information” about Angelica was also found. Again, the most strenuous reinterpretation of the literal wording of the laws would have to be employed for this purpose since my “Scientific Enlightenment” really bears no relationship at all with my “stalking” of Angelica and predates the incident by seven or eight years. Meanwhile, the TMU must have informed SDW that they had seen no evidence that I had stalked her at all – which would have almost completely devastated her. Thus, SDW’s intense efforts yesterday, today, and in the coming days to repeal the decision by mobilizing a vast number of people to make the most vicious false reports about me and my website.

You must see that I have suffered here tremendous injustice by the United States government officials since my website was, because of the TMU’s judgment, practically shut down by now – virtually every single visit in this month came from the Secret Society: all the search engines had been programmed to not show my website when other people searched for it – and yet my website was my entire life, and the majority of the materials on there had nothing whatever to do with Chaya or Angelica. Imagine if Kant’s Kritik der reinen Vernunft were banned all because Kant, in his old age, “stalked” some woman for a few days!

Again, this last part of my conclusion was half-correct and half-erroneous. What could be correct: (1) the TMU might have indeed composed, under the Invisible Hand’s direction, a more correct profile of me – which they probably didn’t share with the Secret Society women and which would not be purposely false in any way due to the Hardliners’ influence (since there were no Hardliners at all at this point). (2) The TMU might have indeed broadcast a warning about the Secret Society women to other law enforcement agencies portraying them exactly as I had theorized in the above. (3) The description of the psychology of Kiersten and SDW and so on was, again, more or less accurate – except that the women in question were not looking for any material benefits but simply for government's official designation of them as “victims of male sexual aggression” and “expert witnesses on a schizophrenic misogynist terrorist's psychopathology”. Again, even though the scenario above was completely erroneous (in that there were no Hardliners intervening at all), you never know if the Invisible Hand would make any of this bullshit become true later on.<sup>28</sup>

27 May (Tuesday; less pain)

First, a note about myself. Allowed to sleep between 7 AM and 2 PM. Woke up. Anger/ pain attack. Required to xxxxxx AWFs. Realized that the White Roses' purpose in allowing SDW to transform me into my opposite – from caring about women into a misogynist – is that they need to transform SDW from Russia-loving into Russia-hating (into her opposite). There is no possible way to transform me into Russia-hating because it will violate my political ideology. My brain structure is not capable of growing into Russia-hating because of its basis in the combination of the oppressed's emotional structures with geopolitical knowledge.<sup>29</sup> But SDW's brain is capable of this, having a different structural configuration. She has had no experience with oppression and doesn't know much about geopolitics; she therefore can easily “change side”, since her love of Russia is not born from any defense against oppression. The enforcement of UN Resolution 1373 will be based on a vague definition of “transformation into the opposite” without specifying details. (Just so much bullshit to help make myself look delusional. But again – would the Invisible Hand make any of this become true later on?)

Tom N Toms. Then went to PSDN to scout out targets. Done, and at Starbucks, 4:45 PM, to research to see who owned what. An AWF and a Japanese photographer were having a nice chat. Why am I singled out by AWFs to become their enemy? Because I know how to really do people good, whereas other Asians are just being polite and nice. The AWF was talking about treating him. It is because the American way has permeated the whole world that even the Russians have had to play the American game: the only way for benefits to accrue to Russia is for it to be harmed. I have to be harmed in order to be saved. The Russians have to allow me to be harmed by Americans in order for me to be saved by them; the world has to be harmed in order to be saved. Russia, and the world, can only be saved if somebody – like SDW – is found to hate them for life. I don't like this whole ICJ game because all the harms and hatred are purposely orchestrated, not natural. Yet this is all necessary because Americans have already made the whole world conform to their way, and, for Americans, because their brain has shrunk, the entire reality revolves around the single axis of “attacking” and “being attacked”. (While this was again much bullshit to make myself look delusional, there was in fact some truth in all this.) Then, Youtube malfunctioned. Required to run into experience where I'm not allowed to download Russian TV shows. Physical pain. A pretty AWF walked in. Physical pain. Required to attack xxxxxxxx. My life has henceforth also to revolve around the single purpose of “being attacked by SDW” and “attacking xxxxxxxx” in response. Every other aspect of life – loving, gaining insights, sharing – will have to be extraneous to living. (In reality, it was just Homeland Security CO chief who continued to desperately want me to commit crimes and look delusional.)

<sup>28</sup> It's important to keep in mind that there might be a second factor explaining Kiersten's massive tweeting about feminism yesterday, today and tomorrow: the case of Elliot Rodger, with the hash tag #YesAllWomen.

<sup>29</sup> This will eventually turn out to be not quite true.

Was able to concentrate on reading ("Ukraine Analysis" in German). The Macrospherians might have instructed SDW to allow me some time to read so that she might plagiarize my reading notes which I compile while reading. (Bullshit.) Then went all the way to BRNTWD for collection, 16 N. (PSDN no good, too many Asians.) AWFs hard to come by. One xxxxxxxx was extremely rude to me ("What are you doing in my neighborhood? You scared my wife!"), causing me to want to collect more damages tomorrow. SDW's manner of targeting: super-interpretation of daily vicissitudes as political events so that I can hate an entire people while making it look like it's my own fault. Then, came back to PSDN. (For the targets identified.) 2 W, 1 B. (Failed at DRLRNCLLA and SXIA.) Finished by 2 AM. While waiting for the bus and charging my laptop, got thrown out by the security guards. Hatred of xxxxxxxx. Will collect more damages tomorrow. Again, SDW's intention: super-interpretation like she has done. (Bullshit.)

Note that I wrote on my diary today: "SDW has coordinated a lot of reporting of me to law enforcement, portraying me as a sick and delusional danger to women (Mr B's plus Kiersten's false profile of me). Her next move would certainly be to request law enforcement to broadcast an alert about oneself to all populations of the world, not just in the US. By doing so, she could at last complete her terrorist crime against womankind (removing healthy food from them and feeding them with poison in order to turn them into suicidal killers, just like herself, Dr P, and A/ K). She has also completed her terrorist crime against the world in that she has attempted to make one's goodness invisible to the world (making me appear as the opposite of what I am) so that the only person who knows how to save the world may never be known to the world, leaving the world to die by itself." Again, I was probably expressing a lot of the Invisible Hand's opinions here. But, in the original version, I concluded erroneously thusly: It seems that the Hardliners had a need for this realization in order to properly stall the ICJ trial.

To summarize. Today was the third day, since the dismissal of Ms Sandberg's case, that the Secret Society women would be mobilizing their volunteers to brainstorm how to prove to the detective in question that Homeland Security was all right about me.

(1) 7:53 AM, a Lausanne, Switzerland, volunteer examined my naked picture of Angelica (a).

- (2) 9:11 AM, SDW called upon a Melbourne, Australia, volunteer (1).
- (3) 10:33 AM, the Philadelphia volunteer came again to examine my delusions about Snowden.
- (4) 10:36 PM, a Samara, Russia, volunteer examined my delusion about being chipped in the brain.
- (5) 10:42 AM, a Houston, Texas, volunteer examined my naked picture of Angelica (b).
- (6) 11:59 AM, an Andover, Massachusetts, volunteer examined my naked picture of Angelica (c).
- (7) 12:38 PM, the London volunteer again.
- (8) 1:45 PM, SDW called upon a Branford, Connecticut, person (2). Her relative?
- (9) 2:12 PM, SDW called upon the same LUG buddy as seen on 7 May (3).

As the CIA proceeded to remove me from the watchlist mentioned and Ms Sandberg's case was forever dismissed, protests from Homeland Security CO chief and his allies (e.g. the Boss' family) must have been so fierce that the Invisible Hand was now forced to respond. Thus, by 3 PM, the Invisible Hand had instructed Rod to email me to agree to meet with me tomorrow. He needed more evidence to demonstrate that the Homeland Security warning about me was worthless garbage. And the Secret Society women continued:

- (10) 4:06 PM, a Ramos Arizpe, Mexico, volunteer examined Angelica's naked picture (d).
- (11) 4:35 PM, SDW called upon a San Mateo volunteer (4).
- (12) 4:52 PM, the same South Pasadena volunteer from 18 May created evidence of my plagiarism with representation.html.
- (13) 5:49 PM, a Newark, New Jersey, volunteer examined my naked picture of Angelica (e).
- (14) 8:58 PM, a Tinley Park, Illinois, volunteer examined my delusion about Chelsea.
- (15) 10:55 PM, an Orlando, Florida, volunteer examined my February blog posts – what?
- (16) 11:25 PM, a Monterrey, Mexico, volunteer examined my naked picture of Angelica (f).
- (17) 12:01 AM, a Cairo, Egypt, volunteer examined my front page. What?

Note that, by 1:30 AM, SDW was still awake – and that there was no more visit a little after 2 AM.

There was of course plenty of brainstorming about: (1) my harassment of Shizuka (5 times); (2) my computer-hacking; (3) my harassment of my family members; and (4) my plagiarism (including a volunteer working at ANZ National Bank in New Zealand). Note also that today was the last appearance of the London volunteer assigned to my theory on linear perspective.

Now, in the original version, we had this conclusion at this point:

You can see the pattern. Because the TMU had poked some holes in the Secret Society's weird stories about me (especially in regard to my plagiarism), the [Secret Society women] had been concentrating on recruiting students in [the] higher educational system around the world to make more false reports to the TMU. "I have a master degree, I can judge whether his writings are plagiarized or genuine." Now, the TMU in LAPD was headed by a female detective who had been in the department for decades, and who therefore must have been aware of some of my history. (E.g. since Chaya's warning about me must have been included in Homeland Security's 2007 warning about me to diplomatic services around the world, when the Chinese intelligence service came to interrogate the LAPD about my case in November 2007, she should have been aware of it.) Meanwhile, there was now a CIA officer inside [the] TMU [to train] them. Because the Secret Society was unaware of these details, they didn't know that their efforts were futile. Ah, not to mention the fact that the Hardliners had already given the order to find these women guilty no matter what they reported. They were not just wasting their own time, but also the time of their new recruits.

So far so good – except that there were no Hardliners at all. I continued:

It must have been the case that Kiersten was able to recruit these foreigners to waste their time on her criminal project only because she had lied to them in such manner: “This stalker stalked me, and the police didn’t care because they are ‘sexist’. He then put my private information on his website, and yet we can’t do anything about it because of ‘First Amendment’, or the right to ‘free speech’. This is how ‘sexist’ American society is. Can you help us poor American women? In order to get around the ‘right to free speech’, we will have to lie to the police...” These gullible foreigners were thus all duped into pouring out their sympathy for Kiersten and her fellow gang members, unaware that the reality was just the opposite. They were convinced, furthermore, that the American system was “sexist” – unaware that the reality was just the opposite: i.e. that the American system was actually biased against males, so that, after Kiersten had stalked me and made false reports to law enforcement in an attempt to use them to annihilate me – all because I had no interest in any fat women – she was still roaming around free to continue her “trivial pursuit”.

All this was sort of true – and the Invisible Hand will later on make it even truer in regard to somebody else, e.g. Ekaterina – except that it was something more than Kiersten’s persuasive power and people’s preconception that the American system was sexist which had convinced everybody that Kiersten was telling the truth: I had again failed to take into account in the original version the influence which the Homeland Security warning about me had exerted on everyone around. Most people simply didn’t know that a US government agency, such as Homeland Security, could be lying outright about a suspect, and so everyone believed it all when this agency said Kiersten was the victim of my stalking. Now, in the final section, I was completely correct – in my observation about Kiersten’s loss of the will to live when her victim status had gone down the drain together with the Homeland Security warning about me:

Meanwhile, Kiersten retweeted today: Recovery Is Beautiful: “Just want to take a moment and acknowledge everyone who stays strong today despite wanting to die. Much love” (#recovery). Gee, why did she retweet this? We can only guess that she actually felt like dying when the TMU refused to validate her as a victim of male sexual aggression! Well, wait a minute. If a woman has actually been raped or molested, I guess she would really feel like dying if her victimization is never validated. But Kiersten – nobody has actually raped her, molested her, or stalked her at all. She stalks men. Ha! That’s how much she wanted to be a victim of male sexual aggression! Sexual victimization of women has truly come a full circle – as an “entity”, it has now shown forth its entire “life cycle”. In more traditional societies, when a woman is raped, she feels so ashamed that she doesn’t want anybody to know about it. She tells nobody about it, let alone calling the police! During the transitional phase (which the American culture has gone through in the 1970s), “activists” teach rape victims not to be ashamed, but to speak out, for “being raped, you know, is not your fault.” Thus the victims are cured of the psychological consequences. By the end of the process, “healing” has gone overboard. Now, “being raped” (and getting validated as a victim of male sexual aggression) has become a sought-after “status”. Wow! Unattractive women whom no man wants to rape will actually make up stories about being raped in order to attain the “status” – and if they don't get it from the authority, they will actually feel like dying! What are you to make of this?

How special am I – your narrator – that I have seen the entire cycle. I have seen raped victims' shame when I was growing up in Taiwan in the 1970s. I have read about activists' curing of this shame in American feminist literature in the 1990s. I'm now today, in 2014, witnessing the end of the phase, unfortunately, through first-hand experience. I have got the condensed version of world history in me all by myself.

28 May (Wednesday; Rod)

First, a note about myself. By 6 AM, uploaded this very diary to my website and linked it from the latest blog post. Then noticed that certain entries should be censored. Then tuned to Democracy Now, 27 May, where Rodger's story was broadcast and where Rebecca Solnit gave a commentary. Then noticed how I was programmed to say things similar to Rodger's, although more complicated and much more toned down. Wondered if I should really post it at all to fulfill SDW's wish. (My understanding at the time was that, while the ultimate goal was to make this “Rodger” into my substitute in the evidentiary record of the ICJ, SDW could humiliate me through a TRO, if she should decide to use this.) But just censor more, and she could do nothing with it. Then realized (wrongly): she must have instructed law enforcement to intercept all content from my website irrespective of whether the content is published or not, and then to incorporate the original content in the alert, not this censored one, so that, by censoring it now, I would be too late. Her real purpose in getting me to upload this diary is for law enforcement to intercept it, not for her to use it for a TRO. But now that I say it, would law enforcement really incorporate it into any alert? (Even though I never believe in the first place they would do what SDW tells them to do, because, in my conception of things, the White Roses want to make a bad example out of her, not out of me – and the Republicans have lost to them a long time ago already.) (Again, just required by Homeland Security CO chief to continue to misunderstand my situation so as to look crazy. But would the Invisible Hand again make my wrong understanding come true later on?)

Slept between 8 AM and 1:30 PM. SDW remotely controlled me to have a mild flu today. Sore throat. (Actually, it's just the control center, with Homeland Security CO chief and the Monkey in it.)<sup>30</sup> Had to spend 10 dollars buying Robitussin. 2 PM, with Rod in Tom N Toms. The following are the highlights of our conversation and some analysis:

(1) The “rule” which I had laid down for Rod: never disagree with me when I talk about the control center (7:00). I believed I had the perfect justification for demanding this – c.f. his disagreement with me on this point is like the parents' disagreement with their son that his homosexual feelings are inborn and can't be corrected.<sup>31</sup> “I believe that the government has let this woman [SDW] connect to the control center to torture me...” (2) “If you know the government's agenda, you can sort of figure out who it is that is torturing me...” Rod asked me to designate the principle I used in my inferences. “Hermeneutics...” Principle 1: the government doesn't do things for no reasons. Even when the government does things for no apparent reasons, there is a reason elsewhere. E.g the UFO myth

<sup>30</sup> Again, in the original version, I wrongly assumed the Hardliners were in control of Mr Homeland Security CO chief.

<sup>31</sup> In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: “The Hardliners must have used my ‘rule’ as evidence in the ICJ that I [did] conform to Kiersten's analysis of me as ‘totalitarian’ or ‘fascist’.”

(14:00). (Again, Rod asked me to provide my “principles” because, whenever I sounded insane, the Invisible Hand wanted to argue that I was just making wrong inferences and the logical structure of my reasoning proved that my wrong conclusion was not the same as true delusion.) (3) About the chips in my brain: it has to be the government. Rod: Can it be a corporation? “Given the two assumptions, therefore...” (22:00). I again asked Rod to not disagree with me on these two assumptions. “Will feel pain if you question me on these assumptions...” Then: “I can see how you can be the perfect recruiting agent” (27:00). Then: “People who study philosophy actually understand human psychology better, because most of human psychology is determined by [the underlying] thought-processes [i.e., reasoning], that’s the key to understanding a person’s motivation” (33:00). (Again, the Invisible Hand wanted to argue that the logical structure of my reasoning was not the same as true delusion.) (4) I was so disgusted with myself because of the role I was forced to play, this “street-walking guru” (39:00). (5) My reading about the Ukrainian crisis, Andreas Kappeler’s Russland als Vielvölkerreich, and then “neoteny” (42:00). (6) The use of historical linguistics to illustrate the simplification of the American brain. (7) “The control center’s goal is also to get me to hate Americans.” (Indeed! That’s what Homeland Security CO chief wanted.) (8) My worry: I had become so disgusted with the English language. (9) About the definition of “patriotism”: is Snowden a “patriot” or a “traitor”? (1:00:00) That all depends on what the nation’s goal is! (Again, such excellent analysis the Invisible Hand would use as evidence that I wasn’t really delusional.) My notion: Snowden is actually pathetic because somebody has manipulated him to seek asylum in Russia. And because he seems to have underestimated the power of the government. (This is bullshit – but the Invisible Hand would argue again that bullshit was not the same as true delusion.) (10) About my stalking scandal (1:08:00). Rod then accused me of habitually invading people’s space.<sup>32</sup> Impossible to know such a simple thing, like whether somebody had filed a stalking claim against me. And I assumed that the police knew about the control center. (Right. The TMU did know.) (11) My strange desire to document certain events. (12) Rod: Are you willing to fictionalize your story? (This again! Why did he ask me that – in view of the fact that the Invisible Hand’s goal was to use my story as evidence?) (13) Then Rod again: “The way you behave toward me could be interpreted as “stalking”.... (1:17:30).<sup>33</sup> And so Rod: “You are not paying attention to other people’s boundaries” (1:19:00). (14) About how the stalking case happened, and how people’s reporting could result in a case: Angelica would only report what the other party did to her, not what she had done to the other party to provoke the response. “I have been manipulated by Americans to hate Americans, I hate this... And I can’t get out of this trick” (1:30:00). (Again, it was just Homeland Security CO chief.) Then: “What’s wrong with being manipulated?” (1:37:00) We then left Tom N Toms (1:46:00). (15) About the Korean writing system (1:56:00). In a restaurant to eat. About Kappeler’s Russland (2:06:00). About Glenn Roger’s confession to Nicole Simpson’s murder (2:11:00). Such a story had no didactic value, for everybody in it was bad. “Most people don’t try to avoid situations where the roles of the good guy and the bad guy could not be clearly distinguishable. But I would avoid such situation. I don’t want different categories to be superimposed on each other and cancel each other out or contradict each other...” (2:24:00). I want a situation where the victimizer and the victim could clearly be distinguished, so that onlookers wouldn’t be so confused as to who to help and who to lend sympathy to. E.g. when a black man harasses a white female, he is undermining the value of his “race card” (and creating confusion). (Such an excellent analysis was again the

<sup>32</sup> In the original version, my wrong conclusion: “Again, it must be the Hardliners who had instructed him to so accuse me in order to create evidences for the ICJ that I did conform to Kiersten’s profile of me.” Not. We have to wonder whether it was Homeland Security which had ordered Rod to so accuse me.

<sup>33</sup> In original version, I assumed again it was the Hardliners who had ordered him to say so. But was it really Homeland Security? Better: perhaps it was the Invisible Hand who wanted him to accuse me in the way the Secret Society women did in order to test my reaction, which would then be his evidence.

Invisible Hand's evidence that the Homeland Security warning about me wasn't correct.)<sup>34</sup> (16) About Solnit's commentary (2:32:00). It's as if she was transposing the description of 12th Century Mongols to contemporary America, talking about an exceptional case if it were the norm... Courtney was a feminist, and so interested in gender politics. "I'm envious of women, they are luckier than I..." And I explained why I always felt uncomfortable hearing women complaining about their "victimization": "It's like they are complaining about a fly while I have a broken leg..." (2:45:00). American women only complained about what others did to them, not what they had done to others, and not what had happened to other people. "This is in fact what everybody does... You can make your problem look worse than it really is by talking only about it..." E.g. three women killed in a day in domestic violence in this country according to statistics. "But if you notice that 45 men are killed in a day in street violence in the whole country, then women's problem will look like a minor problem..." (2:51:00). "You can make your problem look really bad if you talk only about your problems, not other people's problems, and not what you did to others..." (2:53:00). "People always say the opposite of reality... If you call America 'misogynist', how do you call the 12th Century Mongols?" (3:05:00) "That's how the system works, you always need to believe in the opposite of reality in order to achieve your goal" (3:10:00). (Without knowing, I was really speaking the Invisible Hand's opinion too, and of course Rod didn't know that because the Invisible Hand never told him what he really thought – because he didn't want to offend him and Courtney. But presumably the Invisible Hand would instruct the detectives he was training: this was not "true misogyny" and so the Homeland Security warning about me wasn't correct.) (17) Then we came to Café MAK (3:21:00). About Russia's multicultural society. "People like to come here because everything here is so big..." The advantage of living in LA: You can be a loser without looking abnormal (3:26:00). Then about my appearance: "Everybody is my enemy here, so why should I dress nice to please my enemy?" (3:28:00) (18) Then about my problem with having nobody to talk to about my mind-control torture, which caused me a severe sense of alienation from society, which, as had been the case earlier, was the original reason why I kept committing crimes. "These 'targeted individuals' are too retarded to validate my experience..." "The government has some really weird weapons, and once you fall victim to them, you have nobody to talk to about." (19) Rod: "We need to address the environmental crisis..." Rod was then talking about using differential equations to model environmental crises. I talked about how I didn't like this culture, so fascinated with crazy people shooting innocent people, with "crazy violent people" (3:39:00). (20) Then about the problem of there being too much information, too many politicians and prominent individuals to keep track of in order to understand what was going on in the world. "How can the CIA function, how can it keep up with 'who is who'? There are just too many people to know about in this world." Then: "The UNESCO needs to make a serious effort to cut down the number of books in this world..." (21) Rod then talked about somebody who tried to revive communism in America. My amazement: "People don't worry about whether their concerns might be out of date." (22) About Slavoj Zizek (3:58:00). Rod taught at Westwood College (4:05:00). Then about how I found Japanese women more attractive than Korean or Chinese women even though they didn't look much different from each other – simply because of certain ideas I had in my head about the Japanese culture. "Why are the ideas in the head able to change your perception of the look of something?" (4:08:00) (23) About "digital dementia" (4:10:00). Even though I was online all the time also, I looked only at healthy stuff.

Now, in the original version, such was my conclusion:

<sup>34</sup> We must also wonder whether the Invisible Hand would later on adopt my suggestion here in simulating and orchestrating the future course of events, for, as you shall see later, when the scandal shall finally really start to crystalize, the bad would be so bad and the victim so victimized.

The most important part of this conversation is certainly that about the tactic which Solnit uses to make her society look “misogynist” – important because this is the tactic which American women in general frequently employ to accuse their society of “misogyny” toward them: (1) present the exceptional case as if it were the norm; (2) focus only on their own problems, saying nothing about what they have done to others and what problems other categories of people might be experiencing. The second most important part was something which Rod said at one point about Rodger: that he felt entitled to a “girlfriend”. Even at the time I felt that the control center had something to do with the case of Rodger, because he conformed so much to Kiersten’s portrayal of me – or any guys who had dumped her and whom she therefore wished to insult: somebody who hates women because he can’t attain them. As noted, Kiersten likes to project this stereotype onto the guys she doesn’t like because this is a description of herself: she hates men (especially Jewish men) and loves them at the same time because, while being attracted to them, she can’t attain them. Thus, the Jewish guy she was once obsessed with and who, evidently, had chosen to ignore her. The Hardliners might have wanted this “case of Rodger” in order to establish identity between me, Rodger, and Kiersten – so that [they] might get the ICJ case dismissed since both Kiersten’s gang and I suffered (supposedly) the same fault.

And so, back then, I failed to notice that the Invisible Hand had wanted me to talk about Solnit’s commentary and instructed Rod to ask me about Rodger because he wanted the detectives to obtain evidence with which to refute the Homeland Security warning about me. Next, this wrong scenario about the Hardliners’ desire to establish identity between me and my women victims the Invisible Hand might indeed make come true later on.

Now Rod left around 6:20 PM while I stayed behind in Café MAK. I worked. 9:50 PM, while I was smoking outside, I became increasingly worried about offending people by thinking that German sounds more pleasant than Russian and that the Korean writing system looks “ugly”. I paced back and forth. Then I was worried if Ekaterina and her Korean friends might not be so enlightened. (Just more worthless worries to make myself look delusional.) Then the employee came to tell me that my pacing back and forth was distracting to customers. One was thus angered over being made to fit the profile of a mentally deranged piece of shit, and was further disgusted with oneself, when one had no choice but to worry so much because one couldn’t see the people who were harming oneself or deciding one’s fate. SDW’s manner of targeting. (Right.) Required to desire to commit crimes tomorrow while making it look like it’s my own fault. Then suffered severe stomach ache, and body ache. It may be related to Robitussin. But was required to desire to commit crimes immediately to kill pain. (Homeland Security CO chief wanted me to act right away now that the detectives had all agreed with the Invisible Hand that the Homeland Security warning about me was worthless.) Rode the bus to SM. Wanted to get off on 26th, but, because I was trying my best to save time by writing on the bus, I missed the bus stop. Came to Promenade instead. Couldn’t commit crimes because of severe stomach ache and body ache. Going backward. Cried for help: Please, I can’t commit any more crimes. I’m completely exhausted! But this is the destiny which SDW has prescribed for me for once caring about her. (Wrong, of course: it’s Mr Homeland Security CO chief.) Stopped at LACNGA, 5 N, 2 W. Home, and checked to discover that one building was xxxxxx owned. Very upset that SDW has programmed me to xxxxxx people who are not my enemy in order to force me to conform to the profile of me as anti-Semitic.<sup>35</sup> Then, 4:30 AM, MST. At first, Japanese. Then, the AWF filmed two days ago. Remotely controlled to be unable to EJC.

<sup>35</sup> In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: “Actually, it looks more like it’s the Hardliners who have wanted me to vaguely conform to Mr Chertoff’s [false] profile of me.” In reality, it’s most likely Homeland Security CO chief.

Let's summarize. As the hysteria continued to spread over the police's dismissal of the Homeland Security warning about me along with Ms Sandberg's case, the Secret Society women continued to mobilize their volunteers to brainstorm how to prove to any law enforcement authority that Homeland Security was all right about me (and so about them too):

- (1) 5:54 AM, a Umea University volunteer examined my particular brand of misogynist ideology.
- (2) 6:54 AM, a Sommelsdijk volunteer was asked to examine my stupid Youtube video to see how to use this to prove to law enforcement that Homeland Security was all right about me.
- (3) 8:10 AM, the University of Umea volunteer came again to continue to brainstorm.

- (4) 9:30 AM, a New Jersey volunteer examined my delusions about Snowden.
- (5) 9:33 AM, a volunteer was looking over the Manhasset volunteer's link from 1 May.
- (6) 9:38 AM, the Chicago volunteer from 21 May forged evidence of my plagiarism (again).
- (7) 11:11 – 11:25 AM, a Calgary, Alberta, volunteer examined my delusions about being mind-controlled (how it prompted me to cut myself).
- (8) 1:55 PM, a North Bay, Ontario, volunteer examined my delusions about Boss Cheney (a).
- (9) 2:17 PM, SDW called upon an Opera Mini volunteer (my pollution of the TI discursive domain) (1).
- (10) 2:38 PM, SDW called upon a Fresno volunteer (2).
- (11) 3:51 PM, a Belgium volunteer examined my violation of Prof. Ménard's intellectual property rights.

6:20 PM, my meeting with Rod was over.

- (12) 7:40 PM, a Toronto volunteer examined my delusion about Angelica's going after me.
- (13) 9:42 PM, SDW called upon the same Yuba City volunteer (Jim Sheehan?) (3).
- (14) 9:52 PM, Kiersten called upon a Brisbane, Australia, volunteer to come examine my harassment of her by blogging about her.
- (15) 10:21 PM, SDW called upon an Irish volunteer to come examine my slander of Elenor White (4).

No visits from 10:21 PM to 12:49 AM. And very few visits afterwards. It's easy to imagine why. By this time, the detectives (all together) had already concluded, from my conversation with Rod, that the Homeland Security warning about me wasn't accurate, and so everybody's, and Homeland Security's, petition was thus duly rejected. The Secret Society women would then be busy discussing this with their volunteers. When their volunteers resumed their visits:

- (16) 4:23 AM, a Big Rapids, Michigan, volunteer examined my delusions about Snowden.
- (17) 4:30 AM, a Los Angeles volunteer examined my delusion about being chipped in the brain.
- (16) 4:57 AM, a Mississauga volunteer examined my delusions about Boss Cheney (b).

Did the Boss' family, upon hearing the bad news, also decide to intervene again? Now beside these, there was of course plenty of brainstorming about: (1) my computer-hacking (including one volunteer from UNAM); (2) my harassment of Shizuka; and of course (3) my plagiarism.

Note that Kiersten today retweeted an ancient photograph of Maya Angelou on her Tweeter page.

29 May (Thursday)

First, a note about myself. Slept 6 AM and woke up 11 AM. Slight sleep deprivation. Tom N Toms. Home Depot: bought spray. Decided to go to RDND to check on TRGTs before acting. Lunch, and wrote about 6 May. Aggression softened given law enforcement's attitude. (Bullshit.) Nevertheless, decided to carry on with the "plan" as usual. Ugly xxxxxxxxx sat down next to me to cause me physical pain. Then was remotely controlled to go to Union Station instead of Metro 7th Street station, 4 PM. Thus lost almost 1 hour, and almost as if I were not allowed to know about TRGTs. Angered, and physical pain. Had to take Norco. More evidence of my mental retardation. Thought that SDW was requiring me to suffer physical pain in order to harden my hatred for xxxxxxxxx and desire to attack them. She always had to make sure every harm I had done was attributable to her. "I'm not allowed to do harm on my own.” Saddened by this fact.<sup>38</sup> Came back to Metro 7th. To Mariposa. Arrived there on 6:03 PM, waiting for the 6:06 PM bus. The bus never came. The thought that I was not allowed to know about my TRGTs caused me more severe physical pain, lasting for more than 30 minutes. Body shaking. Charged my laptop. Took Norco. The 232 bus came, 6:50 PM. On the bus, and sat with a pretty Asian girl. She was reading an article on Foucault (Linda Martin Alcoff). Naturally wondered what, if any, the Macrospherian purpose was in this episode. Perhaps (1) another attempt to turn F’s campaign against political correctness (he saw it as actually working for power) into an expression of political correctness? (2) Maybe only people who don’t quite understand things well are allowed to go to school. People who do understand things well are not allowed to go to school. (This, in order to destroy the educational system, presumably.) America as the “Opposite Land”. (There was in fact no Macrospherian purpose here – the Asian girl’s reading of that article was a “natural event” – but the Invisible Hand had indeed thought that America’s educational system was all corrupted because too many dumb people had insinuated themselves into universities and prevented smart people from attending school.) Off the bus on HRMSA. Almost 8 PM, and couldn’t check most of the TRGTs, but quite enjoyed people-watching at the beach (AWFs). A scary white man bought cigarettes for me in the liquor store. Then: 12 N, 3 SPC, 2 B, 2 W (LCSW). Afterward, back to the beach, and gave light to an AWF. In a rather pleasant mood. Wondered if one should spray her car (or her boyfriend’s): one must learn to harm people even when not feeling pain. But didn’t: too much trouble, and one needed to hurry home. Going home. Didn’t mind the earphones-wearing people. Downtown. Bought taco from MEX. Wanted forks, but was refused at both 711 and MEX. Angered. Wanted to commit more crimes tomorrow. Amazed by one’s transformation: one had never committed a single crime in one’s life before meeting Angelica; and now, one has to commit crimes every single day. Then by the fact that one had been trained, for four years, to want to commit crimes over such simple things. I had suffered the exact inverse of “rehabilitation” (I had suffered “criminalization” in a special sense). Four years of “inverse rehabilitation”. America is truly a waste land; instead of producing and making people productive, it purposely wastes them and makes productive people into criminals. It devotes its resources to wasting, it works hard to waste, instead of producing: production has become wasting. Never before in history has such a nation existed. Another feature of terra inverta.

On the bus going home, and the same thing: Hispanic people talking loudly behind me. Somewhat bothered. Sonophobia has been returning intermittently. Noted that Wes has called me tonight and left me two messages. I missed his calls because I had turned off my cellphone while collecting damages. (Evidently, because the detectives had dismissed his warning about me yesterday, Homeland Security CO chief instructed Wes to call me today – he needed me to speak my wrong scenarios as his evidence to temporarily lock up the previous ICJ trial for the time being.)

Let's summarize. After the disaster last night, the Secret Society women today would merely be mobilizing volunteers to brainstorm how to prove to law enforcement that Homeland Security was all right about me.

- (1) 5:24 AM, did SDW call upon a Birmingham, UK, volunteer? My slandering of Elenor White? (1)
- (2) 5:47 AM, the Kayseri, Turkey, volunteer examined my front page.
- (3) 9:22 AM, a Fernandina Beach volunteer examined my harassment of Daniel Estulin by quoting him on my blog.
- (4) 10:05 AM, an Edinburgh, UK, volunteer examined my delusions about Snowden.
- (5) 11:11 AM, a volunteer was asked to examine my delusions about Snowden on the Prison Planet Forum.
- (6) 1:57 PM, a Drammen, Norway, volunteer examined my delusions about Boss Cheney.

As you can see, for the first half of the day the Secret Society women were focused on my delusional slandering of famous people as the best reason with which to revive the Homeland Security warning about me with law enforcement. Then, for the next 10 hours or so, they would refocus their attention on how to prove that I did plagiarize. Then, past midnight, they would be back to my supposed delusional slandering of people online (including themselves).

- (7) 12:37 AM, SDW called upon a Annandale, Virginia, volunteer (2).

- (8) 1:03 AM, a Reno volunteer examined my delusions about Khalezov or Boss Cheney.
- (9) 1:07 AM, SDW called upon a Harrow, UK, volunteer (3).
- (10) 1:17 AM, did Angelica call upon an Indian volunteer? (“Ying and Yang”, II)
- (11) 3:13 AM, a Greenbelt, Maryland, volunteer examined my delusions about Snowden.

The effort to brainstorm how to prove that I did plagiarize was of course massive. There was then also plenty of brainstorming about how I did hack people's computers and harass my family members and so on.

30 May (Friday; Wes; still targeted)

First, a note about myself. Slept 4:30 AM, terribly tired. Woke up 7:30 AM, with severe headache, thanks to SDW's programming. (Not.) Then accidentally broke the frame of my glasses again. Certainly SDW's intention. She is determined to make me look disgusting so as to make a “bad example” out of me (probably for her “backlash against Asians” and “backlash against critical thinking” programs). She knows that this time I wouldn't have the money to fix it. I must wear taped-up glasses all the time. Angered, motivated to commit crimes tonight. Took sleeping pills and went back to sleep. (Actually, of course, it was Mr Homeland Security CO chief who wanted me to look disgusting and then develop wrong scenarios about SDW so that I could conform to his warning about me as constantly developing delusions about the women I was obsessed with. (Presumably he was punishing me for his disaster in the past two days.) But, once again, you have to wonder whether the Invisible Hand would make my delusion here come true later on.)<sup>39</sup>

Woke up 1:30 PM. Thought that SDW has been allowing me to sleep better now probably because she needs sleep as well. (When I'm awake, she'd have to stay awake in order to watch me and target me.) (More wrong scenarios to make myself look like I was constantly delusional about the woman I was obsessed with.) Tom N Toms. Looked up more of Lavonne's information in order to have a reason to get Wes to talk to me. Became terribly worried about my appearance. My behavior, habits, and look are really bizarre, even though it's all because there are always people who have pushed me to this corner, intentionally or unintentionally. And I just don't have the time to take care of my appearance. I do make intellect look bad; and I really would be making a fool out of myself if I expect EKT to marry me as the proper course of actions. (All correct.) Then one made these new resolutions:

- (1) It's okay to not care about your looks, as long as you don't care about it in others. But I have been paying too much attention to women's appearance, and too easily impressed by pretty women. But then thought: This is okay, as long as I practice it only with Americans. Just as long as one does not do so with Russian women if one ever ends up there definitively. (Or at least not with anything more than the intention of being entertained.) In fact, it's proper to practice all kinds of criminality and hypocrisy with xxxxxxxxxx, since this is how xxxxxxxxxx treat other peoples. When it comes to American women, do no more than treat them as sex objects; when in American society, litter, steal, lie, cheat, commit frauds, destroy properties, commit crimes, urinate and defecate on the street, all you like, as long as you can get away with it. If you ever end up in Russia, make sure you become the inverse of what you are in America: never lie, never cheat, never commit crimes, never treat women as sex objects..., etc.

<sup>39</sup> Again, in the original version I wrongly assumed that it was the Hardliners who were behind Homeland Security CO chief's actions.

- (2) [BOL] is the model woman. If she's serious about reforming feminism, she needs to advertise herself, or advertise my story (my ICJ trial) in order to advertise herself. (Assuming my reconstruction of her role in my ICJ trial is correct, and note that I haven't written down yet the part of the story where her glory truly shines through.)
- (3) My dream in life is to see the power base of Russia magnify. Both hard power and soft power. Presumably, if I can do anything at all toward this goal, it would be to educate, to create agents (in Russia) to send out to increase Russia's prestige in the world (soft power). Maybe also the management of the relationship between soft power and hard power. Ethnic relations in Russia: would actually need the main Russian group to remain dominant. One doesn't have sympathy for the ethnic minorities in Russia who complain about imperial domination and prejudices from the main Russian group, because, by seeking the West to back their complaints and campaign against Russia, they have changed the meaning of their resistance from that of resistance to West's imperial domination of Russia. (They have become the oppressors instead of the oppressed in relation to Russia.) In order for Russia to become the world's leader, the country's main cultural identity has to remain Russian, no matter what the Russian peoples look like (race-wise).

Realized that it's because my love for Russia is really just revenge against Americans that I have never changed my stance even when running into Russians who treat me like shit. (As long as Americans have lost to the Russians, what matters how the Russians treat me.) (Again, all these thoughts, while not delusional, were totally stupid, all because I didn't know that the Russian government was now in alliance with Homeland Security in regard to my case. Furthermore, it was Homeland Security CO chief who had continued to train me, from the control center, to be anti-American, but my consequent pro-Russian stance the Invisible Hand would make into part of the terrorist conspiracy against him.) Came to Sunset. 99 Cents. Couldn't find the perfume VLT had recommended. Needed to find it in order to have a topic of conversation with her. Stories. 6:30 PM, after I wrote down the above resolutions, my laptop froze up, and one needed to reboot it. SDW's targeting, presumably: to do more harm to Russia. (Of course, it's not she, but just Homeland Security CO chief and the Monkey in the control center.) Didn't lose what had been written. Motivated to collect damages tonight. Then, attempted to post the above on my blog, but the Internet connection was down. Called Wes, and the call actually came through! Talked to him around almost 7 PM.

The highlights of my conversation with Wes today. (1) On 4:44:00, about how people were conspiring to make me look "delusional". About the "inverse of rehabilitation". (2) On 4:46:50, about the justification for generalizing about Americans: they all wanted me to commit crimes and look delusional. (3) SDW was trying to delude Americans into the "delusion" that I was delusional. "Delusional criminals" are scarier. (4) My (erroneous) belief again that the government had allowed SDW access to the control center (4:51:00). (5) Aggression toward all xxxxxxxxx (as retaliation for the Secret Society women's operations on me) was justified since it's the American culture which had created the few xxxxxxxxx who attacked me. From 4:54:00 onward, an analogy with warfare to explain why I attacked any xxxxxxxxx: it's like a soldier randomly killing civilians in a village in the enemy territory because he couldn't find the enemy soldier who had shot his best buddy. (6) The importance of hitting the "right targets". About the Jewish people. No need to scientifically verify whether my assumptions were correct. You can vent all your anger on any xxxxxxxxx without ever worrying about whether it is justified, because all xxxxxxxxx – it has been decided beforehand – are disposable, since that's how xxxxxxxxx treat others (from 5:05:00 onwards). About the problem with generalization again (5:09:00). Are all xxxxxxxxx really disposable? (5:10:00) The battery of my phone then ran out on 5:14:00. I charged up my phone and was reconnected with Wes on 5:17:00. (17) The typical American and the typical academic knew very little logic. (18) Wes was applying for a job at USC. He would not want to move to Russia. Many Russians were too frank, and he didn't like it. Americans were less frank, but was that a sign of intelligence? (19) About how Linda, surprisingly, succeeded in teaching. About the pitfalls of generalization again. Then Wes said something (for the sake of Homeland Security CO chief agenda): "Your lack of caring for other people..."

(You can imagine that it must be Homeland Security CO chief who had ordered Wes today to stay by the phone and wait for my call (insofar as I had failed to answer his calls yesterday). Again, given his loss in the past two days, the previous ICJ trial was at risk of being reactivated again, and he thus needed some temporary evidence to demonstrate in the ICJ that he might be right about me after all so as to lock up the previous ICJ trial for the time being. The evidences he had thus obtained tonight: (1) that I was indeed delusional about the women I was obsessed with, in this case SDW; and (2) that I was indeed motivated by an anti-xxxxxxx ideology to attack the people around me, thus qualifying as a "terrorist". He might have even hoped that the detectives might also be offended by all the offensive remarks I had made about xxxxxxxx so that they would be prompted to disagree with the Invisible Hand's goal of removing me from the watchlist in question.)<sup>40</sup>

Afterwards, stayed in Stories until 10 PM. Distracted, as usual, by my excitement over talking to Wes. Pizza at Sunset. Tried Ns. Difficult to hit xxxxxx. On the bus, and off the bus on another spot on Sunset Blvd where there were no pedestrians. Difficulty with hitting xxxxxx again. Had to wait for the next bus. Upset: one was spending too much time on this. Off the bus on Vermont. Hit one car. The same problem: can't hit xxxxxx. (5 N so far.) Got on bus 204. Wanted to go on Venice, but the 33 bus would be too late. Got off WLSHR, then was going to SM/ 26. Tried my best to save time by writing while on the bus. Began to be afraid, because it seemed that the detectives were investigating Ws because of suspicion of anti-xxxxxxx hate crimes. (Although the police will not reveal their monitoring of my phone calls, they could have Wes inform on me, per SDW's "tips".) That fucking SDW bitch. (None of this was true, of course.) Unsure about W work. 1 W (PRK): used B to be safe. 6 B. 2 N (1 WF). 5 H, 7 SPC (mirrors). But was required to use the Metro tap card on the bus coming back. Fucking SDW's

<sup>40</sup> In the original version, my conclusion runs thusly: "It certainly was the Hardliners who wanted Wes to talk to me in order for more evidences to enter into the ICJ to stall the trial over the Syrian scandal. The TMU might have wanted a confession from me that I wasn't really delusional at all, which was what their 'trainer' had taught them anyway. But this would have contradicted Kiersten's and Dr P's claim. But, then, that's the point: in order to establish both my 'stalking victims' and me as 'guilty', I needed to sort of look like Kiersten's portrayal of me and yet was not really that. Thus, the Hardliners' argument: I 'stalked', and yet wasn't delusional and violent. The women were guilty because they tried to make everybody believe that I was delusional and violent. Then my confession about my indiscriminate 'attack' on xxxxxxxx the Hardliners would use as evidence to support their claim that I was some sort of a 'terrorist'. (Even though 'attack' referred to no more than vandalism, a misdemeanor crime, the intention was that of a 'terrorist'). Thus, both the women and I were 'terrorist suspects'. Not sure if I was programmed to talk about my attitude toward the Jewish people. Perhaps my stalking victims had made the claim that I was anti-Semitic, and so my confession was evidence to establish their guilt here. Finally, Wes' comment about my lack of caring for other people was used as evidence to support the claim that I sort of fit Kiersten's false profile of me as an antisocial psychopath. Note again that, because the Hardliners wanted to commit the minimum possible amount of injustice while achieving their goal, they employed usually the method of 'fundamentalism'. Here, while I looked like I didn't care about Wes but only cared about myself whenever I talked to him, this was really because I was so isolated that, since my one hour conversation with him per week was the only time in my life where I could share my thoughts and feelings with others, I had to use every second of my interaction with him to meet my needs. Otherwise, I was much more caring of others than most people. The Hardliners of course knew that. But they had to stick with the literal meaning of Wes' words because they needed evidence showing me to be a bad person." Again, even though the entire "Hardliners" scenario was pure bullshit, you never know if the Invisible Hand would make any part of this come true later on (especially the parts marked in red).

programming. (Not true. Just more "delusion" about the woman I was obsessed with.) At the Korean restaurant near home. Angered by the possibility that I might have to only fit Kiersten's profile of me, not including the Monkey's profile of me; the additional characteristics from the Monkey I might need to falsely attribute to SDW in order to provide proofs for SDW's claim that I am indeed delusional, as Kiersten has claimed. (Ha! Quite right.) Required to collect more damages tomorrow. 2 B.

Again, I had by this time some vague comprehension of SDW's activities. What has happened seems to be: SDW is reporting me to law enforcement for cyberstalking and harboring delusional thoughts about her. Her reporting is then intercepted into the ICJ as evidence to justify the erasure of evidences.

<sup>42</sup> In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: “Was this visit related to the Chinese physicist who had caused the Hardliners’ actions in the first place (9 and 13 April)? Was he asked by the Hardliners to join Kiersten’s gang to make another false (more legal or not) report about my plagiarism? Note that this visit occurred 35 minutes before Wes would talk to me on the phone, during which the Hardliners would obtain more essential evidences. The Hardliners must have ordered the Chinese physicist to make a false report saying that I was simply summarizing what I had read about the solutions of Zeno’s Paradoxes and did not come up with anything ingenious here. This false report would then combine with my testimonies to begin 35 minutes later to establish that I was as ‘guilty’ as the women of the Secret Society.”

My plagiarism and/or misogynist rambling.

Now let's summarize. Today was the second day (after the definitive dismissal of the Homeland Security warning) that the Secret Society women would mobilize their volunteers to brainstorm how to prove to any law enforcement authority that Homeland Security was all right about me.

- (1) 5:11 AM, SDW called upon an Austin, Texas, volunteer to come examine my pollution of the TI discursive domain (1).
- (2) 5:20 AM, a Polish volunteer examined my naked picture of Angelica (a).
- (3) 5:45 AM, SDW called upon one of her Tampa friends (H866C) to come examine my pollution of the TI discursive domain (2).
- (4) 6:44 AM, SDW called on the Austin volunteer again to come subscribe to my blog's feed.
- (5) 7:13 AM, Angelica called on a volunteer from Portugal's Ministry of Finance to come examine my naked picture of her (b).
- (6) 7:54 AM, a scientist from the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration was asked to examine my violation of intellectual property rights.
- (7) 10:24 AM, a Wilfrid Laurier University volunteer examined my delusions about Snowden.
- (8) 11:54 AM, SDW called upon a Los Angeles volunteer (3).
- (9) 12:06 PM, a volunteer from the Disney Worldwide Services examined my supposed violation of intellectual property rights.
- (10) 1:01 PM, another Los Angeles volunteer examined my delusion about being chipped in the brain.
- (11) 2:18 PM, this Los Angeles volunteer looked at "Ying and Yang", I.
- (12) 2:25 PM, he came back to the blog post series /brain-chip/.
- (13) 2:36 PM, a Brooklyn volunteer examined page 2 of my TIH summary.
- (14) 3:39 PM, a volunteer from UK's Department for Environment, Food, and Rural Affairs examined my violation of intellectual property rights.
- (15) 4:29 PM, an Alabama volunteer examined my delusions about Obama.
- (16) 6:04 PM, SDW called on the Austin volunteer again (4).

7 PM, my conversation with Wes. Homeland Security CO chief finally obtained the first evidence with which to temporarily lock up the previous ICJ trial.

(17) 7:58 PM, a Surrey, British Columbia, volunteer examined my plagiarism of my theory on linear perspective.

8:17 PM, my latest blog, with my latest delusions about SDW – Homeland Security CO chief's second evidence with which to temporarily lock up the previous ICJ trial.

- (18) 8:40 PM, a third Los Angeles volunteer examined "My experience..."
- (19) 11:12 PM, he came again.

(20) 12:16 AM, Homeland Security CO chief instructed an Indian volunteer to do a strange search in order to generate evidence for the ICJ that my website was indeed filled with bizarre and crazy sexual contents. (His third evidence with which to temporarily lock up the previous ICJ trial.)

Besides the above-mentioned attempts, there was of course plenty of brainstorming about how to prove to any authority that I did plagiarize. Then about my harassment of my family members and computer-hacking and so on. What's most important was that Homeland Security CO chief had succeeded in temporarily preventing the Invisible Hand from reactivating the previous ICJ trial.

31 May (Saturday)

First, a note about myself. Slept 6 AM, and woke up 12:30 PM. Had doubts again that SDW did not include all the characteristics from the Monkey's false profile of me in her false reporting of me. The truth is probably somewhere in the middle between Kiersten's false profile and the Monkey's plus Kiersten's false profile of me. Since last night, she has probably insisted to law enforcement that they should classify one's collection as "hate crimes", even though law enforcement's profile shows something rather different. SDW probably really wants a backlash against Asians without the "artificial intelligence" part of the story. She really is capable of believing that governments and power elements in the society would sponsor such suicidal project. (Again, just remotely controlled to come up with more bullshit in order to make myself look delusional about the woman I was supposedly obsessed with – but would the Invisible Hand make something like this come true later on?)

To RDND to check on TRGTs. Realized: A more realistic vision of SDW's plan is probably something like this. She is told that my love for critical thinking and desire to know what concerns me is unacceptable in our American world (terra inverta), and so, instead of allowing me to study and think, she needs to target me and condition me to become addicted to committing crimes, so that I will be arrested, whereby I will be deprived of opportunities to study and to think, and forced to rid myself of any desire to know what concerns me. Then I'll join the American way, functioning like a robot without any awareness of why and whither. Thus, although she will be harming me in the short run, she will do me good in the long run. (Again, just remotely controlled to come up with more bullshit in order to make myself look delusional about the woman I was supposedly obsessed with – and you can be sure that the Invisible Hand would make something like this come true later on.) Again, I plead to the victims of my crimes: by suffering harm by me, you can achieve such a noble goal as getting me arrested so that my brain will be crushed and my natural human curiosity to know about myself be extinguished. I can't imagine my American victims disagreeing with such a noble goal of reforming me. Thus I assume, again, that I have my victims' consent in suffering my crimes. Especially the white Anglos who have built this country and the American (Opposite) Way (via inverta; c.f. Weber's observation of the Puritans in Die protestantische Ethik...) (This pleading should always stand as most correct!)

5 PM, at RDND. Was absolutely shocked – here comes my worthless reflection of the day: at least be amused by it. A few blocks away from HRMSA, and the white people are completely different. They aren't just brainless ("opposite"), but also fat. No pretty AWFs, only fat AWFs. Even more disgusting. This is suburban. I have been too focused on the evil urban AWFs, who are at least pretty and "fuckable". The suburban fat white people are truly Nietzsche's "Last Man/ Woman". Hence the rule of backlash established: When it comes to pretty AWFs, do not damage them physically; do not touch their fuckability. Only damage their properties. But the fat ones, break their bones, etc. This will reward

“naturalness”. For pretty women, as athletic, are at least “natural”, i.e. retaining the natural mobility proper to human species. This is why there is Olympics. It's not about being shallow. (This depends on what kind of “fat”, of course. Natural fat, or consumption fat.)<sup>43</sup>

Thus, back to HRMSA, 6:20 to 7 PM. Began envisaging my own “Insurgency Manual”. Ate at a bar, wrote, and did AWFs-watching. Then, past 9 PM, 10 N. Still, AWFs hard to hit. At least no Asians. Past 10 PM, waited for bus 232 going back to RDND. It never came. Upset. SDW's targeting: remotely controlled me to miss the bus somehow? She wanted me to hit PRDNTL. Did so. 1 W. Part of her plan to get me arrested? (Actually, it was just Homeland Security CO chief.) The police came, but one easily avoided their notice. Arrest or not, she definitely wants law enforcement to note me down as “hate crime”. (Bullshit. It's Homeland Security CO chief!) 1 B at PZZA. Then got on bus 232 to go back to the LAX station. One man played guitar loudly at the station to trouble me, to provoke me to anger/pain. SDW's programming, from Sonophobia to criminality. (Wrong.) On bus 3 going back to SM. One black man wearing earphones sat down in front of me. Her programming: whether she has intended the specific act or not, from now on, she wants me to be automatically provoked to criminality by these simple things without her ever intending them. Her intention/ programming is in the general sense. (Wrong again. Were the TMU and the detectives running surveillance on me?) At Promenade, 12:30 AM, and decided not to do W anymore. Bus 20 immediately came. During the whole night, thought: other than “Backlash”, the Macrospherians might want to establish foreign NGOs all over the US to convert American culture from via inverta to the “correct way” (?). Special NGOs will also fund “Backlash”. The immediate aftermath of the “Kxxxxxxx Affair” (leak) will be like the LA Riot after Rodney King's scandal. Americans will patrol their businesses with guns. Hence most will occur overseas. (Was I speaking BOL's plan? Would the Invisible Hand make any of this come true later on?)

While on the bus, suspected that the “realistic vision” about SDW's goal is just another delusional scenario she has programmed me to develop. Then anger/ pain attack over the perpetual waste of my time to develop delusions. (Right.) Required to do W again. Then realized this is in fact her goal:

SDW was told by the Russians, the Republicans, and the CIA that my brain is a very special entity, one of the most complex among the million or so people who have been chipped and whose brains have been scanned. It is certainly to a typical American brain what Classical Greek is to contemporary English slang. As such it must be destroyed. I therefore need to be remotely controlled to not only develop delusions, but also to commit violent crimes so as to get myself arrested and disposed of in prison. As it turns out, however, it's not quite possible to remotely control me to commit violent crimes: it's beyond my capacity. The alternative strategy is therefore developed: to condition me to become capable of being provoked to severe physical pain by the most ordinary sights and experiences (earphones, computer's freezing, missing the bus, ugly people) so that I will have to commit crimes just to kill pain. Then, as I become provoked to severe physical pain by ever more minute sights and experiences, I'll spend an increasing amount of time committing crimes to kill pain, until I'll have no time to study to develop my brain's complexity any further. Since the crimes I'm committing are of minor significance and therefore I am unlikely to be caught and sent to prison for a long time, this is the only way to cause me to waste my brain away. Of course, by preventing me from knowing what I want to know the most, namely, my own circumstances in society, SDW can also cause me to perpetually guess about it and guess wrong and thus make myself look delusional as well as waste my time away. Thus, my brain will be wasted away. The goal is certainly to, eventually, have me “graduate”, i.e. when I will be spending all my time suffering physical pain over the most minute things and developing wrong scenarios to waste my time away and make myself look delusional, without my perp, SDW, even programming me at all. It will become my life habit, to suffer pain, to kill pain by committing crimes, and to guess the unknowable [...], while she [goes] to Russia to live with her lover and [forgets] about me. Whether I'll ever get arrested is immaterial. The police will handle all crimes in accordance with usual procedures. There is nothing big to prosecute anyway. It's sad that Asians are just so safe.

<sup>43</sup> In the original version, Homeland Security CO chief had made sure to remotely control me to add this insanely offensive conclusion: “This was my thought at the time. If I should ever get to form my own ‘anti-xxxxxxx xxxx groups’ in Europe and Asia, I would hardly give a shit about AWF's ‘fuckability’.” Bullshit.

Again, it takes a whole village to waste away the one remaining complex brain like this. In order for me to waste my time away by committing crimes all day long, my victims have to suffer crimes by me. Since there is no purpose more noble for Americans than to waste away the human brain, I presume all victims of my crimes have voluntarily suffered my crimes in order to allow myself to waste my brain away. Thus, I assume I have my victims' consent in committing crimes against them. Especially the white Anglos who have built this country and the American (Opposite) Way [...]. Everybody shall know that xxxxxxxxxx, especially the xxxxx xxxxxx, are “brain-haters”.

Thus SDW has been for two months performing two noble tasks: (1) to make sure I conform to Kiersten's [false] profile of me in order to enable the erasure of evidences (to harm Russia and the world); (2) while making me conform to this profile, to waste my brain away (as a way to harm humanity by erasing the one remaining vestige of it). Of course she believes she is actually benefitting Russia. If she hates brain, how can anyone love it?

While I develop all these delusions about SDW's purpose in targeting me, however, the “filter” has always been at work. Thus, the previous delusion allowed me to develop the understanding that, for the Macrospherians, the primary targets of the backlash shall be white Anglo xxxxxxxxxx, the descendants of the Protestant ethic.

(While it was Homeland Security CO chief who wanted me to write all that offensive stuff in order that the detectives might be persuaded to change their mind about me, you can be sure, again, that the Invisible Hand would make something like what I had described here happen later on.) Got off the bus on LBR. Walked for a long time. 1 W. 2 SPC. 5 H. One AWF followed me, it seems. (She was most likely a store employee who noticed my graffiti.) Home by 3 AM.

Now the Secret Society women's operation on my website for today. 5:11 AM, I was editing my blog from home.

This was of course SDW herself. She was looking at my blog post for 10 May – presumably studying the “delusions” I had expressed in this blog post about her and Kiersten. Now this is our hypothesis about what’s going on with her today. Homeland Security CO chief must have gone to argue with the TMU detectives this morning with the evidence in hand which he had obtained yesterday (my conversation and blog post) to demonstrate that he was right about me. SDW, after being informed about this, was thus especially excited about another chance to explain to the TMU that I did develop bizarre delusions about her just as the Homeland Security warning had warned: she had already called on three persons to testify to such effect, and now she was personally testifying about such too. To settle the matter, the TMU (under the Invisible Hand’s instruction) instructed SDW to show up at the FFCHS meeting tomorrow. (More on this later.) In any case, it’s quite amazing that she was home again and not at work.<sup>45</sup>

<sup>45</sup> In the original version, this wrong interpretation at this point: “She was certainly making a false report to the TMU saying I threatened to ‘take her down’ on my blog. Note that she looked at my blog post only via Google cache, in order to avoid my detection. (Again, like Angelica before her, she didn’t know that such attempt was futile since Google still had to call up the JPEG images directly from my site.) Secondly, the fact that her IP address was suddenly traced to San Marcos instead of San Diego probably means that, as her stalking claim against me was clearly going nowhere, she decided to temporarily move out of her Encinitas home and move into the residence of her brother James (who had many houses around Southern California because of his real estate dealings, including, presumably, this one in San Marcos). She would be complaining: ‘I’m being stalked, he knows where I live, and yet the police have refused to help me!’ And so, like Angelica who, last year, fled to Mexico from Northern California simply because I knew where she was, the ‘stalking victim’ had to vacate her home when the police had refused to lock up the 'stalker' forever even though he clearly had no means to get near her and was barely aware that he was being investigated for 'stalking'. SDW's IP address would not return to the San Diego location until the middle of August, which means that she would be 'avoiding me' for the next two and a half month." In reality, SDW was simply at home in Encinitas and didn't temporarily move to anywhere else.

7:29 PM, my wrong scenario at a glance – although it's Homeland Security CO chief who wanted me to write all this bullshit so that he can have evidence that I was delusional, you never know if the Invisible Hand might make any part of it come true later on (after making modifications, e.g. backlash against "liberal progressives" rather than against "white Anglo Americans"):

Now, let's summarize.<sup>49</sup> Because Homeland Security CO chief had obtained a few evidences yesterday demonstrating that his warning about me might be correct after all, the Secret Society women (especially SDW) were quite excited today and immediately mobilized volunteers to brainstorm how to come up with more evidences to prove to the TMU that Homeland Security was indeed all right about me.

- (1) 6:38 AM, SDW called upon an Irish volunteer (1).
- (2) 9:35 AM, a Taipei volunteer examined Angelica's naked picture (a).
- (3) 11:45 AM, SDW called upon a Chester, Virginia, volunteer (2).
- (4) 11:47 AM, a Birdsboro, Pennsylvania, volunteer examined my delusion about Obama.
- (5) 11:49 AM, SDW called upon a Beersheba Springs volunteer (3).

By this time, Homeland Security CO chief had secured from the TMU one more chance for his star witnesses to report to them about me.

- (6) 12:55 PM, SDW herself explained my delusions about her to the TMU (4).
- (7) 1:42 PM, a Jacksonville volunteer reported on my delusions about Khalezov.
- (8) 2:19 PM, a Dubai volunteer reported on my crazy letter to the North Korean ambassador to the UN.
- (9) 4:44 PM, Angelica's Stockton volunteer reported to the TMU that I did want to hurt myself and others due to my delusion about being chipped in the brain.
- (10) 4:53 PM, a Podol'sk, Russia, volunteer reported on my naked picture of Angelica (b).
- (11) 4:57 PM, Shizuka also reported on my harassment of her (but as an informant).
- (12) 5:42 PM, the Podol'sk volunteer came again to report on the same thing.

<sup>49</sup> In the original version, my conclusion at this point: "As you can see, today SDW and the Secret Society [women] had decided to concentrate on reporting me as terribly crazy and delusional and dangerous to others on this account. There were 13 such false reports made today. The Hardliners must have seen the SWS simulation results yesterday showing that, today, the Secret Society would concentrate their efforts thusly, and this was why, yesterday, they ordered Wes to solicit my confession confirming that I wasn't delusional at all. All this was important because, tomorrow, FFCHS would have its regular meeting in the community center in West Hollywood. The choice of this location (much more convenient to me than the usual location in the pizza store in Huntington Beach) was certainly not accidental. While SDW was deciding whether to show up (since I would very likely come), the TMU must have encouraged her to show up to test my reaction. Not knowing that the TMU was trying to trap her, she agreed. The Secret Society [women] had decided on the operation thusly: Veronica would pay her private investigators to get SDW to wear a wire, and the [rest of the Secret] Society [women] would then request that the TMU, on the ground of respecting 'victims' confidentiality', not conduct surveillance on me during my interaction with SDW, but instead rely solely on the [Secret] Society [women's] reports about how I interacted with her. The [Secret] Society [women] thus requested exclusive access to the wire which SDW would carry. (The usual strategy: to monopolize the flow of information to law enforcement under the cover of 'victims' confidentiality' in order to guarantee deception of law enforcement officers.) The TMU pretended to agree. Meanwhile, however, the TMU had developed their own plans. Since, given the Hardliners' agenda, they had technically speaking violated SDW's (and others') 'victim confidentiality' by hiring scholars to assess my writings, they could use this opportunity to save themselves. They made their appeal to the District Attorney requesting that, since all the inconsistencies they had found in the Secret Society [women's] reports about me seemed to indicate that these women were using 'victim confidentiality' to cover up their fraudulent activities (clearly an instance of 'abuse of process'), they be allowed to ignore 'victim confidentiality' and conduct their own surveillance on the FFCHS meeting tomorrow in order to catch the [Secret] Society [women] committing frauds. The District Attorney agreed." This conclusion is really half-true, half-false, and half-prophetic. The TMU had indeed encouraged SDW to show up tomorrow in order to catch her, and her companions, committing fraud (lying about my being a danger to them when they clearly didn't believe I was dangerous) – but this only in order to dismiss the Homeland Security warning about me one more time and dismantle Homeland Security CO chief's claim that these women were "expert witnesses". (The italicized portions marked in red were correct conclusions.) Meanwhile, this bullshit about the Hardliners using SWS to foresee the Secret Society women's future actions – that would happen later, but not now. (The regular portion marked in red was "delusion" which the Invisible Hand would make come true later on.)

(13) 5:43 PM, Angelica was also having the Doylestown volunteer report on my naked picture of her (c).

(14) 6:39 PM, a Vancouver volunteer reported on my particular brand of misogynist ideology.

(15) 6:47 PM, a Sherwood, Oregon, volunteer reported on my delusions about SDW, Ekaterina, and Russia.

(16) 7:24 PM, SDW called upon a German volunteer (5).

(17) 10:10 PM, a Berkeley volunteer examined/ reported on my delusions about the chips inside my brain.

(18) 11:35 PM, Shizuka rejoined the discussion.

(19) 11:43 PM, a Waldorf, Maryland, volunteer examined my particular brand of misogynist ideology.

(20) 1:41 AM, SDW called upon a Portland, Oregon, volunteer (6).

(21) 4:16 AM, Shizuka was still in the discussion.

We of course don't list here the ton of brainstorming and reporting about my supposed plagiarism (including one volunteer from the Transport for London) and then the little bit of brainstorming about my computer-hacking and harassment of my family members.

1 June (Sunday; meeting SDW)

First, a note about myself. Caught up with studying (Carla Shih, etc.) until 5 or 6 AM. Shower. In bed by 7 AM. Troubled by the discomfort with my broken tooth. Fell asleep by 8 AM or so. Woke up 10 AM. To Orthodox Church. There, 11 AM. Saw VLT briefly, and she was nice and tried to smell me. Told her I couldn't find the perfume she had recommended. Afterwards, found VLT, and told her that I had found her commercial on Youtube. Then sat with Elaine (with her daughter and son). Then out to look for VLT. She wasn't so friendly now. She wanted to chat with Fr. John. Left her alone. She was leaving for Greece Tuesday. Went back to sit with Elaine's daughter's friends. Left 1:15 PM: never got to say more to VLT. Needed to hurry to the FFCHS meeting. Began to feel anger/ pain (SDW is truly correct; this is not a sting op on her, because, even if it is, her fall will be in the distant future, which doesn't exist; I'm truly sacrificed because, in this world, stupid, bad people always win). (Right.) I was being prepared to commit more crimes tonight. (Right.)

At the bus stop, SM/VRMT, 2 PM. On the bus. Tried to do reading to save time. Past my destination by four stops. Off the bus, upset that my mind has so disintegrated due to remotely programmed perpetual physical pain, and the consequent perpetual attempt to save time, which had enabled the control center to easily program me to miss my bus stops, etc. Arrived at Plummer Park (where the FFCHS meeting would take place) around 3 PM. Outside, and SDW was already there. She was wearing sunglasses. She looked very old. This made completely unreal the scenario that it is in fact she who has targeted me. (Right.) Uploaded my recordings, and sneaked around. I was looking for chances to place my recorder near her while hiding elsewhere in order to intercept her rumoring about me. Pretended to charge my laptop in the hall way. Being warned by the employees again. Hid outside the backdoor. Finally, I decided to go inside the meeting in order to confront SDW. The only way to verify my hypotheses about her was via real interaction with her. When the meeting was over, I called onto her. She seemed nervous, but tried to act normal. Of course, since she had tried to exterminate me in the past two months behind my back, and now I was standing in front of her. (Right.) She gladly responded to all my questions, telling the truth about 60 percent of the time and lying about 40 percent of the time. It was then that I realized that the extent of my "delusions" about her and the whole "scandal" was in fact far greater than I have expected. In the next 12 hours, would realize:

What has really happened in the past two months is that the White Roses have allowed A/ K to access the control center to program me and target me while making me believe that it is SDW [who's] targeting me. They then instructed SDW to report me to law enforcement for obsessing and being delusional over her (for believing that she hovers over me like some malicious God). Thus, virtually the entire content of this blog in regard to SDW is false information. SDW has tried to harm me by falsely reporting me [...], but without much harmful intention [...]. She doesn't hate Asians (correct), and doesn't hate me for obsessing over me (wrong). She is not disgusted with me (wrong). She is simply indifferent toward me, does whatever she is told to do, and, since she doesn't actually know much about my story with Russia, truly believes that I'm by nature crazy and delusional (for believing that EKT would want to marry such worthless crap as I am). (Right. As you can see, while I have awakened from my delusion about SDW's targeting of me from the control center, I still didn't know who was really targeting me from there, i.e., Homeland Security CO chief and the Monkey. And, although SDW didn't hate Chinks now, you never know if she might not hate Chinks later on.)

At the end of the meeting, tried again to secretly record SDW's rumors. When leaving, filmed her car. This is why she has changed her license plate. (Really? Was I right?) I have thus also completed the element of "stalking" in addition to "cyberstalking" and "criminal recording". By this time, have realized the goal of the operation: I must fit Kiersten's and the Monkey's false profile of me for life (right); both to destroy my brain and to erase evidences (wrong: in order to save Homeland Security and Russia from conviction). Those elements of the false profile which are impossible to appear in the real world (e.g. carrying fake DVDs) are excused on the ground that I have admitted them out of my delusions. (Really?)

Past 8 PM, on the bus, and wrote the above down. Suddenly disabled by severe pain caused by hunger. Then an urgent need to defecate. Stopped by a burger shop on SM (West Hollywood). Prevented from writing down the insights immediately. Then, Starbucks, SM Blvd. Defecated in the restroom. Again, the employee knocked on the door loudly to provoke me ("Are you alright?"). Normal, but required to be annoyed. Checked some TRGTs. 10 PM, to SM on SM Blvd. 2 N. At a coffeehouse. Realized the outline of the operation (true version, supposedly). (Not.) SDW has never targeted me with mind-control, but A/ K with the help of the CIA, with the goal of permanently turning me into a criminal and making people forever remember me as racially over-sensitive.<sup>50</sup> Thus, decided to attack xxxxxxxxxx for the rest of my life. (What Mr Homeland Security CO chief wanted me to do.) Hated the CIA as well, even though this is what they have wanted. 2 B, 3 SPC, 2 W. Anger/ pain attack intermittently over the fact that one has been transformed from being racially sober to being racially over-sensitive (making a fool out of oneself). The "American requirement": must see racial problems when none exist. If you don't see any, they will put a chip into your brain to make sure that you do. (Right.)

Over the next 12 hours will also lose a lot of my interests in Russia. Part of it is because much of the scenarios which have reignited my love for Russia have turned out to be "delusional". The main reason is that, in order to save Russia, I have had to become criminal and delusional to make myself look bad for the rest of my life, and that I have been saving Russia by becoming criminal and delusional for four years. (Right, but for a different reason: I needed to commit crimes and look delusional in order to protect Russia from the CIA!) It's really an insult to me. Thus, you can truly say that nobody has sacrificed for Russia's wellbeing as much as I have, in the entire history of Russia. (Right.)

The mechanism is supposedly (what follows is complete bullshit, although parts of it might indeed become true later on): in order to preserve past ICJ evidences against change, attempt has to be made by the conspirators to erase them. In order for my conspirators to erase them, I have to become violent and delusional (in accordance with A/ K's conception of me), and this, for the rest of my life. When the past ICJ evidences are so preserved, then both Russia and the world will be saved (the world in the sense of sustainable civilization). Although the world is not worth as much as my life, Russia is. But I have lost interest in this because it's too insulting. I have thus lost all interest in EKT and going to Russia.

Since A/ K's desire to make me violent and delusional is just the general American people's intention, I presume that, when I commit crimes against the xxxxxxxx people, I have their absolute consent. When something they own is broken and they jump up and down very upset and calling and reporting it to the police, if the police then tell them that they know who did it and that he did it because, per some women's wish, he needs to make himself look bad, disgusting, delusional, and violent, so as to discredit himself and waste his brain away, presumably the victims will feel a lot better. Certainly, anybody, or at least any American, will not feel that he or she has suffered in vain if the purpose is to make me become a bad-to-the-bone delusional criminal. Making me look like a bad crazy person, a bad crazy criminal, is certainly worth the damage and a very happy enterprise indeed. This is in fact what they have always wanted. When they are angry, then, they are in fact just "acting" – simply to ascertain the fact that I am crazy and violent. Thus law enforcement, and Attorney General, shouldn't be misled into believing that the victims have not consented to being victimized. It's all a reality TV show, the purpose being to make me look bad. Besides this, by suffering my crimes and making me look bad, the American people [can] get to save the world and Russia. They thus would in fact find their victimization extremely fulfilling. (Much of this, although negative thoughts, is quite true.)

My interaction with SDW today is recorded in: "IMPffchsmaura\_6\_1\_14\_330-755PM.MP3". Now, some highlights, in order to get into the details. (Reviewed from 1:15:00 onward.) Various speakers speaking. Matthew Barasch (the organizer of today's meeting in DeDe's stead) came to harass me: he interrogated me, and wanted to see my ID (1:35:00). Note that I began webcasting SDW around 5:41 PM. Meeting adjourned on 2:19:00. I went up to SDW to greet her on 2:20:30 (around 5:50 PM). About her brother James on 2:43:00. (Note that she pretended to not know that I knew something about her brother.) About her past reports to the FBI. Her worry about her job (3:03:00). About SDW's friend in Alaska, "Anne" (3:05:00). About his first boyfriend, the doctor from Afghanistan (3:19:00). About her brother James again (3:21:00). SDW was an English major before going into nursing (3:28:00). Her description of her old neighborhood (3:33:00). About her 13.10.2013 post (3:37:00). SDW said she didn't know which way to go to go home (3:45:00). Note that this was the only instance where she acted like she was being "stalked" by me. I asked SDW whether she was Googling for my blog post about her on 3 April. She denied that it was she (3:53:00). (She was of course lying, just as she was about not maintaining contact with "Anne".) When somebody asked her for her email address (was he pretending?), I grabbed onto the opportunity to also ask her to give me her email address (3:54:00). She hesitated for one second, but, in order to pretend to not be pulling pranks behind my back, i.e. in order to act "normal", she did. How convenient! The other guy also wanted my email address. SDW then talked about the "perping" at her church (4:03:00).

It seems that, by this time, SDW and the rest of the Secret Society women (Ekaterina included) had finally recovered slightly from their initial shock and resumed mobilizing volunteers to brainstorm how to prove to law enforcement that the Homeland Security warning about me was at least right about something.

9:56 PM, I searched for James Sheehan's information on Intelius while in Starbucks. Did Homeland Security CO chief, because of the current emergency situation, want me to do some quick "cyberstalking" of SDW in order to have at least some temporary evidence with which to lock up the previous ICJ trial for the time being?

My plagiarism.

Let's summarize. As SDW prepared her trip to Los Angeles, the rest of the Secret Society women continued to mobilize their volunteers to report on my website in order to convince the TMU that the Homeland Security warning about me was accurate:

- (1) 6:15 AM, an Opera Mini volunteer reported on my front page (my delusion about my involvement in an ICJ trial).
- (2) 7:32 – 7:35 AM, Shizuka was discussing me with a Hong Kong and a South Korean volunteer.
- (3) 8:15 AM, Angelica was telling Ekaterina's Tallinn friend about (or getting her to report on) my naked picture of her.
- (4) 12:15 PM, another Opera Mini volunteer reported on my particular brand of misogynist ideology (elementarystructures.htm).
- (5) 12:52 PM, a Glendale, Arizona, volunteer reported on my delusions about being chipped in the brain.
- (6) 1:14 PM, a Los Angeles volunteer reported on my delusion about Snowden.
- (7) 2:39 PM, this Los Angeles volunteer reported on the May blog posts.
- (8) 2:43 PM, she reported on the April blog posts.
- (9) 2:57 PM, she reported on the March blog posts.
- (10) 3:04 PM, she reported on the February blog posts. This volunteer was evidently somebody important, perhaps somebody who knew me.

By this time, I was in Plummer Park and had seen SDW.

- (11) 3:16 PM, a Mumbai, India, volunteer reported on my delusion about President Obama.
- (12) 3:43 PM, a Portland, Oregon, volunteer reported on my delusions about synthetic telepathy.
- (13) 5:21 PM, a Montreal volunteer reported on my violation of Prof. Ménard's intellectual property rights. (Prof. Ménard's students, all the way in Montreal, were also watching closely the FFCHS meeting.)
- (14) 5:38 – 6 PM, a Santa Cruz volunteer began reporting on my obsession with, and delusions about, SDW, just as I started welcoming her. In the next 20 minutes, she would have reported on my April blog posts, my September 2012 blog posts (my search for the nanochips inside my brain), and my 11.03.2014 blog post (more obsession with SDW).

From 6 PM onward, volunteers also concentrated on reporting my supposed plagiarism to the TMU.

- (15) 6:57 PM, a Lucknow, India, volunteer reported that I really did believe that there were chips planted inside my brain.

Then, from 8 PM onward, no more activities: minutes after I had left SDW, the TMU had informed her and the rest of the Secret Society women that the Homeland Security warning about me was once again dismissed. They didn't explain why: it's clearly evident from SDW's interaction with me that she, along with the rest of the Secret Society women, didn't really believe I was dangerous (that everyone had been jumping up and down about this dangerous schizophrenic and misogynist terrorist "stalker" simply because everyone enjoyed the excitement and wanted that precious title of "being a victim of male sexual aggression"). Shocked, all the women went silent (with Ekaterina agonizing over the matter too all the way in South Korea).

Then, 9:56 PM, Homeland Security CO chief wanted me to do some quick “cyberstalking” of SDW in order to have temporary evidence in the ICJ to lock up the previous ICJ trial for the time being.

(16) By 10 PM, the Secret Society women had resumed mobilizing volunteers: the task at hand was to find ways to prove that I did plagiarize so that, being at least right about me in one thing, the Homeland Security warning can still be retained in the American law enforcement circles.

(17) 1:19 AM, Angelica asked a Sydney volunteer to brainstorm how to prove to the TMU that there were indeed naked pictures of her on my website.<sup>51</sup>

And of course, in the above, we didn't mention all the reports about my plagiarism earlier in the day plus the other reports about my computer-hacking and harassment of my family members and so on.

In the original version, we have this half-correct, half-wrong conclusion at this point – what is correct is marked in red, with our comments from this time around in brackets and italicized:

We must make two comments in particular. First, since SDW was wearing a wire to sting me today, she would have had to come to Los Angeles a long time before the FFCHS meeting was scheduled to begin. Thus, she should have been in Los Angeles conferring with Kiersten, Angelica, Veronica, and Dr P at least since noon. All the false reports that were filed with the TMU (about my plagiarism and the delusional state of my mind) from 10 AM onward until 5 PM would have been directed by somebody else in the Secret Society. If it wasn't Karin – if Karin was also there conferring with SDW – then it was somebody whom I didn't know but who was close to the core members of the Secret Society. [Maybe it's Ekaterina!] The private investigators whom Veronica had hired would of course also be there, since it was they who were going to wire up SDW. [So far, so good.] Behind Veronica's back, however, the private investigators were secretly cooperating with the TMU as well, so that the TMU officers would also have access to both the surveillance which had already been set up on the ceiling and the wire which SDW was wearing. [This is totally false. The investigators never betrayed the Secret Society women since they were loyal servants of Homeland Security CO chief.] Secondly, while the false reports which the Secret Society had been making about me remained in the same genre (“delusional”, “violent”, “plagiarizing”, and others like “sexually perverted”, “misogynist”, and presumably “racist”), the content of these reports must have been significantly upgraded, in order to avoid the pitfalls which the TMU had already discovered and earlier pointed out. It's not clear whether the Secret Society's nightly discussion with the TMU had borne any fruits; it seemed that the TMU had told the women that they would render their new decision only tomorrow – since, as you shall see, it was from 3 June onward that all activities on SDW's Facebook group suddenly ceased, indicating that she was suddenly “afraid” of my “online stalking”. [This is wrong to the extent that the TMU had already rendered their decision tonight.] The Secret Society would have thought that they had played their most important card with the Santa Cruz person's false reporting from 5:38 PM onward, in combination with the core members' false interpretation of my activities inside the Plummer Park community center (“He was sneaking around SDW looking for chances to hurt her...”). The TMU officers, however, would have seen a completely different picture. They had seen that, in order to not raise my suspicion, SDW pretended as if nothing were going on. If I asked her for her email address, she would provide it. If I asked her any questions at all, she would answer them – even though she would be lying half of the time. Her demeanor clearly demonstrated that she was not afraid of me at all – in blatant contradiction to the Secret Society's claim that I was extremely violent because of the delusional state of my mind, and therefore extremely dangerous to SDW; and that she was therefore terrified of me. In reality, she was not afraid of me at all, because she was aware that I wasn't physically violent at all. She liked to portray me as violent and dangerous because that's how she could persuade law enforcement to lock me up forever without telling me why and then remove my website. The TMU knew that this was the case, and now they had obtained clear and indisputable evidences. In fact, the TMU officers had probably instructed SDW to remain calm while interacting with me in order to not raise my suspicion. If so, then, when SDW obeyed the instruction, she was totally unaware that she was falling into a trap. All the women in the Secret Society never noticed that, when they tried to act "normal" toward me in order to not raise my suspicion, and when they cheerfully supplied me with any information I asked from them in order, again, to not raise my suspicion, they were really undermining their own case, which was all based on the claim that I was physically violent and coveting their private information. Everybody else can see clearly that I wasn't dangerous at all and wasn't stalking anybody, and that neither SDW nor anybody else in the Secret Society believed that I was dangerous and coveting their private information. The women had made up their entire stories because their real concern – that I wrote about them or mentioned their names or hinted at their existence on my blog – wasn't any law enforcement issue at all. The TMU officers must have been absolutely struck by the apparent mental retardation of the women inside the Secret Society who had never noticed how unbelievable their stories were and how bizarre their request was. For SDW and her women "friends", hinting at her existence on one's blog without her consent was a "crime" demanding life-long imprisonment without charge – something which, in modern era, not even heads of states, not even the most frightening dictators, had ever done, with the exception of Kim Jong-Il, perhaps. Thus, even though, under the American justice system, I had absolutely no rights whatever, the treatment which SDW had demanded of law enforcement in my regard was still strangely out of the ordinary. And yet SDW and her gang never seemed to have noticed it.<sup>52</sup>

<sup>52</sup> The following is left-over from the original version and is, at this time, no longer quite valid – per our explanation this time around: In Diane Ducret's Femmes de dictateurs, II, we read of this incident involving Kim Jong-Il: « La mémoire de Hye-rim devenait trop encombrante. Jong-il devient méfiant envers ceux qui ont associés au nom de son premier amour. Ses agents viennent un matin à la porte de la danseuse qui était sa meilleure amie à l'école et l'emmènent avec toute sa famille dans le tristement célèbre camp de prisonniers de Yodok. Ses parents y décéderont de malnutrition, et son fils de 9 ans s'y noiera en cherchant de l'eau à la rivière. Après neuf années à Yodok, la ballerine brisée recevra enfin l'explication de cet internement : Un agent de sécurité me dit : Song Hye-rim n'est pas la femme de King Jong-il, et ils n'ont pas d'enfants. Ce sont des rumeurs sans fondement. Si tu parles de cela, on ne te pardonnera plus. » (Les trois grâces de Kim Jong-il, p. 283.) Hye-rim was Kim's first love, the famous movie star girlfriend of his. When Kim's sister and father broke up the relationship, however, she went insane, and, despite Kim's effort to cure her by sending her to the best mental hospital in Moscow, she was still insane, and soon couldn't even recognize him anymore. This was the most embarrassing affair in Kim's life, so that he wished nobody in the world would know, or talk, about it. SDW, as noted, strangely believes that she needs to be respected in the same way as Kim Jong-Il was in North Korea. If anybody talks about her on his blog, he needs to be secretly arrested without knowing why and sent to labor camp to rot away without understanding why. Meanwhile, of course, she can talk about anybody she feels like on her blog: about how she made false reports to the FBI about her first boyfriend's being a terrorist to ruin his life, and about how her former roommates gang-stalked her (imaginary events), etc. This, because she is a superior being, at least to me.

Of course, in SDW's mind, "talking about her" was indeed equivalent to "stalking", and she was probably aware that no laws anywhere had ever defined "stalking" that way. But she must have thought the laws "unfair", i.e. it's the laws' fault, not her fault, that she had to make up ten thousand stories about my violent nature and stalking in order to make a "stalker" out of me. But the TMU officers must have been severely struck by SDW's profound ability to read meanings of "sexual victimization" into every event and occurrence where nothing whatsoever had happened at all. Where is the "stalking" when you ask her for her email address and she provides it to you graciously? This woman was truly a "professional victim": interpreting "sexual victimization" out of every meaningless and ordinary occurrence against all odds was her "specialization", i.e. the special talent which she alone, and nobody else, possessed – had she taken a class to learn this "special skill" in the Catholic University of America? – and in fact the only thing she knew how to do in life!

The errors in the above half-correct, half-wrong interpretation are: (1) the Secret Society women's ultimate goal is to be recognized as my "victims" and "expert witnesses" on me, all in accordance with the Homeland Security warning about me. It's not about whether I had talked about them on my blog or any striving on their part to put me away for life for talking about them, but about being a "victim" who is intellectually superior to the "victimizer" (in that she, the victim, can understand the dumb victimizer inside out). (2) The Secret Society women, and SDW in particular, had put such an exaggerated demand on law enforcement (that mere blogging about a woman be considered "stalking") only because the Homeland Security warning about me had completely distorted their sense of reality, not because they were by nature this dumb (this much like Kim Jong-Il). Again, these errors have occurred in the original version because, at the time, I wasn't yet aware that the Homeland Security warning about me was the pivot around which the whole matter revolved. (I'm aware of it today even though I'm still forbidden to see the warning myself.)

2 June (Monday)

First, a note about myself. At TNT, 12:30 PM. Two black guys sat down behind me to talk loudly. Anger/ pain attack: SDW's manner of targeting, Sonophobia. Played loud music (in earphones) to cover up. 12:40 PM, realized:

CORRECTIVE TO NEW FEMINISM: The White Roses have orchestrated the Kxxxxxxx Affair to prepare for (1) the upcoming backlash against women's working; and (2) the upcoming global backlash against all things American. However, I must correct my earlier error. While scientific evidences have generally indicated that women are slightly intellectually inferior to men, this is in fact not the reason why the White Roses want women to stop working. Most jobs in society simply require a person to work like a robot, so that qualification for the job is actually not important at all, i.e. where the issue of intellectual superiority/ inferiority does not actually matter. The real problem which the White Roses are wrestling with is that there are simply too many people working, so that the economy has become overloaded. Similar situation during the dot com boom. There are too many people trying to create a new dot com business, resulting in a bubble, and thus causing the whole economy to blow up. You cannot have both the husband and the wife working. One of them has to stop working. But the White Roses have decided to tell the woman to go home, according to the following rationale: Most professions are in fact harmful to the world/ human civilization. Thus, when there are enough men working to harm the world, why are women joining men to harm the world, just in order to prove that they are equal to men? It's like: if there are so many men who are criminals and few women who are, why are women getting upset and wanting to become criminals too, just to prove that they can do crimes as well as men can (are equal to men)? New Feminism is thus: women should do something else to prove themselves. This in fact must have been what the SWS simulation has shown: there are too many people working. And this is in fact the real message to Russian women.<sup>53</sup>

I realized this while sitting outside TNT. I realized that I was duped into saying something misogynist just in order to fit Kiersten's profile of me as a misogynist (for the sake of the ICJ evidentiary record). (Right! In order to satisfy Homeland Security CO chief!) In reality, of course, I don't really care whether women work or not; I in fact prefer that women work, for otherwise, if they all stay home, where are you going to meet them? What a bad trick! All because I was merely trying to describe what the SWS simulation has shown; thus this is how the control center was able to trick someone without the slightest tendency toward the traditional notions of gender roles into speaking like a conservative: by making him believe that this is what the SWS simulation has shown when he is trying to guess it. The amazing thing is that the control center has done it again! The White Roses probably don't care either whether women work or not. By making me believe that they want women to stay home, the control center could make me say something "traditionalist" to correct my earlier statement; and yet I have just made myself look like a "misogynist" (conservative) again, because most people don't have the capacity to distinguish whether I'm trying to describe other people's opinions or whether I'm expressing my own. (Right! I had finally deciphered Homeland Security CO chief's bad trick!)<sup>54</sup>

My right conclusion in the original version: Note that I also posted on my blog, while at TNT, a new post to correct my earlier statements that SDW had become racist toward Asians. I was clearly wrong before such as was indicated by SDW's behavior yesterday. The TMU would certainly use my new post to buttress their conclusion that I wasn't quite really "delusional" in the Secret Society [women's] sense, but was just "wrong".

<sup>53</sup> Again, was I really speaking the opinion of the Invisible Hand and BOL? Would Best Mommy later on really so instruct the feminists when it comes time to create "New Feminism"? But, as of now, it's just Homeland Security CO chief wanting me to write something misogynist so that he could have temporary evidence in the ICJ to lock up the previous ICJ trial for the time being.

<sup>54</sup> In the original version, my wrong conclusion at this point: "But, presumably, as the TMU was concluding their case under the Hardliners' instruction, I was programmed to realize my earlier error while committing a new one in order for them to conclude that I 'sort of' fit Kiersten's description of me as a 'misogynist' (a traditionalist)."

Did the Invisible Hand send Rod in today to collect more evidence from me for the TMU?<sup>55</sup>

2:25 PM, realized also that SDW's brother James is in the real estate business, and that this is why I have been programmed to xxxxxx real estate companies (evidence of my violent intention against SDW's brother). (Wrong.) To WLA to check on TRGTs. Checked the news of the prime minister's resignation in ACHBSIA. Concluded that it has to do with the replacement of evidences. (Wrong.) Wouldn't the Panistas find the European election strange? They must have already fallen under the Macrospherians' command. (Bullshit.) Only by 9 PM would I realize that they must have been told that the Republicans have command over the anti-EU parties and will command them to do things to make themselves look bad. (Wrong again.) Then on the bus to go to the Orthodox Church. Was able to study on the bus. People were talking behind me, causing me physical pain. Becoming like SDW, "Sonophobia". Was remotely controlled to misremember the timing of the catechism class, and so late by 1 hour (8 PM). Not terribly angry. Then was remotely controlled to need to defecate. Home first to use the toilet, hence was unable to do Carolyn. 10 PM, to WLA. Couldn't do the Wine House, a taxi driver in front of the strip club. 3 W (Lion Windows and Doors). Bus 4 home. 2 AM, one black guy bumped into my laptop while I was writing about [BOL's] New Feminism. Extreme pain. Required by my conspirators to attack xxxxxxxxx immediately. (It was just Homeland Security CO chief, dummy! Now that he needed evidence to revive his warning about me!) Off the bus, SM/ SWTZR, 1 W (J's CF). 3 SPC. 3 H. Must spend time committing crimes instead of writing or reading or using my brain.

(It's important to note here Homeland Security CO chief's new plan: to remotely control me to "stalk" Carolyn again so that, when Carolyn shall go to the TMU to complain about me, he could have at least some temporary evidence with which to justify his warning about me in the ICJ and lock up the <sup>55</sup> The first email was sent on 12:05 PM, the second on 1:10 PM, and the third on 2:37 PM. Did the TMU need more evidence to dismiss the Homeland Security warning? How did I miss Rod?

previous ICJ trial for the time being. But, for whatever reason, I didn't make it because I suddenly needed to defecate. Did the Invisible Hand interrupt Homeland Security CO chief's plan? But the latter would succeed tomorrow!)

Now the Secret Society women's operation on my website for today. 4:02 AM, I was editing my blog from home. I would delete Homeland Security CO chief's latest evidence!

Let's summarize today's operations.<sup>58</sup> As expected, after the TMU had dismissed the Homeland Security warning once again yesterday, the Secret Society women were back to brainstorming with their volunteers about how to prove to any law enforcement authority that Homeland Security was all right about me.

- (1) 8:43 AM, a Hong Kong volunteer examined Angelica's naked picture (a).
- (2) 8:47 AM, SDW called upon a Defiance, Ohio, volunteer (1).
- (3) 1:01 PM, a Nottingham volunteer examined Angelica's naked picture (b).

<sup>58</sup> In the original version, our wrong interpretation runs thusly at this point – we shall preserve some of the essentials here in case anything like it might happen in the future or the psychological analysis, though wrong-headed at this point, might prove useful later on (what happens to be correct we shall again mark in red): "... You thus see that, before the TMU rendered its final decision, the Secret Society was concentrating on fixing their reports about my plagiarism (or stealing other people's intellectual properties) – in contrast with yesterday's situation, where, when SDW's sting on me was about to begin, the Secret Society shifted its 'genre' toward my delusional mind and hence posing imminent dangers to others. From 1:50 PM onward, however, the Secret Society would shift the genre of its false reports once again toward my delusional mind, my delusional obsession with women, and hence my posing imminent danger to them. 1:58 PM, another false report about my delusional obsession with, and desire to hurt, SDW. 2:08 PM, false report about my delusional belief about 'chips inside my brain'. 2:22 PM, false report about my delusional obsession with, and desire to hurt, SDW. 2:50 PM, more legal report about my plagiarism. Then, a hiatus of two hours. As noted, it might very well be during these two hours that the TMU had at last communicated to SDW and the rest of her gang the bad news that they would now definitively dismiss her (and the entire Society's) stalking claim against me, saying they didn't find the Society's report about my behavior yesterday at the Plummer Park Community Center to be credible. 'But he was sneaking around wearing a mask; and he tried to film SDW with the webcam on his computer!' Thus must have everybody protested. Because I was convinced that SDW was targeting me – well, she really was targeting me, just not in the way I thought – yesterday I was trying out my old trick of trying to place my recorder near her and then disappear to elsewhere in order to possibly intercept her talking to others about me: perhaps I would be able to get some clues about how she was targeting me exactly. You see, as soon as I had arrived in the Park and saw SDW standing there with others, I realized that something was very wrong with my belief about how the government had set up some devices in her home allowing her to access the computer inside the control center to remotely control me to commit crimes through the infliction of severe physical pain on me, etc. I had to get to the bottom of the matter. The TMU had of course observed me sneaking around looking for chances to spy on SDW. But, once again, they concluded that I wasn't trying to hurt her – and wasn't even obsessed with her at all. I presume the TMU had some idea that I just really, really wanted to know what SDW was doing to me behind my back. What was going on here was that [Mr] Homeland Security CO chief, because he hated me, was inside the control center to continually inflict severe physical pain on me and program my thought-process, all in order to prompt me to commit crimes and speak crazy things to make myself look delusional – and thus to give Kiersten's Secret Society reasons to complain about me and to request law enforcement to take me down. However, no matter how hard he tried – no matter how much pain he inflicted on me to provoke me to commit crimes, and no matter how many strange ideas he infused into my mind to mislead me onto the path of stalking SDW, I still couldn't succeed in giving SDW and her gang enough reasons to persuade law enforcement to take me down. I was already exerting my maximal effort to become a 'bad person', but, because I wasn't born with a criminal nature, and because I lacked experiences in criminal and perverted conducts, I just can't become 'bad enough'. The Hardliners permitted Mr Homeland Security CO chief to do this in order to achieve their own agenda: they knew that, because I didn't have the right nature to become the delusional and perverted misogynist psychopath which both [Mr] Homeland Security CO chief and Kiersten's Secret Society desperately wanted me to become, I would in the end only become something which 'sort of' looked like it and yet fell far short of it, a 'half-way there', so that the Secret Society would have to make false reports in order to cover the 'other half'. In this way, the ICJ trial can be stalled, since, then, both parties would be guilty – and the TMU would find it unjustifiable to grant the Secret Society's wishes while not clearing me as completely innocent. It's likely that the TMU would have at this point instructed SDW: 'Ms Sheehan, we have seen no evidence that the suspect has "stalked" you. We seriously suggest that you seek psychiatric help when you see others stalking you and yet they have done nothing out of the ordinary and have no such intention. If the suspect's writing about you on his blog bothers you, you have to bring up the matter to him, or file a complaint in a civil case. This kind of matter does not fall within the competence of the stalking and sex crimes units of the city's police department. Writing about people on the Internet is not a

- (4) 1:09 PM, Shizuka rejoined the discussion.
- (5) 1:58 PM, SDW called upon a Tucson, Arizona, volunteer (2).
- (6) 2:08 PM, an Athens volunteer examined my dumb video of my scanning my head with CC-308. (“Even when he’s this crazy, the TMU still...”)
- (7) 2:22 PM, the Tucson, Arizona, volunteer again.
- (8) 5:11 PM, SDW called upon a LUG buddy again (3).
- (9) 5:45 PM, a Nicaragua volunteer examined my front page.
- (10) 6:23 PM, SDW called upon a Miami volunteer (4).
- (11) 6:33 PM, SDW herself came to examine my pollution of the TI discursive field/ delusions about her (/gang-stalking/) (5).

By this time, Homeland Security CO chief had decided upon remotely controlling me to “stalk” Carolyn as the best way to revive his warning about me with law enforcement and in the ICJ. However, I would immediately be interrupted.

- (12) 6:54 PM, Shizuka rejoined the discussion again.
- (13) 9:46 PM, an Orange, California, volunteer examined “Periphery, II”. (What? About Karin? To discredit the CIA’s evidence?)
- (14) 10:03 PM, an Australia volunteer examined Angelica’s naked picture (c).
- (15) 11:55 PM, another Australia volunteer examined Angelica’s naked picture (d).
- (16) 12:10 AM, another Russia volunteer examined Angelica’s naked picture (e). (Angelica was with volunteers from 10 PM to 12:30 AM: “How do you convince the TMU that this is indeed my naked picture?”)
- (17) 1:14 AM, Dr P instructed a T-Mobile volunteer to examine my harassment of her with my blogging about her. (“He blogged about me like this, and yet the TMU...”)
- (18) 2:38 AM, SDW called upon a Louisiana volunteer (6).

There was of course plenty of brainstorming about my computer-hacking, harassment of my family members, and, most importantly, plagiarism (including an army officer from Fort Huachuca). As can be seen from the above, SDW was, of all the Secret Society women, the most distraught about the dismissal of the Homeland Security warning about me and spent the most amount of time trying to rectify the situation.

criminal matter, but a civil matter.’ You can just imagine how enraged SDW would have been: once again, somebody was calling her ‘crazy’ during her long years of complaining to law enforcement agencies about people’s ‘stalking her’ (or ‘gang-stalking’ her). Meanwhile, since the TMU had now obtained definitive evidence – all legally this time – that the Secret Society was using ‘victim confidentiality’ as [a] cover under which to conduct fraudulent activities and to deceive law enforcement agencies, their alert about this organization to the rest of the law enforcement community would be updated with the additional warning: ‘This gang is in the habit of requesting “victim confidentiality” in order to use it as a cover under which to defraud the law enforcement system.’ Presumably, the warning would also note that, since the sole raison d’être of Kiersten’s Secret Society was to persuade law enforcement to permanently imprison me and remove my website, it would never stop its activity until either I, or they, were put out of existence. The law enforcement system would have to contend with this Secret Society’s attempts to defraud it forever and ever until one, or both parties, were one day completely annihilated. While I had long ago stopped throwing bottles into Angelica’s [...] back yard in view of the consequences, women, now we understand, do not take ‘No’ for an answer.”

the torture has more to do with the ICJ case about the Syrian nuclear terrorism scandal. (Wrong.) Pain/anger attack over the requirement to waste time developing delusions and to discredit my past work. (Right.) 3:45 PM, Chinese fast food. The cashier couldn't calculate the price. Rude to her. She was rude too. Physical pain. Home Depot, and bought Ns. Bus 4 to SM/ WHLLYWD. Figured out more about the scandal/ torture. Off the bus at JC. The Mexican manager did not want me inside. Not clear if he knew about W, or because I looked disheveled. "Are you discriminating against me?" (Thus was I acquiring A/ K's characteristics.) (Perhaps.) Checked TRGTs. Bus 4 to WSTWD. Past my destination again because of the need to save time and read. Off at SPLVD. Upset over one's mental disintegration, attention-loss. No longer able to concentrate on any videos. Hearing loss. Decided to do Ns instead. 15 N. On the bus going to WSTWD.

6 PM, Starbucks, WSTWD. Wrote down the rest of the origin of my torture, 11 February. Very bizarre Middle-Eastern man came to sit in front of me to dance to his iPod music. Extremely severe physical pain, and reported it to the Starbucks employee (tried to lie), but she cannot remove him. (This is the pattern that has been developing: when I reported somebody's annoyance to the Starbucks employee, she would do nothing. When somebody reported my annoying behavior to the Starbucks employee, she would remove me. I don't know if this was programmed from the control center.) Smoked outside, and took Norcos. Severe physical pain lasted until 6:30 PM. Then the weirdo left. Although one was thus required to commit crimes and xxxxxx xxxxxxxxxx, one had already decided to commit crimes even without suffering physical pain. This is also a pattern that has been developing. Thus, A/ K are not content with my xxxxxxing xxxxxxxxxx, they still want me to suffer pain for their own enjoyment. (Again, it's always Mr Homeland Security CO chief and his buddy the Monkey who were torturing me, not A/ K.) Plus, I have completely mentally disintegrated, and look absolutely disheveled and sloppy, due to prolonged preoccupation with pain and pondering over the mysterious causes of pain. Also recorded somebody else's credit card information. And always tried to sit near AWFs in order to fit Kiersten's conception of me as desiring them but wanting to xxxxxx them out of one's inability to attain them. Did that multiple times in Starbucks tonight. Then, also discovered that I had missed my dental appointment. Then, posted:

By now, I have also become mentally retarded, and look like a piece of garbage, never showering, and never washing my cloth. I'm too busy, given my need to spend 6 hours a day committing crimes. To conform to Kiersten's conception of me, I have also been blatantly harassing pretty white females in the most pathetic way: trying to sit next to them whenever possible, trying to fetch things for them whenever possible, as if trying to become their little servant, and asking them all sorts of worthless questions in order to have a chance to talk to them (like: "Did the sun rise from the West side today?"). While doing so, I also try to look as mentally retarded and pathetic as possible (wearing dirty clothes). Although women don't report this kind of things to the police, hopefully, law enforcement has me under surveillance for terrorist reasons so that my performance does not get lost. And it has to be white females, so that I can conform to Kiersten's complaint about me (that I, a monkey-looking ethnic minority, love and hate white females out of [my] inability to attain them) which she has devised in order to make herself feel physically attractive. (I didn't know as yet that she was actually just projecting herself onto me.) Hopefully, law enforcement will soon warn people in other towns of the country (not here) about me, so that the American people can feel absolutely disgusted with me. The American people's disgust with me can then become evidence in the International Court of Justice to prove that I'm the most fucking disgusting piece of shit that has ever existed in human history. This, then, will help Russia rise as a super-power again, and save the world, through an ICJ judgment. (Actually, it would just help Homeland Security CO chief protect Russia from the CIA.)

The above was actually never posted on my blog: thus had Homeland Security CO chief missed his evidence. The pretty AWFs caused one to not want to leave, but left 11:08 PM to Taco, and then the bus stop. To Sunset. I had suddenly developed the intention to check on Carolyn's office again. While there, I saw that Carolyn had deleted her name from the Intercom on her office building, trying to deceive me into believing that she was not there anymore. (It was obviously Mr Homeland Security CO chief who had programmed my thought-process to cause me to develop the idea of checking up on Carolyn again – since he didn't succeed yesterday. Again, since the investigators' surveillance camera was still there on Carolyn's office building, my action would provide the Secret Society women with more reasons to pester the TMU about me tomorrow. This of course tells you that Mr Homeland Security CO chief and the Monkey were allowed to access only a small portion of the supercomputer that was interfaced with the chips inside my brain. They were not allowed to see the simulation results which would tell them what the future would be (what the consequences of their actions would be).)

3 W (9111/3, LZRSE). 2 N. 1 SPC. Then to Wilton. Physical pain when realizing that I have been duped into uttering misogynist statements, only in order to conform to Kiersten's false claim about my misogyny: SWS simulation has never shown that women going to work are destroying society. (Women going to work are destroying society because too many people are working, not because they are women. The one guy among all males who values women the most in this world is somehow required to make women believe that he devalues them and hates them, just so that one psychopathic woman, Kxxxxxxx, can make herself feel attractive.) (Again, while it's Homeland Security CO chief who was doing all this, the Invisible Hand might very well make this even truer in the future by substituting e.g. Ekaterina for Kxxxxxxx.) 1 W (TCP). Then 1 B at LWLB (4 total today). Failed at HISP store. Home. Terribly upset. The problem:

The CIA wants me to commit crimes because they have concluded that there are not enough crimes in American society. American society is too safe, and that's why people have very little tolerance for injustice. This low tolerance is manifested when Angelica created a whole international terrorism scandal simply because a bottle with a piece of paper in it had been thrown into her front yard. Thus, I have been working like a slave to do this country good, and yet I don't get paid, only tortured. Like a slave in the old south. That's why I hate the CIA: You tried to do them so much good after they have harmed you, and then they still harm you and exploit you like a slave. Then thought: the fact is that one would have gladly worked for them to do whomever good, or to accomplish their goal, and yet they choose to beat you and enslave you just to do the same good or accomplish the same goal. Like: they could have paid you to reap cotton, and yet they have chosen to beat you up and force you to reap cotton. Sadistic. They want you to hate them, basically, and you can't escape hating them.

(Again, I kept falsely blaming the CIA for my torture, not knowing that they couldn't really do anything about it when Homeland Security CO chief decided to torture me.) Then thought:

Upset because one is being victimized to do them good. If I was recruited to do something and then suffer harm, then I wouldn't be so upset, all because the meaning of pain is different. Like: you suffer harm to protect the loved woman, she praises you, and you feel good. But if she deceives you into an accident in order to collect insurance benefits from you, it might be the same amount of harm, but you'll hate her. Her attitude toward you is different, the latter is one of disposing of and exploiting. That has changed the meaning of pain.

(Now I make some sense.) Wrote this down, 5 AM. MST, "SWG". Required to think about K in order to produce evidence confirming Kxxxxxxx's claims about me. (This was of course just Homeland Security CO chief's sadistic wish. In any case, he wanted me to write down the above so that, when someone should ever read it – as the police would do next year – I could make a complete fool of myself. In the original version, I have also added the following conclusion:)

What I didn't understand was that I suffered because the Macrospherian program was about requiring me to produce mental states that were identical to my stalking victims'. My stalking victims were currently feeling that they had suffered tremendous injustice because the authority had refused to grant them what they had wanted, i.e. to annihilate me and then get validated as the victims of my sexual aggression. But they didn't have the capacity to ask themselves whether they deserved to be granted what they had wanted, i.e. whether I had really victimized them at all. They had been accustomed to assuming that, because they were women, they were automatically "victims", even when it was they who had stalked me and victimized me. I, on the other hand, because I still retained the capacity to ask myself this question, because I was still able to distinguish whether I deserved something when I wanted something, in order to cause me to feel that injustice had been inflicted upon me, the Macrospherians must allow injustice to be really inflicted upon me. Thus, I suffered injustice because I was too good a person; the Macrospherians are required to punish good people and reward bad people in the time being if they wanted to achieve justice in the end, i.e. if they wanted to correct the corrupt system which had forced them to punish good people and reward bad people.

(Again, while this was completely wrong at the time – except that the Secret Society women had indeed felt that law enforcement had wronged them by refusing to recognize them as the victims of my terrorism – something like this might happen in the future.)

Later (February/ March 2015) I would discover that a certain “Edgar Ivan Hernandez Camacho” from Mexico had linked up this chapter of mine from his Google Plus page on 3 June 2014. This Puebla volunteer was therefore just this “Hernandez Camacho”. This would make it seem almost as if he were not a volunteer for the Secret Society women but were really interested in my chapter about Aztec religion. (See especially his interests in Mircea Eliade.)

This "Hernandez Camacho" has an interest in Mircea Eliade

However, given that he linked up my chapter within a minute after seeing it (and since he would appear tomorrow again), we must assume that he was indeed told to do this by Homeland Security CO chief – the purpose being to enable faulty surveillance to intercept some temporary evidence into the ICJ as a way for Homeland Security CO chief to lock up the previous ICJ trial for the time being.

9:38 PM, I was editing my blog from Starbucks. I attempted to post on my blog the notes from this afternoon:

Kiersten's Vengeance, 12
Lawrence C. Chin
Mar. 2015; rewritten May – Jul. 2022.

If I had kept this blog post, it would certainly be Homeland Security CO chief's temporary evidence in the ICJ.

9:42 PM, 103.sub-70-197-78.myvzw.com, Costa Mesa, California,

70.197.78.103 - - [03/Jun/2014:22:42:38 -0600] "GET /blogs/2012/07/14/the-struggle-to-avoid-mind-control-suicidalthoughts/ HTTP/1.1" 200 10458 https://www.google.com/ "Mozilla/5.0 (Linux; Android 4.4.2; DROID RAZR HD Build/KDA20.62-10) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/35.0.1916.138 Mobile Safari/537.36"

Within 4 seconds, she came to the front page of my blog:

70.197.78.103 - - [03/Jun/2014:22:42:42 -0600] "GET /blogs/ HTTP/1.1" 200 35091 "http://www.lawrencechin2011.com/blogs/2012/07/14/the-struggle-to-avoid-mind-control-suicidal-thoughts/" "Mozilla/5.0 (Linux; Android 4.4.2; DROID RAZR HD Build/KDA20.62-10) AppleWebKit/537.36 (KHTML, like Gecko) Chrome/35.0.1916.138 Mobile Safari/537.36"

By this time, Homeland Security CO chief should have already informed the Secret Society women that I would "stalk" Carolyn in two hours. The women were jubilant. As the news spread among the large gang-stalking group, one of the volunteers nearby came to check on my crazy blog: "This stalker is dangerous because he's totally delusional, believing there are chips inside his brain..."

My plagiarism. Was this another volunteer whom the MSS had lent to the Secret Society women?

11:40 PM, I showed up in front of Carolyn's office. Let's review what we have said. Since Homeland Security CO chief had of course already informed the Secret Society women since yesterday that I was going to show up tonight around this time,<sup>60</sup> Veronica's investigators would have already set up all the necessary surveillance devices waiting for me to show up. Thus, at this moment, Kiersten, Angelica, Veronica, Carolyn, Karin, Dr P, and SDW must all be sitting in front of their computers watching me doing my "stalking" in real time. All of them would go back to the TMU tomorrow with the video from tonight to request that the Homeland Security warning about me be reinstated and the stalking case on me be reopened. (A waste of time: as you can expect, the TMU would of course eventually decide to not reopen another stalking case on me.)

Angelica's naked picture. (Also evidence for tomorrow.)

Let's summarize.<sup>61</sup> Today was the second day that the Secret Society women, after the TMU's latest

---

<sup>61</sup> In the original version, such was our conclusion at this point: "We of course must note that, from today onward until 11 June, all activities on SDW's Facebook group would cease. Evidently, because of the dismissal of her stalking claim against me, she had warned all her Facebook group members to not post anything on the group's page anymore – because a 'cyberstalker' was on the loose and could be tracking everyone's messages there. Was this bizarre? I could 'track' SDW's messages on this group because I was a member; and I was a member of this group because SDW herself put me there late last year – before she got all paranoid about me. When her stalking claim against me was dismissed, she must have complained to the TMU: 'But he can track my blog posts and my postings on my Facebook group!' Upon hearing that I was in her group because she herself had put me there, the TMU officers of course would have simply replied: 'Then you can remove him from your group, by which fact he wouldn't be able to see your postings there anymore.' But SDW would have shouted: 'No! Then he would know that something is up! And he will retaliate!' The TMU would then certainly refer to their 'updated' profile of me, on which it's stated that they had concluded that I was not dangerous and would not retaliate. The TMU was retracting their statement on Chaya's warning because, as everyone could see, I had known about Chaya's warning about me for more than ten years, since the very beginning (September 2003), and had even mentioned it in my story ('Government's Investigation of a Schizophrenic', II and III), and yet Chaya was still alive and well, living in the same apartment building in Beverly Hills. I had never bothered to retaliate – given that I was satisfied with having already ruined her therapeutic career. The TMU would further instruct SDW: 'If you post things on your blog, this means that you have given consent for anyone to look at it. If you don't want him to look at your blog, you can block his IP address.' Doing everything like everyone else did was of course too complicated for a woman, who required law enforcement to do for her dismissal of the Homeland Security warning about me, would mobilize volunteers to brainstorm how to convince any law enforcement authority that Homeland Security was all right about me.

- (1) 6:39 AM, a Ho Chi Minh City volunteer examined Angelica's naked picture (a).
- (2) 8:43 AM, SDW called upon a Sprint PCS volunteer (1).
- (3) 9:22 AM, a Murcia, Spain, volunteer examined my delusions about Karin and her meetup friends.
- (4) 10:12 AM, Shizuka rejoined the discussion.
- (5) 11 AM, Homeland Security CO chief instructed this "Hernandez Camacho" to link up my chapter on his Google Plus page in order to produce temporary evidence.
- (6) 12:32 PM, a University of Michigan volunteer examined my delusional mind and/ or my misogynist ideology.
- (7) 1:54 PM, a Moncton, New Brunswick, volunteer examined my delusions about synthetic telepathy.
- (8) 3:21 PM, Dr G agreed to make a complaint to the TMU about my violation of his intellectual property rights (the Toronto volunteer).
- (9) 3:53 PM, a Pennsylvania volunteer examined Angelica's naked picture (b).
- (10) 4:41 PM, an Oslo volunteer examined my delusions about Snowden.
- (11) 5:18 PM, Robin just rejoined the discussion.
- (12) 8:24 PM, a Mexico City volunteer examined my naked picture of Angelica (c).
- (13) At the same time, the Boss' family also intervened (the Taipei volunteer).
- (14) 9:42 PM, a Costa Mesa volunteer checked on my crazy blog – knowing that the "stalking" of Carolyn was about to happen.
- (15) 9:54 PM, I posted on my blog. Homeland Security CO chief's temporary evidence?
- (16) 11:40 PM, all the Secret Society women were glued to their computer screens watching me "stalking" Carolyn in real time.
- (17) 12:21 AM, a Darwin, Australia, volunteer examined my misogynist ideology as the reason why I kept stalking white women.
- (18) 1:23 AM, the Secret Society women asked a UCLA volunteer to start compiling evidences of my plagiarism for tomorrow's meeting.
- (17) 3:52 AM, a Paulding, Ohio, volunteer prepared evidence of my harassment of my family members.
- (18) 4:10 AM, an Opera Mini volunteer prepared evidence that I did paint Angelica nude (d).

We have of course not taken care to mention here the myriad of brainstorming during the day about how to prove to any law enforcement authority that I had indeed plagiarized.

4 June (Wednesday; extremely severe targeting; massive collection and arrest)

First, a note about myself. Slept. Woke up 12 PM. Watched more crying scenes in "Girl" and "Europa Europa". 1 PM, Tom N Toms. Found a 5 dollar bill on the sidewalk, a signal that I would be required to waste more money today. (Really? Or was it just a coincidence?) Sort of expecting Rod. He didn't what all guys had to do for themselves. SDW, along with the rest of the Secret Society, would steadfastly refuse to accept such 'anti-climax' – such undramatic conclusion to her stalking fears – and would continue to hold onto Chaya's warning as if it were valid forever, and use it to scare all her Facebook group members, so that everyone, frightened to her or his core, would post nothing on the Facebook group – until they couldn't hold off any longer. Meanwhile, SDW would cease posting on her blog also. Her only blog post for the month of June was the one for 18 June, an insignificant post, 'Organizations practicing trauma-based mind-control.' Again, we mark in red those portions which happen to possibly describe reality. With one qualification: SDW had most likely sent out the Homeland Security warning about me, not Chaya's warning, to all her Facebook group members (and then of course instructed everyone to keep it a secret from me).

show up, maybe in order to provoke me, while making it look like it's my own fault. Anger attack over the requirement for evil people to have good fortune. Required to xxxxxxx xxxxxxxxxx. Looked up Dr G's address information on 2:57 PM. Then extremely severe physical pain from 3 PM onward. Kiersten required me to xxxxxx Dr G. (Actually, it was just Homeland Security CO chief, who wanted me to commit crimes while the Secret Society women were arguing with the TMU on Carolyn's behalf. Or, perhaps, after Dr G had joined the complaint effort yesterday, he wanted Dr G to be further involved in order to reinforce Carolyn's case.) Required to xxxxxx xxxxxxxxxx. 3:30 PM, at Metro station, remotely controlled to suffer severe seizure attack, almost dragged away by strangers. A/ K and Panistas wanted me to be caught in surveillance cameras. (No, it's just Homeland Security CO chief who wanted some temporary evidence in the ICJ.)<sup>62</sup> Home Depot. Remotely controlled to be unable to break a bottle in school. Evidence that I couldn't do harm because of my mental retardation. Then remotely controlled to throw a bottle at a car. (The Monkey was trying hard to get me to act out in order to produce some temporary evidence for the ICJ.) Bought spray can. On Metro. Remotely controlled to get off the Metro at the wrong stop: evidence of my mental retardation. On Blue Line. Wes called, 5 PM: IMPCall-wesmetroWesmssacreamr\_6\_4\_14\_132-549PM.MP3. (Starting from 3:07:30 onward.) A/ K and Panistas – actually, just Homeland Security CO chief – have programmed me to describe violent, sadistic imaginaries about maiming xxxxxxxxxx, hoping that I may get myself further into trouble (insofar as I wasn't bad enough to enable the Secret Society women to use law enforcement to dispose of me). (You can easily imagine what had happened: the TMU had already rejected the Secret Society women's request on Carolyn's behalf, which itself had become unfavorable evidence in the ICJ. For this reason, Homeland Security CO chief wanted me to attack Dr G, commit more crimes, suffer seizure, act out on the street, and finally say crazy and violent things to Wes so that he can have at least temporary evidences in the ICJ to lock up the previous ICJ trial for the time being.)

Highlights of my conversation with Wes today: (1) I suffered particularly severe torture today from the control center. (2) My realization that it's not SDW who was targeting me, but Angelica and Kiersten. (Wes must know that I was still wrong.) (3) Upset upon discovering that the CIA's goal was for me to commit crimes for the rest of my life (3:11:00). (Wrong.) (4) The Syrian case had been restored, and the government was letting A/ K target me to transform me into their conception of me, all in order that, when they should fail, this would be evidence that I didn't fit their conception of me... (Wrong – but will the Invisible Hand really employ such tactic later on?) (5) The CIA people were really bizarre, paying back my kindness with cruelty... I had to spend more time than ever before committing crimes each day. A/ K wanted me to develop the desire to kill xxxxxxxxxx and talk about it over the phone, so that I could get myself further into troubles... But my interest was not in killing people, only in maiming people.... (Again, it's not the CIA or A/ K who were doing this, but Homeland Security CO chief.) (3:18:00). But I can't form any anti-xxxxxxx hate groups unless there are nation-states sponsoring it. My problem: I was an ineffective evil... This was thus Kiersten's problem: she had lost a lot of face when I couldn't become as violent as she had claimed I was. I was thus working full time trying to make Kiersten look good by becoming more violent, for all her friends were presumably watching me through police surveillance. (Again, it's not Kiersten, but Homeland Security CO chief who had lost face.)<sup>63</sup> I was also working full-time for the CIA, because they wanted more crimes in society in order

<sup>62</sup> In the original version, I of course wrongly assumed it was the Hardliners who wanted me to be caught in surveillance cameras.

<sup>63</sup> In the original version, my wrong conclusion at this point: "This was actually not what was going on at the present, but, per Macrospherian programming, will become what is happening later on, exactly when I shall be revising this paragraph, around mid-March next year."

to improve the quality of citizens (3:23:00).<sup>64</sup> (Again, it's Homeland Security CO chief who wanted me to say something crazy.) “I don't mind working hard to make Kiersten look good because the idea of making thousands of Americans suffer for her glory is very satisfying.” (Evidence that I was again delusional about my women victims – even though this was sort of true.) “I don't like the CIA because they should pay me for committing crimes, and I shouldn't spend more than two hours doing it each day, in order to leave time for studying, etc.” (Again, it's Homeland Security CO chief who should pay me.) (6) Then note Wes' example about fruit flies (3:26:00): “The CIA let subhumans become terrorists so that terrorism may become weakened...” Wes was presumably giving me a hint about what the CIA was doing from behind the scene: they were instructing law enforcement to not intervene when I was committing crimes, in order to let them see for themselves just how dangerous I could really be. Once law enforcement officers (like the detectives in the TMU) had seen that, after I had succeeded in causing approximately 1000 dollar property damages per day, I had pretty much reached my maximum capacity for criminal conducts, and that I couldn't much transcend this threshold no matter how hard I tried (such as causing harm to human bodies), then they would realize that there was no reality in Kiersten's and Angelica's demonization of me late last year. (Could I be right here?) Women's fear-mongering in the community about dangers and crimes and violence would then be completely discredited. The CIA was here to discredit the entire “culture of fear” which had engulfed America in the past two decades – the “culture of fear” which, at the grass-root level, was generated through women activists' fear-mongering about violent male criminals (as a way to increase women's control over society's resources and the male population), and which, on the level of political processes, was generated through the neocons' fear-mongering about “Muslim terrorists” (as a way to increase federal government's power at the local level). (Excellent analysis, even though it's a little over-speculation here.)<sup>65</sup> Then, the CIA knew me: I had no interest in wasting my time trying to do something unless I was certain that I could achieve some effect. I wouldn't bother to try to kill people unless I was certain that I had a fairly good chance of succeeding. Then: Kiersten had control over my targets, so that I often didn't get the satisfaction from hitting them.<sup>66</sup> (7) Then, about how Los Angeles was a bad place for committing crimes, for, here, Anglos constituted only a tiny minority of the population. (Again, Homeland Security CO chief wanted me to say something terroristic.) (8) Then, about how all this was gross violation of human rights, authorized only because of the previous International Court trial. (Sort of correct! Homeland Security CO chief had only obtained the right to torture me because of the previous ICJ trial.) Then, about BOL: “I really thought she would like me... I must really be a subhuman, since very person I had ever helped also wanted to harm me” (3:36:00). (Right! Even though BOL didn't harbor any hatred for me at all.)<sup>67</sup>

<sup>64</sup> In the original version, my conclusion at this point – was I correct? “A major theme in the Macrospherian program: Americans' brain has considerably deteriorated in the past two decades due to the dramatic falling of crime rates. This is, presumably, not a universal rule applying to all cultures in the world: i.e. it's not the case that, in every culture, increasing physical safety would cause the decline of intelligence and morals. It's presumably not so in some Asian countries, e.g. Japan. But, because of the way American society is organized, people will lose their mind and any notions about right and wrong when they no longer suffer misfortune. It says something about the degenerate nature of the American mentality.”

<sup>65</sup> We have to wonder whether Wes was here really speaking about the Invisible Hand's future plan: e.g. to let wastes like the Secret Society women represent the liberal left so that the liberal left can be weakened.

<sup>66</sup> In the original version, my interpretation at this point: “This, again, was not true, but will become true in March next year. Currently, it was Mr Homeland Security CO chief who had a certain amount of control over my choice of targets” – right – “and only so within the boundary of the Hardliners' agendas” – wrong. My confession “If they want me to be a xxxxxxxx, they need to sponsor me” might also be Homeland Security CO chief's evidence that Dr P was right about me: when I suffered from the delusion that I had been labeled a “terrorist”, I might really go do terrorist things.

<sup>67</sup> In the original version, my wrong interpretation at this point: “She had authorized my torture because this was the only possible way to accomplish her program to save the world. My suffering was simply too small a matter in comparison to the goal of saving human civilization.” Wrong! Although this might become true later on. “Meanwhile, I made my complaint

(9) Wes pretended to get confused: “You said you want to harm my mother?” Then: “The universe is constructed in such a way that I must be harmed.” Then I was upset over the fact that, even when I tried to harm people, I would still do them good... except Wes. There is no need for Americans to improve themselves through suffering... They might not have developed their potentials, but they are fine with that. Then, letting a genius develop his potential vs letting a dumb person develop his potential. (10) About maiming xxxxxxxxx with my buddies and filming it, and then telling them this is to develop their tolerance for injustice, i.e. it's for their own good (3:45:00). And all this to prove that Kiersten was correct about me. (Again, Homeland Security CO chief wanted me to say something terroristic.) (11) Kiersten's belief about the CIA's winning or losing (3:48:00). (More bullshit.) (12) Wes: How do you call a guy with no arms and legs in a swimming pool? We call him “Bob” (3:49:30). A woman with no arms and legs on a beach? “Candy”. (What was Wes trying to tell me here?) (13) About Em-press Dowager's cruelty. We should practice Nanjing Massacre on xxxxxxxxx (3:54:00). Dafour, not enjoyable. It had to be xxxxxxxxx. It had to be xxxxxxxxx in order to kill pain, otherwise it'd increase pain. (14) Wes: Holmes, a castle, a hotel, where xxxxxxxxx were slaughtered (3:59:00). (Again, why was Wes saying this? Will something like this happen in the future?) (15) All this to prove Kiersten correct and to make her look good, thus is the point of the game. “The damages I cause right now are too minor...” (4:03:00). About persuading people to harm others. It has to be a “group effort” in making myself look bad (4:06:30). (Again, will this happen in the future?) “The only point in hurting people is to convince them that Kiersten is correct about me.” (More like: convincing them that Homeland Security CO chief and the Secret Society women were right about me.) xxxxxxxxx also had to suffer harm in order to save Russia. (16) The example of the woman collecting insurance benefits from your injuries (4:12:00). (17) A Hispanic guy drove here (4:13:00). (I had produced such good evidences for Homeland Security CO chief that he just had to send in an agent to verify that it was indeed me who was talking on the phone (that the intercept was genuine).)

(Once again, Homeland Security CO chief had got me to say crazy things and make violent death wishes against xxxxxxxxx so that he could not only have evidence in the ICJ to temporarily lock up the previous ICJ trial for the time being but also testimonies to make his colleagues in the law enforcement business hate me and believe he had always been right about me – so that more people in the national security Establishment and law enforcement circles can protest against the recent dismissal of his masterful warning about me and the CIA's removal of me from a certain watchlist. However, you must notice that there was in fact some truth in some of the offensive and crazy things I had said here: Homeland Security CO chief remotely controlled me to break people's things indeed so that his star witnesses, the Secret Society women, can look credible, and the victims of my crimes were suffering indeed about the CIA's bizarre demeanor – that I had tried to save their lives before and yet that they had set me up with all these criminal women and Mxxxxxxx just to allow them to harm me – because I was ignorant, as yet, of the fact that their goal was to obtain from me brain scan images that were identical to my stalking victims'.” Wrong! I hadn't yet realized that I hadn't saved the CIA's lives at all – but this “brain scan images” thing might become true later on. And so my wrong interpretation continues: “Again, the founding members of Kiersten's Secret Society – Kiersten, Angelica, Dr P, and SDW – felt ‘betrayed’ by their society when law enforcement refused to annihilate me on ground of talking about them on the Internet just as I felt ‘betrayed’ by the CIA when they purposely abandoned me in the lions' den to let me get harmed. That is, the CIA needed to obtain from me those images which showed the brain's activity patterns corresponding to the emotion ‘anger and amazement over betrayal’. Once again, I had to be really victimized – really betrayed – in order to produce such brain scan images because I was reasonable enough to recognize that law enforcement didn't owe me the extermination of my fellow citizens just because they had talked about me, whereas the Agency can obtain from American women brain scan images showing the emotion of ‘betrayal’ by simply not allowing them to act as Kim Jong-Il did in North Korea. This International Court trial was truly designed to victimize the just and the good – even in a trial designed to correct its very criminal nature.” Again, something like this might very well happen later on.

in order to prevent Russia from being convicted. Finally, we must suspect whether the Invisible Hand was trying to obtain a certain ICJ judgment from Wes' story about Holmes, e.g. a judgment permitting him to hire people to build something and yet prevent the people building it from knowing what it was that they were building. For example, to enlarge the special ICJ court with more secret chambers and build more control centers and so on.)

Afterward, on the train again. Discovered that I was remotely controlled to forget to bring my USB cable, so that I can't protect the recording of my conversation by immediately uploading it. Pain, anger attack. Required to commit more crimes tonight. This is the Hardliners' programming, as you shall see: the evidentiary record required that I not record what would happen to me tonight. (Actually, it's just Homeland Security CO chief again.) At RDND. Catalina CF. Sat with a pretty AWF. 8:39 PM, pressed the wrong keys on my laptop, and my entire Word document disappeared: severe physical pain. 9 PM, store closed. Out. 12 N, 3 W, 3 SPC. 2 H. Tried 3 times breaking CTLNCF-W. At the bus stop by 10:30 PM, and the bus was supposed to come on 10:51 PM. After 30 minutes, it never came. 11:20 PM, RDND Police, and severe physical pain. Called a taxi, and took Norco. Then the bus came. Kiersten's intention: I was programmed to come to RDND just when the bus would break down or be late. (Wrong: it's just Homeland Security CO chief.)<sup>68</sup>

Paid 60 dollars to a taxi driver to drive me to WSTHLLYWD. Here I would continue collection to compensate the earlier targeting. 3 N. 1 W (Antonia's). Drank at a bar to wait until 2 AM. More pain attack when I discovered that my recorder had run out of space (couldn't upload). 1 W (The Gym: Private Fitness). 2 SPC. Then to Harmony. Stuck around for 20 minutes, and couldn't break it there. 2 W at La Bohème. Couldn't break the clothing store's (across the street from City Hall). While I was looking for more targets, the security car showed up. Avoided it. Hid in a street corner. Then a police car found me. Two extremely vulgar policemen came out, claiming that I might be breaking into cars. Actually, they came most likely because the security officers inside City Hall saw, from their surveillance cameras on the building, that I was trying to attack the clothing store, and called up both the security patrol and the West Hollywood police. The police officers tackled me down, handcuffed me, threw me into the police car, and searched all my things. They knocked off my glasses and wouldn't let me wear them to see what they were doing. I asked them what crimes I had committed. "Your birth", they claimed. Note that Homeland Security CO chief had made sure that I wouldn't get to record such golden confession from these two police officers. It would seem that these two officers had been allowed to listen to the intercepts of my conversation with Wes on both 23 May and this afternoon, and so were quite aware of my understanding of myself as a "subhuman", i.e. someone whom the police wouldn't even bother to arrest. They were so offended by my anti-American rambling this afternoon that they decided to act in accordance with my status as a "subhuman". Thus, while they claimed they were going to take me to jail for my warrant – taking care to not mention to me that they actually wanted to arrest me for attempting to break windows (they had at one time said something about breaking windows) – and while they also claimed I had stolen my laptop – by now I had truly believed that it was I who was going to get arrested, instead of SDW – they suddenly let me go, throwing all my things out of their car and scattering them all over on the street corner, and hurrying me to leave. They told me I was not welcome here and must not come back to this neighborhood. I had to pick up all my things in a hurry, and they laughed at me. I got to the bus stop, and witnessed them randomly stopping another <sup>68</sup> In the original version, our wrong conclusion: "Actually, it was the Hardliners who had allowed [Mr] Homeland Security CO chief to cause me the maximum [...] physical pain and frustration tonight, all in order to provoke me to commit more crimes tonight than usual. You'll soon see why." Actually, other than producing some temporary evidences, Homeland Security CO chief was just punishing me for his disaster today and in the past week.

car in front of them – simply for the sport of it. These two police officers were just the most vulgar officers I had ever seen. It seemed almost like they were acting, and so I was not severely angry. I was aware that it's all probably because I was seen in the cameras on the ceiling of City Hall. But one was determined to collect more damages. (It's really not clear how much I was correct here. But, in any case, the fact that the police had detained me tonight (even though they had then released me) was enough evidence for Homeland Security CO chief to lock up the previous ICJ trial for the time being.)

Rode bus 4 to Sunset. Got off near Stories. Walked one hour to find more TRGTs. 2 W (TRRMIA). The alarm had also sounded (VNTG). Then rode bus 4 to downtown, and rode past my stop again. Rode the bus back to Koreatown, and rode past my bus stop again. Remotely controlled to produce evidence showing me to be mentally retarded. Used the opportunity to eat at a different restaurant. Sunlight. Didn't get home until 7 AM. (Again, it was just Homeland Security CO chief punishing me for his disasters.)<sup>69</sup>

Additional notes for today: Again, throughout the day, continually listened to Irina Ortman's song. More wrong scenarios in the original version: I highly suspect that my misfortune tonight was entirely decided by the Hardliners after some bargaining. When they (or he) looked at the evidentiary record and saw that, in order to stall the ICJ trial, I, and not the women, needed to be arrested this time, they (or he) actually felt guilty (for my having to go through so much undeserved suffering just in order that he might monopolize my scientific discovery). Thus, he decided to make use of my self-understanding as a "subhuman" (enter it into the ICJ evidence) in order to spare me some jail time. He must have orchestrated some happening where the two worst (most easily provoked) officers of the West Hollywood Police Department got to, per chance, listen to the intercepts of my phone conversation, got enraged, and were then called to the scene in response to City Hall's security call. You can thus tell that the Hardliners' attitude toward me was mostly utilitarian and was not particularly characterized by grudges such as has characterized Mr Chertoff's stance toward me. (Will something like this bullshit happen later on?)<sup>70</sup>

<sup>69</sup> Again, we really have to admire this man for his utter lack of concern for third parties' wellbeing: to punish me, he had remotely controlled me to cause several thousands of dollars damages tonight, much more than normal. Just so that I can look bad and waste myself. The disappointment which business owners would soon wake up to is no concern of his – even if we assume that people would not object to the project of making me look bad.

<sup>70</sup> In the original version, more of my vaguely correct interpretations at this point: "Now, let's consider the Secret Society's operation today. At the outset, we should comment this. The Secret Society continued to send their false reports to the TMU's special email account. Meanwhile, the TMU was deliberating about my last night's visit to Carolyn's office. The reason why the TMU – with the Hardliners' permission, of course – had wanted to update my profile was certainly that, because their former, cartoonish profile of me had portrayed me as a most dangerous monster, it had, once fallen into the hands of the many women of the Secret Society – who had no friends and no goals in life, were not educated, and spent their entire life on the Internet, such as SDW and her online TI friends, and even Kiersten too – given them a once-in-the-life-time chance to make something meaningful and exciting out of their pointless, boring life, i.e. to become the 'victims' of my sexual aggression. Because their former profile had portrayed me as extremely dangerous, the TMU was obliged to open a case on me when any worthless woman was able to file a complaint against me for the slightest reason, as long as she did so on the basis of this scary profile. This was just too much trouble. Most of these women saw the stalking and sex crime units of the police department as some sort of Disneyland where they could have their fun complaining about being victimized by a monster and indulge themselves in government's sympathy and compensation while demonizing a male monster as a way to feel themselves superior. Thus a whole circus soon developed on Angelica's back, and a hundred women, most of whom I had never met, claimed to be 'stalked by me' – all because the TMU was careless enough to allow Chaya to demonize me. Their new, updated profile of me, which invalidated Chaya's warning, was extremely toned down in comparison to that previous one, so that, when I merely did something which everybody – especially a woman – would do from time to time, such as checking to see if a former acquaintance was still in the same place, this could no longer constitute enough cause for opening a 'stalking case' on me. The TMU must have already decided this morning that, unless

My plagiarism.

5:18 AM, I made additions to my 2 June blog post:

I continually checked on Carolyn in order to physically locate her, they would not give in to the Secret Society's demands. The TMU's objective was to deny these women the legal ground for entertaining themselves, when their life was too boring, with the extermination of suspects in law enforcement's database. Some time this morning the TMU officers must have explained this to SDW and the rest of the gang-members." Then the interpretation goes entirely wrong: "This would have, however, so enraged SDW and her female partners that they would immediately ask for references as to where they could appeal the TMU's decision. Of course, they still had the 'rights' to complain about law enforcement decisions, so that the TMU would have supplied them with such references. Perhaps somebody in the District Attorney's office (at the county level or at the state level). Thus, from now on, evidently, the Secret Society was sending its false reports to this 'higher authority' above the county police department. They would of course have also demanded 'victim confidentiality' – in order to file false complaints with impunity. Meanwhile, since the TMU's ability to make such decision was based on their new updated profile of me and the invalidation of Chaya's warning, the Secret Society, while filing false complaints, would also appeal to the 'new authority' in regard to this, i.e. that the TMU had, due to their 'sexism', watered down the warning concerning an extremely dangerous stalker to the status of a mere public nuisance whom they should not be concerned about. The TMU's correction of their former errors was inexcusable for the Secret Society – for it had taken away from many of these women their very meaning of life. If there were no dangerous stalkers walking around and if they were not the victims of these male monsters, what were they to do in their life?" The concluding sentence, marked in red, is however quite correct.

This must be the first visit ever since this chapter (“The birth of a mission”, DOC-C) was put up. This visit was of course utterly strange for it seems to indicate that the Russians were trying to discredit the evidence which the CIA would use once the previous ICJ trial should be reactivated. But that would mean that, within the past 30 minutes, the TMU had already rejected the Secret Society women’s request on behalf of Carolyn stating that there was no “stalking” because the Homeland Security warning about me wasn’t valid.

This is the second time today that a volunteer came to one of the chapters in “The birth of a mission” (here, DOC-B). What’s going on? Were the Russians again trying to discredit the CIA’s evidence?

Let’s summarize. Since early morning, the Secret Society women were preparing for their meeting with the TMU detectives on Carolyn’s behalf. Again, the goal was to force the TMU to validate the Homeland Security warning about me and reopen the stalking case on me.

- (1) 8:27 – 8:39 AM, Hernandez Camacho again: to certify for the TMU that I did plagiarize.
- (2) 9:13 AM, a Hong Kong volunteer made a special report to the TMU testifying about my delusions about my women victims’ going after me.
- (3) 9:17 AM, a University of Northern Iowa volunteer reported on my theft of my drawings from my family members.
- (4) 9:34 AM – did the Russians and Homeland Security send in a Phoenix volunteer to discredit the CIA’s evidence (DOC-C)? Did the TMU already reject Carolyn’s request to reopen the stalking case?

From now on, the Secret Society women would resume mobilizing volunteers to brainstorm how to prove to any law enforcement authority that Homeland Security was all right about me.

- (5) 10:42 AM, a volunteer from Scarborough Public Library, Toronto, brainstormed about how I did harbor delusions about mind-control technology.
- (6) 11:17 AM, a Palestinian volunteer examined my delusions about being involved with the CIA and gone after by Homeland Security (A).
- (7) 1:56 PM, a Karlsruhe, Germany, volunteer brainstormed about my plagiarism with my Yijing chapters.

- (8) 2:15 PM, a West Palm Beach, Florida, volunteer examined my delusions about Snowden.
(9) 2:43 PM, SDW called upon a Manchester, UK, volunteer (1).

2:57 PM, Homeland Security CO chief got me to search for Dr G's address – he was now thinking about getting Dr G to save Carolyn's case.

- (10) 4:37 PM, a Belleville, Ontario, volunteer examined my particular brand of misogynist ideology.
(11) 5:06 PM, a Silver Spring, Maryland, volunteer examined my naked picture of Angelica (a).
(12) 6:15 PM, Angelica was asking a Ciudad Nezahualcoyotl volunteer about how to use my family pictures to convince any law enforcement authority that Homeland Security was all right about me (b).
(13) 7:51 PM, a UK volunteer examined my delusions about synthetic telepathy.
(14) 8:03 PM, a Thomasville, Georgia, volunteer examined my delusions about being involved with the CIA and gone after by Homeland Security (B).
(15) 8:51 PM, a University of Virginia volunteer examined my violation of my family members' privacy.
(16) 9:20 PM, Shizuka rejoined the discussion.
(17) 10:30 – 10:40 PM, both Shizuka and Jennifer Day discussed me with the volunteers (Los Angeles and Quebec City).
(18) 11:02 PM, the Secret Society women got a physicist from Saha Institute of Nuclear Physics to brainstorm how to falsely report me for plagiarism.
(19) 2:05 AM, a Georgia volunteer examined Angelica's naked picture (c).
(20) 2:48 AM, a Japanese volunteer did the same (d).
(21) 3:38 AM, Shizuka again (Jakarta).
(22) 4:24 AM, the Russian intelligence sent in a volunteer to discredit the CIA's evidence for the second time (DOC-B).

We can thus see that, when the brainstorming resumed, the Secret Society women were covering every characteristic which they had attributed to me: (a) my delusions about being chipped in the brain; (b) my delusions about my involvement with the intelligence agencies; (c) my delusions about famous people; (d) my misogynist ideology; (e) my violation of my family members' privacy; and (f) my plagiarism. (We of course didn't list most of the brainstorming about my plagiarism.) This makes us wonder whether our scenario in the original version – that the Secret Society women were planning to bring their case to an oversight authority (such as the Los Angeles Police Commission – Office of the Inspector General) – might actually be correct.
